Honorees for this year's homecoming will be the 1962 graduates. The F. H. A. under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Reina will hold an open house from 6 - 7 p.m. in the Home Economics Department where the honorees will assemble and visit with faculty and homecoming court.

These are the 1962 seniors: Glenn Theriot, Alvin Ray Mudd, Judith Faye Boudoin, Tommy Brousard, Ernest Daigle, Arthur Foley, F. J. Gaspard, Gwen Hebert, Leon Hebert, Barney Kornegay, Frances Welch, Bernice LaBove, Connie Mañotte, Ann Martin, J. A. Miller, Ruben Morales, Jackie Richard, Buddy Skidmore, John Allan Vincent, Susan Wall, Curney Fontenot, Wiley Mudd, Peggy Rains and Lynn Savoie.

The school has lost contact with some of these graduates and if any of them fail to receive a personal invitation to the homecoming, this notice will serve as an invitation.

Donations are sought here

The Cameron Junior Athletic Association is seeking contributions for football equipment for Cameron elementary school.

"This is one way to help a boy stay off the streets and become a better citizen," a spokesman said.

Donations may be sent to: Cameron Junior Athletic Assoc., P. O. Box 246, Cameron, La.

Revival set at Baptist church

Rev. S. J. Sylvest, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Cameron, announces that a revival will be held at the church Oct. 17-24 with services each night at 7 p.m.

Rev. Franklin Atkinson, pastor of Boulevard Baptist church of Lake Charles, will fill the pulpit during the revival. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dyson will be in charge of the music.

Cottage prayer meetings are being held in the homes of church members until the revival begin.

Port Arthur bridge damaged

County Commissioner L. L. Roberts of Jefferson County, Texas, reported that Gulfgate Bridge, recently damaged by a passing ship, is still safe for automobile traffic.

The damage was checked several days ago and a load limit of 10 tons was set. Since most passenger cars weigh under 5,000 pounds, there would be no danger for them to use the bridge, Roberts said.

Many Cameron parish residents use the bridge in coming over into Port Arthur, along the Hug-the-Coast highway.

Two charged

Barbara B. Godette of Cameron, has been charged with aggravated battery and carrying a concealed weapon, after she shot James Willis with a 22 caliber pistol, according to the sheriff's department. She has been released on a $750 bond.

Also charged with aggravated battery is Ham Brown of Cameron, after he hit Bernard on the head with a piece of steel. He is being held in the Cameron parish jail.

ASCS to meet

A meeting of the Cameron Parish ASCS County Committee will be held in the courthouse Thursday, Oct. 7, at 9:30 a.m., according to Francis Klein, committee chairman. The calendar of the upcoming committee election will be approved.

Ambulances to be sold here

The South Cameron Memorial Hospital will receive bids on Oct. 22 for the sale of two ambulances which will no longer be needed when the hospital discontinues ambulance service on Nov. 1.

A two-mill tax which would have financed the ambulance service by the hospital was badly defeated by voters in the hospital district recently and the hospital board says it has no funds to continue the service.

The hospital had taken over the service several months ago after ambulance service was ended by O'Donnell Funeral Home.

At that time, the police jury loaned the hospital $8,000 with which to purchase the ambulances from O'Donnell.

The police jury Monday approved the hospital board's action in putting the ambulances up for sale.

After Nov. 1 there will be no ambulance service in lower Cameron parish.

Lumber company sold at Creole

One of the oldest businesses in Creole, Creole Lumber Company, has been sold, it was announced this week.

The firm and building was sold by Enos (Buster) Sturlese to Lasin Primeaux and his son, J. T. Primeaux.

A native of Creole, Lasin Primeaux was a carpenter with Cities Service Refinery for 27 years prior to his recent retirement.

His son, J. T., had been working as a crain operator for Crain Bros. of Grand Chenier.

Both will devote full time to their new business.

The firm will continue to handle lumber and building materials and also will be a dealer for Hurricane Fence.

Jr. deputies to be organized

Boys ages 14 through 18 interested in the junior deputy program sponsored by the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department are invited to attend a meeting at 9 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 9 at the cameron courtroom in Cameron, according to Riley Richard, who is in charge of the program.

A new unit for the Cameron, Creole and Grand Chenier area is being formed and applications from boys will be accepted at the Friday meeting.

Sheriff Claude Eagleson and Deputy Richard will explain the program.

The first junior deputy unit in the parish was organized last year at Hackberry.

Citizenship award is set

Ladd A. Wainwright, Commander of the Doxey-Vincent Post No. 10019, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Cameron announced that the local post will again sponsor its annual citizenship award in December.

Letters are being sent out this week to all civic organizations in Cameron parish asking them to submit the name of a person who will receive the outstanding citizen award at the banquet to be held honoring them.

Clubs are being asked to submit information about past accomplishments of the nominee being submitted. These accomplishments should reflect the year 1970, but not exclusively, Wainwright said.

The deadline for accepting the nominations will be noon, Oct. 17.

Reward offered

A $500 reward has been offered to anyone who finds and tows to the Crain shop docks at Grand Chenier a $4000 boup that washed away in the Gulf during Hurricane Edith.

The reward was offered by the East Cameron Port and Harbor District. The boup was the mid channel boup in the new Mermentau river channel that was recently opened.

The boup was last spotted near Block 17 of Joseph Harbor.

Moutons win trip

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mouton, owners of Cameron's Western Auto Store, are off to Spain for a 10 day tour. They will stay at the Atalaya Park Hotel on the Costa Del Sol in Spain and will also spend three days in Tangier, Africa.

The Mediterranean Holiday was won in Western Auto's dealer volumn contest in which over 300 of the more than 5000 Western Auto Stores participate in each year. This is the third all-expense paid vacation won by the Moutons since they have been operating the local Western Auto store. They previously won trips to Bermuda and to Key Biscayne, Fla.

Lacassine to be open for public hunting

Approximately 6,400 acres of the Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge will again be opened to public waterfowl hunting during the 1971-72 season according to Refuge Manager James H. Roberts.

The area consists of all refuge lands lying south of the Intracoastal Waterway and is bordered on the south by Grand and Mistake Lakes, and on the east and west by the Mermentau River and Little Lake Misere respectively. The area is well marked by public hunting signs.

Hunting shall be in accordance with all applicable State and Federal regulations and the following conditions:

(1) Hunting season: Nov. 11-28, and Dec. 11-jan. 9, 1972, five one-half days per week, Wednesday - Sunday. No hunting on Christmas Day. No one allowed on the area from Nov. 29 through Dec. 10.

(2) Hours: One-half hour before sunrise until 12 noon. Hunters may enter the refuge two hours prior to the legal shooting time and must be out of the hunting area by 1 p.m.

(3) Only temporary blinds made of native vegetation or portable blinds may be used.

(4) No camping permitted on the refuge.

(5) No airboats may be used.

(6) No hunting permitted within refuge waterways and hunters must station themselves a minimum of fifty yards inland from all streams and canals. Hunting lake edge is permissible.

(7) All guns must be encased or dismantled while traveling through refuge waterways.

(8) No hunter may interfere with any refuge trapper during his daily rounds nor disturb any trap or set.

(9) During the hunting season only, small boats and pirogues may be left on the area at the owners risk, but must be mocored in such manner that they will not block traffic at any access point, and must be removed on the last day of the hunt.

There are no restrictions as to the number of hunts by individuals and no permits will be required. Therefore, your state hunting license and federal duck stamp are all that are required.

Maps, regulations can be obtained by writing Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge, Rt. 1, Box 186, Lake Arthur, La. 70549.

Teacher raises are postponed

Raises for Cameron parish school personnel will be delayed until the outcome of a suit against Jefferson Parish school board is known, it was decided at a special meeting of the Cameron parish school board on Sept. 27.

James Prescott, executive secretary of the Louisiana School Board Association, advised the board that it could not increase the raises until the courts decided whether it would be allowable under the President's price and wage freeze.

Damages to school facilities also were discussed at the meeting.

History group sets election

An election of officers will be held at the first regular quarterly meeting of the Cameron Parish Historical and Genealogical Society to be held Thursday, 7 p.m., Oct. 7 in the Cameron Library.

J. Berton Daigle, Cameron Parish clerk of court will be the guest speaker. He will outline how his office can be used by the society in gleaning historical information and will list the types of historical data that is kept in the clerk's office in the Cameron courthouse.

Letters are being sent out this week to those who have expressed an interest in belonging to the organization. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Riley Richard gets TV honor

Riley Richard, Deputy Sheriff in the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department, received a special award this week from KATC Channel 3 News in Lafayette. It is an honorary reporter award.

Deputy Richard assisted the radio and TV station all during the recent Hurricane Edith by giving reports by telephone on inquiries from the station.

The award reads "For valuable assistance in the coverage of a news story of importance to the people of Acadiana, and for helping KATC to continue its policy of community service through fast, accurate, unbiased reporting of vital issues."

Insurance rate cut announced

Word was received this week from H. J. Gembhouser jr., Superintendent of rates with the Louisiana Rating and Fire Prevention Bureau in New Orleans, that the east and of the Cameron Fire Protection District No. 1 will get an automatic 25% cut on fire insurance rates. This is in the area from the VFW Hall to the Winston Sells home.

The reason for the rate decrease was the installation of a fire truck at the fire stub-station No. 2 east of town. When the local fire department purchased the new truck recently it was decided to keep the old one and put it out at the sub-station.

Gembhouser stated this because of the installation of a new fire station, dwellings that were formerly located beyond the three mile fire department running distance from the main fire station, and are now within three mile running distance of fire station no. 2, are subject to Nation Bureau Fire Underwriters Class 7, effective Sept. 27.

Cameron Fire Chief Ray Burleigh said that the local fire department has been working to get this plan in effect for five years.

Prescotts are written about

The John Prescott family of Johnson Bayou were featured in a story in Sunday's edition of the Port Arthur News concerning their hobby of digging for Attakapa Indian artifacts in the Johnson Bayou area.

W. T. Block and W. D. Quick, Nederland, Tex., authors wrote the article. In it, it states that the Johnson Bayou area was once known as Tuckapaw, Texas before the 1800's.

Supt. to speak about schools

On Monday night, Oct. 11, at 7:30 p.m. there will be a public meeting sponsored by the Richard Bros. Post, American Legion at the Post Home in Creole, according to Jules Dronet, Post Commander.

Cameron Parish Superintendent of Schools Wilmer Smith will speak on the local school system and the program of work.

Refreshments will be served by the Ladies Auxiliary. The public is urged to attend.

Around the Capitol

By JACK GOULD

BATON ROUGE -- Remembering that this column has sometimes made predictions about political contests, some veteran readers have challenged this scribbler to make at least a guess about the current Democratic gubernatorial primary fight.

With no shame, after all these years, this is a frank admission that this time our pet crystal ball is not only cloudy -- it's cracked! (Say--who said that?)

How about all the polls? The very few that can be trusted show only that the lead has changed several times; and that more and more voters, just one month away from Nov. 6 Election Day, have not made up their puzzled minds!

Well then, how about a "guess?" The only possible guess is to say why not one of the so-called leaders can possibly make it.

LT. GOV. C. C. "TADDY" AYCOCK is known far and wide as an honest man. But as the No. 2 man, how come he didn't clean up all of the corruption most candidates now say has existed for years?

FORMER GOV. JIMMIE DAVIS has the most experience and projects a "father" image. But how come, as governor twice before, he didn't do all the things most candidates say the state needs?

CONG. EDWIN EDWARDS may get much of the female, Cajun and black vote. But how come he was unable to get those federal bandits in Washington to give back our millions in tidelands funds?

SEN. J. BENNETT JOHNSTON had some good ideas when he was in the Legislature. But how come so many rich people over the state gave him "millions" unless they expected him to make more millions for them?

GILLIS LONG has been campaigning hard for a year, and is expected to get much of the black vote. But how come he attacked a candidate in another race and slowed progress on the North-South Expressway?

CONG. SPEEDY LONG has apparently done a good job representing his area in Washington. But how come he wants to take a cut in salary just to move to the Mansion in Baton Rouge?

JAMES W. MOORE has made a success in business and in running state highways. But how come he doesn't realize the people prefer politics, not business, in the largest business in the state?

FRANK T. SALTER has some good ideas about tax exemptions, for instance. But how come he doesn't realize that the "powers-that-be" like things the way they are, and not necessarily for the public good?

SEN. JOHN G. SCHWEGMANN really gave the Domed Stadium a good ride. But how come he doesn't realize the public has now shrugged off that issue as a dead horse?

There you are, fellows, some of the many reasons that none of you can make the runoff election. You said it, about yourselves. (And Dave Treen, the Republican, agrees with all of you!)

The remainder of you Democratic candidates for governor, sorry about that, fellows. That's the way it looks from here.

Want to call the whole thing off?

Persian punz

The name "punch" -- a favorite party drink -- is derived from the Persian word punz, meaning five. The reason is because the drink was originally made with five ingredients -- arrack, lime juice, sugar, spice and rosewater.

For a cool refreshing "punch" this summer, use sparkling chilled cranberry juice says the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service. Cranberry juice and sauce are in plentiful supply this month.

Cameron HD club plans for Achievement Day

The September meeting of the Cameron Home Demonstration Club was held in the home of Mrs. Wendell Murphy, Mrs. Burl LaBove presiding. Visitors were Mrs. Willy Lewis and Mrs. Berkley Simpson of North Carolina, Mrs. Deanna Willis of Cameron and 4-H member, Miss Carla Reyes.

Members were reminded of Achievement Day, to be held Oct. 23, and encouraged to participate in the various handicraft, baking and preserving events.

It was also decided to hold a sale of handmade articles and food on Oct. 26. Mrs. LaBove requested that articles to be placed on sale be brought to the October meeting.

Mrs. Charles Hebert, Horticulture Leader, suggested planting mustard greens and carrots in a flower bed for fall vegetables. Mrs. Oscar Reyes, Health Leader, discussed the possible effect of carbohydrates on teeth.

Mrs. Annie Swindell offered several household hints. Mrs. Ward Fontenot reviewed a recent list of best selling novels for the club's information. Mrs. Braxton Blake reported on several areas the club may be interested in touring.

Those members asked to bring articles for auction to the October meeting were Mrs. Charles Rogers, Mrs. Hubert Smith, Mrs. Annie Swindell and Mrs. Harold Savoie.

SC council has election

The student council of South Cameron High School held its first meeting Oct. 4. The following students were elected to serve as officers: president, Mary Kelley; vice-president, Re Risa Reina; secretary, Gay Gibson; treasurer, Jeny Canik; reporter, Mitchell Kelley; sgt.-at-arms, Cedric Hebert.

Elected as student council members were Tina Theriot, Rufus McEvens, Edie Jones, Dexter Harrison, Nancy Adaway and Kent Mudd.

The first business meeting was to plan for homecoming which will be Friday, Oct. 15, when the South Cameron Tarpons host the Vinton Lions.

Athletic meet is set

The Johnson Bayou Athletic Association will meet on Monday, Oct. 11, at 7 p.m. at the Johnson Bayou High School, according to Paul Jacobs, president. He urges members and interested persons to attend.

Protect trees hit by storm

Winds of Hurricane Edith caused considerable damage to trees and the resulting broken limbs, scarred bark and split trunks make inviting conditions for shade tree borer insects.

E. A. Cancienne, entomologist for the LSU Cooperative Extension Service, explains dead broken limbs provide an excellent host for shade tree borers, and open wounds in a tree make it easy for these insects to enter the wood.

The borers can kill a tree if they get established, he says, and it is difficult to successfully treat a tree once it is infested with borers. Prevention is the best method of controlling damage by these insects.

Broken limbs should be removed from all damaged trees and all stubs should be cut flush to the trunk or main branch. Treat all open wounds with a tree healing compound available at tree nurseries or feef and seed dealers.

For further protection, the main trunk should be sprayed thoroughly up to eight feet above the ground with benzene hexachloride (BHC) or Thiodan.

Cancienne recommends the following mixtures for effective prevention of shade tree borers. Use 10 tablespoons of benzene hexachloride emulsifiable concentrate (one pound per gallon rage) to a gallon of spray. Thiodan concentrate (two pounds per gallon rate) is mixed at one tablespoon per gallon of spray.

As with all insecticides, he warns, read the label and follow all proper application procedures and safety precautions.

Maintain flavor

Uncooked poultry maintains desirable flavor and texture longer in freezer storage than cooked poultry, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

National 4-H week is being observed

National 4-H Week is being observed this Oct. 3-9, Cameron parish by the 650 club members. This year's theme is "4-H Bridges the Gap".

For the club members in Cameron parish who returned to 4-H clubs when school opened, or signed-up as new members this fall the observance falls just about the time the folks at home have begun to realize that everyone in the family is a 4-H'er too.

Every member of a 4-H club chooses from among many special subjects which require home study and related activities. Called projects, these activities vary in the amount of family cooperation they produce.

Boys and girls from all over Louisiana share one thing in common in 4-H, they learn by doing. Those who remain in 4-H for a year or two usually get to meet other 4-H'ers from different parts of the state. Senior members often attend a citizenship course in Washington, D.C. Statewide project winners earn trips to the National 4-H Congress held every year in Chicago.

In addition, area 4-H members can attend summer camps, visit several cities on educational trips and attend summer short course on the LSU Baton Rouge campus.

The 4-H clubs in Cameron parish are held in the schools. Once enrolled, 4-H members select a project, receive free instructional materials and them proceed on a program of guided study. The projects cover a wide range of subjects interesting to children and adults alike.

Uland Guidry and Miss Patsy Granger are the 4-H agents for Cameron parish and said that there are about 100 different projects which a 4-H'er can enroll in. Now is a good time to join 4-H, says the agents. Call 775-5516 or visit the agents in the County Agent office in the Cameron courthouse.

Thank you said for aid given

The little league and peewee football players of Cameron Parish and their coaches would like to thank everyone who helped make the first Cameron Parish PeeWee Football Jamboree a success.

We would like to especially thank the South Cameron Athletic Association for sponsoring our jamboree, Mr. Reina for letting us use South Cameron's facilities; everyone who made concessions and worked at the game; Baron Thomas, Billy Pinch and Orrie Cantk for refereeing all games and everyone else who had any part in making this jamboree a success.

Without all of the help, donations and time that so many people gave, our jamboree would not have been the success it was.

Again we say "thank you" to everyone who made all of this possible.

Benny Welch, president
Cameron Parish PeeWee Football League.

Parish 4-Hers meet

CAMERON ELEM.

The Cameron Elementary 4-H Club held its first meeting of the school year on Sept. 7, in the school auditorium.

A skit was given about how the Star Spangled Banner happened to be written. The narrator was Kevin Colligan. Timothy Alexander played the part of Francis Scott Key. James Doxey, Richard Kiffe, and Timothy Colligan were prisoners on the British ship, the "Victoria." The skit ended with all the members singing the Star Spangled Banner, led by club sponsor, Wayne Kenhaw.

Club members filled out enrollment cards. Mr. Guidry and Miss Granger explained the different categories. Cecile Saltzman and Debbie Theriot collected the dues.

7 reasons why Louisiana citizens will re-elect Bill Dodd

1 EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS
Superintendent Dodd has three degrees: a B.A. and an honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws from Northwestern State University and a Juris Doctorate Degree from Louisiana State University. Dodd believes that a superintendent, who must set educational standards for other people, should meet high standards himself.

2 EXPERIENCED AS AN EDUCATOR
Superintendent Dodd has a record of 40 years of constructive service to education - from a teacher, assistant principal, legislative author of pro-education statutes to a member and president of the State Board of Education and State Superintendent.

3 GOVERNMENTAL EXPERIENCE
Superintendent Dodd was a state representative, lieutenant governor and state comptroller before his service on the State Board of Education and as superintendent. He knows government.

4 LEGAL QUALIFICATIONS
As a lawyer, Superintendent Dodd has the legal know-how to secure from the federal government Louisiana's maximum share of federal education funds which has increased from $8 million in 1964 to $87 million in 1971.

5 PUBLIC PARTNERSHIP
Through task forces and study committees, Superintendent Dodd has initiated public participation in Louisiana education.

6 RACIAL TENSIONS MINIMIZED
Court-ordered integration has created less friction in our schools than in any other Southern state, thanks to the foresight of State Department of Education officials. The department has gone strictly by the law. Consequently, Superintendent Dodd has the confidence of both races because he has not stooped to demagogic appeals.

7 MODERNIZING SCHOOL SYSTEM
Superintendent Dodd has been hard at work converting the state's schools from an antiquated "3-R's" system to one meeting the needs of all our people in modern America.

Fair parade to feature train

The 1972 Cal-Cam Fair Parade will be at 9 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 9, in Sulphur. The parade chairman, James Minsee announces the "ELSIE GOOD FOOD LINE TRAIN" - a 60 foot miniature replica of a 1857 train consisting of a locomotive, coal car, two flat cars and a caboose - manned by an engineer, fireman, brakeman and a conductor (Plus ELSIE, of course) will appear as one of the featured entries in this year's big parade.

This train was built especially for the Borden Company by the same folks who design and build the "Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey" Circus Trains and Floats in Sarasota, Fla.

The engine features a shrill steam whistle, a clanging bell, plus lots of smoke coming out of the smoke stack. The caboose features colorful window flower boxes of daisies, Elsie's favorite flower.

Fishing to end at Laccasine

The Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge will close to fishing October 15 according to Refuge Manager James Roberts. The refuge has been open to fishing since March 1.

Fishermen are cautioned that the entire refuge is closed to fishing rather than just the pool area during the period October 15 through March 1 in order to minimize disturbance to waterfowl and to avoid conflicts with refuge management activities during the fall and winter period. This includes the refuge canals behind Streater Ranch and the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipeline Canal south of the Intracoastal waterway.

Fishing this season has been sub-par within the pool and large strings of bass and panfish were hard to come by. The usual excellent fishing has been marred by low water levels the past two years.

According to fish surveys taken by LSU Extension Service biologists during the summer a decrease in number of fish in the keeper size class was evident, but there was an abundance of fingerling bass and panfish, denoting an excellent spring spawn.

With a return to more normal water levels, fishing during the forthcoming season should be excellent.

Nutcracker will open Ballet season

Tchaikovsky's beloved "Nutcracker" will open the Lake Charles Ballet Society's 1971-72 season, marking the organization's ninth year of offering a professional dance series to Southwest Louisiana.

Second concert on the series will be the Houston Ballet Company and third will be the Southwestern Regional Ballet Festival Gala, culminating the four-day festival to be hosted by Lake Charles Ballet Society this spring.

The Tchaikovsky fairy-tale favorite, the "Nutcracker," will become a reality to Southwest Louisiana during the Thanksgiving holidays. This year marks the fifth time the Society has presented the local production.

Featured in the performances to be staged at the Arcade Theater will be Ballet Joyeux, resident performing company of Lake Charles Ballet Society, and noted guest artists.

In response to many requests the Houston Ballet, first professional company in the Southwest, will return to Lake Charles Feb. 5, 1972. The vibrant young company opened Ballet Society's 1969-70 season and received applauded encores for its vitality and artistry.

In March, the society will host the Southwestern Regional Ballet Festival. This will be the first time the nationally recognized festival has been held in Louisiana. The four-day program opens March 23 and features the Gala Performance March 25 in McNeese State University Auditorium.

Mrs. Charles Lloyd is membership chairman and may be contacted at 909 Short Lane, Lake Charles. A general membership is $7. With the purchase of one or more $7 memberships, a student ticket may be purchased for $5.

To the Citizens of Ward 6 Cameron Parish

I wish to take this means of asking you to re-elect me as to the Cameron Parish Police Jury.

During my tenure in office I have brought you over $3 million in public improvements, namely: hard surface roads, recreation center, public water supply, drainage, improvement to fire department and numerous other items with very little increase in taxes.

If re-elected, I pledge to work with other members of the police jury and other public officials in an attempt to effect a mosquito control district. It is my feeling that this can be worked out effectively.

I also pledge to support any other public improvements that the majority of my people are in favor of.

On Nov. 6th, go to the polls to re-elect a proven performer, with years of valuable experience who is ready and willing to devote all the time necessary to work for you. I feel as though I have the ability and education to do the job.

Cameron teachers

(EDITOR'S NOTE -- This is the last of a series of stories on school personnel at Cameron elementary school. Next week another school will be featured.)

Mrs. Fae Jones and William O. Morris of Cameron elementary school are pictured above.

Mrs. Jones is beginning her second year as secretary at the Cameron Elementary School. She received a BS degree from LSU in accounting.

Mr. Morris is in his sixth year as principal of Cameron Elementary School and his 14th year in Cameron Parish. Mr. Morris graduated from La. Tech with a BS in health and physical education and began his teaching career at Creole High School.

After serving three years in the Air Force, he taught one year at Cameron Elementary School and then moved to South Cameron High School where he served six years as teacher and guidance counselor. He received his MSd degree from McNeese in 1964 and is presently persuing an education specialist degree at MSU.

HD members asked to register for juries

The Grand Chenier Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. David Duncan last week. Mrs. Guthrie Perry, club president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. Perry asked club members to register for jury duty if they are interested in serving on the jury. To do so, they may contact J. Berton Daigle, clerk of court, in the Cameron courthouse.

"Club Women of the Year" score sheets were turned in for HD Council Achievement Day and club duties for Achievement Day were discussed. A report was heard from the skit and name tag committees.

Mrs. Perry gave a quiz on purchasing beef. A demonstration on the importance of properly fitting shoes was given by Miss Patsy Granger, Home Demonstration Agent. Miss Granger also demonstrated how to make a fruit wreath from dried materials.

Appreciation certificates from the Cancer drive were given out to: Mmes. Savan Miller, Guy Murphy Jr., Guthrie Perry, Gamer Nunez, Walter Dupuis, D. W. Griffith and Miss Arlene Tarter.

Leader reports on safety rules for riding school buses, tooth care to prevent cavities and a clothing report were given.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and co-hostess Mrs. Wayne Wood.

An 'ear to the ground' is important. An 'ear to the people' is vital. In this electronic era of communication the voice of the electorate is too often lost. Jamar Adcock will be a Lt. Governor who communicates personally with you to incorporate your wishes and ideas into your government. "Listen to Others" -- the poor, prosperous, young and old -- each have their story which deserves to be heard.

You are the consumer in this big business of government, your opinions are valuable ones which Jamar Adcock wants to hear. Business and legislative experience have also taught Jamar Adcock to act rather than react. Action does the work while reaction wastes the words. Jamar Adcock will be a working Lt. Broussard rites held

Funeral services for Willie Burke Broussard, 84, of Route 3, Sulphur, were held Sept. 12 in the Hammer Funeral Home Chapel.

The Rev. Ray Brantom, pastor of Henning United Methodist Church, officiated. Burial was in Henning Memorial Cemetery south of Sulphur.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Chester Bilead of Sulphur; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Smith dies Thurs.

Funeral services for Anocide M. Smith, 72, of Beauxart Gardens, Tex., was conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Nederland Memorial Funeral Home Chapel. Burial was in Greenlawn Memorial Park in Port Arthur.

Mrs. Smith died Thursday following a lengthy illness.

A native of Grand Chenier, Mrs. Smith had lived in the mid-county area in Texas for 63 years. She was a longtime Sunday School teacher and nursery attendant at the Beauxart Gardens Baptist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Miss Eugenia Smith of Beauxart Gardens, Mrs. Irene Lumpkin of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. Faye Pelequin of Sulphur. Four sons, James Smith of Port Acres, Tex., Oris Smith of Nederland, Tex., George Smith of Bossier City and Welmon Smith, Jr., of Vancouver, Wash.; 18 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

No-sweat birds

Birds have no sweat glands. They cool their bodies by means of air sacs and by opening their beaks and vibrating the walls of their throats.

Teachers association elects new officers

The Cameron Parish Teachers Association held its fall meeting at South Cameron High School Friday, Oct. 1.

Newly elected officers are: president, Mrs. Margaret Kennedy; vice-president, Mrs. Ada Broussard; secretary, Don Broussard; treasurer, Benny Welch.

Mrs. Ada Broussard and Robert Ortego were elected delegates to the LTA convention in Shreveport.

Miss Kathy Sue Hensley of Johnson Bayou is the recipient of the CPTA scholarship.

W. R. Smith, superintendent, addressed the group relative to teachers' raises. He assured the group he was in favor of the raises but the board could not act without proper authority.

The Political Action Committee reported much activity had transpired since the last meeting and the parish teachers were encouraged to register to vote in the upcoming election.

Mrs. Margaret Kennedy reported that the tax shelter and annuity plan had met with very favorable results in the parish and all three companies had obtained a minimum number of subscribers and therefore all were in operation.

NOTICE FOR BIDS

Acting under the authority of Act No. 170 of the Legislature of Louisiana for the year 1940, the Cameron Parish School Board will receive sealed bids for the leasing of all surface rights including the rights of range, trapping, hunting, fishing and farming on the following described lands:

SECTION	TOWNSHIP	RANGE
16	12	10
16	12	13*
16	14	10 (47.13 acres)
16	14	13*
16	15	6

*Renewal rentals on marked sections may be paid during September. If renewal rental is received during September, all bids on these sections will be returned unopened.

All bids must be sealed; the envelope marked "Bid — Section 16, Township ____, Range ____" for identification, and forwarded through the United States Mail to the Cameron Parish School Board, P. O. Box W, Cameron, Louisiana, 70631. Bidder must offer a cash bonus for a lease with a primary term to end September 30, 196, the cash bonus will be considered rental for the period ending September 30, 1972. Annual renewal rentals will be due each year by September 30th in order to continue the lease in effect. Cash or check in favor of Cameron Parish School Board for the amount of the cash bonus shall accompany and be deposited with each bid, and the cash bonus shall be forfeited to the Board as liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails to enter into written contract in accordance with his bid within ten days after acceptance by the Board.

If farming rights are utilized, bidder may offer a cash bonus plus a fractional part of not less than one-tenth (1/10) of any and all crops produced and saved during the year. The value of the one-tenth share shall not be considered in the awarding of the lease unless bidder guarantees a specific amount which shall be added to and accompany cash bonus bid. Should the one-tenth value of crops be less than the cash guarantee, no refund will be made by the Cameron Parish School Board. Should the one-tenth value of the crop be greater than the cash guarantee paid at time of lease, the Cameron Parish School Board shall demand such additional payments as will be necessary to bring value adjustment to full one-tenth of crops produced and harvested on any and all above listed sections.

The surface rights and privileges granted in lease are restricted to range, trapping, hunting, fishing and farming, and these rights shall in no way, manner or form interfere with the granting of mineral leases or the full utilization of all rights and privileges granted in such mineral lease.

Bids will be received until the hour of 10:00 A.M. Monday, October 11, 1971, at which time all bids received will be opened and considered in public session of the Cameron Parish School Board at Cameron, Louisiana.

The Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids received.

CAMERON PARISH SCHOOL BOARD PROCEEDINGS
Cameron, Louisiana
September 27, 1971

The Cameron Parish School Board met in special session on this date with all members present.

The Board met in special session to discuss with Mr. James Prescott, Executive Secretary of the Louisiana School Boards Association, the salary increases for School Board personnel in relationship to the President's salary freeze. Due to the fact that the Federal Government has entered into legal proceedings with the Jefferson Parish School Board to enjoin said Board from paying salary increases, the Cameron Parish School Board agreed to await the results of the suit before taking further action.

The Superintendent also discussed with the Board the damage to school facilities resulting from Hurricane Edith.

On motion duly seconded and carried, the Board adjourned to meet in regular session Monday, Oct. 11, 1971.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

There are times when we half-believe that we live on a road that nobody remembers. Oh, we do not mean that it is untraveled. Quite the contrary. Cars and trucks and even motorbikes roll by at all hours of the day and night. We refer to the interest shown in the road itself.

We live on a graveled section of highway, a scant quarter of a mile from a hard-surfaced road.

The man on the grader remembers to go by once a week in an effort to smooth the gravel over the road. He does his work well. But the roadbed itself is lower than the fields on either side. Ditches on the north and south of the road are rank with tall, thick brush and weeds. Scattered amongst such vegetation is an occasional sapling. Drainage in the ditches is sluggish since they are so choked with growth. After a torrential rain the road itself becomes a drainage ditch. We stand at the end of our driveway and watch the stream -- its bed our sunken road -- flow west.

Yes, there were times when we feared that we lived on a road that nobody remembered. Little did we dream that forgetfulness of it might be a blessing. During the past several weeks, somebody has remembered our road. And it is being remembered in an ugly, offensive manner. In spite of all that is written and spoken today about highway beautification and pollution horror, this someone from town has hauled out bundles and brown cartons of garbage.

Sometimes the debris is scattered in a ditch; sometimes on the road itself. One time the disposal consisted of a big bag filled with feathers plucked from wild game. The brown paper tore; the feathers lay piled in a smelly heap. Then for two weeks they blew back and forth along the roadside.

On another occasion there was a plastic bag filled with shrimp hulls. Their stench lasted for days once the bag was split open by the wheel of a passing truck. Even the buzzards that swooped down were insulted by the meat less stinking mess.

On Sunday evening a neighbor of ours attended church services in town. During the interim in wh she drove to town and re ned, someone had again remembered our little road. Lying across the highway itself was a dark hulk that her car lights picked up through the fog. She slowed perceptibly, thinking that the object was a human form. Then she discovered it to be an extra long, extra large deposit of someone's garbage.

The irony of the whole story is that the one, or ones, who remember our road are probably fine outstanding persons who have never equated the disposal of their rubbish with a grave injustice to those of us who live beside the road.

We trust that the one who listens comes to a realization of the situation and that in the future he deposits his waste in the town's legal repository, the CITY DUMP.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

Jethro Broussard has his 95th birthday

By ELORA MONTIE

Congratulations to Jethro Broussard who celebrated his 95th birthday Sept. 30 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Stella Jackson in Pecan Island. A birthday dinner was served.

Other of his children are Dwight, Vallan, Morris and Curley Broussard of Pecan Island and surrounding area.

He also has two living brothers Desire and Eugene Broussard and a sister Mrs. Rosan Winch, all of Pecan Island.

Mr. Broussard had lived in Pecan Island all his life prior to last year when he entered a nursing home in Kaplan.

Before roads were constructed to Pecan Island he operated a boat from Pecan Island to Galveston, Tex., hauling bales of cotton to Galveston and returning with merchandise for the Pecan Island area.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jones and family purchased a 1972 Pontiac station wagon Saturday.

4TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Peggy Mhire celebrated the fourth birthday of her son, Kevin, Monday, Sept. 27.

Cake, punch and ice cream were served to the following: Lori and Lance McNeese, Darren and Dana Richard, Debbie Mhire, Charles and Lana Hebert, Damion Mhire, Rhonda and Wesley Perry and Monica Dupuis.

Prizes were won by Darren Richard, Damion Mhire and Lana Hebert. The mother's prize was won by Mrs. Lynn Mhire.

HAY BALING

Over the weekend Carl McCall cut and baled 600 bales of hay on high ridge which the water did not effect. Most cattle owners on the Chenier lost their hay crop because of Hurricane Edith.

Carl McCall this past week broke his corn which had a fair yield for the season.

VISITORS

Last week Severin Miller spent a few days visiting with his brother and family, the Dr. M. O. Millers in New Orleans.

Thursday Mrs. Gilford Miller visited Mrs. Fred Bult in Lake Charles.

Spending the day Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Sosten Broussard in Pecan Island were Severin Miller, Mrs. Azena Richard, Mrs. Estelle Doland, Mrs. Laurena Cartes, and Mrs. Emily Theriot of Grand Chenier.

Spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richard and family were Mrs. Richard's parents Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Theriot of Lake Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Miller, Whitney and Eugene Miller of Lake Charles spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark and family and Mrs. Joe Miller.

The Henry Roys had visiting them for the weekend Faye Fontenot of Lake Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Peavy, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Richard, Jr. attended a ball game in Houston Sunday.

Spending the weekend visiting relatives in Grand Chenier were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Brune of Lafayette.

Sunday Severin Miller, Mrs. Matilda Theriot, Mrs. Azena Richard and Mrs. Ola Dupuis of here and Mrs. Sosten Broussard of Pecan Island visited with Mrs. Pete Broussard in Lake Arthur and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Miller in Jennings.

Attending the funeral of Ambcide Smith in Port Arthur Saturday were Mrs. Oliver Boudreaux and Elora Montie of here and Mrs. James Daigle of Cameron.

Carl and Sonny McCall visited Saturday with Buddie Meaux in Bridge City, Tex.

Storm losses can be deducted

Certain losses caused by Hurricane Edith can be deducted from income tax in many cases and home owners are advised to make proper note of all damages to their property.

Lloyd A. Carville, farm management specialist for LSU Cooperative Extension Service, reviewed the tax deduction conditions for some typical damages resulting from the recent hurricane.

He says damages to individual shade trees and shrubs are not deductible items. However, if the loss of trees caused a decrease in the value of the property, the amount of the decrease will be deductible.

It is best to have an appraised value of the property before and after the storm to establish the loss. Also, if damage is extensive it would be advisable to get a reliable real estate agent to appraise the property after the disaster, he says. He suggests taking pictures to substaniate the loss in views of property.

For commercial trees such as pecan, peach and tung trees, the undepreciated value of the tree is a deductible loss. If the tree is a wild tree or a seedling that has not been planted by the landowner, the depreciable value of the tree is zero and is not allowed to be listed as a casualty loss. However, Carville explains, if the tree had been pruned and fertilized and taken care of, and the cost of these practices were capitalized, then the amount of value that was capitalized would be deductible.

Structural losses to the home are deductible after the first $100. Business property is deductible from the first dollar. Tractors, barns and other types of equipment and buildings that were capitalized are deductible at their undepreciable value and not at market value.

Reduction in yields are not deductible, Carville says. For example, if a soybean crop was estimated to be 30 bushels per acre before the storm and 20 bushels per acre after the storm, the 10 bushel reduction is NOT deductible.

Mrs. Harris has two sons, four daughters, 21 grandchildren, 29 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Class officers

On the 15th of September, the 9th grade class homeroom of Hackberry High School held an election of officers. The following were elected: president, Jenny Frey; vice-president, Lynn Jones, Jr.; secretary, Bryant Simon; treasurer, Kent Duhon; reporters John Debarge and Lanita Cournier.

Mrs. Beverly Goodrich and Emie Parker were present as class sponsors.

New bermudagrass is planted in parish

Several Cameron Parish farmers have planted patches of the recent highly publicized "Alicia grass" this past spring and early summer. It appears to be a real fast growing plant, however, according to the results of a sample that I sent in from the John M. Vincent farm at Klondike, it is very low in crude protein content.

What concerns me is that Mr. Vincent had applied a large amount of a complete fertilizer prior to planting it. In fact, we noticed some vines that had grown over 7 feet in 9 weeks time. I am sending samples from other plots in the parish for analysis. A more accurate appraisal will be able to be made from the results of several samples.

At the present time, I would be cautious in expanding to this variety of bermudagrass. However, we do know that coastal bermudagrass. However, we do know that coastal bermuda grass has the capabilities of producing 1000 pounds of beef or 10 tons of hay per acre. It is well adapted to all soils in Louisiana.

Another new variety of bermudagrass promises new things for hay crops for the future. Named Coast Cross I, it was developed by the Coastal Plains Experiment Station at Tifton, Ga. Although it has not been placed on the recommended list in Louisiana, it certainly bears consideration.

While most cattlemen recognize the value of Coastal Bermuda for its ability to produce large amounts of hay, it lacks something in quality. Here's where Coast Cross I is superior.

Tests in Georgia show that Coast Cross I is 30 percent more digestable than hay made from Coastal Bermudagrass grown and harvested under the same conditions.

Coast Cross I has to be propagated by planting material rather than by seed, but it is easier to get a stand of Coast Cross I than the standard Coastal Bermuda.

Coast Cross should certainly be considered in future plantings of bermudagrass.

Bread used as banquet plates

If you were ever admonished as a youngster for using bread to push food onto your fork, take comfort in this fact: about the year 1500, bread was baked in round, hard, flat loaves and used as plates for banquets. When dinner was over, diners picked up their plates and ate them for dessert!

15TH YEAR -- NO. 52 CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, OCT. 14, 1971 10¢ A COPY

Tarpon homecoming is Friday

Ann Savoie, junior from Creole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Savoie.

Mary Kelley, senior from Grand Chenier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kelley of Grand Chenier.

Diane Broussard, senior maid from Creole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Broussard.

Antoinette LeBlanc of Creole, junior maid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay LeBlanc.

Gay Lynn Porche, sophomore maid of Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Porche.

Stephanie (Tiny) Theriot of Grand Chenier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Theriot.

The Tarpons will host the Vinton Lions for Homecoming, Friday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p. m. in the Tarpon Stadium.

Honorees for this year's homecoming will be the 1962 graduates. The F.H.A., under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Reina, will hold an open house from 6 - 7 p. m. in the Home Economics Department where the honorees will assemble and visit with faculty and homecoming court.

Tarpons still top team in district

The South Cameron Tarpons and the W. O. Boston Panthers, District 4-AA's two undefeated teams, battled to a 6-6 tie at the local field last Friday, but the Tarpons held on to the district lead.

The Tarpons 5 wins and 1 tie gave them a percentage of .917 to Boston's 4 wins and 1 tie for a percentage of .900.

The Tarpons will play Vinton in the local homecoming game Friday night. Vinton has a 3-1-1 record this year.

South Cameron remained in the top ten team ranking for the state this week but dropped from 6th to 7th place. Boston remained at 9th place.

Hackberry lost a 22-14 game to Basile last week to give the Mustangs a 1-2-0 record. Hackberry will host Oberlin this Friday.

In the Boston game, South Cameron scored in the first quarter when Jimmy Pearce passed to Lawrence LeBouef for 25 yards. Henry Jones scored for Boston in the third quarter.

Adult classes to begin here

Adult education classes will begin Thursday, Oct. 21, at 6:30 p.m. at the South Cameron High School.

Wayne Kershaw will teach grades 1-8 and Mrs. Renee Boudreaux will teach grades 9-12.

Any person out of school who is 18 years of age or older and anyone 16 years of age and married is eligible to attend.

Basic academic subjects will be taught leading to the earning of a high school equivalency certificate.

The classes will meet two times per week with three hour sessions at each meeting.

Anyone who is interested in attending either of these classes should register at South Cameron High School on Oct. 21, at 6:30 p.m.

Hackberry sets parents night

Hackberry high school will sponsor a parents' night beginning at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 18 in the school auditorium to let parents and teachers become acquainted with each other, according to Principal John DeBarge.

The faculty will be introduced to the parents and then there will be a visitation period in which the parents can visit the teachers or their children in their classrooms.

Afterwards refreshments will be served.

A baby sitting service will be provided and all parents are urged to attend.

Parish farmers may get loans

W. F. Henry, Jr., president of the Cameron Parish Police Jury, received a telegram from the Louisiana Congressional delegation stated that the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture has declared farmers in Cameron parish and 19 other parishes, hit by Hurricane Edith are now eligible for low interest loans to continue normal farm operations and to repair buildings damaged by the storm.

Absentee vote to begin here

Absentee voting for the Democratic primary election will begin in the Clerk of Court's office in the Cameron courthouse Oct. 18, and end Oct. 30, at 12 noon, according to J. Berton Daigle, Cameron Clerk of Court.

On Saturdays Oct. 23 and Oct. 30, the clerk's office will be open for absentee voting only from 8 a.m. until 12 noon.

During the week the office will be open from 8 a.m. until 12 noon, and 1 p.m. until 5 p.m.

Jimmy Davis to speak here

Former Governor Jimmie Davis, who is seeking a third term as governor of Louisiana, will speak on the courthouse square in Cameron at 10 a.m., Friday, Oct. 15.

He will be accompanied by the Speans Family, noted gospel singers from Nashville, by a band and by his wife. There will be a musical program in addition to the speaking.

Pam Duhon 3rd in rice contest

Pam Duhon of the Grand Lake Sr. 4-H Club placed third with her rice cookery demonstration at the International Rice Festival which was held in Crowley last weekend.

Pam is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Duhon of Sweetlake. Her demonstration featured types of rice available on the market, roles of rice in the diet, how rice is prepared for market, by-products of rice, cooking characteristics of various kinds of rice and a brief history of rice in the world and the United States, as well as the economic value of the rice industry to Southwest Louisiana.

She prepared a casserole using ground beef, rice and seasonings. The recipe is available from the Home Demonstration Agent's office in Cameron.

Her award was an engraved silver tray. She was accompanied to the festival by her mother and Miss Patsy Granger, Cameron parish 4-H agent.

Porpoise Inn, camp burn

By GARI BAILEY

The Porpoise Inn and a camp at Rutherford Beach, both owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Hoffpauir of Lake Arthur, burned to the ground early Tuesday morning.

The Cameron fire department was called about 6 a. m. Tuesday but the buildings were too far gone by the time the truck made the trip to the beach.

Porpoise Inn had been opened for several years serving the many campers and swimmers that come to the beach during the summer.

Another Rutherford Beach business was badly damaged in Hurricane Edith recently. The storm left LaVue Inn in shambles.

Mrs. Daigle dies Tuesday

Mrs. Estelle Daigle, 81, mother of Cameron Clerk of Court J. Berton Daigle, died Tuesday in the West Calcasieu-Cameron hospital in Sulphur. He was a life resident of the Cameron area.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Thursday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Creole. The Rev. Anthony Webert will officiate and burial will be in the church cemetery with O'Donnell Funeral Home in charge.

Surviving are three sons, J. Berton Daigle of Cameron; A Woodrow Daigle of Sulphur, and John M. Daigle of Texas City; two daughters, Mrs. Edna D. Bertrand of Cameron and Mrs. Beulah D. Baggett of Lake Charles; 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Parish voters total 4,320

Miss Wynona Welch, Cameron Parish registrar of voters said that a total of 4320 Cameron parish residents had registered to vote as of the close of business Wednesday, Oct. 6.

Of this number 8 are registered Republicans and 4312 are registered Democrats.

A breakdown of voters by precincts is as follows:

Cow Island - 123, Klondike - 184, Grand Chenier - 412, Muzia - 211, Cameron - 1086, Creole - 493, Grand Lake - 361, Sweet Lake - 277, Johnson Bayou - 348, Hackberry - 825.

First ducks & geese are seen

By ELORA MONTIE

Last Friday two local hunters reported seeing the first flock of geese coming into the Grand Chenier marshes and several large flocks of ducks have been noticed on the ponds along the highway.

North winds have caused the water left by Hurricane Edith to recede faster and if we don't have too much rain the hunting season, which begins Nov. 11, should be better than originally expected.

School plans reviewed here

A review of the Cameron Parish school system was given by W. R. Smith, superintendent, at a community forum at Richard Bros. American Legion Post home in Creole Monday night. Smith was introduced by Jules Dronet, Legion Commander.

Smith said he expects to have an expanded public relations program. Each school has appointed a public relations officer to publicize school activities. A "Know Your Faculty" series of pictures has been begun by the school board to familarize the public with the school personnel.

One of the new programs started in each school is family night. Each school will have three a year and parents and interested citizens are invited. The school rooms will be open where visitors may visit the teachers.

Smith said it is his hope to raise the standards of the local schools to get Southern Association accrediation. He pointed out that they have very strict standards and that the curriculum and instructional standards must be raised in order to qualify. Work is already underway to get this accreditation in all the parish schools.

Plans are also being made to broaden the curriculum so the local students can be on a more competitive basis with those from other schools. One new course being planned is French.

Smith said that it is his hope that Audrey Memorial, the former Negro school on the Creole ridge, will be made into a Junior High School eventually.

An in service training program has been started to instruct teachers on new ideas and instructions. Workshops are being held for teachers and principals.

Smith said that he was proud that when HEW officials were in the parish they were very complimentary of the local school system. He was told that Cameron parish, to their knowledge, was the only school system in the United States that has every school completely air-conditioned.

A student teacher program operated out of McNeese State University has been begun. This is the first time the local school system has been used in this training program. Also an observation course will be participated in by McNeese education students.

The school finances was discussed by Smith. He said that Cameron parish gets less money from the state than any other parish in Louisiana, due to the oil revenues on the school sections. He pointed out that we are being penalized because Cameron was able to hang on to their 16th sections for the schools during the depression when many school boards sold their's.

Every dollar that the local board gets in oil revenues the state takes away 50 cents. Cameron parish pays 83% of their own expenses, only getting 17% from the state. Some of the Louisiana parishes get 93% of their money to run the local systems from state revenues.

Smith said it is his aim to meet with groups, exchange ideas and answer questions about the local school system. He invites the public to offer suggestions to him at any time.

At the close of the forum refreshments were served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Post.

Officers elected by historical society

Mrs. Charles Perry was elected president of the Cameron Parish Historical and Genealogical Society at the organizational meeting of the society Thursday in the Cameron parish library.

Elected to serve with her are; Mrs. D. W. Griffith, secretary; Garner Nunez, treasurer; and Thomas W. McCall, Mrs. Braxton Blake, Ward Fontenot, William O. Morris, Robert Ortego, and Charles F. Hebert, vice-presidents.

Board members, two from each community in the parish, plus one to represent those members living outside the parish were elected. They will vote on all matters. The officers will not have a vote. Those elected are:

Judge Minos P. Miller, representing out-of-parish members; Mrs. Charles Precht and Mrs. Charles W. Hebert from Sweetlake; J. B. Jones Jr. and Lyle Crain from Grand Chenier; Mrs. Harold Carter and Mrs. Clifford Conner from Creole; Mrs. Charles Rogers and W. F. Henry, Jr., from Cameron; Mrs. Walter Stanley and John Prescott from Johnson Bayou; Mrs. Bernice Stewart and Mrs. Mayo Cain from Klondike-Lowery; and Mrs. Nata Hebert and Mrs. Helen Colligan from Hackberry.

The slate of officers from the nominating committee was presented by W. F. Henry, Jr.

The by-laws and constitution for the organization was reviewed by H. Ward Fontenot, who is in charge of the legal committee.

Mrs. Perry reported that charter members would be issued a permanent type plastic membership card. The society voted to leave the charter open for six months, ending with the quarterly meeting in April 1972.

J. Berton Daigle, Cameron Parish clerk of court, was the speaker for the meeting. He reviewed the many historical records that can be found in the Clerk of Court's office. He pointed out that the records since the parish was formed in 1870 are almost intact, except for about a dozen missing links that were caused during a courthouse fire.

He pointed out that there is hardly a likelihood of a record ever being lost now. Four records are kept on each transaction in the clerk's office. Everything is on microfilm and stored in Alexandria.

He displayed some historical data on the parish compiled by Edward Chalmers Sweeney, and donated a copy to the society.

Daigle also explained how to go about looking up records in his office and the various records kept there. He explained that all of the cattle brands are recorded there. Up until 1944 the cattle brands were recorded by the parish, then it was taken over by the state.

A very old map, printed in the early 1800s on linen of the Hackberry area was displayed by Mrs. James Lowery of Hackberry. Mrs. Mayo Cain donated some records of the blowing up of the Mermentau Dam in the early 1900s.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next quarterly meeting will be held in January.

Revival to be held at church

Rev. Franklin Atkinson, pastor of Boulevard Baptist Church of Lake Charles, will be the speaker at a revival being held at the First Baptist Church of Cameron Oct. 17-24, according to Rev. S. J. Aylvest, pastor.

Services will be held each night at 7 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Knights plan big barbecue

Thursday night, Oct. 14 has been set for the monthly meetings of the J. P. Boudoin Sr. Council 3014 Knights of Columbus at the KC Hall in Creole, according to Eddie Jo Conner, Grand Knight.

A surprise meal will be served at 7 p.m. with the meeting to follow at 7:30. A presentation on Fraternalism will be given by the guest speaker.

The fall barbecue has been rescheduled for Oct. 24 due to conflicting dates, Conner said. Barbecue chicken, ham and roast will be served beginning at 10 a.m.

Bingo games will be played in the afternoon, starting at 1 p.m. Poo Landry and the KCs will provide entertainment, starting at 3 p.m.

A kick, punt and pass contest will be held for the children, beginning at 10 a.m. Trophies will be provided by Oustalet Ford Company of Jennings.

PRETTY RoRisa Reina is one of the South Cameron majorettes who will be cheering the Tarpons on to victory when they play the Vinton Lions in the homecoming game here Friday.

Ox Yoke rodeo set

The second annual Ox Yoke rodeo, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster, will be held Saturday and Sunday at their ranch at Sweetlake.

The rodeo is approved by the Louisiana Rodeo Association. Livestock is furnished by the Sittig Rodeo Company of Eunice.

Foster has a new set of grandstands built, with concession stands built under them.

A special feature for the rodeo this year will be the Orange County Mounted Sheriff's Posse from Orange, Tex. The senior posse will perform Saturday night and the junior posse will perform Sunday.

Following the Saturday night performance, a bam dance will be held in a building adjoining the arena. Music for the dance and the rodeo will be furnished by Roy Baker and the Music Makers.

The proceeds from the rodeo are donated to Louisiana Boys Village of Lake Charles.

Lions club to sell lighbulbs

Roland J. Trosclair, Jr., president of the Cameron Lions Club, has appointed a committee to construct the club's entry in the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival parade in Cameron in January.

Don Creiglow was appointed chairman. Others who will serve are: Tommy Watts, Michael Faulk, and Ruben Morales.

Trosclair announced that the annual light bulb sale will be conducted in November. He also announced that the community billboard has been completed and will be erected soon. Any community club wishing to install a sign on the billboard are asked to contact Trosclair.

Ward Fontenot introduced J. C. Reina, South Cameron high school principal, who introduced Tarpon Coach Baron Thomas and two members of the Tarpon football team, D. L. Brasseaux and Pat Howerton.

Thomas gave a brief talk on the South Cameron football team and the Southwest district football play.

Road widened

The state highway running through Hackberry has been widened by 17 feet--8 1/2 feet on each side-- by the state highway crews.

The asphalt work begins at the Kelso Bayou bridge and runs to the Catholic Church.

Notices mailed

Approximately 7,000 tax notices have been mailed from the Cameron parish Sheriff's office to Cameron Parish property owners for 1971 property taxes, according to Sheriff Claude Eagleson.

HACKBERRY NEWS

Fun house is held

For the Oct. 5 meeting, the Cameron Elementary 4-H Club had a Halloween Fun House. Each member was charged a dime to enjoy such horrors as The Devil's Den, The Dead Hand, The Tunnel of Death, and The Witches' Chamber.

Funds from the Fun House will be used for future club activities.

Wayne Kershaw helped club members to build the Fun House.

The club discussed plans for making Thanksgiving Day food baskets for the needy. Each member was asked to bring a canned food or a toilet article to the next meeting to fill the baskets.

Timothy Colligan gave a special report on National 4-H Week and also a report on last summer's 4-H camp. Stephanie Shay and Teddy Authement were given special recognition for each having received Most Outstanding Camper awards at camp.

Minutes were read by Angela Cheramie and Cynthia Saltzman gave the treasurer's report. Members who prepared the Fun House were Alan McCall, Timothy Colligan, Dirk Desonier and Kevin Colligan, program chairman.

Grand Chenier News

By ELORA MONTIE

Fall showed up around the Chenier when the cool front moved in over the weekend with 52 degree temperatures. School pupils came out Monday morning with sweaters and jackets. A few folks claimed heaters felt good in the early morning hours.

Chenier folks took advantage of the clear weather to cut hay. Some folks are still re-roofing their homes. Others were busy with their fall gardens.

Martin Water Well Co. of Lake Charles dug a water well for St. Eugene Catholic Church after the casing pipe went bad. A new gas line is being laid by parishioners.

New vehicles on the Chenier this past week were a new Datsun pickup purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Willard Guidry and a new Chevrolet station wagon bought by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McCall.

Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Omer Smith, was rushed to the Lake Charles hospital Saturday and underwent surgery for appendicitis. He is doing well and expected home soon.

OIL WELL

Davis Oil Company is drilling a location on land of Severin Miller in the north Grand Chenier field.

Cattlemen are saving some hay which has dried off since Hurricane Edith. Valian Theriot cut and baled much hay this past week. Billy Doland is busy cutting much hay for different cattlemen on the Chenier.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Joe (Cedelise) Miller was taken to Lake Charles Memorial Hospital Monday, Oct. 4. She has suffered a light stroke and is very ill. Her daughter Mrs. Bernice Clark is with her. Her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Valsant Miller of Fayetteville, N. C., and another son, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Miller of Palemento, Ga., arrived Friday afternoon to spend some time with their mother.

Leonard Miller is home again and doing good after spending some time in Kaplan hospital.

VISITORS

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Richard Saturday was Andrew Richard of Gillis.

Miss Annie Laurie Miller of Baton Rouge visited her sister, Mrs. Emily Theriot, for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Granger and grandson, Michael Wayne, of Pensacola, Fla., spent several days visiting her mother, Mrs. Clodia Miller and family here.

Rose Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Granger of Pennsacola, Fla., visited her grandmother, Mrs. Clodia Miller and decided to stay. She entered South Cameron High School recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rogers of Baton Rouge are spending some time in their home here.

Gilliam Montie and son Gerald, Mrs. Josephine Montie and sister, Mrs. Ellen Hebert of Port Arthur, Tex., spent Sunday and Monday with relatives here. Mrs. Montie and Mrs. Hebert spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Baccigalopi. Gilliam Montie and son spent Sunday night with Elora Montie and Ray Nunez.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Richard and family of Lafayette spent the weekend visiting Mr. Richard's mother, Mrs. Annie Richard.

Mrs. D. Y. Doland, Jr. left Monday to spend some time with her parents in Sweeney, Tex., to be with her mother who is undergoing eye surgery.

Hackberry club plans trip to planetarium

Planning a trip to the Lafayette Planetarium was the main topic at the recent meeting of the Hackberry Home Demonstration Club. Since the trip to the Indian Reservation had to be cancelled, Mrs. Helen Colligan had planned this trip to Lafayette Planetarium and the Heritage Museum at Loreauville.

The club also planned their skit for H.D. Achievement Day which is to be Oct. 23. Mrs. Genelle Backlund is chairman of the committee which presented suggestions to the club members.

The pledge at this meeting was led by Mrs. Sharon Racca. The club collect was led by Mrs. Pat Poole. Roll call was answered with a household hint.

There was one guest, Mrs. Cynthia Carpenter, and three new members, Mrs. Linda Ivy, Mrs. Clyde Goings and Mrs. Leroy Devall.

Sharon Racca was named chairman of the name tag committee to design tags for judging at Achievement Day and for each of our members there.

Miss Patsy Granger, extension economist, gave a demonstration on choosing suitable linens.

By JACK GOULD

BATON ROUGE -- Is it better to start early on a Louisiana political campaign, work steadily all the way through -- and take a chance of going stale before election day? Or is it better to hold everything until the last minute and then go all-out?

Capitol "expert observers" differ sharply on the two extremes, but most agree that either is bad for most ordinary candidates. (They usually cite Earl Long as the exception, able to announce his intentions a year ahead of time and get into high gear when he thought the time was "ripe.")

They also recall the saying of another usually successful campaigner who always waited until the last minute even to announce, saying "the sooner you start, the longer you are a target."

The present races offer examples of a little bit of everything.

In the contest for lieutenant governor, for instance, one candidate has been deliberately making very little noise, and plans to concentrate nearly all of his efforts in the last ten days.

"We are," one of his friends says, "going to hit the voters with every thing in the book -- speeches, newspapers, television, radio."

But what if his candidate was not very well known over the state?

"Oh, we have been getting known, quietly," the friend said. "But just remember Dale Bumpus of Arkansas. Two months before the election, most voters had never heard about him. But he won."

Another source in Arkansas had a somewhat different version, insisting that the new governor had been working for months; knew many of the "key people" and that there were "other factors."

Nevertheless, it should prove most interesting to political students to see what results the "campaign blitz" has -- if any.

One candidate for governor has made no secret of his plan to "come along slowly, just keeping my hand in, working up to a peak on Nov. 5."

Some of his supporters have fretted about the plan, claiming their man has "already missed the boat" in some areas. His answer: "More than one third of the voters -- more than I need to get in the runoff -- have not decided yet!"

He just might be right. He and they will know Nov. 6 or Nov. 7.

Another "answer" will not be known until the same date -- or until Dec. 18 -- whether it is better to deal strictly with issues; or whether some Louisiana voters still prefer "mud slinging."

Records here show that only two major candidates for governor have declined to deal in personalities of their opponents or their supporters. Are Louisiana voters ready for this?

Finally, are state voters ready for a candidate for lieutenant governor who promises (1) two national beauty pageants, and (2) state-regulated gambling to solve the state's finahcial woes?

Well, at least, that's "different!"

Valuable top soil carried off by rivers

Do you know about river water? One thing, it's muddy most of the time, and for good reasons.

John Holeman, geologist, Soil Conservation Service at Hyattsville, Maryland, has some interesting figures on the sedimentation of 16 major rivers in the world.

According to his report the annual world sediment yield of rivers is 20 billion tons. If you figure it another way, that is the equivalent of 10,000,000 acres, one foot deep, almost half the size of Louisiana.

Rivers in Africa, Europe and Australia have very low sediment yields, about 120 tons per square mile of watershed per year. South America rates low, North America is moderate and Asia is high. Rivers in Asia yield up to 80 percent of the world sediment reaching the oceans annually.

Actually, the Yellow River of China is the largest carrier of silt. According to Holeman, the River has a suspended load of over 2,000,000,000 tons of silt each year. That's more than 7,000 tons of soil for each 280 tons of soil washed from each square mile of the Mississippi watershed.

Holeman's report indicated that the Mississippi river now carries a little over 300,000,000 tons of silt each year. Of the 16 rivers studied, the Nile of Egypt carries the smallest silt load with only 122,-000,000 tons annually, or 100 tons per square mile of drainage area.

According to U. S. Geological Survey and U. S. Corp of Engineers data, the Mississippi sediment loads have reduced in the last 20 years. Prior to 1952, annual loads of 500 million tons of silt was common; but since then, no more than 325 million tons have been measured at the Red River Landing and at Baton Rouge in 1 year.

Holeman says conservation practices in the watersheds are the main reasons. Grass and tree planting, stream bank stabilization and other erosion control practices, plus new reservoirs that trap silt are helping to keep soil out of the rivers.

J. B. Earle, state conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, says that over 52,000 Louisiana land users cooperating with 30 soil and water conservation districts do their share to keep this sediment load to a minimum. According to Earle, conservation practices such as cover crops, leaving the crop residue on the land, pasture planting, woodland improvement, erosion control practices on play areas and in towns, as well as on farms reduce run-off and keep the water that does run off cleaner.

Governor's winning formula

It took Gov. John McKeithen six years to do it, but he finally managed to come up with a formula for getting the legislature to vote for tax increases. A package of four taxes gained final approval last week, and it is expected to bring in $127 million, and probably more.

Key to success in the governor's third try at raising taxes was a supplemental appropriations bill totaling some $122 million. Called a "bon bon" bill, it has something for everyone, particularly for those who are vocal and organized to lobby for new taxes.

McKeithen played his cards perfectly. The supplemental appropriations bill was steered through both houses before the sales, income, cigarette and whiskey taxes came up for a vote. Once the money measure passed, the administration had its plum to dangle for support of the taxes. It was "all or nothing" because the governor said he would veto any taxes passed if all were not passed.

Certainly all of the funds in the big money bill are essential. The persons and institutions benefiting from the taxes are long overdue for consideration.

However, in the rush to approve new taxes only a handful of lawmakers paused long enough to remember that this state has many ills which, if corrected, could produce more than enough money to meet the needs of all our citizens.

What about the allegations that some 200,000 persons failed to file state income tax returns in 1969? What about the failure to collect other state taxes?

What about the numerous unnecessary state agencies which are sapping state revenues? What about waste and duplication that exists in state government? What about property tax equalization?

We believe that passage of new taxes has put off the answers to these questions for years. Reform and economy were thrown to the winds and it will be a long time before they will become a reality in Louisiana.

Calcasieu and Cameron parishes have five representatives and two senators in the legislature. All voted against the tax increases. They have already come under fire from some of the very people who reap dividends from the new taxes. Critics complain that these seven men do not swap enough votes and fail to wheel and deal politically. They add that our area is hurt because of this tough stand on new taxes.

We submit that our area has not suffered because of the tax stand of these lawmakers who choose instead to stand for economy and reform and who refuse to reward inefficient government. For example, they were able to add $98,000 to the general appropriations bill to cover a deficit at McNeese State College, a move opposed by every other institution of higher learning and officials of the State Board of Education. McNeese also receives over $500,000 in the supplemental appropriations bill.

The delegation has been blamed for the closing of Charity Hospital. The money was there but the interns, residents and doctors were not. The latter is the only reason Charity was closed.

Some criticize the delegation for "bloc" voting. We see nothing wrong with seven men standing firm for efficient government and commend them for standing fast in the face of extreme pressures.

Our legislators may not have voted for the benefit of some 100,000 citizens who reap the most from the new taxes, but they have expressed the belief that they stood up for the over three million people of Louisiana who fork over the bulk of the revenues. These three million citizens had no lobbyists in Baton Rouge watching out for their interests.

Den mother needed here

Wayne Kershaw, cubmaster of Cameron Cub Scout Pack 210 has issued a plea for another den mother to work with one of the three newly organized dens of the pack. Kershaw said that someone in the Cameron area is needed so the members can walk to the meetings. He said that he will train anyone who wishes to help. Two mothers have volunteered to help with other dens.

Kershaw said that anyone with old cub uniforms who would like to donate or sell them to contact him at the Cameron Elementary School and he will pick them up. A drive is being made to secure uniforms for all cubs, Kershaw said.

Mr. Sells dies Mon.

James Austin Sells, 76, of Cecilia died at 5:30 Monday, Oct. 11, at his home in Cecilia.

Funeral services were Tuesday afternoon at Marshall Funeral Home in Breaux Bridge.

Mr. Sells was a native of Cameron, and had lived in Cecilia for the past 30 years. He was a retired cattleman and had worked for the U.S. Corps of Engineers. He was a member of Masonic DeSoto Lodge 299, F&AM, of Memphis, Tenn.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Daisy Sells, and one daughter, Wanda Sells, both of Cecilia; four sisters, Mrs. Lydia Sweeney and Ruby Nell Sells, both of Lake Charles, Mrs. Cornelius O'Brien of Beaumont, and Mrs. Dorothy Sells Bourgeois of Cameron.

Also two brothers, Peter E. Sells of Johnson Bayou and Winston Sells of Cameron; and several nephews and nieces.

Be careful with pesticides

Miss Patsy Granger, Home Demonstration Agent for Cameron Parish warns Cameron parish homemakers that Vapora strips (commonly called pest strips), or insecticide dispensers with automatic time interval releasing should not be used in the kitchen or any place where food is prepared or served.

She received this notice from Miss Barbara D. Schilde, pesticide safety specialist of the LSU Cooperative Extension Service.

Chilled crust

Pie crust can be made more tender and flaky by chilling it an hour before rolling it out. Chilling also helps if you have trouble fitting pastry into a pie plate. Just roll the pastry out between two sheets of waxed paper (water sprinkled on the rolling surface will make the bottom sheet stay in place). Slip the waxed paper covered pastry onto a cookie sheet and chill. Then, peel off the top paper and turn into a pie plate — just like turning out a cake.

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION
FOR THE STATE MINERAL BOARD
OF
BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA 70821

By virtue of and in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 30 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended, sealed bids will be received at the Office of the State Mineral Board, 625 Oil and Gas Building, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on or before 10:00 A.M. for an oil, gas, sulphur, potash and geothermal energy lease on cash, call and all other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals in and to the following water bottoms described in Tract No. 12144 through Tract No. 12172, inclusive, at which time and date they will be opened publicly in the Louisiana Department of Highways Building, Capitol Access Road, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The description of said tracts are more particularly set out below.

TRACT 12147 -- Cameron Parish, Louisiana -- All of the lands now or formerly constituting the beds and bottoms of all water bodies, of every nature and description and all islands and other lands formed by accretion or reliction, except tax lands owned by and not under mineral lease from the State, situated in Cameron Parish, Louisiana, within the following described bounds, reference being made to Louisiana Coordinate System of 1927, Zone [illegible]: Beginning at the point of intersection of Latitude 29°45'00" North and Longitude 93°30'00" West; thence North 8,100.00 feet; thence West 13,700.00 feet; thence South 8,100.00 feet; thence East 13,700.00 feet to the point of beginning, estimated to contain approximately 851 acres, all more fully shown outlined in red on a plat on file in the State Land Office. All bearings are based on Louisiana Lambert Plane Coordinate System (South Zone).

All bids to offer a cash bonus for a lease having a primary term which shall not exceed three years. Minimum royalties shall be one-fourth (1/4th) of all oil produced and saved; one-eighth (1/8th) of all gas produced and saved or utilized; two dollars ($2.00) per long ton of sulphur produced and saved; and one-eighth (1/8th) of all other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals produced and saved or utilized.

Should lessee fail to begin the actual drilling (spudding in) of a well on the lease premises within one year from the date of the lease, the lease shall terminate as to both parties to the lease, unless on or before such anniversary, the lessee shall pay a delay rental, which shall in no event be less than one-half the bonus offered, and shall cover the privilege of deferring drilling operations for a period of one year. Upon like payments annually, drilling operations may be deferred for successive periods of one year each during the primary term. The primary term of the lease shall not exceed three years. The lessee shall commence the drilling of [illegible] where necessary to protect the State's interest and shall continue the prosecution thereof with reasonable diligence until the lease is terminated by the State Mineral Board. The lessee shall have the right to enter into pooling or unitization agreements with respect to development of the leased premises subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board.

Certified check, payable to the REGISTER, STATE LAND OFFICE, for the full amount of the cash bonus, and a separate check for the rental, if any, with each bid, submitted may be thereafter withdrawn or cancelled and the certified check accompanying the bid of the successful bidder shall be immediately negotiated and endorsed by the REGISTER, STATE LAND OFFICE and the proceeds thereof turned over to the STATE TREASURER, less such deductions as may be required by R.S. 30:136, for processing in accordance with law and all applicable provisions of Executive Order No. 13, dated September 15, 1971. The successful bidder upon the lease is required, on the date of the lease sale shall return the written lease, duly executed, within TWENTY (20) DAYS after his receipt of same.

NOTE:

In the case of all State Agency Tracts herein offered, certified checks for the cash bonus shall be made payable to each respective State Agency for that part of such tract, or part thereof, located in a township which is situated in more than one parish, as offered, certified check for the full amount of the cash bonus shall be made payable to the STATE TREASURER. Any Amendment, Assignment or Agreement entered into after the State Mineral Board has awarded such lease must be approved by the Lessor Agency or Agencies.

Consistent with the policy of the utilities as expressed in a resolution dated August 12, 1964, all bidders are hereby notified that bids on portions of tracts should be described by metes and bounds and be accompanied by a transparent plat outlining thereon the portion bid upon. The scale of the plat should be 1 inch = 4,000 feet.

All leases to be awarded shall be written on the 1960 lease form, as amended by Act 599 of 1970, copies of which may be obtained in the State Mineral Board's office.

Just What Is A Newspaper?

A newspaper is many things to many people.

To some, it is a reality, a living textbook that records each passing day of world history; to others, it is escape—a refuge of entertainment and relaxation after the day's chores.

To the housewife, it is ideas for new menus and new clothes and sensible buying.

To the mother, suggestions for raising the youngsters.

To the teacher, a homework assignment on current events; to schoolchildren, a notebook item.

To the lonely diner, a companion; around the family supper table, a topic of conversation.

To sports and theater lovers, who and what is playing, when and where.

To athletes and actors, scrapbook material.

To an unknown, it brings fame; to a well-known, it furthers his name.

To the publicity seeker, it is a haven; to the publicity shy, a source of annoyance.

To the seller, it means a quick response; to the buyers, many selections.

To some, it brings good news; to others, sad tidings.

To friends and neighbors, it tells about promotions, school achievements and who got married, who was born, who died.

To the voter, it is guidance; to a politician, friend or foe.

To opinion searchers, it stimulates thought.

To front porch sitters, it describes life beyond the horizon.

To the immigrant, it is a schoolbook that helps him learn English; to hunters of truth, it translates the customs from which the immigrant fled.

To the living, it is a source of freedom and hope; for the dead, a tribute to their virtues.

To all who read this newspaper it means uncensored news; in many other countries, censored propaganda.

What else costs so little, is so useful, and adds so much to our lives?

Make a pie for Yam Wk

Louisiana Yam Week is observed in October and homemakers are urged to use yams in as many ways as possible during that week. Of course, it is expected that yams are used the year round in Louisiana meals.

There are numerous ways yams can be prepared but there is always the ever favorite yam (or sweet potato) pie that invariably finds its way to family and social gatherings.

Mrs. Raymond Manuel has shared her recipe for sweet potato pie this week. The nice thing about this recipe is that it makes more than one pie; most cooks like to make more than one pie at a time anyway.

SWEET POTATO PIE
(Mrs. Raymond Manuel)

3 9-in. or 2 10-in. unbaked pie shells
3 cups cooked mashed sweet potatoes
2 cups sugar
1 cup buttermilk
2 tbsp. butter
1 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. soda
3 tsp. pumpkin pie spices
3 eggs

Set oven for moderate, 350 degrees. Combine all ingredients, mix well. Pour into unbaked pie shells and bake 45 minutes.

Sabine refuge fishing ends

The annual fishing season on Sabine National Wildlife Refuge will end at sundown Friday, Oct. 15. The refuge will remain closed throughout the winter to protect and maintain waterfowl concentrations in the area.

The same 10,000 acres of the refuge will again be opened to public waterfowl hunting this winter during the duck hunting season.

All persons are cautioned against entering the refuge after the closure date. Included in the closure of the refuge are crabbing or fishing in the roadside canals along Highway 27 and camping or picnicking on the highway right-of-way within the refuge boundaries. Grand Bayou on the east side of Calcasieu Lake is also closed to public use by these regulations.

All boats now moored in the pools or left elsewhere on the refuge must be removed by sundown on Oct. 15 or they will be seized and removed by the Government.

ELECT FRANK SALTER, JR.
GOVERNOR

Calcasieu-Cameron District Attorney Frank Salter is carrying his campaign for governor to every section of Louisiana and is picking up enthusiastic support in every area.

Salter began his campaign in his home area with an appreciation dinner in Lake Charles. That saw over 1200 people attend. Moving out from Southwest Louisiana Salter then concentrated his efforts in North Louisiana. Two valid reasons prompted this move. First, North Louisiana has historically voted in a majority for the winning candidate for governor, and, because of this, it was necessary to establish that a South Louisiana candidate with Salter's qualifications could establish considerable support in that area.

Salter appears to have been successful in his presentations. Fully staffed and operating headquarters are now in operation in many Central and North Louisiana towns and communities as well as in all of the major cities.

Hundreds of thousands of pieces of literature, including brochures, cards and bumper stickers have been distributed in each of the districts as well as the putting up of thousands of tree signs and board signs. These have been backed up by extensive television and newspaper coverage of the Salter campaign in that area of the state.

The efforts have resulted in the conversation of many North Louisiana people, including old-time politically knowledgeable people that recognize Salter as one of leading contenders in this race. Some are going so far as to say that Salter will run first in one or more North Louisiana Districts.

With this background Salter now enters the vote-rich areas of Baton Rouge and New Orleans. Both cities now have fully staffed organizations dedicated to the election of Frank Salter as Governor. Publicity equal to that Salter has gained in North Louisiana is now occuring in these areas.

Of course, Salter will continue to make appearances throughout the entire state in his campaign. The lists of invitations to speak to rallies, civic clubs, and voter groups grows everyday. Recently Salter spoke in Zachary (near Baton Rouge), Pineville, Monroe, Hammond, and Baton Rouge all in less than 18 hours. It's a hectic pace, but the candidate seems to thrive on the challenge. His drive and energy appear to increase in a ratg parallel to the acceptance of his candidacy all over Louisiana.

Support Frank Salter, a local man who knows the problems of Cameron and Calcasieu

Wildlife display attracts interest

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Receiving much attention is the permanent wildlife display on exhibit at the Cameron Parish Library.

The display, was donated by the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Service.

The background was designed by J. M. Roever. It is so designed that the foreground, which is made up of real stuffed marsh animals and fowl, blends into the background, making the panoramic scene seem real.

The explanation of the scene is on a lighted plaque adjacent to the display and explains what each figure represents:

The Fur Bearing Animals of the Coastal Marshes of Louisiana.

This is a habitat group of the Cameron Parish marshes which features the raccoon, nutria, otter, mink and muskrat. These are the important fur bearing animals of Louisiana.

Throughout Louisiana, there are 14 potential fur producing animals including the five species mentioned above. The cougar is now considered to be extinct in the state, the black bear and the red wolf are rare and the beaver is protected by law. The remaining species are the opossum, skunk, grey fox, coyote and bobcat.

Muskrat, mink, raccoon and opossum make up 99.6 percent of the numerical catch and muskrat and mink alone account of the 96.6 percent of the total income from fur. Muskrats, the mainstay of the Louisiana fur industry, make up 93.9 average of the total catch and 80.4 percent of the total income from fur.

The nutria, a native of Argentina, was introduced into Louisiana by E. A. McIlhenny of Avery Island in 1937. This animal has in the general appearance of beaver. The beaver has a flat paddle shapped tail, but the tail of the nutria is round.

The nutria has spread its range throughout the marshes and some of the swamps in south Louisiana. Some biologists have concluded that the nutria does not seriously compete with the muskrat for food, since it eats coaser food, like the Alligator Weed.

The bulk of the fur crop comes from 5,[illegible],000 acres of marsh and cypress-tupelo swamps in the southern part of the state. The marshes and swamps and the animals that live in them are living resources that represent jobs and income from certain Louisiana citizens. These valuable assets should be protected from man's wastefulness, pesticides and pollution.

Mrs. Coral Penny cordially invites everyone to come by the local library and view the colorful display.

Did you know that olives were a fruit? They were the earliest fruit mentioned in history and have been used for perfumes, soap, canning, machine oil and medicines, as well as eating. The USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service suggests you buy and keep canned ripe olives on hand, for they are still one of the most versatile items you can keep in your pantry.

Mrs. Leonard Wayne Brandt

Murphy-Brandt vows said at Freeport, Tex.

Miss Karen Lynn Murphy and Leonard Wayne Brandt were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 28, at 7:30 p.m. in candlelight ceremonies in the Velasco Baptist Church.

A senior at Southwest Texas State University, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Murphy of Freeport, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brandt of Gonzales are the parents of the bridegroom, who is also a senior at Southwest Texas State University. He is majoring in business administration, and is presently assistant manager for Perry Brothers' Inc., Navasota.

The couple will make their home in Navasota.

Rhonda Murphy, sister of the bride, of Freeport, was the maid of honor. Mrs. Rolane Scanlan of Houston was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were: Darla Murphy, Dawn Murphy, both sistem of the bride. Scarlet Murphy, another sister, acted as junior bridesmaid.

Donnie Brandt was his brother's best man and groomsmen were John Wayne Roberts of Leander, Rick Rivins of Gonzales and Larry Brandt, the bridegroom's brother.

Kenneth Brandt, brother of the bridegroom, was the junior groomsman.

Lamy Bredthauer and Terry Rudduck lighted the candles and assisted Clyde Sommerlatte with the ushering.

Those attending Karen's wedding from here were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis (Bud) Murphy; her aunts, Mrs. Tillie Mudd,

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Crain, seconded by Mr. Precht and declared adopted.

RESOLUTION

STATE OF LOUISIANA
PARISH OF CAMERON

WHEREAS, a public hearing is to be held in New Orleans, Louisiana, commencing on September 8, 1971, by the Department of the Interior for the purpose of receiving comments and suggestions relating to possible oil and gas leasing in portions of the Gulf of Mexico offshore Louisiana in order to evaluate the effects of such leasing on the total environment, aquatic resources, aesthetics, recreation, and other resources in the area concerned;

WHEREAS, the possibility of such offshore leasing is of great interest to the Parish of Cameron as the offshore oil and gas industry is a vital part of the economy of the Parish as well as the entirety of South Louisiana;

WHEREAS, the Parish of Cameron is, of course, concerned with the effect of the proposed leasing of the total environment of the area;

WHEREAS, extensive oil and gas operations have been conducted for over twenty years in the Gulf of Mexico adjacent to this Parish and while there have been accidental oil spills, the environmental effects thereof have been minimal and short term and commercial and sports fishing have thrived in these waters side by side with oil exploration and development activities and there is no basis for belief that such multiuse of the waters of the Gulf of Mexico will not continue to the benefit of all;

WHEREAS, cognizance is taken by this Police Jury of the urgent need of the United States to explore and develop the tremendous mineral potential of offshore Louisiana, particularly when such operations can be accomplished in harmony with other interests and without significant environmental risk.

BE IT, THEREFORE, RESOLVED that the Police Jury of Cameron Parish hereby authorizes its President to inform the Department of the Interior of its approval of the proposed leasing of tracts in the Gulf of Mexico offshore Louisiana and that it is the belief of this Police jury that such leasing and the development and operations pursuant thereto can be accomplished, as in the past, without significant adverse effects on the environment.

ADOPTED AND APPROVED this 7th day of September, 1971.

APPROVED: /s/ W. F. HENRY, JR., PRESIDENT
CAMERON PARISH POLICE JURY

ATTEST: /s/ JERRY G. JONES, SECRETARY

The following ordinance was offered by Mr. Berwick, seconded by Mr. Mhire and declared adopted.

ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE CREATING JOHNSON BAYOU RECREATION DISTRICT AND STATING THE BOUNDARIES THEREOF, APPOINTING CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE FIRST BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS AND CHOOSING OF CERTAIN OFFICERS: AND LIMITING THE REPEALING EFFECT OF THIS ORDINANCE TO PORTIONS OF ORDINANCES WHICH ARE CLEARLY IN CONFLICT WITH THE PROVISIONS HEREOF.

BE IT ORDAINED by the Police Jury of Cameron Parish, Louisiana in regular session convened on this the 7th day of September, 1971, that:

SECTION I: That by virtue of the authority of R. S. 33:4562, there is hereby created Johnson Bayou Recreation District, which shall consist of the whole of the following described property, lying and being situated in the Parish of Cameron, Louisiana and described as follows, to-wit;

Commencing at the northeast corner of Section 4, Township 12 South, Range 12 West; thence running south to the southeast corner of Section 33, Township 12 South, Range 12 West; thence east to the northeast corner of Section 4, Township 13 South, Range 12 West; thence south to the southeast corner of Section 33, Township 13 South, Range 12 West, thence east to the northeast corner of Township 14 South, Range 11 West; thence south to the Gulf of Mexico; thence westerly along the Gulf of Mexico to the Sabine River, thence northerly along the line between the States of Louisiana and Texas to the Calcasieu Parish line; thence east along the line between the Parishes of Cameron and Calcasieu to the point of commencement, and being the whole of Ward 5, Cameron Parish, Louisiana.

By BERNICE STEWART

No laborer in the world is quite so essential to mankind as is the farmer. A hero in his own right, he has, for the most part been unappreciated and neglected by millions who depend upon him for food and much of their clothing.

He is at the mercy of rain and drought, storm and pests. Every time he sows a field or invests in livestock, he is taking a gamble. He is pitting his hours of toil and sweat and his expenses against the uncertainties that loom between him and his goal of rich harvests and markets that permit a reasonable profit.

In spite of its risks and drawbacks, life on the farm is filled with satisfactory and enriching experience. God is very real to the farmer and his family. They see Him in the life that flourishes about them. They experience the miracle of Him in the birth processes that occur in their plant and animal world. They hear His voice in the rustle of growing crops, in the whispering of tall trees, in the melodies of birds. They see His hand in the painting of glorious sunrises and vivid sunsets, in the gray mists of fog, in panoramas of scenic beauty all about them.

In earlier times the farmer was as nearly independent as a man tied down by chores and responsibilities could have been. He planted the kind of crop and the amount that he wanted, hedged in only by climate, type of soil, and acreage. He decided upon his own working hours and the tasks that he needed to perform. Even tenant farmers were subjected to little supervision by those who owned the land.

Today, much of the farmer's freedom is curtailed by government restrictions and price controls. He still battles inflation, destruction by hordes of insects, and the uncertainty of natural elements. His use of many herbicides, insecticides, and fungicides have been restricted by the government on the basis that they are pollutants. Lawsuits by public officials have been brought against certain farmers because of large quantity disposal of the wastes of farm animals.

The increase in minimum wages for farm labor has made it difficult for the small farmer, especially, to hire work done and yet manage a living beyond his expenditures. New national safety standards set on farm employees -- though good in themselves -- are sometimes expensive and difficult to incorporate in equipment used at present.

The farmer's life in early days was solitary. A trip into town was long and difficult. His life lacked most luxuries, even many necessities. He learned to do with what he had or to do without. He accepted his situation as a fact of life. He was too engrossed in his labor to theorize much about his situation.

Modern inventions have completely changed the farmer's life. Labor-saving machinery both inside and outside the home have revolutionized farm work, have made it more pleasant and more productive. The automobile has erased his isolation from social activities and has made possible his participation in cultural and civic organizations. The telephone, radio and television aid in keeping him well informed on market prices for his products and on weather predictions. Electricity has provided him with cheap, efficient servants that work uncomplainingly day and night.

After the Civil War large farms were broken up into smaller ones. "The old order changeth," said Tennyson. It still is. Today farms tend to increase in size and to decrease in number. The rural poor is receiving more attention. Technology and science play an ever increasing role in farm life.

And slowly our nation begins to recognize and to pay tribute to the farmer, the backbone of our land, the man who turns his dreams into realities of food and fabric for other men everywhere to feed upon and to use.

About one-tenth of the Earth's land surface is permanently covered with ice.

County Agent Report

By CLIFFORD MYERS

BERMUDA GRASS - Several people have asked if I had written the article on bermuda grass that was in the Cameron Pilot last week. Yes, it was my regular report - only the name missing.

RYEGRASS TIME - Most of the improved winter pastures are now in the process of being planted and should be completed within the next week or so. This is in order to have enough growth from 8 to 10 inches, by Dec. 15., which is usually the ideal time to start grazing.

A heavy seeding rate should be used. If ryegrass is used alone, use 40 pounds per acre. Wheat seeded alone will require 90 lbs. per acre. If a combination is desired, use 60 lbs. of wheat and 25 lbs. of ryegrass per acre.

The amount of phosphate and potash should be determined by a soil test if possible. In the absence of a soil test, it will usually require 50 to 60 lbs. per acre of both phosphate and potash. From 80 to 120 lbs. of nitrogen per acre should be used at or before planting. More nitrogen may be needed during mid-winter. What we sometimes call an over-grazed condition is just a case of the area being under-fertilized.

Remember! It is important to get ryegrass growing early as it will not grow in weather below 50° F.

FALL ARMYWORMS - Pastures, especially newly planted ryegrass, should be watched closely for armyworm infestation. The control recommendations are: Sevin at the rate of 1 to 1 1/2 lbs. per acre. However, Methyl Parathion can be used effectively at the rate of 1/2 to 1 lb. per acre provided the grazing limitations are followed.

FARMER OF YEAR - Many thanks to those who replied in submitting a nominee for the Farmer of the Year. I will be sending a write-up on the top ten winners to all crop farmers, cattlemen and/or Farm Bureau members for their selection of the "Farmer of the Year."

TRITICALE - This grain is being promoted in Louisiana as a second crop. It ranges from 15 to 18 percent in protein content and has approximately the same carbohydrate and fat content as wheat and approximately the same digestive energy value. In feeding trials with poultry and livestock, however, it appears to be less palatable than wheat or milo and considerably less palatable than corn.

The limited amount of available research data indicates that this grain should be used sparingly in all livestock and poultry feeds to avoid palatability problems.

Therefore, it appears that certainly not over 25% of the ration be made up of triticale. This level of use in most livestock feeds will cause little effect on the palatability. Higher levels, however, of certain sources of the grain will tend to cause a reduction in feed intake and be definitely less powerful. The palatability problem of the grain appears to be associated with its high content of ergot (a mold).

Work begins in 1972

Bridge contracts set

Representative Conway LeBleu has received sketches of two proposed bridges that are part of the evacuation route program passed in the 1970 Louisiana legislature.

The plans were drawn up by the Louisiana Highway Department. The Calcasieu-Cameron legislative delegation has been working on the plan for eight years.

The Ellender bridge, which will be located north of Hackberry, will cost $6.3 million. It will have a 50 foot normal clearance lift span which will raise to 135 foot clearance in 90 seconds. A contract will be let in January or February, 1972.

The Gibbstown bridge located north of Creole, will cost $4.2 million and will have a 73 feet fixed clearance. The contract will be let in January, 1972.

Other projects in the evacuation route program are $1 million for the relocation of the Holly Beach-Johnson Bayou Highway, and $12 million for an evacuation route running north from Cameron along the east bank of Calcasieu Lake.

A contract for a new bridge over Kelso Bayou Highway is scheduled to be let in January. It will be a swing-span type bridge and will be financed under the five year long range highway program.

'Electronic' gator causes excitement

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

A runaway electronic alligator caused some excitement on the Front Ridge road last week.

The 10 1/2-foot, 325-pound bull alligator escaped from the Rockefeller Refuge at Grand Chenier and turned up on the road near the Aristile Broussard home where he created a small traffic jam.

The gator is involved in a program being carried on by personnel of the Refuge Division of the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission who are using some of the newest and most sophisticated field equipment to be introduced into the field of wildlife management in recent years - radio telemetry.

Tracking animals are equipped with a collar-type radio package strapped to a collar around the neck. The radio is about the size of a cigarette package and is attached to an antenna. The radio puts out a signal of beep sounds which can be picked up on a portable receiver as far as 5 miles away.

The program has been in effect for the past three years. Biologists at the Refuge have been capturing and attaching radio collars to sexually mature male and female alligators and tracking them with the portable receiver. The objectives of these studies are to determine the daily and seasonal movement of individual alligators. Also, to determine the minimum home range of individual alligators and to relate the movements to habitat pre-

Barbecue to be held Sunday

The fall barbecue of the J. P. Boudoin Sr. Knights of Columbus Council will be held Sunday, Oct. 24 at the KC Hall in Creole, according to Eddie Jo Conner, Grand Knight.

Barbecue chicken, ham and roast will be served beginning at 10 a. m.

Bingo games will be played in the afternoon, starting at 1 p. m. Poo Landry and the KCs will provide entertainment, starting at 3 p. m.

A kick, punt and pass contest will be held for the children, beginning at 10 a. m. Trophies will be provided by Custalet Ford Company of Jennings.

Cameron soldier killed in Colo.

John Wayne Boullion, 23-year-old Cameron soldier, was killed and his wife seriously injured in a one-car accident in Colorado Springs, Colo., Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Boullion was hospitalized in Colorado Springs with a fractured hip, collar bone and kneecap.

Boullion was stationed at Ft. Carson, Colo. and was in the 52nd Engineer Battalion.

Funeral services for Boullion, '23, were held Saturday, Oct. 16, from Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Cameron.

The Rev. Alcide Sonnier officiated. Burial was in the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Boullion attended South Cameron High School before entering the Army. He served a tour of duty in Vietnam before his transfer to Ft. Carson 11 months ago.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Lois LeBouef Boullion, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boullion, two brothers, Cecil and Steven, two sisters, Debra Ann and Cheryl Ann, all of Cameron; and his grandparents, Clay Boullion of Carlyss, Mrs. Clay Boullion of Cameron and Mrs. Vivian Stutes of Sulphur.

Vinton visitor praises Tarps

Everyone at South Cameron high school is beaming with pride over a letter received from a Vinton fan this week. It reads as follows:

To the Principal, staff, student body, coaches and football team, South Cameron High School, Creole, Louisiana

I am taking it upon myself to act as a spokesman for the people of Vinton in telling you how impressed and appreciative we were by the fine reception and friendly, courteous treatment we received before, during and after the football game between the Lions and Tarpons Friday night.

No one likes to lose, especially when you've played your hearts out, but it helps ease the disappointment quite a bit when you know you've been beaten by a team that played such a clean, sportsmanlike game.

Instead of the usual "morning after" grumbles, practically everyone I saw in Vinton this morning commented on what a fine team you have and the competitive spirit they showed.

We're proud of our Lions but we want to say we're proud of the Tarpons, too. If Vinton can't win District, we'll be happy to be represented in the playoffs by the South Cameron Tarpons.

Congratulations to all of you!

Parent night

Thursday, Oct. 21, a Parent-Teacher Visitation Night will be held at Johnson Bayou High School.

Principal Jesy McDonald will introduce members of his faculty at 7 p. m. in the cafeteria and afterwards everyone will be dismissed to the classrooms. A social hour will conclude the program.

S. CAMERON IS NO. ONE

With a 3-0 victory over the Vinton Lions and the ruling of Boston High School ineligible for championship honors, the South Cameron Tarpons moved into the undisputed lead in District 4-AA this week.

Boston was knocked out of the district race when the Louisiana High School Athletic Association discovered that one of the school's players lived outside the school district.

The Tarpons win over Vinton last week gave the Tarpons a perfect 6-0-0 record, the Tarpons' 6-6 tie with Boston the previous week having been erased by the new ruling.

It took a 22-yard field goal by Parry LaLande in the last four seconds of the Vinton game to prevent the Tarps having their record blemished with a 0-0 tie with Vinton.

South Cameron remained seventh in Class AA football in the state this week while W. O. Boston jumped from 9th to 8th place in the voting.

South Cameron will play in Welsh this Friday night and will be back at home on Oct. 29 when they host DeQuincy.

WOW MEETING

The local camp of the Woodmen of the World will have a special meeting at Fred's restaurant in Cameron at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, according to Lloyd Lindsey.

Parent night

Principal Adam Conner of the South Cameron Elementary School on Oak Grove, has designated Tuesday, Oct. 26, as Parent-Teacher Night at the school.

Classroom visitation will begin at 7 p.m., followed by a general assembly and a social in the auditorium.

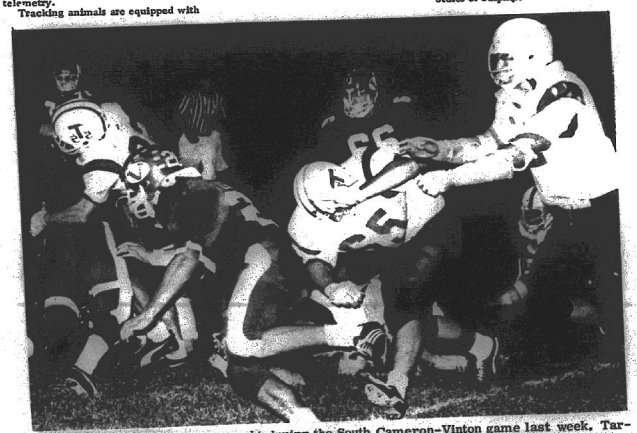
Louisiana Gubnatorial Candidate Jimmie Davis was campaigning in Cameron parish Friday. He appeared on the Courthouse Square in Cameron at 10:30 a.m. with his band and with his wife Anna.

After a speech, made by the former governor, Davis and his wife sang some songs, accompanied by his band, from a portable stage, set up on the square, under the moss covered oak trees.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are pictured above. In the background are members of the Spears Family, nationally known gospel singing group.



THIS EXCITING action was caught during the South Cameron-Vinton game last week. Tarpon players shown here include No. 65, Carl Broussard, and No. 62, Cedrick Hebert.

The October Home Demonstration club meeting of the Grand Chenier HD club will be held in the home of Mrs. Lyle Crain, co-hostessed by Mrs. Watkins Miller, according to Mrs. Guthrie Perry, club president.

The meeting is scheduled for Thursday night, Oct. 21, at 7:30. Mrs. Perry said that this is a very important meeting of the club as final plans will be made for HD Council Achievement day, which is being held Oct. 23 in Cameron.

Equipment installed at Johnson Bayou

A large Astro-climber and 8 seat swing set was installed on the school grounds in time for the opening of this term.

The result of long range planning, the equipment was purchased with funds made at Association sponsored events. This included the Harvest Festival and donkey ballgames.

Other recent contributions to the school by the Athletic Association includes track uniforms and a complete first aid box for the athletes.

Friends and parents are invited to attend Association meetings to make suggestions for future purchases.

"JIMMIE DAVIS does things"

NO NEW TAXES BY EITHER DAVIS ADMINISTRATION AND MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN SURPLUS LEFT IN THE STATE TREASURY BY BOTH DAVIS ADMINISTRATIONS!

TOLEDO BEND DAM—One of the largest, man-made recreational and hydroelectric power plants ever developed in the United States. It was undertaken by the State of Louisiana and the State of Texas and was not financed or subsidized by the Federal Government. Its hundreds of miles of shoreline have revolutionized the economy of Western Louisiana to great prosperity.

BATON ROUGE-PORT ALLEN BRIDGE—Strategic crossing of the Mississippi in the business districts of Baton Rouge and Port Allen that many said "couldn't be done."

SUNSHINE BRIDGE—The National "Chemical Week" magazine predicted that "The Sunshine Bridge could bring about a second Ruhr Valley." "Chemical Week" was right as industrial development about the bridge now totals three quarters of a billion dollars and employs thousands. Annual revenues from the bridge have increased from $365,000 to $700,000 or 93%.

SOUTH SHREVEPORT-BOSSIER BRIDGE — Immeasurable benefits to the fast-growing Caddo-Bossier area, connecting great population areas across the Red River.

INVESTMENT OF IDLE FUNDS — First legislation passed by the Davis administration.

SPORTSMEN'S PROGRAMS—During 1960-1964 the Davis Administration leased, purchased and opened to the public more acreage for sportsmen's programs than any other state in the south! This includes the Alexandria Area in Rapides Parish; Concordia Area; Fort Polk Game Management; Jackson-Bienville Area; Lutcher-Moore Area in Vernon Parish; Russell-Sage Area in Ouachita Parish; Saline Area in Catahoula and LaSalle Parishes and Lake D'Arbonne. The Rockefeller Refuge was opened for sports fishing for the first time. The Wildlife Conservation Education Program was begun. Marsh Island was improved. Twenty public boat launching ramps were constructed and more streams and lakes were cleaned of water hyacinth than by any previous administration or any administration that followed. It should also be noted that during the Davis administration every penny in the Conservation Department was used for wildlife purposes.

FORESTRY ACT—Governor Davis passed the Forestry Act and created the Forestry Commission. Prior to this, Louisiana was running out of timber to cut. Now, this industry encompasses some 16 million acres of forests in Louisiana, means a billion dollars to the state annually and employs more than 40,000 people full time.

FIRST MAJOR DRAINAGE PROGRAM—Hundreds of thousands of acres of land were reclaimed throughout the State.

THE DAVIS YEARS WERE TIMES OF GREAT ACCOMPLISHMENTS FOR LOUISIANA—From 1960-64 some 6,816 miles of highways were completed. This includes the Expressway at Shreveport; Crowley to Jennings; Ruston to Grambling; the Expressway at Lake Charles and the Expressway at Baton Rouge. Passed a law providing that the blind would operate vending stands in state buildings. Increased old age assistance during both terms as Governor. Jimmie Davis started the program that gave free milk to school children. Created four major fresh water reservoirs including Toledo Bend, Lake Claiborne, Nantachie Lake, completed D'Arbonne Reservoir and built several other smaller lakes. Increased teacher salaries during both terms as Governor. From 1960-64 he increased the pay of classified state employees approximately $500 per year. He created the State Employees Retirement System. Established the Department of Veterans Affairs. 58 major buildings were constructed at existing institutions. 4 agricultural experiment stations were built. Created artificial insemination program which made possible beef cattle and dairy herds comparable to any in the nation. Nicholls College at Thibodaux was created. Created Trade and Vocational Schools at Shreveport, Plaquemine, St. Martinville, Opelousas, Marksville, Hammond, Alexandria, Baton Rouge, West Monroe and Lake Charles.

HOSPITALS BUILT BY DAVIS—Charity at Baton Rouge, TB Hospital at Alexandria, Confederate Hospital at Shreveport, St. Tammany Hospital at Covington, TB Hospital at Ruston, TB Hospital Unit at Lafayette.

OTHER MEDICAL FACILITIES—State Spastic School at Alexandria, Clinic, Florida Parish Hospital, Villa Feliciana Hospital for the Aged.

MENTAL RETARDATION—Retarded Children's Schools created at Hammond, Leesville and Belle Chase. Nine day care centers for the retarded were created. Mental Health Centers created at New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Crowley and Shreveport.

"I look beyond this election. I look beyond all elections. I look to the time when they're going to take me, just like they're going to take you, to that silent city on the hill — and we're not coming back. That's the last ride. A place where there are no big men and no little men; no rich men and no poor men; no big shots and no little shots; where six feet of earth make 'em all the same size."

Sweetlake HD plans for Achieve. Day

The Sweetlake Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Oct. 11, at the Grand Lake School gym. Plans were made for the duties of the club at Achievement Day in Cameron on Oct. 23.

While there the members practiced on their skit for Achievement Day.

The meeting was called to order by President Mrs. Albert Guidry. Club collect and pledge of allegiance to the flag were led by Mrs. Herman Precht. Mrs. Charles Precht read the minutes. Mrs. Larry Eagleson, treasurer, gave a report.

Roll call was answered with a "household hint." Members were asked to bring country counter and grab bag articles if possible to Achievement Day in Cameron Oct. 23.

Several project reports were read to the club. The lunch was also planned for Achievement Day. Mrs. Joe Fruge, who is in charge of name tags for the club, showed a sample.

There will be an orchard forum in Hackberry Tuesday, Nov. 9 on citrus, peach and pecan trees.

Defensive driving was discussed also.

Installation tea will be on Dec. 3 with a Christmas theme.

A Christmas wreath made with artificial fruit was showed by Miss Patsy Granger, home agent.

Miss Granger gave a demonstration on "Nine Standards for Judging Needlework."

Refreshments were served to 19 members and one visitor, Pam Duhon, a Senior 4-H club member, who was there. She showed the silver tray she won at the Rice Festival in Crowley.

Mrs. Herman Precht was hostess. She served refreshments.

A Message to the People of Ward 3:

I would like to state that I am running for the office of Police Juror as an independent candidate.

I owe no favors to any political faction or person. If you see fit to elect me, the only people to whom I have to answer are you -- the citizens of Ward Three.

In the past ten or twelve years Cameron has made great progress in the business world. Last year Cameron Parish was rated second in the nation in the fishing industry for total pounds caught.

Louisiana is the second largest oil and gas producing state in the nation. Cameron Parish ranks seventh in the state in production of crude oil and fourth in production of natural gas.

The cattle and farming industries are also big businesses in our parish. These two industries contributed approximately $4,377,000 to our economy last year.

I feel that Cameron Parish needs all of these industries if we are to continue to grow and prosper.

Having been a commercial fisherman, having worked in several different jobs and positions in the oil industry, and knowing first hand about the cattle industry through my farm, I can fully appreciate the problems that face our parish and feel that I can intelligently work toward a favorable solution.

When elected I will devote whatever time is needed to conduct the business of our parish. I will make myself available to talk to you at any time, day or night, either at my office or home.

I want to be the best Police Juror Ward Three has ever had. Won't you help me to help Cameron Parish continue to grow? Please vote for number 205 on Nov. 6th.

HERE'S THE TRUTH

TUES., OCTOBER 5, 1971, Lake Charles American Press

SULPHUR – The Domed Stadium is going to cost $43,000 a day for 365 days a year for 12 years, State Senator Jesse Knowles told West Calcasieu-Kiwanians Monday.

The senator said there has been some talk about his opposition to bills in the legislature and the Domed Stadium is one of the bills he opposed from the beginning.

KNOWLES SAID HIS OPPONENT IN THE SENATORIAL RACE NOT ONLY COAUTHORED THE DOMED STADIUM BILL BUT ALSO WAS THE CO-AUTHOR OF THE TWO-TERM AMENDMENT WHICH ALLOWS A GOVERNOR TO SUCCEED HIMSELF.

Sen. Knowles said he understands some people are upset with him because he was one of the few who voted against all taxes. "It wasn't that I disliked Gov. John McKeithen because I don't – but because there is only one way to get fat off a hog – don't feed it."

Fiscal irresponsibility cost each person in Louisiana, including the babies, $331 for state and local taxes last year, the senator said. This compares with $316 for Texas...$306 for Oklahoma...$252 for Arkansas...$259 for Alabama ...$296 for Mississippi.

"Why?" asked Knowles. "Do we have better roads, do we solve our problems of state better, do we have better educational systems?"

"Louisiana government is being drained of money by people who are not interested in our government but only interested in getting their cut' – it is costing us a lot of money to enjoy bad government," he said.

"I believe the only way we are going to get efficient government is not to put money where they can spend it," he said.

Knowles said he also opposed the North-South toll road because no one has proved it is economically feasible.

He reminded Kiwanians of some of the legislation he either sponsored or backed and said he is especially proud of co-authoring the bill creating Toledo Bend Dam. He said the project was far from popular back in 1960.

He said anyone who has driven up the western boundary of the state knows how much the lake has done for the people. Today those parishes are paying their share of taxes where they paid very little before the lake was created, he said. Maybe their jobs don't pay as much as those in industrial plants but they are jobs which didn't exist before, he said.

A $13 million iceenic drive will be built along the lake on the Louisiana side and this will open up the area even more, he said.

Sen. Knowles urged Kiwanians to study the candidates, find out what the fellows believe in, investigate their records and vote intelligently in the upcoming elections.

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION
FOR
OF

By virtue of and in conformity with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 30 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended, sealed bids will be received in the Office of the State Mineral Board, Oil and Gas Building, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on or before the 10th day of November, 1971, at 10:00 A.M. for an oil, gas and mining lease of the sulphur, potash, oil, gas and other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals in and to the following described property, containing 40.000 acres, more or less, situated in Cameron Parish, Louisiana, to-wit:

TRACT 19147 — All of the lands now or formerly constituting the bed and bottoms of all navigable streams and every nature and description, and all islands and other lands lying within or accretion or relation, except as may be hereinafter set out, under meander lines from the State of Louisiana on September 1, 1971, situated in Cameron Parish, Louisiana, within the following described boundaries: Beginning at the Southeast corner of Section 23, Township 14 South, Range 11 West, Plane Coordinates (NAD 1927) Y=1,219,200.00, X=1,150,200.00 thence North 8,100.00 feet; thence West 13,200.00 feet; thence South 8,100.00 feet; thence East 13,200.00 feet to the point of beginning, containing 40.000 acres, more or less, all more fully shown delineated on a plat filed in the Baton Rouge State Land Office. All bearings are based on Louisiana Coordinate System (South Zone).

All bids to offer a cash bonus for a lease having a primary term which shall not exceed three years. Minimum royalties shall be one-eighth (1/8th) of all oil produced and saved; one-eighth (1/8th) of all gas produced and sold or utilized; and two dollars ($2.00) per each long ton on sulphur mined and saved; ten cents ($0.10) per ton on all potash produced and saved; one-eighth (1/8th) of all other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals produced and saved or utilized.

Should lessee fail to begin the actual drilling (spudding in) of a well on the lease premises within one year from the date of the lease, the lease shall terminate as to both parties as to all of the lands covered thereby, unless on or before such date lessee shall pay or tender a rental which shall be not less than one-half the bonus consideration paid for the lease, which shall cover the privilege of deferring drilling operations for a period of one year. Upon like payments annually, drilling operations may be deferred for successive periods of one year each during the primary term. The primary term of the lease shall not exceed three years. The lease shall provide for the drilling of offset wells, and shall contain all the State's interest and shall contain the provision against the assignment or sublease of the lease unless approved by the State Mineral Board. The lessee shall have the right to enter into pooling or unitization agreements with respect to development of the leased premises subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board.

Bids must be submitted to the REGISTRAR OF STATE LAND OFFICE, for the full amount of the cash bonus, shall accompany and be submitted with each bid, and no bid thus submitted may be thereafter withdrawn or cancelled and the certified check accompanying the bid of the successful bidder shall be forfeited if he is penalized and endorsed by the REGISTRAR, STATE LAND OFFICE; and the successful bidder will enter into such contract that are required by R. S. 30:138, for necessary in accordance with law and all applicable rules of Baton Rouge, Louisiana. No. 15, dated September 15, 1964. The successful bidder to whom the lease is awarded on the date of the lease shall return the written lease duly executed, within TWENTY (20) DAYS after his receipt of same.

NOTE:

In the case of all State Agency Lands, herein offered, certified checks for the cash bonus shall be made payable to each respective State Agency, situated in the nineteenth section of which is situated the land being offered, and, instead, certified check for the full amount of the cash bonus shall be made payable to the STATE TREASURER. Any other requirement or Agreement entered into affecting the State Mineral Board awarded such lease must be complied with by the Agencies.

Consistent with the policy of the Board as expressed in a resolution dated August 12, 1964, all bidders are hereby notified that bids on portions of tracts, should be described by metes and bounds and be accompanied by a transparent plat or tracing thereof, showing the portion sought, the scale of the plat should be 1 inch = 4,000 feet.

No bid will be accepted unless it be written on the 1956 lease form, as amended by Act 59 of 1970, copies of which may be obtained in the State Mineral Board office.

The State Mineral Board reserves the right to reject any and all of the tracts, grant a lease on any portion of the tracts advertised for less than proportionate to the land bid offered for the lease on the entire tract.

Cameron Area news

By MRS. GEORGE NUNEZ

The oil well which was being drilled on Mrs. Wallace Savoy's property turned out to be a dry hole. It was rather a quick drill. In three weeks time it was all over.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Estelle Daigle. Sisters of Max Daigle attending the funeral were Mrs. Matilda Hebert, Mrs. Emma Daigle McCall of Lake Charles, Mrs. Mary Bonsall, Sulphur, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Floyd, Lake Charles, Mrs. Virginia Lemke, Nederland, Mrs. Irene Cantarpiden, Dallas. Some of the grandchildren were Sandy Daigle of New Orleans, Gerald Daigle of Bayou Vista, Johnnie Daigle of Texas City. Mrs. Craddock of Silsbee and Mrs. Elda Holland of Sulphur.

Mrs. Alice Vamado, Mrs. Erma Meeks, of Port Arthur and Mrs. Eunice Matthews of Beaumont, spent Sunday with Mrs. Elray LaBove, Mrs. Armogene Theriot and Edwina, and Mr. and Mrs. George Nunez. Also Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Nunez and Timmy of Vinton spent the week-end with Mrs. Margie Kelley and the George Nunezs. Mr. and Mrs. David Bailey of Big Lake, Texas visited with Mrs. Elray LaBove.

Mrs. Plum Manuel of Basile, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mudd of Eunice, came to the wak of Mrs. Estelle Daigle and also visited with Mrs. Amedia LaBove who is still very ill at her daughter's, Mrs. Allie Nunez. Also spending Saturday with the two were Mr. and Mrs. McDonald Nunez and children of Port Arthur, Mrs. Grace Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guillory of Lake Charles. Mrs. Rhodes also visited her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nunez, Clive and Cannon.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Quinn of Calvys spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Packey Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duhon and Mrs. Raymond Hebert of Orange visited relatives and friends here over the weekend.

Mrs. A. M. Vallette returned home from Shreveport after a month's stay with her daughter, Mrs. Nelva Faye Newton and daughter Kala. Mr. and Mrs. Armogene Theriot, Edwina, Mrs. Betsy Theriot, Nancy and Romaine visited in Port Arthur recently with Mr. and Mrs. Pete Bonsall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fabrigue, Mrs. Earle Lyons of Carlyss visited Mr. and Mrs. George Quinn and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Quinn over the weekend.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Ruth Wismer who is ill. Also to Lenan Manuel who entered the hospital in Eunice for tests and X-rays Monday.

Mrs. Tillie Mudd, Mrs. A. M. Vallett spent Monday and Tuesday in Houston and Baytown with Mrs. Dot Isgitt, Debra and John and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wismer.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of John W. Boullion who was killed last week in a car wreck at Ft. Carson, Col. His wife was hurt and is in the hospital there and will be transferred to a hospital closer here when she is able to be moved. Her mother, Mrs. Phirma LeBoeuf, is up there with her.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Jim Sells who passed away last week in Breaux Bridge.

Algis LaBove of Morgan City visited his mother, Mrs. Amadie LaBove, the past weekend.

Sunday, Oct. 10, Aimee Leigh Mudd was christened at a simple ceremony during the regular Sunday services of the Wakefield Methodist Church at Cameron. The officiating minister was the Rev. Arby W. Coody. Standing with Mrs. Mudd and Aimee was her cousin Andrea Rials.

Belated congratulations to Amanda Mudd on her eighth birthday, which was October 14. Many happy returns.

Rice crop about same

Rice production in Louisiana this year is estimated at 20, 136, 000 hundredweight (12.4 million barrels), according to the Louisiana Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Alexandria. This is the same as the September 1 forecast, but 1 percent less than in 1970 and 2 percent less than in 1969.

Yield per acre is indicated at 2, 850 pounds (23.8 barrels) dry weight, 50 pounds less than in 1970, but 500 pounds more than in 1969.

Rice harvest was about 95 percent complete by Oct. 1. Most of the rice remaining for harvest was in the Delta where the crop is later. Although most rice remaining for harvest in the southwest was downed by Hurricane Edith on Sept. 16, over 90 percent of the crop was harvested before that time. This acreage had increased harvesting losses, but most of the crop was salvaged from these fields.

Pennzoil makes new offshore discovery

Pennzoil announced that its offshore gas and oil subsidiary, POGO, has confirmed a new discovery in West Cameron Block 587 approximately 105 miles offshore Western Louisiana.

The confirmation well is approximately one mile northeast of the initial exploratory test drilled in the extreme southwestern corner of Block 587. The latter was completed in late August with favorable results. Block 587 is one of the western-most tracts sold at the federal offshore lease sale in December 1970.

Based on these early results, the company has ordered an initial 18-well permanent production platform for installation in Block 587. Additional exploratory drilling will be necessary for full evaluation of the tract.

POGO owns 68. 33 percent interest in West Cameron 587. Its partners are Mobil Oil with 15 percent, Cities Service with 10 percent and Texas Production with 6. 66 percent.

Exploratory rigs have recently been moved onto POGO's Vermilion Block 228 and West Cameron 548 for the initial tests on these tracts.

Since the December sale, POGO has drilled or is drilling a total of 17 exploratory wells and has supported four others in return for geological information. The company said that between now and year-end it expects to drill an additional five or six exploratory wells on various tracts.

It will also drill the first six or seven development wells from permanent platforms in East Cameron Block 270 and Eugene Island Block 330.

One of 1st offshore wells drilled here

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

One of the first offshore oil wells ever drilled was drilled off Creole in 1933--another first for Cameron parish.

This early well, drilled by Superior Oil Company, had a wooden structure in about 12 feet of water and some 3,000 feet from shore. But offshore drilling didn't really get underway until 1947.

The presence of asphalt along the Gulf Coast was reported as early as 1542 or 1543 by Desoto's expedition.

These facts, among others, led geologists to suspect that the subsurface formations beneath the seabed might have the same characteristics as the subsurface formations beneath the the adjoining land. This opinion received its first confirmation late in 1944 when seismographic work first started in the Gulf of Mexico.

This great industry which has brought so much prosperity to Cameron parish will be honored at the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival in Cameron in 1972.

It is from the oil industry that a king will be chosen to reign over the festivities Jan. 8 and 9.

The board of directors of the festival will choose the king and his identity will be kept secret until the Friday night program which kicks off the weekend of festivities, according to J. B. Jones Jr., festival president.

This particular alligator, which is one of 12 being used in the program, was captured in the Superior Field on Grand Chenier. It was determined that it had moved from 25 to 30 miles since last June. Alligators can travel as much as five miles in one night, according to Ted Joanen one of the instigators of the program.

From the studies being conducted it was determined that the alligators start moving in the fall of the year, going to den sites or hibernating areas in the winter months.

It is hard to say why this particular alligator wandered so far away from the Refuge. Those in charge of the program seem to think he was a victim of the recent hurricane. He may have moved in the current of the high water and just kept traveling west.

Joanen and Larry McNease who are conducting the Rockefeller study have determined that radio telemetry has become a tool that permits the observation of an animal continuously, completely undisturbed, and in its natural environment. Only through proper management, enforcement, and research can this animal be maintained at a harvestable level.

The big bull is now back home at Rockefeller Refuge thanks to the Broussard family who notified Sheriff Deputy J. L. Constance, who in turn notified Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries employees Joanen, James Nunez and Arnold Rutherford, who came and took the gator back home.

Mary Kelly is Tarpon queen

Pretty Mary Kelly was crowned queen of South Cameron High School at the half time festivities of the South Cameron-Vinton football game Friday in Tarpon stadium. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kelly of Grand Chenier.

Serving as maids in the court were: Vickie Kelly and Stephanie Theriot representing the freshman class: Debra Conner and Gay Lynn Porche, Sophomore maids; Ann Savoie and Antoinette LeBlanc, junior maids, and Diane Broussard, Senior maid.

Ox Yoke rodeo dates reset

The annual Ox Yoke rodeo, which was rained out last weekend, has been rescheduled for Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 29 and 30, according to Wayne Foster, producer.

The rodeo will be held at the Ox Yoke arena at Sweetlake.

Deputies go to seminar

Seven deputies from the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department attended a seminar conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation Tuesday, at Chennault Air Force Base in Lake Charles.

Deputies attending were: Paul Boudreaux, J. B. Erbelding III, John T. Constance, Oren Boudreaux, Curley Vincent, Eddie Turner and Dewey Hebert.

New trial ordered

Charlie Chisholm, from Galveston, Tex., who had been found guilty of theft of equipment from a boat in Cameron and had been sentenced to Angola prison some time ago, was brought back from prison and taken into the Cameron court Thursday, presided over by Judge G. W. Swift.

The original sentence was overthrown due to the fact he had not been advised of his rights by Judge Jack Rodges who was the presiding judge at the original trial.

A new trial has been set for Chisolm for the Petit Jury in the spring.

Justin Boudreaux, of Lake Charles was found guilty of simple battery and was fined $200, plus 91 days in jail, which was suspended and put on a one year probation by Judge Swift.

Davis says ad is false

The advertisement on the front page of the Saturday morning American Press, indicating that former Gov. Jimmie Davis is endorsing some other candidate for Governor is false, misleading and the result of a desperate campaign of these candidates who are faltering in the final days of the first primary, according to Robert Thomas, Campaign Coordinator for the Southwest District of Louisiana for Jimmie Davis.

Davis stated Sunday that after touring all 64 parishes he is firmly convinced that he is in a strong first position in the campaign.

FARM SITUATION

Rice - Rough rice stocks in all storage position on Aug. 1, 1971 totaled 14.9 million cwt., the highest for the date since Aug. 1, 1956. The crop reporting service estimates the 1971 crop at 83.8 million cwt., about 1% above the 1970 crop. With this amount of rice available any price increases during the coming months will just about pay storage costs.

BEEF CATTLE - Prices will continue strong for young calves coming off of pastures. Many calves have already moved due to attractive prices. In addition, reports from across the U.S. indicate we will have a large corn crop, better than average milo crop and silage production will be above average.

This coupled with a favorable fed market outlook all adds up to firm prices. This may be a good year to consider selling at lighter weights rather than carrying calves to heavier weights on winter pastures.

SOYBEANS - The present prices being quoted on the future markets is somewhat alarming but don't let it scare you. Prices should turn up again after harvest. Storage may prove profitable. However, watch the International news scene closely for retaliation against our 10% surcharge on imports. This could hurt soybean prices.

SOIL TESTS

Fall is an excellent time for farmers and other tillers of the soil to have their soil tested for plant nutrients.

Generally, weather conditions are better in the fall and it is easier to take samples when the soil is in good condition. Early reports also give the farmer time to plan on the grades and amounts of fertilizer he'll need. And taking samples after harvest enables the farmer to remember any trouble spots he encountered in the fields during the growing season.

A soil test provides the best guide for determing the kind and amount of fertilizer to use for producing a given crop on a given field. The chemical analysis or soil test is used primarily to determine the amount of available plant nutrients in the soil.

In a routine analysis, tests are made to determine the available phosphorus, potassium, calcium and magnesium in the soil. The acidity or alkalinity and the amount of lime needed to correct an acid soil is determined.

Soil tests, when properly interpreted, are the best guides for efficient use of fertilizer and lime. So, don't guess - soil test. Anyone desiring to have their soil tested may contact me at the County Agent's office in Cameron. I will go out and collect the sample and send it to LSU for analysis. This is all done for "Free!"

Oct. 27 is deadline

October 27 is the final date for submitting nominating petitions to the local ASCS office for nominees to be on the slate for the upcoming community committeemen elections, according to Francis Klein, ASCS County Committee chairman for Cameron parish.

If six or more candidates are nominated by proper petition, no further nominations will be made, Klein said. If less than six are nominated by petition, the present Community Committee will add the number of nominees needed to complete the slate of six. If a person who is nominated by petition is found ineligible, he will be so notified and given 15 days in which to appeal.

Klein said that letters containing blank petitions have been sent out to all Cameron parish farmers asking them to submit nominees for the community committeeman position.

CREOLE

By GARI BAILEY

Three girls from the Creole area participated in the twirling contest Saturday at the Cal-Cam Fair.

Roxanne and Dianne Myers, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Myers took first in the duet-dance twirl event.

Christy Grubb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Grubb, received one first place and two fourth place trophies in the twirling contest.

Get well wishes to Dewey Savoie, father of Harold Savoie of Creole, who underwent surgery last Friday at St. Patrick's Hospital.

Clebert Richard underwent surgery last week and is reported doing well at St. Patrick's.

Mrs. Harold (Allie) Cooling and Mrs. Enos Nunez of Lake Charles are vacationing in the Hawaiian Islands for two weeks.

Many of our local citizens attended the rally held in Cameron for Jimmie Davis Friday.

Because of rainy weather, the rodeo in Sweetlake was canceled. It is re-scheduled for two weeks from last weekend. Some of our cowboys were disappointed.

JEFFERY GRANGER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Granger, exhibited the grand champion Suffock market lamb, at the Cal Cam Fair Saturday. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Eagleson and Mr. and Mrs. Junius Granger.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

I am wondering if the lemon and orange trees that Mr. P. H. Granger of Grand Lake wrote of in his diary in October, 1947, are still living. I refer to the manuscript written by the elderly gentleman himself that was edited by Archie Hollister and published in the Cameron Pilot in 1964.

Mr. Granger told of his 20 orange trees and one lemon tree. The latter was loaded with some 300 lemons. It seems to have been his pride and joy. He mentioned that in three days the fruit had increased one-third in size.

The autumn of 1947 was unusually dry. In four days Mr. Granger had hauled 300 gallons of water to his lemon tree. He stated that no rain fell for 58 days. By then, he had ordered and received 175 feet of garden hose, had made a shallow hole around each citrus fruit tree, and had begun irrigating them by pumping water from a well into a barrel and allowing it to flow through the hose.

He told of having attached an ox collar made of one-inch pipe to the barrel as a part of his pumping system.

That ox collar was one of two that had been fashioned many years earlier for the yokes that were used on his father's team of oxen.

The iron-pipe collars marked a real advancement in plowing oxen. Sixty years earlier Mr. Granger's father had fastened the yoke directly to the oxen's horns by means of rawhide.

What a lot of living and discovering Mr. P. H. Granger must have done during his long life at Grand Lake! And what a wonderfully understanding old gentleman he must have been.

Festival planned

Emergency loans available here

Emergency loans are available in Cameron Parish for farmers and ranchers who suffered losses as a result of Hurricane Edith, Howard J. Manuel, County Supervisor for Farmers Home Administration, has announced.

Under the Disaster Relief Act of 1970, these loans are available to farmers and ranchers who suffered qualifying losses from the hurricane to continue their normal operations. Interest on these loans is set each month and it will not exceed 6 percent. The rate for the month of October is 5 1/8%.

Among the purposes for which loan funds may be used are to buy feed, seed, fertilizer, insecticides, herbicides, and other essential operating expenses; to pay interest and depreciation on secured debts; and family living expenses.

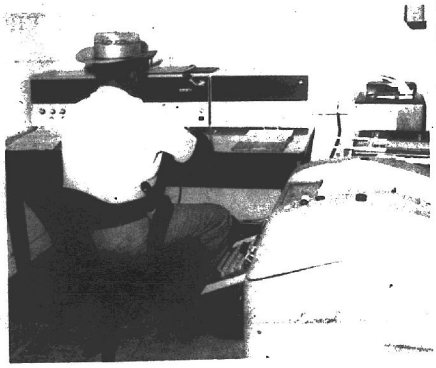
Cancellation of a portion of the principal of these loans is also authorized where qualifying losses justify it. Mr. Manuel said that the purposes of these loans is to help restore farmers to the same level of production that they had before the hurricane struck.

Further information about these loans may be obtained from the local FHA office located at 2101 Federal Bldg., Lake Charles.

Gumbo

The South Cameron high school junior class will sponsor a gumbo prior to the DeQuincy-South Cameron football game, to be held from 5:30 to 7:30 p. m. in the cafeteria.

Shrimp and chicken gumbo will be sold at $1 per plate. Funds will be used for class activities.



DEPUTY NORMAN LABOVE here operates the new radio center of the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department.

New sheriff radio system installed

The first phase of the new 5 channel communications radio system has been installed in the Cameron parish sheriff's department, it was announced this week by Sheriff Claude Eagleson.

Funds are being provided by the federal government through the new omnibus crime bill.

The old radio system was a single channel hook-up, with all law enforcement departments from the surrounding areas on the same channel, making communications very difficult.

Under the new system there will be 5 channels, one each for state police, a private frequency used only by the Cameron Sheriff's department, civil defense, Port Arthur and Beaumont, Texas sheriff's departments and an open channel.

Each patrol car will have two frequencies. New channels will be added under the second grant, which will be $7,000 and will probably be ready in 1972.

A $9,000 grant was included in the first phase of the program. A new directional 150 foot antenna was also part of the program. It is located in back of the courthouse and is self contained. In case of a power failure, which frequently happens during hurricanes, it can be connected to the generator which is located on the top floor of the courthouse.

With the new teletype, the local department now has communication with all law enforcement units throughout the state.

Sheriff Eagleson says the local department now compares with any sheriff department anywhere with the most up-to-date equipment available.

Tarpons still tops

South Cameron high school was still leading District 4-AA football this week after taking a 47-18 victory over Welsh last week.

The win gave the Tarpons seven victories and no losses in district play.

The Tarps seem headed for another win this week as they play hosts to the DeQuincy Tigers, who have only two wins, five losses and a tie this season.

Hackberry lost 44-8 to Elton last week to give the team a 1-5-1 record. The Mustangs will host Goretti this week.

Meeting set

A joint meeting of the Cameron and Calcasieu ASCS County Committees has been called for Monday, Nov. 1 at 9:30 a. m. in the Calcasieu office, located in the Federal Building in Lake Charles, according to W. G. Pickett, Calcasieu ASCS County Committee Chairman.

Jr. Deputies

Riley Richard, youth coordinator of the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department, announced that the organizational meeting of the new Cameron-Creole-Grand Chenier unit of the Junior Deputies will be held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 30, at 2 p. m. in the Cameron courthouse.

Bake sale set

A bake sale will be conducted by the Grand Chenier Junior 4-H Club on Nov. 6, election day, at the two voting places in Grand Chenier, East's Garage and the American Legion Hall, according to Mrs. David Duncan, local 4-H leader.

Home baked goods will be sold by the 4-H members all day.

Barbecue set

The Stuslee Post 364, American Legion will have a barbecue Sunday, Oct. 31 at the Legion home in Grand Chenier, according to Dalton Richard, commander.

Funds are being raised for repairs needed to the home. Chicken and sausage will be served with all trimmings beginning at 11 a. m.

Regular Sunday bingo will also be played in the afternoon.

Ambulance service to continue thru Dec. 31

South Cameron Memorial Hospital will continue to operate ambulance service in lower Cameron parish through Dec. 31, it was announced this week.

The hospital had planned to discontinue the service as of Nov. 1 but the 60 additional days were granted by the board of directors of the Lower Cameron Hospital Service District after Rep. Conway LeBleu and Attorney Ward Fontenot appealed to the board for additional time to see if a Cameron Lions committee can come up with some plan for continuing the service.

However, on Nov. 1 only one of the two ambulances will be in operation full time and will operate only within the hospital district for emergency calls only.

The hospital has advertised for bids on the ambulances but now will hold off on selling the vehicles until the new plans are made.

The hospital board had voted recently to discontinue the ambulance service after residents of the hospital district had voted 577 to 199 against a two-mill tax to finance the service.

The board said it could not continue to operate the service without the additional funds.

Ambulance service had been provided for years here by O'Donnell Funeral Home. However, because of new government regulations the cost of operating the service became prohibitive to the firm and ambulances were taken over several months ago by the hospital.

Knowles favors cut in government cost

State Senator Jesse Knowles told the Cameron Lions Club last week that he has been accused of being a "negative senator" but of the 17,000 or so bills he has voted on, he voted against about 2,000 and those were all in the interest of saving money for the taxpayer.

Among those negative votes was his stand against the Domed Stadium, he said. "This will cost the people of Louisiana $43,000 every day of the year for 12 years," he said. "And this will be taken off the top of the state money each year before any appropriations can be made."

He said he understands there is a man running for governor who promises to save the state $48 million by consolidating agencies and he said he would support any man who can do that.

State and local taxes cost us $331 for every one in Louisiana last year while the per capita tax in Texas was only $316, he said. He added that he doesn't think Louisiana's roads are that much better nor any of the other state services.

"I am going to work with anyone who wants to cut down the cost of our government," the senator said.

Sen. Knowles said he had also opposed the two-term amendment for the governor because he could build up too much power in eight years and he opposed the North-South toll road because it is economically unfeasible. He said it would cost less to four-lane the existing road.

He said he is very proud to have co-authored the Toledo Bend Dam legislation. This lake has added the western side of the state and when the scenic drive is built along the lake the area will open up even more.

The speaker was introduced by J. Berton Daigle.

Cattle drive is made this week

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The J. B. Meaux cattle here was back on its home range south of Creole this week after the annual drive of the herd from its summer range near Ragley in Beauregard and Allen parishes.

Meaux has been driving the herd of over 400 head to the Ragley pasture for summer grazing and back home for winter grazing for the past ten years.

This is done to remove the cattle from summer storm threats and insects. It is also done to give the salt marsh range a rest from grazing, allowing about six months of undisturbed growth. This maintains vigorous growth of grasses to protect the soil from erosion and guarantee abundant forage for the next grazing season.

Conservation farming has been a regular practice of Meaux. He has been a cooperator with the Gulf Coast Soil and Water Conservation District since 1960. He continued the conservation plan developed by his father in 1951.

With technical assistance from the Soil Conservation Service, which assists the SCS Districts, and financial cost-sharing provided by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, through the ASCS office with REAP funds, Meaux has built over 3 miles of cattle walkways. These walkways help distribute grazing over the entire marsh range and prevent overgrazing of the area.

Nearly 70 acres of improved pastures to protect the land from erosion and provide better grazing have also been established by Meaux.

These annual cattle drives are reminiscent of the oldtime cattle drives because they are made by driving the cattle down the highways and swimming them at the Calcasieu River in the Moss Bluff area. They are pastured at night along the way in various private pastures.

Hospital news

Admitted to South Cameron Memorial Hospital recently were the following patients:

Oct. 11 - Arnold Rutherford, Creole; Jerrie Ann Miller, Grand Chenier; Victoria Cuidry, Lake Charles.

Oct. 12 - Lee J. Conner, Clebert Richard, Creole.

Oct. 13 - Alma Lee Trahan, Henry Lute, Barry Kelley, Cameron; Lynn R. Jones, Jr., Grand Chenier.

Oct. 14 - Burl LaBove, Melissa Racca, Edwin LeBlanc, Bridget Wolfe, Cameron.

Oct. 15 - Justin Louvierre, Jess W. Savoie, Cameron; Preston J. Leger, Opelousas; Charles Inman, Bridge City, Tex.

Oct. 17 - Gerald E. Daughty, Freeport, Tex.

Lions report on ambulances

A report on the ambulance situation in Cameron parish was read from the ambulance committee at the Cameron Lions Club meeting last week.

The committee said they had met and had come up with a plan which would involve the forming of a volunteer rescue service. It also reported that the plan will need some further study.

President Roland Trosclair announced that the National Lions Club convention will be held in Mexico City in June, 1972. Several of the local members are making plans to attend.

The state Lions convention will be held in Lake Charles on June 2 and 3 in the new civic center on the lake front.

Ward Fontenot was appointed chairman of the food exchange committee for the club. Named to serve with him are: Bob Farley, Tom Steed, Rodney Guilbeaux, and Jimmy DeRouen. Each year the club exchanges a local product of food with a club from another state and the local club members have a dinner featuring the product. The local product of barter is usually shrimp.

J. B. Jones, Jr. was appointed chairman for the bi-annual spring program. Other members of this committee are: A. J. Howard, Bill Morris, Earl Mouton and Uland Guidry. Every two years the local club sponsors a nationally known personality in a program to raise money to carry out the various club programs.

Assembly sets meeting here

The Msgr. Cramer General Assembly, Knights of Columbus, will have their monthly meeting Thursday, Oct. 28, at Cameron. Our Lady Star of the Sea Council 5461 will be host.

Liaison Officer Earl Mouton is in charge of this meeting and social function which begin at 7:30 p. m.

The second talk in the new series of talks will be delivered by the Rev. Joseph Behr C. S. S. P. of the Immaculate Heart Church of Lake Charles. The subject will be on the Holy Ghost Fathers.

The Assembly's quarterly communion is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 31 and will be dedicated to Msgr. Louis H. Boudreaux, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church who was recently made a Vicar General of the Diocese of Lafayette by Bishop Maurice Schexnayder.

Cameron, Louisiana
October 11, 1971

The Cameron Parish School Board met in regular monthly session on this date with the following members present: Percy David, President, Lee J. Conner, John Preston Richard, Mervyn L. Taylor, Alvin Trahan, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Riggs. Absent: None.

On motion of Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Richard and carried, the Board dispensed with the reading of the minutes for the meeting held on September 13, 1971, and approve same as published in the official journal.

The first order of business was to receive and open bids for mineral lease on Section 16, Township 15 South, Range 15 West. As no bids were received, the Board authorized and directed the Superintendent to deposit the $200.00 good faith check of Amoco Production Company forwarded by that company with a request to advertise this section for lease.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board proceeded to open and tabulate bids for leasing of surface rights on the following Sixteenth Sections:

Bidder	Sixteenth Section	Annual Rental
Ronald F. Brewer	16-12-6	$1,002.00
Beverly H. Cox	16-12-6	1,005.00
G. K. Parham	16-12-13	60.00
John A. Conner	16-15-6	310.00
Jos. W. Rutherford	16-15-6	376.00
Sue Granger	16-15-15	903.00

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, the Board awarded leases to the high bidders on the following sections:

Section 16-12-6	Beverly H. Cox
Section 16-15-6	Jos. W. Rutherford
Section 16-15-15	Sue Granger

Due to the fact that the bid on Section 16, Township 12 South, Range 13 West did not meet the legal minimum requirements, it was moved by Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried that the bids as submitted be rejected.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, the Board accepted the resignation of Deloris Gordon as a teacher at the Cameron Elementary School effective October 1, 1971.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board approved the employment of Mrs. Shirley Boudreaux as a teacher at the Cameron Elementary School replacing Deloris Gordon.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board approved the purchase of a new speaker for the South Cameron High School football field.

The following Resolution was offered by Mrs. Riggs, who moved its adoption, which motion was seconded by Mr. Taylor and carried unanimously by the Board:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, a study group employed by the Louisiana Engineering Society has recommended that the engineering program at McNeese State University be discontinued, and

WHEREAS, McNeese State University is in the center of the third largest industrial complex in Louisiana where the need for trained engineers is evident, and

WHEREAS, the engineering department of McNeese State University is answering the needs of the young people graduating from the high schools of Southwest Louisiana, and

WHEREAS, the discontinuance of this program would seriously hamper the future plans of these young people as well as those of adults currently employed in the area and taking needed courses at McNeese State University;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Cameron Parish School Board duly convened this eleventh day of October, 1971, in Cameron, Louisiana, go on record as being strongly opposed to the discontinuance of the engineering program at McNeese State University and urges that the program be further expanded, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Governor, the Coordinating Council for Higher Education, the State Board of Education, and the State Department of Education.

On motion by Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, the Superintendent was authorized and directed to write a letter to the Governor commending him for restoring the $3.00 per ADM to the public school budget.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, the Board gave approval to Amoco Production Corporation to do seismic work on Section 16, Township 15 South, Range 6 West, and to reimburse the School Board $50.00 per shot hole.

On motion by Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, the Board approved having only one lunchroom manager in each school effective with the 1972-73 school session.

On motion of Mr. Conner, seconded by Mr. Richard and carried, the Board authorized the Superintendent to make the necessary arrangements for the lease of land for an extra exit road to the South Cameron High School stadium.

The Board authorized and directed the Superintendent to write a letter to the Sheriff thanking him for his cooperation at the South Cameron High School football games.

On motion of Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Trahan and carried, with Mervyn Taylor abstaining, the Board voted to Beverly Harrison, president of the Johnson Bayou Senior 4-H club, presided over the first meeting of the club this week at the school.

Miss Harrison introduced the club leaders, Mrs. John Prescott and Mrs. Polly Tedrow, and the other club officers: Mona Jinks, vice-president; Cindy Trahan, secretary; Glen Trahan, parliamentarian; Angie Sandifer, reporter; and Juanita Jinks, treasurer.

It was decided that the club meetings will be held on the first Wednesday of each month.

Programs for the year were discussed and project enrollment cards were filled out by each club member.

A fresh look at storing produce

Many people are not informed about how to store fresh produce to be at its best, says the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association. Keep fresh vegetables cold and humid in the refrigerator. Humidity can be achieved by storing fresh vegetables in a film bag, or in the crisper compartment. Do not allow produce to become so moist that it shows droplets of water as this brings about deterioration.

Look for grades

Before butter is sold it is graded by government inspectors on the basis of taste, aroma, body and texture. Look for these grades on butter labels. Grade AA (the very best), Grade A (very good), and Grade B (standard).

who cares about our sportsmen

JIMMIE DAVIS cares

Jimmie Davis cares about conservation, ecology, and the sportsman. He built Toledo Bend Dam, one of the largest, man-made recreational and hydroelectric power plants ever developed in the United States. During his last term, the Davis Administration leased, purchased and opened to the public more acreage for sportsmen's programs than any other state in the South! The Rockefeller Refuge was opened for sports fishing for the first time. The Wildlife Conservation Education Program was begun. Marsh Island was improved. And every penny in the Conservation Fund was used for wildlife purposes. Jimmy Davis did more for the outdoorsman than any man who has ever sat in the governor's chair.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

By ELORA MONTTE

With the duck hunting season just 15 days away, many sportsmen are busy hauling in their hunting equipment and fixing up blinds.

The wild rice not only has grown in marshes but also in the boat canals stopping up many hunting ditches. Some are so stopped up that marsh buggies and large mud boats had to be used for cleaning out the ditches to get to the duck blinds.

There will be no shortage on duck feed. Also ponds are full of duck moss which is very good feed.

Sportsmen reported seeing tremendous flocks of ducks already arriving.

Herman Taylor, who formerly operated a hunting camp at Oak Grove, will operate his hunting from Grand Chenier. He was busy this past weekend moving in furniture.

Dr. Jerry Hebert of Lake Charles who owns his own private hunting club, was also busy this past weekend moving in boats and pirouges.

It will be a busy time for sportsmen for the next few weeks getting all their hunting equipment and blinds ready for Nov. 11.

TIME CHANGE

Many folks here at the Chenier have been looking forward for the coming weekend for the change of time. The time goes back one hour at 2 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 31.

School pupils, teachers and employees and workmen are some of the folks who are most affected by the time change and will take advantage of the hour more in the morning, which is very much needed at this time of year when the days get shorter.

DEATH

Sympathy is extended to the family and friends of Travis Austin of Lockport, a retired employee of Pan Am Company, who died this past week.

Mr. Austin was very well known in Grand Chenier as he and his wife spent several years here while he was employed.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swire of Jennings visited Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Nunez Saturday. They also visited the Donald Lee Millers and Frank Millers.

Vick Michael of Lake Charles visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Boudreaux and Elora Montie Saturday.

Gilliam Montie of Port Arthur, Tex., spent Sunday and Monday in Grand Chenier visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Baccigalopi and spent Sunday night with Elora Montie and Ray Nunez. Mr. Montie brought his mother Mrs. Josephine Montie, to spend a few weeks with the Baccigalopies here. She spent six weeks with them in Port Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Pellegrin and family of Houma visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Bonsall over the weekend here.

The LeRoy Brunes of Lafayette spent the weekend visiting Mrs. Brunes' relatives here.

Visiting Mrs. Charles Richard Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richard in Lake Charles.

Dr. M. O. Miller and Mrs. Miller and daughter of New Orleans spent several days in their home here. Mrs. Miller and daughter returned to New Orleans. Their son Val and Dr. Miller will be on the Chenier awhile longer. Dr. Miller is spending some time with his brother, Severin Miller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Doland had visiting them for the weekend the Curtis Richards of Orange, Tex.

Richard Wayne Granger, who is stationed in Virginia, spent several days in Houston on business there.

While near, he visited his grandmother Mrs. Clodia Miller and other relatives here.

The Joe Babineaux family of Lake Charles spent the weekend here visiting the Earl Booths and Oscar Sturleses.

Spending the weekend here in their camp were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chabreck and family of Baton Rouge.

Chenier meeting has Halloween theme

A halloween theme was used in the decorations of the home and the refreshment table at the October meeting of the Grand Chenier Home Demonstration Club held in the home of Mrs. Lyle Crain this week. Mrs. Watkins Miller served as co-hostess.

Mrs. Guthrie Perry, club president, was in charge of the business meeting. Duties of the club and the skit the club will be presenting at HD Council Achievement Day were discussed.

Roll call was answered with a household hint. Mrs. Perry reminded club members about the Thanksgiving covered dish supper which will be held at the home of Mrs. Pat Doland on Nov. 18. Each member is to bring a covered dish. Wilmer Smith, Cameron parish superintendent of schools will be the guest speaker for the meeting. He will outline plans for the Cameron parish school system.

Club members were also reminded about the HD Council officer installation tea which is being held on Dec. 3 in the Cameron parish library in Cameron. Christmas decorations which are handmade will be on display. Club members were asked to bring examples to be put in display.

The annual Christmas lighting contest, which will be held during the Christmas holidays was discussed. Mrs. Perry said that she would assume chairmanship of the contest this year. The club annually sponsors this contest and awards three prizes for outdoor decorations at homes on Grand Chenier and Oak Grove.

Mrs. Lyle Crain, who is in charge of the recipe section of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival program book made a report on the progress of the book for the upcoming festival. She urged club members to turn in recipes they plan to submit for publications.

Fishermen on the Sinai Peninsula market $1.5 million in fresh fish annually in Israel.

Parent-teacher meeting is set

A meeting of Grand Chenier Elementary school faculty members was held last week in the school library to discuss the remedial work planned for the children attending school.

Mrs. Cook, from McNeese State University presented material which the McNeese team will recommend for use with those children referred to them.

Mrs. Paula Wagner and Mrs. Sonny McCall explained the procedures for obtaining these materials on a loan basis, from the parish school board.

Remedial work is discussed

A Parent-Teacher meeting for the third grade of Cameron Elementary school will be held Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 2 p.m., according to William O. Morris, principal.

It will be held in the students' respective classrooms. The third grade teachers will discuss with the parents grading, assignments and students progress.

Store onions correctly

These giant sweet Spanish onions are excellent keepers, but they should be stored correctly. Keep them in cool, dry well - ventilated spot, but do not refrigerate. Once the onion is cut, it will keep two to three weeks if placed in a covered container or plastic bag and stored in the refrigerator.

Congratulations, Yelverton

We offer Henry Yelverton our congratulations upon his appointment and confirmation as judge of the 14th Judicial District of Calcasieu and Cameron parishes.

At this time in history, when the judiciary and even the whole system of law and justice in this nation are under so many pressures, we feel that the men to preside over our courts should be more than just good lawyers. It takes a man of rare qualities to be a superior judge, and we believe that Yelverton has demonstrated these attributes.

Yelverton has, as assistant district attorney, proved himself a competent practitioner of the law. But even more important, his service as legal adviser of public bodies such as the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury and Calcasieu Parish School Board has shown this man to be a true servant of the public interest.

Perhaps one of the greatest qualities a man can possess in qualifying him for a judgeship is his ability to command the respect of others, especially during these trying times for the American judicial system. We believe that the vacancy on the 14th Judicial District bench has now been filled with a man already respected in all branches of local government, within the legal profession and among the citizenry of this area. We feel that his past record shows that he will maintain that respect as district judge.

We are pleased that Yelverton's exceptional past service has brought him this reward, and we believe that his appointment is not only a great step in his career but for justice in Calcasieu Parish.

Blue Birds are named

The newly organized Blue Bird group in Creole has chosen the name of "Buttercup Blue Birds" as its name. It meets every Thursday after school at 3:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Roland Primeaux.

Mrs. William Winn is assistant leader and Mrs. Cora Hendrix and Miss Joelle Primeaux are sponsors.

The Blue Bird candle was lit at the meeting of the group held this week. The meeting was presided over by Holly Hendrix, president. Forming a friendship circle the group sang songs.

A halloween party is planned with club members wearing masks that they made out of paper bags at one of their meetings.

Cake sale to be held at polls on Nov. 6th

Plans to conduct a public cake sale were made by members of the Creole Home Demonstration Club at the club's October meeting held in the home of Mrs. Harold Carter. Assisting Mrs. Carter with hostess duties were Mrs. Sidney Savoie, Mrs. Robert Wicke, and Mrs. Anna Paris.

The cake sale, set for Saturday, Nov. 6, will be conducted at two different places, the K.C. Hall in Creole and the poll in Murler. Homemade cookies, cakes and candy will be sold throughout the day.

Mrs. William Morris reported on the quarterly council meeting which she had attended at the Cameron Courthouse earlier this month.

The group was informed by President Mrs. Robert Ortego that the club would again be in charge of building the Home Demonstration Council float for the Fur Festival Parade in January. She stated that a special float committee would be appointed to take charge of the project.

Agent Patsy Granger announced that an Orchard Forum would be held on Nov. 9 in Hackberry at a place to be announced. Specialists from LSU will conduct the forum which is open to the public.

Following the business meeting, Miss Granger gave two different demonstrations. The first was on "The Selection and Care of Shoes," and the second, on "How to Select Crafts for Home Furnishings." In the latter, she used several handmade crochet and embroider pieces to illustrate her points.

There were 24 members and four guests attending the meeting.

Penny foolish

It's "penny foolish" to buy fresh fruits and vegetables affected by decay, says the Consumer and Marketing Service. Even if you do trim off the decayed area, rapid deterioration is likely to spread to the salvaged area. A few cents extra for vegetables in good condition is a good investment.

ELECT

TO THE

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTE

NO. 177

on the ballot

On November 6th the Democrats of Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes will vote for two "at large" members to the Democratic State Central Committee. A total of four members will serve from the two parishes. The incumbent member from Lake Charles (Calcasieu Parish) and Cameron (Cameron Parish) are unopposed and therefore, only the two "at large" posts are to be filled. Five candidates have filed for these two seats. Four of the candidates are from Lake Charles--one candidate, myself, is from the West Calcasieu area (Sulphur). The Lake Charles area is thus assured of having at least two members on the Committee. The Cameron area is assured of having one member on the Committee. If the two seats are filled by candidates from Lake Charles, then the Lake Charles area will have three members and the West Calcasieu area will have none. In the interest of "balanced representation", I feel that the West Calcasieu area needs and deserves representation on the Democratic State Central Committee.

I am presently serving as Chairman of the newly created Executive Committee for the 33rd Representative District and Vice Chairman of the Calcasieu Parish Democratic Committee representing Ward 4. Having served on these committees and gained experience on a local level, I feel that I have the qualifications and experience necessary to effectively serve on the State Central Committee.

My age is 44. I am married and have two children. I have operated a general insurance business, except for service in the Korean War, since 1950. I am a graduate of Sulphur High School and LSU.

Membership on the various committees are non-paying jobs and therefore, voters can be assured that candidates are seeking these posts to serve the best interests of the Democrats of Louisiana. This is most certainly my interest. I have been a diligent member of the two District Committees on which I already serve and I intend to serve just as diligently on the State Central Committee.

My number on the ballot is 177. I earnestly solicit your vote on November 6th.

Sincerely,

Doug Foreman

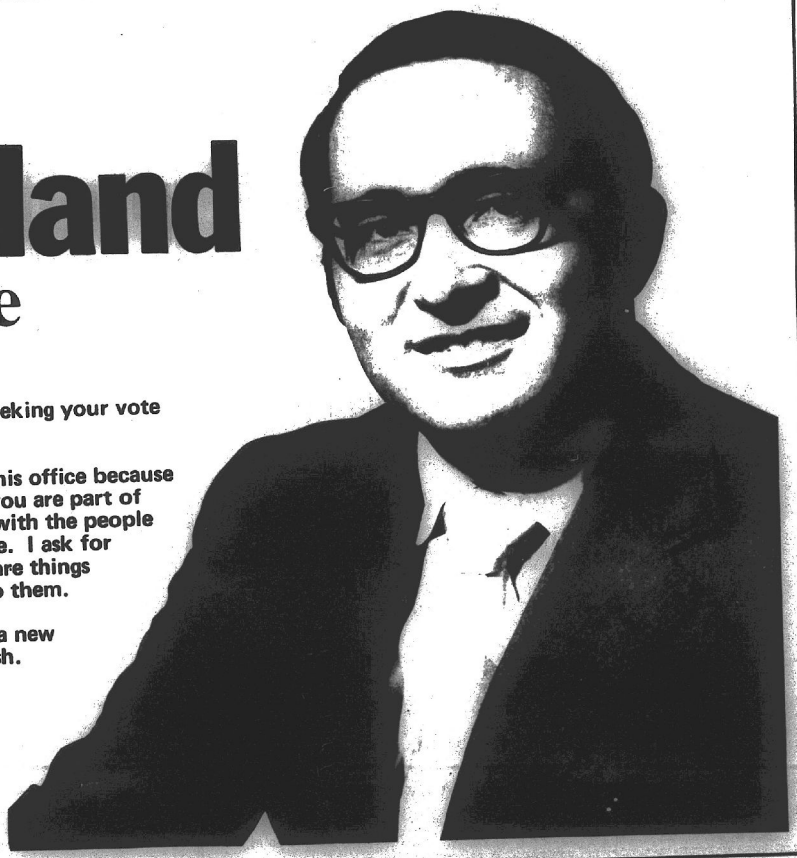
representative



As a native of Cameron Parish, I am seeking your vote for State Representative, District 36.

I decided to become a candidate for this office because if you are not a part of the solution, you are part of the problem. I want to work closely with the people throughout the parish. I want to serve. I ask for your vote and support because there are things that need to be done and I want to do them.

Your vote for Bob Doland will mean a new voice for the people of Cameron Parish.

VOTE NO. 101

Paid for by Bob Doland.

A FAITH THAT MEETS OUR EVERYDAY NEEDS

In times of desperate need, almost everyone feels impelled to call on God for help.

But this eleventh-hour resort to religion isn't enough if we want true peace of mind. It isn't enough if we want to get out of life a sense of personal fulfillment. It isn't enough if we want the spiritual security that every human being craves.

That's why Catholics make their faith such an important part of their everyday living.

Like other Christians, Catholics believe that the Son of God came upon the earth to redeem us from sin... and to instruct us in a religious way of life. We believe that He instituted His church to pass these instructions on to all future generations... and to minister to the spiritual needs of all His followers to the end of time.

Our Lord didn't say that we were to call on Him only when the problems of life were too much for our own solution. He didn't direct us to ponder the sublime truths only in our spare moments... or to think of the next life only as we near the end of this one. He gave us a "blueprint" for everyday living that would keep our mind in tune with His own divine mind... a way of life that would be pleasing to God.

Revolutionary changes are taking place, of course, in our material way of life. But the infinite truths... the Christian concept of God and man... remain unchanged. And the teachings of Our Lord, through His church, continue to offer us the faith that meets our everyday needs.

If you would like dramatic proof of this fact, write today for a free copy of our new pocket-size pamphlet on this topic. If you belong to the vast family of Christian believers ...Catholic or otherwise... it will enhance your appreciation of the Christian heritage. If you have not accepted Christ, you may find His way a better way of life.

Write today ... ask for Pamphlet No. KC-52. No obligation ... nobody will call on you.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

Delving into old diaries is as effective as any science-fiction time machine to carry one into the past. Many times the reader is faced with persons and events that he is unaware seemingly of having experienced. A phrase or a sentence in the old diary stirs to life a memory; then a myriad more come trooping along.

We have been scanning a Cameron Parish diary kept in October of 1931. From it we have selected the incidents that were more or less pertinent to that day.

A tramp was in the Creole area. Neighbors warned one another that it might be wise to lock their doors at night . . . at least, to hook the screens.

One number on a program at the year-old Creole High School was a one-act Negro comedy, "Safety Razors First," played by Berton Daigle and Guy Eagleson.

Mr. Deman Faulk of Creole died on Wednesday, October 14. Funeral services for him were held the next day in the Catholic Church at Creole. All of the teachers and pupils from Creole High School who desired were allowed to attend the funeral.

Jennings Jones, Sr., and Eugene Miller, both of Grand Chenier, underwent appendectomies in St. Patrick's Sanitarium in Lake Charles the latter part of the month. Dr. L. O. Miller accompanied Eugene to the hospital . . . proof of the dedicated services of the old family doctors.

Young people from Grand Chenier and Cameron drove over to Holly Beach for occasional small supper parties or enjoyed "candy-making" parties in one another's homes.

The tennis court at the Creole Catholic rectory was a challenge and a gathering place after school for the Creole teachers and young people in that community.

All over the parish farmers were winding up their cotton picking. Those in the southern part, with harvest money in the pocket, were traveling their beautiful new white shelled road from Holly Beach via Hackberry and Sulphur to Lake Charles.

Lady schoolteachers used their Saturday holidays and their first month's check to get "permanent-waved" in Lake Charles beauty shops or to acquire elegant fall outfits at time-honored Muller's or at less familiar shops.

The annual Calcasieu Cameron Fair in Sulphur was held October 29-31. Teachers representing various Cameron schools decorated their booths on the 28th. Grand Chenier won the silver cup for parish high school; Johnson Bayou for elementary. Second place winners were Creole High and Sweet Lake Elementary.

Hackberry High placed first in the parish map exhibit; Creole High, first in the essay contest and in the general exhibit.

Schools had their usual round of Halloween programs and parties. Church functions and Sunday-school programs drew community attention.

October forty years ago came in warm and dusty on the heels of a north wind. It gave way to November and a heater fire.

Private city?

Crown Center, Kansas City's $200 million "city within a city," is being financed entirely by private capital, with no state or federal assistance.

Aid asked for Auxl. member

Roland Primeaux has been appointed chairman of the Fur Festival parade float planned by the Richard Bros. Post 176 of the American Legion in Creole.

Jules Dronet, post commander, was in charge of the recent meeting at the Post home this week. Dronet presented plans on enlarging the Post home. He will submit them for bids to the lumber companies and present the results to the next meeting.

A donation was given by the Post to the Phirma LeBouef family to help pay expenses of Mrs. LeBouef, who has flown to Colorado Springs, Colo., to be with her injured daughter.

Dronet announced that plans are being made to have the state department commander present at the meeting to be held next month.

A drive has been started by the Richard Bros. Post 176 Ladies Auxiliary for funds to help a local member, Mrs. Phirma LeBouef, who had to fly to the bedside of her critically - injured daughter, Mrs. Lois Boullion, in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Mrs. Boullion was injured in a one-car accident last week in which her husband, John Wayne Boullion was killed. Mrs. Boullion was hospitalized in Colorado Springs with a fractured hip, collar bone and kneecap.

Anyone wishing to make donations can do so by sending them to Mrs. Bobby Primeaux or giving them to Mrs. Primeaux at the Cameron State Bank branch in Creole.

A box is also in the Creole bank to receive donations. Mrs. Primeaux is treasurer of the American Legion Auxiliary.

VOTE LON TYNDALL

State Representative

District 36

BACKGROUND:
Practicing attorney.
Served as State Representative and did not seek re-election until now.

PLATFORM:

1. TAKE LAKE CHARLES CHARITY HOSPITAL OUT OF POLITICS
While serving as State Representative I introduced the Bill and secured the funds to build our Charity Hospital in Lake Charles. If I get it built, I can see that it remains open on a permanent basis.

Also, I would like to change the name of Lake Charles Charity Hospital. Remove the word "Charity" and call it Southwest Louisiana Hospital, or General Hospital, etc. This would at least leave a man some of his pride.

2. FULL SUPPORT FOR McNEESE UNIVERSITY
Too long has McNeese University been "low man on the totem pole." Last year McNeese did not receive even close to adequate funds, and had to cut everything to the bone in order to make it through the year. (Salaries, supplies, equipment, telephone, etc., you name it - they had to cut it.) When I was your legislator before, I saw to it that McNeese had adequate operating funds and capital expenditures.

Many people do not realize the tremendous benefits we receive from McNeese University. The payroll alone is equal to one of our large plant's payroll, not counting the cultural, social, and other benefits we receive. I shall make it a point to see that McNeese University receives adequate funds to make it a greater university.

3. ELIMINATE DOUBLE TAXATION ON LOUISIANA INCOME TAX
Under the law as it is now, a Louisiana taxpayer gets no credit on Louisiana income tax for the federal income tax paid. In other words, he pays state income tax on money he pays to the federal government for federal income tax. This amounts double taxation, or a tax on a tax. Something has to be done about this, and I will endeavor to do so.

4. LOWER THE RETAIL PRICE OF MILK
The people of Louisiana pay more for milk than 92% of the nation's consumers. Louisiana milk prices are the fourth highest in the United States. The present price is 24¢ higher for a gallon of milk than the national average. This is because the Louisiana Milk Commission sets the minimum instead of the maximum price.

5. ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN AN ADEQUATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM FOR CAMERON PARISH
To my friends in Cameron Parish - I will do everything in my power to see that adequate roads and bridges (including an escape route) are furnished to Cameron Parish, and you may rest assured that I will represent Cameron Parish to the fullest extent of my ability. Thank you for your confidence and your vote.

6. REDUCE CAR INSURANCE RATES
Insurance premiums are climbing out of sight. The insurance companies keep hollering that they are losing millions of dollars, but at the same time they are loaning out millions. This is because they are considering only the income on premiums paid, and not considering interest on your money that they are lending or have invested - premiums paid in advance - premiums on cancelled policies - subrogation claims - reserves, etc. I think something can be done about this, and I intend to do so.

7. ELIMINATE "HOLDER IN DUE COURSE" DOCTRINE IN CONSUMER TRANSACTIONS
For example: A homeowner signs a contract and note for home improvement, or other services and materials. The contractor sells the note to a finance company to get his money immediately. The contractor skips town without doing any work or furnishing any materials. Under present law, the consumer would have to pay the finance company anyway.

8. REVISION OF STATE CONSTITUTION
I am a lawyer and it is hard enough for me to find something in the Constitution, much less the average layman. It is loaded with special interests and local issues, making it by far the largest and most complicated Constitution in the United States. The people of Louisiana have expressed their dissatisfaction with the Constitution because in the last election they voted down every amendment. I shall work for a revision of our State Constitution.

9. OTHER PRINCIPAL ITEMS IN MY PLATFORM
1. Four-lane Gulf Highway all the way to the Lake Charles airport.
2. Expedite completion of 210.

10. AGAINST BUSSING
I don't think it is right for anyone to be forced to ride a school bus all the way across town or further.

11. I am a Christian and I intend to run my office on Christian principles.

. . . A Yardstick That Benefits Everybody!

Dedicated to service at the lowest possible cost to ALL who need and want electricity, no matter their social or economic standing, Louisiana's 13 member-owned Rural Electric Cooperatives provide a vital role for city dwellers as well.

Owning and operating 49% of all the distribution power lines (34,000 miles) in Louisiana, but enjoying less than 5% of the total revenue from power sales, the Rural Electrics show just what power should cost in an industry that is monopolistic by its very nature. No matter where you live, the Rural Electric non-profit "yardstick" is important to you.

The "yardstick" has been a stabilizing factor and a contributor to prosperity throughout Louisiana, helping to keep consumer costs low. Co-op power enables rural development for town and country progress—new industries, new jobs, recreational facilities, improved production of food and fibre at lower costs, bigger payrolls and more tax dollars, to name a few.

Serving areas no one else cared to serve, the Rural Electrics today provide 99% area coverage, compared to 2% when visionary leaders organized the first home-owned Cooperative in 1938. Today, they serve in 54 parishes, paying over $500,000 in ad valorem taxes last year to help support local schools, highways, etc.

Operating entirely under Louisiana laws—not federal—the Electric Cooperatives are operated by community-elected Boards of outstanding local citizens who serve without pay—grassroots democracy at its finest. Like you, they have a personal and vested interest in both town and country progress throughout Louisiana.

Taddy Aycock believes in the things you believe in

	Yes	No
NO NEW TAXES, NO NEW BOND ISSUES FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS. I have said many times, if I am elected governor, I will propose no new taxes, no new bond issues during my term in office. Give me your vote, and I will get this done.	☑	☐
LOUISIANA MUST LIVE ON ITS INCOME, NOT ON YOURS. I mean to cut back, cut down and cut off wasteful and inefficient spending of your tax dollars. We now have 266 special state agencies, many of them duplicate and overlap each other. Let's cut out the unnecessary agencies and put our good state employees to work saving your money.	☑	☐
FORCED BUSING BY COURT ORDER IS A FRAUD ON OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM, A CRIME AGAINST OUR CHILDREN. I am totally, unalterably opposed to forced busing of our school children. Give me your vote, and I will use every power of the governor's office to promote legislation which will force our judges back into the courtroom and out of the school room.	☑	☐
TAKE THE HANDCUFFS OFF OUR LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND PUT THEM ON THE CRIMINALS. Let's take the handcuffs off our law enforcement officers and put them on these criminals who spit on the law and foul our society. Give me your vote, and as your governor I promise you the most aggressive campaign this state has yet seen to clean up our cities and make our streets safe for decent people.	☑	☐
GIVE LOUISIANA THE JOBS FOR OUR PEOPLE AND THE PEOPLE FOR OUR JOBS. We have thousands of unemployed on our welfare rolls, and—at the same time—thousands of jobs with nobody trained to fill them. Give me your vote and let's bring new industry to our state and train our unemployed to make a living.	☑	☐
HONESTY AND INTEGRITY IN GOVERNMENT IS OUR GREATEST NEED IN BATON ROUGE. Louisiana today stands at a crossroad. You will decide. Down the easy old road to a sloppy, self-serving government by the same old politicians, with their heads down and their hands out—or—the tough new road to integrity, fiscal responsibility and just plain hard honest work.	☑	☐
WE NEED INDEPENDENCE IN THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE I am the only independent in this governor's race. I am an independent because I owe no obedience to any party. I owe no subservience to any man. I owe nothing to any special interest or special group. I owe nothing to anybody except the taxpaying voters of this state. These are my measurements as an independent. I challenge the others in this race to state what theirs are.	☑	☐
THE PUBLIC OFFICIAL WHO USES HIS OFFICE FOR PERSONAL GAIN STEALS FROM EVERY TAXPAYER AND SHOULD BE TREATED LIKE A THIEF. In my book, the politician who makes "deals" with special interest groups is no better than the one who steals goods from a store. And if you elect me your governor, we're going to deal with both on the same tough terms.	☑	☐
TAKE POLITICS OUT OF THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE BY LIMITING THE GOVERNOR TO ONE TERM. I want only one term and I will accept only one term, because I feel that what has to be done in Baton Rouge is not going to be popular with a lot of politicians. That's why this job needs a governor who doesn't have to play politics for four years so he can be elected for four more. Louisiana needs a governor who will spend his full term working for Louisiana, not working for re-election.	☑	☐
NO MAN SHOULD PAY INCOME TAX TWICE ON THE SAME INCOME, ONCE TO WASHINGTON AND AGAIN TO BATON ROUGE. I believe our state income tax laws are unjust. Our citizens should be allowed to deduct their Federal taxes from their incomes, before figuring their state income taxes. In 1970, I started a program called, B.E.A.M. to reduce waste and inefficiency in state government. This report estimated that $414 million dollars could be cut from state spending in just five years. And with that kind of efficiency, we wouldn't need to tax our people twice in order for the state to live within its means.	☑	☐
MODERN HIGHWAYS, DEVELOPED WATERWAYS, BETTER AND FASTER TRAVEL BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH LOUISIANA ARE ESSENTIAL. Louisiana must progress. And our North and South hignway program is essential to this progress. But, at the same time we must streamline our efficiency, so that these improvements can be made without increasing taxes. And I give you my word, they can, and will, if you elect me your governor.	☑	☐

FOR
OF
BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA 70821

By virtue of and in conformity with the provisions of Chapter Three, Title 30 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended, sealed bids will be received in amount at the State Mineral Board, Oil and Gas Division, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on or before the 10th day of November, 1971, at 10:00 A.M., for an oil, gas and mineral lease of the surface, potash, oil, gas and any other hydrocarbon and non-hydrocarbon minerals and to the same hydrocarbon minerals described in lands and water bottoms covered by Tract No. 12172, Tract No. 12173, which land and tract tion will be offered publicly in the Louisiana Department of Highways Building, Capitol Access Road, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The description of said tracts are more particularly set out below.

TRACT 12147 — Cameron Parish, Louisiana — All of the lands now or formerly constituting the beds and bottoms of all water bodies of every nature and description and all islands and other lands formed by accretion or reliction, shall be tax lands, owned by and not under contract of sale as of September 1, 1971, situated in Cameron Parish, Louisiana, within the following described boundaries: Beginning at the point of intersection of herein described tract, having Southern Pilot Coordinates of X = 1,363,656.40 and Y = 418,580.80; thence North 8,100.00 feet; thence East 12,150.00 feet; thence South 8,100.00 feet; thence East 13,750.00 feet; thence South to the point of beginning, containing 2,500 acres, more or less, all as more fully shown outlined in color on a plat on file in the State Mineral Board Office. All bearings are based on Louisiana Lambert Plane Coordinate System (South Zone).

All bids to offer a cash bonus, for a lease having a primary term which shall not exceed five (5) years. Minimum royalties shall be one-eighth (1/8th) of all oil and one-sixth (1/6th) of all other hydrocarbons produced and saved or utilized; one dollar ($2.00) per each long ton or equivalent thereof and saved or utilized; one dollar ($2.00) per each long ton or equivalent thereof and saved; ten cents (10¢) per ton for all potash produced and saved; one-sixth (1/6th) of all other liquid or gaseous hydrocarbon minerals produced and saved or utilized.

Should lessee fail to begin the actual drilling operations on any well on the leased premises within one year from the lease effective date, the lease shall terminate as to both parties to the lease, unless on or before such anniversary date, lessee shall pay a delay rental (which shall in no event be less than one-half the bonus referred), which shall maintain the lessee's privilege of deferring drilling operations for a period of one (1) year. Like payments annually, drilling operations may be deferred for successive periods of one (1) year each during the primary term. The royalties on the lease shall provide for the drilling at offset wells where necessary to protect the State's interest and shall contain the provisions against the assignment or sublease of the lease unless approved by the State Mineral Board. The lessee shall have the right to enter into pooling or unitization agreements with respect to development of the leased premises subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board.

A Certified check, payable to the REGISTER, STATE LAND OFFICE, for the full amount of the cash bonus, shall accompany and be submitted with each bid, and no bid unaccompanied by the same, after withdrawn or cancelled by the person filing it, shall be considered. The bid of the successful bidder shall be immediately accepted and endorsed by the REGISTER, STATE LAND OFFICE, and the proceeds thereof turned over to the STATE TREASURER, less such deductions that are required by R.S. 30:136, for processing in accordance with law and the applicable provisions of Executive Order No. 10, dated September 1, 1954. The successful bidder whom the lessor is notified of the date of the lease sale shall return the written lease, duly executed, within TWENTY (20) DAYS after his receipt of same.

NOTE:
In the case of all State Agency Leases, unless otherwise offered, certified checks will be due to each respective State Agency, provided that if a sixteenth section, or part thereof, is involved in a tract/tract which is situated in more than one parish, as defined, certified check for the full amount of the cash bonus shall be made payable to the REGISTER, STATE LAND OFFICE. Where a Unit Agreement entered into under the State Mineral Board has been awarded such lease must be approved by the Lessor and/or its Agencies.

Consistent with the policy of the Board as expressed in a resolution dated August 12, 1965, all bodies of water, navigable or non-navigable, as tracts, should be described by metes and bounds and be accompanied by a transparent plat, upon which thereon the portion bid upon. The scale of the plat should be 1 inch = 1,000 feet.

All leases to be awarded shall be written on the 1956 lease form as amended by Act 599 of 1970, copies of which may be obtained at the State Mineral Board office.

The State Mineral Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to grant a lease on any portion of the tracts advertised for a price not less than proportionate to the best bid offered for the lease on the entire tract.

16TH YEAR -- NO. 4 CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, NOV. 4, 1971 10¢ A COPY

State, parish, local elections set Sat.

Cameron parish voters will go to the polls Saturday to vote in the Democratic first primary on state, district, parish and local candidates in what is one of the most complex elections in history.

The polls will open at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Because of the lengthy ballot, voters are urged to make out voting lists or sample ballots in advance so that they will not take too long in the voting machines.

There are 17 candidates alone in the governor's race, 10 in the lieutenant governor's race and 7 in the attorney general's race.

Other state offices to be voted on include treasurer, comptroller, superintendent of education, register of state land, commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of insurance, custodian of voting machines.

In the 26th Senatorial District race, which includes West Calcasieu and Cameron parishes, there are two candidates, incumbent Jesse Knowles and A. J. "Tubby" Lyons.

Five candidates are seeking the position of representative for the new 36th district, composed of all of Cameron parish and southern part of Calcasieu. They include incumbents Dr. William S. Boyd and Conway LeBleu, Robert E. "Bob" Doland, Durrell L. Hudson, and Lou Tyndall.

Running for members of the state central committee at large for the 26th district (which is the same as the senatorial district) are Van Andrus, James Boyer, C. D. "Doug" Foreman, Reuvan N. Rougeau and Dr. Rex H. Smelser.

Candidates for judge for the Fourteenth Judicial District, Div. A, are Henry L. Yelverton, presently serving in the office, and Hardy M. Parkerson.

There is only one parishwide election in Cameron (other parish officials had no opposition). Seeking the position of sheriff are Claude Eagleson, incumbent, and Carl Reon.

SAMPLE BALLOT

A sample ballot including all of the state, district, parish and ward offices that Cameron parish residents will vote on is to be found elsewhere in this issue. It is suggested that this, or a similar ballot, be marked by the voter before going to the polls so as to speed up your voting.

POLICE JURY

There are four police jury races, namely:

Ward 1 -- Horace P. Mhire, incumbent, and Ernest R. Myers.

Ward 3 -- J. B. "Braxton" Blake, Jr., J. Ray Burleigh, Norman McCall and Roland J. (T. Bolo) Trosclair, Jr. (There is no incumbent as the present Ward 3 juror, W. F. Henry, Jr., is retiring.)

Ward 5 -- Archie Berwick, incumbent, and Dwight Ebelding.

Ward 6 -- C. A. Riggs, incumbent, Virgil "Bill" Real, and John R. Rollins.

In the Ward 3 justice of the Peace race there are two candidates, Mrs. Tommie E. "Bo" Alexander and Ernest J. Miller.

Seeking the Ward 5 constable's job are Ronald Ione and Carroll L. Trahan.

GOP VOTE

The handful of registered Republicans in the parish will vote in the Republican primary at the same time.

Robert Ross and David C. Treen are the Republican candidates for governor and Robert L. Frye and O. Romaine Russell are seeking the superintendent of education post.

Jury protests ASCS reduction

The reduction of office hours to two days a week for the Cameron Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service office was protested by the Cameron parish police jury Tuesday.

The ASCS office which has been operated full time for many years is tentatively scheduled to be open only on Tuesdays and Fridays in the future, according to Police Jury President W.F. Henry, Jr.

Because of a nationwide reduction in ASCS personnel for economy reasons the local office was scheduled to have a "one and a half employee" reduction. However, the Cameron office has only one full time employee and is under the supervision of the Calcasieu parish ASCS office manager.

Henry said that the present full time employee would not work three days a week in the Lake Charles office.

He said that the Cameron office's rice records earlier had been transferred to Lake Charles and that the further reduction of the local office's activities was "an outrage."

The jury voted to write letters of protest to the Louisiana congressional delegation urging them to restore the local office to full time operation.

In other business, the jury reappointed Hugh Baker of Cameron to the Cameron parish welfare board.

It also accepted bids of $3.45 and $4.45 a yard respectively for reef and clam shell from the W. T. Burton Co.

Ward 2 juror Lyle Crain asked that the parish engineer be instructed to make a survey to determine the cost of building another road to the South Cameron high school stadium. He said with only one road to the field now, traffic becomes congested during ball games.

Lions to sell light bulbs

J. Berton Daigle has been named chairman of the Cameron Lions Club's annual light bulb sale. It will be held Tuesday night, Nov. 9, and will cover the Cameron, Creole, Oak Grove and Grand Chenier area.

Daigle said the 8 bulb assortment is a bargain and sells for $2.50. He said the sale will start at 5 p.m. and asked that those desiring to buy bulbs and help out the program leave their porch lights on.

Funds derived from the bulb sale will be used for civic projects the club takes part in.

Deadline set on festival book

Wilmer Smith, La. Fur and Wildlife Festival vice-president in charge of the program book, reported to the weekly meeting of the officers that he set a deadline of has of Nov. 15 for getting the material to the printers for the book.

This is the second year the program will feature favorite southwest Louisiana recipes. Helping Smith on the book are Mrs. Gladys McCall, Mrs. Lyle Crain and Donald Broussard.

Mrs. Crain asks that recipes be submitted to her as soon as possible.

Smith said that the 2000 books printed last year were sold out in a short while. More will be printed this year.

Dedication of church set Sun.

The last official church dedication presided over by Bishop Maurice Schexnayder of Lafayette will take place Sunday afternoon, Nov. 7, at 3 p.m. in Cameron.

At that time the Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church will be officially dedicated for worship.

The church has been being used by parishioners since Feb. 27 of this year. Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of the church, held a simple house blessing on Feb. 26, just prior to the first service.

The new church was constructed behind the statue of the Virgin Mary which was erected in memory of some 500 people who lost their lives in 1957 in Hurricane Audrey.

The church is built to resemble the bow of a ship, the idea coming from the fishing and shipping industry which plays such a part in the finances of the parish.

JANET GAIL RIGGS of Hackberry was a maid at McNeese State University's homecoming last weekend. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riggs.

Tarps still No. 1

The South Cameron Tarpons still have a perfect record in District 4-AA play, but a determined DeQuincy team gave them a hard time last Friday.

Barry Kelley recovered a fumble in the last 29 seconds of the game to set up the scoring play that gave the Tarps a 7-0 victory.

Kelley fell on the pigskin on his own 15-yard-line and three plays later halfback Pat Howerton plunged over from the three for the first score of the game.

The Tarpons collected their seventh straight conference victory to remain the conference leader and set the stage for a showdown match with runnerup St. Louis this Thursday in Lake Charles.

The visiting Tigers hold an edge on the statistic sheet as they captured 13 first downs to 10 for South Cameron and 193 total yards of offense to the Tarpons 175.

South Cameron relied on its ground game for a major portion of its offense picking up 169 yards rushing and only six passing on one completion in six attempts.

Orchard clinic

The third annual Cameron parish home orchard clinic will be held at Hackberry, Tuesday, Nov. 9, 19 a.m. to noon at the Hackberry recreation center, according to Clifford Myers, county agent.

Two LSU extension service specialists, Dr. B. W. Wascom and Dr. Jack Eagen, will discuss citrus, peaches, pecans, insects, disease control, varieties, fertilization, etc.

Athletic Assoc.

The South Cameron Athletic Association will meet at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 10 at the KC Hall in Creole for a barbecue supper and to discuss plans for the football playoffs.

Admission for the supper will be a current membership card. Members are urged to attend.

Pupils meet Skitch

For the sixth consecutive year some 50 students from Cameron Elementary School will be attending the performances of the Lake Charles Community Concert Association. This is due to the generosity of several local businessmen, who purchase the tickets for the Cameron school each year.

Lawrence Rhorer, music teacher, arranges for ten students to attend each concert performance. He chooses the participants from his chorous group and from upper grade students.

As a special treat, the children leave Cameron early enough to eat at the Piccadilly restaurant in Lake Charles before concert time.

The tickets for the 1971-72 concert year were provided by: Cameron Barge Terminal, Jones and Jones, attorneys, Western Auto Store, Calcasieu Marine National Bank, Cameron State Bank, Cameron Construction Co. and Sheriff Claude Eagleson.

The first concert performance featured Skitch Henderson and his orchestra. Transportation for the concert was provided by Mr. Rhorer and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dyson. A special treat was experienced by the group of students. They had their picture made with Mr. Henderson after the performance.

Barbecue to be held by post

The Sturelese Post No. 384 of the American Legion, Grand Chenier will hold its fall barbecue Sunday, Nov. 7, at the American Legion Home on Grand Chenier. Serving of the dinner will begin at 10 a.m. Servings to go will be provided.

Chicken and sausage with all of the trimmings will be served. Bingo will be played in the afternoon. Music by Peo Landry and his band will be furnished after the bingo.

Parents invited to meeting here

William O. Morris, principal of Cameron Elementary School, announced that a Parent-Teacher conference for the 6th grade will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 10, at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Sixth grade teachers will be present to discuss assignments, grades, etc.

Morris urges all parents of 6th grade students to be present.

Scuba divers look for big jewfish

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The spotting of a six-foot jewfish this summer near an offshore rig brought a group of Texas scuba divers to Cameron last weekend.

The 16 divers from the Hammerhead Divers Club came from Beaumont, Port Arthur, Nederland, Vidor, Silsbee, Port Neches and Kirbyville. The 40 member club has been organized for 10 years and have two meetings a month.

In addition to their trips out into the Gulf from Cameron and Sabine Pass, they make trips to Cozumel, an island off the Yucatan and other places where the water is clear enough for diving purposes.

The genial club president Buck Wainwright of Beaumont explained that snorkling or scuba diving is really a very safe sport because no one is allowed to dive until he has passed a 6 to 8 week diving course, two nights a week, in a pool at the Beaumont YMCA or the Lamar College swimming pool.

Also, the "Buddy System" is practiced at all times when diving. If a club member disobeys the practice, he is fined $5, Wainwright explained.

To get started in the hobby, one needs a few basic things such as a mask, snorkle, fins, knife, speargun, vest (called a "Mae West") which can be purchased for $60, and an air tank which can be rented for $2.50. An air regulator can be purchased for $70, but many of the members purchase them second hand or borrow from others, so the initial outley to get started is not much for a sportsman, Wainwright said.

The Cameron trip was made on the charterboat "Sunrise II" owned by Claude V. "Pete" McCall. The sleek 65 foot boat is headquartered at the Cameron Gulf Docks, and the trip got underway at 4 a.m. with the destination being "Oil City."

Captain McCall explained that the name was given to a group of offshore oil platforms about 35 miles from Cameron. However, each year more and more platforms are appearing on the scene, so there is getting to be no distinction in the name, since there are a complete line of platforms all the way in.

The first stop was at the Mobile rig in Blce 64. As soon as Captain McCall cut the boat motors, many of the divers were on the rail to dive over. Most of them preferred to jump from the bow of the boat near the rig, instead of using the ladder at the back of the boat, so they wouldn't have so far to swim to the rig, or platform.

They dove down to the 60 foot bottom in search of fish. It wasn't long until many of the divers were back at the ladder with strings of red snappers which had been taken with the deadly speargun.

Since the water was murkey and STEVE GOLDEN, a member of the Hammerhead Divers Club, holds a 26 pound ling that spreads out of Cameron on a recent trip here.

Christmas parties planned by Aux

Plans for various Christmas parties to take place during December were made at the monthly meeting of the Richard Brothers Post No. 176 Ladies Auxiliary held last week at the post home in Creole.

Mrs. Preston Richard, auxiliary president, was in charge of the business session. The first annual Christmas party for the auxiliary will be held on Dec. 2P at 7:30. Mrs. Roland Primeaux will bake the turkey and Mrs. Pete Theriot will bake the ham. Other club members will bring covered dishes. Each member will also bring a gift.

Another Christmas party will be held on December 14 at 7:30 at the Home. Santa Claus will be present to pass out presents and candy to the children. Refreshments will be served by auxiliary members:

Mrs. Ray Ardoin, from Lake Charles, was a guest at the meeting and gave a talk to the group about the gift shop at the Veteran's Hospital in Alexandria and explained how the local club could help by attending the annual Christmas party at the hospital on Dec. 7, 8, visibility not over 6 feet, it was decided to try another rig further out. The next stop was the Tennesco Rig. Divers reported that the visibility had increased tremendously, so much so that a knife and two weight belts lost by members were easily found on the bottom.

Finally the expedition continued on to the destination, where the giant jewfish had been spotted on a previous trip. The members explained that the jew is one of the most challenging fish to spear. They are very fast and have an inbred reaction to immediately head for the steel pilings of the rigs, or any projectile to wind themselves around for leverage to break loose.

The first divers coming up had speared many red snappers, but had not sighted the allusive jew. Finally they all went up that a diver was coming in with a line. Steve Golden had speared a 26 pounder. It was brought on board and weighed by Herb Pope, who was anxiously watching the results of this day's catch, since he is in line for first place club awards with a previous line weighing 54 lbs.

A father and son team, Danny and Joe Lavoie, from Beaumont, came aboard with a breathless 15 year old Joe telling that he had been startled by a movement over his shoulder while on a rig girder and turned to see an over 6 foot giant jew brushing past him.

He had found it, there it was, what they had been searching for. He immediately cocked his speargun, but his father tapped him on the shoulder, telling him not to shoot, it was too dangerous for a youngster (even though he has been diving for 6 years).

None of the other divers could catch a glimpse of the jew, even though they dove endlessly. Maybe the jew was as smart as he is fast. He picked out the younger member of the team to bid the time of day to, knowing that his father would make him wait a little longer for more experience before he is allowed to make the "Big Kill."

Around the Capitol

By JACK GOULD

BATON ROUGE -- Patience and weather and football permitting, voting for governor in the Democratic primary election November 6 may reach a record total of more than 1,150,000.

The unofficial "guesstimate" on the number of Democrats eligible to vote when registration ended Oct. 6 was around 1,600,000.

(Only an estimate is possible because federal sources do not give details on voters signed up by U.S. agents. The total, about 22,600, are assumed to be mostly black Democrats.)

If voting is as heavy as it was in 1936, nearly 64 percent, the vote next week could reach as much as 1,340,000. If voters stay away in large numbers as they did in 1944, just over 66 percent, the Nov. 6 vote could be less than a million.

In more recent times, Democratic registration was about 1,376,000. The actual vote on Nov. 4, 1967, for five candidates for governor, was 1,037,102, or about 75.3 percent. The same proportion next week might make the final count about 1,145,000.

But this time there are -- at last count -- 17 candidates for governor. If these contestants have any friends at all, as one Capitol wag said, their pals alone could cast a million votes!

Back in 1963, there were ten candidates for governor, and some 906,000 voted out of a Democratic registration of 1,165,000, or about 77.8 percent. And back in 1959, with 11 candidates for governor, the total vote was some 842,000, or about 77 percent.

Gov. Jimmie Davis in 1959 got only about 25 percent of the first primary vote, to 33.1 percent for Morrison, but McKeithen won by more than 40,000 votes in the runoff.

So, make your own guess on both the probable vote, the probable winners and just how many votes it will take each of the two men to reach the runoff. For the first time in years, this scribbler can't predict the outcome -- and doesn't know anyone whose track record is good) who can!

Factors to be considered:

Did the defeat of all the proposed constitutional amendments, including some good ones, mean that most people will vote against anybody even seen in Baton Rouge or in Washington? Or is the "real issue" the candidates themselves?

Do last-minute polls, showing up to 40 percent still "undecided," mean many will not bother to vote at all -- or will they swamp the booths in a "protest" gesture?

If so, for whom will they vote?

Good luck.

Next week: Let's look at the actual voting record, in detail, including many names you may have forgotten.

and 9, and how they can further help by sendin gifts.

Auxiliary members were reminded about the special fund being taken up for one of the members, Mrs. Firman LeBouef, who is with her critically injured daughter in Colorado. Those wishing to make donations can do so by contacting Mrs. J. T. Primeaux at the Cameron State Bank in Creole, or Mrs. Woodrow Bertrand, at South Cameron Memorial Hospital.

Does "Revelation" Really FORETELL OUR FUTURE?

Since the beginning of time, men have searched incessantly for the secrets of God's vast unknown.

Through instinct and logic . . . through signs and omens and even crystal balls . . . they have sought to unveil the mysteries of the infinite, hoping for a positive "revelation" concerning their own ultimate destiny.

Even deeply religious people are often troubled by this instinctive urge to know "the unknowable," and in their quest they sometimes draw unwarranted conclusions even from sacred writings. This is notably true of the Book of Revelation, or the Apocalypse of St. John the Divine.

The purpose of Revelation is not, as some seem to think, to reveal a detailed panorama of the future. It is not a magic key to unlock a door that God has seen fit to leave closed. It is, indeed, a book of prophecy . . . and God's own promise . . . but it relates to the past and the present as well as the future. Like the other Scriptures, it is a book which must be understood in its fullness, and with a knowledge of its precise purpose and the circumstances under which it was written.

The precise purpose of Revelation is to manifest the triumph of Christ. With reference to the past, it points to our Lord's triumph over sin and death by His life, crucifixion and resurrection. As to the present, Revelation makes clear that this triumph is complete only to the extent that men accept Christ's salvation and live by it. For the future, Revelation, and other Scriptures too, leave no doubt that there will be a final triumph, well described in the words of St. Paul: "Then comes the end, when he delivers the Kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power."

St. John addressed his Apocalypse to the Seven Churches of Asia Minor, which were, of course, the Catholic Church. Making frequent use of symbolisms, he warned the Church against enemies whom he likened to a beast, a dragon and an anti-Christ. The meaning of these symbols is often misunderstood.

Revelation is, indeed, a powerful message to all who look wonderingly and hopefully into the great unknown. But to gain the true spiritual comfort which this God-given book offers, its precise meaning should be clearly understood. Five candidates are in the race for the house seat. They are:

DR. W. S. BOYD

William S. Boyd

Dr. William S. Boyd is a candidate for the state representative from District 36.

Boyd, 51, is chairman of the Vocational - Technical School Study Committee.

He attended North Dakota University for two years and graduated from Interstate Business College. He received his doctor of chriopractic degree from Palmer Chiropractic College of Davenport, Iowa.

Dr. Boyd is active in Optimist clubs and Elks organizations. He is a member of the Disabled American Veterans, American Legion and was elected department surgeon for the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He is a retired Army officer and served in World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam conflict.

Boyd resides at 620 Cusic St.

ROBERT E. DOLAND

Robert E. Doland

Robert E. "Bob" Doland is a candidate for state representative from District 36.

Doland, 37, was born in Grand Chenier and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Y. Doland Sr., of Lake Charles. He has been a resident of Lake Charles since 1966.

He earned his degree from LSU in business and economics in 1956. He is also a graduate of South Cameron High School.

Doland operates his own business, Robert E. Doland Financial Planning Services.

A member of the Chamber of Commerce Industrial Development Committee, and Local Affairs Committee, he is past secretary of the Young Men's Business Club.

Doland is married to the former Cheryl Grimm of New Orleans. They have one child and are members of the Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic Church.

DURRELL HUDSON

Durrell L. Hudson

Durrell Leon Hudson, owner of Hudson Enterprises, Inc., is a Democratic primary candidate for the state house seat for District No. 36.

Hudson is a member of Insulators Local No. 112.

A native of Lamesa, Tex., he has lived in Lake Charles for the last 16 years. He is 31 and lives at 908 McCall St.

Hudson was graduated by Sulphur High School and later attended McNeese State University.

He is married to the former Elizabeth Chesson. They have one son.

CONWAY LEBLEU

Conway LeBleu

State Rep. Conway LeBleu is a candidate for re-election in District 36.

He has been a representative since 1964. He also served on the Cameron Parish Police Jury.

He is chairman of the Cameron Waterworks District No. 1 and a member of the Sabine River Authority.

A veteran of World War II, he is a member of the American Legion and the VFW. LeBleu is also past president of the Cameron Parish Farm Bureau and a member of the Cameron Cattleman's Association.

He attended McNeese, Colorado A&M and graduated from LSU.

He served on the Veterans Affairs Committee, Game, Fish and Oysters, and the Conservation Committees in the House.

He is married to the former Virgie McCall of Grand Chenier, and lives in Lake Charles.

LON TYNDALL

Lon Tyndall

Lon Tyndall, 49, is a candidate for state representative in the 36th District.

An attorney, he served as state representative from Calcasieu Parish for the 1956-70 term. He did not seek reelection.

He is a graduate of Lake Charles High School and received LLB. and J.D. degrees from the LSU Law School. He received a B.D. degree from Southwestern Seminary in 1963.

He is a member of the University Baptist Church and is a 32nd degree Mason. He is a veteran of World War II and the Marine Corps.

Tyndall lives in Lake Charles with his wife and three children.

During the first eight months of 1971 nine New York City policemen were killed in the line of duty.

Two running for position of treasurer

Mrs. Mary Evelyn Parker, 50, seeking her second term as state treasurer is opposed by Democrat Shady R. Wall, 48, a Monroe realtor.

Mrs. Parker is a long-time employe of the state. She served as a social worker 1941 to 1942. She returned as a state employe in 1948 as director of the Louisiana Department of Commerce and Industry. She served in this post until 1952. In 1956 she was appointed commissioner of public welfare where she served until 1963 when she was appointed commissioner of administration by Gov. John McKeithen.

She successfully sought the treasurer's post in 1968.

Wall, a native of Ouachita Parish, attended Northeast Junior College, Louisiana Tech and the LSU Law School. He was in the U.S. Army for four years and served as state representative from 1948 to 1956. He was elected to the legislature again as a member of the House in 1968.

Two run for register of state lands

Mrs. Ellen Bryan Moore, 59, of Baton Rouge, seeking her fifth term as register of the state land office, is opposed by Jim Rentz of Baton Rouge for the post.

Mrs. Moore was first elected to the post in 1952. After serving the four-year term, she lost her bid for re-election. She was re-elected to the post in 1960 and again in 1964 and 1968.

She attended Tulane and USL and received her master's degree from LSU. She has served as a teacher, an officer in the Women's Army Corp and as a real estate agent and developer. She is a Methodist.

Rentz is the owner of a rental property agency in Baton Rouge. After graduating from Ruston High School, he attended Northeast State College where he received a bachelor and master's degree. He did post graduate work at Emory University and LSU.

He was a member of the armed service during the Korean conflict and then served as a teacher and coach. He is a Baptist.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Now it's our chance to elect a Governor!

It's time we have a Governor who knows and understands our problems and our needs.

Edwin Edwards is running for Governor because he believes the people of Louisiana have had enough with the corrupt and incompetent politicians who have ruined our hopes and destroyed our dreams for so many generations.

He's tired seeing Louisiana fall behind other states, while our vast natural resources and economic potential have gone virtually untapped.

Edwin Edwards believes Louisiana can find its way again.

He will unite our state for the first time in years.

We've heard the promises and the slogans from a lot of politicians.

But Edwin Edwards is the guy who's going to do it.

New food stamp plan begun in the parish

Effective November 1971, a new plan to issue food stamps will be initiated in an additional 18 parishes of the state, including Calcasieu and Cameron, Garland L. Bonin, Commissioner of the Louisiana Welfare Department announced today.

This is a continuation of a computerized system which was begun in West Baton Rouge and is already in operation in the remainder of the State. This system will eliminate a lot of paper work, shorten the time needed to buy stamps and yet give better control over cases.

Under the new plan, recipients of food stamps will receive in the mail the first two or three days of the month a card which is an authorization to purchase (ATP card). The card will have the date, name and address of the recipient, the amount of money to put up and the amount of stamps he will receive. A recipient can only use this ATP card during the month it is dated. A new ATP card will be issued at the beginning of each month.

This ATP card, along with the identification card (FSP-2), must be presented to the cashier in the issuing office. The purchase card should not be bent or folded and should not be signed by the recipient until he gets to the issuing office and buys stamps. The signature on the ATP card must be the same as on the identification card. Experience has shown that if these instructions are followed, it takes only an average of one and one-half minutes to buy stamps.

Another new feature of this computerized system is that a recipient may purchase stamps from any issuing office if there is more than one in his parish.

Commissioner Bonin said recipients of food stamps should safeguard their authorization to purchase cards as they must be presented to the issuing office in order to get food stamps. If a recipient does not receive his card, he should contact the certifying office where he applied.

The Food Stamp Program in Louisiana is a cooperative operation by the Louisiana State Department of Public Welfare, the governing body of the parish and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Needy individuals and families put up a specified amount of money and receive more than that value in food stamps.

ELECT

TO THE

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTE

NO. 177

on the ballot

On November 6th the Democrats of Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes will vote for two "at large" members to the Democratic State Central Committee. A total of four members will serve from the two parishes. The incumbent member from Lake Charles (Calcasieu Parish) and Cameron (Cameron Parish) are unopposed and therefore, only the two "at large" posts are to be filled. Five candidates have filed for these two seats. Four of the candidates are from Lake Charles--one candidate, myself, is from the West Calcasieu area (Sulphur). The Lake Charles area is thus assured of having at least two members on the Committee. The Cameron area is assured of having one member on the Committee. If the two seats are filled by candidates from Lake Charles, then the Lake Charles area will have three members and the West Calcasieu area will have none. In the interest of "balanced representation", I feel that the West Calcasieu area needs and deserves representation on the Democratic State Central Committee.

I am presently serving as Chairman of the newly created Executive Committee for the 33rd Representative District and Vice Chairman of the Calcasieu Parish Democratic Committee representing Ward 4. Having served on these committees and gained experience on a local level, I feel that I have the qualifications and experience necessary to effectively serve on the State Central Committee.

My age is 44. I am married and have two children. I have operated a general insurance business, except for service in the Korean War, since 1950. I am a graduate of Sulphur High School and LSU.

Membership on the various committees are non-paying jobs and therefore, voters can be assured that candidates are seeking these posts to serve the best interests of the Democrats of Louisiana. This is most certainly my interest. I have been a diligent member of the two District Committees on which I already serve and I intend to serve just as diligently on the State Central Committee.

My number on the ballot is 177. I earnestly solicit your vote on November 6th.

Sincerely,

Doug Foreman

MEATLOAF PIE

7 slices bread
One-third cup milk
1 large onion, diced
½ cup (1 stick) butter
½ lb. ground chuck
½ cup tomato sauce
1 egg
½ tsp. prepared yellow mustard
½ tsp. ground thyme
¼ tsp. marjoram
1 tsp. salt
⅛ tsp. ground black pepper
1 tbsp. dried parsley

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place one slice of bread in medium-size bowl. Add milk. Tear remaining bread into coarse pieces to be used for crust; place in second bowl. Sauté diced onion in butter until onion is wilted but not brown. Break up soaked bread slice. Add chuck, tomato sauce, egg, mustard, thyme, marjoram, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon sauteed onion. Mix until well-blended. Add remaining sauteed onion to torn bread. Stir in parsley, ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. Mix well

Press bread mixture into the bottom and along the sides of a pie pan. Spread meat mixture over bread mixture. Bake about 45 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 10 minutes. Carefully loosen crust from pie pan with a pancake turner. Slide pie onto warm serving plate. To serve, cut in wedges and top with warm tomato sauce, cheese sauce or cheese soup. Four servings.

Editor addresses KC assembly here

Christopher Columbus voyage of discovery to the New World proved to be one of the most important events in all of recorded history, members of the Knight of Columbus were told in Cameron Thursday night.

Columbus's contribution to history was the subject of an address by Truman Stacy, editor of the Lake Charles American Press, at a meeting of Msgr. Cramers General Assembly, Fourth DeGree Knight of Columbus, held in the Cameron V.F.W. Hall.

Although other Europeans reached the New World before Columbus, the latter's discovery came at a time when Europe was able to take advantage of it, and as result European Civilization was transplanted to the New World.

In a business session following the address, it was announced that the assembly's Quarterly Communion on Oct. 31, would be dedicated to Msgr. Louis H. Boudreaux, pastor of Lake Charles's Immaculate Conception Church, who was recently made a vicar general of the Diocese of Lafayette.

It was also announced that the assembly color corps would participate in the dedication of the new church of Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish here on Nov. 7, and in the Mass of Christ the King, scheduled for Nov. 20, at our Lady Queen of Heaven Church in Lake Charles.

The assembly will have no meeting in November, but will conduct the annual Memorial Services for deceased members on Nov. 28, it was announced by Faithful Navigator Jules Sastic.

Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, was also a guest speaker.

Nine new members, who received the Fourth Degree in ceremonies at Lafayette on Oct. 24, were introduced by membership Chairman-Anthony J. Abate. Program Chairman Howard Jaubert demonstrated the manual of the Sword for the New Members.

Prior to the meeting, the Fourth Degree Knights and their wives were served a seafood supper by members of Our Lady Star of the Sea Council 5461.

Open Letter to the Citizens of Cameron Parish:

Four years ago, after supporting the two Cameron candidates in the first primary, fate placed me running against Mr. Dyson, whom I consider to be a friend, then, and now.

During the past four years I have supported all the main issues that concerned Cameron. Sometimes, for awhile, it was only Mr. LeBleu and I, standing alone together.

Now, because of the unconstitutional invasion of the sovereign rights of the state of Louisiana by Federal Judge Gordon West, once again I have been forced to run against a Cameron candidate.

Those of you from Cameron who know me, know that I am a persistent fighter for the people I represent.

I can only say that if I am elected from District #36 to represent you, I will represent the District as a whole, and the line that separates Calcasieu and Cameron Parish will only be a line on the map.

I think it's time we all quit thinking of how few people Cameron Parish has, and start reminding the state of the millions of dollars Cameron pours into the state treasury from its oil wells. Let's demand our share back!

If I am elected, I will be a familiar sight in all the areas of Cameron Parish. I like to talk to the people I represent.

Dr. William S. Boyd

I have pledged my support towards widening the highway between Oak Grove and Hacket's Corner.

What do you want in your Governor?

He's another person, just like you. He'll do some things right and he'll make some errors too. Sometimes you'll applaud him and sometimes you'll feel like booing.

So what kind of a person should he be . . .? He should above all else be a human being, a creature who cares about other creatures. Not everybody is that kind. Not everybody's been at the back of the line, on the short end of the stick . . . left out . . . known hunger . . . had wants . . . needed help.

A guy raised in a sharecropper's cabin knows what it's all about . . . and when you're one of eleven children in that cabin . . . you really know. When you've washed dishes and sang on street corners for an education, you know. When you've picked cotton and been laughed at because you didn't have a suit of clothes . . . you know.

What do you know? Well, how it feels to be just a person, one of those creatures called human beings.

And that's Jimmie Davis . . . nothing fancy . . . not any better than you . . . not any worse . . . in other words, "one of us."

What do you want in a Governor?

Jimmie Davis ...one of us. No.6

Meet your teachers

Featured this week are several more of the Hackberry high school teachers. They are:

To the right is Mrs. F.V. Andrews, the teacher's aide to the Kindergarten at Hackberry.

Center photo: Robert W. Sheffield teaches social studies, physical education, and coaches. He received his B.S. degree from McNeese State University, his M. Ed. from McNeese and has been teaching for six years.

Mrs. Beverly Goodrich teaches English, physical education, received her B.S. from Louisiana Tech and has been teaching for 11 years.

Lower photo: Mrs. Ann Gray is a first grade teacher. She received her B.A. from McNeese and has 8 years of experience in teaching.

Mrs. Jan Griffith is second grade teacher. She has received her B.S. degree from LSU and has had two years experience as a teacher.

New food stamp plan begun in the parish

Effective November 1971, a new plan to issue food stamps will be initiated in an additional 18 parishes of the state, including Calcasieu and Cameron, Garland L. Bonin, Commissioner of the Louisiana Welfare Department announced today.

This is a continuation of a computerized system which was begun in West Baton Rouge and is already in operation in the remainder of the State. This system will eliminate a lot of paper work, shorten the time needed to buy stamps and yet give better control over cases.

Under the new plan, recipients of food stamps will receive in the mail the first two or three days of the month a card which is an authorization to purchase (ATP card). The card will have the date, name and address of the recipient, the amount of money to put up and the amount of stamps he will receive. A recipient can only use this ATP card during the month it is dated. A new ATP card will be issued at the beginning of each month.

This ATP card, along with the identification card (FSP-2), must be presented to the chaser in the issuing office. The purchase card should not be bent or folded and should not be signed by the recipient until he gets to the issuing office and buys stamps. The signature on the ATP card must be the same as on the identification card. Experience has shown that if these instructions are followed, it takes only an average of one and one-half minutes to buy stamps.

Another new feature of the computerized system is that a recipient may purchase stamps from any issuing office if there is more than one in his parish.

Commissioner Bonin said recipients of food stamps should safeguard their authorization to purchase cards as they must be presented to the issuing office in order to get food stamps. If a recipient does not receive his card, he should contact the certifying office where he applied.

The Food Stamp Program in Louisiana is a cooperative operation by the Louisiana State Department of Public Welfare, the governing body of the parish and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Needy individuals and families put up a specified amount of money and receive more than that value in food stamps.

ELECT

TO THE

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTE

NO. 177

on the ballot

On November 6th the Democrats of Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes will vote for two "at large" members to the Democratic State Central Committee. A total of four members will serve from the two parishes. The incumbent member from Lake Charles (Calcasieu Parish) and Cameron (Cameron Parish) are unopposed and therefore, only the two "at large" posts are to be filled. Five candidates have filed for these two seats. Four of the candidates are from Lake Charles-- one candidate, myself, is from the West Calcasieu area (Sulphur). The Lake Charles area is thus assured of having at least two members on the Committee. The Cameron area is assured of having one member on the Committee. If the two seats are filled by candidates from Lake Charles, then the Lake Charles area will have three members and the West Calcasieu area will have none. In the interest of "balanced representation", I feel that the West Calcasieu area needs and deserves representation on the Democratic State Central Committee.

I am presently serving as Chairman of the newly created Executive Committee for the 33rd Representative District and Vice Chairman of the Calcasieu Parish Democratic Committee representing Ward 4. Having served on these committees and gained experience on a local level, I feel that I have the qualifications and experience necessary to effectively serve on the State Central Committee.

My age is 44. I am married and have two children. I have operated a general insurance business, except for service in the Korean War, since 1950. I am a graduate of Sulphur High School and LSU.

Membership on the various committees are non-paying jobs and therefore, voters can be assured that candidates are seeking these posts to serve the best interests of the Democrats of Louisiana. This is most certainly my interest. I have been a diligent member of the two District Committees on which I already serve and I intend to serve just as diligently on the State Central Committee.

My number on the ballot is 177. I earnestly solicit your vote on November 6th.

Sincerely,

Doug Foreman

MEATLOAF PIE

7 slices bread
One-third cup milk
1 large onion, diced
½ cup (1 stick) butter
½ lb. ground chuck
¼ cup tomato sauce
1 egg
½ tsp. prepared yellow mustard
½ tsp. ground thyme
½ tsp. marjoram
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. ground black pepper
1 tbsp. dried parsley

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place one slice of bread in medium-size bowl. Add milk. Tear remaining bread into coarse pieces to be used for crust; place in second bowl. Sauté diced onion in butter until onion is wilted but not brown. Break up soaked bread slice. Add chuck, tomato sauce, egg, mustard, thyme, marjoram, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper and 1 tablespoon sautéed onion. Mix until well-blended. Add remaining sautéed onion to torn bread. Stir in parsley, ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. Mix well.

Press bread mixture into the bottom and along the sides of a pie pan. Spread meat mixture over bread mixture. Bake about 45 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 10 minutes. Carefully loosen crust from pie pan with a pancake turner. Slide pie onto warm serving plate. To serve, cut in wedges and top with warm tomato sauce, cheese sauce or cheese soup. Four servings.

It is best to keep cigars out of the sun and away from dampness.

Editor addresses KC assembly here

Christopher Columbus voyage of discovery to the New World proved to be one of the most important events in all of recorded history, members of the Knight of Columbus were told in Cameron Thursday night.

Columbus's contribution to history was the subject of an address by Truman Stacy, editor of the Lake Charles American Press, at a meeting of Msgr. / Cramers General Assembly, Fourth DeGree Knight of Columbus, held in the Cameron V.F.W. Hall.

Although other Europeans reached the New World before Columbus, the latter's discovery came at a time when Europe was able to take advantage of it, and as result European Civilization was transplanted to the New World.

In a business session following the address, it was announced that the assembly's Quarterly Communion on Oct. 31, would be dedicated to Msgr. Louis H. Boudreaux, pastor of Lake Charles's Immaculate Conception Church, who was recently made a vicar general of the Diocese of Lafayette.

It was also announced that the assembly color corps would participate in the dedication of the new church of Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish here on Nov. 7, and in the Mass of Christ the King, scheduled for Nov. 20, at our Lady Queen of Heaven Church in Lake Charles.

The assembly will have no meeting in November, but will conduct the annual Memorial Services for deceased members on Nov. 28, it was announced by Faikful Navigator Jules Snatic.

Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, was also a guest speaker.

Nine new members, who received the Fourth Degree in ceremonies at Lafayette on Oct. 24, were introduced by membership Chairman Anthony J. Abate. Program Chairman Howard Joubert demonstrated the manual of the Sword for the New Members.

Prior to the meeting, the Fourth Degree Knights and their wives were served a seafood supper by members of Our Lady Star of the Sea Council 5461.

Open Letter to the Citizens of Cameron Parish:

Four years ago, after supporting the two Cameron candidates in the first primary, fate placed me running against Mr. Dyson, whom I consider to be a friend, then, and now.

During the past four years I have supported all the main issues that concerned Cameron. Sometimes, for awhile, it was only Mr. LeBleu and I, standing alone together.

Now, because of the unconstitutional invasion of the sovereign rights of the state of Louisiana by Federal Judge Gordon West, once again I have been forced to run against a Cameron candidate.

Those of you from Cameron who know me, know that I am a persistent fighter for the people I represent.

I can only say that if I am elected from District #36 to represent you, I will represent the District as a whole, and the line that separates Calcasieu and Cameron Parish will only be a line on the map.

I think it's time we all quit thinking of how few people Cameron Parish has, and start reminding the state of the millions of dollars Cameron pours into the state treasury from its oil wells. Let's demand our share back!

If I am elected, I will be a familiar sight in all the areas of Cameron Parish. I like to talk to the people I represent.

Dr. William S. Boyd

I have pledged my support towards widening the highway between Oak Grove and Hacket's Corner.

What do you want in your Governor?

He's another person, just like you. He'll do some things right and he'll make some errors too. Sometimes you'll applaud him and sometimes you'll feel like booing.

So what kind of a person should he be . . .?

He should above all else be a human being, a creature who cares about other creatures. Not everybody is that kind. Not everybody's been at the back of the line, on the short end of the stick . . . left out . . . known hunger . . . had wants . . . needed help.

A guy raised in a sharecropper's cabin knows what it's all about . . . and when you're one of eleven children in that cabin . . . you really know. When you've washed dishes and sang on street corners for an education, you know. When you've picked cotton and been laughed at because you didn't have a suit of clothes . . . you know.

What do you know? Well, how it feels to be just a person, one of those creatures called human beings.

And that's Jimmie Davis . . . nothing fancy . . . not any better than you . . . not any worse . . . in other words, "one of us."

What do you want in a Governor?

Jimmie Davis ...one of us. No.6

Meet your teachers

Featured this week are several more of the Hackberry high school teachers. They are:

To the right is Mrs. F. V. Andrews, the teacher's aide to the Kindergarten at Hackberry.

Center photo: Robert W. Sheffield teaches social studies, physical education, and coaches. He received his B. S. degree from McNeese State University, his M. Ed. from McNeese and has been teaching for six years.

Mrs. Beverly Goodrich teaches English, physical education, received her B. S. from Louisiana Tech and has been teaching for 11 years.

Lower photo: Mrs. Ann Gray is a first grade teacher. She received her B. A. from McNeese and has 8 years of experience in teaching.

Mrs. Jan Griffith is second grade teacher. She has received her B.S. degree from LSU and has had two years experience as a teacher.

By JACK GOULD

BATON ROUGE -- Quickly -- who was the lieutenant governor under Governor Bob Kennon? The last one under Gov. Earl Long? And the last under Jimmie Davis?

Don't feel bad if you didn't answer: Cap Barham and Luther Frazar and Teddy Aycock. Even around the Capitol, where politics is a way of life, many have trouble recalling some past "No. 2" men.

Trouble is -- or was, rather -- for years, the second man was little more than a figure-head, who largely kept speaking dates which the governor was unable or unwilling to keep.

Yet any candidate for lieutenant governor will tell you -- unless you dodge him -- that the office he seeks is "just a heart-beat away from governor."

Corny as it sounds, of course, it's true; and every voter should take this into consideration before casting his vote for the second-in-command.

For many years, Louisiana voters seldom gave a thought to many lower posts; generally electing those on the "ticket" of the winning candidate for governor, regardless of the things they didn't know about them.

Top credit probably should go to C. E. "Cap" Barham for starting a new way of thinking. He won the ticket of a loser. He still didn't have much power, but did protest loudly against over-lavish spending. (And he was right!)

And much credit should go to Taddy Aycock. The office still doesn't have much "power," but he did insist on appointing members of the Senate committees -- something usually made as a governor "suggested."

Another thing happened which will eventually make the office of lieutenant governor of more and more importance; the increasing belief that still too much power is still in the hands of the governor.

True, the committee headed by former Gov. Sam Jones "failed" to do some of the things it felt should be done. But it did some good. And between the "Young Turks" and some of the many new people certain to be elected to the legislature, there may be some up-grading of both the lawmakers and the lieutenant governor.

All of which leads up to the fact that Louisiana is lucky this time to have eleven candidates for lieutenant governor. They are from North, Central and South Louisiana.

They range from age 33 to 54, and include such fields as businessmen, bankers, physician, engineer, railroad man, public relations, insurance, real estate, education and contracting. Only one is a member of a "ticket," the remainder are independent.

Many here feel that the "race" is really among three men; but others are predicting -- as in the race for governor -- that "anything may happen!"

SHORT TAKES

Rumors persist here that several federal indictments of legislators are still expected before the Nov. 6 primary . . . The New Orleans secretary seen having dinner with a political rival for a state office has been fired -- and not hired by her dinner companion! . . . LSU boosters here still insist that the Tigers will be in the Top Five by Nov. 6 -- the day of the Alabama game . . . Sen. Russell Long still maintains he is staying out of the Five Primary -- regardless of what some of his Louisiana friends do . . . Political writer F. E. Shepherd is still ill.

Onion casserole compliments meat

The next time you serve roast beef or poultry, try this savory casserole to accompany it. Saute 4 cups thinly sliced sweet Spanish onions in 3 tablespoons butter.

In saucepan melt 2 tablespoons butter and blend in 1 tablespoon flour. 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon butter and blend in 1 tablespoon flour. 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, and ½ teaspoon dry mustard. Add 1 cup milk and cook slowly, stirring constantly until thickened.

In baking dish alternate layers of onions and sauce. Sprinkle top with ½ cup bread crumbs browned in 2 tablespoons butter. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

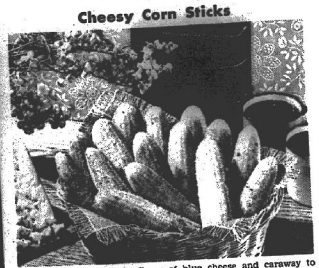
Cheesy Corn Sticks



Corn meal carries the flavor of blue cheese and caraway to a new high point in gusto!

Looking for something easy-to-prepare, both versatile and good enough to go with pork, beef, fish or poultry? Here's your answer — Cheesy Corn Sticks.

We defy you to stop at just one bite of these golden "mini quick breads," fresh-from-the-oven. You savor tangy blue cheese in caraway-flecked corn meal. You'll love the rich flavor and distinctive corn meal crunch — and so will everyone else at your table.

Because Cheesy Corn Sticks are made with enriched self-rising corn meal and flour, you're saved extra measuring and mixing steps. To make your baking easier, leavening and salt are preblended into all self-rising products. And the label "enriched" assures you of nutrients for daily good health — the B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin, plus the minerals, iron and calcium.

CHEESY CORN STICKS
14 corn sticks

1 1/2 cups enriched self-rising corn meal
1/2 cup enriched self-rising flour*
1 1/2 teaspoons caraway seed
1 to 1 1/4 cups milk
1/4 cup oil
1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese

Stir together corn meal, flour and caraway seed. Combine 1 cup milk, oil and cheese. Add liquid all at once to corn meal mixture, stirring until smooth. If necessary, add more milk to make a medium-thick batter. Fill greased corn stick pans ⅔ full. Bake in preheated 425° oven 18 to 20 minutes, or until done.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

To All Citizens of Cameron Parish:

In touring the parish as a candidate for Sheriff I received a most warm and gratifying welcome and want to thank the people for this. Now, if I missed anyone please do not feel offended as it was not done intentionally.

Before casting your vote please consider my qualifications: Approximately 12 years of experience as a law enforcement officer; worked under two sheriffs - O. B. Carter and Claude Eagleson; worked in all capacities from Jailer to Acting Chief Deputy; a high school graduate with two years of typing and two years of bookkeeping. I say a man running for Sheriff cannot have too much experience or education.

If elected I am going to enforce the law not partly but fully. I am also going to work with all the governing bodies of the parish to make it a better and safer place to live.

I will also cooperate with all law enforcement departments such as the State Police and the Louisiana and Federal Wildlife & Fisheries agencies. I know by working together the parish can be made a better and safer parish in which to live.

I also want to advise the people of Cameron Parish that the Little League program will be continued and I can see where this can be improved.

I will continue the Junior Deputy program to the fullest extent and will expand it.

I also wish to advise all Cameron Parish citizens that if elected I will give free ambulance service to all sick people to any hospital in Cameron or Calcasieu Parish.

In case of an injury or accident where an insurance company is involved, the insurance company can be charged a small fee to help pay the expenses.

In Hackberry they have a rescue unit that is being used as their ambulance and the expense can be shared by the Sheriff Department for this.

In the Lowery and Klondike area the deputy there owns a station wagon which can be equipped to carry people from that area to the hospital and he can be paid extra for this.

I feel this will be a big help for the people of Cameron Parish. It will be a big undertaking on my part but this can be done and will NOT leave the parish without ambulance service.

I also want to stress on more night patrolling all over the parish and clamp down on dope, because the dope problem is getting very serious.

Please consider this platform of mine and as your next Sheriff, I promise to fulfill all these obligations because I believe in law and order but I also believe in justice.

For Your Next Sheriff

Vote #202 Carl Reon Vote # 202

this is the guy who's going to do it.

Somebody has to bring to state government the integrity, courage, and ability that can put Louisiana in her rightful place as an honest, progressive state. And somebody has to do it now!

Edwin Edwards is that somebody who can do it. With your help he is going to do it!

Edwin Edwards has served 15 years in public office, as a city Councilman, a state Senator, and a U.S. Congressman. He is the only candidate for governor with experience on all three levels of government.

Edwin Edwards understands the anger of the people at corruption in government. He, too, is angry when he sees millions of tax dollars wasted by incompetent and dishonest politicians.

He is outraged by overcrowded classrooms, collapsing overpasses, unemployment, increasing crime, high taxes, kickbacks and indictments, and the many shameful policies in state government.

He isn't tied to the old politics of the past. That is why he can do something about the problems that exist today.

Edwin Edwards has already proposed an efficient cabinet form of government that will telescope the costly State Agencies into a manageable 15 departments.

He has proposed a Community College system and good vocational training to provide excellent education for everyone.

Edwin Edwards knows how to bring in new industry—the kind of industry that will provide jobs.

Edwin Edwards has the ability and know-how to stop the increasing crime rate and the scandals, and create an atmosphere that will make you proud to live in Louisiana.

Politicians have been promising to clean up state government for years. They are still "promising."

Somebody has to do it. And Edwin Edwards has what it takes to get things going in Louisiana for the first time in generations.

Edwin Edwards is the guy who's going to do it!

Carey Baptists add 1879 new members

Thirty eight of the 43 churches of Carey Baptist Association were represented during the 79th Annual Meeting of the Association held Oct. 25 at Westwood Baptist Church in Westlake, during which 206 persons registered.

The Rev. Don Roberts, Associational moderator, presided.

The digest of letters from the 43 churches revealed that there were 870 baptisms in the past year and 1,009 coming into the churches by letter, making a total membership of 14,878. The financial report showed that the churches have a combined property valuation of 11 million dollars and gave $373,183 for mission causes and $216,366 to the Cooperative Program.

The Annual Message to the Association was given by the Rev. Loyd Jenkins, pastor of Gillis Baptist Church. Mark Lowery, executive director of the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation, told of what the Foundation was doing to combat alcoholism and drug addiction. The meeting closed with the inspirational message by the Rev. Charles Harvey, pastor of Sunset Acres Baptist Church of Shreveport.

The Rev. Royce Sylvest, pastor of Houston River Baptist Church, was named as moderator. Elected as vice moderator for the coming year was the Rev. Clarence Young, pastor of Maplewood First Baptist Church.

Other officers include the Rev. Vernon Chevalier, pastor of Moss Bluff First Baptist Church, Sunday School director; Wendell (Pete) Gammage, Church Training Director; Bill Rogers, Brotherhood director; Mrs. A. R. Hollister honored on his 90th birthday

Alva Edward Hollister, a native of Lake Charles and a resident of Cameron Parish for many years, was honored last Sunday with a family reunion at his home in Houston, Tex.

The occasion was the observance of his 90th birthday anniversary (born October 26, 1881).

Along with the gifts and cards from family and friends was a letter from President Richard Nixon, congratulating him on a long and useful life.

Helping Mr. Hollister celebrate the day were his wife, three sons, three daughters, six grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, three daughters-in-law and three sons-in-law. Other relatives and friends called in the evening.

Going from Louisiana for the event were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stewart, Mrs. Archie Hollister, Lloyd, Dale and Lynne Hollister, all of Lake Arthur, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fox, Jr., and children, Marvin, Troy, Jeff and Jenny Sue of Lake Charles.

Sheriff

Claude Eagleson

To The Voters of Cameron Parish:

This will be my last chance to communicate with you, the voters of Cameron Parish, before the election Saturday, Nov. 6. I have tried to contact all of you personally within the last few weeks but some of you I have missed. To you I want to apologize and to say it was not intentional.

My door is always open to the people of Cameron Parish and when I am re-elected it will continue to be open at all times, as it has been in the past.

We are now faced with the possibility of losing ambulance service in Cameron Parish and this has been used by my opponent as an issue for his platform. When we were first advised that new federal regulations were going to be imposed on ambulance service I looked into the feasibility of the Sheriff dept. taking it over.

It is impossible to do so. These new regulations are so strict that this type of service cannot be run along with another office. It has to be run separately and has to confirm to all regulations. I will work with anyone who takes over this service and do all that is possible under the requirements set down by the Federal Government. You can rest assured that if anything could have been done it would have been done already.

As you know through my campaigns before, I am not the type of person to make promises that I an unable to fulfill and I will not start now. The only promise I will make is that I will be looking out for the best interest of you the voters and tax payers of this Parish.

We will continue to cooperate with any and all local clubs and groups, law enforcement groups, either parish, state, or federal. We have always cooperated with any department that called upon us in the past and now enjoy fine relations with all law enforcement agencies throught the state.

I want to thank you again for your wonderful cooperation you have given me the last eight years and the very warm reception in your homes you extended to me through this campaign. So again I ask you for your very much appreciated vote and support in the upcoming election November the 6th.

Be sure to go the polls and vote, as your vote is very important and is your way of showing what type of government you want.

Thank you very much and God bless each and every one of you.

It was moved by Mr. Crain, seconded by Mr. Berwick and carried, that the application of Michigan Wisconsin Pipeline Company to construct a 8-5/8 inch natural gas pipeline commencing at the Perry Bass Well No. 1 in Section 27, Township 14 South, Range 14 West and running in a southerly direction to a point of intersection with Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America's 30 inch pipeline located in the east 1/2 of Section 34, Township 14 South, Range 14 West, be and the same is hereby approved.

It was moved by Mr. Mhire, seconded by Mr. Crain and carried, that the application of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation for a permit to construct a platform in Block 245, East Cameron Area, in accordance with their application of September 22, 1971, be and the same is hereby approved.

It was moved by Mr. Precht, seconded by Mr. Crain and carried, that the following letter shall be sent to the Soil Conservation Service:

Mr. J. B. Earle, State Conservationist
Soil Conservation Service
P. O. Box 1630
Alexandria, Louisiana 71301

Dear Mr. Earle:

We are now informed that the plans for the Cameron-Creole Watershed are substantially complete and that construction will now begin on different phases of this work. As one of the sponsoring agencies for this project we have become increasingly concerned about adequate and suitable provisions being made in the project to handle the discharge of water through the structures during time of excess rain.

We realize that the Soil Conservation Service is in charge of the design of this project. We again ask that you make a determination that you have an adequate design in order to accommodate discharge of water during heavy rain so as not to flood our people. This body will hold the Soil Conservation Service responsible to insure that adequate means are available in this project to completely handle the discharge of excess water. We reached these conclusions as your people are in complete control of the design of this project.

It is always a pleasure to work with you.

Sincerely yours,

RESOLUTION

STATE OF LOUISIANA
PARISH OF CAMERON

WHEREAS, Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, Title 48, Sections 214 and 215, provided for certain works and improvements and that the Department of Highways may enter into written agreements with parish governing authorities for the construction and improvement of rural mail and school bus routes and farm-to-market roads as well as other work which will reasonably further the best interest of the State and State Highway system, subject to the limitations thereof, and,

WHEREAS, certain rural mail and school bus routes and farm-to-market roads (public roads are fully described, by parish, on the attached sheet, with quantity, railroad destinations and type of material required for each road shown thereon, and also designated by appropriate symbol and enumerated on the attached map by numbers corresponding with those on the said attached sheet), should be repaired, and,

WHEREAS, the Department of Highways has allocated this Parish the sum of TWENTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 ($20,000.00) DOLLARS for 1970 and also TWENTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 ($20,000.00) DOLLARS FOR 1971 for the repair of such routes and roads and those fully enumerated and described herein;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Police Jury of the Parish of Cameron, Louisiana, that said Police Jury will undertake the repair of the routes, and roads enumerated herein with its personnel and equipment and at the expense of the Parish, provided the Department of Highways furnishes surfacing material F.O.B. railroad car at destinations shown in quantities which subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The Department of Highways will publicly advertise for bids as provided herein, the quantities of surfacing material which will not exceed the cost stipulated and the said Department, in order to equalize quantity and stipulated cost thereof, will increase or decrease the quantity of surfacing material proportionately for each route or road enumerated so that the contracts will show the total stipulated cost thereof.

2. The Department of Highways, its officers, engineers and employees shall not be required to superintend or perform other services involved in said construction or improvement.

3. Upon receipt of certification by the parish governing authority in form acceptable to the Department of quantities of materials delivered to the Police Jury, the Department shall pay to the furnisher of such materials the purchase price thereof.

4. The Police jury shall maintain all sections of routes repaired pursuant to this resolution and nothing herein shall require the Department to maintain any such rural road, bridge or culvert after the performance of the proposed agreement except roads included in the system of highways maintained by the Department.

5. The parish governing authority or Police jury agrees that no funds made available pursuant to this resolution and the proposed agreement shall be used for any purpose other than for the specific project or projects definitely delineated herein.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, upon acceptance by the Director of Highways of the conditions contained in this resolution, the same shall constitute the entire agreement between the Police jury of said Parish and the Department of Highways.

RESOLUTION

STATE OF LOUISIANA
PARISH OF CAMERON

WHEREAS, the economy of Cameron Parish is colsely interwoven with the preservation of it's excellent farm lands and with the maintenance of a proper balance in the use of these lands for agricultural purposes and the use of other lands for the preservation and propagation of wildlife, and,

WHEREAS, this balance can only be maintained by assuring proper water level and water quality in the streams and tributaries of Cameron Parish and surrounding watersheds, and,

WHEREAS, this body has constantly sought and received great cooperation from it's neighbors in accomplishing this purpose and especially maintaining water level and quality in the Intracoastal Waterway, and,

WHEREAS, the present plans for the replacement of the Vermilion Lock on the Intracoastal Waterway with a structure one hundred and ten (110) feet wide by twelve hundred (1,200) feet long with a depth of sixteen (16) feet would make great strives in further maintaining this waterway, and,

WHEREAS, this improvement in the Vermilion Lock is a absolute necessity in order to balance the interest of navigation, agriculture and wildlife,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the United States Army Corps of Engineers is requested to proceed with the construction of the new Vermilion Lock with all due haste.

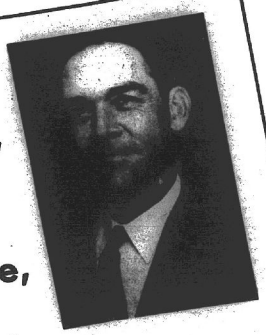
Here's What Conway LeBleu, Candidate For Representative, Stands For. . .



1. Construction and improvement of adequate storm evacuation routes.
2. Construction of storm protection facilities, such as a seawall, to protect Cameron Parish.
3. A stepped up program to solve the mosquito problem.
4. Returning our marshes to their former fresh water state. Betterment of the fur industry.
5. Inauguration of a bus to transport Cameron parish students to and from McNeese State College.
6. More research on how to improve the oyster, shrimp and menhaden industries.
7. Promotion of the tourist industry in Cameron parish.
8. Construction of a bridge over the ship channel at Cameron.

ELECT CONWAY LE BLEU
State Representative No. 111

(Conway LeBleu Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Attention Voters of Cameron Parish !

In view of a recent turn of events in my campaign for state representative, Conway would have you believe he has done great things for Cameron Parish in the last 8 years. It becomes necessary for me to clarify Conway's political promises. Referring to the Cameron Pilot, Nov. 14, 1963, page 10, reprinted to the left:

1. Have adequate storm evacuation routes been constructed in 8 years?
2. Has a sea wall been constructed to protect Cameron Parish in 8 years?
3. Has the mosquito problem been solved in 8 years?
4. What has happened to our fur industry in the past 8 years?
5. There is a bus to transport students to McNeese but the Cameron Parish School Board has been paying for the bus?
6. If more research was promised to improve our oyster industry in 8 years then why has our oyster industroy declined?
7. Where are the tourist dollars that were to be promoted in the past 8 years?
8. Has a bridge been constructed over the ship channel at Cameron in 8 years?

What has really been done for Cameron Parish in the last 8 years? Do you want the same old political promises?

Bob Doland
representative

I decided to become a candidate for State Representative because I believe if I am not part of the solution, I am part of the problem.

I am pleased to have had the opportunity of visiting face to face with many of you in Cameron Parish. I am aware of the fact that you want solutions and not the same old political promises.

I understand the problems of our area and I know I can work closely with you, the people of Cameron Parish, in finding those solutions. I will maintain a full-time office so we can work together in moving our area forward.

Your vote for Bob Doland will mean a new voice for the people in District 36.

CREOLE NEWS

By GARI BAILEY

Cowboys were busy this past weekend with Big Nugget, Burt Goudeaux and Man Trahan moving their cattle to winter pastures at Cat Fish Bayou.

Also, preparations were made for the Richard, Theriot, Boudreaux, Savoie, Boudoin and Landry cattle to be driven to Cameron and cross the ship canal Wednesday. This is an annual roundup. The cattle will be brought back here from winter pastures in the spring.

BIRTHDAY

Stephanie Boudreaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Boudreaux, celebrated her sixth birthday at a party given in her honor Monday evening by her parents. Attending were her grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins.

HALLOWEEN

Witches and goblins were everywhere Sunday night in Creole. A casket, fire and black pot with witches were found at the Clifford Conner residence where the trick or treaters had to dunk for apples.

As the children went towards Creole, they stopped by the Pat Rinch residence to find the Bride of Death, ghosts, cries of tortured persons and were given treats from the corpse in the casket draped in white.

As they came into Creole, they found a moaning stabbed body laying in a pudding lot at Man's Cafe and Bar, more horrors were to be discovered as they proceeded to the Harold Savoie home where again ghosts and ghouls handed treats to the hallowenees from the flashing lights from the porch.

As they came to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, they found a multitude of witches, ghosts and goblins in the psychedelic bedecked halls of the rectory. Werewolfs, skeletons, mouning and eerie sounds echoed in the darkness surrounding the Halloween guests.

Little ghosts and spools were also found at the Sidney Savoie home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montie moved into their new home last week.

Wilton Arceneaux and children are the proud owners of a new trailer and are residing at the O'Donnell Trailer Court in Creole.

A wedding shower was given in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Wayne Armentau Monday by the bride's mother, Mrs. Kermit Conner. Mrs. Armentau is the former Drissy Trahan.

NEW CARS

Roy Bailey is the proud owner of a new Ford LTD. Margaret Ann Sturlese is the proud owner of a new Volkswagen. Harold Carter is the proud owner of a new Chevrolet.

Many of our residents attended the Ox Yoke Rodeo at the Wayne Foster Arena Saturday and Sunday. Some of our local cowboys participated in several of rodeo events. Joe Nunez entered the wild bronc and wild bull riding event Saturday and Sunday. Calton Boudreaux, Patrick Boudreaux, T-Boy Boudreaux, Charlie Boudreaux and Charles Lebouef all participated in the wild cow milking event Saturday night.

Girl Scouts organized

Mrs. J. A. Lowery, scout leader, and Mrs. John Walther, assistant leader, met with Girl Scout mothers and adults interested in Girl Scouting Oct. 22 at the Hackberry recreation center.

Mrs. Lawrence LeBlanc agreed to serve as the troop committee chairman and Mrs. F. W. Spicer offered to serve as cookie chairman.

Members of the community that agreed to serve as Girl Scout badge consultants are Mrs Barbara Peters, Mrs. Bill Delcambre, Mrs. J. B. Culligan, Mrs. Polly Tedrow, Mrs. Michael LaFleur and John Walther.

An appeal is being made to former Junior and Cadette Scouts for the donation or sale of their uniforms. If you have a uniform available please call Mrs. C. H. Spicer, 762-3223 by Nov. 10.

The Hackberry Girl Scout troop was taken to Lake Charles for their first meeting, where they learned how to elect officers, form patrols and how to fulfill their offices.

The troop was organized into two patrols, symbols were picked and officers were elected. They are as follows:

Slugabug Patrol - patrol leader, Margaret Walthers; assistant, Christine Powers; scribe, Susan Spicer; treasurer, Diane Spicer.

Four Leaf Clover Patrol - Patrol Leader, Catherine Walthers; assistant, Joan Lowery; scribe, Janice Atwell; treasurer, Theresa Powers.

The Bugaloo Patrol - patrol leader, Callie Cabell; assistant, Debra Spicer; scribe, Lois Soiree; treasurer, Carolyn Swire.

Troop treasurer, Dorothy Walthers; troop scribe, Susan Spicer.

Nocturnal moths use the moon as a beacon; they maintain a fairly straight course by keeping the lunar image at a fixed angle on the eye's retina, National Geographic says.

Rodino said there also appears to be a lack of cooperation between the Immigration and Naturalization Service and other federal agencies in identifying aliens participating in government-sponsored programs.

Take away a man's money and if he is halfway energetic he will regain it.

Take away an innocent man's life or liberty, and he will never regain it.

Criminal matters are the most important matters handled by our courts.

Therefore, we need a judge who has experience in handling criminal matters, not just matters affecting big corporations and public bodies.

Hardy M. Parkerson is experienced in handling criminal matters, both as a former acting city procurator for the City of Lake Charles and as a criminal defense lawyer.

Hardy M. Parkerson believes that the purpose of courts is to see that justice is done. Not just to convict.

By his unselfish actions in representing many poor persons before our criminal courts; many times for little or no fee. Hardy M. To The Voters of Ward 3:

I would like to express my appreciation for the courtesy and kindness you have shown me during this campaign. I have made an effort to contact all the voters of Ward Three individually - to any of you that I may have missed, I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your support on November 6.

I feel that there are many improvements that could be made in Ward 3. For example, improvements to roads and drainage in certain areas, and relocation of garbage dumps that are now near residential areas.

This by no means includes all the problems, but I will not make any promises that cannot be fulfilled. I can promise however, to work closely with all citizens of Ward Three and the Police Jury members from other Wards, in an effort to make this a better community.

I am running as an independent candidate and I am not obligated to any one person or group in the parish. If elected, I will serve all citizens of Ward 3 on an equal basis. I ask for your vote on Sat. November 6.

Mrs. Peggy Conner was honored with a baby shower Sunday, Oct. 31, in the home of Mrs. Sandra LaBove in Grand Lake. Assisting Mrs. LaBove were Mrs. Peggy Eagleson, Mrs. Donna Verguyvelt and Mrs. Pearl LaBove.

Refreshments were served to approximately 19 guests.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Connie Trahan and Mrs. Rosie Newton.

Halloween went off very well this year even with the changing of the nights to trick or treat. We had trick or treat on Friday night and even with a ballgame going on at our school many little witches and goblins were on the go.

Both basketball teams won their games Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Primeaux visited their son and family, the Earl Primeaux's in Pascagoula, Miss., last weekend. Earl was recently transferred to Mississippi from Milton, Fla.

Belanger rites held

Funeral services for Mrs. Lucia Belanger, 79, of Hackberry were held Monday from St. John Catholic Church in Edgerly.

Burial was in Big Woods Cemetery.

Mrs. Belanger died at 12:30 a.m. Sunday in a nursing home.

She was a native of Franklin and had lived in Cameron Parish most of her life.

Survivors are two sons, Anica Toups and Alvin Belanger, both of Sulphur; three sisters, Mrs. Lucille Landry; Mrs. Lloyd Berry and Mrs. Joe Duhon, all of Edgerly; one brother, Leon Toups of Hackberry and 10 grandchildren.

Parents pay visit to school

Parent-Teacher night was held last week in the South Cameron elementary school.

Principal Adam Conner welcomed sixty parents to the meeting and introduced the faculty.

Wilmer Smith, Cameron parish superintendent, gave a brief talk.

Mr. Conner led the discussion on grouping of students within the classrooms and the departmentalization of grades two through six.

Barry Richard showed the various audio visual aids being used and the teaching materials, followed by a short demonstration.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Adam Conner and Mrs. Robert Ortego.

Terry makes good all around apron

A boldly printed terry cloth rectangle will make an apron fun to wear when trimmed with accent rick rack.

Pin four 1 inch deep pleats; 10 inches long from top edge and stitch. (Or pleat across to measure 7 inches.) Use 2½ yard length of fold-over braid. Allow 24 inches for neckband and tie strings. Bind bodice sides only. Stitch accent rick rack across top and bottom edges.

Mrs. Perry elected Wives club president

Mrs. Charles Perry was elected president of the Amaco Wives Club at a meeting of the club held in the Cameron library.

Elected to serve with her were: Mrs. Jesse Knowles, vice-president, and Mrs. Betty Schwink, secretary-treasurer.

The following chairmen were appointed to serve: Mrs. Ema Loving, publicity; Mrs. Corinne Griggs, historian; Jennings, Mrs. Mertine Rogers; Hackberry, Mrs. Elma Gross; Grand Chenier-Cameron, Mrs. William and Mrs. Perry; Lake Charles, Mrs. Patricia Brice and Mrs.

Della Johnson; and Sulphur, Mrs. Agnes Lake and Mrs. Ruby Little.

A tour of the Steed's seafood packing plant was made by the club and a covered dish lunch was enjoyed at noon at the library.

Several displays were in the library for the group to inspect. One was the antique bottle collection of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Clement of Cameron and the other was a Korean doll display belonging to Leonard Sonnier of Lake Charles.

Mrs. Wynn and Mrs. Perry were hostesses for the meeting.

Island doesn't attract bidders

The 11-acre island in Toledo Bend Lake, off proposed recreation site No. 11, was put up for bids to persons interested in renting and developing it for outdoor fun. The State of Louisiana will readvertise for bids, C. H. Downs, director of the state department of public works said.

Bill Dodd agrees with most Gubernatorial Candidates

Dodd agrees with the candidates who believe the future of our state and nation hinges on the quality of education provided for all our children. This is why Dodd's department has been hard at work converting Louisiana public education from a 3-R's system to one meeting the needs of modern America.

Dodd also agrees with those who are for vocational-technical education, for combatting drug abuse, for training the hardcore unemployed; for equitable teachers' salaries and for education of the handicapped. In fact, under Dodd's leadership, Louisiana education is now serving all these needs and more. Dodd believes every citizen has a need for public education and his department has a program for every need.

Stacy is appointed

Truman Stacey of Lake Charles, editor of the Lake Charles American Press, has been appointed lay chairman of the Committee of Catholic Scouting for the Diocese of Lafayette, it has been announced. The appointment was made by the Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder, bishop of the diocese.

Stacey's assignment will be to assist the Rev. Harry N. Quick, diocesan scout chaplain, in developing a diocese-wide committee to cooperate with the Boy Scout councils in the diocese.

There are two scouting organizations within the boundaries of the diocese -- the Calcasieu Area Council, centered upon Lake Charles, and the Evangeline Area Council, centered upon Lafayette. The diocesan committee will organize two Area Catholic Committees, which will be expected to cooperate with the two Boy Scout councils in insuring that the spiritual well-being of Catholic scouts is fostered.

BUYING WISELY

BBB

By CATON LANGSTON
Manager of Better Business Bureau of Southwest Louisiana, Inc.

Dear BBB:

My little girl is four and she is a beautiful child. About a month ago I saw an ad in a local paper that said child models were needed. I didn't tell my husband I was going to answer it because he doesn't believe in things like this; he's pretty cynical. Anyway, I took Kathy in for an interview. The man told me that she was the most beautiful child he had ever seen and that she was a natural for TV commercials. I paid a $5 audition fee and the man said he'd be in touch in a few days. I haven't heard a word and he won't talk to me when I call. Do you think I've been taken?

Concerned Mother

Dear Concerned:

Yes, we think you were taken. Many Better Business Bureaus have received complaints just like yours. Your daughter is undoubtedly very beautiful. But remember, there is very little demand for child models. If you are tempted to answer another ad like this we suggest you call the Bureau before you take your daughter in for an audition. We can tell you ahead of time if we have received a lot of complaints and what the chances are for getting your child into a modeling career.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

Why are companies allowed to cheat people? I keep reading so much about consumer protection that I am getting to the point where I think every company is cheating me. And what about advertising? A lot of people think advertising should be banned. What do you think?

Confused

Dear Confused:

The Better Business Bureaus have learned that the big majority of companies don't try to cheat people. They may employ a sales person who makes a mistake. But when this happens they will usually correct it. People usually get cheated when they try to get something for nothing, or think that they are on to a "good thing."

Companies are in business to make a profit--if they don't make profits they can't hire people--and jobs become scarce. Companies that make too much profit are usually cut down to size by other companies who offer the same goods for less -- and women usually find out very fast what company offers the really good deals.

Without advertising you wouldn't know about the new cake mix, the new household appliance, the house that is offered for sale, what dealer has a good offer on cars, and specials at the supermarket. Most advertising, like most business, is good. Advertising can be a good influence--or a bad one. It is up to you as a person in your own right to make the decision on the product.

Some consumer protection laws are very good. But one housewife wrote to us and made this comment: "If I go into a supermarket and want to buy liquid detergent in a pretty container and with a nice odor for 80 cents - I'm going to. I don't want the government or anyone telling me that I have to buy the supermarket's own brand for twenty cents less. I happen to be a grown woman and the things I buy at the supermarket are what I want to buy -- not what someone insists I should want to buy because its cheaper or doesn't have a nice package.

There are many things that I buy for no real reason -- other than I just want to. And I think that this is real freedom." Our advice is, shop around, use your head, make your own decisions. Deal with reputable stores--they are the ones that will make an adjustment if you find something wrong with the merchandise.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

I bought a silk dress at a sale right at the end of summer. Last week I tried it on and when I sat down it split. The store won't take it back--the salesgirl says I bought a size too small. But I always wear a ten. Can't you make the store refund my money?

Furious

Dear Furious:

Most stores have a policy of making a refund or exchange five to ten days after the purchase. Goods sold on sales are usually not returnable. In this case, almost five months have gone by since you bought the dress--and it is damaged. The store does not have to make a refund or an exchange. Silk is very fragile and often splits at points of stress. If you have gained a little weight since you purchased the dress the chances are that this is what caused the split. Perhaps these thoughts will help you the next time you buy.

Sabine refuge to be opened for hunting

Portions of the Sabine National Wildlife Refuge will again be open for waterfowl hunting during the regular duck season according to Refuge Manager John R. Walther.

Refuge personnel will be on duty each morning at 4 a.m. to answer any questions that hunters might have and to pass out copies of regulations and maps of the hunt area.

Hunters using boats to enter and travel on the refuge are cautioned about having proper safety equipment. Lack of life jackets and running lights have been problems in the past and boats without such equipment will not be allowed to enter the refuge hunt area.

The current season regulations for the refuge hunt are listed below and anyone desiring a copy for these rules and maps of the hunt area may obtain them at the refuge or writing to the Refuge Manager, Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, MRH Box 107, Sulphur, La., 70663

1. HUNTING SEASON: Nov. 11-28, 1971 and December 11, 1971 - Jan. 9, 1972 five one-half days per week, Wednesday through Sunday. No hunting on Mondays or Tuesdays or on Christmas Day, Dec. 25.

2. HOURS: One-half hour before sunrise until 12 noon. Hunters may enter the hunting area two hours before legal shooting time and must depart the hunting area by 1 p.m.

3. Hunting is restricted to ducks, geese and coots. No other species of birds, mammals or reptiles may be shot or taken on the refuge.

4. Firearms must be encased or dismantled when carried in transit through refuge canals.

5. Temporary blinds made of native vegetation may be constructed or portable blinds may be carried in for each hunt.

6. Use of retriever dogs is permitted and encouraged, but must be under control of hunter at all times.

7. Livestock, fur bearers, and trapping equipment present in the hunting areas shall not be molested or disturbed by hunters.

8. Hunters must station themselves in a minimum of 50 yards inland from refuge canals.

9. Running lights are required on all boats using refuge canals before sunrise.

You are encouraged to be a good sportsman at all times and to show courtesy both the game being hunted and to other participating hunters. Please be extremely cautious with all firearms. Shoot or molest no birds or animals other than those permitted. Obey all refuge and waterfowl hunting regulations.

Cattle walkways practice conservation

Landowners and operators of Louisiana's 4.5 million acre Gulf marsh area are putting into practice soil and water conservation measures designed to protec this unique natural resource. A major wildlife habitat, the marsh is also valuable for cattle ranches and cheniers which are used for crops and improved pastures.

"The key to conservation of the marsh," says Terry Clement, district conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service here, "is wise use of the land within its capabilities. This means using each acre for what it is best suited." Soil and water conservation districts, assisted by the SCS, are helping to do this by furnishing soil surveys to land users. Land use is based on these surveys.

After land use potential is determined, land users develop conservation plans which include needed conservation practices. For the wildlife marshes, such management as water level and salinity control are important. This is usually accomplished by building and using levees and water management structures. These practices help improve and maintain wildlife habitat, as well as produce more choice wildlife food plants as wild millets, Olney bulrush, and widgeongrass.

Much of the marsh consists of soils that are firm enough to support the weight of cattle while grazing, Clement notes. The marsh is used for wildlife habitat, also. "The main concern of marsh ranchers," he says, "is proper grazing. Proper grazing is needed to prevent harmful over-grazing of the more desirable plants, such as Pallie fine, Longton and Marshhay cordgrass."

Cattle walkways are a popular practice used in the marshes to help distribute grazing and achieve proper use. They are earthen levees running out into the marshes. The levees are usually built with sloped sides and staggered barrow pits. Livestock use the walkways to trail farther into the marsh, thus preventing over-grazing near ridges. With good grazing distribution, marsh range is usually capable of supporting one full-grown cow on 4 to 5 acres annually.

Marshlands mostly suited for cropland and pasture are usually cheniers or drained areas near cheniers or prairies. The soils are usually highly fertile, but due to their low elevation, drainage is a major conservation problem. Conservation cropping systems, crop residue management, pasture development and pasture management are other important practices needed on this land.

By working together, landowners and Federal and State agencies are helping improve and conserve the productivity of our marshlands. By giving nature a "helping hand," conservationists are playing a key roll in keeping Louisiana marshes a natural showcase.

CATTLE WALKWAY on Mayo Boudreaux farm at Oak Grove damaged as a result of Hurricane Edith. Note heavy cattle use as refuge, which added to erosion by high water and heavy rains.

Allotments made for parishes

Charles S. Hackett, Calcasieu-Cameron ASCS County executive director, announced that the two parishes have received word from the United States Department of Agriculture that the 1972 REAP allocations have been made. The allocation for Cameron parish is $47,981 and Calcasieu is allocated $92,498.

The allocation for all of Louisiana for 1972 is $2,-776,000, which is $232,-000 less than the amount allocated the state for the 1971 REAP program. The total allocation, less a 5 percent State reserve for special projects, RC & D projects, watershed treatment and pollution abatement practices, has been distributed to the parishes.

"The length of the ballot in all areas, coupled with this massive turnout, is sure to cause delays in voting.

"While some delay is unavoidable votens can eliminate much waiting if they will simply prepare their own personal sample ballot before they enter the polling place. A simple method is to jot down the numbers of the favored candidates and refer to this when voting.

"Voters should remember also that while single member districts have eliminated the need for multiple voting in legislative races, there are still races where voters must vote for more than one candidate or the vote will not be recorded.

"Because of Louisiana's multiple voting law it is sometimes necessary to vote for more than one candidate in a single race. This applies to such offices as police jurors and state central committees.

"If the voter does not follow instructions on the ballot precisely and casts a vote for fewer candidates than required for that office, then the vote is cancelled.

Dock strike cause of 10 percent rice cut

Rice farmers in Southwest Louisiana have been asked by the USDA to take another 10 percent cut in rice acreage due to a large carryover from this year's crop.

Gene Wittler, Farm Bureau Rice Advisory Committee chairman, says the excess of rice is due primarily to the Gulf and Atlantic coasts dock strike and is just one of the ills suffered by the Louisiana rice industry due to the work stoppage.

He said the American rice industry has already lost in excess of $4,664,000 in rice sales to the Philippines. During the past few weeks the exports have submitted bids three different times for a 43,000 ton order to the Philippines. These prices have been rejected every time, because exporters could not guarantee delivery, he said.

If the strike is not permanently settled in the near future, markets may be lost in Indonesia, Korea, and Vietnam, Wittler said. The strike has hit Louisiana rice farmers particularly hard, since, according to Wittler, approximately 80 percent of the rice grown in Louisiana is exported.

Work resumed last week at the ports in New Orleans and Baton Rouge as striking longshoremen obeyed a temporary injunction issued by the U. S. District Judge Jack M. Gordon. But foreign shippers may still be reluctant to send ships into these ports under present conditions, Wittler said. "I fear that if the dock strike is not settled permanently we'll lose more markets," he said.

Wittler pointed out that farmers lost in excess of $1,500,000 by selling rice on a green basis at the prices they were receiving. He also attributed this loss to the dock strike, saying it caused mills and buyers to disregard the substantial increase farmers should have received because of the government increases in support rates this season.

Louisiana Farm Bureau strongly supports the proposed Emergency Public Interest Protection Act of 1971 as a reasonable effort to deal with disputes between labor and management which arise in the transportation industries, Wittler emphasized.

America's farmes depend for their very livelihood on our national transportation system, as indeed do all of our industries and consumers. However, our national transportation system is now being critically impaired because we lack a workable mechanism for quickly and equitably settling labor-management disputes, he concluded.

Stamps should be in by 15th

Nov. 15 is the deadline in the project to gather 2,100 filled books of trading stamps for the purchase of a new station wagon for the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home in Monroe.

At the end of October, a total of 1,230 books were on hand, with additional trading stamps arriving daily. Several Southwest Louisiana parish residents have already shared in the project. Supt. Wade B. East hopes that the goal will be reached by the deadline date and that the new vehicle, needed to transport youngstern to church, school and community activities, can soon be in use.

Filled books, partially filled books and loose stamps will be appreciated. All kinds of trading stamps may be mailed to the Children's Home at Box 4196, Monroe, La. 71201.

Onions in the coals

Sweet Spanish onions roasted in the coals of the barbecue will literally melt in your mouth. Chose one of these mild flavored onions for each diner. Place, unpeeled, at the edge of coals. Roast 45 minutes to an hour, turning occasionally. To serve, remove the charred outer layer, dot with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Great with spit-turned roasts

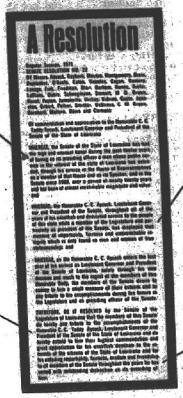
In an official resolution before the Louisiana senate, here's what 39 senators, including Adcock, Schwegmann and Johnston, said about the leadership and dedication of Taddy Aycock.

"As presiding officer . . . his service . . . has been of almost inestimable magnitude and value."



"Has displayed that measure of impartiality, fairness and unquenchable integrity which is only found in men and women of true statesmanship."

"Our highest commendation and great appreciation for his unselfish devotion to the interest of the citizens of the Senate of Louisiana."

"He has served with outstanding distinction."

The finest measure of a man is what the people who know him best say about him. This resolution for Taddy Aycock by 39 leading senators puts it well indeed.

Taddy Aycock is a man who has served his state with dedication, honesty and distinction.

A man who has compiled a senate attendance record of 97.5% since 1960. Taddy Aycock is the man who turned down a proposed measure to construct a $75,000 home for the Lt. Governor. He was the first high state official and the first candidate in this race to oppose busing.

Taddy Aycock is the man who spearheaded the drive for better efficiency and management (BEAM) in state government—an effort which saves our taxpayers over $2 million dollars each and every year. Taddy Aycock is the man who was Speaker of the House when your taxes were actually reduced!

Taddy Aycock is the man who led the successful fight against increased gasoline and income taxes. A man whose reputation for honesty, integrity and ability remains unblemished.

We desperately need an honest, conservative, proven leader. And the best man in this race is Taddy Aycock. Vote for him!

Vote For A Man Who Is A Dependent Candidate - Dependent on All of the People of Ward 3

It has been a rewarding experience for me to travel all areas of our ward to see and visit with all my friends and neighbors. If during my Campaign I only accomplished the renewing of my many friendships, I feel that I have won. The friendship and warm feelings I have for my many friends and neighbors mean more to me than any political office ever could.

I AM DEPENDENT ON THE VOTERS OF WARD 3 TO ELECT ME.

VOTE FOR educational background, business experience and a tremendous desire to serve our parish.

Please go to the polls on November 6th and vote for the candidate dependent on you, so that you can depend on him to help provide the necessary leadership in order for our parish to grow and prosper.

THANK YOU

J Bolo

My Thanks

I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the other candidates in this race for the gentlemen-like manner in which they have all conducted their campaigns.

CAMERON NEWS

By MRS. GEORGE NUNEZ

The trick and treaters had a great time; some celebrated Saturday night and some Sunday night.

Last week Mrs. Sarah LeBleu, Mrs. Bessie Corbello and Mrs. Lorraine Lopez of Lake Charles visited Mrs. Allie Henry and other relatives.

Mrs. Marguirite Tate and Tommy visited friends in Lake Charles Friday and brought Scott Henry home for the weekend.

Mrs. Edna Bertrand and Mrs. Virginia Lemke spent last Thursday and Friday in Nederland and Port Arthur and had a barbecue with Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lemke and children.

Mrs. Nona Guidry and two ladies of Carlyss spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Roux and also visited Mrs. Matilda Doxey.

Mrs. Leo Folse of Lake Charles spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Matilda Doxey.

Last Monday Regina Trahan of Groves was on her way to business college on Gulfway Drive when a car came out in front of her. They were both injured. Regina had a broken ankle and had surgery pins put in her ankle and nine stitches in her chin. The man in the other car had a broken pelvis bone. Both were taken to St. Mary's Hospital by ambulance. Regina's car, I understand, is a total loss.

Scott Quinn had an accident recently. He cut his leg on a trailer hitch and had to be taken to Lake Charles for stitches. It never healed so he had to go back to the hospital in Lake Charles to have skin graft.

Bailey Roux of Mississippi visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Roux, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Roux and Junior during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Oran Doxey, Carl Gall, Darlene and Dwayne of Abbeville visited Mrs. Matilda Doxey Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Folse, Ginger, Stephanie, and Page of Lake Charles. Page did his trick and treating down here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Morales, Ginny and Chris, Mrs. Flora Bellanger and Jon, Mrs. Gladys Trahan spent Sunday in Groves with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Trahan and family. Regina Trahan will be able to be up on crutches soon.

R. C. Domingue and Johnnie of Lafayette visited Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Domingue, Mrs. Kyle Domingue and Mrs. Anita Murphy the past weekend.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Attwell of Sulphur are the proud parents of a girl, Roberta Lynne, 7 lbs. 14 oz., born in Sulphur hospital. Roberta was welcomed by a sister Cathy, grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Billeaud of Carlyss and Mr. and Mrs. A. Attwell of Toledo Bend.

Get well wishes extended to Mrs. Oscar LeBouef who came home from South Cameron Hospital this past weekend. Also Mrs. Amadie LaBove who came out of the hospital Saturday, back to her daughter's, Mrs. Allie Nunez. She is about the same. Also to Louie LeBouef who had major surgery in Lake Charles recently.

Mrs. Phirma LeBouef and daughter, Mrs. Lois Boullion returned home from the hospital. Mrs. Boullion is doing very well.

Mrs. Emma Daigle McCall of Lake Charles and Billy Lemke of Port Arthur, visited Mrs. Edna Bertrand and Mrs. Virginia Lemke last week.

OPPORTUNITY...

... FOR EDUCATION Education was given top priority under both Davis administrations. He started a Fee Exempt Scholarship Act for college students and initiated the Student Loan Assistance Act of 1963. The Davis administration constructed 58 major buildings on college campuses and opened trade and vocational schools in 10 cities. Nicholls State College was created by the Davis Administration. And at no time were education funds cut.

... FOR THE RETARDED AND THE BLIND Jimmie Davis created retarded children's schools at Hammond, Leesville and Belle Chasse; nine day care centers for the retarded were created; and mental health centers were created at New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Crowley and Shreveport. Centers for the medical and health care of the blind were created in New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Crowley and Shreveport. Jimmie Davis passed a law creating jobs for the blind in state buildings and granted tax exemptions for the blind, retarded and handicapped.

... FOR THE VETERAN Jimmie Davis passed the G.I. Bill for Louisiana veterans and made housing available on college and university campuses and established the Department of Veterans Affairs.

... FOR SPORTSMEN During Gov. Davis' last term more land was leased, purchased and opened to the public for sports programs than ever before, including the Alexandria Area in Rapides Parish, Concordia Area, Fort Polk Game Management, Jackson-Bienville Area, Lutcher-More Area in Vernon Parish, Russell-Sage Area in Catahoula and LaSalle Parishes and Lake D'Arbonne. The Rockefeller Refuge was opened for sports fishing for the first time and the Wildlife Conservation Program was begun. The massive project, Toledo Bend Dam, was initiated by Jimmie Davis, and created 1,200 miles of shoreline and 182,000 acres of water, revolutionizing the western Louisiana economy.

... FOR ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT Jimmie Davis was the most economy-minded governor in Louisiana history. He never raised taxes and he always left millions in the state treasury. The investment of idle funds was first instituted under the Davis administration. He is now pledged to making Louisiana a land of opportunity for all citizens to realize a better life.

Pipe drops save soil on Percy David farm

By TERRY J. CLEMENT

Installation of pipe drops will save soil and reduce drainage ditch maintenance for Percy David, Gulf Coast Soil and Water Conservation District cooperator. David recently installed 15 structures on his farm at Klondike.

The rice and cattle farm is over 1500 acres in size, most being low, requiring extensive drainage. The drops collect water in the fields and lower it to the drainage ditches. This prevents gully erosion which often result where water falls over ditch banks. It also reduces pollution by silt and mud in the drainage water.

Cleaner water is not only a better habitat for fish and wildlife, but increases the useful life of ditches and streams. The water contains less silt and mud to settle out and plug them. Three types of pipe drops are generally used in conservation work, asphalt coated metal, asbestos cement, and plastic pipe. Each type performs satisfactorily when properly installed and maintained.

Technicians of the Soil Conservation Service assisting Soil and Water Conservation Districts furnish technical installation and maintenance assistance. Financial assistance is available to land users through the REAP Program administered by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

No taxing powers

The Sabine River Authority of Louisiana and the Texas Sabine River Authority have no taxing power whatsoever, but must operate on revenues received from the sale of hydro - electric power and fresh water from Toledo Bend Dam.

Cameron HD club plans fur festival float

The Cameron Home Demonstration Club met Oct. 25 in the Civic Room of the Calcasieu Marine National Bank. Decorations carried a Halloween theme.

Club President, Mrs. Burl LaBove called the meeting to order. Mrs. Norma Blake led the club in the pledge of allegiance while Mrs. Wendell Murphy led the club collect. Linda and Carla Reyes, 4-H Club members, and Mrs. Terry Willis, a new club member, were guests for the meeting.

Project leader reports were heard from Mrs. Peggy Reyes, Mrs. Annie Swindell, Mrs. Wendell Murphy, Mrs. Norma Blake, Mrs. Aleta Hebert and Mrs. Shirley A. Murphy.

Mrs. Ward Fontenot presented a book report on Fruit and Vegetable Arrangements. The publication is available at the Cameron Parish Library. Mrs. Fontenot also reported to the Club on Achievement Day contests and activities held Saturday, Oct. 23.

Plans were formulated for the club's participation in the Cameron Parish Home Demonstration Council installation tea. The Cameron Club will host the affair, to be held at 1:30 p. m. Dec. 3 in the Cameron Parish Library. A committee was appointed to prepare the meeting room and make tea table arrangements.

Looking ahead to the upcoming annual Fur and Wildlife Festival, the club selected a committee to design a float to be entered in the festival parade. The float committee will meet at the Cameron Parish Courthouse meeting room at 10 a. m. Nov. 5.

Miss Patsy Granger, Home Demonstration Agent, presented a demonstration on needlecraft judging.

Items brought by club members were auctioned by Mrs. Shirley A. Murphy, Mrs. Charles Rogers, Mrs. Betty Savoie, Mrs. Anne Smith and Mrs. Annie Swindell donated the items. Auction items for the November monthly meeting are to be brought by club members, Mrs. Larry Taylor, Mrs. Alcia Trahan, Mrs. Sam Warren and Mrs. Judy Criglow.

Refreshments following the meeting were served by Mrs. Adrien Dosher, Mrs. Eldie Theramie and Mrs. Peggy Reyes.

VOTE
LON TYNDALL
State Representative
District 36

BACKGROUND:
Practicing attorney.
Served as State Representative and did not seek re-election until now.

PLATFORM:

1. TAKE LAKE CHARLES CHARITY HOSPITAL OUT OF POLITICS
While serving as State Representative I introduced the Bill and secured the funds to build our Charity Hospital in Lake Charles. If I get it built, I can see that it remains open on a permanent basis.

Also, I would like to change the name of Lake Charles Charity Hospital. Remove the word "Charity" and call it Southwest Louisiana Hospital, or General Hospital, etc. This would at least leave a man some of his pride.

2. FULL SUPPORT FOR McNEESE UNIVERSITY
Too long has McNeese University been "low man on the totem pole." Last year McNeese did not receive even close to adequate funds, and had to cut everything to the bone in order to make it through the year. (Salaries, supplies, equipment, telephones, etc., you name it - they had to cut it.) When I was your legislator before, I saw to it that McNeese had adequate operating funds and capital expenditures.

Many people do not realize the tremendous benefits we receive from McNeese University. The payroll, alone is equal to one of our large plant's payroll, not counting the cultural, social, and other benefits we receive. I shall make it a point to see that McNeese University receives adequate funds to make it a greater university.

3. ELIMINATE DOUBLE TAXATION ON LOUISIANA INCOME TAX
Under the law as it is now, a Louisiana taxpayer gets no credit on Louisiana income tax for the federal income tax paid. In other words, he pays state income tax on money he pays to the federal government for federal income tax. This amounts double taxation, or a tax on a tax. Something has to be done about this, and I will endeavor to do so.

4. LOWER THE RETAIL PRICE OF MILK
The people of Louisiana pay more for milk than 92% of the nation's consumers. Louisiana milk prices are the fourth highest in the United States. The present price is 24¢ higher for a gallon of milk than the national average. This is because the Louisiana Milk Commission sets the minimum instead of the maximum price.

5. ESTABLISH AND MAINTAIN AN ADEQUATE HIGHWAY SYSTEM FOR CAMERON PARISH
To my friends in Cameron Parish - I will do everything in my power to see that adequate roads and bridges (including an escape route) are furnished to Cameron Parish, and you may rest assured that I will represent Cameron Parish to the fullest extent of my ability. Thank you for your confidence and your vote.

6. REDUCE CAR INSURANCE RATES
Insurance premiums are climbing out of sight. The insurance companies keep hollering that they are losing millions of dollars, but at the same time they are loaning out millions. This is because they are considering only the income on premiums paid, and not considering interest on your money that they are lending or have invested - premiums paid in advance - premiums on cancelled policies - subrogation claims - reserves, etc. I think something can be done about this, and I intend to do so.

7. ELIMINATE "HOLDER IN DUE COURSE" DOCTRINE IN CONSUMER TRANSACTIONS
For example: A homeowner signs a contract and note for home improvement, or other services and materials. The contractor sells the note to a finance company to get his money immediately. The contractor skips town without doing any work or furnishing any materials. Under present law, the consumer would have to pay the finance company anyway.

8. REVISION OF STATE CONSTITUTION
I am a lawyer and it is hard enough for me to find something in the Constitution, much less the average layman. It is loaded with special interests and local issues, making it by far the largest and most complicated Constitution in the United States. The people of Louisiana have expressed their dissatisfaction with the Constitution because in the last election they voted down every amendment. I shall work for a revision of our State Constitution.

9. OTHER PRINCIPAL ITEMS IN MY PLATFORM
1. Four-lane Gulf Highway all the way to the Lake Charles airport.
2. Expedite completion of 210.

10. AGAINST BUSSING
I don't think it is right for anyone to be forced to ride a school bus all the way across town or further.

11. I am a Christian and I intend to run my office on Christian principles.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

Grandfather's old grindstone was an important instrument in his day. It rested within a wooden frame and was used for grinding or sharpening tools. It consisted of a flat, circular piece of fine sandstone -- about two feet in diameter -- mounted on a spindle and turned by a winch handle.

A bucket of water was kept handy during the sharpening process so that a little of it might be dribbled over the stone as it was being turned.

A younster came in mighty handy, also, for a second person was needed to turn the crank while Grandfather held against the stone the tool that he was sharpening.

Grandfather considered the grinding of axes and chisels and knives a combination of art and science. Each tool had to be done a special way with the purpose for which it was to be used kept in mind.

He ground bluntly the axe that he used for splitting wood. The cutting edge of the blade was made sharp, but it was ground thick just back of that in order to split the wood better. Other axes, though ground thinner, were slightly beveled instead of wedge-shaped. His object was to keep the friction at one point as he chopped into a stick. He ground his broadaxe on one side like a chisel to insure straight traveling on its part.

He would squint his eyes till he could sight his work just so. Then he'd let the axe roll on the turning stone. Hatchets, he ground in a similar manner. But his chisels and plane blades he held steady. He knew the precise angle or position at which each tool might best be ground.

We children were warned not to play at sharpening tools. First, we'd probably ruin the blades beyond repair. Secondly, we'd ruin the grindstone itself by nicking or gouging the tool into it.

Grandfather was fond of telling an anecdote in which his grindstone played an important part. One day after his brother-in-law and he had finished sharpening several knives, they squatted down near the grindstone to talk.

The brother-in-law's small son, who had lost the buttons by which his suspenders held up his pants, had been running around holding them up with first one, then the other hand.

Now, the little fellow squeered in between the shafts that held the grindstone. He waved both hands wildly and shouted, "Goody, this frame holds my breeches up all by itself and I have my two hands to do nothing with!"

Parents night is successful

Parents night held last week at Johnson Bayou High School was termed a success by Principal Jerry McDonald. 43 parents turned out for the first such event held this year.

McDonald introduced all the teachers. The teachers had students' papers available to let each parent know how the student's work is progressing.

New teaching materials and visuals were on display to show what methods are being employed in teaching at the school.

The Johnson Bayou Junior 4-H club members served as guides in showing the parents around the building.

The Senior 4-H club members presided at the refreshment table.

Sale held by Cameron club

A sweets and crafts sale was held by the Cameron Home Demonstration Club Oct. 26 at the Calcasieu Marine National Bank Civic Room in Cameron. Homemade pies, cakes, cookies, candies, and sandwiches along with handmade craft items were sold. Proceeds were to provide funds for the club.

Another sale is planned for the near future, according to Mrs. Burl LaBove, president.

New baler

A new automatic bale wagon used by farmers allows one man to pick up tons of hay bales each day without leaving the seat of his tractor.

Proper storage very important

Proper storage of fresh produce will keep the good quality in the foods you buy — potatoes, onions, winter squash, pears, and apples keep well in a cool dry place. Remember to remove them from unventilated bags because circulation of air prevents mold and decay.

Give wildlife reason to stay

"To keep wildlife down on the farm we've got to give them a reason to stay," says Terry Clement, district conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Gulf Coast Soil and Water Conservation District.

"While each animal or bird has different living requirements, they all boil down to two basic items, food and cover. With these two essentials provided, wildlife will stay and multiply."

Food differs greatly for the individual species. Quail and doves like various seeds of crops or grasses. Squirrels like acorns and nuts. Rabbits and deer like leaves, twigs and fruits of plants. They all require something different, yet many times their tastes in food overlap.

A prime example of this is found in the millets, especially proso or browntop. These grasses produce a seed that is eaten by doves, quail, turkey, ducks (if the millet is flooded with 15 inches or less of water) and rabbits. Wildlife also like acorns. Many animals like different size acorns, but all sizes are used by quail, turkey, ducks, deer, and squirrel.

Quite a few animals can be fed from one variety of plant. So, when considering wildlife food plantings on the farm, plants can be chosen for the individual game animal or bird, or you can use plants that have a wide acceptance.

Cover varies more than food with the species, but still there are broad overlaps and some plants will be used by several animals. For instance, an ungrazed woodlot can be used by deer, squirrel, turkey, rabbit, quail and dove. If it is flooded, ducks can also be included. Good woodland management will enhance its use by wildlife.

Small game, quail and rabbits benefit when native vegetation is left along fence lines, field borders and in odd corners; such places will be used for feeding, nesting, loafing and escape from predators and inclement weather.

A little ground may be lost to cultivated crops, but will produce a wild crop of its own. Cover, like food, can be tailored for an individual animal or bird, or a broad multi-use approach can be used. Whichever approach is used it will help keep wildlife down on the farm.

Rev. Coody traces family

Rev. Arby Coody, pastor of the Cameron and Grand Chenier Methodist churches has obtained a very interesting family tree. It traces his family's lineage back to George Washington.

George Washington had no children of his own. Rev. Coody's kinship is through a brother of Washington.

The "flying foxes" of Tonga Islands actually are cat-sized fruit bats that often raid mango groves at night.

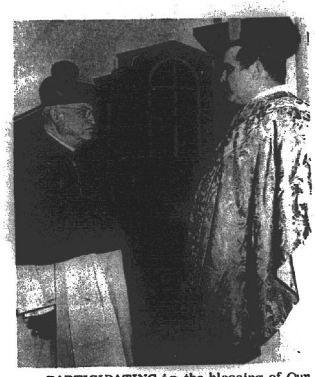
16TH YEAR -- NO. 5 CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, NOV. 11, 1971 10¢ A COPY



PARTICIPATING in the blessing of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Cameron Sunday afternoon was the Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder, left. Bishop of Lafayette, and the Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of the church. The two are shown in front of the new church.

Our Lady church dedicated here

Many church dignitaries gathered in Cameron Sunday afternoon to help dedicate the new Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church. The formal blessing was held at 3 p.m. with the Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder, Bishop of Lafayette, officiating.

The sacrament of confirmation was conferred by Bishop Schexnayder who officially dedicated the church for worship. The Bishop also blessed the outside of the church. Thirty-nine children were confirmed during confirmation ceremonies.

Forty members of the Msgr. Hubert Cramers Assembly of Lake Charles, six members of the Knights of St. Gregory, Lake Charles and nineteen members of the Cameron Knights of Columbus served as an escort and honor guard for the clergy. They were dressed in full regalia.

Msgr. Louis Boudreaux of Lafayette delivered the sermon. Music for the ceremonies was provided by the Centamarian choir of Lafayette.

Bishop Schexnayder, who is 76, said that this dedication is among the last he will perform prior to his retirement.

He said the ceremony here today was very dear to his heart. His first glimpse of the local church was in the former small building which was located on the courthouse square. The Bishop had made a trip to Cameron to inspect the damage caused to the local church in 1957, following Hurricane Audrey. He said he found the church washed off its blocks and badly damaged.

Bishop Schexnayder said he was so moved over the heavy loss of life and property in the area that he headed a movement to erect a beautiful lasting monument, dedicated to the Mother of God, which would serve as a perpetual entreaty to her son, the master of the universe, to protect Cameron Parish and the surrounding area from future calamities.

Bishop Schexnayder said he got his inspiration for the design of the statue from a similiar statue located at St. Benedict monastery in Subiaco, Italy, which he visited in 1956. The inscription on that statue read "Do Not Harm My Sons"

The seven-foot marble statue of Our Lady and a child was ordered by Bishop Schexnayder while attending the Ecumenical Council in Rome in 1962. The 36-foot high concrete shrine, designed by Architect Perry Segura of New Iberia, was erected in 1963 facing the Gulf of Mexico, only a mile away.

The inscription reads "Do not harm my children." It has become a well known landmark of the parish and a tourist attraction, reminding residents and visitors of the storm dead and of everyone's constant duty to God.

The newly erected church is located immediately behind the statue. The church is built to resemble the bow of a ship, a reference to the sea and the shipping industries which are vital to the area economy. The sea influence is carried out in the decor of the interior of the church. The marble alter has a carved starfish on the front. The deep blue carpet gives the feeling of the sea water. The church was designed and building supervised by Rev. Alcide Sonnier, church pastor.

After the ceremonies, the clergy and seminarians were served a seafood supper in the rectory by members of the Catholic Daughters and Alter Society of the church.

Oyster season opens Dec.1

Oyster season will open in Cameron parish on Dec. 1, according to the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission. The only place the oysters may be taken in Calcasieu Lake and West Cove.

The limit for non commercial fishermen is two sacks per boat per day. Commercial oystermen with licenses are limited to 15 sacks per day per boat.

Commercial oyster licenses may be purchased from the game agent, Capt. Clayton Nunez, in the voting machine building located in back of the Cameron courthouse Monday through Friday, from 7 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Mail orders will not be accepted. Those applying for licenses must appear in person.

ASCS office hours reduced

Charles S. Hackett, Cameron-Calcasieu ASCS County Executive Director, announced that due to a reduction in force because of a revaluation of the workload of the combined offices, it has become necessary to reduce the hours of the Cameron office.

Beginning Monday, Nov. 15, the Cameron ASCS office will be open on Tuesday and Friday of each week. Farmers with business in the local office should arrange to do it on these days, Hackett said.

On the other days the clerk in the local office will be working in the Calcasieu office.

Hackett said that this arrangement was the only way that justification could be given to keep the local office open.

MUSING . . .

Tall memories

By BERNICE HOLLISTER STEWART

Don Streater, whose column, "Another Day," appears regularly in the Beaumont Enterprise, once wrote, "It's not that old men forget so much, but that they remember so much that never happened."

Perhaps that is why certain gentlemen in Cameron Parish were able to tell such magnificent tales of early days there.

One old-timer explained why he never had much work to do on his farm when he was a young man.

"The seasons were so good," he said, "and the land so new and strong that every stalk of corn bore six or seven ears. One simply had to shake a tassel (tassel), and out popped a bushel of shelled corn."

Another prominent citizen told of his immense potato crop. "They made so well," he said, "that there wasn't enough room in the ground for them. Every morning I have to hitch my team to the wagon and go out to the field to pick up a fair-sized bushel from each row that pushed out the ground overnight."

One fine old gentlemen claimed that his watermelons grew so big that an acquaintance of his traveling by on the road saw them, mistook them for a herd of cows lying down in the field and stopped to warn him that his fence must be broken and the cattle in.

Another story tells of Irish potatoes that grew to the length and breadth of stove wood. The planter dug them out, stacked them on his arm like cord wood, and carried them in.

Fertile soil? Or fertile imagination? Perhaps a bit of each plus the remembering of that which never was!

Two police jury races go into runoffs here

One long time Cameron parish police juror was defeated; another won re-election; and two other jury races will go into runoffs as results of Saturday's Democratic primary election.

Horace P. Mhire, of Grand Chenier the dean of the parish's jurors, was defeated for re-election by Ernest R. Myers of Klondike. The vote was 148 to 123. Mhire has served on the jury longer than other present member.

Archie Berwick of Johnson Bayou, Ward 5 incumbent, was re-elected winning over Dwight Ebelding, 145 to 123.

In the Ward 6 (Hackberry) race, John R. Rollins, with 329 votes, will face C. A. Riggs, the incumbent with 311 votes, in the second primary. The third man in the race, Virgil (Bill) Real got 27 votes.

There also will be a runoff for the Ward 4 jury seat between Roland J. (Bolo) Trosclair, Jr., 557 votes, and Norman McCall, 459 votes.

J. B. (Braxton) Blake, Jr. got 157 votes and J. Ray Burleigh got 98 votes in the Ward 4 race.

The Ward 4 incumbent, W. F. Henry, Jr., had announced earlier that he was retiring from the jury at the end of his present term.

Two other jurors, Charles Precht, Ward 4, and Lyle Crain, Ward 2, had no opposition.

LeBleu, Tyndall are in runoff

Rep. Conway LeBleu of Cameron polled 3,834 votes to lead the flied in the race for the 36th Representative District seat Saturday. He will face Lon Tyndall of Lake Charles, a former state representative, who got 2,499 votes.

Tyndall was the leading candidate in Calcasieu with 2,376. Incumbent Dr. W. S. Boyd was second with 1,808 votes and LeBleu, third with 1,723, R. E. "Bob" Doland received 746 votes in Calcasieu Parish and Durrell Hudson, five.

LeBleu carried his home parish, Cameron, with a wide margin. He polled 2,111 votes in the 10 Cameron precincts to Tyndall's 123. Doland received 746 votes; Boyd, 241; and Hudson, 162.

Redistricting pitted the two incumbents LeBleu and Boyd against one another. LeBleu is seeking his third term and Boyd was seeking his second.

LeBleu is chairman of the Cameron Waterweels District No. 1 and a member of the Sabine River Authority. In the House, he has served on the Veterans Affairs Committee, Game, Fish and Oysters, and the Conservation Committee.

Tyndall, an attorney, served as state representative from Calcasieu Parish, 1956-60. He did not seek re-election. He is a graduate of Lake Charles High School and received LLB and J.D. degrees from the LSU Law School. He received a B.D. degree from Southwestern Seminary in 1963.

Tarpons lose to St. Louis Saints

Despite their first loss of the season, a 14-12 heartbreaker to the St. Louis Saints last Friday, the South Cameron Tarpons are assured of one of the two playoffs berths in District 4-AA.

The other berth could be wrapped up by the Saints Thursday night with a victory over Kinder.

However, if Kinder wins it will leave the door open for Vinton, which will travel to Iowa Friday night. The Lions could take the number two berth with a victory but should Iowa pull an upset, Kinder would be the other playoff team.

South Cameron will play its game Friday night at Kaplan, a non-district game that will not count in the district standings.

Hackberry will play its last game this week also, hosting St. Edmund, a district game.

Thanksgiving

A United Thanksgiving Service is being planned for all church denominations in lower Cameron parish. It will be held Sunday, Nov. 21, at 6 p.m. at Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Cameron.

Guest speaker will be Judge Cecil Cutrer of Lake Charles.

Committeemen nominated

A complete slate of nominees in all three communities of Cameron parish has been nominated by petition for the upcoming Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Community committeemen election, according to Francis Klein, ASC County Committee chairman.

ASC community men elections this year will be held Dec. 1. The election again this year will be by mail balloting, with the ballots to be mailed to eligible voters by Nov. 19. A special effort is being made to make sure every eligible voter in the parish receives a ballot, Klein said.

Candidates whose names will appear on the ballot from Community A, which comprises Sweetlake, Big-Lake, Klondike and Lowery are: Ernest Broussard, Howard Cox, Ronald David, Larry Eagleson, Uric A. Hargrave and Wilfred Zaunbrecher.

Candidates from the B Community, Cameron, Creole, Oak Grove and Grand Chenier are: Clarence Boudreaux, Dallas Domingue, D. W. Griffith, J. B. Meaux, Lynex Richard, and John M. Theriot.

Candidates from Hackberry and Johnson Bayou which is Community C are: Gene Constance, J. B. Constance, Sr., Ernest Hamilton, Sr., Sam Little, John A. Lowery, John Henry Poole and Dean Sanner.

There are then 35 years the farmer-elected ASC committee system has functioned under democratic principles," Klein said. These committees are comprised of, function for, and are un by farmers who live and work in the local farming area."

After the community committees are elected, three delegates from each newly-elected committee attend a county convention to fill vacancies on the County ASC Committee. The County Committee makes all local farm program decisions and works with community committee in carrying out various ASC program.

Murder is investigated

The brutal murder of a 41-year-old shrimper from Morgan City was under investigation by the Cameron Parish sheriff's department this week.

The body of Chester E. Lee was found at 6:25 a.m. Tuesday under Steed's Ice House (the building is on 5-foot pilings.) The man had been savagely beaten and there were ropes tied to his body.

Sheriff Claude Eagleson said that the indications were that the body had been dragged from the water's edge to under the ice house.

Dr. Cecil W. Clark said the probable cause of death was exposure.

Two suspects have been picked up and questioned about the case, but they were released.

Lee was working on the shrimp boat "Silver Slipper" out of Patterson. The boat works for Twin City Fisheries of Patterson.

Rice essay winners named

Winners of the Cameron Parish 4-H Seed Rice Essay Contest were as follows:

Seniors - 1st, Michael Chesson; 2nd, Suzanne Robichaux; 3rd, Pamela Duhon, all of the Grand Lake Sr. 4-H Club.

Juniors - 1st, Mark Chesson of the Grand Lake Jr. 4-H Club.

The winning senior essay has been submitted to State Competition. This contest is sponsored by the Louisiana Seed Rice Growers' Association.

WMU makes gift

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Cameron First Baptist Church recently made a special gift to the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home in Monroe in memory of the late Mrs. George Buras, Jr.

Memorial gifts help the child care agency in meeting the needs of boys and girls in its care, according to Supt. Wade B. East.

Open house set at S. Cameron

The South Cameron high school student council has planned an open house for the public in observance of American Education Week.

The hours of visitation are from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 16. Parents and other interested persons may visit the entire school and see classes in progress.

"We cordially extend an invitation to all the public to visit with us at this time," Mary Kelley, council president, said.

Arrangements will be made for consultation with any members of the faculty if desired.

Sheriff Claude Eagleson

Eagleson named to 3rd term

Sheriff Claude Eagleson won a third term beating a former deputy of his, Carl Reon, 2,325, to 1,052 in the election Saturday.

It was the only parishwide race voted on Saturday. Cameron's assessor and clerk of court had no opposition.

In the Ward 5 constable's race Carroll L. Trahan beat Ronald Istre, 145 to 109.

Mrs. Tommie E. (Bo) Alexander won the Ward 3 justice of the peace race with 800 votes, compared to 257 for Ernest J. Miller.

Edwards tops in Cameron

Congressman Edwin Edwards, who led in the voting for Governor throughout the state Saturday, also was the top man in Cameron parish taking a little less than half of the parish's vote.

Edwards got 1564 of the 3, 472 votes cast in the governor's race here.

Jimmie H. Davis, former governor, finished second in the parish with 712 votes, and District Attorney Frank Salter was third with 505 votes.

Former Congressman Gillis Long was fourth with 158 votes; John Schwegmann was fifth with 148 votes. J. Bennet Johnston (who is in the runoff with Edwards) was sixth with 143 votes.

Lt. Governor Taddy Aycock was seventh with 141 votes; Speedy Long was 8th with 36 votes. Samuel Bell, Sr., a black candidate, received 21 votes and Puggy Moity got 18.

Three deer are shot on Chenier

By ELORA MONTIE

At present three deer were shot on Grand Chenier last weekend as the season opened.

The lucky sportsmen included Dallas Brasseaux and Arnold Jones, Sr., Robert McPherson and Shine McDaniel, and Freddie Swire and his brother-in-law.

Deer hunting was opened on Grand Chenier several years ago and a few are bagged each season here.

Award banquet set for Dec. 4

Inquiry cards have been sent from Cameron's Doxey-Vincent VFW Post to those wishing to attend the annual citizenship award banquet set for Saturday, Dec. 4 at the Cameron Recreation Center. Cards are to be returned to J. Berton Daigle.

Each year all of the Cameron parish clubs and civic organizations are asked to submit the names of outstanding Cameron parish citizen whom they feel has contributed the most to the parish during the past year.

The person selected will be honored at the annual banquet with a plaque.

To the Citizens of Ward 1

It has been my honor and privilege to have represented Ward 1 and Cameron Parish for the past thirty-two years.

During these many years we have had both hard times, and good times. I have devoted a great portion of my life to representing my area. If I had the opportunity to turn the clock back, I would do the same again. The many friends I have made over the years have all been a part of my life that I will cherish forever.

To Ernest Myers, who will replace me as police juror from Ward 1, my transition from office will be a smooth one, I will be available to you for advice and counciling at any time.

As I look back over my many years in public service, one thing stands out above all others. A man can live without politics, but he cannot survive without his friends.

I have my many friends, this alone makes my years of service worthwhile.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Sportsmanship needed when team losing also

Dear Editor
Several weeks ago the Cameron Pilot carried a letter from the editor of the Vinton newspaper. The letter referring to the South Cameron-Vinton game singled out the sportsmanship displayed by the South Cameron football team and its followers. While reading the article, I felt so much pride to be involved as a fan. However, an incident happed during the South Cameron-St. Louis game that made me wish I was not part of it.

To some of you who did not see the scene, let me describe the situation. The game was in the final two minutes. South Cameron is on the short end of a 14-12 score. (Ah, but we are losing this time.) St. Louis students in their jubilant display of enthusiasm of a victory over South Cameron decided to run around the track shouting that they were "number one". When the students neared the South Cameron fan section, coke bottles and cans were thrown at these young students.

This letter is aimed directly to those who threw the bottles and cans and does not reflect upon the fine spirit of our team, coaches, pep squad and the cheerleaders. I hope that you realized what your actions could have done. To have been placed on probation (school) would have been the least consequence. Can you imagine what would have been on target? A direct hit on the head of one of these students would have killed him. Such a price for losing a ballgame.

I have often thought we were one of the better schools which display sportsmanship (especially when we win). But after this incident, I have my doubts.

How will we react if and when South Cameron loses another game?

Sincerely
(Name withheld by reques)

Barbecue set by farm groups

Plans for the annual fall joint meeting and barbecue were made by the Cameron Parish Farm Bureau and Cattlemen Association at a meeting of the boards of directors of the two organizations at Fred's restaurant last week. The meetings of the two organizations, James Cox and Alex Beard Jr., were in charge of the meeting.

The barbecue will be held at the KC Hall in Creole Dec. 4. These cards must be returned telling how many members and guests will be present at the barbecue. Only members sending back these cards will be served. All guests and non-members will be charged $2 per place. Children's plates will be $1. No plates will be allowed to be taken out.

Talamus "Blanc" Benoit will be in charge of the cooking and Clifford Myers, the County Agent, will get the guest speaker.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting. The Farm Bureau members appointed to serve on the nominating committee will be J. Berton Daigle, Chairman, and Harold Carter, Albest Guidry, Francis Erbolding, and Isaac A. White.

Cattlemen Association members appointed to serve on the nominating committee are: D.Y. "Billy" Doland, Jr., chairman, Horace Montie, Albert Guidry, J. A. Lowery and James Cox.

"The trouble with putting things in their place is the children can't find them."

Complete practices here soon

Area farmers with approval for 1971 Rural Environmental Assistance Program practices should keep in mind that to be cost-shared with the Government the practices should be completed as soon as possible, according to Francis Klein, Chairman of the Cameron Parish Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee. Regulations require that the conservation practices be substantially complete by Dec. 31, he said.

In emphasizing the end-of-the-year deadline, Klein also pointed out that a recent release by the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced the 1972 funding of the Rural Environmental Assistance Program (REAP) at $140 million. Cameron Parish's share is $47, 981.

Green Thumbs NEED Yellow Sulphur

Whether you're growing shrubs or sugar cane, soy beans or butter beans, chickens or cows, or any other plant or farm animal, Louisiana sulphur will help you get best results*

In fact, if your soil were deficient in this essential nutrient you would likely not be happy with the results no matter how green your thumb may be.

The yellow mineral is so vital around the farm that more than half of all Louisiana sulphur ends up in some agricultural use—fertilizer, pesticide, fungicide, soil amendment.

Mrs. Shove winner at HD Achievement Day

Mrs. Bynum Shove, of Hackberry, was high point winner of the year and won first place and the "Woman of the Year" award at the annual Home Demonstration Council Achievement Day held recently in Cameron.

Mrs. Albert Guidry of Sweetlake took second place honors and Mrs. Charles Rogers of Cameron won third place. All three women were presented with plaques.

This award is based on points earned during the year for participation in club and community projects.

Taking first place on achievement day exhibits was Mrs. Guy Murphy of Grand Chenier; Mrs. Ward Fontenot of Cameron placed second; and Mrs. Robert Wickle of Creole took third.

Outstanding club women from each club were presented corsages by each club president. They were: Mrs. Charles Rogers, Cameron; Mrs. Robert Ortego, Creole; Mrs. D. W. Griffith, Grand Chenier; Mrs. Bynum Shove, Hackberry; Mrs. John Prescott, Johnson Bayou; Mrs. Vance Benoit, Klondike-Lowery; and Mrs. Albert Guidry, Sweetlake.

Sweetlake captured the "Club of the Year" award, with Cameron taking second place, and Hackberry third, on score sheets.

The "Club of the Year" award for achievement day went to Cameron, first; Sweetlake, second; and Creole, third.

Grand Chenier captured first place in the publicity book contest with Creole coming in second and Cameron third.

The outstanding skit was put on by the Creole Club, Sweetlake took second and Cameron third.

The name tag contest was won by Hackberry and Klondike-Lowery who tied for first place. Cameron, Grand Chenier and Sweetlake tied for 2nd, and Creole and Johnson Bayou tied for third place.

The Achievement Day was presided over by Mrs. Bynum Shove, Council President. Mrs. Guthrie Perry, president of the Grand Chenier Home Demonstration Club gave the welcome.

Leonard Sonnier, the guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. D. W. Griffith. Sonnier gave a slide talk on Korean culture. He had on exhibit dolls and artifacts he collected on his tour of duty with the U. S. Army in Korea.

Mrs. Harold Carter served as narrator for the dress reviews. The theme of the day's program was "Thirty Four Years of Home Demonstration Club Work in Cameron Parish."

Poster contest rules announced by Court

Catholic Daughters of America, Court Mary Olive No. 1463, will sponsor the second annual poster contest in conjunction with the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival, it was announced by Mrs. Whitney Baccigalopi, Regent.

Entry forms will be available from each school principal. All children attending Cameron Parish schools are eligible to participate.

There will be three categories, with 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place plaques being awarded in each category.

Categories are: Grades 1 - 3; Grades 4 - 7; and Grades 8 - 12.

Winning posters will be on exhibit Friday and Saturday of the Festival.

Awards will be presented at the Friday evening performances.

Rules are as follows:

1. Attach entry form to back of poster. Do not put name on front of poster.
2. Use standard poster paper 22 x 28.
3. May be drawn in pencil, water colors, oil, felt markers, crayons or cutouts.
4. Must have a title
5. The festival is honoring the oil industry. Poster should be about the oil industry.
6. Turn in to school principal by Jan. 4.

Recipes needed as soon as possible

Mrs. Lyle Crain, recipe chairman for the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival program book, urges all those planning to submit recipes for the book to get them to her as soon as possible.

Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, has been set as the deadline for submitting the recipes. She asked that they be sent to her at Grand Chenier.

2,000 books were printed last year, which was the first year recipes had been incorporated into the program book. They sold out in a very short time, Mrs. Crain said, and people are still requesting copies of the book.

For this reason, the program book committee decided to reprint the recipes from that book, in addition to the entries from the "Favorite Food Show" held in Cameron in February of this year, and all the new ones received from Cameron Parish residents.

Since so many of these recipes are original southwest Louisiana dishes, the book is expected to be in great demand. It was an instant success last year and is expected to be a sellout again this year, Mrs. Crain said.

"Nutcracker" is set

Production crews have moved into the Arcade Theater readying for the Lake Charles Ballet Society's presentation of Tschaikovsky's fairy-tale favorite, "The Nutcracker."

The six-day staging opens Nov. 22 and continues through Nov. 27. Curtain times are 8:15 p. m. Nov. 22, 5:30 p. m. Nov. 23, 3 p.m. Nov. 24, 4 p. m. Nov. 25, 8:15 p. m. Nov. 26 and 3 p. m. Nov. 27.

The fairy-tale favorite ballet tells the story of a Christmas Eve long ago when a little girl was given the beloved Nutcracker doll.

New York City Ballet leading dancers Violette Verdy and Peter Martins will be featured guest artists in the Nov. 22 and 23 production of the Tschaikovsky favorite.

Season memberships are still available and may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Charles Lloyd, 909 Short Lane. Two other concert programs are planned to complete Ballet Society's season: Houston Ballet Feb. 5 and the Southwestern Regional Ballet Festival Gala, March 25.

A general membership is $7. Individual tickets will also be sold at the door for "The Nutcracker" performances.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

By ELORA MONTIE

With the cool weather and hunting season beginning today, sportsmen were busy over the weekend with duck blinds, hauling in boats and pirogues for the first half of this hunting season.

Trappers have also been busy cleaning their trapping ditches, repairing and painting their mud boats in preparation of the trapping season which begins Dec. 1. Several local trappers say the nutria are not plentiful this year.

Best of wishes are extended to Mrs. Albert Cohen of here who has been in a Lake Charles hospital. She is expected home this week. Her daughter and family have been visiting her recently.

Miss Karen Sue Mhire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mhire, is the proud owner of a 1971 Camaro.

The sixth grade of Grand Chenier Elementary School under Mr. Broussard enjoyed a field trip in Lafayette at the Planetarium Friday.

BIRTHDAYS

Mrs. Dennis Bonsall, 82, and Mrs. Amar Theriot, 83, celebrated their joint birthday together Sunday in the home of Mrs. Bonsall here.

Spending the day with them were Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Theriot, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Nunez and children, Mr. and Mrs. Odea Thibodeaux, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Falter of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Falter and family, Doni Marie Falter of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Linoel Giberteaux of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Enes Bacalgalopi, Mr. and Mrs. James Savole and family of Lake Charles, and Wilfred Bonsall.

Many friends and relatives called or visited with them Sunday.

VISITORS

The Lawrence Arceneaux of Lake Charles spent the weekend visiting her mother, Mrs. Gladys McCall here.

Carroll McCall of Lake Charles visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCall during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McCall are leaving this week to spend two weeks with their daughter and family, the E. J. Reynauds in Marksville. The Reynauds will be moving into their new home in Marksville within the next few weeks.

Sonny McCall and daughter Denise of here and Uland Guidry of Creole were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Reynaud in Marksville where Denise bought a quarter horse. She is very active in 4-H club work.

4-H club has sale at polls

A decision to have a sweet sale at the polls on election day was made by the Grand Chenier Elementary 4-H Club at the monthly meeting presided over by Jeff McCall, club president. Home baked goods were sold at Reve's garage and the American Legion Hall.

A project report on caring for market lambs was given by Rosalind Crain. Club members exhibiting at the Cal-Cam fair were recognized. They are: Randalin Crain exhibiting a lamb and breeding ram; Rosalind Crain, lamb; Elogia Bacalgalopi, lamb; Jeff McCall, bull; Denise McCall, home and steer; Vincent Theriot, lamb; Thomas McCall, steer; and Albert Crain, lamb.

The program committee led in a halloween game. It was won by Robbie Nunez, who told the spookiest story.

The refreshment committee served refreshments at the close of the meeting. They were: Betty Jones, Nancy Nunez, Debbie Jo East, Cindy Nunez, Randalin Crain, Denise McCall, and Mrs. Janice Duncan, club leader.

To help meet the increasing need for wood by the year 2000, the South is going to have to grow a whole new forest, reports the Southern Forest Institute. "The Third Forest," as it will be called, must double the current production of wood to meet our growing needs. Within 30 years, the South's woodlands will have to provide 13 billion cubic feet of wooded

Refugees aided by students

The students in grades four through seven of Grand Chenier Elementary school participated in a nationwide event last week at the school. It was a money-raising effort aimed at helping the nine million East Pakistani refugees now in India.

The November FAST TO SAVE A PEOPLE, jointly sponsored by Oxfam-America and Project Relief, was designed to focus national attention upon the critical situation in West Bengal and the other refugee areas.

The money collected during the FAST will go directly to Oxfam's Field Director in India, according to Robert Manuel, school principal. A dollar can provide one refugee, for an entire month, with supplementary high-nutrient foods, multi-vitamins, powdered milk, medicines, sanitation services, basic clothing, corrugated plastic shelters, and tarpaulins.

Dollar cleaners

Dry cleaning machines with slots for the new Eisenhower dollar coins are in the works.

Sixth grade makes trip to planetarium

The Grand Chenier elementary sixth grade class recently took a field trip to the Lafayette museum and planetarium.

The theme in the museum at the time of visitation was ENERGY. The class viewed all forms of energy from muscle power to solar power.

The points of interest in the planetarium was the observations of realistic stars, star constellations, nebulas and theories as to how our galaxy began.

Tommy Broussard, the sixth grade science teacher, used this field trip to complete his unit on the universe.

Those assisting Mr. Broussard as chaperones were Mrs. Tommy Broussard, Mrs. Sonny McCall, Mrs. Arnold Jones and Mrs. Frank Theriot accompanied by Veronica Theriot.

Tops Club organized for Oak Grove area

Mrs. Baron Thomas was elected president of the newly organized Tops Club of Oak Grove.

Elected to serve with her are Mrs. Brandon Carter, treasurer; Emily S. LaBove, secretary-reporter; and Mrs. Ruby Rutherford, weight keeper.

Fifteen charter members attended the first meeting.

Weekly meetings are held every Monday night at 6:30 p.m. at the Oak Grove Baptist Church recreation room.

Mrs. A. D. Trahan reigned as the first queen for having lost the most weight in the club. Other queens were Mrs. Sue Mhire and Mrs. Charlie LaBove, who also won the towel contest.

The weekly fruit basket was divided between Mrs. Norma Miller and Mrs. Charlie LaBove for gaining the Tops goal.

The monthly queen is Mrs. Geneva Nunez.

At each meeting games are played and exercises are taken by the club members.

Club plans basket for family here

A decision to give a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family was made by the South Cameron Elementary 4-H Club at their November meeting. Patrick Primeaux, club president, was in charge. Buny Richard, club leader, asked each member to bring an item for the Thanksgiving basket.

Project books were passed out by the 4-H agents Patsy Granger and Uland Guidry. Roxanne Myers, vice-president, introduced members who gave project reports.

They were: Beef - Janice Nunez, Frederick Nunez, Stephanie Montie, Phillip Nunez and Brian Theriot; Home - Andy Vaughan; and Sheep - Shad Savoie.

A demonstration on the making of pot holders from bath rags was given to the girls by Miss Granger. A demonstration on soil testing was given to the boys by Mrs. Guidry.

4-H float is planned

Plans for a float in the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival in Cameron in January were made by the Johnson Bayou 4-H Club last week.

Leslie Prescott, club president, appointed the following as a float committee: Rodney Billiot, Ervin Trahan, Scotty Badon and Prescott.

Ervin Trahan gave a report on the halloween favors the club made for hospital patients.

A discussion was held on the fishing booth the club will have at the Harvest Festival of the school.

The president thanked club members who served as guides at the recent Parent-Teacher night. They were: Jo Mas Badon, Theresa Berwick, Lynn Young, Timothy Istre, Danis Griffith and Michael Prescott.

The club planned a Thanksgiving basket to give to a needy family. Appointed to that committee are: Hallis Griffith, Debbie Constance, Michael Prescott and Celeste Landry.

A project to collect Christmas toys for needy children in the Sulphur area was decided.

Project reports were given by Michael Prescott on bird feeders; Debbie Constance on child care; and Leslie Prescott on Citizenship.

Uland Guidry, 4-H agent, presented the club a certificate for having the best 4-H club meeting in the parish for October.

A film and a talk on road safety was presented by Sgt. Christain T. Haman with the La. State Police in Lake Charles.

Knights see films on waterfowl Thurs.

A meeting of the John P. Boudoin Sr. Council 3014, Knights of Columbus, will be held at the KC Hall, Thursday, Nov. 11, at 7:30 p.m., according to Eddie Jo Conner, Grand Knight.

A meal will be served at 7 p.m. prior to the meeting. Two films entitled "Louisiana Ducks" and "Cunning the Flyways" will be shown.

Conner said that though the efforts of many, too numerous to name, the fall barbeuce held recently was a financial success.

The annual K.C. Bowling Tournament will be held in New Iberia Dec. 3, 4, 5, and 10, 11, 12. Persons planning to participate are asked to contact Carlton Styron in Creole.

The Council's Silver Anniversary celebration will be held on Nov. 21.

The next planning meeting will be Dec. 1 and all members are welcome, Conner said.

Tarps district 4-AA champs

The South Cameron high school Tarpons have won the District 4-AA championship and will meet Iota, 3-AA runnerup, in the first round of the state playoffs here Friday night.

The Tarpons, despite a district loss to St. Louis and a non-district loss to Kaplan, in the last two games, finished the season with a 8-1 record in district play to take the title.

Should South Cameron wins Friday's meeting, the Tarpons would meet the winner of the Bunkie-Vinton game the following week.

In last week's game, Gary Gibson plunged over from the two with 1:02 left in the first frame to score for the Tarpons, but a Bob Tarter kick on the conversion was wide.

The Tarpons' 6-0 margin held until the third frame when Mark Breaux gathered in a 35-yard pass from Boudreaux for six points and Boudreaux kicked the go-ahead extra point.

With five minutes left in the last period, Boudreaux hit wingback Doug David in the end zone from eight yards out to ice the match for the Pirates.

Band uniform drive now on

The Hackberry high school band and the Band Boosters Club are conducting a fund drive to purchase new band uniforms. Pictured is the new uniform that is due to be delivered the last week in December.

The help from persons from all over the state has been gratifying and they are now selling tickets for a 16 ft. chest type freezer to be given away at their winter concert on Dec. 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the school auditorium.

Tickets for both the freezer and concert can be purchased at any store in Hackberry and from band members.

4-H Citizenship day set Monday

The annual Cameron Parish 4-H Citizenship Day and officer training meeting will be held at 9 a.m. Monday, Nov. 22, in the courtroom of the Cameron Parish courthouse in Cameron, according to Uland Guidry and Miss Patsy Granger, 4-H agents.

All 4-H club members, parents and 4-H leaders are invited to attend.

Officers of each club will be given special training on their duties and responsibilites.

Santa at Sears

Santa Claus will be at the Sears Catalog Store in Cameron from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 22 and 23, it was announced by Tommy and Susan Watts.

Free candy will be given the children. Their parents will have the opportunity to look over new Christmas merchandise in the store.

Knight of Year to be honored

The seventh annual Knight of the Year award banquet of Our Lady Star of the Sea Council No. 5461, Knights of Columbus of Cameron, will be held Sunday evening, Nov. 28, at the V.F.W. Home in Cameron.

Grand Knight Claude Hebert stated that the outstanding Knight is chosen by the members of the council, based on the recipient's past record of service to the council, church, and community. The award plaque will be presented by E. J. Dronet, last year's recipient.

The Council will also present two of its members with Honorary Life Memberships since they have attained the age of 65 with 25 or more years of continuous membership in the order. They are Albert Culligan and Mark Richard.

Others to be honored for 25 years continuous membership are: Whitney J. Broussard, Sr., James M. Daigle, James L. Derouen, Carl W. "Sing" Faulk, Wallace "Cap" LaBove, and Norman F. McCall.

Speaker at the banquet, scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. following a social at 6:30 p.m., will be the Rev. Eugene LaFleur, pastor, St. Paul's Parish, Elton.

A memorial fund has been established in Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish. Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor, stated that anyone wishing to make a memorial donation for a deceased person, may do so directly with him. Council members approved to start the fund with a donation in memory of Margaret Duhon, who recently died.

For having achieved all the requirements of the state insurance program in 1970-71, a trophy was presented to immediate Past Grand Knight Earl Mouton by E. J. Dronet, KC District Insurance Agent.

A family group communion for deceased members was scheduled for Dec. 12 at the 8 a.m. mass, and a covered dish supper for members and their ladies on Dec. 14.

Yelverton to be KC speaker

District Judge Henry Yelverton will be the guest speaker at the 25th anniversary celebration of the John P. Boudoin Sr. Knights of Columbus Council Sunday night, Nov. 21 at the KC Hall in Creole. A social hour will begin at 6:30 with the banquet starting at 7, according to Grand Knight Eddie Jo Conner.

Awards to charter and 25 year members will be made during the banquet, Conner said.

Liquor store opens in Creole

Fredman's Liquor Store is now open for business in Creole, it is announced by Fredman Theriot, owner.

The store will have in grand opening this Saturday and will have free draft beer for all visitors during the day.

Store hours are 9 a.m. until Monday through Saturday.

Seeing double?

You're not seeing double--there are two Komegay Grocery ads in this issue of the Pilot.

One of the ads is for Komegay's regular weekend specials, good Thursday through Saturday. The other ad is for specials on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Next week's specials are being run early so that Komegay customers can take advantage of them before Thanksgiving.

Western Auto has new bldg.

The toyland section is open in the new Western Auto Store building and a grand opening will be held next week, it is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mouton, owners.

The Moutons recently purchased the large building next to the Jeff Davis Coop building on the east end of town and have completely remodeled it. A grand opening will be held next week.

The store will continue to use its building uptown, where a complete furniture line will be installed.

Tournament set at Hackberry

Hackberry High School's second annual invitational Thanksgiving round robin basketball tournament will be held Nov. 26 and 27 with teams from Johnson Bayou, Grand Lake, Sabine Pass, Goretti and Hackberry participating.

There will be both girls and boys games. Games will begin at 9 a.m. on Friday and Saturday and continue throughout the day and evening.

Fire ordinance proposed here

A recommendation by Cameron's fire chief Ray Burleigh, was made to the Cameron Lions Club last week that a committee be named to draft a fire ordinance to present to the Cameron Parish Police Jury. The ordinance would cover the fire district.

The spring program and the food exchange program was discussed.

J. Berton Daigle, chairman of the light bulb sale, passed out bulbs to those members.

Floats rental studied here

Officers of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival met with the owner of a float building firm last week to make arrangements for the rental of commercial floats to be used in the 1972 Fur Festival in Cameron.

A. J. Howard, chairman, said that sketches of the various floats available will be on display at the Cameron State Bank. He says that those firms interested in being represented in the parade to contact him.

Howard said that it is expected that the 1972 Festival parade will be the largest the festival has ever had. It will honor the oil industry.

Pilot to print early next week

In order that the paper can be delivered before Thanksgiving, the Cameron Pilot will come out early next week.

Persons with news or advertising for the paper are asked to get it to the paper or one of its correspondents no later than Monday. The paper will come out Wednesday morning.

A report from the La. Fur and Wildlife Festival float committee was given by Don Criglow.

President Roland Trosclair reported that the club will be represented at the district cabinet meeting in Lafayette Nov. 21.

Trosclair appointed Ward Fontenot and William O. Morris as co-chairman of the Saturday night program of the Fur Festival.

Poole shows Grand Champ

On Sunday, Nov. 14, the Hackberry FFA Chapter was honored with a barbecue given by Alfred Duvall.

The barbecue was given to honor Johnny Poole, a member of the Hackberry FFA Chapter for showing the Grand Champion Brahman Heifer, at the State Fair in Shreveport earlier this month.

The FFA Chapter decided to sponsor a livestock show for all 4-H and FFA members in Hackberry to be held at the new FFA barn, now nearing completion. Chapter advisor, Steve Rieca said the show will be held Jan. 8.

Oyster season

Oyster season will open in Cameron parish on Dec. 1, according to the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission. The only place the oysters may be taken in Calcasieu Lake and West Cove.

Commercial oyster licenses may be purchased from the game agent, Capt. Clayton Nunez, in the voting machine building located in back of the Cameron courthouse Monday through Friday, from 7 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Fire ants are winning here

By CLIFFORD MYERS

The fire ant population in the parish appears to be getting progressively more numerous with less results from control treatment.

Naturally, the bait being used, namely Mirex, is no better than the method and time of application and also the condition the bait is in. The ant must carry the bait inside their nest in order to get a control.

The results obtained this past year with Mirex was somewhat erratical. The ants, on the average, did not consume the bait as they normally do. As we all know, ants are like all other pest - they do have a natural instinct of protecting themselves to a certain degree. Our method of using Mirex during the last nearly ten years has been "Hill Treatment" which does not allow for complete ground coverage.

The hill treatment is simply applying the chemical around the ant hill or mound and then hope that they will bring it inside their home. This would compare with bringing a bunch of bananas home and part of the gamily got sick eating them, so the rest will not eat them for fear of getting sick also. The ants are the same - if the bait kills part of them then the rest will not eat it. Just like the old saying, "You can fool some of the people some time, but you can't fool all the people all the time."

The fire ants are the same when using Mirex only as a hill treatment. To be effective, it must be applied broadcast and cover a large area and then be on a constant lookout and hill treat any new mounds. The larger the area the more effective it will be. My prediction is that if this is not done sometime soon, Mirex will no longer be effective, while it is one of the safest chemicals to use for fire ant control.

It has been reported that the quail and dove population in Tangipahoa Parish is down 75% due to the fire ants killing the newly hatched ones. Because they thrive on julces, they get in the nest as soon as the eggs hatch. This again was known to have one of the largest quail and dove populations in the state.

Steamer Borealis Rex recalled

BY T. J. RATLIFF
DeQuincy, La.

There are probably hundreds of older people in this area who had close contact with the steamer Borealis Rex and who remember more about her than I, but there are also younger people and newcomers to this area who were born or arrived in this locality since The Rex made her last voyage between Lake Charles and Cameron who never heard of her.

The Rex was one of the last stern-wheeled packet boats operating as a common carrier of passengers, express, freight and mail on a regular schedule. There are a few river steamers still operating, but it is my understanding that they are more excursion boats and not common carriers.

According to Miss Grace Ulmer, who wrote a Master of Arts thesis in Louisiana history at LSU in 1949, there was an earlier steamer also called The Borealis Rex which plied between Lake Charles and Cameron.

She says, citing The Lake Charles Echo of March 15, 1882, "A boat called the Borealis Rex, owned by Captain Thomas R. Reynolds, proprietor of The Haskell House was also used as pleasure craft. This boat caught fire under her boiler on Sunday, March 12, 1882, and was completely burned."

This Rex could not have been the same Borealis Rex, commanded by Captain McCain, which I first saw in 1925, though the circumstances except the date and the fire, sound similiar.

This later Borealis Rex, if the information I have is correct, was built for use on one of the upper tributaries of the Mississippi and when she was no longer needed up there she was brought to the Calcasieu River and placed on the Lake Charles-Cameron run, when I do not know. The same source says that she was sunk by the 1918 storm but she was raised and returned to service.

During these years the town of Cameron and the other communities in Cameron parish were pretty well isolated as far as the outside world was concerned. One newspaper story referred to Cameron as the town without a highway to the outside world, a telephone, a railroad or a telegraph line. Early engineers are quoted as saying that it was impossible to build either a railway or a highway through the sea marsh to Cameron. Many Cameron people used boats when others used cars or horse-drawn vehicles.

A man who was to be hanged in Cameron was confined in the Lake Charles jail until the date of execution and then taken by boat to Cameron. The Lake Charles American Press chartered a small sea plane to fly a reporter to Cameron to witness the execution and write the story.

The Rex left her dock at the foot of Pujo street in Lake Charles each Monday morning loaded with the mail, all sorts of cargo and passengers. I recall one time seeing several saddled horses on the lower deck, I assume that they belonged to cattlemen, perhaps some of the family of the late R. L. Richard of DeQuincy, on the way to Cameron to work cattle.

As the Rex proceeded down stream she made regular stops at such places as Hackberry, she also made other stops on signal, "flag stops" in railroad terms. The late Mrs. Agnes Vincent Richard (Mrs. R. L. Richard of DeQuincy) told me that when she was growing up in the Vincent community there was a landing called Vincent's Landing and when the Rex had passengers or freight for the people of the community Captain McCain would blow the whistle, "blow for landing" was their term I believe and everyone in the community who was free went down to "meet the Rex". If someone in the community had passengers or freight for the Rex a flag was put out on the wharf and she stopped.

I cannot at this time give any specific figures as to her size, but at the time I first saw her she was the biggest boat I had ever seen and was probably as big as any boat on the river. She had three decks, as I recall. There were no state rooms such as were found on the larger Mississippi river boats since Rex passengers did not spend the night on board. I do not believe that meals were served on board, though a noon meal may have been served.

When the Rex arrived, passengers who did not live in Cameron or who were not visiting with relatives or friends spent the night at the local hotel for at least one night as there was no public way to return to Lake Charles until the next day. The first return trip was on Tuesday, then she returned to Cameron on Wednesday, back to Lake Charles on Thursday and repeat on Friday and Saturday. She arrived in Lake Charles about noon.

On Sunday she was frequently chartered by groups for a Saturday night or Sunday afternoon cruise. According to C. E. Cline of DeQuincy, who grew up in Lake Charles, these cruises were ideal for "courting" and several modern families trace their origin to these romantic moonlight cruises.

On the return trip the cargo frequently included fish, oysters, shrimp and furs and other products of the gulf and marsh. If it were in Lake Charles on Saturday I always tried to get down to the dock to see the Rex come in and when one of the Bell City Delaneys introduced me to Captain McCain it was a proud moment for me. My family and I frequently discussed making a trip to Cameron on the Rex but for various reasons we never made it until one day it was announced that the "Impossible" highway to Cameron was now open and that the Rex had made her last trip.

She was tied at the dock at the foot of Pujo street where she eventually sank. During World War II she was stripped of her metal parts and the wooden hull gradually rotted away. Someone in Lake Charles has her bell and someone else the steering wheel and possibly there are other relics in other hands. The final resting place of The Borealis Rex (Northern King) is now covered by the fill in the lake at Lake Charles.

Here's how to roast Thanksgiving turkey

Here's how to roast that Thanksgiving turkey, plus recipes for three kinds of dressing.

The Nutrition Section of the State Health Department recommends you allow 3/4 to one pound per serving when choosing a turkey under 12 pounds.

Leave turkey (if frozen) in its original moisture-proof wrap and place in refrigerator.

Allow from one to four days for thawing, depending on size (prompt roasting after thawing is desirable).

Pre-heat oven to 325 degrees while you're preparing turkey for roasting.

Salt inside of turkey. Place one large onion, quartered, and two pieces of celery in cavity. Tie legs together and the wings to body.

Grease skin thoroughly with cooking oil and place turkey on rack in shallow pan, breast down.

Baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings. If turkey is browning too fast, cover with tent of aluminum foil.

When turkey is two thirds done, turn breast up. Cut the cord to release the legs and wings. This allows the heat to reach the heavy-meated part.

Test for "doneness" by moving the drumstick up and down. Turkey is done if the leg joint gives readily or breaks. The fleshy part of the drumstick should feel soft when pressed between protected fingers.

Serve within two or three days after roasting.

Now, here are the recipes for three kinds of dressing:

CORNBREAD DRESSING
6 cups cornbread crumbs
4 cups bread crumbs
3/4 quart stock, milk or water
1 cup chopped onion
2 cups chopped celery
3/4 stick butter
1/2 cup chopped green onions
2 teaspoons chopped parsley
4 eggs, well beaten
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon sage
1 1/4 quarts stock, milk or water, approximately

Soak cornbread and bread crumbs in stock. Saute onion and celery in butter until golden brown. Combine crumbs and onion; mix with eggs and seasonings. Add approximately 1 1/4 quarts stock to thoroughly moisten. Mix well. Bake in 325 degree F. oven one hour. Yield about 12 cups.

OYSTER DRESSING
5 tablespoons minced onion
1 1/2 cups chopped celery
1/4 cup butter or margarine
4 cups cooked rice or 3 quarts day old bread
4 teaspoons chopped parsley
1 tablespoon poultry seasoning
Salt and pepper
2 dozen chopped oysters and liquid
1 cup turkey stock and chopped cooked giblets
2 eggs, slightly beaten

Saute onion and celery in butter. Add rice or moistened bread, parsley, seasonings, oysters and stock with giblets. Mix and heat thoroughly, add beaten eggs and mix well. Place in three qut. greased pan. Bake in 325 degree oven for about one hour. Yield: about 10 cups.

BREAD DRESSING
1 quart diced celery
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 cup butter or margarine
4 quarts firmly packed day old bread crumbs
1/2 cup chopped green onion
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons poultry seasoning
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 1/2 to 2 cups broth, milk or water

Saute celery and onion in butter over low heat, stirring occasionally, until onion is tender but not browned. Blend bread cubes and seasonings; add celery, onion and butter. Toss lightly to blend. Pour broth gradually over bread mixture, tossing lightly. Add more seasoning as desired. Bake in 325 degree oven about 30 minutes. Yield: about four quarts.

(Do no refrigerate left-over dressing more than one to two days.)

Luncheon set at Oak Grove

Thank You

A million thanks to the voters and supporters in my unsuccessful campaign for Sheriff of Cameron Parish. Apparently the Cameron Parish voters are satisfied with the present law enforcement as the Sheriff was top man as you know.

I hope he will make a good or better Sheriff the next four years.

I am a few days late in thanking you for your vote, but I have been checking into one of my campaign promises.

I wish to advise you at this time, as I did during my campaign, that it is perfectly legal for the Sheriff Department to take over and operate the ambulance service. I do not care what the present Sheriff or anyone else says.

Again, many thanks for your vote and support as it was greatly appreciated. Note: I hope to see you again in four years or before. I remain.

Yours Truly,

Carl Reon

Duck season opens

By ELORA MONTIE

Thursday, Nov. 11, opened the first half of duck season for this year. Although the season started on a weekday, many local sportsmen, as well as out of parish sportsmen, took advantage of the opening day.

Just about everyone stated ducks being plentiful and limits were gotten early on opening day, but later toward the weekend there was a complete change in the duck story. Many sportsmen stated limits were harder to get, having to stay longer hours in the marsh, some for only half limits.

Some of the hunters stated that the 72 degree temperature was the cause of duck hunting slowing down, while others stated that ducks took off for some place else after the first hunting day.

The different hunting clubs here, LaBove Hunting Club, Hawkins Hunting Club, Taylor Hunting Club and Miller's Hunting Club, are in full operation again this season, as well as several private hunting camps.

Business places such as restaurant, grocery stores and rooming houses were all kept very busy especially this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Barry Wayne Richard of Cameron are proud parents of a girl, Melissa Ann, born Friday, Nov. 12, weighing 5 lbs., 14 1/2 oz.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Richard and Mrs. Beatrice Savoie of Cameron. Great-grandmother is Mrs. Doris Sinclees of here.

Melissa Ann was greeted by a sister, Goldie, 16 months old.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Theriot, Jr. are busy adding on to their present home, a living room, utility room and carport; while doing this they are also remodeling.

Teachers, pupils and employees will be taking advantage of the Thanksgiving holidays which will begin Friday, Nov. 19, and will resume school Monday, Nov. 29, which will give many of the school pupils as well as employees some time for hunting as well as preparation for trapping.

Raymond Geard, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Grand Chenier, was baptized at St. Eugene Catholic Church Wednesday, Nov. 10, with Rev. Eugene Cry officiating. Sponsors were Bobby Conner and Shirley Trahan with Roy Allen Clark and Mrs. Willard Guidrey standing for the sponsors who were unable to be there for the baptism.

A speedy recovery is wished Jerry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Canik, who returned home Saturday and will be recovering from a broken leg sustained while playing ball Thursday.

Refreshments were served to 14 members and three visitors, Pam Duhon, Grand Lake 4-H Club member, Sheila Beard and Peggy LeBlanc.

Nutria meat program is reinstated

Clark M. Hoffpauer, director of the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission, working in conjunction with Senator Allen J. Ellender's office and Dr. Saulman and Frank Mulhearn of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, this week announced that the USDA has agreed to reinstate the feeding of nutria meat in a program of screwworm eradication.

Negotiations took place recently in Washington, D.C., and Hoffpauer said it was anticipated that the quantity of meat which was to be sold, amounts to 2,-150,000 pounds.

Hoffpauer explained that the program will result in approximately $100,000 additional revenue to Louisiana trappers, which when considering expenses such as gas, traps and food incurred by trappers amounts to a true bonus.

It was added that the nutria meat is to be purchased by contract from dealers in the state. The actual anticipated sale is scheduled to take place in the near future.

Santa Claus sleigh coming to L. Charles

Santa Claus is coming to Downtown Lake Charles, on the Mall, Nov. 18, 19 and 20 with his huge 40-foot Rocket Sleigh to give all the children FREE rides.

The Giant Rocket Sleigh made of aluminum, is trimmed in red and blue, with flashing red and green lights. Up to 100 children can be seated on the Rocket for each ride. This event is being sponsored by the participating merchants of Downtown Development, Inc.

The Big Rocket Sleigh can operate in any kind of weather, being completely enclosed and sealed. Santa will personally interview each child on the Super Rocket Sleigh. Concealed speakers on the Giant ship will broadcast the interview throughout the business area.

Inside, the Rocket is well-lighted so parents can see their children as Santa talks to each of them. Christmas carols are also played continuously. Santa's crew, all dressed in costume, will help Santa in taking care of all the boys and girls who want to ride. The crew of five includes Santa Claus, the space pilot, co-pilot, space captain and space hostess.

Free ride coupons will be given away by the participating merchants who have arranged for Santa's appearance in Lake Charles, on the Mall. Santa has urged parents to bring their children down early in the day, to offset the after school rush. The giant rocket sleigh will follow a route to be announced next week along with board places and operating times.

To the People of Ward 1:

THE GREAT TRADE WIND HOTEL, owned by the Muggah brothers, into which most of the ill-fated vacationers crowded before the killer hurricane of August 10, 1856. Shown is an artist's drawing made from an old lithograph. The hotel fronted 1250 feet on the beach with an additional frontage of 375 feet for the dining room wing. Depth of the main building was 37 feet, and the dining room was 320 by 60 feet. (From the files of Hughes B. Kiff, Morgan City.)

DESOLATE LAST ISLAND WAS RESORT MECCA BEFORE KILLER STORM

(From the Morgan City Daily Review)

By GLORIA LYNCH

Only fishermen and dilseekers go there now...to the desolate island which once sparkled like a jewel in the blue Gulf waters 20 miles south of the mainland, below Morgan City. Crowned by the great Trade Winds Hotel, Last Island was the most popular and exclusive resort of Louisiana's wealthy planters and Creole gentry. The last bit of land on the way to the open sea of the Gulf, its beaches rivalled those of the legendary Bahamas.

Now the only remnants are three smaller islands, barren of any life but the sparse-growing grass and an occasional waterfowl.

A whispered belief among South Louisiana's natives holds forth that a spectre haunts the isle--a spirit born during the hurricane - filled night of death and horror which was to be the island's last. For on that night more than a century ago, August 10, 1856, one of the worst storms in Louisiana's history -- one which had no name--swept away the famous hotel and most of its guests, who were dancing in a ballroom at the time. Not a trace was left of the resort, and it was never rebuilt.

Reports vary on the number killed during the monster storm; most agree that of the 400 vacationers trapped there, about 320 perished, unaware, almost to the end, of their impending doom.

Much has been written about the tragedy; in fact it is nearly a legend. Besides several eyewitness accounts written or told by the handful of survivors, it inspired Lafcadio Hearn, noted Louisiana author, to write his all-time American classic, "Chita". It tells of a young girl's rescue from her dead mother's arms, and her subsequent rearing by a fisherman. The book was published late in the 19th century.

Hearn's vivid description of the storm was drawn from the account written by survivor Michael Schlatre, sugar planter from Iberville Parish near Plaquemine, and owner-pilot of the steamer "Blue Hammock."

Schlatre's manuscript, now a faded pen-and-ink document more than 110 years old, was given to the Louisiana State University library at Baton Rouge in 1937.

According to this account, the revelers who had sought refuge in the hotel apparently were having their own version of a hurricane party. They "danced in the great ballroom of the huge wooden hotel until water surged in knee-deep. Dancers and musicians climbed table-tops and danced and played on until swept, screaming, out to sea.

"Women, given a choice of which of their children they would try to save, knelt praying, paralyzed with terror, until all were swept away.

"Huge timbers, flying like feathers before a hurricane wind of unbelievable force, crushed many to death."

Schlatre wrote that the area had been devoid of even clouds for weeks when windless breakers began rolling in, followed by a slight breeze and later a gale. The hotel was crushed into by a huge wave, floated free of its foundation, then smashed by a second tidal wave.

"The waters, now maddened by resistance, came rushing over the floor and in one instant we were all washed off with everything that was here on," Schlatre wrote.

"As I left the floor, my poor little girl gave one scream and jumped and caught me around the neck with both arms and held fast. We all went from the floor amid pieces of wreck and all sorts of floating timbers.

"I now rolled over and over, drinking in the hated fluid by the mouthful, the dear child still fastened to me, when I thought that I must be near gone, I put my hands to those of my little girl and broke her hold of me.

"God only knows what became of the dear one. . ."

Schlatre was washed onto a fragment of a cottage, along with his neighbor, sugar planter Thomas Mills. Together they were blown 12 miles across Caillou Bay and rescued five days later from the mainland marshes. They went then to Brashear, now Morgan City, where Mills died within two days, and Schlatre learned of the death of his wife and seven children.

Mills's nineteen-year-old daughter, Emma lived through the horrible night and later married her rescuer, Dr. Alfred Duperier of New Iberia. The only survivor of the storm in her family, and the last one living in 1938, she told, in a newspaper interview at that time, how the unknowing vacationers felt the building-up of bad weather to be just "another storm" approaching.

On Saturday, the day before the storm," she told, "the wind began to blow and the waves were too high for bathing. The next day was blisteringly hot and still, with a light rain falling. The wind began to work up to an intensity. My father asked a neighbor who spent much time there what he thought of the weather. he said 'There is no cause for worry. We have had storms here before.' "

By afternoon most of the guests had gathered in the hotel for protection from the gale winds that had come up by that time. In order to ease their strain, they began to dance.

The music from the ballroom reached the ears of the master of the schooner "Star", Captain Abraham Smith, who had fought the billowing Caillou Bay to be on hand should the merry-making islanders need him.

According to the account of another survivor, Rev. R. S. McAllister of Thibodaux, Captain Smith was the only one who foresaw the danger imminent.

"Fools!" he shouted at the scene. "A mere! If that wind whips round south, there'll be another dance--with the wind and the sea for a partner!"

And alas, the prophecy of the seaman proved true. Within hours "the billowing tide rushed unresisted from the Gulf--tearing and swallowing the land in its course -- ploughing out deep-sea channels where sleek herds had been grazing but a few hours before-- rending islands in twain--and ever bearing with it, through the night, enormous vortex of wreck and vast wan drift of corpses..." So wrote Hearn in his book.

In the quiet that followed the storm the scavengers came. Sicilian and Corsican outlaws, smugglers, pirates and desperters from a hundred nationalities came in the wake of the disaster.

"There was plunder for all," reported Hearn. "There were children's playthings, money in notes and in coin, silks, satins, laces and fine linen to be stripped from the bodies of the drowned, necklaces, bracelets, watches and rings to be torn from dead fingers."

When finally the rescue ships came and took away the few horror-stricken survivors, Last Island returned to the desolation and solitude it had known before Louisiana's carefree wealthy had turned it into a vacation paradise. And so, the old-timers say, as long as the ghost of "Isle Dernedre" patrols the islands, it shall remain so.

4-H collects food

At the November meeting of the Cameron Elementary 4-H club, the members contributed four large boxes of non-perishable food to be used to make food baskets for the needy on Thanksgiving Day.

Uland Guidry and Patsy Granger of the extension office distributed and explained project books to the members. The business meeting was conducted by the president, Alan McCall. Members received membership cards which they will present at each meeting.

An original skit written by Kevin Colligan titled "The Landing of the Pilgrims" was presented. Members of the cast were Lane Wolfe, Patricia LaLande, Oscar Garcia, Kent Benoit, Cindy LeBoeuf, Maurene Savoie and Stephen Cheramie.

Tops Body Shop name for new club here

"Tops Body Shop" has been chosen as the name of the newly formed Tops Club which meets every week at the Oak Grove Baptist Church.

Mrs. John Ledano was the Queen of the Week last week and took home the fruit basket. She also won the right to grab a gift from the grab bag.

Games, under the direction of Mrs. Ruby Rutherford and Mrs. Baron Thomas, were played by club members during the meeting.

Plans were made for having a Thanksgiving supper for the club, having all low calorie dishes.

After the meeting an auction was held by club members of small items which were wrapped in paper. Funds from the sale will go into the club treasury.

Charleston is the capital of Virginia.

THE GREAT TRADE WIND HOTEL, owned by the Muggah brothers, into which most of the ill-fated vacationers crowded before the killer hurricane of August 10, 1856. Shown is an artist's drawing made from an old lithograph. The hotel framed 1250 feet on the beach with an additional frontage of 275 feet for the dining room wing. Depth of the main building was 37 feet, and the dining room was 320 by 60 feet. (From the files of Hughes B. Kiff, Morgan City.)

DESOLATE LAST ISLAND WAS RESORT MECCA BEFORE KILLER STORM

(From the Morgan City Daily Review)

By GLORIA LYNCH

Only fishermen and oil-seekers go there now...to the desolate island which once sparkled like a jewel in the blue Gulf waters 20 miles south of the mainland, below Morgan City. Crowned by the great Trade Winds Hotel, Last Island was the most popular and exclusive resort of Louisiana's wealthy planters and Creole gentry. The last bit of land on the way to the open sea of the Gulf, its beaches rivalled those of the legendary Bahamas.

Now the only remnants are three smaller islands, barren of any life but the sparse-growing grass and an occasional waterfowl.

A whispered belief among South Louisiana's natives holds forth that a spectre haunts the isle--a spirit born during the hurricane - filled night of death and horror which was to be the island's last. For on that night more than a century ago, August 10, 1856, one of the worst storms in Louisiana's history -- one which had no name--swept away the famous hotel and most of its guests, who were dancing in a ballroom at the time. Not a trace was left of the resort, and it was never rebuilt.

Reports vary on the number killed during the monster storm; most agree that of the 400 vacationers trapped there, about 320 perished, unaware, almost to the end, of their impending doom.

Much has been written about the tragedy; in fact it is nearly a legend. Besides several eyewitness accounts written or told by the handful of survivors, it inspired Lafcadio Hearn, noted Louisiana author, to write his all-time American classic, "Chita". It tells of a young girl's rescue from her dead mother's arms, and her subsequent rearing by a fisherman. The book was published late in the 19th century.

Hearn's vivid description of the storm was drawn from the account written by survivor Michael Schlaire, sugar planter from Portville Parish near Plaquemine, and owner-pilot of the steamer "Blue Hammock."

Schlaire's manuscript, now a faded pen-and-ink document more than 110 years old, was given to the Louisiana State University library at Baton Rouge in 1937.

According to this account, the revelers who had sought refuge in the hotel apparently were having their own version of a hurricane party. They "danced in the great ballroom of the huge wooden hotel until water surged in knee-deep. Dancers and musicians climbed table-tops and danced and played on until swept, screaming, out to sea.

"Women, given a choice of which of their children they would try to save, knelt praying, paralyzed with terror, until all were swept away.

"Huge timbers, flying like feathers before a hurricane wind of unbelievable force, crushed many to death."

Schlaire wrote that the area had been devoid of even clouds for weeks when windless breakers began rolling in, followed by a slight breeze and later a gale. The hotel was crashed into by a huge wave, floated free of its foundation, then smashed by a second tidal wave.

"The waters, now maddened by resistance, came rushing over the floor and in one instant we were all washed off with everything that was here on," Schlaire wrote.

"As I left the floor, my poor little girl gave one scream and jumped and caught me around the neck with both arms and held fast. We all went from the floor amid pieces of wreck and all sorts of floating timbers.

"I now rolled over and over, drinking in the brine; field by the mouthful, the dear child still fastened to me. When I thought that I must be near gone, I put my hands to those of my little girl and broke her hold of me.

"God only knows what became of the dear one. . ."

Schlaire was washed onto a fragment of a cottage, along with his neighbor, sugar planter Thomas Mills. Together they were blown 15 miles across Caillou Bay and rescued five days later from the mainland marshes. They went then to Brashear, now Morgan City, where Mills died within two days, and Schlaire learned of the death of his wife and seven children.

Mills's nine-year-old daughter, Emma lived through the horrible night and later married her rescuer, Dr. Alfred Dupenier of New Iberia. The only survivor of the storm in her family, and the last one living in 1925, she told, in a newspaper interview at that time, how the unbelieving vacationers felt the building up of bad weather to be just "another storm" approaching.

On Saturday, the day before the storm," she told, "the wind began to blow and the waves were too high for bathing. The next day was blisteringly hot and still, with a light rain falling. The wind began to work up to an intensity. My father asked a neighbor who spent much time there what he thought of the weather. he said 'There is no cause for worry. We have had storms here before.' "

By afternoon most of the guests had gathered in the hotel for protection from the gale winds that had come up by that time. In order to ease their strain, they began to dance.

The music from the ballroom reached the ears of the master of the schooner "Star", Captain Abraham Smith, who had fought the billowing Caillou Bay to be on hand should the merry-making islanders need help.

According to the account of another survivor, Rev. R. S. McAllister of Thibodaux, Captain Smith was the only one who foresaw the danger imminent.

"Fools!" he shouted at the scene. "A dance! If that wind whips round south, there'll be another dance--with the wind and the sea for a partner!"

And alas, the prophesy of the seaman proved true. Within hours "the billowing tide rushed unresisted from the Gulf--tearing and swallowing the land in its course -- ploughing out deep-sea channels where sleek herds had been grazing but a few hours before-- rending islands in twain--and ever bearing with it, through the night, enormous vortex of wreck and vast van drift of corpses..." So wrote Hearn in his book.

In the quiet that followed the storm the scavengers came. Sicilian and Corsican outlaws, smugglers, pirates and desperators from a hundred nationalities came in the wake of the disaster.

"There was plunder for all," reported Hearn. "There were children's playthings, money in notes and in coin, silks, satins, laces and fine linen to be stripped from the bodies of the drowned, necklaces, bracelets, watches and rings to be torn from dead fingers."

When finally the rescue ships came and took away the few horror-stricken survivors, Last Island returned to the desolation and solitude it had known before Louisiana's carefree wealthy had turned it into a vacation paradise. And so, the old-timers say, as long as the ghost of "Gale Derodire" patrols the islands, it shall remain so.

MY APPRECIATION . . .

I want to thank everyone who supported me in my race for police juror.

I extend my congratulations to the two candidates in the runoff and wish them well.

It was a pleasure for me to have the chance to see so many people during the campaign.

Birthday

Lana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hebert, celebrated her 6th birthday at her home Nov. 9.

Those helping her enjoy the afternoon were Darren, Dana and Allyson Richard, Lori and Lanc McNeese, Lisa and Charles Hebert, Cheryl Miller, Lawrence, Dennis, C. A., Kevin and Damion Mhire.

Games were played with Darren Richard winning the game prize.

Mothers door prize was won by Mrs. Peggy Mhire.

Door prizes were won by Darren Richard and Lori McNeese.

Cake and punch were served.

Never water plants strictly by the calendar, says LSU Extension horticulturists. You don't drink water "every ten minutes" or "every hour," they reason, so why should plants be watered "every two days" or "once a week?" Instead, learn to recognize dry plants and soil and use these as your tip - off for watering.

Around the Capitol

By JACK GOULD

Despite the fact that some of the 15 defeated candidates for governor may claim to be able to "deliver" votes to either Edwin Edwards or Bennett Johnston, none of them can vote more than once!

This is a polite way of saying that there is nothing more useless to any candidate than a man he has beaten, despite the popularity of "endorsements" from losers.

Not that all defeated candidates have lost all of their influence, but it has long been believed that less than 5 percent of the voters even listen to their former favorites.

Sen. John Schwegmann, for instance, made it plain even before the election that he would endorse Republican David Treen. But he himself must realize that the 90,000 people who voted for him -- possibly enough to win on Dec. 18 -- will not stay home until the general election next Feb. 1.

Meantime, what is Schwegmann to tell his supporters? To vote for Edwards, who publically insulted him by telling him to get someone to read a statement to him? Or vote for Johnston, who supported the New Orleans Domed Stadium -- but who later joined in Schwegmann's protest against the rising cost of the project?

Gillis Long, who ran third with about 160,000 votes, would like to see some of his top workers get state jobs by supporting one of the runoff candidates. But will his black-and-white supporters follow his lead?

There is some betting here that supporters of Jimmie Davis, Teddy Aycock and Speedy Long, who totaled about 280,000, will continue to support a "conservative." But Johnston -- or maybe Treen?

And how about Samuel Bell, who got less than 70,000 (presumably) black votes out of a possible 350,000 registered black voters? Will his people vote for his choice, if any -- or make up their own minds as they did before?

How about the 200,000 members of the AFL-CIO whose leaders failed to approve Johnston? These same leaders urged rank-and-file to support Hubert Humphrey for president, but most members voted for George Wallace!

Most of the younger voters apparently went for Bennett Johnston. But Edwin Edwards reportedly has the support of Ted Kennedy -- meaning money. Both men married girls who are Roman Catholic, and both supported the North-South Expressway. Women voters, bless 'em, say Edwin is "pretty," and Bennett is "cute."

Prediction? Which man makes the fewest boo-hoos before Dec. 18!

Looking back:

The only Capitol "expert" we heard who predicted the first four men in the race for governor in correct order was J. B. Lancaster, the legislative auditor, who endorsed Johnston. And, of course, he picks Bennett to win next month.

Guess who got more votes than any other candidate. State Treasurer Mary Evelyn Parker, who is now being urged to run next time for governor. Others who may run for the top post in 1974 are Sec'y of State Wade Martin and Agriculture Commissioner Dave Pearce. All three may have competition from two young men who made a fine showing in the race for lieutenant governor, Ed Kennon and P. J. Mills.

CREOLE NEWS

Miss Savoie receives cap

At capping and black band ceremonies at McNeese State University, 16 senior students were recipients of black cap bands while 29 junior students received nurses' caps.

Dr. Richard Clement addressed the students in Baker Auditorium, speaking on the nurse of the future. Senior nursing student Linda Ledet of Jeanerette acted as mistress of ceremonies.

Among those receiving caps were Phyllis C. Savoie of Creole.

Teachers enrolled in language arts course

Three teachers from South Cameron Elementary are enrolled in a Language Arts course at McNeese University under Dr. Mary Landers.

Pictured is Mrs. Rena Trahan, Mrs. Lucille Domingue and Becky Vidrine with some of their displays of French and Spanish lessons which will be presented at McNeese.

This unit will be coordinated with, and to help improve the Foreign Language program at South Cameron Elementary.

They will demonstrate an explanation of the procedures and techniques pertaining to Foreign Languages starting with French in the first grade and extending it to the fifth grade.

Counting and names of colors in Spanish are enjoyed by first graders during the study of Mexico.

A display of all pupils' work incorporated by the fifth grade French class will be shared at this time.

TO THE VOTERS OF WARD 5:

I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to all of you for re-electing me to another term as your police juror.

I will continue to do my best to serve all of the people of the ward and to try to get the improvements that our ward needs.

Please feel free to call on me at any time when I can be of service to you.

Cameron, Louisiana
November 8, 1971

The Cameron Parish School Board met in regular session on this date with the following members present: Percy David, President, Lee J. Conner, Preston Richard, Mervyn L. Taylor, Alvin Trahan, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Riggs. Absent: None.

On motion of Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Mr. Richard and carried, the Board dispensed with the reading of the minutes of the meeting held on October 11, 1971, and approved same as published in the official journal.

On motion of Mr. Trahan, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board authorized the Superintendent to re-invest $50,000.00 in Certificate of Deposit with the Calcasieu Marine National Bank and $50,000 in Certificate of Deposit with the Cameron State Bank on a 90-day basis after the present Certificates so invested have matured.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mrs. Riggs and carried, the Board voted to forfeit two school days at all schools except Johnson Bayou and three days at Johnson Bayou; days lost due to the two hurricanes during the past hurricane season.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board approved the employing of John Lyons as the seventh grade teacher at the Grand Lake High School, effective October 11, 1971.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Taylor and carried, the Board authorized and directed the Superintendent to comply with all necessary requirements in order to qualify for Disaster Grant Funds from H. E. W.; funds to be used to restore damaged facilities as a result of Hurricane Edith.

On motion of Mr. Conner, seconded by Mr. Richard and carried, the Board approved payment of bills covering checks No. 19809 through 19935 for a total amount of 18,-031.83.

On motion of Mrs. Riggs, seconded by Richard and carried, the Board authorized the Superintendent to adjust the salaries of all employees to meet the State Pay increase as authorized by the 1971 Legislature.

Diel LaLande and Robert Landry appeared before the Board to request funds to assist in buying wrestling mats for South Cameron High School. The Board tabled this request until May, 1972.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Taylor and carried, the Board authorized the Superintendent to enter into contract with General Electronics Company, Houston, Texas, for maintenance of football and basketball scoreboards.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. David and carried, the Board instructed that the substitute teacher pay be adjusted to the average pay of surrounding parishes.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Trahan, who moved its adoption, which motion was seconded by Mr. Conner and carried unanimously by the Board:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, James M. Buntingame has made application in writing, dated November 8, 1971, requesting the Cameron Parish School Board to advertise for bids for leasing for mineral purposes the following described tract of land situated in Cameron Parish, Louisiana, to-wit:

The East One-half (1/2) of Section 16, Township 14 South, Range 7 West, Cameron Parish, Louisiana, estimated to contain approximately 320 acres, all more fully shown outlined in red on a plat on file with the Cameron Parish School Board.

WHEREAS, said application was accompanied by a certified check in the amount of $200.00 payable to the Cameron Parish School Board as required by law, and

WHEREAS, in the judgment of the Cameron Parish School Board, the application is in order, and it is to the best interest of the School Board that the above mentioned tract of land is advertised for bids for leasing for mineral purposes,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Cameron Parish School Board, in lawful session convened this day, that Superintendent W. R. Smith be, and he is hereby authorized and instructed to cause said lands to be advertised for bids, in accordance with the provisions of the laws of the State of Louisiana covering publications for bids for leasing for mineral purposes of public lands, and providing that all such bids must be received on or before 10:00 A. M. on December 17, 1971, at the office of the Cameron Parish School Board in Cameron, Louisiana, to be considered at a meeting of the Cameron Parish School Board at that time.

Adopted and approved this eighth (8th) day of November, 1971.

/s/ Percy David, President
Attest: /s/ W. R. Smith, Secretary

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Taylor and carried, the Board adjourned to meet in regular monthly session on December 13, 1971.

/s/ Percy David, President
/s/ W. R. Smith, Secretary

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION
CAMERON PARISH SCHOOL BOARD

By virtue of and in conformity with the provisions of Sections 151 through 158 of Title 30 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended, sealed bids will be received at the office of the Cameron Parish School Board at Cameron, Louisiana on or before the 17th day of December, 1971, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., for a lease covering the oil, gas, sulphur, potash and/or other liquid and gaseous hydrocarbon mineral rights in, to and under the following described property, to-wit:

The East One-half (E/2) of Section 16, Township 14 South, Range 7 West, Cameron Parish, Louisiana, estimated to contain approximately 320 acres, all more fully shown outlined in red on a plat on file with the Cameron Parish School Board.

All bids to offer a cash bonus for a lease having a primary term which shall not exceed three years. Minimum royalties shall be one-fifth (1/5) of all oil and gas produced and saved; twenty cents ($. 20) per ton for potash produced and saved; one-fifth (1/5) of all other minerals produced and saved.

Any lease granted hereunder shall be on the regular current State Agency form and shall be subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board of Louisiana.

Certified checks, payable to the Cameron Parish School Board for the full amount of the cash bonus, shall accompany and be submitted with each bid, and no bid thus submitted may be thereafter withdrawn or cancelled, and the certified check accompanying the bid of the successful bidder shall be forfeited to the Cameron Parish School Board. The successful bidder to whom the lease is awarded on the date of the lease sale shall return the written lease, duly executed, within twenty (20) days after his receipt of same.

The Cameron Parish School Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to grant a lease on any portion of the tract advertised for a price not less than proportionate to the best bid offered for the lease on the entire tract.

Tarpons advance in state grid playoffs

The South Cameron Tarpons will travel to North Louisiana Saturday to meet the Homer Pelicans in the semi-finals of the State AA football playoffs.

The game will be at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. Several hundred fans are expected to accompany the Tarpons in five chartered buses and numerous cars.

The Tarpons advanced to the semi-finals with a decisive 30-8 win over Iota last Friday night.

Jimmy Pearce scored three of the Tarpons' touchdowns and ran two points after as well as gained 130 yards on 30 carries. Other TDs were made by Lawrence LeBouef and Johnny Richard.

Should South Cameron win Saturday, the Tarpons would be back home the following Friday in a state semi-final game against the winner of the Loranger-Vanderbilt game.

South Cameron made the state finals in 1968 after finishing second in the district. They lost the title to Kentwood, 19-6.

Buses chartered

It's a long ride, but there will be at least five busloads of South Cameron Tarpon fans at the South Cameron-Homer state quarterfinal football game in Homer Saturday.

The South Cameron Athletic Association has arranged for two buses for Creole fans, two for Cameron fans and one for Grand Chenier. The cost of the round trip fare will be about $12.

Dial LaLande, association president, said that the buses will leave from South Cameron high school at 12 noon sharp Saturday. (The buses must leave promptly at noon in order to make it to Homer by game time at 7:30 that evening.)

Persons wishing to make the trip are asked to call the following persons for reservations:

Grand Chenier -- Darrell East
Creole -- Lynn Miller, Lynn Conner or Eddie Joe Conner
Cameron -- Mrs. Wilma Guthrie

The buses will return home following the game.

Texan charged with car theft

David L. Evans, 27, of Houston, Tex., was arrested in Hackberry Friday after he reportedly got gas at Mason Istre's store in Holly Beach and drove off without paying for it.

Following the arrest by Deputy Sheriff Alpha LaBove of Hackberry, it was found that Evans was wanted in Texas for auto theft.

The Cameron sheriff's department is holding Evans for extradition to Texas.

Theriot is new Assoc. pres.

Fredman Theriot was elected president of the Cameron Parish Development Association at a meeting in the Calcasieu Marine National Bank in Cameron.

Elected to serve with him are: J. A. Lowery, first vice-president; Curley Vincent, second vice-president; and H. Ward Fontenot, secretary.

Many items were discussed, including asking for permits to clean the ditches at Holly Beach so water can collect at central points for use in fighting fires.

The Association instructed the secretary to write the State Department of Parks and Recreation about its intentions toward the upkeep and development of Rutherford Beach as a recreational facility.

Absentee vote

Absentee voting for the second primary election will begin Monday, Nov. 29 in the clerk of court's office in Cameron and will continue until 12 noon on Dec. 11, according to Clerk of Court J. Berton Daigle.

Absentee voting will be done during regular office hours.

Miss Cameron group is named

Mrs. Braxton Blake, chairman of the Miss Cameron Parish contest of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival has named a committee to work on the contest which will be held Friday night, Jan. 7.

Entry forms can be obtained from these community chairmen: Mrs. Pat Doland, Cameron, Creole, Oak Grove and Grand Chenier; Mrs. John Prescott, Holly Beach and Johnson Bayou; Mrs. Bynum Shove, Hackberry; Mrs. Mayo Cain, Klondike and Lowery; and Mrs. Ladd Wainwright, Grand Lake and Sweetlake.

Social set

A farewell social honoring Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Fullen will be held at the Johnson Bayou Baptist Church Sunday, Nov. 28, after the evening service. The public is invited.

FATHER THEODORE HASSINK, first chaplain of the J. P. Boudoin Sr. KC council, receives a certificate of appreciation from Mark Richard, first Grand Knight of the council.

Creole council has anniversary

A biographical sketch of each judge serving the people of Cameron parish was given by Judge Henry Yelverton, 14th judicial judge, guest speaker at the 25th anniversary banquet of the J. P. Boudoin Sr. Council 3014 Knights of Columbus held at the KC Hall in Creole Sunday night.

Eddie Jo Conner, Grand Knight, presided. Father Frederick Webert, pastor of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, led the invocation.

District Deputy Pat Doland served as master of ceremonies and introduced the officers of the council. The guest speaker was introduced by Whitney Baccigalopi, Past Grand Knight and present District Warden.

Doland presented charter member awards to the following members who are still in the Council: J. H. Bero Boudreaux, Julian East, Horace Mhire, Sr., Wilson J. Montie, Joe O'Donnell, J. O. Theriot, Alpha Baccigalopi, Moise Sturlese, Paul Abra Conner, Roland Brown LeBouef, Severin Miller, Edras (Bee) Nunez, John Richard, Jasper Ogea, Lionel A. Theriot and Charlie D. Theriot, and the following charter members who have transferred to other councils: J. Mack Broussard, J. A. Colligan, Rev. T. Hassink, Kenneth F. Ogea, Whitney Broussard, A. J. Duhon, J. B. Colligan, James M. Daigle, Wallace (Cap) LaBove, Norman McCall, Mark Richard, John B. Duhon and Sidney LeBleu.

Mark Richard, who served as the first Grand Knight of the Council recalled that the initial meeting of the Council was held Nov. 21, 1946, with 45 charter members. The members convened in the Creole CYO Hall and the J. P. Boudoin Sr. residence before a permanent hall was secured. The present membership of the council is 192.

Past Grand Knight certificates were awarded to Richard, J. O. Theriot, W. J. Montie, W. J. Broussard, Dalton Richard, J. L. Derouen, E. J. Dronet, J. Berton Daigle, Whitney Baccigalopi, Joe C. Boudoin, Ray Dimas, J. K. Montie, Sonny McCall, Clifford Conner, Pat Doland, Telesmar (Blanc) Bonsall and Eddie Jo Conner.

The benediction was given by the Council's first chaplain Father Theodore Hassink, of St. Hubert Catholic Church of Lake Charles.

Barbecue reset

Saturday night, Dec. 11, at 7 p.m., has been set for the fall joint barbecue of Cameron Parish Farm Bureau and Cattlemen Association, according to Alex Beard and James Cox, club presidents.

The event will take place at the KC Hall in Creole. Cards are being sent to club members who must return them in order to reserve a plate of barbecue, the presidents said.

The event had originally been set for Dec. 4, but was changed because of a conflict.

4-H clubbers to go to National 4-H meet

Three Cameron parish 4-H members who have won state awards in their chosen projects will attend the 50th National 4-H Congress in Chicago Nov. 28-Dec. 2.

These three young people will receive expense-paid trips and will be among some 30 Louisiana winners at the Congress.

The youths are Michael Chesson and Ricky Guidry of Sweetlake and Stephen Lowery of Hackberry.

Chesson, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Chesson, won his award in the horse program, working with his own Appaloosa mare and gelding.

A junior high school student, young Chesson has won many blue ribbons and "firsts" in his four years on this project. He also observed operations on horse farms and attended several horse clinics, reading books on horses.

Chesson will be attending the congress through the courtesy of Merck & Co., Inc.

Guidry, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Guidry, is another owner and student of horses but he received his recognition in achievement. His trip is sponsored by Ford Motor Company Fund.

A freshman at Louisiana State University, he is majoring in veterinary medicine. Young Guidry as an eight-year 4-H member has participated in 340 projects and activities, has received many first-place awards and estimates he has amassed a savings of several thousand dollars through his 4-H work.

Lowery, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lowery, is a freshman at McNeese State University, majoring in horticulture. He has been in 4-H for eight years.

He won the state award for his work in conservation of natural resources. His trip is provided by John Deere.

Young Lowery has increased his 4-H activities throughout the years. His conservation interests include duck hunting and fishing, banding of wildlife and fish and improving marshland.

Legion and Auxiliary have special guests

The highest ranking officers of the Louisiana American Legion and Ladies Auxiliary were in Creole last week at a meeting of the Richard Bros. Post No. 176 to honor the Cameron parish veterans of the Vietnam war.

Those honored were Eddie Jo Conner, Roger Dale Richard, Mike McWhirter, as well as those who could not attend.

Post Commander Jules Dronet introduced the special guests. Mrs. Preston Richard, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, introduced auxiliary guests.

L. J. Deshotel, District 8 Commander, introduced special guests of the American Legion and complimented the local post for reaching their 100% goal each year.

Mrs. L. J. Hines, Louisiana Department President of the Ladies Auxiliary, congratulated the Auxiliary on going over their quota. She said the quota was 47 and the auxiliary has enlisted 59.

Mrs. Richard was presented with a rose ring box by Mrs. Gilbert L. Royer, 7th District President, for going over the membership goal.

Department Legion Commander J. H. "Swede" Morris gave the principal address of the evening.

He said that the primary aim of the American Legion, when it was organized, following World War I was to aid the veterans' widows and children.

He pointed out that at that time there was no such thing as veterans hospitals and veterans programs to help rehabilitate the wounded and maimed soldier. In many cases where they were unable to hold down jobs they were

ROLAND J. (T. BOLO) TROSCLAIR, JR. 208

MRS. PAT DOLAND, hostess for the Grand Chenier HD club Thanksgiving supper, here serves Supt. Wilmer Smith, guest speaker.

Supt. Smith speaker at G. Chenier meeting

W. R. Smith, Cameron Parish Superintendent of Schools, was speaker at the November meeting of the Grand Chenier Home Demonstration Club held in the home of Mrs. Pat Doland.

Smith outlined the Cameron Parish School system situation and his plans.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party Tuesday night, Dec. 14 in the home of Mrs. D. W. Griffith.

Mrs. Guthrie Perry announced that the annual Christmas outdoor decorations and lighting contest will be held Dec. 20. This contest is sponsored annually by the club and covers Oak Grove and Grand Chenier. Three grand prizes will be awarded. Judging will begin at dark.

A covered dish Thanksgiving supper was served of favorite dishes brought by club members. Mrs. Guy Murphy Jr. was co-hostess.

Swiss Snacks: Split and toast three English muffins and spread with a 4½ ounce can deviled ham. Top each with a thin slice of onion and a slice of Swiss cheese.

Broil until cheese melts — three to five minutes. Makes six snacks.

Creole club plans lighting contest

Activities planned for December by the Creole Home Demonstration Club were outlined at the club's December meeting held recently in the home of Mrs. Robert Wicke. Assisting Mrs. Wicke as co-hostesses were Mrs. Robert Ortego and Mrs. Yenest Miller.

The first activity discussed by the group was the council installation tea at which the Creole Club will be in charge of conducting the installation ceremonies. The tea is set for Friday, Dec. 3, at 2:30 p.m. in the Cameron parish library.

The annual Christmas party was set for Friday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. William Morris. Featured will be a buffet supper and each member was assigned to bring a prepared dish. Mrs. Miller was named as program chairman.

Members planned to sponsor another Outdoor Christmas Lighting Contest in the Creole area this year. Date and rules of the contest will be announced later by Mrs. Clifford Myers, chairman. Named to the committee were Mrs. Horace Montie, Mrs. Harold Carter, Mrs. Ortego and Mrs. Morris.

President Mrs. Ortego reviewed the outstanding performance that the club and many of the individual members had turned in at the recent Council Achievement Day. She displayed the many award certificates which the club had won in the Achievement Day contests.

Mrs. Clifford Conner gave a sewing demonstration entitled: "How to Solve the Homemade Look in Sewing."

THANK YOU

The Cameron Home Demonstration Club would like to thank everyone for the aid given in the sweets sale Nov. 6, at the Ward 3 Voting Polls.

Proceeds were to provide funds for the club, according to Shirley A. Murphy, reporter.

McWirter honored

Area A American Legion Commander Ellis McWhirter, a member of Richard Bros. Post No. 176 of Creole, was presented with an American Legion tie by Ray Ardoin, District Vice-Commander, at the fall conference in Port Barre.

The award was for McWhirter's district having the most commanders at the district Post Commanders membership meeting in Welsh. Four out of the five commanders of Area A attended the meeting.

Miss Badon crowned as festival queen

Marilyn Badon was crowned 1971 Harvest Festival Queen Nov. 12 at Johnson Bayou School. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Badon, Marilyn was the 12th grade representative. She was escorted by Glen Trahan.

First runner-up Cheryl Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Griffith, representing the 1st grade. Cheryl's escort was Billy Joe Storm.

Second runner-up, the 3rd grade choice, Larie Barentine, escorted by Michael Badon. She is the daughter of Mrs. Clyde Barentine.

Third runner-up representing the 7th grade was Celeste Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Landry. Her escort was Randy Badon.

Trophies were presented to all the runners-up. A trophy in addition to the crown was presented to the queen. She was crowned by the 1970 queen Brenda Romero.

Flower girl was Rene Barentine and crown bearer Kris Hardy. Charms were presented to the other girls participating in the contest. They are: kindergarten, Teilla Noel, escorted by Timothy Dugas; 2nd grade, Jene Griffith, escorted by Shane Noel; 4th grade, Lucinda Jinks, escorted by Tony Trahan; 5th grade, Gloria Landry, escorted by Gary Manuel; 6th grade, Penny Schaller, escorted by Frederick Badon; 8th grade, Gertie Trahan, escorted by Russell Badon; 9th grade, Theresa Hardy, escorted by Roger Blackburn; 10th grade, Angella Sandifer, escorted by Rayme Boudreaux and 11th grade, Patricia Trahan escorted by Leslie Prescott.

The Harvest Festival is an annual event sponsored by the Athletic Association. Funds are used to purchase playground equipment, athletic equipment and uniforms for Johnson Bayou students.

Association president Paul Jacobs expressed appreciation to the many who made the carnival possible with donations of time, work, cakes and shrimp.

Combine cooked peas with mayonnaise, using more than mayonnaise to achieve desired dipping consistency. Season to taste with Worcestershire sauce, onion juice and crisp bacon bits. Top will be light tan in color.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

The elaborate preparation made by duck hunters of today in anticipation of bagging the small limit that the law allows are in diametrical contrast to those employed by the hunters when the parish was new.

With a single shot into a nearby pond a man had attained sufficient meat to supply his table and that of neighbors also. Hunting then, as I understand it, was primarily for food and not for sport. Ammunition itself was costly and scarce, and funds were definitely limited.

Tall tales flourished when men recounted their hunting experiences. Unlike the fish tales of today with the "biggest getting away", Cameron hunters always told of getting the biggest fowl in the greatest volume.

One hunter stood in a class by himself so far as his stories were concerned. He told of going out to a pond one November morning and seeing a feathered mass feeding around the perimeter.

He debated as to how his old muzzle-loader might get the most ducks with its one shot. He was inspired. He merely crouched down in the tall grass and bent the barrel of his gun into the arc of a circle. He crept to the edge of the pond and fired. The shot circled the water three or four times. Presto! He had killed several hundred ducks with one heavy discharge.

The following January, this hunter went out to his pond and saw thousands of ducks sitting upon it -- or rather, frozen to it. He fired a shot, killing several. Alarmed, the poor creatures beat their wings frantically in an effort to fly away.

The man loaded and fired again. Once more the ducks went into a frenzied flutter. They were successful. The ice broke loose from the edges of the pond.

They flew away -- their feet still frozen to the circular mass of ice. And that was the first known instance of any Cameronite having seen a flying saucer -- frozen and duck-filled though it may have been.

Our school children are out for a week's vacation for Thanksgiving.

Our get well wishes go out to Mrs. Sylvia Schulz in St. Elizabeth Hospital in Beaumont and to John Hebert who is in St. Patrick's Hospital in Lake Charles.

Mrs. Nolton Richard and Mrs. Absie Duhon attended the annual Red Cross meeting in Lake Charles Tuesday night. This was Award Night. They received their ten year pin and three tabs. This means they have been Red Cross workers for 13 years.

Home grateful for roundup

Supt. Wade B. East has expressed the gratitude of the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home for the fine response made by individuals and churches in Calcasieu, Cameron and Beauregard parishes to the annual fall food roundup for the child care agency.

Canned goods, staple items and other useful things have been provided the Children's Home in this project, continuing a long standing practice which East said is most helpful in meeting needs of boys and girls from throughout the state who live in the Home located in Monroe.

Heath takes training

Army Private Robert L. Heath, 17, son of Loyd F. Heath, Grand Lake, recently completed eight weeks of advanced individual training at the U. S. Army Armor Center, Ft. Knox, Ky.

During the training, students learn the duties of a tank crewman, including the firing of the tank's armament and small weapons. They also receive instruction in field radio operation, map reading and tank maintenance and repair.

Citizenship Day held for 4-H club members

The second annual 4-H Cameron Parish Citizenship Day was held in the courthouse Nov. 22. Approximately 75 club members, leaders and parents attended.

The meeting was called to order by Joelle Premeaux, vice-president of the executive council. The pledge of allegiance was led by Cindy Trahan and the 4-H pledge by Paula Hebert.

Uland Guidry welcomed the group and introduced the guest speaker, H. Ward Fontenot. Mr. Fontenot spoke on different aspects of citizenship records for the citizenship project.

Officer training meeting were held with qualified leaders explaining the duties of the different offices. Mr. Guidry met with the president and vice-presidents; Miss Granger instructed the secretaries while E. J. Dronet spoke to the treasurers.

Jerry Wise explained the important features of reporting.

The Johnson Bayou Senior Club gave a mock business meeting to demonstrate the proper procedure of a meeting.

A tour of the police jury annex and sheriff's office concluded the day.

FHA has initiation

The Grand Lake High School FHA Chapter added something very different to this year's initiation of the new members. A Kangaroo Court was held.

All the new members were tried and sentenced as if in a court of law. This mock trial was held at assembly of the student body and faculty. Later that evening a Halloween Party was held.

Pictured above is one of the new members, Sarah Broussard, preparing to carry out her sentence!

Ballots mailed here in ASCS elections

Ballots for the ASC Community Committee elections have been mailed out from the Cameron and Calcasieu ASCS offices, according to Charles S. Hackett, County Executive Director of the Bi-Parish area.

They must be properly voted and returned to the Parish ASCS office by Dec. 1, in order to be counted, Hackett pointed out.

Each ASC community will vote its own slate of nominees. Each farmer may vote for not more than three candidates in the ASC election. He may select up to three of the candidates listed, or he may write in his choices on the lines provided at the bottom of the ballot.

In each of the ASC communities in each parish, three community committeemen and two alternates will be elected. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes becomes chairman; the second highest, vice-chairman; third highest, regular member; and the fourth and fifth become alternates who serve on the community committee if regular members are absent or if a permanent vacancy occurs. All election ties will be settled by lot.

ASC community committeemen are elected for one-year terms, to begin Jan. 1, 1972, Hackett said. "It's very important that farmers elect representatives and qualified farmer-neighbors for community committee posts. These community committees elect the County ASC Committee and choose its officers. They also help keep farmers in their communities informed on how individual farm operations will be affected by farm programs administered by the County ASC Committee.

Any farm owner tenant, or sharecropper, of legal age, may vote in the election if his farm is eligible to participate in any of the ASCS programs administered in his community. Others who may vote are: Spouses of eligible voters; a minor who supervises or conducts the farming operation of an entire farm; a legal guardian who manages a farm for a child; and a person representing a legal entity such as a partnership or corporation.

Camp Fire has outing

An all-day "cook-out" was enjoyed by the Creole Camp Fire Girls recently at the home of their leader, Mrs. Clifford Myers, in Creole.

The girls mayde gypsy stoves, from gallon cans, using wax candles with wicks for the fire, and cooked hamburgers, hot dogs and baked beans for their noon meal.

They built a fire and made a bread twist and toasted marshmallows.

In the afternoon they took a mile nature hike on a cattle-walkway in the marsh between the Creole and Oak Grove ridges. They sang camp fire songs during their hike.

Plans are being made to have an overnight campout at the Camp Fire camp near Lake Charles.

A discussion was held on helping decorate a community tree during the holidays at the Richard Bros. Post No. 176 American Legion Hall.

16TH YEAR -- NO. 8; CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, DEC. 2, 1971 10¢ A COPY

Mouton named as Knight of Year

Earl Mouton, Cameron businessman and an active leader in the Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church and Council 5461 of the Knights of Columbus, received the Knight of the Year plaque at the seventh annual award banquet Sunday night in the VFW Home.

Mouton received the award from E. J. Dronet, last year's recipient. In making the presentation Dronet cited Mouton's service to the council, church and community. He pointed out that Mouton had led the council in achieving the highest award made by the Supreme Council, the "Star Council Award", the first time the local council had ever earned this award.

He also had major responsibility in the Council's reaching and exceeding it's membership goal, and being awarded the John F. Kennedy Award from the Supreme Council. He is a church Lay Reader and is a member of the 4th Degree K of C, presently serving as Council liaison officer.

He also led the Council in raising over $2000 from various activities, to support a substantial donation toward the new church, meeting the Council's quota to the La. State Council Youth Expansion Program, and starting a KC Building fund.

Past recipients of the K of C award have been: James L. Derouen, Ray Champagne, Mark Richard, Hayes Picou, Hillaire Hebert, Amos Miller and E. J. Dronet.

Claude Hebert, Grand Knight called the meeting to order. Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Parish in Cameron, introduced the speaker, Rev. Eugene LaFleur, pastor of St. Paul's Parish, Elton.

Father LaFleur spoke on the role of the church in the community and in the life of every member. He pointed out that too many times church members take these many services for granted, not thinking what it would be like not to have them. He challenged members to remember what the church does for them and to think what they can do for their church.

Sheriff Claude Eagleson served as Master of Ceremonies and introduced the KC officers and guests.

Albert Colligan, who has been a KC member since 1927, and Mark Richard, since 1928, both received honorary life memberships in the KC from Claude Hebert, Grand Knight.

Hebert also presented 25 year membership certificates to: Whitney J. Broussard, Sr., Albert Colligan, James M. Daigle, James L. Derouen, Carl W. "Sing" Faulk, Norman F. McCall, Wallace "Cap" LaBove, and Mark Richard.

Edward Benoit presented the Past Grand Knight Plaque to Earl Mouton.

Admissions to S.C. hospital

Admitted to South Cameron Memorial Hospital recently were:

Yule stamps

Two different versions of Christmas stamps are available for the coming Yuletide mailings, according to Hackberry Postmaster Marie Johnson.

The Nativity Stamp is a detail from Giorgione's "Adoration of the Shepherds", which is in the National Gallery of Art. The other stamp available is the Partridge Stamp, based on the ballad "Partridge in a Pear Tree."

Both are eight cent values and can be purchased at the post office or customers on the route may leave a note in their box for the carrier to deliver a specified number the following day.

ATHLETIC MEETING SET

The South Cameron Athletic Association will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 8 at the school lunchroom. Members are urged to attend.

25 YEAR membership certificates were presented to the above members of Our Lady Star of the Sea Knights of Columbus Council. Seated: Mark Richard and Albert Colligan, who also received life memberships. Standing: Carl W. Faulk, Norman McCall, James M. Daigle, Wallace (Cap) LaBove and James Derouen.

Error on local ballot corrected

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE RACE

By JERRY WISE

It's not very often that Louisiana's most efficient secretary of state, Wade O. Martin, is caught in an error, but one turned up this week on the absentee ballots sent out by his office for the Dec. 18 Democratic second primary election.

These ballots, which were sent to the Cameron clerk of court's office to be used by voters who would not be in town on election day, listed the following names in the race for member of the State Central Committee at Large:

C. D. "Doug" Foreman of Sulphur and Dr. Rex H. Smelser, of Lake Charles.

A number of persons, upon seeing the ballot, questioned whether Foreman's name should be on the ballot. These persons, including this reporter and E. J. Dronet of Cameron, who had already been elected to the committee, were of the opinion that Van Andrus of Lake Charles should be on the ballot with Smelser instead of Foreman.

Clerk of Court J. Berton Daigle placed a call to the secretary of state's office where the official in charge of making up the ballot assured him that Foreman had been certified for the second primary.

However, a check with Andrus and Foreman later that day revealed that both were in agreement: Andrus definitely should be on the ballot as he had gotten more votes than Foreman.

Andrus then started making his own inquiry which resulted in his finding that an error had been made in the secretary of state's office and that his name should be on the ballot.

Later it was announced by Martin's office that all of the absentee ballots that had been sent to the Cameron and Calcasieu clerks of court were being withdrawn and corrected ones were being printed.

Andrus said he did not know what would or could be done about the absentee ballots that had already been cast -- about 40 in Calcasieu and about 20 in Cameron. Conceivably in a close race between Andrus and Smelser, these could make a difference.

Martin's office said there had been only one other error throughout the state on the absentee ballots -- a race in Terrebonne -- still a pretty good record considering the thousands of names involved in the hundreds of state, district, parish and local races.

Tarps knocked out of state playoffs

The South Cameron high school Tarpons, who won both the district and bi-district championships, were defeated in a state quarterfinal AA game Saturday night in Homer.

The Homer Pelicans won 7-0 to advance to the semifinals this week against Loranger.

A second quarter, 16-yard scamper by David Williams accounted for the only points shoved on the scoreboard in the game.

The touchdown run by the 6-1, 195-pound senior capped a 55-yard drive and came with only 46 seconds left before halftime. The point after was supplied by Randy Dean from placement.

The Pelicans dominated the game as they chalked up 223 total yards to South Cameron's 104. However, the Tarpons had several scoring opportunities but penalties thwarted what attempts they made at the goal line.

BBB introduced to Cameron area

The Cameron Lions Club has begun a campaign to acquaint Cameron parish citizens with an agency that can benefit everyone in the parish -- the Better Business Bureau of Southwest Louisiana.

Some months ago the Lions saw the need for some type of organization that would aid parish citizens in telling whether certain out-of-the-parish businesses and promotions were legitimate or not.

"What we need is a Better Business Bureau," someone said.

And after a few inquiries the Lions found that Cameron already had a Better Business Bureau--the BBB of Southwest Louisiana, headquartered in Lake Charles but serving a large area north to Alexandria, east to Lafayette and south to Cameron.

Caton Langston, BBB manager in Lake Charles, was invited to speak at Lions weekly luncheon and afterwards the club gave him assistance in signing up 18 firms as BBB members in Cameron, Creole and Grand Chenier.

A. J. Howard, who was Lions president at the time, was named to the BBB board of directors to represent Cameron parish.

Both the Cameron State Bank and the Calcasieu Marine Bank will send out leaflets on the BBB along with the monthly statements to their customers this month.

Mr. Langston and Mr. Howard pointed out a few BBB services available to Cameron parish citizens regardless of whether they are members of BBB or not. They include:

(1) Information on firms or individuals that a person may be thinking about doing business with. An out-of-town firm gives you an attractive price on painting, roofing or insulating your home and you want to make sure it is not a fly-by-night concern. Call the BBB and they will tell you if they have had an complaints or reports on the firm.

(2) Settling differences with a business firm. Bought a refrigerator or washing machine from some firm and it doesn't work and they won't stand by their guarantee. Call the BBB, the BBB will investigate your charge and if they find you are in the right, they will usually prevail upon the offending firm to make things right.

(3) You are considering investing your hard-earned funds in a franchise type business or in some type of vending machines and you want to be sure you are dealing with reputable people. Call the BBB, If there has ever been a complaint filed against the firm, they will know.

(4) You get a telephone call from some stranger raising funds for some charity you never heard of before. Are they legal? Ask the BBB.

(5) You go into a store looking for an item that you saw advertised. They're all out of that item, but you find yourself being sold something more expensive under the old "bait and switch" gimmick. Felt you have been had? Call the BBB. They'll take your side if what you say is true.

These are just a few of the services that the BBB offers to any Cameron parish citizen free of charge. All you have to do to get these services is to call 436-4316 in Lake Charles or write the Better Business Bureau of Southwest Louisiana, Inc., 220 Pioneer Bldg., Lake Charles.

Both Mr. Howard and Mr. Langston said they wanted to recognize the following BBB members in Cameron parish for it is through their annual membership dues and the dues of other members throughout the area that the BBB is able to offer its services to the public:

Boudoin Brothers Service Station, Calcasieu Savings & Loan Ass'n., Calcasieu Marine National Bank, Cameron State Bank, Steed's Fish Company, Gulf Coast Supply, Trosclair Canning Co., Inc., Western Auto Associate Store, Dyson Lumber Company, The Barge Terminal Co., Inc., Taylor's Welding Service, Inc., Roy Bailey Contractor, Inc., G. E. Nunez Grocery, O'Donnell Funeral Home, Tarter's Grocery, Crain Bros., Inc., Kenneth Nunez.

James Fitzmorris, Jr.

Visits parish

James E. Fitzmorris, Jr., candidate for lieutenant governor, was a visitor to Cameron parish Tuesday.

A native of New Orleans, Fitzmorris has served as a New Orleans city councilman and has held numerous local, parish and state positions.

Yule program

The annual Cameron elementary school Christmas program will be held Dec. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium, according to William O. Morris, principal. There will be no admission charge.

Class skits will be presented by the kindergarten and the first grade.

A Christmas operetta will be presented by the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th grades.

Mrs. Galton Boudreaux is coordinator of the program.

Vote Count

The Cameron ASCS county committee will tabulate the ballots for the annual community committee election Tuesday, Dec. 7, at 8 a.m. in the ASCS office in Cameron.

The county convention for the community committeemen elected will be held on Dec. 15 at 1:30 p.m. in the courthouse meeting room.

Stephen Lowery

Lowery is 4-H national winner

Stephen Lowery, 18, Hackberry, has been awarded a $700 scholarship as one of six national winners in the 4-H conservation of natural resources program.

The awards were made at the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago Nov. 28-Dec. 2, by John Deere following selection by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Lowery applied conservation methods learned in 4-H projects to his father's farm and the surrounding area. In the last two years, he has helped build a marsh pond and stock it with bass and planted and fertilized fruit orchards. He also built three fish ponds on land useless for grazing, helped improve 50 acres for grazing deer and built and repaired levies to keep salt water out of marshland areas.

Active in 4-H club work for eight years, Lowery's other favorite projects have included sheep raising, citizenship, plant science and entomology. He has conducted clinics for younger 4-H members on subjects ranging from worming sheep to bird identification.

In his eight-year project the young conservationist has completed more than 135 activities, attended two camps, improved some 200 acres of pasture and collected and identified hundreds of insects.

In addition to the scholarship, Lowery also earned an expense-paid trip to the 4-H Congress as state winner in the conservation category. A freshman at McNeese State College, he plans a career in horticulture.

The Cameron parish youth attended the state Junior Leadership Training Conference and the American Legion-sponsored Pelican State Conference. He also has served his club as an officer and junior leader.

"My 4-H projects have provided me with many opportunities to develop my physical and mental skills. I have had experiences that helped me become self-directing and to gain control of my feelings, thoughts and actions," the winner explained.

Firemen elect same officers

J. Ray Burleigh, chief of the Cameron volunteer fire department for the past 15 years, was re-elected to that position for another year at the annual election Monday night at the fire station.

Other officers re-elected were Wilman Saltzman, assistant chief; Ray Theriot, captain; Claude Hebert, lieutenant; Earl Mouton, secretary-treasurer.

Re-elected to the board of directors were Tony Cheramie, E. J. Dronet and Frankie Henry. The other officers also are on the board.

Named as cooks were J. B. Watts, Pierre Conner, Tessy Theriot and Harold Savoy.

A plan was discussed in which the telephones of all the firemen would ring in the event of a fire.

The annual Christmas party for the firemen and their wives will be held Thursday, Dec. 16 at the fire station.

The board is working with the state fire marshall to draw up a fire ordinance for the Cameron fire district.

A training course for the firemen will be conducted by the LSU extension service here Dec. 13-17.

Of the 22 firemen on the roll, 21 were present at the meeting.

QUEEN OF the 1971 Johnson Bayou Harvest Festival was Marilyn Badon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Badon and a senior at Johnson Bayou high.

JOELLE PRIMEAUX and Brenda Bonsall are shown with the food which is being picked up for a Christmas basket for Boy's Village by the South Cameron 4-H Club.

CREOLE NEWS

By GARI BAILEY

Seven buses carried the majority of our residents to Homer Saturday for the state game. Creole was like a ghost town you may have found in the old days in the West.

We are proud of the hard work and grand sportsmanship our boys showed this football season.

The hunters and wildlife will have a two-week vacation with the first hunting session closing as of Sunday, Nov. 28. The second season will open Dec. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wayne Armentau spent the weekend in Baytown, Tex., visiting his father, S. J. Armentau.

Trudy, Reginia, Ruth Ann and Virginia Nunez, and Shannon Nunez all spent the weekend in Hackberry visiting Peggy Ann Simon and their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nunez. They also visited their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jones in Sulphur.

Mr. and Mrs. Gooch Baccigalopi returned home this past weekend from San Diego, Calif., where they have resided for the past four years. Gooch was stationed at the 32nd Street Naval Base in San Diego. He will leave Dec. 27 and will report to the same base where he will board the U.S.S. Mahan DLG11 Ship for a tour of duty, leaving Jan. 7 on a Westpac cruise for seven months. He is scheduled to muster out in September of 1972.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynex Richard spent the weekend in Eunice visiting Mr. and Mrs. Walter Corbello.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bailey and son, Troy, left for Bay City, Tex., to visit Mrs. Bailey's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison. The men will leave Wednesday to join a party of 15 on a deer hunt in lower Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Savoie and son, Kevin, spent the weekend with family and friends. They also attended the football game in Homer.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

By ELORA MONTIE

This past Sunday marked the closing day of the first duck hunting season of this year which was Nov. 11 - Nov. 28. Although after the first two days of this hunting season began ducks were scarce but regardless of this problem both local and out of parish sportsmen were still plentiful and trying to bag their limits which made it an active first season.

Something that wasn't scarce, reported by all sportsmen who went out in marshes, were the tremendous invasions of mosquitoes. Hunters stated that without mosquito repellant one could hardly stay in the duck blinds on both morning and evening hunts.

The cold front which moved in this past week with 44 degree temperatures helped some but not all that much.

With the limit being six ducks this season many bagged only part limits. One part of four bagged 11 ducks, another party of five bagged only two ducks while still others were coming in with only one duck.

Sportsmen are looking ahead to the next part of the season. Whether there will be new flights coming in or whether the ducks have migrated elsewhere.

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Adise Boudoin who passed away Sunday.

Pete Theriot went to New Iberia Sunday to bring Mrs. Theriot's daughters back after a week's vacation here in Creole.

This past Monday school resumed here after the week of Thanksgiving holidays. Teachers, pupils and other school employees were again back to their regular duties.

With Thanksgiving holidays over folks here at the Chenier from now to Christmas will be kept busy with their Christmas shoppings, Christmas decorations and other preparations. Folks here have taken much interest in the lighting contest since it began.

There are already some who have Christmas trees up in their homes.

A location has been prepared by Central Industries of Lafayette in the south marsh near the Forest Oil Field, south of the Grand Chenier school, for Hilliard Oil and Gas Company which is now being drilled by Delta Drilling Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Broussard of Grand Chenier announce the birth of a son, Chad Edward, born Tuesday, Nov. 23, weighing 7 1/2 lbs.

Chad Edward was greeted by his two-year old sister, Mona Lynn.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Broussard of Grand Chenier and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Benoit of Grand Lake; a great-grandmother Mrs. Ramie Broussard of Creole and a great-grandfather Marchial Benoit of Lake Charles.

Rev. Arby Coody, members and friends of the Grand Chenier Methodist Church enjoyed a supper given by Benny Welch who was also in charge of the devotional program.

Father DuBois of Lake Charles gave an interesting talk.

D. Y. Doland, who recently underwent surgery in a Lake Charles hospital, returned home Saturday and is reported doing fine. A speedy recovery is wished Mr. Doland.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Geraldine Cantk and Bill Kelly who are in South Cameron Memorial Hospital.

Purchasing a new 1972 Chevrolet green pick-up truck this past weekend was Valian Theriot.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Saizan, Sr., Lester, Wilda Mae and two daughters of Fort Barre spent Tuesday with Elora Montie and Ray Nunez.

Valsant Montie of Atlanta, Ga., is spending some time with his mother, Mrs. Cora Montie and sister Mrs. Louise Portie.

Ethel Martin and George Seymore visited Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Nunez on Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McCormick of Baton Rouge visited for the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rogers in their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vanish Saltzman of Cameron spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Conner here. Mr. Saltzman is helping the Conners remodel their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mhire, Robbie Dale, Kay and Mary Louise enjoyed a Thanksgiving week in Vadalia on a deer hunt.

Mrs. Jim Sells and Wanda of Breaux Bridge visited with Elora Montie and Ray Nunez Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porter and Jeanne of Lake Arthur visited Mrs. Lee Nunez Sunday.

Miss Annie Laurie Miller of Baton Rouge spent last weekend with her sister Mrs. Emily Theriot and visited Mrs. Emma Nunez.

Thanksgiving Day Mrs. Bessie Davis, Mrs. Lillie Johnston, Mrs. Rose Vincent, and Frank Welch all of Lake Charles visited with friends and relatives here.

The Morris East family of Lake Charles spent the weekend in their home here.

The Robert Chabreck family of Baton Rouge spent a few days in their camp here at the Chenier.

The Evan Mhires had dining with them on Thanksgiving Day the Freddie Richard family and Judy, the Clifford Miller family, Mrs. Edmond Bertrand, the Chabreck family and the Willard Guidry family.

The Carroll LeMaire family of Lake Charles spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Theriot, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Mayon and family of Houston spent some time during the holidays here.

Adam Sturlese of Lafayette visited his father, Moise Sturlese and others while here during the holidays.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie Perry and family during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Sclanfani and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Sclanfani and family of New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. Gooch Baccigalopi of California surprised his parents, the Whitney Baccigalopis Friday night on their arrival. They will spend some time here before Mr. Baccigalopi leaves for overseas service. Mrs. Baccigalopi will return to Lafayette to attend school while he serves his remaining tim in service.

Let's protect our environment.
Few states value their natural beauty and resources more than we in Louisiana. Our "sportsman's paradise" is a long-loved refuge to vacationers and outdoorsmen because we have been blessed so well by nature. Yet we are in danger of losing our "paradise" to pollution. It is still not too late to repair the damage already done and to preserve the God-given splendor of our forests, lakes, streams and shores. With strong pollution control legislation, strict enforcement of control regulations and innovative new programs to help our cities and industries cope with the problem of environmental pollution, we can save our natural assets from the threat of future contamination. Bennett Johnston can provide the leadership Louisiana needs now.

Miss Babineaux wed to Arthur Lee Booth

Bernice Frances Babineaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Babineaux, of Lake Charles became the bride of Arthur Lee Booth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Booth, Sr. of Grand Chenier during a nuptial mass celebrated Saturday, Nov. 20 at St. Eugene Church in Grand Chenier with Rev. Father Henry Oty officiating.

The bride wore a white Victorian style empire gown with long satin train with lace. She carried a cascade of white carnations with yellow roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Thomas Carlton Babineaux, sister-in-law of the bride. Bridesmaids were Michaell Davie, Mrs. Joseph Babineaux, Jr., Dana Booth, Ella Louise Booth, Karen Mhire and Linda Canik. Flower girls were Dana Richard and Lana Hebert. Rice girl was Cheryl Miller.

Best man was Louis Canik. Groomsmen were Earl K. Booth Jr., Joseph Babineaux Jr., Kent Little, Walter Wainwright, Pat Pinch and Thomas Carlton Babineaux. Altar boys were Arnold Jones, Jr., Eugene Paul Jones, Ricky Canik and Leslie Miller.

The organist was Mark Marceaux.

The groom's mother wore a pleated dress of soft pink knit with white accessories and a comage of white carnations. The bride's mother wore an aqua dress with a white coat and a corsage of yellow carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding, at the Sturlese American Legion Hall in Grand Chenier. Members of the house party were Mrs. Evans Mhire, Mrs. Gilford Miller, Mrs. Mamie Richard, Mrs. Ronald Juneau, Mrs. Phillip Trosclair, Mrs. Swinford Baccigalopi and Mrs. Mary Jo Canik.

Bastendess were Phillip Trosclair, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Richard and Melvin Theriot.

The bride is a graduate of LaGrange Sr. High and attended McNeese. The groom is a graduate of South Cameron High School and also attended McNeese State University.

The couple is at home in Grand Chenier where the groom is employed by Crain Brothers.

Engagement announced

Brenda Codette is the bride-elect of Lionel Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Robert of New Iberia. Her engagement is announced by her mother Mrs. Angeline Gause of Cameron. The betrothed couple plans to be wed Dec. 18 at 11 a.m. in the St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church.

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

As with everything else, the speech -- common expression and the pronunciation of words -- of a people changes with the passing of time.

I can remember the way my great-grandfather pronounced the names of several towns. Since he said them differently from the way my grandparents did, I concluded that he had grown too old to know any better. Long afterwards I discovered that "Old Pa," as he had taught us to call him, was using the original pronunciations: Galvestown, Shreve's Port, Mermentau (accent on first syllable). He always said New Orleanz (Orleans) with the accent on the last syllable. And that was his own version of it.

Old Pa held in contempt any man who waited to be conscripted (drafted) when his country needed soldiers. He, himself, had been one of the first volunteers in the Civil War.

He believed that victles (victuals, food) should be well cooked. He saw no reason for anyone to "piddle" at his work, although he loved to "dabble" with his.

My own grandfather never said "thank you," always "much obliged." He did not like for people to act "stuck up." Since he ran a general merchandise store and bought hides and skins, he was often forced to "dicker" over products.

He fixed fences (never mended them); used sawhosses (instead of horses); kept milk cows (not milch); and sawed the long sharp tips of horns off so that cattle could not hook (never gote) one another.

He called a mixed collection of sheep, cattle, horses, even people a "cabbleyard," clearly a corruption of the Spanish word, caballada. He termed a young man who held an unusually high opinion of himself a "whippersnapper," and he built chicken "coops" with "oo's" like those in "books." Our French neighbor used "oo's" like the ones in "scoop."

Young men leaving home to seek employment packed their duds (clothes) in grips (suitcases) and hit the road (traveled on).

Cameron people worked from sun-up (never dawn nor sunrise) till sun-down (occasionally sunset). They recognized dusk (not twilight); acknowledged daylight; preferred "middle of the night" to midnight.

Mattresses were identified according to their contents, thusly: feather beds, moss mattresses, cornhusk ticks.

The "backhouse" became a "privy," and then was graduated to an "outdoor toilet."

Females of any designation might conceivably become "in the family way" (never pregnant).

In those days people did not arise and retire; they "got up" and "went to bed."

They wore "specs" (not glasses); used a caseknife (table knife); visited the graveyard (cemetery); and sometimes got "riled up." They pronounced "calm" and "palm" to rhyme with "Sam."

The animals that they butchered had entrails (not intestines). A beef furnished tallow; a hog, lard; and a sheep, suet. Other animals, such as a coon or an alligator, supplied grease (long "e" and an "s" sound). Any of the aforementioned fats might be used to grease (with the "s" turning into a "z" sound) an article.

Farmers planted punkins (not pumpkins) and pindars (rarely were they called peanuts). Some called them goobers, a word found in the dictionary, or a corruption of it, goobles (not dictionary-acquainted).

Young misses primped before looking glasses (not mirrors). The English-speaking ladies owned dressers and clothespresses; those of French origin possessed bureaus and armoires.

And all were willing to "pitch in" and help a neighbor in "a tight."

Grand Lake Sweetlake News

By EDDIE MAE FAULK

A bridal shower honoring Miss Jennifer LaCombe of Hayes was held in the Catholic hall in Big Lake on Sunday, Nov. 21.

The door prizes were won by Mrs. George Duhon and Miss Jeanette Trahan.

Engagement announced

Mr. and Mrs. Arceneaux January, Sr. of Cameron announce the engagement of their daughter, Aline to Barry Drullhet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hebert Drullhet of Baldwin.

The couple will wed at 5 p.m. Jan. 1, 1972, in the Macedonia Baptist Church.

CAMERON ELEMENTARY 4-H'ers, left to right, Michael LeBoeuf, James Wilkerson, and Roosevelt Fountain accompanied by Wayne Kershaw represented their group in delivering food boxes to three Cameron families for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Holly honored

Mrs. Jerry Jones of Cameron and Mrs. Glen Alexander of Baton Rouge, were hostesses at a recent rice flower party and luncheon honoring Miss Lynda Claire Holly of Bastrop, bride-elect of Deluse F. Doucet Jr. of Kaplan. The party was held in the home of Mrs. Alexander.

The buffet table centerpiece was made from an arrangement of dried rice shocks and orange and yellow mums.

The guest book table was decorated with a rice tree shade with rice rose buds of the bride's chosen colors of cranberry and moss green.

Following lunch, the guests fashioned rice buds, made from cranberry tule and moss green pipe stems and rose petals. The rice buds were filled with unpolished rice, in keeping with the bride-elect's theme of simplicity.

The honoree was presented a serving piece of her chosen silver flatware and the decorated rice tree.

The wedding of Miss Holly and Mr. Doucet is slated for Dec. 22 at the First United Methodist Church in Bastrop.

Mr. Riggs

WHEN THE PEOPLE OF WARD 6 ASK THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS, WHAT ANSWERS DO YOU GIVE?

Do you use the parish truck in your private business as a delivery vehicle?

Did you or did you not use the parish truck to haul your produce from Houston to Lake Charles last summer?

Why does Ward 6 have to have such an expensive parish truck, with all the accessories when the other jurors seem to operate efficiently with less expensive and older trucks?

Isn't it true that you have used this truck to go to out-of-town nightclubs and to ballgames?

Considering that you have built a $65,000 home, your assessment has dropped from $7530 in 1959, to the present rate of $5860. How was this accomplished?

If you are impartial, why do some people get shell on their driveways and others don't? Isn't it strange that the parking area in front of your store is always kept in good condition while some businesses never seem to get shell.

What is your stand on a sewerage system for Hackberry? Do you tell some people you are for a sewerage system, and others that you are not?

Isn't it true that you have used parish equipment and workers to do work at your residence?

IF YOU THE CITIZENS OF WARD 6 WANT A CHANGE TO FAIR AND IMPARTIAL REPRESENTATION VOTE FOR:

John R. (Bud) Rollins

#213 Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated. #213

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION
CAMERON PARISH SCHOOL BOARD

By virtue of and in conformity with the provisions of Sections 151 through 158 of Title 30 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, as amended, sealed bids will be received at the office of the Cameron Parish School Board at Cameron, Louisiana on or before the 17th day of December, 1971, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., for a lease covering the oil, gas, sulphur, potash and/or other liquid and gaseous hydrocarbon mineral rights in, to and under the following described property, to-wit:

The East One-half (E/2) of Section 16, Township 14 South, Range 7 West, Cameron Parish, Louisiana, estimated to contain approximately 320 acres, all more fully shown outlined in red on a plat on file with the Cameron Parish School Board.

All bids to offer a cash bonus for a lease having a primary term which shall not exceed three years. Minimum royalties shall be one-fifth (1/5) of all oil and gas produced and saved; twenty cents ($. 20) per ton for potash produced and saved; one-fifth (1/5) of all other minerals produced and saved.

Any lease granted hereunder shall be on the regular current State Agency form and shall be subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board of Louisiana.

Certified checks, payable to the Cameron Parish School Board for the full amount of the cash bonus, shall accompany and be submitted with each bid, and no bid thus submitted may be thereafter withdrawn or cancelled, and the certified check accompanying the bid of the successful bidder shall be forfeited to the Cameron Parish School Board. The successful bidder to whom the lease is awarded on the date of the lease sale shall return the written lease, duly executed, within twenty (20) days after his receipt of same.

The Cameron Parish School Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to grant a lease on any portion of the tract advertised for a price not less than proportionate to the best bid offered for the lease on the entire tract.

TO THE PEOPLE OF HACKBERRY AND WARD 6:

I wish to take this opportunity on behalf of my wife and children and myself to thank this community for having been so kind through the years in making our business highly successful. By your patronage in purchasing appliances, hardware and groceries, you have helped us in many ways.

In return, my wife and I feel that we have a civic responsibility and owe you something in return. We have tried to express this appreciation by working to accomplish many improvements in order that you, our supporters, may in some way enjoy a better standard of living.

I do not intend to smear my opponent, Mr. Rollins, in any way, but wish him the best.

If you continue to express your faith in me, as you have in the past, I will continue to do my very best to improve things for you. Remember, if this community goes forward, we all have something to gain. If this community goes backward, we all have a great deal to lose.

So, in conclusion, I wish to thank you again for making my business highly successful in order that I may have the time and energy to serve you.

Respectively Submitted,

The Riggs Family

Jury asks hearing on nutria season here

The Cameron police jury voted Tuesday to ask the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries commission to hold a public hearing in Cameron parish next year prior to setting the 1972-73 nutria season.

The action was taken in response to protests from local trappers, fur dealers and meat buyers over the postponement of the opening of the nutria season this year. (See other stories on this page.)

A. H. (Sono) Crain of Grand Chenier, owner of much trapping grounds in the parish, said that the nutria were ruining the marsh, eating all the vegetation and turning the marsh into lakes.

He said that the nutrias were damaging muskrat grounds, the feed for ducks and geese and cattle ranges. He said that trapping was needed now to help reduce the population of the rodent.

Crain also stated that many trappers had quit other jobs to begin trapping at the first of December, and that the postponement would cause them much loss.

Jerry Jones, secretary of the police jury and also chairman of the Louisiana Wildlife Commission, gave the background for the postponement of the season.

He said that it was done to insure that the state could furnish $2.1 million pounds of nutria meat for the U. S. Department of Agriculture later in the month.

Jones, who had offered an unsuccessful amendment to the commission's ruling allowing the season to open early in Cameron, Vermilion and Jeff Davis parish, said he was in sympathy with the plight of the Cameron trappers, but said that the commission was looking at the matter on a state-wide basis.

Nutria season is delayed til 15th

The Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission has postponed opening of the nutria trapping season from Dec. 1 until Dec. 15. The action was taken at the regular public meeting of the commission held in New Orleans.

On Monday, Dec. 6, at the request of Jerry C. Jones, chairman of the commission and a resident of Cameron, a hearing was held on the postponement.

Jones told the commission that the postponement would work a hardship on many of the trappers of Cameron parish who had already left other jobs to begin trapping.

However, a motion by Jones to allow the season to open Dec. 1 in Cameron, Vermilion and Calcasieu parishes died for a want of a second.

Reason for the postponement, according to commission director Clark M. Hoffman, is that nutria populations statewide are down as a result of hurricanes along the gulf coast in recent years; and that granting of a federal contract for the purchase of 2,150,000 pounds of nutria meat to be used in a screw worm eradication program would not be let until Dec. 13 and could not be feasibly effective until Dec. 15.

The screw worm eradication program is being carried out along the border of the United States and Mexico. Nutria meat supplies the protein necessary in the rearing of screw worm fly larvae. Adult sterile flies are released in a 200-mile wide strip along the Mexican bories, providing a buffer zone preventing screw worm flies from entering the United States from Mexico and infecting cattle, deer and other forms of wildlife.

The screw worm flies reared in the program are sterilized with a cobalt treatment, Hoffpauer said. Since screw worms breed only once during their lifetime, this is one of those unique situations where biological control of harmful insects has proved successful.

The action of the commission, he said, will result in nutria pelts being in a prime condition when harvested starting Dec. 15 and result in a firmer market, benefiting the state's trappers and landowners.

The postponement of the nutria trapping season, he said, does not in any way affect the regular trapping season set for other furbearing animals earlier in the year by the commission, starting Dec. 1.

Motion fails

The Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission declined Monday to change the start of the nutria trapping season which it had postponed from Dec. 1 to Dec. 15.

The commission held a special meeting to hear opponents of the delay, principally from Cameron Parish. The opponents said that if the delay was justified for other sections of the state, the parishes of Calcasieu, Cameron and Vermilion should have been exempt.

Ted O'Neil, chief of the commission's fur division, recommended a split season with trapping to start immediately in the three parishes and to be delayed elsewhere in the state.

Jerry Jones, chairman of the commission, moved adoption of O'Neil's recommendation but it failed to receive a second.

The commission delayed the opening of the season because of a declining nutria population due to storms and because of the granting of a federal contract to buy 2.1 million pounds of nutria meat to use in a screw worm eradication program. The contract for the purchase will not be awarded until Dec. 13 and cannot become effective until Dec. 15.

Courthouse to be painted, repaired

Bids on repairing, remodeling and repainting the Cameron parish courthouse will be received by the police jury at the Jan. 4 meeting.

Police Jury President W. F. Henry, Jr., said that walls inside the building would be repaired and repainted and that the outside of the building also would be painted if bids were acceptable.

Remodeling of some of the offices so as to give the clerk of court more office space also was discussed.

The possibility of seeking a federal grant for the construction of a new building for the sheriff's department and jail was mentioned.

Police Jury Lyle Crain asked for construction of a new 3 1/4-mile road in the King's Bayou area which would provide a shorter route between East Creole and Little Chenier. The jury agreed to start the planning work on the project.

A new road for the Hackberry area also was approved for planning.

The jury's 1972 budget was approved with revenues and expenditures of $38,329,250 set for the general fund and $235,000 for the road and bridge fund.

Treasurer Garner Nunez said that the general fund budget had been increased by $12,000 over last year due to an increase in the tobacco tax. The other budget will remain the same.

It was also noted that Cameron Parish's assessment had decreased by about $3,000 this year, the first decrease in about 12 years.

Little Miss to be named Friday

The Cameron Parish Development Association will hold the annual Little Miss Cameron Parish contest Friday, Dec. 10, at 7 p.m. at the Cameron Elementary school auditorium in Cameron.

The contestants are:

Grand Chenier - Barbie Duncan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Duncan, escorted by Timothy McCall, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny McCall.

Cameron - Becky Conner, the daughter of Mrs. Bernice Lalande and Terry Conner, escorted by Dean Desonnier, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carell Miller.

Hackberry - Toni Dennis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dennis, escorted by Sterling Constance, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Constance.

Grand Lake - Cheryl Bellard, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bellard, escorted by Ricky Crador, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crador.

The Creole and Johnson Bayou princesses and escorts have not yet been selected.

Entertainment will be provided by children of the parish.

Creole and Grand Chenier children will offer musical selections under the direction of Wayne Woods. Hackberry will offer twirling routines, and several dancers from the Cameron class of the Cissy Clark school of dancing will perform.

The new queen will be crowned by Miss Connie Pool, Cameron's 1971 Little Miss Cameron Parish.

Admission of 50¢ for adults and 25¢ for children will be charged.

"Citizen of the Year" Award is presented

A Hackberry mother and community worker, Mrs. Margaret Shove, was named "Citizen of the Year" and presented the citizenship award by Commander Ladd Wainwright of the Cameron VFW Post No. 10,019, Saturday night.

The Gold Star Mothers were paid special tribute by overseas veterans of Doxey-Vincent Post through its commander and nearly 200 guests who attended the 12th annual banquet to honor the dedicated citizens of the parish.

Gold Star Mothers attending were Mrs. Mathilda Doxey, whose son is memorialized in the post name and whose military decorations were on display at the banquet; Mrs. Nita Williamson, Mrs. Clopha Baccigalopi, Mrs. Christina Nunez and Mrs. Ezora Provost.

Mrs. Susan Watts accepted an award for her father, G. B. Romegay, who often financially aided students to obtain higher educations, and Mrs. Ethel LaBove accepted one for the late Dewey LaBove for his civic activities and his work on remodeling the VFW home.

LaBove, a charter member of the post, was a past commander, and Romegay was a former member. Both died during the past year.

The immediate past post commander and past Auxiliary president also were honored by their respective district leaders.

Fifth District Commander Eugene Eddy of DeRidder presented a gold lapel button of the past office to Ray Stevens and District President, Mrs. Ellis McWhirter presented the past Auxiliary president's pin to Mrs. Azelia Mier.

The Rev. A. W. Coody, pastor of the Wakefield Memorial Methodist Church, delivered a "Tribute to Those in the Service," In citing their devotion to home, country and God, he reminded the audience of the freedoms enjoyed by the citizenry.

Robert Farley, oil company official, was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Alcide Sonnier, pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church, one of the nominees for the citizenship award, said the benediction.

Insurance upped

Small business concerns in communities in Louisiana are now eligible for increased amounts of flood insurance protection on their small businesses due to the completion of actuarial rate studies under the National Flood Insurance Program.

The program is administered and funded in accordance with requirements established by the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development in cooperation with the private insurance industry.

Cameron parish is affected by the ruling.

Damage from flooding is not covered in standard property insurance policies.

When the Emergency program was first introduced in these areas, flood coverage was available only in amounts of $30,000 for small business buildings, and $5,000 for each contents unit at rates subsidized by the federal government.

The Regular program, which became effective Nov. 19, 1971, enables private insurance agents and brokers to offer additional amounts on existing properties over these base amounts, not to exceed $60,000 for small business buildings, and $10,000 for contents. This additional coverage will be offered throughout the entire eligible area at the usually high actuarial rates.

Sheriff thanked

The boys who participated in the parish football program wish to thank Sheriff Eagleson for again donating the trophies to the 1st and 2nd place teams in each division.

This year he also donated individual trophies to each member of the first and second place team in each division. So, in speaking for all of the boys, their coaches and parents, we thank you very much.

Dyson protests season delay

Alvin Dyson, representative of Miami Corporation, the largest owner of fur-producing lands in Cameron Parish, gave this statement in connection with the decision of the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission to delay the opening of the nutria trapping season until Dec. 15, 1971.

"The local trappers have suffered a severe economic setback as a result of this decision. Our trappers have had no income for several weeks preceding December 1st, while they were preparing for the season. By arbitrarily delaying the season for fifteen days until December 15, the Commission keeps the trappers from making a living for more than a month.

"There was absolutely no basis for not opening the season on time in Cameron Parish. The market for the fur is good and so is the market for the meat. The Commission's decision is based on the fact that a major nutria meat buyer in eastern Louisiana did not want the season opened. His interest in the nutria meat market would not affect Cameron Parish this year. And, besides, a basic truth in the fur industry is that the meat is unimportant when compared with the fur. Any trapper would tell you that he would throw the meat away rather than be denied the right to take the fur. An average nutria produces a pelt worth $2.50 while the meat on that same nutria will average 15¢.

"At a special meeting of the Commission to reconsider their decision held in New Orleans last Monday, I, John Paul Crain and District Attorney Frank Salter attended in order to speak on behalf of the Cameron Parish trappers. Not one of the qualified witnesses who spoke before the Commission opposed opening of the season in Southwest Louisiana. Economic and biological consideration were voiced and all supported the scheduled opening of the season. Despite that, the Commission chose to ignore the advice of the spokesman and did not even take a vote on the issue.

"To add to the plight of the trappers, the high water has forced the nutrias unto high ground where they are being poached (taken illegally) with ease. The trappers who make a living taking nutria are bound to wait until December 15th, to trap, while the outlaws have a hey-day cleaning out the nutria crop."

Coach Baron Thomas

Thomas, Tarps on 4-AA team

Coach Baron Thomas was named "best coach" in district 4-AA and four of his District Champion South Cameron high school Tarpons were named to all district teams this week.

In the voting of Louisiana Sports Writers Association these Tarpons made the 4-AA All-District Team:

D. L. Brasseaux, 6 foot, 170 pound tackle.

Cedrick Hebert, 6 foot, 1 inch, 195 pound guard.

James Boudreaux, center, and Bobby Boudreaux, back, made the second team.

Bobby Boudreaux also made the third team as a linebacker.

Thomas, in his first year as head coach at South Cameron, led the team to a 9-3-1 record and the state quarterfinals.

The Tarpons finished 8-1 in league play to win their first district championship since 1967.

Grand opening set by store

Cameron's Western Auto Store, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mouton, will hold the grand opening of its new eastside location Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

There will be free gifts for the whole family and everyone is invited to register for a recliner chair and Western Flyer bike.

A special supplement to this issue of the Pilot contains a host of special values for the sale.

The store's downtown location will continue to operate and will feature a complete line of furniture.

Fontenot heads campaign here

The J. Bennett Johnston campaign began on a parish level in Cameron Parish this week. H. Ward Fontenot of Cameron was appointed to head the campaign.

Fontenot said that Johnston was virtually unknown in Cameron Parish in the first primary and this accounts for his poor parish showing. The campaign objective is to acquaint the people of Cameron Parish with the candidate and his qualifications.

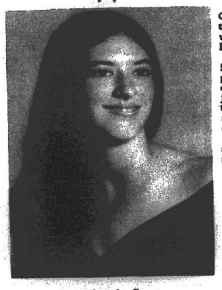
"The impressive surge of popularity that Johnston experienced in the first primary is easily explained when people discover what a capable and honest young man he is. Further, the establishment of a separate campaign for us down here shows that Johnston recognizes that Cameron Parish is a unique place with a unique set of problems," added Fontenot.

Fontenot said that anyone interested in securing literature or helping the Johnston campaign should contact him at his home or office in Cameron.

Santa to visit in Creole Tues.

The Richard Bros. Post Ladies Auxiliary of Creole will host a visit from Santa Claus for the children of the community Tuesday, Dec. 14, at 7 p.m., according to Mrs. Preston Richard, president.

Santa will pass out candy to the children and refreshments will be served. The children of the community are invited to come see Santa and each will have a chance to talk to him.



Yolanda Seay

Miss Seay goes to 4-H Congress

Yolanda Seay of Hackberry spent last week at the 50th national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Ill.

Yolanda, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oran Seay, is a senior at Hackberry High School and has been in 4-H for seven years.

She received the expense-paid trip because of her outstanding records in overall 4-H achievement. During her seven years in 4-H, she has worked in 20 projects with major emphasis in leadership, citizenship, clothing, public speaking, livestock and veterinary programs.

She has been named the Outstanding 4-H Girl in her parish for four years and has been a state winner in 4-H Achievement, Rabbit Records and Seed Rice Essay Contest. She has served as a club officer for her local 4-H Club for the last four years and now holds the office of president of her club.

Yolanda is very active in all the livestock programs, showing animals in the parish, district and state shows where she has received many awards. It is through her interest and work in these programs that she has chosen to enter the field of Veterinary Medicine upon completion of her high school work.

Yule program

The Christmas program given by the fourth, fifth and sixth grade students of South Cameron Elementary school will be presented Thursday, Dec. 16, at 7 p.m., according to Adam Conner, principal.

It will be held in the school auditorium and the public is invited to attend.

SS visitor

A representative of the Social Security office in Lake Charles will be at the voting building, Cameron, at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 21, for the purpose of assisting with social security matters.

The visit will be made only if one or more appointments are scheduled in advance of the date. The office may be contacted by mail at Box 1587, Lake Charles, or telephone 478-0220.

Mrs. Brown's Avon collection is shown

The Cameron library has featured displays of bottles from the collections of different Cameron parish residents all summer. This week a display is being featured of Avon bottles collected by Mrs. Frank Brown of Cameron.

Mrs. Brown has over 100 different bottles in her Avon collection. She limits her collection of bottles to only the Avons. Most of her bottles are no longer offered by the company.

The Avon company was founded in 1886 and is the largest cosmetics company in the United States. An Avon bottle collector must know something about the company's policies to be as effective as possible in gathering these containers.

Bottles usually are sold on a regular basis for about six months and then taken off the market. Sometimes they are re-issued as specials at a later date. Sometimes they are never re-issued, the mold is destroyed.

The bottles are usually quite elaborate and are designed by the company's packaging group. All containers are produced in the East by various glass manufacturers with all of each type being made by a single manufacturer. The completed containers are shipped to and filled in various parts of the country. At least one third of the company's total line of bottles is redesigned each year, giving the collector quite a variety to collect.

The major characteristic of these bottles is their shape. They are almost always figurals, including a clock, gun, stein, bell, steer horns (which Mrs. Brown holds in her hand), barrel, duck, dagger, automobiles, a dolphin, boots, horse, key, pipe, book, etc.

In addition to having unusual shapes, these bottles are colorful. Some of the colors are flashed on clear glass and can be scratched off, and some are actually colored glass.

As a rule, embossments and closures are of little consequence on these contemporary containers. Embossments are practically non-existant, and the closures are standard threaded types. Quite often, however, the cap of these bottles will be part of the entire shape.

Mrs. Brown's interesting collection will remain on display at the Cameron library for several weeks.

Mrs. Coral Lee Perry said the public is invited to come by and view it, also to check out some of the many books on collecting bottles that are available at the local library.

Gospel singing to be held

A gospel singing at North Cameron Parish United Pentecostal Church is set for Friday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p. m.

Hershel Frazier and his string band from DeQuincy will be featured singers. Local talent will also be presented.

The pastor, Rev. Curtis C. Burnett, invites everyone to attend.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

By ELORA MONTIE

The main topic of Grand Chenier folks for the past few days was rain, more rain and high water.

This affects hunters, because the water is so high in marshes. The ducks will not be able to feed and will be going to higher ground.

The trappers are affected as grass and feeding for fur bearing animals are under water and it causes a handship for trappers in finding places to set traps.

For cattlemen, the grazing lands are much under water. Much hay is being used now until the water recedes.

A speedy get well wish to Mrs. Leo Savoie of Cameron who underwent surgery in New Orleans hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dupuis, Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Primeaux of Creole, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Mhire and Mr. and Mrs. Gus LaSalle of Sulphur enjoyed a night at their camp in the north marsh Saturday night. Mr. LaSalle had four rod and reels in his boat near the camp Saturday night. Sunday morning he found the rod and reels missing from the spot he had put them. Beginning to look for them, he found the rod and reels on the floor of the boat with two of the lines hanging in the water. He pulled the lines up and found a drowned opposum with two hooks in his mouth.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Watkin Miller and Dinah and Mrs. Adolph Swire spent Saturday visiting relatives in Bon Wire and Newton, Tex. The Millers visited Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, an aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Love and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fuller, all of Texas, while Mrs. Swire spent the day with Mrs. Clyde Swire and children in Lake Charles.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Boudreaux of Creole spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Watkin Miller.

Mrs. Angeline Mhire, Mrs. Corine Canik, and Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Canik attended the wedding of Robbie L. Bates and Mary Ruth Urbanovsky in Houston, Tex., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hebert of Crowley spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Edmond Bertrand.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Thibodeaux of Lake Arthur visited relatives here last Sunday.

Visiting Mrs. Charles Richard for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richard of Lake Charles and the Martin Richard family of New Orleans.

Mrs. Joe Sturlese had visiting her for a few days the Loveles Theriot family and Mrs. Edna Theriot of Port Neches, Tex.

Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Gilford Miller and Cheryl and Mrs. Edmond Bertrand drove to Lake Arthur to spend Friday and Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Thibodeaux. They were joined Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. Evans Mhire and Glenn Richard and Judy.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Adam Miller and Whitney Miller spent the day with the Clark family and Mrs. Joe Miller.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bult of Lake Charles visited the Roy Clark family and Mrs. Joe Miller here.

Mrs. Corrine Granger and Richard Wayne Granger spent a few days with Mrs. Clodia Miller and family. Richard Wayne was on his way back to California to join his crew with the Marines. Mrs. Granger went back to her home in Pensacola, Fla., with her father Droxan Miller of Lake Charles. Mrs. Granger plans to come back to spend Christmas with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Richard, Jr., returned Sunday from New Orleans where they spent some time with his mother in the hospital where she underwent surgery Thursday.

Float planned by 4-H club

Dolores Davis was appointed chairman of the float committee of the South Cameron Elementary 4-H club for the Fur Festival parade. Serving with her will be Karen Theriot, Angela Mudd, Richard Duhon and Andy Vaughan.

Patrick Primeaux, club president reported that Thanksgiving baskets had been delivered to two families.

A skit "Ding-A-Ling Bandit" was presented by Lisa Stewart, Arlene Miller, Angela Mudd, Dolores Davis, and Karen Theriot.

Livestock project reports were given by Phillip Nunez and Brian Theriot. A clothing report was given by Lisa Stewart.

Uland Guidry, 4-H agent, introduced Sgt. Chris Haman, Safet Public Education Officer with the Louisiana State Police, who showed a film on bicycle safety and car accidents.

Athletic group has meeting

The Cameron Junior Athletic Association met Dec. 3 at the Cameron Elementary library. Jerry Jones presided, Cassel Miller, treasurer, was given authority to pay the bills of the football season after a surplus was realized.

The association agreed to express their appreciation to the coaches, mothers and the Sheriff Department for their cooperation.

They also agreed to give a cash fund to the coaches and small trophies to the football players and cheerleaders along with the pep squad.

It was agreed that the association would pay for basketball uniforms already purchased and would take care of admissions and concessions for the basketball games. It was reported by the coaches that all but seven uniforms had been turned in from football.

Those present agreed to meet again in January.

VOTE FOR Lon Tyndall

State Representative # 104

The Wild Life and Fisheries Commission Dec. 6 completely ignored the recommendations of their professional biologists and held firm to what was obviously a politically motivated decision.

I will see to it that the trapping industry is guaranteed the trapping season necessary to their survival and benefit and does not have to suffer from political favoritism which comes at the whim of appointed officials.

You can respect Lon Tyndall. We need that respect. Let's return Lon Tyndall to the Legislature.

ELECT LON TYNDALL

State Representative

(Paid for by Lon Tyndall)

TO THE PEOPLE OF HACKBERRY AND WARD 6:

I have been a member of the Cameron Parish Police Jury for a period of 11 1/2 years and during this time have never missed a regular monthly meeting.

This means that you have had someone representing you at all times during the period I have served in office.

Beware of people who would represent special interest groups, because this could hurt you.

Think of the qualifications and experience of the man you will elect to serve you in government.

It is important that you elect an independent candidate who is not controlled by any individuals or special interest groups.

For continued progress and a man who will fight for the people, go to the polls Dec. 18 and reelect C. A. Riggs.

Go to 4-H leaders meet

Four Cameron Parish 4-H leaders, accompanied by Uland Guidry, Jr., Associate County Agent, attended a District Adult Leader Training Meeting held in Lafayette recently.

Attending from Cameron Parish were Wayne Kershaw, Cameron, Mrs. Mervin Chesson, Sweet Lake and Mrs. Clifford Myers and Mrs. Sidney Savoie, Creole.

Approximately 100 leaders from the surrounding parishes attended the one day conference held in Girard Park.

Some of the topics discussed included leadership roles and responsibilities; 4-H Records; planning a club program.

The conference was sponsored by the Freeport Sulphur Company in cooperation with the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service.

Back row - Jessie Holder of Freeport Sulphur Company, Uland Guidry, Jr., Associate County Agenty, Cameron, and C. S. Shirley, State 4-H Club Leader.

Army pays soldiers better than in past

"...you'll never get rich digging a ditch, you're in the Army now..."

Those words, by Irving Berlin, don't hold much weight anymore.

Not only is the Army developing an automatic for hole digger, but pay has been increased to the point that a new private makes as much money, if not more, than a young man or woman starting his first civilian job.

Under the new pay bill passed by Congress, which went into effect 15 Nov. '71, privates in the Army start off at $268. 50 a month. And, according to Sergeant Richard C. Lee, local Army Recruiter, through rapid promotions, it's possible for a soldier to be promoted to E4 and make as much as $323. 40 a month within 12 months of entering service.

And, in addition to the pay, all enlisted men get free room and board. "That's worth quite a bit of money, too," Sgt. Lee explained.

The increase in Army pay is part of the Government's program to make the Army a more attractive place at which to work. "Basically, we look upon the Army as our place of work," Sgt. Lee said. "Each man has a job to do, and when it's quitting time, he leaves his job and his time is his own."

Sgt. Lee explained that most of the Army is now on a five day work week, and that reveille formations have been cut out. "Now, all a man must do is be at his job on time, just as in the civilian business world."

Living conditions have also improved. At many posts, soldiers have semi-private rooms, as opposed to the old barracks of World War II vintage. Dining facilities have changed, too. Soldiers eat at small tables, off dishes instead of trays, and usually have a choice of entree, dessert, and appetizer. For those who do not want full meals, there are dining rooms that offer hamburgers, sloppy Joes, and pizza at many posts.

Sports and recreation facilities are being expanded, too. Most Army posts have swimming pools, golf courses, tennis courts, full gymnasiums, flying and sky diving clubs, arts and crafts centers, and many other recreational facilities. "And, of course, the post exchanges and commissaries enable servicemen and their families to get even more for their dollar," Sgt. Lee said.

Sgt. Lee also explained that the Army is permitting men to pick locations where they would like to serve. "We have programs where men can pick areas in the United States, and other parts of the world where they would like to serve," he said. "Of course, some of the more popular locations such as Europe and Hawaii are not always available, but most of the time we can accommodate enlistees."

"Virtually every man or woman who enters the Army as an enlistee receives a written guarantee of some form," Sgt. Lee said. "It might be a guarantee assuring the assignment location, or the training he desires. And, we stand behind that written guarantee."

As Sgt. Lee said, "A World War II veteran would never recognize today's Army. In 1941, privates only made $21 a month. Today's Army isn't what the Army used to be."

For further information regarding enlisting in the Army or other aspects of Army life, contact Sgt. Lee at the Federal Post Office Building, Lake Charles, or call him collect at 439-9190.

County Agent Report

By CLIFFORD MYERS

Ryegrass in Need of Moisture - In spite of our recent shower, generally speaking, the ryegrass in many cases has reached a critical stage. However, a little more rain would make a tremendous difference in a short period. Remember! Avoid overstocking your ryegrass early in the year.

A well-fertilized pasture with an accumulation of 8-10 inches of growth can support a total of 600 pounds of live weight per acre at the start. At the start it will look as if there is too much grass but the growth will diminish during the winter.

There are several good winter pastures in the parish at this time. The Cox's have excellent oat field in the Sweetlake area.

Control Cattle Lice - Now is the time to act and avoid your cattle from being robbed of their blood. One cow that is heavily infested with lice can lose up to 1/4 pound of weight gain per day.

Most cattle herds have some cows with lice on them now. These lice will spread to the other cattle and develop into a severe infestation during the winter unless the beef herd is prayed with one of the following recommended insecticides: Co-Ral, Delnav, Korlan, Malathion and Methoxychlor. Read the label and follow the instructions on how to use.

Lice reproduce very fast. The eggs are attached to the cattle hair and hatch in one week. They start feeding on the cow soon after hatching and are mature adults in another two weeks. Some cows are so weakened that they cannot survive the winter.

Select Bulls Early - If you are in the market for bulls next year, better start looking.

When selecting a bull, take a look at the performance records. Yearling weight is one of the most important performance traits. Selection for yearling weight will also improve weaning weight, feed efficiency and muscling. The bull contributes 80 percent or more of the genetic change in a herd. In a herd of females, 87 percent of the genetic makeup is the result of the last three generations of bulls used.

Fireblight in Pears - This is a very serious disease of pear trees in the parish and seems to have increased this past year. The orient variety which could be classified as an eating pear and the pineapple considered a canning pear are the two most resistance varieties available.

For control of this disease, cut 12 to 15 inches below affected tissue, dipping pruning tool in 10% chlorox solution between cuts at this time of the year. Then start spraying during blossoming with Bordeaux Mixture when about 10% of the blooms are open and repeat at 5 to 7 day intervals until blooms are over. Do a thorough job at spraying, that is, spray the whole tree until the spray runs off the tree.

Soybeans - Demand for soybeans continues strong and the new crop now being harvested will move at high prices. Storage of soybeans this year may be profitable as it will take relatively strong prices next spring and summer to ration out tight supplies.

Watch your pears

Don't let pears turn brown! It ruins their taste as well as their looks. U.S. Department of Agriculture home economists say to dip cut fresh pears in orange or lemon juice just after cutting.

Judging to be held at Creole

Judging of the Creole Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by the Creole Home Demonstration Club, will take place Monday, Dec. 20, starting at 6:30 p.m., according to Mrs. Clifford Myers, chairman. Mrs. Myers asks that residents wishing to enter the contest have their outside Christmas lights turned on by 6:30 p.m.

The contest will take in from Jim Daigle's corner coming eastward on the Creole-Cameron highway through Creole, East Creole, Murlere, and ending with the Clopha Bacciglaopi's residence at the canal.

Winners in the two categories, overall decoration and door decoration, will be notified by phone that same night. There will be three prizes awarded in each category.

This year winners will be asked to keep their decorations intact for at least three or four days following the contest so as to give the public a chance to view them.

For many, many centuries glowing candles, symbols of warmth and joy, have played an important part in the observance of Christmas. It is fitting, since the deepest meaning of the season represents Christ as the Light of the world.

The first use of candles for Christmas is not recorded anywhere. An old legend that surrounds the custom is believed to have originated in Ireland. According to it, the "Christ Child Candle" was burned in windows to light His way if He visited earth. It was also lighted in atonement for the night of His birth when there was no room in the Inn for Him.

It was believed by the Irish that the "Christ Child Candle" could be snuffed out only by someone named Mary.

"Who knows," they said, "on some Christmas Eve Jesus and Mary and Joseph may come again--not to Palestin--but to the Holy Isle on the farthest edge of Europe."

From Germany there comes a similar belief that Mary, accompanied by a band of angels, floats over the countryside each Christmas Eve. Candles are placed in the windows of the homes of Christians as a guide and an invitation to partake of the food that is traditionally set out for them.

An appealing story has been handed down from the Middle Ages, at which time any light, no matter how dim, was a prized and valuable possession.

The story tells of a shoemaker, who lived in a cottage on the edge of a village beside a deep, dark woods. Poor though he was, each night he placed his candle in a window to guide travelers. Despite wars, hardships, and illness -- by some miracle, some mysterious grace -- his light never wavered.

The villagers were inspired by his custom. During the Christmas season many of them began placing candles in their windows.

In medieval Europe, the custom arose of lighting a giant Christmas candle that would burn brightly till Twelfth Night.

Martin Luther is credited with having carried a fir tree into his home on Christmas Eve for his wife and children. To show them the glory of the night when Christ was born, he decorated the tree with lighted candles to represent stars.

In colonial days in our own country bayberry candles were used by the early settlers. It was believed that if the bayberry candle burned brightly and clearly throughout the Christmas season the coming year would be filled with luck and health.

When animal fat for making the candles was scarce, the colonists cut branches from bayberry trees and dipped them in wax for use as candles. When tallow candles became more plentiful, the bayberry remained as a traditional part of the Christmas observance.

In Cameron Parish -- even before its creation as such until the 1940's when electricity sparked its way there -- candles were an important part of Christmas decorations. Candles in pastel colors and fancy shapes with metal reflectors in matching colors or in gold or silver were used on Christmas trees. The trees were small young live-oaks or liveoak limbs until near the middle of the present century when fir and pines were imported.

Today electric lights have replaced candles on Christmas trees, but candles are still burned in homes and churches throughout the world. They are impressively used in altar services and in candlelight caroling . . . They are still symbols of warmth.

Camp Fire girls have campout

The Ta Wan Ka Camp Fire girls of Creole enjoyed a camp-out at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Clifford Myers, last weekend.

A candle ceremonial was held Saturday night. Each of the seven camp fire craftr was represented by a candle.

Each girl was presented the colorful honor beads she earned in the crafts by Mrs. Curtis Nunez, assistant guardian.

Girls who completed the requirements in the trail seeker rank are: Lisa Stewart, Roxanne Myers, Karen Theriot, Stephanie Montie, Ellen LaBove, Dianne Myers, and Dolorss Davis. Each received a certificate of rank and a trail seeker charm.

The girls popped corn and made "Somemores" (roasted marshmallows and melted chocolate bars on graham crackers).

After a night spent in bed rolls the girls cooked breakfast and cooked their noon meal.

Legion to hold supper

A holiday supper is planned by the Richard Bros. American Legion Post No. 176 and auxiliary for Tuesday night, Dec. 21, at 7 p. m. at the Post Home, according to Jules Dronet, commander. This will be held prior to the Christmas party for the Post and Auxiliary.

Bayou 4-H club has best meet

The award for the best 4-H club meeting in Cameron parish was presented to the Johnson Bayou Junior 4-H club for the second time. President Leslie Prescott accepted the certificate from Uland Guidry, 4-H club agent.

Plans were made to go Christmas caroling Dec. 15. The community project of making December hospital tray favors was discussed. They will be made by Timothy Istre, Robin Schaller, Tommy Istre and Penny Schaller.

The president reported that the toys for tots must be in by Dec. 13.

Reports on club projects were given by the following members: Fur Festival Float, Scotty Badon; Thanksgiving basket, Hallie Griffith; hospital favors, Paul Young, Citizenship Day, Penny Schaller. Michael Prescott gave a project report on gun safety.

Lighting contest announced

The Sweetlake Home Demonstration Club will again sponsor a Christmas lighting contest.

The categories will be first, second and third in best door and best outdoor with prizes for first places and ribbons for second and third.

Judging will take place Dec. 20 after dark.

Anyone living in an out of the way place please let Mrs. Albert Guidry know so no one will be left out.

The Sweetlake Home Demonstration Club will holds their annual Christmas party Dec. 13 at 6:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Albert Guidry.

All members are urged to attend and bring a guest. Sunshine sisters will be revealed.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
TO BE VOTED ON AT THE
GENERAL ELECTION
FEBRUARY 1, 1972

Pursuant to Article XXI, Section 1.B., of the Constitution of Louisiana, as last amended pursuant to Act 629 of 1968, the Secretary of State has determined that the following provision, municipalities or special districts, or combination of any five or fewer of any of these, are affected by the proposition contained in the following Act.

ACT NO. 181

Proposes an amendment in respect to Orleans Levee District, taxing authority.

Affects: ORLEANS PARISH

ACT No. 181

Senate Bill No. 7. By: Messrs. O'Keefe and Eagan.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new section to be designated as Section 2.1 thereof, to authorize the Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish, the proceeds of the tax, and of the sale of any bonds secured thereby, to be used solely to pay the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as the Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project and necessary incidental expenses in connection with such project; to authorize the issuance by the Board of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness and the pledging of the avails or proceeds of the tax, or any portion thereof, for the payment thereof; and to provide with respect to the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article XVI of the Constitution of Louisiana, to add thereto a new Section to be designated as Section 2.1 thereof, which shall read as follows:

§2.1 Orleans Levee District tax authorized; purposes; bonds; reimbursements by other districts or parishes

A. In addition to all other taxes heretofore authorized, the Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District, hereinafter referred to as the board, may levy an annual tax of two and one-half mills* on the dollar of all taxable property within the parish of Orleans, the proceeds of the tax and of the sale of any bonds secured hereby, as hereafter authorized, to be used solely and for no other purposes than to pay the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as the Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project and necessary incidental expenses in connection therewith, and to construct levees, levee drainage, flood protection and for other necessary incidental expenses in connection with such project.

B. In order to provide ready funds for the purposes for which the tax is authorized, the board may issue, sell and deliver, from time to time, bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness not exceeding seventy million dollars ($70,000,000.00) in aggregate principal amount to secure such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, the board may pledge and dedicate the avails and proceeds, or any portion thereof, of the tax authorized by Subsection A of this Section.

The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be authorized and issued by resolution or resolutions adopted by the board and shall be of such series, bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times (not exceeding forty years from their respective dates), bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, payable in such medium of payment and at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary of the board, and coupon bonds shall have attached thereto interest coupons bearing the facsimile signatures of the officers who sign the bonds. They shall have affixed thereto the seal of the board. Any such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness may be issued and delivered notwithstanding that one or more of the officers signing such bonds or the officer or officers whose facsimile signature or signatures may be upon the coupons shall have ceased to be such officer or officers at the time such bonds shall actually have been delivered. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be sold to the highest bidder on sealed proposal at public sale for not less than par and accrued interest after publication of a notice of sale once a week at least ten days prior to the date fixed for the sale, the notice to appear in one or more daily newspapers published in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, and in a financial publication in the city of New York, New York, and such other places as the board may determine, reserving to the board the right to reject any and all bids, including the right to readvertise for new bids.

When any bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness have been issued hereunder neither the board nor any other authority may discontinue or decrease the tax pledged to secure payment thereof. Any holder of any such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness or coupons attached to the bonds, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding, may enforce and compel performance of all duties required to be performed by the board and to enforce the levy and collection of the tax and the provisions of the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be exempt from all taxation for state, parish and municipal purposes, and savings banks and insurance companies shall be authorized to invest the funds in their hands therein, and the bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness may be used for deposit with any officer, board, municipality or other political subdivision of the state of Louisiana, in any case where* under any present or future laws deposit of security may be required. The bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments and incontestable in the hands of bona fide holders for value; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as pledging the credit of the state of Louisiana for the payment of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness or be construed as constituting the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness obligations of the state of Louisiana.

C. The resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness hereunder shall be promulgated by one insertion thereof in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district. For a period of thirty days from the date of publication by the board of a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, any person or persons in interest shall have the right to contest the legality of the resolution and the legality of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness for any cause, after which time no person shall have any cause or right of action to contest the legality of the resolution or of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness authorized thereby for any cause whatsoever. If no suit, action or proceedings are begun contesting the validity of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness within the thirty days herein prescribed, the authority to issue the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness and to provide for the payment thereof, the legality thereof and of all of the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be conclusively presumed, and no court shall have any authority to inquire into such matters.

D. Any bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness issued under this authorization may be refunded by the board, provided the total of the principal and interest to be paid on any refunding bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall not exceed the total of the principal amount of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness to be refunded, the premium (if any) payable upon their redemption and the interest which would have been paid upon such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, were they not refunded. The refunding of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be authorized in all respects as original bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness are herein provided to be authorized.

E. The provisions hereof are self executing and no further enabling legislation is required or necessary and the board is authorized to effectuate the provisions hereof.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for the members of the legislature to be held in Louisiana on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday of February, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Article XVI of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 2.1, to authorize the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish and to issue bonds secured by the tax, the proceeds of the tax and of the bonds secured by the tax to be used solely for the sale of any bonds secured by the tax to be used solely for payment of the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Article XVI of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 2.1, to authorize the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish and to issue bonds secured by the tax, the proceeds of the tax and of the bonds secured by the tax to be used solely for the payment of the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

ACT No. 182

Senate Bill No. 20. By: Mr. Eaton.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Louisiana to add to Article IV thereof a new section to be designated as Article IV, Section 18, to authorize the Legislature of Louisiana to adopt legislation to enable the State, its agencies, municipalities and parishes and their agencies to comply with federal laws and regulations in order to secure federal participation in construction projects, including use of funds otherwise dedicated, and to extend federal procedures to state financed projects.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members of each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Louisiana for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided by law a proposal to amend Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new section reading as follows:

Section 18. The Legislature may enact legislation to enable the State, its agencies, municipalities and parishes and their agencies to comply with federal laws and regulations in order to secure federal participation in the cost of capital improvement projects, and the Legislature may authorize the use of funds, dedicated to such agencies of government for other purposes, to meet the requirements of the federal statutes, including, by way of example but not with the intention of limitation, providing relocation assistance payments, housing for relocatees and similar federal requirements. Whenever the Legislature enacts such legislation, to comply with federal requirements for participation in construction projects, the Legislature may extend the legislation to include similar projects financed entirely by state and local governments. Such payments shall be in addition to just compensation for property rights.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Louisiana at the next election for members of the state legislature in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding Section 18 to authorize the Legislature to adopt legislation to comply with federal laws and regulations to secure federal funds for construction projects, including relocation assistance payments.

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding Section 18 to authorize the Legislature to adopt legislation to comply with federal laws and regulations to secure federal funds for construction projects, including relocation assistance payments.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the State of Louisiana.

ACT No. 183

Senate Bill No. 27. By: Mr. Stewart.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Section 15 of Article XII of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new Paragraph, to be designated as Paragraph ELEVENTH thereof, to authorize parishes to levy an annual ad valorem tax, with voter approval, of not in excess of ten mills, for purposes of secondary vocational technical education.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the elected members to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Section 15 of Article XII of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new Paragraph, to be designated as Paragraph ELEVENTH, which shall read as follows:

§15. Parish school funds; sources; management

Section 15. The parish funds for the support of the public schools of elementary and secondary grades shall be derived from the following sources, and shall be thus controlled and managed, viz:

ELEVENTH. Vocational technical education millage. In excess of the limitations on ad valorem taxation otherwise fixed by this Constitution, each parish may levy annually, upon approval of the electors of the parish as provided by law, ad valorem taxes not to exceed ten mills on the dollar on any property, whether contained in the territorial limits of one or more taxing districts, for the purpose of acquiring sites for, or constructing, or equipping, or improving or for the maintenance and operating expenses of secondary vocational-technical education facilities, including consolidated vocational technical educational facilities under the control and supervision of the parish school board; provided, however, that no tax authorized by this section for purposes of maintenance and operating expenses shall run for a longer period than ten years.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for Representatives in the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to add Paragraph ELEVENTH to Section 15 of Article XII of the Louisiana Constitution, to authorize parishes to levy an annual ad valorem tax, with voter approval, of not in excess of ten mills for secondary vocational technical education purposes.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to add Paragraph ELEVENTH to Section 15 of Article XII of the Louisiana Constitution, to authorize parishes to levy an annual ad valorem tax, with voter approval, of not in excess of ten mills for secondary vocational technical education purposes.

Straub, Tapper, Theriot, Vicknair, Villar, Vining, Wagner, Walker, Waller and Williamson.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article XVIII of the Constitution of Louisiana to add thereto, to authorize the issuance of not to exceed Fourteen Million Dollars of general obligation bonds of the state by the State Bond Commission for the payment of bonuses to Viet Nam veterans or their survivors and to defray the cost of administering the bonus program; to provide for the sale, security, and procedure for the issuance of the bonds pursuant to existing statutory law, and to provide with respect to the payment of the bonds.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article XVIII of the Constitution of Louisiana to add thereto a new section, to be designated as Section 18 thereof, which shall read as follows:

§ 13. Viet Nam bonus bonds

Section 13. In order to provide funds for the payment of bonuses to servicemen and ex-servicemen and servicewomen and ex-servicewomen who serve or have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater and to certain relatives of such servicemen and servicewomen and to defray the cost of administration and distribution of the bonuses the State Bond Commission is authorized and directed, from time to time as requested by the Department of Veterans Affairs, to issue and sell not State Department of Veterans Affairs, to issue and sell not to exceed fourteen million dollars of general obligation bonds in the manner and with the security provided by Chapter 11 of Sub-Title III of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and subject to the procedures set forth in Chapter 10 of Sub-Title III of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

The proceeds of the sale of the bonds herein authorized shall be used by the State Department of Veterans Affairs for the payment of bonuses to servicemen and ex-servicemen and servicewomen and ex-servicewomen who serve or have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater at any time after the first day of July, 1958 and prior to the date the government of the United States declares to be the date of termination of service for members of the armed forces to receive credit for the award of the Viet Nam Service Medal, and who were citizens of Louisiana when inducted into active service, and to certain relatives of such servicemen and servicewomen who died while serving in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater during such period or who died at any time during such period, after having served in the armed forces of the United States during such period, as the result of injuries or wounds received or disease contracted by him or her in the Viet Nam Theater while in the armed forces of the United States during such period.

Bonuses from the funds herein provided shall be paid to eligible servicemen and servicewomen, and ex-servicemen and ex-servicewomen and to certain relatives of deceased servicemen and servicewomen, in the amounts, and under the provisions as to eligible relatives, provided in Section 293 of Title 29 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, and all other provisions of that Section not inconsistent herewith,* shall apply to the payments to be made from the funds herein provided. Only one bonus shall be payable from the funds herein provided to any serviceman or ex-serviceman or servicewoman or ex-servicewoman or to any relative of such serviceman or ex-serviceman or servicewoman or ex-servicewoman or to any relative of any member of the armed forces of the United States in the active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater of such serviceman or ex-serviceman or servicewoman or ex-servicewoman and regardless of the length of service during any such period or periods.

Payment of bonuses hereunder shall commence as soon as funds are available and eligibility is determined and shall continue as other servicemen or ex-servicemen or service-women or ex-servicewomen or their survivors become eligible therefor. Costs of administering the bonus program and the costs incident to the sale of the bonds shall be paid from the bond proceeds, subject to the budgetary controls provided by law.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for Representatives in the Legislature to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Article XVIII, of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 13, to authorize the State Bond Commission to issue $14,000,000.00 in general obligation bonds for the payment of Viet Nam bonuses and the cost of administration thereof.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Article XVIII, of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 13, to authorize the State Bond Commission to issue $14,000,000.00 in general obligation bonds for the payment of Viet Nam bonuses and the cost of administration thereof.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Paragraphs (C) and (F) of Section 53 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana by providing relative to the composition and status of the Family Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided by law, a proposition to amend Paragraphs (C) and (F) of Section 53 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana so that the same may be made to read as follows:

§53. Family court for parish of East Baton Rouge

C. Judges; qualifications; election, classification. The legislature in the same manner as additional district judgeships are created may, from time to time, create one or more additional judgeships in the family court. Each judge is to be elected to a specific division of the family court. Such newly created judgeships shall be filled as prescribed by law. The first term of such judge or judges shall not extend beyond the term of the then existing family court's judge's or judges' term; thereafter, all family court judges' terms shall be the same and shall at all times remain identical with the terms of the district court judges within the parish. Each judge so elected must posses* the same qualifications required of district judges and shall occupy the same status as district judges.

F. Continuous session. The family court shall be in continuous session throughout the year.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next general election for members of the state legislature in Louisiana in February, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

§46. Control by parish and municipal governing authority of agencies created by them

Section 46. A. The governing authority of any parish or municipality shall have the following powers over an agency with governmental functions heretofore or hereafter created or established by it: (1) to appoint and remove the members of the governing board of the agency; (2) to exercise budgetary and fiscal control over the agency, including the power to fix its operating budgets in whole or in part; (3) to approve or disapprove the submission of proposals to a vote of the people by the agency to levy taxes or issue bonds; (4) to substitute itself for the governing board of the agency and to exercise all of its powers and functions, and (5) to abolish the agency if the obligations of indebtedness of the agency are not thereby impaired.

B. If the creation or establishment of the agency required the concurrence of two or more authorities, then concurrence of all of them shall be required for the exercise of the above powers, unless otherwise agreed upon by the creating authority.

§48. Ratification of outstanding, unpaid indebtedness or bonds

Section 48. All indebtedness incurred or bonds issued under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV of this constitution prior to the effective date of this section which are now ratified by this section are hereby ratified. All provision of Article XIV, as it existed prior to said date, creating rights or providing remedies, including the dedication of specific sources of revenue to the payment and liquidation of bonds and coupons or for the cancellation thereof, the preservation of the evidence of such cancellation, and the giving of public notice thereof, are continued in full force and effect to the extent necessary to protect the contractual obligation of said indebtedness or bonds or to assure their payment in full in principal and interest.

All authority to incur debt or issue bonds granted by or under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV of this constitution as it existed prior to the effective date of this section is hereby ratified to the extent and within the limits of such authority and all provisions of Article XIV as it existed prior to said date, establishing procedures for such incurring of debt or issuing of bonds, creating rights or providing remedies, including the dedication of specific sources of revenue to the payment and liquidation of bonds and coupons or for the cancellation thereof, the preservation of the evidence of such cancellation, and the giving of public notice thereof are continued in full force and effect to the extent necessary to protect the contractual obligation of any indebtedness or bonds issued under such authority after the effective date of this section or to assure their payment in full in principal and interest.

§ 49. Repealed sections

Section 49. Sections 3 (d) (1st) providing for acquisition and financing of sewerage improvements for East Baton Rouge Parish, 3 (e), 3 (f), 6, 13, 15, 15.1, 18, 23.1, 23.3 through 23.41, 23.43, 24.2 through 24.22, 30.5, 30.4, 30.5, 31.1, 31.2, 31.3, 31.4, 31.7, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.1, 38 (1st), 38 (2nd), 38.1, 39, 39.1, 43, 44, 44.1 and 45 of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution are hereby repealed in their entirety except as hereinabove continued in full force and effect.

§ 50. Legislative consideration of legislation pursuant to revision

Section 50. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution relative to notice and introduction of local bills or relative to matters to be introduced, considered and acted upon at budget sessions of the Legislature, House Bills Nos. 199 through 203, all by Messrs. Garrett, Dennis, et al., considered and enacted at the 1971 regular session of the legislature and intended to implement this revision of portions of Article XIV of the constitution, are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated.

§ 51. Schedule provisions pursuant to revision of portions of Article XIV

Section 51. No provision of the revision of portions of Article XIV contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature which would have the effect of repealing or removing provisions from the constitution which are intended to be continued in operation and existence without interruption, and which continued operation requires statutory or constitutional implementation, shall become operative until such statutory implementation shall become law or until such proposed constitutional change shall be adopted by the electors of the state. Therefore it is hereby declared that each of the following provisions of this proposed revision require implementing legislation and that the following enumerated bills introduced at the 1971 regular session were introduced to provide such implementation:

Repeal of Article XIV, Section 38.1	House Bill No. 203 of 1971 R.S.

Should any one or more of the above listed amendments or repeals remain inoperative by reason of the failure of enactment or adoption of implementing legislation, the provision of Article XIV prior to the adoption of this amendment which the particular inoperative provision proposes to repeal or amend shall remain operative until such implementing legislation is enacted into law or adopted by the electors of the state.

It is the purpose and intent of this section, by so conditioning the effectiveness and operation of the proposals contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of this legislature, to continue in operation and existence without interruption all of the special districts, political subdivisions, boards, agencies, commissions and authorities with respect to which provision is made by said House Bill No. 176, either by repeal, addition or revision of sections of this Article. Therefore, the adoption of the proposals made by said House Bill No. 176 shall not be interpreted in any manner which will effectuate any changes in existing powers, duties, responsibilities and functions, or in the membership, compensation, terms of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, assets, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any sections, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any existing special districts, political subdivisions, boards, agencies, commissions as conferred upon or exercised by any of them prior thereto, except as otherwise specifically provided therein or authorized by House Bill Number 176 and House Bill No. 200 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature. The operation of each of said entities, of whatsoever kind, shall continue without any interruption by reason of the enactment into law of any one or more of House Bill Nos. 181 through 197 or House Bill Nos. 199 through 203 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature or by reason of the adoption of any one or more of the constitutional changes proposed by House Bill Nos. 176 through 180 of the 1971 regular session.

It is hereby specifically provided that the enactment of any one or more of the statutes contained in House Bill Nos. 181 through 197 and 199 through 203 of the 1971 regular session, for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this House Bill 176, shall not be construed in any manner which will restrict the power of the legislature to enact legislation with respect to the matters contained in any of such implementing bills, and the right of the legislature to so legislate is hereby reserved.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment revising portions of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution by amending Sections 14, 14.10 22, 30.3, 30.4 and 48, by adding Sections 14.1 through 14.10 and Sections 49, 50 and 51 and by repealing Sections 3(d) (1st) providing for acquisition and financing of sewerage improvements for East Baton Rouge Parish, 3 (e), 3 (f), 6, 13, 15, 15.1, 18, 23.1, 23.3 through 23.41, 23.43, 24.2 through 24.22, 30.5, 30.4, 30.5, 31.1, 31.2, 31.3, 31.4, 31.7, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.1, 38 (1st), 38 (2nd), 38.1, 39, 39.1, 43, 44, 44.1 and 45 thereof, to confirm the general authority of the legislature to create or authorize creation of special districts, boards, commissions and like agencies; to provide generally with respect to the powers which may be granted thereto, to grant authority to the legislature to provide for the incurring of debt and issuance of bonds or certificates of indebtedness and the levying of public improvement assessments by political subdivisions; to grant authority to the legislature to authorize assumption of indebtedness of any political subdivision by another upon elector approval, to authorize political subdivisions to insure bonds for public utility and industrial inducement purposes, to authorize cooperative administration of functions between political subdivisions and the creation of agencies thereof and to grant the legislature power to authorize such agreements between a political subdivision and the United States or another state or agency thereof; to delete obsolete provisions, provisions for or agency thereof; to delete obsolete provisions, provisions for which statutory enactment is sufficient either presently or upon adoption of the proposed revision, and provisions which are otherwise restated, though perhaps in more general language, within the proposed revision; to delete provisions relating to creation of, the powers of or authorization for the creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies for creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies and which statutory provision may be made under the more general authority contained in said proposed revision; to delete from Article XIV provisions relating to state and municipal and also municipal fire and police civil service, subject to ratification of an amendment placing these same provisions in a new and separate article of the constitution; to ratify the act of 1899 constituting the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans; to restate generally the powers and authorities of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans with respect to the drainage lien law, taxation, incurring debt, issuing bonds, fixing water and sewerage service rates and to delete bonds, fixing water and sewerage service rates and to delete detailed provisions with respect thereto; to retain the constitutional status of the Board of Liquidation, City Debt, of New Orleans; to ratify outstanding bonds and indebtedness, to ratify all authority to incur debt or issue bonds granted by or under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV as it existed prior to the effective date of this revision, to provide with respect to legislative consideration of implementing legislation, and to be effective contingent upon placement in the statutes of the state provisions of law being here deleted other than those which are obsolete or are covered by the revision or which have heretofore been enacted into law, and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment revising portions of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution by amending Sections 14, 14.10 22, 30.3, 30.4 and 48, by adding Sections 14.1 through 14.10 and Sections 49, 50 and 51 and by repealing Sections 3 (d) (1st) providing for acquisition and financing of sewerage improvements for East Baton Rouge Parish, 3 (e), 3 (f), 6, 13, 15, 15.1, 18, 23.1, 23.3 through 23.41, 23.43, 24.2 through 24.22, 30.3, 30.4, 30.5, 31.1, 31.2, 31.3, 31.4, 31.7, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.1, 38 (1st), 38 (2nd), 38.1, 39, 39.1, 43, 44, 44.1, 45 and 45 thereof, to confirm the general authority of the legislature to create or authorize creation of special districts, boards, commissions and like agencies; to provide generally with respect to the powers which may be granted thereto, to grant authority to the legislature to provide for the incurring of debt and issuance of bonds or certificates of indebtedness and the levying of public improvement assessments by political subdivisions; to grant authority to the legislature to authorize assumption of indebtedness of any political subdivision by another upon elector approval, to authorize political subdivisions to insure bonds for public utility and industrial inducement purposes, to authorize cooperative administration of functions between political subdivisions and the creation of agencies thereof and to grant the legislature power to authorize such agreements between a political subdivision and the United States or another state or agency thereof; and the United States or another state or agency thereof; to delete obsolete provisions, provisions for which statutory enactment is sufficient either presently or upon adoption of the proposed revision, and provisions which are otherwise restated, though perhaps in more general language, within the proposed revision; to delete provisions relating to creation of, the powers of or authorization for the creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies for creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies and which statutory provision may be made under the more general authority contained in said proposed revision; to delete from Article XIV provisions relating to state and municipal and also municipal fire and police civil service, subject to ratification of an amendment placing these same provisions in a new and separate article of the constitution; to ratify the act of 1899 constituting the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans; to restate generally the powers and authorities of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans with respect to the drainage lien law, taxation, incurring debt, issuing bonds, fixing water and sewerage service rates and to delete detailed provisions with respect thereto; to retain the constitutional status of the Board of Liquidation, City Debt, of New Orleans; to ratify outstanding bonds and indebtedness, to ratify all authority to incur debt or issue bonds granted by or under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV as it existed prior to the effective date of this revision, to provide with respect to legislative consideration of implementing legislation, and to be effective contingent upon placement in the statutes of the state provisions of law being here deleted other than those which are obsolete or are covered by the revision or which have heretofore been enacted into law.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

Section 4. The Secretary of State of Louisiana is hereby authorized, upon adoption of this proposed amendment by the electors of the state of Louisiana, to redesignate the section numbers of the entire Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution, including the redesignations, where he deems it advisable, of the sections amended or added by this revision of portions of Article XIV.

ACT No. 188

House Bill No. 177. By: Messrs. Garrett, Dennis, Fields, Henry, Himel, Laricella, Ordoneaux, Williamson and Womack and Senators Barham, DeBlieux, LeSage, Montgomery, Mouton and Oubre.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing the repeal of Section 11.1 of Article VI of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the creation of mosquito abatement districts by the governing authorities of the parishes and the powers and duties of such districts, such repeal to be contingent upon adoption by the voters of the proposed revision of portions of Article XIV authorizing the legislature to grant authority to parish governing authorities to create special districts and providing with respect to the powers of such districts, and contingent upon enactment of the provisions of Article VI, Section 11.1 by the legislature into statutory law.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to repeal Section 11.1 of Article VI of the Constitution of Louisiana.

Section 2. Section 11.1 of Article VI of the Constitution of Louisiana is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the repeal of Section 11.1 of Article VI effectuated by the adoption of this proposal shall take effect and become operative only if, and when the provisions of House Bill No. 186 of this 1971 regular session of the legislature are enacted into law and also if, as and when the proposal to revise portions of Article XIV of the Constitution contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature are adopted by the electors of the state at the election for members in the legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972. It is hereby specifically provided that should said House Bill No. 186 fail to become law or should said House Bill No. 176 fail of adoption, then and in that event the adoption of this amendment shall be ineffective and shall in no wise be construed to remove or repeal from the constitution, or otherwise be construed to affect, the matters covered by said House Bill No. 186.

It is the purpose and intent of this section, by so conditioning the effectiveness and operation of this proposal contained in this House Bill No. 177 of 1971, to continue in operation and existence without interruption any special district with respect to which this repeal of Section 11.1 of Article VI applies. Therefore, the adoption of the proposals made by this House Bill No. 177 shall not be interpreted in any manner which will effect any changes in existing powers, duties, responsibilities and functions, or in the membership, compensation, terms of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, assets, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any special district, political subdivision or any other entity as conferred upon or exercised by any of them prior thereto, except as otherwise specifically provided therein or authorized by House Bill Number 176 and House Bill No. 200 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature. The operation of each of said entities, of whatsoever kind, shall continue without any interruption by reason of the enactment into law of any one or more of House Bill Nos. 181 through 197 or House Bill Nos. 199 through 203 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature or by reason of the adoption of any one or more of the constitutional changes proposed by House Bill Nos. 176 through 180 of the 1971 regular session.

It is hereby specifically provided that the enactment of any one or more of the statutes contained in House Bill Nos. 181 through 197 and 199 through 203 of the 1971 regular session, for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this House Bill 176, shall not be construed in any manner which will restrict the power of the legislature to enact legislation with respect to the matters contained in any of such implementing bills, and the right of the legislature to so legislate is hereby reserved.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment revising portions of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution by amending Sections 14.1 through 14.10 and Sections 49, 50 and 51 and by repealing Sections 3(d) (1st) providing for acquisition and financing of sewerage improvements for East Baton Rouge Parish, 3 (e), 3 (f), 6, 13, 15, 15.1, 18, 23.1, 23.3 through 23.41, 23.43, 24.2 through 24.22, 30.3, 30.4, 30.5, 31.1, 31.2, 31.3, 31.4, 31.7, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.1, 38 (1st), 38 (2nd), 38.1, 39, 39.1, 43, 44, 44.1, 45 and 45 thereof, to confirm the general authority of the legislature to create or authorize creation of special districts, boards, commissions and like agencies; to provide generally with respect to the powers which may be granted thereto, to grant authority to the legislature to provide for the incurring of debt and issuance of bonds or certificates of indebtedness and the levying of public improvement assessments by political subdivisions; to grant authority to the legislature to authorize assumption of indebtedness of any political subdivision by another upon elector approval, to authorize political subdivisions to insure bonds for public utility and industrial inducement purposes, to authorize cooperative administration of functions between political subdivisions and the creation of agencies thereof and to grant the legislature power to authorize such agreements between a political subdivision and the United States or another state or agency thereof; to delete obsolete provisions, provisions for or agency thereof; to delete obsolete provisions, provisions for which statutory enactment is sufficient either presently or upon adoption of the proposed revision, and provisions which are otherwise restated, though perhaps in more general language, within the proposed revision; to delete provisions relating to creation of, the powers of or authorization for the creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies for creation of special districts, authorities and like agencies and which statutory provision may be made under the more general authority contained in said proposed revision; to delete from Article XIV provisions relating to state and municipal and also municipal fire and police civil service, subject to ratification of an amendment placing these same provisions in a new and separate article of the constitution; to ratify the act of 1899 constituting the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans; to restate generally the powers and authorities of the Sewerage and Water Board of New Orleans with respect to the drainage lien law, taxation, incurring debt, issuing bonds, fixing water and sewerage service rates and to delete detailed provisions with respect thereto; to retain the constitutional status of the Board of Liquidation, City Debt, of New Orleans; to ratify outstanding bonds and indebtedness, to ratify all authority to incur debt or issue bonds granted by or under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV as it existed prior to the effective date of this revision, to provide with respect to legislative consideration of implementing legislation, and to be effective contingent upon placement in the statutes of the state provisions of law being here deleted other than those which are obsolete or are covered by the revision or which have heretofore been enacted into law.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

House Bill No. 178. By: Messrs. Garrett, Dennis, Fields, Henry, Himel, Laricella, Ordoneaux, Williamson and Womack and Senators Barham, DeBlieux, LeSage, Montgomery, Mouton and Oubre.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing the repeal of Section 13 of Article X of the Constitution of Louisiana, providing that nothing in the Constitution shall prohibit the Legislature from conferring on political subdivisions the authority to levy and collect such assessments on real property for public local or special improvement purposes and providing that any political subdivision levying and collecting such assessments for such purposes and desiring to issue certificates of indebtedness secured thereby, may, in addition to the security of the assessments, pledge its full faith and credit to the payment of the principal of and interest on such certificates of indebtedness, such repeal to be contingent upon adoption by the voters of the proposed addition of a new Section 14.6 to Article XIV, restating the provisions of Article X, Section 13.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to repeal Section 13 of Article X of the Constitution of Louisiana.

Section 2. Section 13 of Article X of the Constitution of Louisiana is hereby repealed; provided, however, that the repeal of Section 13 of Article X effectuated by the adoption of this proposal shall take effect and become operative only if, and when the provisions of House Bill No. 176 of this 1971 regular session of the legislature are enacted into law and also if, as and when the proposal to revise portions of Article XIV of the Constitution contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature are adopted by the electors of the state at the election for members in the legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972. It is hereby specifically provided that should said House Bill No. 178 fail to become law or should said House Bill No. 176 fail of adoption, then and in that event the adoption of this amendment shall be ineffective and shall in no wise be construed to remove or repeal from the constitution, or otherwise be construed to affect, the matters covered by said House Bill No. 178.

It is the purpose and intent of this section, by so conditioning the effectiveness and operation of this proposal contained in House Bill No. 179 of 1971, to continue in operation and existence without interruption any special district, political subdivision or other entity with respect to which the repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV apply. Therefore, the adoption of the proposal made by this House Bill No. 179 shall not be interpreted in any manner which will effect any changes in existing powers, duties, responsibilities and functions, or in the membership, compensation, terms of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, assets, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any special district, political subdivision or any other entity as conferred upon or exercised by any of them prior thereto. The operation of each of said entities, of whatsoever kind, shall continue without any interruption by reason of the enactment into law of House Bill No. 186 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature or by the adoption of the constitutional changes proposed by House Bill Nos. 176 and 179 of the 1971 regular session.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV of the Louisiana Constitution, relating to the power of the legislature to cause undrained marsh, swamp and overflow lands to be drained and reclaimed and to delegate power to existing agencies or to such agencies as may be created, to organize drainage districts, to impose taxes and to issue bonds; continuing certain previously existing laws and constitutional provisions until legislative action was enacted to carry into effect, authorizing the legislature to create them into effect, authorizing the legislature to create them into the Bayou Lafourche Fresh Water Conservation District and creating the Iatt Lake Water Conservation District, such repeal to be contingent upon adoption by the voters of the proposed revision of portions of Article XIV of the Constitution and contingent upon enactment of legislation transferring to the state the provision creating the Iatt Lake Water Conservation District.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to repeal the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV of the Constitution of Louisiana.

Section 2. The title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV of the Constitution of Louisiana are hereby repealed; provided, however, that the repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV effectuated by this proposal shall take effect and become operative only if, as and when the provisions of House Bill No. 192 of this 1971 regular session of the legislature are enacted into law and also if, as and when the proposal to revise portions of Article XIV of the Constitution contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature are adopted by the electors of the state at the election for members in the legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972. It is hereby specifically provided that should said House Bill No. 192 fail to become law or should said House Bill No. 176 fail of adoption, then and in that event the adoption of this amendment shall be ineffective and shall in no wise be construed to remove or repeal from the Constitution, or otherwise be construed to affect, the matters covered by said House Bill No. 192.

It is the purpose and intent of this section, by so conditioning the effectiveness and operation of this proposal contained in House Bill No. 179 of 1971, to continue in operation and existence without interruption any special district, political subdivision or other entity with respect to which the repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV apply. Therefore, the adoption of the proposal made by this House Bill No. 179 shall not be interpreted in any manner which will effect any changes in existing powers, duties, responsibilities and functions, or in the membership, compensation, terms of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, assets, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, revenues and sources of revenues, liabilities and obligations, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any special district, political subdivision or any other entity as conferred upon or exercised by any of them prior thereto. The operation of each of said entities, of whatsoever kind, shall continue without any interruption by reason of the enactment into law of House Bill No. 192 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature or by the adoption of the constitutional changes proposed by House Bill Nos. 176 and 179 of the 1971 regular session.

Section 3. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 4. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV of the Louisiana Constitution, relating to the power of the legislature to cause undrained marsh, swamp and overflow lands to be drained and reclaimed and to delegate power to existing agencies or to such agencies as may be created, to organize drainage districts, to impose taxes and to issue bonds; continuing certain previously existing laws and constitutional provisions until legislative action was enacted to carry into effect, authorizing the legislature to create them into the Bayou Lafourche Fresh Water Conservation District and creating the Iatt Lake Water Conservation District, such repeal to be contingent upon adoption by the voters of the proposed revision of portions of Article XIV of the Constitution.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed repeal of the title and Sections 1 through 4, inclusive, of Article XV of the Louisiana Constitution, relating to the power of the legislature to cause undrained marsh, swamp and overflow lands to be drained and reclaimed and to delegate power to existing agencies or to such agencies as may be created, to organize drainage districts, to impose taxes and to issue bonds; continuing certain previously existing laws and constitutional provisions until legislative action was enacted to carry into effect, authorizing legislative creation of the Bayou Lafourche Fresh Water District, and creating the Iatt Lake Water Conservation District, such repeal to be contingent upon adoption of the proposed revision of portions of Article XIV of the Constitution.

Permanent appointments and promotions in the Classified Civil Service of the state and cities having a population exceeding twenty-five thousand, according to the last preceding decennial census of the United States for which the final report of population returns have been printed, published or distributed by the Director of the Census, shall be made only after certification by the appropriate Civil Service Departments pursuant to a general system based upon merit, efficiency, and fitness, under which certification shall be based on examinations which, so far as practical, shall be competitive, and all employees in the Classified Service shall be employed from those eligible under such certification. No person in the State or City Classified Service, having gained civil service status shall be discriminated against or subjected to any disciplinary action except for cause, and no person in the State or City Classified Service shall be discriminated against or subjected to any disciplinary action for political or religious reasons, and all such persons shall have the right of appeal from such actions.

(2). State service. "State Service" or "Civil Service of the State" means all offices and positions of trust or employment in the employ of the state, or any department, independent agency or other agency, board or commission thereof (such as Police Boards and all Board of Commissioners, Levee and Drainage Boards and Commissions, Housing Authorities, Court House Commission of New Orleans, State Hospitals, Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College), and shall also include all officers and positions of trust or employment in the employ of joint state and federal agencies administering state and/or federal funds; joint state and municipal agencies financed by state and/or municipal funds, except municipal boards of health; joint state and parochial agencies financed by state and/or parochial funds, irrespective of whether the pay for such offices and positions of trust or employment is to paid with state or municipal or parochial funds or with funds contributed jointly by the state and/or municipalities and/or parishes involved.

(3). City service. "City Service" or "Civil Service of the City" means all offices and positions of trust or employment in the employ of the city, or any department, independent agency or other agency, board or commission thereof including city boards or agencies or corporations organized for public purpose, any part of the stock of which is owned or controlled by the city, and persons employed by city or joint federal and city agencies administering city and federal relief and other funds, and the military and naval service, irrespective of whether the pay for such offices and positions of trust or employment be paid out of the city treasury, either in whole or in part.

(B). Departments; state; city; directors of personnel. There is hereby created and established in the state government a Department of State Civil Service, the administrative head of which shall be the Director of Personnel, to be appointed as hereinafter provided. There is hereby created and established in the city government of each city having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand a Department of City Civil Service, the administrative head of which shall be the Director of Personnel, to be appointed as hereinafter provided.

(C). State commission. There is hereby created and established a State Civil Service Commission to be composed of five members who are citizens and qualified voters of the state of Louisiana. The members of the commission shall constitute a quorum. The five commissioners shall be appointed by the governor for a term of six years as follows: The presidents of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Loyola University of the South, at New Orleans, Louisiana, Centenary College, at Shreveport, Louisiana, Tulane University of Louisiana, at New Orleans, Louisiana, and Louisiana College, at Pineville, Louisiana, shall each nominate three persons, and one member of said commission shall be appointed by the governor from the three persons nominated by each president, to serve for six years, or the unexpired term of office or otherwise shall be filled by appointment of the governor from nominations made in like manner by the president, or his successor, who nominated the member whose place is being filled. It shall be the duty of the presidents to make such nominations within thirty days after the effective date of this section, and thereafter within thirty days after any vacancy occurs, and appointments shall be made by the governor within thirty days after nominations have been submitted. Should the governor fail to appoint within said thirty days, the first named nominee shall automatically become a member of the commission.

All appointments, as hereinabove provided, shall be made by the governor without the advice or consent of the Senate, or confirmation by the Senate.

The first commissioners shall serve from the date of their appointment. The first commissioners nominated by the presidents of the five educational institutions shall serve as hereinafter provided.

One of the first five commissioners appointed from nominations submitted by the presidents of the said five institutions, as hereinabove provided, shall serve for two years, two for four years, and two for six years. The respective term of the first five appointees shall be designated by the governor. The term of office for each member thereafter appointed from nominations submitted by the respective presidents shall be for six years, provided that appointment to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be only for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. If for any reason nominations are not submitted to the governor by any of the college presidents herein named within the time herein designated, the vacancy on the commission for the term or unexpired term resulting from such failure to nominate shall be filled by a majority vote of the other members of the Civil Service Commission.

(D). City commission. There is hereby created and established a City Civil Service Commission for each city having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand, to be composed of three citizens who are qualified voters of the city in which they serve, two of whom shall constitute a quorum. One member of the commission shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. The other two members of the commission shall be appointed as follows:

The presidents of those two colleges or universities mentioned in (C) hereof located in or nearest to the city shall each nominate three persons, and one member of the commission shall be appointed by the governing body from the three persons nominated by each president, provided that the governing body of the city may, by appropriate action, elect to have the president of any one of the colleges or universities mentioned in (C) hereof nominate two groups of three persons each, in which event one member of the commission shall be appointed by the governing body from each of said groups of three persons. One of the commissioners first appointed shall serve for two years, one for four years, and one for six years. The respective terms of the first appointees shall be designated by the governing body of said city. Vacancies by expiration of the term of office or otherwise shall be filled by appointment of the governing body of the city in the same manner as the original appointment was made, and in those instances in which nominations were required in the original appointment, nominations shall be made by the president, or his successor, who nominated the member whose place is being filled. It shall be the duty of the president to make such nominations within thirty days after the effective date of this section, and thereafter within thirty days after any vacancy occurs, and appointments shall be made by the governing body of the city within thirty days after nominations have been submitted. Should the governing body of the city fail to appoint within said thirty days, the first named nominee shall automatically become a member of the commission. The term of office of each successor to members first appointed shall be for six years, provided that each original appointee shall be for a like term. Appointment to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be only for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. Members of existing City Civil Service Commissions shall continue to serve until the first city civil service commissioners are appointed pursuant to this section.

(E). Commissions; domicile; members; removal; political activity. No member of the State or a City Civil Service Commission shall be removable except for cause, after being given a copy of charges against him and an opportunity to be heard publicly on such charges by his appointing authority. Each State Commission shall be domiciled in the city in which its City Commission shall be domiciled in the city in which its members serve. Each commission shall elect one of its members chairman. All hearings shall be open to the public.

No member of any Civil Service Commission shall be a candidate for nomination or election to any public office or hold any other public office or position of public employment whatsoever, the office of Notary Public or a military or naval office, or Dean or member of the faculty of any educational institution excepted; nor shall any member of the commission be or have been within a period of six months immediately preceding his appointment a member of any political committee of a political party, or of any local, state, or national committee of a political party or an officer or member of a committee of any political club or organization, and each commissioner shall take the oath of office before entering upon the duties of office, and such oath shall include a statement of interest and desire to support the principles of the merit system.

(F) (1). Directors of personnel; appointment; powers and duties; removal. The Director of Personnel for the Department of State Civil Service or any Department of City Civil Service shall be appointed with or without competitive examination by the appropriate State or City Civil Service Commission. Directors shall be classified as civil service employees and act as administrative heads of their respective departments, shall appoint such employees, experts, respective departments, shall appoint such employees, experts, assistants and attorneys, with the consent of the appropriate commission, as may be necessary to carry out effective private commission, as may be necessary to carry out effective by the provisions of this section, and shall have such other powers and perform such duties as may from time to time be delegated to them by the appropriate Civil Service Commission. A director may be removed only for cause by the appropriate commission after being given a copy of charges against him and an opportunity to be heard publicly on such charges by the commission. Directors of Personnel holding such positions on the effective date of this section in any city of the state shall retain their positions as directors, subject to the provisions of this section, and such persons shall be classified civil service employees with status until they or their successors are duly appointed and qualified as provided herein.

(2). Directors of personnel; conduct of examinations. Except as may otherwise be provided in this section or the rules adopted hereunder, Directors of Personnel and their staffs shall hold competitive examinations and promotion examinations for all appointments in the Classified Service as far as it is practicable, and may under the supervision and with the approval of the appropriate Civil Service Commission restrict admission to take examinations to persons qualified to perform the duties of the position by fixing requirements for training, residence, health, skill, education, character, of training, residence, health, skill, education, character, physical capacity, experience, registration, and other qualifications. The subject matter, experience ratings, nature, and content of competitive examinations, prepared and given by its experts and staff, shall be solely within the administration and discretion of the appropriate Civil Service supervision and discretion of the appropriate Civil Service Commission. In the case of positions where the duties thereof require that the applicant or employee hold a license issued by any board or examining authority established under laws of the state, the examination shall be unassembled and shall be based upon the training, residence, health, skill, education, character, physical capacity, experience, reputation and other qualifications of such applicant or employee. Where there are sufficient local applicants and the kind and character of positions justifies it and it is otherwise practicable and reasonable to do so, competitive examinations for cable and reasonable to do so, competitive examinations for positions in the state service shall be given at convenient locations in each senatorial district.

(7). Political activity; campaigning, etc. No employee in the Classified Service of the State or a city, and no member of a State or City Commission shall be a member of any national, state, or local committee of a political party, or an officer or member of any factional, political club or organization, or a candidate for nomination or election to any public office, or shall make any political speech or public political statement in behalf of any candidate, faction, or party, as a part of any political campaign for the nomination or election of public officers, or shall take any part in the management or affairs of any political faction or party or in any political campaign, except to exercise his right as a citizen to express his opinion privately, to serve as a commissioner or official watcher at the polls in any election, and to cast his vote for whom he pleases.

(8). Elective officers; exclusion from classified service. No person elected to public office shall, while serving in such elective office, be appointed to or hold any position in the Classified Service of the State or a City.

(9). Political activity; commission rules. The State and City Civil Service Commissions shall have the authority to adopt rules prohibiting other and additional political activities on the part of appointing authorities, which may have the effect of intimidation or coercion of employees in the Classified Service for political or partisan purposes.

(O) (1). Appeals; jurisdiction; decision; judicial review. There is vested in the State Civil Service Commission and in the appropriate Civil Service Commission for the several cities, exclusively the exclusive right to hear and decide all appeals and the legality of all removal and disciplinary cases. The decision of the appropriate Civil Service Commission shall be final on the facts, but an appeal shall be granted to the Supreme Court of Louisiana on any question of law if application to the Commission is made within thirty (30) days after the Commission's decision becomes final. The supreme Court shall prescribe rules of procedure to be followed in the taking and lodging of such appeals.

(2). Right of appeal. Subject to the rules governing the right of appeal, persons in the State or City Classified Service who allege that they have been deprived of their rights or discriminated against under the provisions of this Section, or persons who shall have applied for or shall have been examined for the Classified Service and shall not have established their status as permanent Classified employees and who allege that they have been discriminated against in review of their applications, admission to the examination, the scoring of examinations, the establishment of eligible lists and certifications therefrom, shall be granted the right of appeal before the appropriate Commission.

(3). Reinstatement by commision; conditions; pay for lost time. If any Commission after any hearing orders a dismissed employee reinstated, it may reinstate such employee under such conditions as it deems proper and may order full pay for lost time.

(4). Violations; investigations; hearings; suspension or dismissal. The State and each City Civil Service Commission may, at any time, upon its own initiative, investigate any violation by any person of the provisions of this Section, and shall upon the filing of written charges by any person of such a violation within one year after the alleged violation, investigate such charges. Within ninety days after the filing of charges as herein provided, the Commission shall hold a public hearing concerning the charges. If the appropriate Commission, after public hearing in an investigation instituted either on its own initiative or upon charges, shall determine that the person or persons under inquiry have violated any of the provisions of this Section, the appropriate Commission is empowered, in its discretion, to direct the appointing authority having power and supervision over any offending officer or employee in the State or City Service, as the case may be, forthwith to suspend without pay for a period of time designated by the Commission or to dismiss such officer or employee, and such officer or employee shall be suspended or dismissed as directed by the Commission.

(5). Witnesses; production of evidence. The State and City Civil Service Commissions and each member of the Commissions, the Director, and any specially designated agent of the Commissions, shall have power to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and compel the production of books and papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing authorized by this Section.

(6). Reference; powers of referee. Any Commission may refer the taking of testimony to one or more members of the Commission, the Director, or any other employee of the Department. If a referee is appointed as herein provided, he shall have the power to administer oaths and shall examine under oath all witnesses brought or summoned before him at the parish seat nearest the place of employment of the employee, and shall cause a true transcript of the testimony to be recorded. Such transcript, together with any documentary evidence that may be introduced, shall be submitted to the Commission, which shall render its opinion on the basis of such evidence, and its opinion as thus rendered shall be final.

(7). Witnesses; offenses; contumacy. Any person who shall fail to appear in response to a subpoena or to answer any question or produce any books or papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing, or who shall knowingly give false testimony therein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to the penalties provided in this Section. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, any District Court of the State of Louisiana within the jurisdiction of which such person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business, upon application by the appropriate Commission, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the Commission, its member, agent or agency, and to produce evidence, if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching on the matter under consideration or in question; and any failure to obey such order of court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof.

(8). Costs. The appropriate Commission may, in its discretion, assess the costs of any hearing or appeal, or any portion of such costs, including the cost of recording and transcribing testimony, to be paid by or charged to the department or organization unit against whose action the appeal is taken or hearing granted.

(P) (1). Conduct of employees; refusal to testify; forfeiture of office. If any member of the State or City Commissions or any officer or employee in the State or City Civil Service shall wilfully refuse or fail to appear before any Civil Service Commission, court, or judge, any legislative committee, or any officer, board or body authorized to conduct any hearing or inquiry, or having appeared shall refuse to testify or answer any question relating to the affairs or government of the State or city, or the conduct of any State or city officer or employee on the ground that his testimony or answers would tend to incriminate him, or shall refuse to waive immunity from prosecution on account of any matter about which he may be asked to testify at any such hearing or inquiry, he shall forfeit his office or position and shall not be eligible thereafter for appointment to any position in the State or City Service for a period of ten years.

(2). Violations; eligibility for employment. The appropriate Civil Service Commission may, in its discretion, render an effective decree or order that any person in the employment or person in the State or City Classified Service who has been found by it to have violated any of the provisions of this Section shall not again be eligible for employment in public office in the State or City Service for a period not exceeding ten years from the date of dismissal.

(3). Violations; offense; punishment. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this Section or of the rules issued hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor more than one thousand ($1000.00) dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(4). Conviction of violation; eligibility for employment. Any person who is convicted of a misdemeanor under this Section shall, for a period not exceeding ten years, in the discretion of the presiding judge, be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in the State or City Service, and, if he is an officer or an employee in the Unclassified Service of the State or a city of the State subject to the provisions of this Section, shall forfeit his office or position.

(5). Persons illegally employed; withholding compensation. The State or any City Civil Service Commission may order the withholding of compensation from any person whom the Director has found is employed by the State or a city, as the case may be, contrary to the provisions of this Section the case may be, contrary to the provisions of this Section or rules adopted hereunder. Such order shall be directed to the officer with authority to approve the payroll or sign the paycheck for such employee and the officer to whom it is directed shall make no payment of compensation to such person until authorized by the Commission upon the penalty of personal liability for the sum so paid contrary to the order of the Commission and such other penalties as are provided in this Section.

Any valid rule, regulation, or order of a State or a City Civil Service Commission shall be enforceable in the courts of this State by mandamus or injunction suits brought for this purpose by the appropriate Civil Service Commission.

(6). Existing laws. All existing laws relating to the State or City Civil Service System are continued in force insofar as not in conflict herewith, subject to the power of the Legislature to amend or repeal such laws or adopt new laws, provided said amendments or new laws are supplementary and not in conflict herewith.

(Q). Acquisition of permanent status. Upon the effective date of this Section all officers and employees of the City of ... who have acquired Civil Service status under the Civil Service System of the City of New Orleans shall retain said status and shall thereafter be subject to and governed by the provisions of this Section and the rules and regulations adopted under the authority of this Section.

(2) All employees of the State and cities of the State subject to the provisions of this Section who, upon the effective date of this Section, are employed in positions for which they are licensed by any board or examining authority established under existing laws of the State shall acquire permanent Civil Service status upon the effective date of this Section and shall thereafter be subject to and governed by the provisions of this Section and the rules and regulations adopted under the authority of this Section.

(3) All employees in the Classified Civil Service of the State and cities of the State subject to the provisions of this Section, who, those described in the preceding paragraph (Q) (1) and (2), and the succeeding paragraphs (S) (1) and (2), shall on the thirtieth (30th) day of June 1952 acquire permanent Civil Service status in the class of position they are occupying on such date, subject to passing such probationary noncompetitive test, prescribed and given within a reasonable time after the thirtieth (30th) day of June 1952, by the Director of the appropriate Civil Service Department, to determine their fitness to perform satisfactorily the duties of their positions, and thereafter they shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of this Section and the rules and regulations adopted under the authority of this Section.

(R). Effective date. Except as provided ... (2) hereof, the provisions of this Section ... (E), (F) (2), (H), (I) (1) to (10) inclusive, (O) (1) (2) and (3), (N) (1) to (9) inclusive, (O) (1) to (4) inclusive and (P) (1) (2) and (5), ... shall become effective and applicable to the State Service and State Civil Service System, ... shall not become operative until the thirtieth day of June 1952, in all other respects the provisions of this Section shall become operative on the effective date of this amendment.

1. Effective Date of Provisions. Any system of municipal fire and police civil service under Act 103 of 1944, as amended, or under the provisions of Sections 2471 thru 2500 of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 which is in effect on the effective date of this amendment, is continued in effect under the provisions of this Section.

The rights of any person under Act 103 of 1944, as amended, and under the above Sections of the Revised Statutes which exist on the effective day of this amendment are continued in effect. Every rule, classification, plan, or allocation established under the above provisions which is in force on the effective day of this amendment is continued in effect until it is amended or repealed by the proper authority under this Section.

5. System of Classified Civil Service. There is created in the municipal government a classified civil service embracing the positions of employment, the officers, and employees of the municipal fire and police services. The classified civil service shall be known as "the municipal fire and police civil service".

6. Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Boards. a. A municipal fire and police civil service board is created in the municipal government. The board shall be composed of five board members who shall serve without compensation. The board shall have a chairman, vice-chairman and a secretary. The domicile of the board shall be in the municipality it serves.

b. To be eligible for appointment or to serve as a member of a board, a person shall be a citizen of the United States of America, a resident of the municipality in which he is to serve for at least five years next preceding his appointment, and shall, at the time of his appointment, be a qualified voter of the municipality. Any employee while serving as a member of a board shall occupy as a regular employee a position or office lower than that of chief, assistant chief, district chief, or battalion chief of his department. No member of a board shall have been, during a period of six months immediately preceding his appointment, a member of any local, state, or national committee of a political party, or an officer or member of a committee in any factional political club or organization. No member of a board shall be a candidate for nomination or election to any public office or hold any other public office or position of public employment, except that of notary public, a military or naval official office, or that of a municipal fire or police department which is expressly required by the provisions of this Section.

c. The first five members of a board shall be appointed by the governing body of the municipality during the ninety day period immediately following the date this Section takes effect in a municipality under paragraph 1.

The members of the board shall be appointed by the governing body as follows:

(1) One shall be appointed by the governing body upon its own nomination.

(2) Two members shall be appointed from a list of four nominees, which shall be furnished within thirty days after receiving such request by the executive head or a legally chartered and established institution of higher education located within the municipality; or, if there is no such institution in the municipality, by the executive head of any such institution of the governing body's choice within the state.

(3) Two members shall be appointed who shall be first nominated and elected by and from the regular employees of the fire and police departments as follows:

One member shall be elected and appointed from the fire department, and one member shall be elected and appointed from the police department. The employee-nominee from each department shall be elected by secret ballot of the regular employees of his respective department at an election to be called and held for that purpose by the chief of the department. The chief of each department shall call such an election within forty-five days after this Section takes effect in the municipality by posting, for a fifteen day consecutive period immediately preceding the election, a notice thereof on the bulletin board of each station house of his department; and, shall officially notify the governing body of the municipality within ten days thereafter of the results of the election, the name of the employee-nominee so elected by the regular employees of his department. The chief of the department shall vote in the election only in the case of a tie vote.

d. The term of office for all members of the board shall be for a period of three years, except that the first member appointed by the governing body of a municipality upon its own nomination shall serve for a period of two years; the first employee members nominated and appointed as provided above shall serve a term of one year. Each member shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

e. Upon the term of office expiring for a member of a board, or because of a vacancy in the office of any member thereof, the governing body of a municipality shall appoint a successor in the same manner as the outgoing member was appointed; and such successive appointment shall be made within ninety days immediately following the expiration or vacancy.

f. Each member shall take the oath of office before entering upon the duties of his office. His oath shall include a statement to uphold the Constitution and laws of Louisiana and of the United States; to administer faithfully and impartially the provisions of this Section and the rules adopted under the authority of this Section.

g. Members of such a board serving under Act 103 of 1944 or under Sections 2471 through Section 2476 of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 at this time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which they were appointed.

h. Any member of a board shall be liable to removal from office by judgment of the district court of his domicile for high crimes and misdemeanors in office, incompetency, corruption, favoritism, extortion, oppression in office, gross misconduct, or habitual drunkenness. The district attorney of the district wherein the board member resides may institute such suit, and shall do so upon the written request, specifying the charges, of twenty-five citizens and taxpayers of the municipality of which the board member is a resident. The district attorney shall associate in the diligent prosecution of such suit any attorney selected and employed by the citizens and taxpayers.

i. The governing body of the municipality shall advise, within and not later than the expiration of the ninety day period provided for the appointment of the board members, each appointee of his appointment and shall serve as a member of the municipal fire and police civil service board; and, an official record thereof shall be placed in the official minutes of the governing body.

j. The original members of the board shall meet within thirty days after their appointment in their first official meeting; take the oath of office; elect a chairman and vice-chairman; and transact any other business pertinent at that time. The oath of office shall be administered by the city clerk or by any other person having the legal authority to administer it.

k. A chairman and vice-chairman shall be elected by the members of the board. The term for which either the chairman or vice-chairman shall serve as such, shall run concurrently with that for which he was appointed a member of the board; except the term of either office shall terminate upon death of the incumbent, or his removal from the office or from the board or his removal from the board.

1. At the discretion of the board, the office of secretary shall be filled:

(1) By electing one of its members thereto;

(2) By appointing the city clerk or secretary-treasurer of the municipality to fill such office ex officio;

(3) By employing and paying on a part-time basis any other person a salary not to exceed twenty dollars per month; or

(4) By requiring the state examiner to act in such capacity. The board may terminate the term of office of any person serving as its secretary at any time. No person serving as secretary of a board, except a member thereof, shall have the right to vote in its proceedings. The secretary shall attend the meetings of the board; keep a record of the proceedings; attend to correspondence directed to him, and other correspondence ordered by the chairman; perform other functions assigned to him by the board; and cooperate with the state examiner in a manner that will assist the examiner to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon him by this Section or those functions which may be requested of him by the board.

bers of the board due notice thereof. The chairman of the board shall call, and the members of the board shall attend, one regular meeting of the board within each quarterly period of each calendar year. If a chairman fails or refuses to call such quarterly meeting of this board, the members of the board shall meet upon the written call of any two members mailed ten days in advance of the meeting. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and the concurring votes of any three members comprising the quorum of the board shall be sufficient for the decision of all matters to be decided or transacted by it. Meetings of the boards shall be open to the public.

7. Duties of the Board. a. Represent the public interest in matters of personnel administration in the fire and police services of the said municipal government.

b. Advise and assist the governing body, mayor, commissioner of public safety, and the chiefs of the fire and police departments of the municipality, with reference to the maintenance and improvement of personnel standards and administration in the fire and police services, and the classified system.

c. Advise and assist the employees in the classified service with reference to the maintenance, improvement, and administration of personnel matters related to any individual or group of employees.

d. Make, at the direction of the mayor, commissioner of public safety, chief of either the fire or police department, or upon the written petition of any citizen for just cause, or upon its own motion, any investigation concerning the administration of personnel or the compliance with the provisions of this section in the said municipal fire and police services; review, and modify or set aside upon its own motion, any of its actions, take any other action which it determines to be desirable or necessary in the public interest, or to carry out effectively the provisions and purposes of this Section.

e. Conduct investigations and pass upon complaints by or against any officer or employee in the classified service for the purpose of demotion, reduction in position or abolition thereof, suspension of dismissal of the officer or employee, in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

f. Hear and pass upon matters which the mayor, commissioner of public safety, the chiefs of the departments affected by this Section, and the state examiner of municipal fire and police civil service bring before it.

g. Make, alter, amend, and promulgate rules necessary to carry out effectively the provisions of this section.

h. Adopt and maintain a classification plan. The classification plan shall be adopted and maintained by rules of the board.

i. Make reports to the governing body, either upon its own motion or upon the official request of the governing body, regarding general or special matters of personnel administration in and for the municipal fire and police services of the municipality, or with reference to any appropriation made by the governing body for the expenses incidental to the operation of the board.

8. Rules. Each board may adopt and execute rules, regulations, and orders necessary or desirable effectively to carry out the provisions of this Section, and shall do so when expressly required by this Section. No rule, regulation, or order shall be contrary to, or in violation or, any provisions, purposes, or intent of this Section or contrary to any other provisions of law. The board may amend or repeal any rule or part thereof in the same manner provided herein for the adoption of the rule. All rules shall be applicable to both the fire and police classified services, unless by express provisions therein, it is made applicable to only one of the services.

A board may adopt any rule, either in its proposed or revised form, after holding a public hearing at which any municipal officer, employee, private citizen, and the state examiner shall be given an opportunity to show cause why the proposed rule, amendment, or any part thereof should not be adopted. If the board holds this public hearing, it shall furnish at least thirty days notice in advance of the date, time and place thereof to the mayor, commissioner of public safety, and chiefs of the municipal commissioner whom of public safety, and chiefs of the departments affected by the rule may in any way affect, the chief and each station of the departmental service to be affected by the adoption of the proposed rule, and to the state examiner. A copy of all of any such rule, and to the state examiner. A copy of such proposed rules to be discussed at any hearing shall be furnished with all notices. Each notice and copy of proposed rule furnished the various stations of a respective department shall be posted upon the bulletin board of each station for a period of at least thirty days in advance of the hearing.

Within thirty days after the board has adopted any rule, whether it is a new rule or amendment of an existing rule, or an abolition in whole or part therof, it shall furnish the official copy thereof to all persons and places set forth above.

Rules adopted under the authority of this Section shall have the force and effect of law.

9. State examiner and Deputy State Examiner of Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service. a. The office of state examiner of municipal fire and police civil service is created.

b. The office of Deputy State Examiner of Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service is created, subject to the supervision and orders of the state examiner; he is authorized and empowered to exercise the authority and perform the duties of the state examiner as herein provided. He shall receive and be paid a salary in the amount fixed by the Governor and shall be paid traveling and living expenses while away from the place of his residence.

c. The state examiner shall be a resident and qualified voter of the state. He shall be a person who has had experience in the field of personnel administration. He and the deputy state examiner of the municipal fire and police civil service shall come within and be bound under and amenable to the Classified Service of the State as established and existing, except no pay plan thereunder shall be applicable to the said state examiner or deputy state examiner. The state examiner and deputy state examiner shall be subject to removal and other disciplinary action by the State Civil Service Commission only for a good and sufficient cause set forth in written charges filed with the Commission by any one of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Board created by this amendment or by any qualified elector of the State, and only after a public hearing by the State Commission to be held in accordance with rules to be adopted by the said Commission.

d. The State Civil Service Commission shall exercise no administrative control over the State Examiner or Deputy State Examiner. Its functions and powers relating to this office shall consist solely of the right of appointment, hearing of charges for removal or other disciplinary action legally brought against the incumbents of these officers, and the rendering of such other ordering of their removal or disciplinary nature as it may deem proper after a hearing.

e. When a vacancy occurs in the office of the said State Examiner or Deputy State Examiner, the State Civil Service Commission shall make a provisional appointment of any person it deems qualified to fill the vacancy until a competitive examination can be given by and under the direction of the State Civil Service Commission; and until a list of persons eligible for appointment to the office can be established. In such list can be and is established, the State Civil Service Commission shall appoint one of the three persons ranking highest upon said eligible list to fill the office; and the person thus appointed shall serve a working test period of six months which shall be considered a portion of the examination. At the termination of such working test period, if successfully completed, the appointee shall become a regular employee as defined in the State Civil Service Law and subject and amenable thereto to the same extent as the original State Examiner as hereinbefore set forth in the sufficient cause set forth in written charges filed with the Civil Service Boards created by this Act, or by any qualified elector of the State, and only after a public hearing by the State Commission to be held in accordance with rules to be adopted by the State Civil Service Commission.

f. The state examiner shall maintain a suitable office in the city of Baton Rouge. The officer charged by law with the custody of state buildings shall assign suitable office space to the examiner. The examiner shall appoint employees necessary for him to carry out his duties effectively. All of the employees appointed by the state examiner, except persons employed on a temporary basis to conduct or assist in giving examinations, shall be selected by him after certification to him by the State Department of Civil Service of names from eligible lists established by the State Department of Civil Service; and they shall, in all other respects, be covered by the provisions of existing Civil Service laws and rules and regulations legally adopted by the Department of State Civil Service.

g. The state examiner shall serve on a full-time basis. He shall be paid a salary of not less than forty-two hundred dollars per year. He shall be paid for his traveling and living expenses while away from the city of Baton Rouge.

h. The state examiner shall take the oath of office and furnish bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the sum of five thousand dollars. The premium of the bond shall be paid from the funds appropriated to the state examiner. The state examiner shall be ex officio a notary public for the state at large.

i. The state examiner may obtain on a contractual or fee basis the services which his office is unable to supply and which are necessary for his compliance with the provisions of this Section.

j. The state examiner shall:

(1) Assist the various boards in an advisory capacity in the discharge of their duties.

(2) Prepare and submit a classification plan to each board for its approval, after consultation with the appointing and departmental authorities of the departments service for which a plan is prepared and submitted, as provided in paragraph 13.

(3) Prepare and administer tests of fitness for original entrance and promotion to applicants for positions in the respective classified service of the municipalities; score the tests and furnish the results to the board for which the tests were given.

(4) Cooperate with the secretary of each board in maintaining a roster of all fire and police civil service employees in which shall be set forth the name of each employee, the class title of position held, the salary or pay compensation, class title of position held, the salary or pay compensation, any change in class title, and any other necessary data.

(5) Act as secretary of any said board requesting such service.

(6) Assist and cooperate in an advisory manner with the various appointing authorities, department officers, and the classified employees, of the municipalities regarding the duties and obligations imposed upon them by the provisions of this Section.

(7) Encourage employee training in the classified service and, when possible, attend the training courses or parts thereof.

(8) Make annual or biennial reports regarding the work of his office to the Governor.

k. The state examiner may delegate to the deputy state examiner such of the above duties as he may deem expedient.

10. Appropriations; Facilities for Board. The legislature shall make adequate annual appropriations to enable the state examiner and deputy state examiner to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon them by this Section. The governing body of the municipality shall make adequate annual appropriations to enable the board of the municipality to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon the board and shall furnish the board with office space, furnishings, and shall furnish the board with office space, furnishings, equipment, and supplies and materials necessary for its operation.

11. Classified and Unclassified Service. a. The classified service shall comprise every position, except those included in the unclassified service, to which the right of employee selection, appointment, supervision, and discharge is vested in the municipal government or with an officer or employee thereof and which has as its primary duty and responsibility one of the following:

(Fire)

(1) The chief and assistant chiefs; the intradepartmental division, bureau, squad, platoon and company officers of the fire department.

(2) Fire fighting.

(3) Fire prevention; inspection.

(4) Driving, tillering, and operation of fire apparatus.

(5) Operation and maintenance of radio, fire alarm, or signal system.

(6) Fire department instructors in employee training.

(7) Fire salvage and overhauling services; and first aid.

(8) Automotive or fire apparatus repairs, if such service is operated exclusively by and for either or both the fire or police department.

(9) Secretary to the chief. Departmental records clerk.

b. The unclassified service shall comprise the following:

(1) All officers, employees, and positions of employment in the municipal government, not having as a principal duty one of the duties hereinabove provided in the classified service.

(2) Officers elected by popular vote and persons appointed to fill vacancies in elective offices.

(3) Secretaries, stenographers, and all clerical positions not specifically included in the classified service.

(4) Pound keepers, dog catchers, janitors, porters, elevator operators, chefs, kitchen helpers and workers, mechanic's helpers, car washers, unskilled labor, special guards at schools, or any part-time, or temporary employee.

(5) Any position of employment, the duties of which are included in the classified service, to which the right of employee selection, appointment, supervision, and discharge is vested in and with those other than the municipal government or an officer or employee thereof.

12. Right of Employee Who Entered Armed Forces to be Reinstated. Any regular and permanent employee who left a position of the departmental service, which now comes within the classified service, subsequent to May 1, 1940, and entered the armed forces of the United States shall be restored to his position and, thereafter, be subject to the rights and jurisdiction of the classified service created by this Section if he makes application therefor to the appointing authority within six days from the date of his honorable discharge or discharge under honorable conditions, and is physically and mentally capable of performing the work of his position to the satisfaction of the appointing authority.

13. Classification plan. Each board, as soon as practicable, not to exceed a period of eighteen months, after this Section takes effect in the municipality, shall adopt a classification plan for the fire and police services of the municipality. Each classification plan shall consist of classes to be designated either by standard titles, ranks, or a combination thereof, for all positions included in the classified service for each of the fire and police services. The classification plan may be divided into groups of classes. The various classes of positions shall be arranged in each classification plan so as to show the principal and natural lines of promotion and demotion. The classification plan shall be adopted as rules of the board, in the manner provided by this Section for the adoption of rules. Rules creating the classification plan, future classifications, abolition of any classification, any amendment thereto, or revision thereof shall be adopted by a board only after consultation with the appointing authority, and the state examiner. The original classification plan to be established when this Section takes effect in a municipality shall be prepared, after consultation with the appointing authorities, and submitted to the state examiner for his approval and adoption, by the state examiner. The board may amend or revise the classification plans before adopting them. The state examiner shall advise and assist the board in all future classifications when requested assist the board in all future classifications when requested to do so.

14. Allocation of Positions to Classes. The board, or chairman thereof subject to the subsequent approval of the board, as soon as practicable, not exceeding forty-five days, after the adoption of a classification plan, after consultation with the appointing authorities concerned, shall allocate each position in the classified service to its appropriate class; and thereafter shall allocate each new position created in the service, and, when for the benefit of the service, reallocate positions from class to class.

Whenever the duties of a position are so changed by the appointing authority that the position in effect becomes one of a different class from that to which it is allocated, the change shall operate to abolish the position and to create a new position of the different class.

Whenever the board finds any change in the duties of any position in the classified service was brought about by the appointing authority to effect a reduction in the classification of any employee because of political, religious, or discriminatory reasons, or without just cause, it shall refuse to recognize any such action, and shall order the appointing authority to continue the employee in the position and class with all rights and privileges.

15. Use of Class Titles. The title of each class shall be the only title of employment allocated to the class, for all purposes having to do with the position as such, and shall be used to the exclusion of all other titles on all pay rolls, budget estimates, and official records and reports relating to the position, except that any abbreviation or code symbol by the board may be used to designate a position of a class. Any other title authorized to the appointing authority may be used in official communications and in any other connection not having to do with the personnel processes covered by this Section. No employee shall be appointed, employed, or paid under any title other than that of the class to which the position occupied by him is allocated.

16. Status of Incumbent of Position When Allocated. Every person employed in the municipal fire and police services for a continuous period of at least six calendar months immediately preceding the date that this Section takes effect in the municipality, who was regularly and permanently appointed to a position coming under the classified service, shall be inducted into and bound under the classified service, the provisions of this Section, and the rules adopted hereunder.

When any position is first allocated hereunder, or is reallocated to a different class to correct an error in its previous allocation, or because of a change in the duties of a position which has the effect of abolishing the position and creating a new position of another class, the employee and the position may continue to serve therein, with the status and all rights and privileges he would have had under this Section if he had been originally appointed by examination and certification hereunder to a position of the class to which the position has been allocated or reallocated. Such employee however may be transferred without further tests or certification to any position of the class to which the position was previously allocated while held by the employee.

Any employee who feels himself aggrieved because of any allocation or change in classification affecting his position shall, upon his request, be heard thereon by the board; and the board shall hear and decide the complaint in any manner deemed proper.

17. Methods of filling vacancies. Vacancies in positions in the classified service shall be filled by one of the following methods:

a. Demotion
b. Transfer
c. Reinstatement
d. Promotional appointment
e. Competitive appointment
f. Reemployment
g. Temporary appointment

A vacancy shall be considered filled under any of the methods specified above, and employment thereunder effective, as of the date on which the employee enters upon the duties thereof.

18. Demotion. Demotions of regular employees shall be made by the appointing authority when it becomes necessary to reduce the number of employees in the classified service or in the class therein. Demotions from any class, except for disciplinary reasons or because of the abolition of an entire class in the classified service, shall be made by demoting employees from lowest to highest in point of total seniority earned in positions of the class plus that earned in any higher classes in the classified service. The names of regular employees demoted for any reason, except for disciplinary action, shall be recorded upon the reinstatement list for the class from which they are demoted in the order in which the demotions are made.

19. Transfer. Any employee may transferred from any position in the classified service to any other position of the same class within the classified service, on the request of the appointing authority without notice to and confirmation by the board.

Any regular employee so transferred shall have the right of appeal to his board upon the grounds (1) that his transfer was made to a position not included within the class to which his position was previously allocated, or (2) that the position to which he has been transferred is not included within the classified service; or (3) the transfer was made deliberately to discriminate against him.

20. Reinstatement and reemployment. a. Each employee who, during or at the expiration of his working test period of probation following promotion after being certified from an appropriate employment list, is rejected and refused permanent status in the position and class to which he was promoted, shall be automatically reinstated to the position from which he was promoted without his name being placed upon any list.

b. All employees whose names appear upon the reinstatement list for a prospective class shall be reinstated in a position thereof, in the reverse order from which their names were placed upon the list, before any other appointment is made therein.

c. All employees whose names appear upon the reemployment list for a class from which they laid off according to the provisions of paragraph 29, shall be reemployed in a position thereof, or offered such appointment, in the reverse order from which their names were placed upon the list for the class, before any other employment or appointment is made in it.

d. Any regular employee who resigns from a position in the classified service may, with the prior approval of the board, be reemployed in a position of the class or in a position of any lower class for which he is qualified, provided that the reemployment is made within four years of the date of resignation, and that no person whose name appears upon either the reinstatement, employment, or reemployment list for a class to which any such person is reemployed is willing to accept an appointment therein. Any person who is reemployed shall be physically fit to perform the duties of the position to which he is appointed. The appointing authority a favorable medical certificate to the appointing authority and the board after a recent examination by a practicing physician.

21. Establishment and Maintenance of Employment Lists. The board shall establish and maintain employment lists containing names of persons eligible for appointment to the various classes of positions in the classified service, as follows:

a. Names of regular employees who are demoted from any class for a reason other than disciplinary action shall be placed upon the reinstatement list for the class from which they were demoted in the order in which the demotions were made.

b. Only the names of regular employees who have been laid off in accordance with provisions of paragraph 29 shall be eligible for entry upon the reemployment list. The names of such persons shall be entered upon the reemployment list for the class from which they were laid off in the order in which the layoffs were made.

c. A name placed upon either the reinstatement or the reemployment list shall remain thereon for a period of four years. The board, however, may remove the name of any person who refuses an offer of employment following a certification from either list.

d. Names of persons attaining a passing score on a promotion test shall be placed upon the promotion employment list for the class for which they were tested, from highest to lowest, according to their total seniority in the department. The names of persons attaining a passing score on a competitive test shall be placed upon the competitive employment list for the class for which they were tested, from highest to lowest, according to their final test scores.

e. Any person whose name is placed upon the competitive employment list for the entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service who has served in the armed forces of the United States of America during the times of war, and who has been honorably discharged or discharged under honorable conditions, shall have added to his final test score a total of five points at the time of placing his name upon the list. Proof of such service and discharge shall be required by the board in any manner it deems advisable.

f. The minimum and maximum period for which a name may remain upon a promotional and competitive employment list shall be twelve and eighteen months, respectively, for each list.

g. The employment list for which eligibles are obtained from the results of the tests given for that purpose shall be reestablished in the manner further provided in this Section.

h. When new names are to be placed upon a promotion list for a given class, the remaining names thereon shall be rearranged with the new names so that all names appearing upon the list for the class shall rank, from highest to lowest, according to total seniority in the department, with the new names so as to allow for equal seniority. When new names are to be placed upon a competitive list for a given class, the remaining names thereon shall be rearranged with the new names so that all names appearing upon the list for the class shall rank, from highest to lowest, according to their final test scores.

22. Tests. The board shall provide through the state examiner for tests to determine the eligibility of applicants for entry upon the promotional and competitive employment lists, as follows:

a. Official notice of examination shall be posted on the bulletin board in each station of the respective departments. The notice shall state (1) class of positions for which tests will be given, (2) whether the tests will be given on a promotional or competitive basis, and (3) the final date on which applications for admission to the tests will be received. The notice shall be posted for a continuous period of thirty days preceding the date for administering the tests. In addition to the posted notice, public notice for all tests shall be given on a competitive basis shall be published at least four times during the thirty day period in the official journal of the municipality in which such tests are to be held. This notice of examination need not reveal the exact date on which tests shall be administered, but all applicants shall be advised the date, place, and time to report for an announced test at least five days in advance thereof in any manner the board may prescribe. Each person comprising a group of candidates being tested at a given time for the same class of employment shall be given the same test, and it shall be administered in the same manner to each candidate. No questions shall be framed so as to elicit information concerning the political, factional, or religious opinions or affiliations of any applicant.

b. All tests shall be restricted to those matters which will fairly test the relative capacity and fitness of the candidates to discharge the duties characteristic of positions of the class to which they seek to be appointed. Tests may include written or oral questions, trials on the performance of work characteristic of the class, inquiries into facts relating to education, experience, or accomplishments in specialised lines of endeavor, or any combination of these and other elements duly related to the purpose of the tests.

c. Seventy-five percent shall constitute a passing score for all tests administered under the provisions of this Section.

d. Promotional tests for positions in the various classes in the classified service, except those classes in which positions shall be filled only from the competitive list, may be held as the need of the service require, but must be given held as the need of the service require, but must be given at least one time during each successive period of eighteen months.

e. Competitive tests shall be held only as the needs of the service require and shall be given for classes comprising only the following duties or positions:

(1) Chief of the departmental service.

(2) The entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service.

(3) The entrance or lowest ranking class in any group of classes where the various classes have been divided into groups by the classification plan.

(4) Operation, maintenance, and supervision of radio, fire alarm, police alarm, and other signal systems.

(5) Automotive or fire apparatus mechanics and repairmen.

(6) Secretary to the chief.

(7) Departmental records clerk.

(8) For a position in any class in the classified service after reasonable efforts by the preceding methods provided by this Section have failed to produce names of persons eligible for regular appointment thereto.

f. All tests required by this Section shall be prepared, administered, and scored by the state examiner in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The results of the tests shall be furnished the board for which the tests have been held as soon as practicable after the tests have been administered. All test questions, answers, and papers shall at all times be in the custody of the state examiner, and shall be produced by him and exhibited by him at the domicile of any board upon its written request.

g. The board for which any test is administered may, at any time, up to six months after receiving the results from the state examiner, receive and review any or all parts of the test and the methods used in its grading, in order to determine whether the test was a fair and reasonable one and was fairly graded. If, after the board reviews any one and was fairly graded. If, after the board reviews any one and was fairly graded, it may, at its discretion, or finds errors in the grading, it may, at its discretion, or finds errors in the grading of the test, and, thereupon, correct or establish the appropriate employment list in accordance with the revised ratings. If the board finds that a fair rating can be determined only from an entirs new test, it may cause a new test to be given to all persons taking the previous test and, establish a new employment list for the class from the results of such new test.

h. Each applicant who makes a passing score on a test administered under the provisions of this Section shall be advised, in any manner the board prescribes, of his final grade and relative standing on the list appropriate for the class for which he was tested.

23. Admission to Tests. Admission to tests shall be as follows:

a. Admission to a promotional test shall be limited to regular employees of the class next lower from that for which they are to be examined. However, the rules may provide for admission to be extended to applicants from any one or more of the next lower classes.

b. Admission to competitive tests shall be open to all persons who meet the requirements provided by this Section and the rules.

c. Any applicant admitted to a test shall be a citizen of the United States of America and, if of legal age, shall be a qualified elector of the State of Louisiana.

d. Special requirements or qualifications for admission to tests, or for eligibility for appointment, such as age, education, physical requirements, etc., may be established by the rules adopted by the board, after consultation with the appointing authority. Any applicant must be, at the time of his appointment to a position in the classified service, of good health, good moral character, and of temperate and industrious habits.

e. The board may reject the application of any person for admission to tests of fitness, or refuse any applicant to be tested, or may cancel the eligibility of any eligible on any employment list, if:

(1) Is found to lack any of the qualifications prescribed, or which may be legally prescribed, as requirements for admission to the tests for the class for which he has applied;

(2) Is physically unfit to perform effectively the duties of a position of the class;

(3) Is addicted to the habitual use of drugs or intoxicating liquors to excess;

(4) Has been adjudged guilty of a crime involving moral turpitude or infamous or notoriously disgraceful conduct;

(5) Has been dismissed from the respective service for delinquency or misconduct;

(6) Has made a false statement of any material fact; or

(7) Has practiced, or attempted to practice, deception or fraud in securing eligibility for appointment or attempting to do so.

Any such facts shall also be considered cause for removal of any employee. The board shall reject any application filed after the time fixed for closing receipt or applications as announced in the public notice of the tests.

24. Certification and Appointment. a. Whenever the appointing authority proposes to fill a vacancy in the classified service, except by demotion, transfer, emergency appointment, or by substitute employment not to exceed thirty days, he shall request the board to certify names of persons eligible for appointment to the vacant position. The board shall thereupon certify by writing the names of eligible persons from the appropriate employment list as provided below. No such certification shall be valid for more than thirty days following the date thereof. The appointing authority shall, if he fills the vacancy, make the appointment as provided below.

b. The board shall first certify the name of the person appearing upon the reinstatement list who is eligible for the first reinstatement in the class of the vacant position. The name of this person and all others appearing upon the reinstatement list for the class shall be certified and offered the appointment in the order provided by paragraph 20a before the vacancy is filled by any subsequent method provided by this Section. The appointing authority shall appoint to the vacant position the first person so certified to him who is willing to accept the appointment. If the position is one of a class from which layoffs have been made as provided by paragraph 29 the names of eligible persons appearing upon the reemployment list for the class shall be certified and offered the appointment in the order provided by paragraph 20a before any other appointment is made thereto.

c. In the event a vacancy cannot be filled by reinstatement, or by reemployment as above provided, the board shall next certify the names of the persons upon the promotional list, in the order in which they appear thereon, for the class in which the vacancy is to be filled. The appointing authority shall select and appoint to the first vacancy to be filled the one person certified to him who has the greatest seniority in the departmental service. Any two persons having the greatest seniority in the same class shall be filled by appointing to each such successive vacancy the one of the remaining persons certified therefor who has the next highest seniority in the departmental service. If any one or more persons so certified should refuse the appointment, the appointing authority shall then select and appoint one of the remaining persons certified by the board with the next highest seniority in the departmental service. This procedure shall be followed until the position has been filled by appointment of the one person whose name appears upon the list, has in this order been certified and offered the appointment for the vacancy.

d. Certification and appointment from the competitive list shall be limited to those conditions and classifications for which the competitive test may be given as provided by paragraph 22e. Upon the appointing authority's request for the certification of eligible persons from which he may fill a vacancy, and if the competitive list is for the appropriate list from which the names of eligible persons shall be certified, the board shall certify the names of the persons upon that list, in the order in which they appear thereon, for the class in which the vacancy is to be filled. The appointing authority shall select and appoint to the first vacancy to be filled, any one of the persons so certified to him for the vacancy. If any one or more persons so certified should refuse the appointment, the appointing authority shall then select and appoint any one of the remaining persons certified by the board. This procedure shall be followed until the position has been filled by appointment of one of the persons certified from the list and willing to accept the appointment, or until each person whose name appears upon the list has in this manner been certified for the vacancy.

e. Appointment to the position in the classified service from which the regular employee is away on an authorized leave of absence shall be made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 25.

f. The appointing authority shall notify the board of the filling of a vacancy as provided in paragraph 33.

25. Working Tests. Every person appointed to a position in the classified service following the certification of his name from the promotional or competitive employment list, except those appointed on a temporary basis, shall be tested by a working test while occupying the position before he may be confirmed as a regular and permanent employee in the position.

The period of the working test shall commence immediately upon appointment and shall continue for a period of not less than six months nor more than one year. Any employee who has served at least three but less than six months of his working test for any position may be removed therefrom during the period with the prior approval of the board, and only upon the grounds that (1) he is unable or unwilling to perform satisfactorily the duties of the position to which he has been appointed or (2) his habits and dependability do not merit his continuance therein. Any such employee may appeal before the board and present his case before he is removed.

Upon any employee completing his working test, the appointing authority shall so advise the board and furnish a signed statement to the respective employee of its confirmation and acceptance of the employee as a regular and permanent employee in the respective position, or of its refusal to confirm the employee and the reasons therefor. If, at the expiration of an employee's working test period, the appointing authority fails to confirm or reject the employee, such failure to act shall constitute a confirmation. Any employee who is rejected after serving a working test of six months but not more than one year, may appeal to the board only upon the grounds that he was not given a fair opportunity to prove his ability in the position.

The appointing authority may remove, and shall remove upon the order of the board, any employee during his working test period who the board finds, after giving him notice and an opportunity to be heard, was appointed as a result of an error, misrepresentation, or fraud.

In any event where any employee is permitted under this Section to appeal to the board, the decision of the board shall be subject to the judicial review provided by this Section and the appointing authority and employee shall be governed accordingly.

26. Temporary Appointments. Temporary appointments may be made to positions in the classified service without the appointees acquiring any permanent status therein, as follows:

a. (1) When a vacancy is to be filled in a position of a class for which the board is unable to certify names of persons eligible for regular and permanent, or substitute, appointment, the appointing authority may make a provisional appointment of any person whom he deems qualified. When practicable, the appointment should be made by the provisional promotion of any employee of a lower class. A provisional appointment shall not continue for more than three months. No position in the classified service shall be filled by one or more provisional appointments for a period in excess of three consecutive months and successive like periods shall not be permissible. The board may, however, authorize the renewal of such appointment, or authorize such successive appointments for a period not to exceed three additional months whenever it has been impracticable or impossible to establish a list of persons eligible for certification and appointment for a vacancy. Any provisional appointment, if not terminated sooner, shall terminate upon the regular filling of the vacancy in any manner authorized under this Section, and, in any event, within fifteen days after a certification from which a regular, or substitute appointment, as the case may be, can be made under the provisions of this Section. A provisional appointment shall be reported to the board within fifteen days following the appointment.

(2) During the times of war, and after the board continues in effect tests provided by this Section in an effort to obtain persons eligible for regular and permanent appointment to a position of any class which has been permanently vacated by the regular employee thereof, and it finds it impossible to establish a list of persons qualified for certification and permanent appointment to the position in the classified service, the appointing authority may appoint to fill the position with a provisional appointee until the appropriate employment list can be established.

(3) Provisional appointments may be made in any position until a classification plan is prepared and adopted and for such times thereafter as may be required for the preparation and administration of tests and the establishment of employment lists from the results of the tests. But such special authority shall be valid for a period of not more than eighteen months immediately following the date that this Section takes effect in the municipality.

b. A substitute appointment may be made to any position in the classified service (1) from which the regular and permanent employee is away on an authorized leave of absence, or (2) from which the regular employee is substituting for some other regular employee who is authorized to be away from his respective position. No position shall be filled by a substitute appointee for a time beyond that for which the regular and permanent incumbent is away on an authorized leave. Whenever such appointment shall continue for not more than thirty days, the appointing authority may appoint thereto any one whom he deems qualified. Substitute appointments made for a period exceeding thirty days shall be made in the same manner as provided in paragraph 24 for filling of a vacancy by a regular and permanent appointment. Any person employed on a substitute basis shall, for the duration of the temporary employment, enjoy the class title and be entitled to receive the rate of pay for the class and position in which he is employed. The appointing authority shall notify the board within fifteen days following any substitute appointment made for a period to exceed thirty days, the name of the appointee, the class of position filled, the period for which the appointment was made and attach the notification a signed copy of the leave of absence granted the employee for whom the appointee is substituting.

c. Emergency appointments of any person may be made at any time the need of the service required because of any such emergency of a temporary and special nature. No such appointment shall be effective or continued for more than ten days.

27. Leaves of Absence. The board shall adopt rules to provide for leaves of absence in the various classes of the classified service. Such rules shall provide for annual vacation and sick leaves with pay, and special leaves with or without pay. They may provide for special extended leaves with or without pay or with reduced pay for employees dismissed through injury or illness arising out of their employabled through injury or illness arising out of their employment. The right to return to duty at which any employee may take an annual leave, or any other leave which is not beyond the control of the employee, shall be vested at all times with the appointing authority.

28. Abolition of Positions in the Classified Service. Whenever the appointing authority abolishes a position in the classified service and there is no position vacant in the respective class to which the regular employee may be transferred, such employee shall be transferred to any position of the same class which may be held by a provisional employee. If there is no such position he shall be transferred to another position in the respective class, and the holder of that position shall thereupon be declass, and the holder of that position shall thereupon be demoted in the order provided by paragraph 18.

29. Layoffs. If, for any reason, the lowest class in the classified service, or the lowest class in a respective group of classes, as grouped by the classification plan, should become overburdened with the number of persons holding positions therein, and a reduction of personnel becomes necessary, the reduction shall be made only by layings off of persons without pay. The order of removal shall begin with the person youngest in point of his accumulated total service in the departmental service and shall continue upward until all the departmental service and shall continue upward until all persons to be removed have been laid off. Layoffs shall be persons to be removed have been laid off. Layoffs shall be made from positions only within the classes above set forth. The names of persons laid off, the date, the class of position held, and the order in which each position was laid off shall be reported to the board by the appointing authority. The board shall, thereupon, enter such information upon the reemployment list applicable for the class from which each person was removed.

30. Corrective and Disciplinary Action for Maintaining Standards of Service. a. The tenure of persons who have been regularly and permanently inducted into positions of the classified service shall be during good behavior. However, the appointing authority may remove any employee from the service, or take such disciplinary action as the circumstances warrant in the manner provided below for any one of the following reasons:

(1) Unwillingness or failure to perform the duties of his position in a satisfactory manner.

(2) The deliberate omission of any act that it was his duty to perform.

(3) The commission or omission of any act to the prejudice of the departmental service or contrary to the public interest or policy.

(4) Insubordination.

(5) Conduct of a discourteous or wantonly offensive nature toward the public; any municipal officer or employee; and any dishonest, disgraceful, or immoral conduct.

(6) Drinking vinous or spirituous liquors while on duty or reporting for duty while under the influence of liquor.

(7) The use of intoxicating liquors, or habit-forming drug, or liquor, or preparation to the extent which precludes the employee from performing the duties of his position in a safe or competent manner.

(8) The conviction of a felony.

(9) Falsely making a statement of any material fact in his application for admission to any test for securing eligibility or appointment to any position in the classified service, or, practicing or attempting to practice fraud or deception in any test.

(10) Using or promising to use his influence or official authority to secure any appointment to a position within the classified service as a reward or return for partisan political services.

(11) Soliciting or receiving any money or valuable thing from any person for any political party or political purpose.

(12) Inducing or attempting to induce by threats of coercion, any person holding a position in the classified service to resign his position, take a leave of absence from his duties, or waive any of his rights under the provisions of this Section, or of the rules.

(13) The development of any defect of physical condition which precludes the employee from properly performing the duties of his position, or the development of any physical condition that may endanger the health or lives of fellow employees.

(14) The willful violation of any provision of this Section or of any rule, regulation, or order established.

(15) Any other act or failure to act which the board deems sufficient to show that the employee to be an unsuitable or unfit person to be employed in the respective service.

b. Unless the cause or condition justifies an employee being permanently removed from the service, disciplinary action may extend to suspension without pay for a period not exceeding the aggregate of ninety days in any period of twelve consecutive months, reduction in pay to the rate prevailing for the next lower class, reduction or demotion to a position of any lower class and to the rate of pay prevailing therefor, or such other less drastic action that may be appropriate under the circumstances. Nothing contained herein shall prevent any employee who is physically unable to perform the duties of his position from exercising his rights of voluntary retirement under any applicable law.

c. Although it is incumbent upon the appointing authority to initiate corrective or disciplinary action, the board may, and shall upon the written request of any qualified elector of the state which sets out the reasons therefor, make an investigation of the conduct and performance of any employee in the classified service and, thereupon may order such judgment and order action to be taken by the appointing authority. Such action shall be forthwith taken by the appointing authority.

d. In every case of corrective or disciplinary action taken against a regular employee of the classified service, the appointing authority shall furnish the employee and the board a statement in writing of the action and the complete reasons therefor.

31. Appeals by Employees to the Board. Any regular employee in the classified service who feels that he has been discharged or subject to any other corrective or disciplinary action may, within fifteen days after the action, demand in writing, a hearing and investigation by the board to determine the reasonableness of the action. The board shall give such hearing and investigation within thirty days after receipt of the written request.

All such hearings and investigations conducted by the board pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall be open to the public. No hearing and investigation shall be held unless both the employee and the appointing authority have been advised at least ten days in advance of the date, time and place therefor. If either the appointing authority or the employee fails to appear at the place, and on the day and at the hour fixed for the hearing, the board may decide the issue involved on the basis of the evidence adduced and confined to the question of whether the action taken against the employee was made in good faith for cause set forth in the provisions of this Section. Both the employee and the appointing authority shall be afforded an opportunity to appear before the board, either in person or with counsel, and present evidence to show that the action was or was not taken in good faith for cause as set forth in the provisions of this Section. The board shall have complete charge of such hearing and investigation, and may conduct it in any manner it deems advisable, without prejudice to any person or party thereto. The procedure followed shall be informal and not necessarily bound by the legalistic rules of evidence. The board shall not be required to have the testimony taken and transcribed, but either the employee or the appointing authority may, at their own expense, make the necessary arrangements therefor. In such cases the board may name any competent shorthand reporter as the official reporter. If the testimony is not taken or transcribed, then the board shall make a written finding of the fact. After such investigation the board may, if the evidence is conclusive, affirm the action of the appointing authority. If they find that the action was not taken in good faith for cause under the provisions of this Section, the board shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position, or employment from which he was removed, suspended, demoted, or discharged, which reinstatement shall, if the board so provides, be retroactive and entitle him to his regular pay from the time of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other disciplinary action. The board may modify the order of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other disciplinary action by directing a suspension without pay, for a given period. The decision of the board, together with its written finding of fact, if required, shall be certified in writing to the appointing authority and shall be forthwith enforced by the appointing authority.

Any employee under classified service and any appointing authority may appeal from any decision of the board, or from any action taken by the board under the provisions of the Section hereof, in behalf of the employee or appointing authority. This appeal shall be taken by serving the board, within thirty days after entry of its decision, a written notice of appeal, stating the appellant and demanding notice of appeal, stating the appellant and demanding that a certified transcript of the record, or written findings of fact, and all papers on file in the office of the board affecting or relating to such decision, be filed with the designated court. The board shall, within ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal, make, certify, and file the complete transcript, with the designated court, and the court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary manner. This hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the decision made by the board was made in good faith for cause under the provisions of this Section. No appeal to the court shall be taken except upon these grounds.

32. Oath, Testimony, Production of Records; Refusal to Testify. The board, and each of its members, shall have the same power and authority to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and compel the production of books and papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing authorized by this Section as is possessed by the district courts of Louisiana. Any person who (1) fails to appear in response to a subpoena, (2) fails to answer any question, except those which may incriminate him, (3) fails to produce any books or papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing, or (4) knowingly gives false testimony therein shall be subject to the penal provisions of this Section. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court within the jurisdiction of which the investigation is being carried on, or within the jurisdiction of which the person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business, upon application of the board, shall have the requisite jurisdiction to issue to the person an order requiring him to appear before the board, its members or agent, and to produce the required evidence or give testimony touching the matter under consideration or in question. Any person failing to obey such order may be punished by the court for contempt.

Any officer or employee in the classified service who wilfully refuses or fails to appear before any court, officer, board, body or person properly authorized to conduct any hearing or inquiry, or any employee or officer, who, having appeared, refuses to testify or answer any relevant questions relating to the affairs of government of the municipality or the conduct of any municipal officer or employee, except upon the ground that his testimony or answers would incriminate him, shall, in addition to any other penalty which he may by subject to, forfeit his position, and shall not be eligible for appointment to any position in the classified service for a period of six years.

33. Duties of Municipal Officers and Employees. The appointing authority shall report to the board within fifteen days following any appointment or employment in a position in the classified service, unless otherwise provided, the name of the appointee, the title and location of the office or employment and the date the employee commenced work in the position. The appointing authority shall also report the date of and official action in, or knowledge of, any separation, promotion, demotion, suspension, layoff, reinstatement, or reemployment in the classified service.

34. Political Activities Prohibited. a. Political activities by and extending to employees of the classified service are hereby prohibited as follows:

(1) No person shall seek or attempt to use any political endorsement in connection with any appointment to a position in the classified service.

(2) No person shall use or promise to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence, whether possessed or anticipated, to secure or attempt to secure for any person an appointment or promotion to a position, or any advantage in employment in any such position, for the purpose of influencing the vote or political action of any person, or for any consideration.

(3) No employee in the classified service shall, directly or indirectly, pay or promise to pay, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political organization or political purpose, or solicit or take part in soliciting any such assessment, subscription, or contribution. No person shall solicit any such assessment, subscription, or contribution of any employee in classified service. The prohibitions of this paragraph shall not be construed to prohibit the membership dues paid, or contributions made, to nonpolitical employee organizations, pension funds, civic enterprises, the Louisiana Civil Service League or any similar nonpolitical and nonpartisan organization.

(4) No employee in the classified service shall (a) be a member of any national, state or local committee of a political party, (b) be an officer or member of a committee of any factional, political club or organization, (c) be a candidate for nomination or election to public office, (d) make any political speech or public political statement in behalf of any candidate seeking to be elected to public office, or (e) take any part in the management or affairs of any political party or in the political campaign of any candidate for public office, except to privately express his opinion and to cast his vote.

(5) No person elected to public office shall, while serving in the elective office, be appointed to or hold any position in the classified service.

(6) No appointing authority, or agent or deputy thereof, shall directly or indirectly, demote, suspend, discharge, or otherwise discipline, or threaten to demote, suspend, or otherwise discipline, or discriminate against any person or otherwise discipline, or discriminate against any person in the classified service for the purpose of influencing his vote, support, or other political activity in any election or primary election. No appointing authority, or agent, or deputy thereof, shall use his official authority or influence, by threats, promises or other means, directly or indirectly, to coerce the political action of any employee in the classified service.

b. The appointing authority shall discharge from the service any employee whom he deems guilty of violating any one or more of the provisions of this Section. Any employee in the classified service who it reasonably believes guilty of violating any one or more of the provisions of this Section. The board shall, within thirty days after receiving the written charges, hold a public hearing and investigation and determine whether such charges are true and correct. If the board shall find its investigation of any employee that he has violated any of the foregoing provisions, the board shall order the appointing authority to forthwith discharge the guilty employee from the service and the appointing authority shall forthwith discharge the employee.

c. Whoever violates this Section shall be subject to the penalties provided in paragraph 37. In addition any employee in the classified service who is discharged because of violating a foregoing provision shall not again be eligible for employment or public office in the classified service for a period of six years from the time of his discharge.

35. Other Prohibiting Acts. No person shall

(1) Make any false statement, certificate, mark, rating, or report with respect to any test, certification, or appointment made under any provisions of this Section or commit or attempt to commit any fraud preventing the impartial execution of this Section and the rules.

(2) Directly or indirectly, give, render, pay, offer, solicit, or for on account of any appointment, proposed appointment, promotion, or proposed promotion to, or any advantage in, a position in the classified service.

(3) Defeat, deceive, or obstruct any person in his right to examination, eligibility, certification, or appointment under this Section, or furnish to any person any special or secret information for the purpose of affecting the rights or prospects of any person with respect to employment in the classified service.

36. Legal Services. If this Section, or its enforcement by the board is called into question in any judicial proceeding, the board is called into question in any judicial proceeding, the board shall, for a period of six years, be hereby authorized to employ or appoint counsel to represent it in sustaining this Section and enforcing it. Nothing contained herein shall prevent any municipal officer, employee, or private citizen from taking legal action in the courts to enforce the provisions of this Section or of any rule, order, or other lawful action of the board.

37. Penalties. Whoever wilfully violates any provision of this Section or of the rules shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars and shall, for a period of six years, be ineligible for appointment to or employment in any position of the classified service. If he is an officer or employee of the classified service he shall forfeit his office or position.

38. Effect of Other Laws. This Section shall not be rendered ineffective by any general law affecting municipal employees or municipal departments in matters of classified employees except that the applicability of this section civil service except that the applicability of this section shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of Section 15 (V) and (U) of Article XIV of the Constitution. provided, however, that any city and any parish government, jointly with one or more cities under a plan of government, having within its limits a population in excess of 250,000 according to the last federal census and which has a municipal police force and a municipal fire department, except the provisions of Section 15 of Article XIV of the Constitution may subsequently elect and determine by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting at a general election or special election, ordered and held for this purpose by the governing authority of such city, parish or cities, that the provisions of Section 15.1 by a mine to accept the provisions of this Section 15 (W) of Article XIV of the city or parish authorities, as the case may be, in the manner set forth in Section 15 (W) of Article XIV of the Constitution, provided further, that no local election or elections pursuant to Section 15 (W) and (U), insofar as they apply to and affect this Section, and no local election or elections pursuant to this Section 15.1 shall be held more often than once every four years, in any one city.

39. Provisions Self-operative. The provisions hereof are self-executing and self-operative and the officials designated are authorized to carry the same into effect.

§ 3. Schedule provisions for Article XIX-A

Section 3. The provisions of this Article, as proposed by House Bill No. 180 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature, shall take effect and become operative if, as and when the provisions of House Bill No. 176 of this 1971 regular session of the legislature, proposing, among other things, the repeal of Section 15 and Section 15.1 of Article XIV of the Constitution, are adopted by the electors of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972; provided, however, that it is hereby specifically provided that should said House Bill No. 176 fail to be adopted, then and in that event the adoption of this amendment shall be ineffective and shall in nowise be construed to remove or repeal from the constitution or otherwise affect the provisions contained in Section 15 and Section 15.1 of Article XIV of the Constitution.

It is the purpose and intent of this section, by so conditioning the effectiveness and operation of the proposals contained in House Bill Number 180 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature, to continue in operation and existence without interruption all of the civil service commissions, boards and departments now in existence under authority of Section 15 and Section 15.1 of Article XIV of the Constitution as those provisions existed prior to their repeal by the regular session of the 1971 regular session of the legislature. Therefore, the adoption of the proposals made by said House Bill Number 176 shall not be interpreted in any manner which will effectuate any changes in existing powers, duties, responsibilities and functions, or in the membership, compensation, terms of office, operations and employees, rights, powers and duties, and assumption of obligations, or any other matters appertaining to or vested in any existing civil service commissions, boards, or departments, as in existence upon the effective date of this Section hereof. The operation of each of said commissions, boards and departments, of whatsoever kind, shall continue without any interruption or change by reason of the adoption of the constitutional changes proposed by House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session.

Section 2. This amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the Legislature, to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 2. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to the Louisiana Constitution to add Article XIX-A thereto, to replace in the Constitution, without change, all existing constitutional provisions creating and providing for civil service systems based on merit in the state and in cities of the state having a population in excess of two hundred fifty thousand and creating and providing for fire and police civil service systems in municipalities of between thirteen thousand and two hundred fifty thousand population.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to the Louisiana Constitution to add Article XIX-A thereto, to replace in the Constitution, without change, all existing constitutional provisions creating and providing for civil service systems based on merit in the state and in cities of the state having a population in excess of two hundred fifty thousand and creating and providing for fire and police civil service systems in municipalities of between thirteen thousand and two hundred fifty thousand population.

Mrs. Bertrand and they all visited Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Bourg.

Mrs. A. M. Valette and Mrs. Tillie Mudd spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in Houston with Mrs. Dot Isgitte, Debra and John. They also stopped in Baytown to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wismer.

Mr. and Mrs. Butch Watts, Bryan and Gannon of New Iberia spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Brown Watts.

We've been needing rain, but now we're flooded and will need boats if it keeps up.

Mrs. Virginia Lemke and Mrs. Edna Bertrand spent several days in Nederland and visited her son Mr. and Mrs. Billy Lemke in Port Arthur, and her granddaughter Mr. and Mrs. Roy Esquiville in Beaumont recently. Sonny Bertrand of Sulphur spent the weekend till Thursday last week with Mrs. Oreme Savoy, Mrs. Bill LeBouef, Mrs. Carl Reon and Mrs. Robert Landry spent the day in Lake Arthur last week with Mr. and Mrs. George Savoy.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. Obie Theriot announce the arrival of a boy, Francis Roman, born Dec. 2, weighing 9 lbs. 4 1/2 oz. in a Lake Charles hospital. Roman was greeted by a sister, Nancy, and a brother, Remaine. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Armogene Theriot.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Swindell Jr. and son Stephen spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Annie Swindell, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Smith and children.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Leo Savoie, who had major surgery in Ochsner Clinic recently; to Mrs. Olga Mudd who had an accident with a riding lawn mower. She went to pick up a stick in front of it and it jumped in gear and cut her big toe to the bone, broke a toe and cut her knee cap. She had to undergo surgery for the knee cap and is doing better. Also to Walter Stanley, who fell on the cement two weeks ago and was unconscious and had to have surgery; to Mrs. Berry of South Cameron Hospital who had major surgery in Lake Charles last week; and Leven Harmon who also had surgery in Lake Charles. They both work at South Cameron Hospital. Get well wishes to Mrs. John Richard, Odite Premeaux, John Broussard, Nolan Saltzman and Desire Boudreaux.

The South Cameron band went to Natchitoches on a bus and were accompanied by Miss Hoffpauir, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Blanc Bonsall and Stella Louise Abrahamsen.

(e) The jurisdiction of said court shall extend to the trial of offenses against the ordinances of the city of New Orleans regulating traffic within said city of New Orleans. The jurisdiction of said court shall further extend to the trial of offenses involving traffic and the regulation thereof punishable by state statute including violations of the Criminal Code of Louisiana involving traffic except as hereinafter provided. The jurisdiction over state traffic offenses shall be concurrent with the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans. In addition, every prosecution in the Traffic Court of New Orleans under state law shall be filed in said court by affidavit under the provision of state law defining said offense and such prosecution shall be brought by the city attorney of New Orleans. The legislature may enact laws conferring additional jurisdiction upon said court for the trial of violations relating to street and highway regulatory laws and such other state laws as relate to the operation of a vehicle. The said traffic court shall have no other jurisdiction, and shall not have jurisdiction over the trial of any state offense that now or hereafter may require a trial by jury.

(f) The procedure in the traffic court and the trial of all cases therein shall be as now provided by law governing such court. Said court shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations governing the operation thereof as may be necessary for the proper functioning of the court. The court shall have the right to issue all necessary writs and orders to carry out its jurisdiction.

Section 2. All laws or parts of laws including portions of this constitution contradictory hereto are herewith repealed.

Section 3. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972.

Section 4. On the official ballot to be used at the said election there shall be printed:

Hackberry to make study

Hackberry High School has begun a study of various factors involved in the educational process for the purpose of improving the school and gaining certification in the Southern Association of schools and colleges.

In the study a steering committee, headed by Daniel Weekley has been named to coordinate the activities involved.

Members of the committee are Principal John Debarge, teachers, Leo Coe, Pat Ware, Barbara Peters, Pamela LaFleur and two students, Dianne Ducote and Joseph Hantz.

At the first meeting of the steering committee, a subcommittee was selected to gather information on the makeup of the community as it relates to the educational opportunities afforded by the school.

Members of this subcommittee are Emile Parker, Anette Byler, Robert Sheffield, and Pat Vaughan.

It is hoped that this study will be completed early in the 1972-73 school year, whereby certification may be gained later during the year.

Library has new exhibit

A permanent exhibit is being featured at the Cameron library to remain on display for all library patrons to view. It was donated by Charles Fl Hebert of Cameron and is the legendary horror of the sea, an octopus.

This particular octopus was caught by Hebert in about 70 feet of water, 60 miles due south of Cameron while on a fishing trip aboard the "Spindletop," owned by Gulf Crews, Inc. of Cameron.

Hebert said his hook hung up on something and when he got it to the surface of the water it was a very heavy gallon can. Upon closer inspection he discovered an octopus coiled up inside. It had evidently retreated inside the bucket for safety, Hebert said.

He gave it to the local library for a permanent display and they are featuring books on sealife which are displayed with it.

The correct name for the common octopus is Octopus Vulgaris. This species reaches a weight of about 50 pounds and a radial span of about 10 feet. This particular octopus is only a baby.

The common octopus is wholly predatory and carnivorous. Its prey consists of crustaceans and moluska which it bites with a powerful, parrotlike peak. The conger eel feeds on the oc-

The chief defenses of an octopus are its ability to hide octopus are its in crevices and its great strength enabling it to remain fastened on rocks. In open water, the octopus has considerable ability for swimming by jet propulsion and it is remarkably agile on rocky surfaces.

In addition, the octopus is provided with an ink sac. When disturbed, the contends of the sac are discharged into the water, forming a dense blackish cloud designed to confuse and baffle the enemy. It moves with its arms along the bottom of the sea, although some float or swim on the surface.

Youth has hobby of raising own bananas

By MRS. TOM TAYLOR

Alton Ewing, Jr., 14, of the Sweet Lake Community, has taken up as a hobby the growing of banana plants. He started with three plants two years ago. The plants are now about 15 feet tall. This year, to his delight, they bore fruit above his fondest expectation; 10 bunches of bananas.

Alton gave much of his time in caring for these plants. They require plenty of moisture so he kept them well watered during dry spells.

Intently he watched with interest the growth and development of his banana plants. One day this past summer he called my attention to the huge cluster of flower buds at the end of a strong, thick, curved stem which bent down toward the ground. A bract, which looked like a heavy purple petal rolled back from the bud and showed a row of small flowers within. Some of these flowers had turned into tiny bananas and this is the part of the plant development which intrigued him most of all.

Alton has graciously shared his ripened bananas, which were quite tasty, with his friends and neighbors. He has six bunches left on the plants to ripen. One bunch is hanging just overhead of where he is standing, as can be seen in the picture. Alton said he counted five dozen bananas on this bunch.

As long as we can keep our young people interested in such hobbies, working close with nature, in reality, in commune with God, we can rest assured they will not be numbered among the juvenile delinquents.

Drunken pears, a seasonal favorite, are made by cooking 6 pared and cored winter pears in a combination of 2 cups red wine, two cups water, one cup sugar, 4 cloves, 1 sliced lemon and a cinnamon stick. The pears, cooked about 30 minutes over low heat until tender, are chilled before serving.

Election is Saturday

Cameron parish voters will find their ballot somewhat shorter Saturday when they go to the polls to vote in the second Democratic primary election.

State races left on the ballot from the first primary are for governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, commissioner of insurance. (See ballot at the right.)

In the district races, which are a little closer to home, Conway LeBleu, of Cameron, incumbent, is faced by Lon Tyndall of Lake Charles, a former representative, in the 36th representative district race.

Van M. Andrus and Dr. Rex H. Smelser, both of Lake Charles, are in the race for member of the state central committee at large.

The only two local races left in the parish are the police jury runoffs in Wards 3 and 6.

In Ward 3, two newcomers to politics, Norman McCall and Roland J. (T Bolo) Trosclair, Jr. are in the runoff.

In Ward 6, C. A. Rigg, incumbent, is faced by John R. Rollins.

Polls will open at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Precinct moved

Because of the high water, Precinct 1 of Ward 1, Cow Island will be moved from the American Legion home to St. Eugene Catholic Church hall for this Saturday's second primary vote.

Water is covering the road leading to the Legion home.

16TH YEAR - - NO. 10 CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, DEC. 16, 1971 10¢ A COPY

Barbie Duncan is Little Miss here

Pretty little Barbie Duncan of Grand Chenier was crowned Little Miss Cameron Parish at the second annual contest Friday night in the Cameron elementary school auditorium. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Duncan of Grand Chenier.

She was escorted by Timothy McCall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas (Sonny) McCall of Grand Chenier.

Miss Duncan was crowned by the reigning queen Connie Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Poole of Hackberry.

Other contestants and their escorts who were all chosen in contests held in their communities were:

Becky Conner, daughter of Mrs. Bernice LaLande and Terry Conner escorted by Dean Desormier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Caroll Miller, representing Cameron.

Toni Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dennis, escorted by Sterling Constance, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Constance, representing Hackberry.

Cheryl Ballard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ballard, escorted by Ricky Credor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Credor, representing Grand Lake.

Trudy Denise Savoie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Savoie, escorted by Kenton Thahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ortego, representing Creole.

Tammy Istre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Istre, escorted by Joseph Shane Noel, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Noel, representing Johnson Bayou.

Mrs. H. Ward Fontenot served as narrator and was coordinator of the event. William O. (Bill) Morris served as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Larry Dyson provided the piano music for the contest.

Entertainment was furnished by Cameron parish students of the Cissy Clark Dancing School, under the direction of Celeste Hopper, student teacher; a twirling routine was given by the Hackberry twirling school; and musical numbers were performed by pupils of Wayne Wood.

During the program Mrs. Santa Claus (Mrs. Sam Warren) passed out candy to the contestants and children in the audience.

Mrs. Fontenot recognized community chairmen in charge of the contests in their communities. They were: Mrs. Guy Murphy Jr., Grand Chenier; Mrs. Clifford Conner, Creole; Mrs. John Prescott, Johnson Bayou; Mrs. Shirley Ann Murphy, Cameron; Mrs. Byrnum Shove, Hackberry; Mrs. Patty Singletary and Miss Patsy Granger.

Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Fullington and Mrs. Titas Guillotz of Lake Charles.

Little Miss Cameron will be recognized during the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival festivities.

130 businesses flood insured

Cameron parish is second only to Orleans parish in the state and nation in the number of small businesses that are covered now under the National Flood Insurance Program.

Cameron has 130 firms covered under the program as compared to 313 in Orleans parish.

In Jefferson parish 90 firms are covered and 84 have insurance at Grand Isle.

Cameron was one of the first in the country to qualify for the new insurance.

Contest date is changed

Judging of the Creole Christmas lighting contest, sponsored by the Creole Home Demonstration Club, will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 21, instead of on Monday, Dec. 20 as was announced in last week's Pilot.

Residents wishing to enter the contest should have their outside Christmas lights turned on beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Santa coming here Saturday

Santa Claus will arrive on the Cameron Parish courthouse square on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 18, at 2 p.m. for his annual visit to Cameron.

He will arrive on the Cameron volunteer fire department truck and will visit and pass out candy with each child coming to see him.

Area students MSU graduates

Undergraduates totaling 245 and 53 graduate students, including four who are seeking the doctorate in education, are candidates for degrees to be awarded by McNeese State University on December 17.

Billy J. Brown, university registrar, says the 298 students will be honored at commencement ceremonies starting at 10 a.m. in McNeese auditorium.

Parish students expecting to complete degree requirements this semester include Karen K. Miller of Creole, BA in Early Childhood Education; Kenneth P. Nunez, Jr., of Grand Chenier, BA in Elementary Education; Marlea R. Hobaugh of Cameron, BA in Elementary Education; Ike Amos Hobaugh of Cameron, BS in Accounting; John Albert Fonson of Grand Lake, BS in Wildlife Management; Charlotte Duddleston of Creole, BS in Mathematics; Warner D. Daigle of Cameron, ME in Elementary Education.

Warning given

Someone has been shooting cats around Cameron with a .22 rifle or pistol and the Cameron sheriff's department warns that arrests will be made if it is not stopped.

Sheriff Claude Eagleson said that firing a gun in town was dangerous and that charges would be filed if anyone was caught doing so.

Youth is shot

The Cameron Parish Sheriff's Department investigated a shooting involving two young boys last week. A 12-year-old shot a 14-year-old through the nose, with the bullet grazing the skull and coming out on the other side. The case was turned over to the State juvenile officers.

MRS. BYNUM SHOVE of Hackberry was the recipient of the annual Citizenship Award presented by the Doxey-Vincent VFW post in Cameron recently.

Ever rope a wolf--Billy did

By ELORA MONTIE

If you think roping calves is hard, you ought to try roping a wolf. D.Y. (Billy) Doland, Jr., did just that last week.

Doland, a Grand Chenier cattleman, was out on horseback in the "Little District" north of the Mermentau River bridge when he spotted a wolf.

The cattleman was able to get close enough to rope the animal and to bring him in. The wolf was about 2 or 3 years old and weighed 52 pounds. It will be given to LSU for study.

Doland said he had seen the wolf's tracks several months before. He believes this was the only one as he hasn't seen any more tracks since then.

2 nominated

Two Cameron Parish residents have been nominated for the "Southwest Louisiana Patriot of the Year" Award, presented annually by the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus. They are Mrs. Whitney Baccigalopi of Creole and Telesmar Bonsall of Cameron.

Mrs. Baccigalopi was nominated by J. P. Boudoin Sr. Council 3014, Knights of Columbus. Bonsall was nominated by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 10, 019 of Cameron.

The award, presented for outstanding service to God and country, will be awarded at the annual anniversary banquet of Msgr. Cramem General Assembly, Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus.

Fourteen other Southwest Louisiana citizens were also nominated for the honor.

Flooding bad at Grand Chenier

By ELORA MONTIE

The high water in the Grand Chenier area is serious and the water is continuing to rise.

Cattle have little grass to eat and little high ground on which to rest. Only the levees offer some haven for the herds. Some levees have broken.

Many cattlemen are having to sell many cattle to get them out of the water.

The trappers also are in trouble as the high water has driven the furbearers out of the marsh onto the levees and the highways where many are being killed by traffic.

Flood forces ducks out marshes

The Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission announced that heavy rains accumulating up to 12 inches in most of southwest Louisiana have resulted in the shift of a major portion of the duck population from the low lying coastal marshes northward into the rice lands bordering the Intracoastal Canal.

Surveys indicate that major concentrations of pintail green-winged teal, mallards and other ducks are now present throughout an area lying generally between Louisiana Hwy. 14 and the Intracoastal Canal from Calcasieu Lake east to Vermilion Bay. The excellent feeding conditions for waterfowl in this area are expected to be maintained for the next several weeks.

In contrast, surveys show that the coastal marshes are now too deep for puddle ducks and a great portion of these ducks have moved to more suitable feeding areas in the rice fields. Hunting success on the coast in southwest Louisiana can therefore be expected to decline in some areas, at least until high water recedes.

The Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge public hunting area between Lake Misere and the Intracoastal Canal is presently under five to six feet of water. The area will be open to hunting, however, the refuge manager recommends that for safety reasons hunters stay clear of the area for the next week or 10 days until flood waters go down to normal.

Locks open to drain off flood

The four Corps of Engineers' structures in the Mermentau River Basin are being kept open continuously to relieve the flooding resulting from the torrential rains during the past week.

This was noted by Colonel Richard L. Hunt, New Orleans district engineer, who said the structures were opened following the downpour Sunday, Dec. 5, and will be kept open until the flood threat subsides.

The structures are the Calcasieu and Vermilion Navigation locks and the Catfish Point and Schooner Bayou Control Structures.

Disaster tag asked for the parish

The Cameron Parish Disaster Committee met in the Cameron courthouse Friday and sent a request to the state disaster committee that it declare Cameron and certain areas of Calcasieu Parish a disaster area and that feed and hay be made available to cattlemen of the area at no charge.

The committee discussed the current flooding caused by the heavy amounts of rain here and in the Mermentau River Basin. It was pointed out that practically all of the grazing land in Cameron Parish is now flooded, with water from one to three feet deep. It will take a long time for the water to drain from the flat land. Complicating the problem is a reversal of water flow. The water is now backing up over the land and flooding it even deeper, the committee contends.

The grasses that are suitable for grazing are now submerged and will no doubt die and rot before the water is drained off. At this time of year there will be no regrowth until next spring.

Jerry Jones, secretary of the Cameron Parish Police Jury, reported that the Army Corps of Engineers has surveyed the Little Chenier Road and has declared it a disaster for 5½ miles due to high water damage and flooding.

State Rep. Conway LeBleu asked that the disaster committee be called into session to recommend that he area be declared a disaster area. Numerous calls were also received from area cattlemen expressing concern and asking that some relief by requested.

Other enterprises suffering will be the trapping industry. The water is over many of the muskrat nests and the rats are having to abandon them. Added to this hardship is the fact that the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission has postponed the opening of the nutria trapping season until Dec. 15, instead of Dec. 1, as it has been in the past, thus creating a problem of more rats seeking feed in the flooded marshes. Hundreds of muskrats and nutria are being killed on the highways by automobiles, as they seek refuge on the highways, as the only high ground around.

There is very little, if any, crop damage, as the harvestable crops have already been harvested.

The main problem facing this area is cattle grazing. Few, if any cattlemen will have enough hay to feed their cattle through the entire winter, the committee agreed.

In addition to the Cameron Parish disaster area, there are approximately 18,000 acres of grazing lands in Calcasieu Parish which are presently flooded and water is backing over the southeast corner of Calcasieu.

Attending the meeting were agricultural leaders and cattlemen

Meet your teachers

Meet some of the teachers of Cameron parish. Pictured are Miss Cherlyn Granger, Mrs. Josie Boudreaux, Mrs. Rebecca Vidrine and Mrs. Ellis McWhirter, all teachers at South Cameron elementary school.

Miss Granger teaches second grade Language Arts and Social Studies. She received her BA degree and is working on her master's degree at McNeese State University. Her hobby is reading. This is her third year of teaching.

Mrs. Boudreaux teaches second grade Mathematics, Science, Social Studies and Physical Education. She received her BA from McNeese and is presently working on her master's degree. Her special interest is sewing. Her teaching experience includes Cameron Elementary and South Cameron High School. Her teaching experience is five years.

Mrs. Vidrine teaches second grade Language Arts. She received her BA degree from McNeese and is working towards her master's degree. She enjoys reading and sewing. This is her fourth year of teaching.

Mrs. McWhirter teaches third grade Mathematics and Science. She attended Arkansas State University and received her BA degree from Henderson's State College. She has taught in Arkansas and at South Cameron High School. Her special interests are star gazing and bird watching. She has been teaching 34 years.

4-H clubbers get awards

Six Johnson Bayou Junior 4-H club members received certificates for leadership training from Miss Patsy Granger, Cameron Parish 4-H agent.

The certificates were given in recognition for training at the recent Citizenship Day held in Cameron for all 4-H Club members.

Those receiving the honor were: Leslie Prescott, Jo Mae Badon, Michael Prescott, Gloria Landry, Celeste Landry and Penny Schaller.

A nip of lemon

If you add a teaspoon of lemon juice to the water when cooking cauliflower it will help to keep the cauliflower nice and white, advise LSU Extension home economists. Cauliflower will discolor if overcooked.

Hunting clubs in full swing

Hunting season is in full swing in Cameron parish, and in addition to the many hunters that have private leases in the coastal marshes, there are many hunting clubs in the area.

One such club is the Crain Bros. hunting club at Little Chenier. It is managed by Mr. and Mrs. Enes "Toot" Theriot. They have been on the job for 27 years. Mrs. Theriot supervises the cooking and Theriot the guiding of the hunters.

Theriot is an employee of the La. Dept. of Highways, but he takes his vacation every year during hunting season and manages the local club.

Mrs. Theriot is famous for her many Creole dishes and wild game.

Bag limits are being killed by most hunters, and anyone hunting in the area can understand why the state motto is "The Sportsmen's Paradise."

WHAT'S A "CHEVON?"

"Chevon" is not a new low-priced sports car. Rather, it's an exotic name for goat meat. Coming from the Spanish for goat meat, chevron was passed as an acceptable term due to the lack of consumer interest in opposing this rather vague term. the USDA reports that in open hearings where the millions of American consumers could oppose this somewhat misleading label, only 64 persons took the trouble to oppose it.

By ELORA MONTIE

Members of the Methodist and First Baptist churches of Grand Chenier will hold a Christmas program Sunday, Dec. 19 at the First Baptist Church here at 7 p.m. Santa Claus will greet the children.

Members and Rev. Clinton Childers invited all to the event Sunday.

Refreshments will be served following the program.

Mrs. Gussie Mhire recently underwent surgery at a Lake Charles hospital. She came home Saturday. She is a native of South Cameron hospital.

Freddie Richard is in South Cameron Hospital for several days but is reported doing much better from a spell of asthma. His wife and daughter, Liz, have also been on the sick list with flu. We wish them well.

Yule program at G. Chenier

Thursday, Dec. 16, is the date set for the annual Christmas program at Grand Chenier Elementary, according to Robert Manuel, school principal.

A variety of short Christmas plays have been prepared by those students in grades four through seven.

The program will begin at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria and the public is invited to attend.

Grain program is announced

The 1972 feed grain program has been announced by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to Charles S. Hackett, Calcasieu-Cameron County Executive Director. The qualifying set-aside percentage will be 25% of the total (corn and grain sorghum) feed grain base.

Farmers may offer to set aside an additional acreage for payment of up to 10% of their corn-grain sorghum base.

Soybeans may be substituted for feed grain for base acreage, Hackett said. Conserving base acreage must be maintained.

Applications mailed

About 1/2 million computer-filled-out applications for 1972-73 Louisiana license plates will go in the mail today to car owners who have titled their vehicles in the past two years.

"This is the first big step towards computerizing and automating the distribution of Louisiana passenger car license plates," said Lee Agerton, Collector of Revenue.

"Those who receive the computer-filled-out forms will only have to enclose their pink registration slip and payment and return it by mail in order to receive their new license plates. This will only apply, of course, if the information on the application form is still correct. Payment should include 30 cents postage in addition to the $6 cost of the two-year plate.

"Those who do not receive the computer-filled-out forms will have to bring their title or ownership certificate and pink slip to one of the 39 offices of the department throughout the state. The offices will open Dec. 1.

"We have had so much trouble in the past with applications sent in through the mail containing wrong information that we now require that applications be ught to a Department of Revenue office," Agerton said.

"By doing this we will be able to verify the information and send out the computer-filled-out applications next time.

"No license plate for a privately owned vehicle will be issued without a driver's license number, social security number, pink registration slip and owner's signature," Agerton said.

"We will no longer receive license plate applications through the mail except for those filled out by our computers.

Dress up liver

Tender, juicy slices of liver take on a new flavor when cooked with a coating of French dressing. Simply dip 1 pound of liver slices in French dressing. Combine two - thirds cup flour, ¼ teaspoon onion salt, ½ teaspoon salt and ⅛ teaspoon pepper. Dredge coated liver in seasoned flour. Cook slowly in lard or drippings until browned. Turn and continue cooking until browned.

Here's The Truth On The Assessment Matter From Baton Rouge Morning Advocate

2-B SUNDAY ADVOCATE, Baton Rouge, La., Dec. 5, 1971

Editorial:

Edwards Once Had An Assessment Concept

Back in December of 1970, when the current governor's race was just getting off the ground, Congressman Edwin Edwards told the Press Club of Baton Rouge, "I'm wholeheartedly for the concept of equalization."

Today the congressman has either reversed that position entirely or is engaging in the very type of demagoguery which the voters of Louisiana spoke against so eloquently in the first primary, now only four weeks old but so soon forgotten.

Mr. Edwards has tried to hang around the neck of his opponent advocacy of a 100 per cent assessment level, basing his claim on a network of facts which are shaky at best and downright false at worst. When the truth comes out, J. Bennett Johnston not only did not favor 100 per cent assessment but actively opposed it in the state Legislature.

But that is really not the point at all. The real question is the equalization of property taxes around the state, not the level at which property shall be assessed. Without equalization, there is no point in discussing assessment levels. It is apparent that Mr. Edwards, who knows better, is deliberately trying to fool the people of Louisiana or has indeed fallen captive to the assessors of the state and changed his stand on the issue.

Equalization is vital to the people of Louisiana. Today, for example, a citizen of Baton Rouge who lives in a $25,000 home has that home assessed at a level of 17.4 per cent and pays $115.15 in taxes after the homestead exemption. A resident of Jefferson Parish in the same circumstances, living in an identical house, is assessed at 8.3 per cent and pays $8.18. On top of this, of course, the Baton Rougean pays city taxes while only a comparative handful of Jefferson residents pay any additional tax.

This is patently unfair to the people of this state. Mr. Johnston has taken a forthright stand on the issue. It was to be hoped that Mr. Edwards might have lived up to his former statements. And perhaps he yet does but seeks only to latch onto a pettifogging issue to make political capital at the expense of honesty and truth.

At some time in the future, the people of Louisiana will come to grips with the challenges and the problems of tax equalization. They must do so for the financial condition of the state has reached such a point that we can no longer afford to have any portion of the population riding on the backs of the majority. When they get to that point, the people will need all the straight talk and honest facts they can gather.

Hopefully, the issue can be kept clear of the type of half truth and distortion which has begun to mark Mr. Edwards' gubernatorial campaign.

Prior to the first primary, this newspaper endorsed Senator Johnston. One of the reasons for that endorsement was the fact that he spoke honestly and forthrightly on the issues confronting the state. We had hoped for a solid confrontation on those issues in the second primary but not a confrontation of the sort which Congressman Edwards seems to have chosen. While Mr. Johnston continues to demonstrate the leadership which Louisiana desperately needs, Mr. Edwards has taken the low road so typical of the old politics we hoped to have put behind us.

Continental seeking discharge permission

Continental Oil Co. of Houston, Texas is seeking permission from the U. S. Corps of Engineers to discharge an average of 460,000 gallons of waste water into a private canal tributary to the Mermentau river from its Grand Chenier gas processing plant.

The waste water is discharged from boiler blowdown, cooling towers and demineralizing units during the process of removing liquid hydrocarbon from gas.

The Louisiana Stream Control Commission has certified that the discharge will not violate water quality standards.

Protests to the proposed discharge will be received by the Corps of Engineers until Dec. 30.

Big barbecue held

A record crowd of 300 members attended the annual barbecue given Saturday night by the Farm Bureau and Cattlemen Association at the KC Hall in Creole.

Officers were elected by both organizations. Elected by the Farm Bureau were Whitney Baccigalopi, Grand Chenier, elected president; Harold Carter, Creole, vice-president and D. W. Griffith, Oak Grove, secretary-treasurer.

Those elected to the board of directors are: Charles Theriot, J. B. Meaux, Bill Morris, Dorcia LeBouef, Mark Richard, Johnny Boudoin, Horace Montie, Frankie Henry, Albert Guidry, Perrin Arceneaux, Francis Erbelding and Isaac A. White.

Ernest Hamilton of Hackberry was elected president of the Cattlemen Association, J. B. Meaux, Oak Grove, vice-president, and Uland Guidry, Creole, secretary treasurer.

(Billy) Doland, Jr. from Grand Chenier and Telesmar (Blanc) Bonsall, Horace Montie and J. C. Reina from Creole - Oak Grove.

Guest speaker was Dr. Stephen Nicholson, veterinarian specialist with LSU Extension Service who spoke on ways cattlemen can get a better calf crop. He cited the need for prevention of diseases, better nutrition, and controlled breeding.

A report on the Cameron Disaster Committee meeting held Friday was read by Clifford Myers, county agent. He explained that the local committee, composed of agricultural leaders, had met in emergency session to send a report to the State Disaster Committee on the flooding situation in Cameron parish and the plight of the local cattlemen who are faced with a critical situation of a shortage of feed for the cattle. The coastal marshes which serve as winter pasturage for the cattle are inundated by the recent excessive rainfall.

State Representative Conway LeBleu, who had requested that the local committee meet, reported that he had been in contact with Dave Pearce, La. Commissioner of Agriculture, and Congressman Edwin W. Edwards on the situation. Both had promised LeBleu to help with the request of securing free feed for the parish when it is declared an emergency area.

A joint resolution was made by both organizations against the closing of the local Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office for three days a week. Both presidents were instructed to draw up a resolution to be submitted to the State ASCS Committee requesting that the local office be opened on a full-time basis to serve the farmers of the parish.

A decision by both groups was made to again sponsor a banquet for all 4-H livestock exhibitors, buyers and parents. This annual event has been sponsored for the 4-H livestock project for several years.

What Do You Mean: "TO SIN IS TO DIE"?

A lot of people just don't believe St. Paul's warning that "the wages of sin is death."

Not when they see so many sinful scoundrels live to a ripe old age.

They conclude that the "death" referred to in the epistle to the Romans was a figure of speech, and that there really is no such monstrous punishment for those who sin.

Taking St. Paul's words literally, they contend, is responsible for the old-fashioned "hell-and-brimstone" concept of punishment for sin. And this concept, they add, doesn't make sense in these enlightened and sophisticated times.

St. Paul was not speaking, of course, of death in the physical sense. But neither was he speaking just figuratively. For the "death" to which he referred is more tragic and more to be feared than the inevitable ending of our mortal lives... and no less real.

"The wages of sin is death" to our friendship with God. It is our rejection of His love. It is our voluntary surrender of the right to eternal salvation which He offers us through the life and death of His own divine Son. The "sting" of death is a frightening thing only if it finds us alienated from God, when truly "the wages of sin is death."

Sin is never a popular topic. And even when a sense of guilt troubles our conscience, we are apt to excuse and rationalize our weakness. To err is human, we say to ourselves. And the old-fashioned notion of sin doesn't fit today's standards of right and wrong. And it's so comforting to blame our lack of holiness on a disturbed emotional experience, environment and family background.

But whether we like it or not, the most important thing in life is to face up to the problems and consequences of sin. If you want to do that... if you are seeking the personal holiness that will keep God in your heart and your life... take a few minutes to read a new pamphlet we have just published and which we will send free upon your request.

This interesting, easy-to-read pamphlet covers such topics as "Our Sense of Sin"... "The Bible and Sin"... "Kinds of Sin"... "Causes and Consequences"... and "Overcoming Sin."

MUSING . . .

By BERNICE STEWART

I walked down Memory Road today straight into a Christmas season of my childhood. I felt a sympathetic warmth for the little girl that I used to be and for her brother as I watched them string scarlet haw berries and snow white kernels of popped corn into garlands to loop around their Christmas tree and to drape across the starched white lace curtains that hung at the living and dining room windows.

I felt almost guilty of eavesdropping--even if it were in memory--as I listened to them voice their hopes and expectations of what good old Santa would bring.

The little girl wanted a doll, a very special one to receive the beloved name of Dorothy. To be worthy of that name the doll must possess real hair, eyes that opened and shut, and a voice that cried "Mama."

For Dorothy to ride in, she longed for a woven wire carriage the color of the purple grapes that grew in her grandfather's woods. Santa made such buggies, she knew, in his North Pole workshop. Day after day she had gazed at the picture of one that he must have placed on a colored page of a Sears, Roebuck catalog.

She would like a tinkly piano pictured on the same page. A teen-aged cousin had promised to teach her to play "Home, Sweet Home" on it. The child knew with certainty that she would get another Elsie Dinsmore book to add to her collection.

The small brother wanted a wind-up train that would circle around on its very own track, a new red wagon and a little wheelbarrow that he could fill and push and dump to his heart's content. He wanted books -- loads of them -- and a ball and a bugle and a shiny bridle for Pony.

The youngsters would hang up their long black-ribbed stockings on Christmas Eve for Santa to fill. Only the gifts exchanged by family members would be placed under the tree. They would be opened on Christmas Eve so as to be out of the way before St. Nicholas arrived.

"Why can't we hang up Mama's big stockings instead of our own?" the little boy asked. "They'd hold a lot more."

Before his sister could reply, their grandmother entered the room. "Because Christmas is for giving and for sharing and not for grabbing, Son," she told him kindly but positively.

"I know that it makes people feel good to give, Grandma," the child answered, his eyes twinkling, "I was trying to see how much happier I could make Santa Claus by fixing things so he could give me more."

They were interrupted by the grandfather and "hired man" coming in from the woods, their arms loaded with holly and mistletoe, greenery, and red-berried gray haw branches.

Their mother came forward to receive the decorations. She promised the children that they might help her, for every room in the house must have its share of holiday ornamentation.

A week earlier Mother and Grandmother had scoured and mopped, waxed and polished the house from first floor to the attic. This week they had baked from dawn till long after dark.

In memory I tiptoed around and admired the tall round cakes of five or six layers, iced to perfect smoothness; the big square devil's food, lush with its rich caramel frosting; the pecan cake, Grandfather's favorite, standing like a proud patriarch on its crystal stand; the white coconut made specially for the little girl that I used to be since her birthday came right after Christmas. I knew that pounds and pounds of rich, dark fruitcake had been baked and packed away weeks earlier.

I knew, too, that on Christmas Eve day the raisin and mincemeat, the lemon and coconut and butter pies would be made. And a two-year-old gobbler would be dressed and drawn in the late afternoon. It would be slid into the oven long before daylight on Christmas morning to bake slowly with frequent bastings in its own juice.

A few days earlier a pig had been butchered to insure a tender, juicy roast that would send out tantalizing odors whenever Grandmother opened the door of the big wood-burning range to check on it and the turkey.

Oysters direct from the reefs in the gulf would be shucked in advance for readiness on the day itself.

On that morning, dressings and salads would be made; vegetables cooked; fresh rolls baked; homemade jellies and preserves, cucumber and fruit pickles opened. And Mother would make punch from the juice of the wild muscadines that she had gathered from our own woods and had canned the summer before.

Throughout Christmas Day uncles and aunts, cousins and friends would come by to drink coffee and punch and to eat cake, to catch the unguarded kiss with a joyous "Christmas girl!" and to see and admire presents that had been received by members of the household.

* * *

Reluctantly I returned from the Christmas season of memory to the one of 1971. Each is equally sweet to me, for in both are woven the spirit of loving and giving. Both are filled with the knowledge and the glory of God's perfect gift to mankind nearly two thousand years ago. The only difference is that the understanding of that holy love has deepend and broadened through all the experiences of the years that lie between the two Christmases.

* * *

The burgandy buggy that the little girl got on that long-ago Christmas morning sits in my attic here at Green Acres.

The Dorothy doll that rode in it has been loved away by other little girls who came later.

The red wagon of the small boy rolled into oblivion, and his shiny train met self-destruction after countless wrecks on a too-short circular track.

But the memory of it all, like a sacred treasure of the past, remains unscathed.

Mrs. Gay Reeves is coordinator of the program and the public is invited to attend.

Geologists have found that during the Ice Age, as recently as 10,000 years ago, a vast area between Siberia and Alaska lay above water.

Coaches thanked for work with Baracudas

The Junior Athletic Association of the Cameron Elementary School take this means of thanking our 1971 Baracuda coaches, Warner Daigle and Robert Doxey for a job well done. Because of their fine efforts, we ended the season with one parish championship and two teams of happy boys. These coaches worked without a salary and both insist that helping the boys develop good sportsmanship has been their reward.

The Association would also like to thank Mrs. Donna LaBove for coaching the girls' pep-squad and cheerleaders. Her group of girls worked very hard to give moral support to the boys, whether they're winning or losing, and deserve to be recognized for their efforts.

Someone remarked that the Cudas had more support this year than any other season. For that we can thank the many parents who were ready and willing to help when called upon. They provided sandwiches, cupcakes and cookies for the concession stand for every home game.

By their efforts we earned enough to pay for all of this year's uniforms. We would like to see more of these fine parents join our Jr. Athletic Association.

Not to be overlooked are the business organizations and private citizens who supported us with generous financial donations. Their generosity is greatly appreciated.

So to all - Warner and Robert, Donna and the pep-squad, the parents, our loyal supporters, and last but not least, the boys who so enthusiastically carried our school name to every section of the parish, we say "Thanks."

Homes threatened by rising flood waters

Rising flood waters in the Little Chenier area of lower Cameron Parish are only inches away from being in the homes on the western end of the Little Chenier ridge.

The cattlemen are having to move their cattle out to other areas because the pastures are all under water.

Eby "Big" Nunez said that he has 45 acres of rye-grass that he had just top-dressed with fertilizer that is completely submerged. He was depending on this for winter pasturage for his cattle. If he does not get some relief from the water soon he will have to sell part of his herd.

Nunez has to use his tractor to do his chores in his backyard because it is under water. Either the tractor or the pirogue is used to get back and forth from the roadbed to the house.

The roadbeds are serving as shelter areas for the cattle as well as the marsh rats which are seeking high land and feed.

Jemy Theriot, a Little Chenier trapper, said that at least 60% of the trapping income of the area has already been lost of the 1971 season. The baby rats have drowned and the larger ones are fighting one another for the little feed that can be found out of the water.

Those that will be trapped will have badly damaged pelts which will not bring a good price. Literally hundreds of rats are being run over on the highway, where they are seeking shelter and food.

TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF HACKBERRY

I express my appreciation for the warm welcome during my campaign.

I thank the people who voted for me in the first primary and ask for your continued support.

To the voters who didn't see fit to support me, I ask for your vote in the second primary.

If you, the citizens of Hackberry elect me as your Police Juror, I promise you fair representation and will work to promote unity within our community.

FOR PROGRESS AND UNITY, VOTE FOR BUD AND ASK YOUR FRIENDS IF THEY WOULD TOO.

THANKS FOR YOUR HELP.

JOHN R. (BUD) ROLLINS

98 to 5 for Bennett Johnston

Bennett Johnston has been on the job for the people of Louisiana. In the past eight years, representing the people of our state, he has missed only three legislative roll calls. That is a vivid contrast to his opponent's 95 per cent absenteeism rate in Congress this year. It's 98 per cent to five per cent in favor of Bennett Johnston. Louisiana can't afford an absentee governor. We need a man who will be on the job.

Mrs. Martha Davis was the installing Grand Chaplain. Mrs. Bessie Gibson was the installing organist and Mrs. Roberta Rogers, the soloist. Michelle Gaskille and Billy Jay Bakin were the candle lighters.

Others installed were: Voelkel Dyson, Worthy Patron; Vesta Taylor, Associate Matron; Thomas Stead, Associate Patron; Wilma D. Guthrie, secretary; Jo Ann Dorsey, treasurer; Dorothy Rutherford, conductress; Jeri Wollard, associate conductress; Ethel Precht, Marshall; Emma Nunez, organist; Nancy Nunez, Ada; Shirley Faye Murphy, Ruth; Jeanine Jones, Esther; Norma Blake, Martha; Susan Watts, Electra; Elizabeth Warren, Warden; and Arnold Rutherford, Sentinal.

A reception followed the ceremony in the Friendship hall.

Dill sauce

During the winter months ahead, entertain your family and friends with an inexpensive, light supper featuring Swedish meat balls with dill sauce.

Since the meat balls can be prepared ahead and placed in the refrigerator until shortly before serving time, the hostess will be able to relax and spend time visiting with guests. To keep the entertaining simple, serve the meat buffet style.

4-H club sees film on safety

The South Cameron Senior 4-H Club held its monthly meeting Dec. 1. Joelle Primeaux called the meeting to order. Sandra Authement led the pledge of allegiance and Cecil Myers led the 4-H pledge. Marty LaBove called roll.

Brenda Bonsall talked on upcoming events. Theresa Theriot gave a financial report. Debra Lancon was appointed to bring the Christmas baskets to Boys Village.

Dinah Miller and Marcia Wilkerson gave a project report. Robin Roberts and Malcolm Marceaux gave a skit on Christmas.

Norman McCall No. 207

Police Juror - Ward 3

* Native of Cameron Parish
* Louisiana Tech * Navy schools
* 3½ years World War II- Submarine Service
* American Legion * VFW - Farm Bureau
* Selective Service Board Member

To The Voters of Ward 3:

I would like to express my appreciation for the courtesy and kindness you have shown me during this campaign. I have made an effort to contact all the voters of Ward Three individually – to any of you that I may have missed, I would like to take this opportunity to ask for you support on Dec. 18.

I feel that there are many improvements that could be made in Ward 3. For example, improvements to roads and relocation of garbage dumps that are now near residential areas, and better supervision of these dumps. The recent heavy rains clearly show how badly we need better drainage. If elected I will see that these conditions are improved.

This by no means includes all the problems, but I will not make any promises that cannot be fulfilled. I can promise however, to work closely with all citizens of Ward Three and the Police Jury members from other Wards, in an effort to make this a better community.

I am running as an independent candidate and I am not obligated to any one person or group in the parish. If elected, I will serve all citizens of Ward 3 on an equal basis. I ask for your vote on Sat. November 6.

Missing geese are found in midwest

The Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission today stated that shortstopping of Gulf Coast blue and snow geese in the mid-western states has further intensified this year.

Empty skies over large tracts of coastal marshlands in South Louisiana prompted the commission to carry out an aerial inspection of federal and state refuges in the Missouri River Valley Dec. 1 through Dec. 3.

It was observed that approximately 400,000 blue and snow geese were still in the snow-blanketed region at that late date. The figure, representing nearly one-half of the Gulf Coast wintering population of blues and snows, constitutes a 20 to 25 percent increase over last year.

During the same months in 1970, the shortstopping practice was brought to the attention of the U. S. Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife and it was stated that appropriate measures would be taken to alleviate the shortstopping. Despite this, shortstopping of blue and snow geese, has further intensified this year.

The commission concluded that "history is about to repeat itself." Records indicate that Canada geese by the hundreds of thousands once migrated to the Louisiana marshes, but due to extensive shortstopping in the mid-west the geese have long since ceased their annual flights to the Gulf Coast areas.

The traditional migration of the blue and snow goose now is being interrupted. Aerial reconnaissance last year on Dec. 1 found approximately 300,000 blue and snow geese in the Missouri Valley. The number has drastically increased this year.

Normally, blue geese fly non-stop in late October into the Gulf Coast marshlands from Canada. More and more this traditional migration is being altered by the mid-western refuges in the Missouri Valley in northwest Missouri and southwest Iowa.

With the establishment of small midwestern sanctuaries surrounded by harvested corn fields where waste grain is available in quantity, blue and snow geese are abandoning traditional flights to the coast and gathering in numbers of overconcentration on the refuges in Missouri and Iowa.

While Gulf Coast marshes provided geese with several million acres of marshland in which to disperse and feed for the winter, shortstopping confines thousands of geese to small refuges some only a few hundred acres in size.

The Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission maintains that shortstopping and consequent overconcentration of geese may eventually prove to be biologically harmful to the populations.

The birds have done well for thousands of years wintering from northeast Mexico eastward to the Mississippi River in southeast Louisiana, the commission reports, but the shortstopping practice which is rapidly changing the wintering distribution of blue and snow geese is creating a condition which ultimately might be disastrous.

Election results announced by ASC

Results of the election of ASC community committeemen held last week in Cameron Parish were announced by Francis Klein, Chairman of the Cameron County Agricultura Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) Committee.

Farmers elected to the committee include Sweetlake, Klondike, and Lowery Community - Larry Eagleson, chairman; Wilfred Zumbrechen, vice-chairman; Howard Cox, regular member; Ronald David, first alternate; and Ernest Broussard, second alternate.

Cameron, Creole, Oak Grove, Grand Chenier community - J. B. Meaux, chairman; Clarence Boudreaux, vice-chairman; D. W. Griffith, regular member; Dallas Domingue, first alternate, and John M. Theriot, second alternate.

Johnson Bayou, Hackberry Community - Sam Little, chairman; Dean Sanner, vice-chairman; Gene Constance, regular member; Ernest Hamilton, first alternate, and John A. Lowery, second alternate.

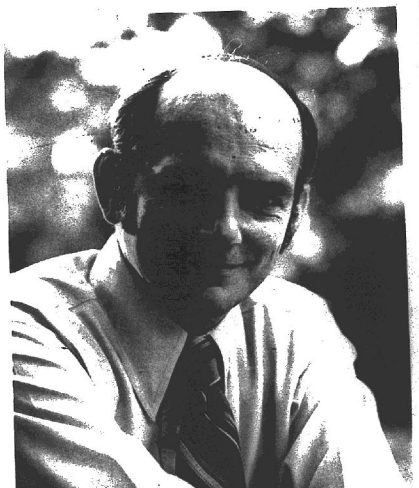
The ASC community committee chairman, vice-chairman and regular member automatically become delegates to the county convention, where farmers are elected to fill vacancies on the County Committee. Alternate community committeemen become alternate delegates to the convention.

The county convention was held in the ASCS office in the Cameron courthouse, Wednesday, Dec. 15. After the county committeemen are elected, the delegates determine which of the regular committeemen will serve as committee chairman and vice-chairman for the coming year.

The County ASC committee is responsible for local administration of government farm programs in Cameron parish.

MR. AND MRS. Alpha Labove are shown here with part of their rock garden which is the point of interest in their yard which won the Yard of the Month award recently. The contest is sponsored by the Hackberry Home Demonstration Club.

Let's End The Hayride!



Louisiana needs a governor who will end favoritism and corruption in Baton Rouge. Only then can Cameron Parish get its fair share.

Elect Johnston Governor

(Paid for By Cameron Parish Citizens for Bennett Johnson, H. Ward Fontenot, Chairman)

Citizens of Ward 6 Before You Vote Please Consider My Record of Serving Your Interests : # 212

1. Worked with other public officials to bring you a high level bridge at Ellender Pontoon next year, also, a new bridge at Kelso Bayou.
2. Was instrumental in opening oyster fishing and crabbing in Calcasieu Lake and will continue to work for local interest.
3. Provided, with your help, a beautiful recreation center. Your board of directors have done an excellent job in keeping costs of participation to a minimum as to swimming lessons, free pool, ping pong, softball, Easter egg hunts, Halloween parties, and Christmas parties. They have returned concession profits to you by having free bingos at Christmas and Thanksgiving. Evidence of the good of this facility is indicated by the nonexistence of juvenile crime in our community.
4. With the help of my fellow jurors, influenced United Gas to install natural gas in Hackberry. This has meant a considerable savings to you, and I will continue to work for extension of these lines to serve all of the people.
5. Built recreation building near fire station, improved and re-modeled same, for your convenience and enjoyment at no cost to you. This building is constantly booked for use which indicated the need for this facility.
6. Constructed a network of hard surface roads, built and obtained right of ways on many new roads, and installed street lights on main highway. At the same time, these roads were raised to prevent flooding and many drain ditches installed in conjunction with new construction. This has saved you thousands of dollars in car maintenance alone, and all with no cost whatsoever to you.
7. Leased and stocked a beautiful lake with bream, bass, and catfish for your enjoyment.
8. Leased and built a nice central garbage area, with twice a week garbage pick-up, at an average cost of $3.00 per family per year.
9. Mowed all of your parish streets during the summer months making our road system second to none in this state, and at the same time improved greatly on our drainage.
10. Presently installing an excellent public water system, financed under a plan that will enable us to provide free water to all our churches, and to all other residents at a small charge of $3.50 per month. Considering the costs of owning and maintaining a home water system, coupled with your fire insurance savings, this is an excellent value for you.
11. Made several trips to Corps of Engineers in New Orleans and managed to get navigational gaps at Joe Dugas and East and West Pass widened from a proposed 4' depth by 25' width to 8' depth by 100' width.
12. Worked with fellow members of the jury to institute food stamp program that has helped many people in time of need.
13. Worked with Louisiana State Highway Department to promote widening of Highway 27 through Hackberry for a smoother flow of traffic and additional safety.
14. I have at all times strived to run your affairs in a business like manner to get the best dollar value for you.
15. Experience is one of the most valuable assets a craftsman can have, and at the same time a most valuable asset to any public official.

##########

IF YOU, THE PEOPLE, RE-ELECT ME AS YOUR POLICE JUROR, I MAKE THE FOLLOWING COMMITMENTS:

1. No additional taxes during the next four years, but anticipate a gradual drop in millage.
2. Work toward restoring Black Lake and tributaries to fresh water. This should improve trapping, duck hunting, navigation, cattle grazing, sport fishing, and eliminate destructive salt water corrosion.
3. I will hard-surface all existing shell roads during the next four years.
4. Work, through legislature and Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries, towards letting our bait dealers catch shrimp year round, in order to help our economy and sport fisherman to obtain live bait at all times.
5. Handle your affairs in the same fair and impartial manner that I have in the past.
6. Guarantee no increased cost in water rates, garbage pick-up, and charges at recreation center.

Lin's Used Cars

HANCE (LIN) LINSCOMBE
- Owner

For many years, automobile dealers considered "used cars" as a sideline to the business of selling new models.

Things have changed in recent years and one of the big reasons is the kind of business operated by Lin's Used Cars. They believe that the used car buyer is just as important as the new car buyer. They are determined to give each customer the finest quality, the best warranty, and the best possible price. They have a large "Family" of customers who return because they know that integrity, service and assurance of quality are passwords here.

The safe way to buy a used car is at Lin's Used Cars located at 2250 East Napoleon phone 625-5604 in Sulphur because all their cars have been checked by a master mechanic and are backed by a warranty.

They take personal pride in every used car they sell. On-the-spot financing and insurance service truly makes them a "One-Stop" headquarters for your automotive needs.

As businessmen who appreciate an ethical, honest form, we the writer, of this 1971 Town and Country Review give our highest commendation to this company.

Lin invites everyone (his customers or not) to drive by while in town shopping during the holidays and look and wave "Merry Christmas," let's help spread friendship and goodwill!

WEST POINT SHOE CENTER

OWNED & OPERATED BY WILLIE DELL DECOUX

Located at West Point Shopping Center in Sulphur, phone 625-4791 is the Westpoint Shoe Center.

You will find that shoes purchased here will give you longer wear, more comfort, more attractive style than any that you have ever worn.

The reason many have foot trouble is because they not wear the right kind of shoe. The difference is in having a man fit your feet who knows just exactly what you need. If you will let them furnish your footwear, you will always be correctly fitted with comfortable shoes in the latest fashions.

This is one of the well known, exclusive shoe stores of the community and they know their business from every angle. They know that it is bad business to use high pressure salesmanship to sell a pair of shoes that does not entirely please the customer.

Willie Dell-Decoux owner and her staff extend warm thanks for your patronage in 1971 and invite you back for the same fine, quality service in 1972 and to all a very Merry Christmas and Happy Holiday Season.

BILL PAYNE CHEVROLET

BILL PAYNE - President
WAYLAND PAYNE - Managing Partner

In the Roaring Twenties the "Tin Lizzy" took grandfather where he wanted to go and that's about all. Cars then were drab and uncomfortable, and there were no options available to make things easier or more convenient. But today people have a wide choice of options, colors, makes and models and often wonder where to go to buy their new car. In the community, we are fortunate to have a firm in our midst that can help the average car buyer make up his mind.

The firm to see in this area for old fashioned courtesy, and service before and after the sale is the Bill Payne Chevrolet, located on Highway 90 in Vinton, telephone 589-5011.

They are dealers for the all new 1972, Chevrolet Impala, Monte Carlo, Chevelle, Camaro and Vega automobiles.

Stop in soon and test drive one of the new models. See their choice selection of previously owned automobiles, and tour their up-to-date service departments where they have the latest diagnostic equipment and skilled automotive technicians to service any make or model car.

You'll soon see why we, the composers of this 1971 Town and Country Review, regard this fine firm as a leader in their field.

We the editors would like to leave you with this thought, why not put the keys to a new Vega under your tree this Christmas?

COUNTRY CHRYSLER - PLYMOUTH

TOM HOEFLICKER - Owner

In this day and age when every car maker has such a wide selection of models to choose from, it is really difficult for you to decide where to go for a new car. All the companies advertise that their cars are the best, but who is to say which car really is. Obviously all the cars on the market today must have their good points or they wouldn't have survived the ups and downs of the business. We, therefore, can conclude that the real difference in buying a car is the dealer you buy it from.

The ideal dealer to buy a car from offers a fair price on the new unit, as well as an honest dollar for the car you trade in. However, the most important factor is the service that you receive on your new car year after year.

The writers of the 1971 Review would like to point out a dealer that considers the most important part of selling a car the quality service he can offer you after the sale. We are talking about Country Chrysler-Plymouth at 1035 East Napoleon in Sulphur, phone 527-6286, dealers for the famous 1972 Chrysler and Plymouth automobiles, such as the Plymouth Satellite, Road Runner, Fury III, Scamp, Duster, and America's successful answer to more economical driving. See them today for a new or quality used car, and you'll see why we say "Customer Consideration" is their byword.

TRUCKERS 3-T EQUIPMENT & SERVICE INC.

3-T TIRE CENTER

JOHN BROUSSARD - Mgr.

This is your complete tire recapping and front end service headquarters in Lake Charles and is located at 1015 Enterprise Blvd., phone 433-1075.

Smoothly worn tires are exceedingly dangerous and no motorist or trucker should continue to use them, endangering his own life and that of others who may be in his path when skidding or blowout takes place.

By actual experience, motorists and truckers know that they can save at least 50 percent on tire expenses by having good, smooth, worn tires recapped. There are various types of recapping service but the wise motorists has this work done where it can be handled with the proper equipment and skilled workmen. This type of service is furnished by this well known concern who by reason of their honest, high class work are witnessing a steady growth in their business.

This company is also your dealer for new UNIROYAL tires for autos, trucks and tractors. They can save you money on new tires, winter or snow tires, or recap service on auto, truck or tractor tires.

And after you've purchased your new tires let them professionally correct any misalignment in your front end and balance your tires, thus ending the excessive tire wear and shimmying.

The editors of this 1971 Town and Country Review are pleased to recommend this first rate tire dealer to our many friends in the area.

PLANTATION HOUSE

Fine food and drink is a favorite topic of conversation, for it speaks a universal language, but at the Plantation House in Lake Charles at 903 Broad, phone 439-5692 food and drink is more than just a topic of conversation, it is a most enjoyable reality. This outstanding establishment has become a favorite gathering place for particular people who know and appreciate the best.

This is one of the finest restaurants in this area.

The edition of this 1971 Town and Country Review heartily recommends the Plantation House to our readers. Remember, if you appreciate outstanding service and really good food and drink served at the peak of perfection, we suggest you drop in soon and enjoy hospitality at its best.

FINLEY'S SPORTING GOODS

BILL FINLEY - Owner

In this area your headquarters for Johnson Outboard Motors is the Finley's Sporting Goods at 213 Gill on the Lakefront, phone 436-7957 in Lake Charles.

They are your local authorized dealer for Johnson motors, and can help you select perfect power combinations for your boat as well as suggest the proper trailer for hauling your boat.

If it is accessories or additional equipment that you need, they will be able to fill the bill. From their complete line of safety equipment, radios, winches, etc., you will be able to find what is needed.

In this 1971 Review, we, the editors, take pleasure in recommending this well-like dealer to our readers. You will find that Finley's Sporting Goods offers you the best in friendly expert service.

MILLER'S MOBILE

WILBERT "PONCHO" & RUBY MILLER - Owners

If you have been looking for records with the Cajun beat, look no further. The Goldband Record Co., the oldest Cajun record company in existence can satisfy your particular need. Inquire at Miller's Mobile located on Main street in Cameron, phone 775-7288. They'll be glad to serve you.

With 27 years of experience in the business, Goldband Records feature such famous names as Ivy LaJeune, Sidney Brown, Shorty LeBlanc, Cleveland and Crochet and Jo - El Sonnier on singles, L.P.'s and tapes. When you buy Goldband Records, you are dealing with a concern whose market spans the world with sales everywhere except in Russia.

In this 1971 Town and Country Review, we, the editors, take pleasure in recommending this reliable firm to all our readers.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
TO BE VOTED ON AT THE
GENERAL ELECTION
FEBRUARY 1, 1972

Pursuant to Article XXI, Section 1.B., of the Constitution of Louisiana, as last amended pursuant to Act 629 of 1968, the Secretary of State has determined that the following parishes, municipalities or special districts, or combination of any five or fewer of any of these, are affected by the proposition contained in the following Act.

ACT NO. 181

Proposes an amendment in respect to Orleans Levee District, taxing authority.

Affects: ORLEANS PARISH

ACT No. 181

Senate Bill No. 7. By: Messrs. O'Keefe and Eagan.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article XVI of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new section to be designated as Section 2.1 thereof, to authorize the Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish, the proceeds of the tax, and of the sale of any bonds secured thereby, to be used solely to pay the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as the Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project and necessary incidental expenses in connection with such project; to authorize the issuance by the board of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness and the pledging of the avails or proceeds of the tax, or any portion thereof, for the payment thereof; and to provide with respect to the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article XVI of the Constitution of Louisiana, to add thereto a new Section to be designated as Section 2.1 thereof, which shall read as follows:

§2.1 Orleans Levee District tax authorized; purposes; bonds; reimbursements by other districts or parishes

A. In addition to all other taxes heretofore authorized, the Board of Levee Commissioners of the Orleans Levee District, hereinafter referred to as the board, may levy an annual tax of two and one-half mills* on the dollar of all taxable property within the parish of Orleans, the proceeds of the tax and of the sale of any bonds secured thereby, as hereafter authorized, to be used solely and for no other purposes than to pay the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as the Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project and to construct levees, levee drainage, flood protection and for other necessary incidental expenses in connection with such project.

B. In order to provide ready funds for the purposes for which the tax is authorized, the board may issue, sell and deliver, from time to time, bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness not exceeding seventy million dollars ($70,000,000.00) in the aggregate and to secure such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, the board may pledge and dedicate the avails and proceeds, or any portion thereof, of the tax authorized by Subsection A of this Section.

The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be authorized and issued by resolution or resolutions adopted by the board and shall be of such series, bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times (not exceeding forty years from their respective dates), bear interest at such rate or rates, payable annually or semi-annually, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or fully registered without coupons, carry such registration and exchangeability privileges, be payable in such medium of payment and at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as such resolution or resolutions may provide. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be signed by the president and attested by the secretary of the board, and coupon bonds shall have attached thereto interest coupons bearing the facsimile signatures of the officers who sign the bonds. They shall have affixed thereto the seal of the board. Any such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness may be issued and delivered notwithstanding that one or more of the officers signing such bonds or the officer or officers whose facsimile signature or signatures may be upon the coupons shall have ceased to be such officer or officers at the time such bonds shall actually have been delivered. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be sold to the highest bidder on sealed proposal at public sale for not less than par and accrued interest after publication of a notice of sale once a week for at least ten days prior to the date fixed for the sale, the notice to appear in one or more daily newspapers published in the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, and in a financial publication in the city of New York, New York, and such other places as the board may determine, reserving to the board the right to reject any and all bids, including the right to readvertise for new bids.

When any bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness have been issued hereunder neither the board nor any other authority may thereafter diminish or decrease the tax pledged to secure payment thereof. Any holder of any such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness or coupons attached to the bonds, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceeding, may enforce and compel performance of all duties required to be performed by the board and to enforce the levy and collection of the tax and the provisions of the resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness. The bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be exempt from all taxation for state, parish and municipal purposes, and savings banks and insurance companies shall be authorized to invest the funds in their hands therein, and the bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness may be used for deposit with any officer, board, municipality or other political subdivision of the state of Louisiana, in any case where* under by any present or future laws deposit of security may be required. The bonds, notes and certificates of indebtedness shall be deemed to be negotiable instruments and incontestable in the hands of bona fide holders, for value; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as pledging the credit of the state of Louisiana for the payment of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness or be construed as constituting the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness obligations of the state of Louisiana.

C. The resolution or resolutions authorizing bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness hereunder shall be promulgated upon approval of the electors of the general circulation by one insertion thereof in a newspaper of general circulation published in the district. For a period of thirty days from tion published in the district. For a period of thirty days from the date of publication by the board of a resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, any person or persons in interest shall have the right to ness, any person or persons in interest shall have the right to contest the legality of the resolution or of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness for any cause, bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness for any cause, and after which time no person shall have any cause or right of action to contest the legality of the resolution or of the bonds, action to contest the legality of the resolution or of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness authorized thereby for notes or certificates of indebtedness authorized thereby for any cause whatsoever. If no suit, action or proceedings are any cause whatsoever. If no suit, action or proceedings are begun contesting the validity of the bonds, notes or certifbegun contesting the validity of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness within the thirty days herein prescribed, cates of indebtedness within the thirty days herein prescribed, the authority to issue the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness and to provide for the payment thereof, the legality thereof and of all of the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be conclusively presumed, and no court shall have any authority to inquire into such matters.

D. Any bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness issued under this authorization may be refunded by the board, provided the total of the principal and interest to be paid on any refunding bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall not exceed the total of the principal amount of the bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness to be refunded, the premium (if any) payable upon their redemption and the interest which would have been paid upon such bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness, were they not refunded. The refunding of bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness shall be authorized in all respects as original bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness are herein provided to be authorized.

E. The provisions hereof are self executing and no further enabling legislation is required or necessary and the board is authorized to effectuate the provisions hereof.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the legislature to be held in Louisiana on the first Tuesday next following the first Monday of February, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Article XVI of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 2.1, to authorize the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish and to issue bonds secured by the tax, the proceeds of the tax and of the sale of any bonds secured by the tax to be used solely for payment of the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Article XVI of the Louisiana Constitution to add thereto a new Section 2.1, to authorize the Orleans Levee District to levy a two and one-half mill tax on all taxable property in Orleans Parish and to issue bonds secured by the tax, the proceeds of the tax and of the sale of any bonds secured by the tax to be used solely for payment of the portion to be borne by Orleans Parish of the cost of the federal flood protection project known as Lake Pontchartrain, Louisiana and Vicinity Hurricane Protection Project.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

ACT No. 182

Senate Bill No. 20. By: Mr. Eaton.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Louisiana to add to Article IV thereof a new section to be designated as Article IV, Section 18, to authorize the Legislature of Louisiana to adopt legislation to enable the State, its agencies, municipalities and parishes and their agencies to comply with federal laws and regulations in order to secure federal participation in construction projects, including use of funds otherwise dedicated, and to extend federal procedures to state financed projects.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members of each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Louisiana for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided by law a proposal to amend Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding thereto a new section reading as follows:

Section 18. The Legislature may enact legislation to enable the State, its agencies, municipalities and parishes and their agencies to comply with federal laws and regulations in order to secure federal participation in the cost of capital improvement projects, and the Legislature may authorize the use of funds, dedicated to such agencies of government for other purposes, to meet the requirements of the federal statutes, including, by way of example but not with the intention of limitation, providing relocation assistance payments, housing for relocatees and similar federal requirements. Whenever the Legislature enacts such legislation, to comply with federal requirements for participation in construction projects, the Legislature may extend the legislation to include similar projects financed entirely by state and local governments. Such payments shall be in addition to just compensation for property rights.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Louisiana at the next election for members of the state legislature in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding Section 18 to authorize the Legislature to adopt legislation to comply with federal laws and regulations to secure federal funds for construction projects, including relocation assistance payments.

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Article IV of the Constitution of Louisiana by adding Section 18 to authorize the Legislature to adopt legislation to comply with federal laws and regulations to secure federal funds for construction projects, including relocation assistance payments.

Each elector voting on this proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the State of Louisiana.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Article XVIII of the Constitution of Louisiana, to add thereto a new section, to be designated as Section 13 thereof, to authorize the issuance of not to exceed Fourteen Million Dollars of general obligation bonds of the state by the State Bond Commission for the payment of bonuses to Viet Nam veterans or their survivors and to defray the cost of administering the bonus program; to provide for the sale, security, and procedure for the issuance of the bonds pursuant to existing statutory law, and to provide with respect to the payment of the bonuses.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to amend Article XVIII of the Constitution of Louisiana to add thereto a new section, to be designated as Section 13 thereof, which shall read as follows:

§ 13. Viet Nam bonus bonds

Section 13. In order to provide funds for the payment of bonuses to servicemen and ex-servicemen and servicewomen and ex-servicewomen who serve or have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater and to certain relatives of such servicemen and servicewomen and to defray the cost of administration and distribution of the bonuses the State Bond Commission is authorized and directed, from time to time as requested by the State Department of Veterans Affairs, to issue and sell not to exceed fourteen million dollars of general obligation bonds in the manner and with the security provided by Chapter 11 of Sub-Title III of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and subject to the procedures set forth in Chapter 10 of Sub-Title III of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.

The proceeds of the sale of the bonds herein authorized shall be used by the State Department of Veterans Affairs for the payment of bonuses to servicemen and ex-servicemen and servicewomen and ex-servicewomen who serve or have served on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater at any time after the first day of July, 1958 and prior to the date the government of the United States declares to be the date of termination of service for members of the armed forces to receive credit for the award of the Viet Nam Service Medal, and who were citizens of Louisiana when inducted into active service, and to certain relatives of such servicemen and servicewomen who died while serving in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater during such period or who died at any time after such period, after having served in the armed forces of the United States during such period, as the result of injuries or wounds received or disease contracted by him or her in the Viet Nam Theater while in the armed forces of the United States during such period.

Bonuses from the funds herein provided shall be paid to eligible servicemen and servicewomen, and ex-servicemen and ex-servicewomen and to certain relatives of deceased servicemen and servicewomen, in the amounts, and under the provisions as to eligible relatives, provided in Section 293 of Title 29 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, and all other provisions of that Section not inconsistent herewith,* shall apply to the payments to be made from the funds herein provided. Only one bonus shall be payable from the funds herein provided to any serviceman or ex-serviceman or servicewoman or ex-servicewoman or to any relative thereof, regardless of the number of periods of service on active duty in the armed forces of the United States in the Viet Nam Theater of such serviceman or ex-serviceman or servicewoman or ex-servicewoman and regardless of the length of service during any such period or periods.

Payment of bonuses hereunder shall commence as soon as funds are available and eligibility is determined and shall continue as other servicemen or ex-servicemen or servicewomen or ex-servicewomen or their survivors become eligible therefor. Costs of administering the bonus program and the costs incident to the sale of the bonds shall be paid from the bond proceeds, subject to the budgetary controls provided by law.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for Representatives in the Legislature to be held in Louisiana on February 1, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

Pursuant to Article XXI, Section 1.B., of the Constitution of Louisiana, as last amended pursuant to Act 629 of 1968, the Secretary of State has determined that the following parishes, municipalities or special districts, or combination of any five or fewer of any of these, are affected by the proposition contained in the following Act.

ACT NO. 186

Proposes an amendment in respect to the Family Court of the Parish of East Baton Rouge

Affects: EAST BATON ROUGE PARISH

ACT No. 186

Senate Bill No. 205. By: Messrs. DeBlieux, Bernhard and Eaton.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to Paragraphs (C) and (F) of Section 58 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana by providing for the composition and status of the Family Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana for their approval or rejection, in the manner provided by law, a proposition to amend Paragraphs (C) and (F) of Section 58 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana so that the same may be made to read as follows:

§58. Family court for parish of East Baton Rouge

C. Judges; qualifications; election, classification. The legislature in the same manner as additional district judgeships are created may, from time to time, create one or more additional judgeships in the family court. Each judge is to be elected to a specific division of the family court. Such newly created judgeships shall be filled as prescribed by law. The first term of such judge or judges shall not exceed beyond the first term of the then existing family court's judge's or judges' term; thereafter, all family court judges' terms shall be the same and shall at all times remain identical with the terms of the district court judges within the parish. Each judge so elected must possess* the same qualifications required of district judges and shall occupy the same status as district judges.

F. Continuous session. The family court shall be in continuous session throughout the year.

Section 2. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next general election for members of the state legislature in Louisiana in February, 1972.

Section 3. On the official ballot to be used at said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Paragraphs (C) and (F), Section 58 of Article VII of the Louisiana Constitution, relative to composition and status of the Family Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Paragraphs (C) and (F), Section 58 of Article VII of the Louisiana Constitution, relative to composition and status of the Family Court for the parish of East Baton Rouge.

Each elector voting on said proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

*As it appears in the enrolled bill.

§14. Creation of special districts, boards, agencies, commissions, and authorities and granting powers thereto

Section 14. A. The power of the legislature by general, local or special law to create or authorize the creation of special districts, boards, agencies, commissioners, and authorities of every type useful in carrying on the duties and functions of political subdivisions and, subject to the limitation imposed on political subdivisions and special districts, boards, agencies in this constitution, to grant the special districts, boards, agencies, commissions and authorities created such rights, powers, and authorities as it deem proper, including but not limited to the power of taxation, the power to incur debt and issue bonds, the power to expropriate property for public use only, and the power to exempt property from the beds of lakes and streams is hereby recognized and confirmed.

B. No power of taxation granted after May 1, 1972 under authority of this Section shall be exercised unless the proper purpose and duration of each tax proposed to be levied first has been submitted to the qualified electors within the territorial jurisdiction of the special district, board, agency, commission or authority by or for which the tax is to be levied and a majority in number of those voting shall have voted in favor thereof, provided that if at the time of the adoption of this section the constitution required a vote of electors to levy or increase a tax, such may be levied or increased only by a majority vote of the qualified electors voting at an election for that purpose, and provided, further, that all limitations on the power to tax and all authority to levy taxes in excess of otherwise constitutional limits, then existing are continued. The legislature may prescribe the qualifications of the electors in any such election.

§14.1. Incurring of debt and issuance of bonds by political corporations

Section 14.1. The legislature may by general, local or special law authorize political corporations of the state to incur debt and issue bonds.

§14.2. Bonds of political subdivisions; general obligations

Section 14.2. Whenever bonds are issued by a political subdivision which are payable from taxes to be levied so as to be sufficient to pay the interest annually or semi-annually and the principal falling due each year, or such amount as may be required for any sinking fund necessary to retire said bonds at maturity under the terms of the statute or proceedings pursuant to which they are issued, the full faith and credit of the political subdivision is hereby pledged to the payment of principal and interest thereon. The governing authority of the issuing political subdivision shall levy or cause to be levied on all taxable property in the political subdivision ad valorem taxes fully sufficient to pay principal and interest on the bonds as they mature.

§14.3. Authorization of ad valorem tax bonds of political subdivisions

Section 14.3. Bonds payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied so as to be sufficient to pay the interest annually or semi-annually and the principal falling due each year, or such amount as may be required for any sinking fund necessary to retire said bonds at maturity may be issued after authorization by the favorable vote of a majority in number of the electors qualified to vote in the political subdivision issuing such bonds, which vote or election may be taken at a general or special election held therefor. The qualifications of electors may be prescribed by the legislature. In addition, if prior to the adoption of this section the constitution required a vote of electors for the issuance of bonds by any political subdivision, such bonds may be issued by such political subdivision only upon authorization thereof by the favorable vote of a majority in number of the electors voting at an election for such purpose. The qualifications of electors at such elections may be prescribed by the legislature.

Funding and refunding bonds, even though payable solely from ad valorem taxes, need not be authorized at an election but may be issued, sold or refunded is paid or cancelled at the time of the delivery of the funding or refunding bonds, or if money, or securities made eligible for investment by law, are deposited in an adequate amount to be utilized solely for the purpose of retiring the funded or refunded indebtedness or bonds and paying interest thereon and redemption premiums, if any, to the time of retirement.

§ 14.4. Limitations on bonded indebtedness of political subdivisions

Section 14.4. A. Bonds which are payable solely from ad valorem taxes to be levied so as to be sufficient to pay the interest annually or semi-annually and the principal falling due each year, or such amount as may be required for any sinking fund necessary to retire said bonds at maturity may be issued by a political subdivision for any one purpose which, including the existing bonds of such political subdivision incurred for the same purpose and payable solely from ad valorem taxes to be levied so as to be sufficient to pay the interest annually or semi-annually and the principal falling due each year, or such amount as may be required for any sinking fund necessary to retire said bonds at maturity, shall not exceed in the aggregate ten percent of the assessed valuation of taxable property in the political subdivision, to be ascertained by the assessment for state and parish purposes last completed prior to the delivery of such bonds, except that as to both parish-wide school districts and other school districts, the limitation applicable to each district shall be twenty-five percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property.

B. Any municipality that finances and operates its own schools and is not located within a parish-wide or other school district shall be regarded and treated on the same basis for the purpose of debt limitation and shall have the same authority for all purposes of this Article as though it were such a school district.

C. The Legislature may increase the debt limitations established in this Section by general, local or special law passed by a two-thirds vote of the elected membership of each house.

D. Bonds of drainage districts payable from acreage taxes and refunding bonds shall not be considered to be bonds payable solely from ad valorem taxes for any purpose of this Section.

§ 14.5. Contesting elections, bonds or special taxing of political subdivisions; time limit

Section 14.5. A. For a period of sixty days after the promulgation of the result of any election held for the purpose of incurring debt, issuing bonds or levying a special tax, any person in interest may contest the legality of such election, the bond issue provided for or the tax authorized for any cause. After such time no one shall have any cause or right of action to contest the regularity, formality or legality of said election, tax provisions or bond authorization for any cause whatsoever. If the validity of any such election or of any special tax or bond issue herein authorized or provided for is not raised within the sixty day period hereinabove prescribed, the authority to issue the bonds, the levying of the special tax and the necessary tax provisions shall be conclusively presumed and no court thereafter shall have authority to inquire into such matters.

B. Every ordinance or resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds by a political subdivision shall be published once in a newspaper published in the political subdivision or, if there is none, then in a newspaper having general circulation therein. For a period of thirty days after the date of the publication any person in interest may contest the legality of the ordinance or resolution, the bonds authorized thereby, and any provision therein made for the security and payment of the bonds. After this time, no one shall have any cause of action to test the regularity, formality, legality or effectiveness of the ordinance or resolution, bonds and provisions for any cause whatever and it shall be conclusively presumed that every legal requirement for the issuance of the bonds, including all things pertaining to the election, if any, at which the bonds were authorized, has been complied with, and no court shall have authority to inquire into any such matters after the lapse of this thirty days.

C. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to the city of New Orleans.

§14.6. Local improvement assessments

Section 14.6. A. The legislature may authorize, by local, special or general law, political subdivisions to levy and collect local or special assessments on real estate for the purpose of constructing, paving, surfacing or otherwise improving roads, streets, sidewalks, alleys, sewers or other similar works of public improvement.

B. Certificates of indebtedness may be issued to cover the cost of the public improvement, which shall be secured by the pledge of the local or special assessments levied therefor, and they may be further secured by the pledge of the full faith and credit of the political subdivision to the payment of the certificates of indebtedness.

§14.7. Assumption of bonded indebtedness of political subdivisions by another

Section 14.7. A. The legislature may authorize any political subdivision to assume the bonded or other indebtedness of any other political subdivision lying entirely within its boundaries, but if the bonds or other indebtedness assumed are payable from ad valorem taxes, this assumption shall be effectuative only if authorized at an election held in the assuming political subdivisions as provided in Section 14.3 of this Article for the authorization of similar bonds.

B. For purposes of debt computation under Section 14.4 of this Article, the assumed bonds or other indebtedness shall be regarded as obligations of the assuming political subdivision and not of the underlying political subdivision.

§ 14.8. Revenue producing property

Section 14.8. The legislature may authorize political corporations to issue bonds for the purpose of constructing, acquiring, extending or improving any revenue producing public utility. The bonds may be secured by a mortgage on the lands, buildings, machinery and equipment or by the pledge of the net income and revenues of the public utility, or by both, and shall not be a charge upon the other income and revenues of the political corporation.

§ 14.9. Assistance to local industry by political subdivisions

Section 14.9. A. Subject to such restrictions as it may impose, the legislature may authorize any political subdivision, or in order to induce and encourage the location of or addition to industrial enterprises therein or to provide funds for the erection and maintenance of industrial plants for the conversion or processing of raw farm or agricultural products, to issue bonds and use the funds derived from the sale thereof to acquire and improve industrial plant sites and other property necessary to the purposes thereof and to acquire, through purchase, construction or otherwise, and improve industrial plant buildings and industrial plant equipment, machinery, furnishings and appurtenances, and to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the foregoing.

B. It is hereby found and declared that the purposes designed to be accomplished hereby are public and proper legal purposes and that the public benefit to the political subdivision justifying the bonds.

§14.10. Agreements between political subdivisions with the state, with another state, or with the United States

Section 14.10. Agreements may be made by any political subdivision with any other political subdivision or with the state or an agency thereof or, when authorized by the legislature, with the United States or an agency thereof, or with any other state or an agency thereof, for a co-operative or joint administration of any functions authorized to be performed by the parties to such agreements.

§22. New Orleans; election of officers; form of government; powers; home rule charters

Section 22. The electors of the city of New Orleans and of any political corporation which may be established within the territory now, or which may hereafter be embraced within, any political corporation shall have the right to choose their public officers, and the form of government of said city. This section shall not prohibit the election of any officer by the council or governing authority, or appointment by the mayor, nor the filling of vacancies for the unexpired term as now or hereafter provided by law. This Section shall not apply to the Board of Liquidation, City Debt of New Orleans, or to the power of supervisory commissioners or examiners; nor shall it be construed as restricting the police power of the state, or as prohibiting the legislature from appointing or authorizing the appointment of any board or commission with full authority in the city of New Orleans other than that of controlling the ordinary governmental functions of municipal government.

Subject to the limitations elsewhere contained in this constitution, the city of New Orleans is hereby declared to have a home rule charter, consisting of Act 159 of 1912 as amended through the Regular Legislative Session of 1950. Said home rule charter may be amended, altered or replaced only as hereinafter provided. Reference in this Section to Act 159 of 1912, as amended through the Regular Legislative Session of 1950, shall not be construed as placing said Act into or making it a part of this constitution.

The city of New Orleans, in addition to the powers expressly conferred upon it by Act 159 of 1912 as amended through the Regular Legislative Session of 1950, shall have the right and authority to adopt and enforce local police, sanitary and similar regulations and to do and perform all of the acts pertaining to its local affairs, property and government, which are necessary or proper in the legitimate exercise of its corporate powers and municipal functions. The city of New Orleans, however, shall not exercise any power or authority which is inconsistent or in conflict with any general law.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as giving to the city of New Orleans any rights, powers, authority or jurisdiction over any constitutional officers, boards and commissions, their deputies, subordinates and employees, or over any state, district and parochial officers, boards, commissions and judges, their deputies, subordinates and employees and their tenance, of constitutional officers, boards, commissions, their deputies, subordinates and employees and state, district and parochial officers, boards, commissions and funds, their deputies, subordinates and employees, shall without the approval of the legislature be increased beyond the proval thereof, and no payment of any salaries or wages amounts which on November 7, 1950, were required to be contributed by the city; nor shall such amounts be reduced by the city without the consent of the legislature.

Without previous legislative sanction, the city of New Orleans shall make no changes in the pension systems of the New Orleans fire department, the New Orleans Police Department or the Sewerage and Water Board of said city as now in force without such sanction, decrease the salaries or wages or increase the hours of employment of members of the New Orleans police and fire departments as fixed by the law in effect prior to November 7, 1950.

The legislature is prohibited from amending, modifying or repealing the home rule established or future home rule charters of the city of New Orleans other than by general law which is uniformly applies, both in terms and in effect, to all cities of the state. However, the legislature shall have the right to classify cities according to total population based upon the last available Federal census and to enact legislation limited in its effect to any such class, but only if the population so limited which is applicable to fewer than the five largest cities of the state, including the city of New Orleans, shall not become operative in the city of New Orleans until submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of the city of New Orleans voting therein at an election to be held in said city in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

The home rule charter of the city of New Orleans herein established or any subsequent home rule charter of the city of New Orleans may be amended or revised by a majority of the qualified electors of the municipality voting upon same, and proposals to amend or replace such charter may originate only in the following manner:

(a) By ordinance duly adopted by the Commission Council or other governing body of the municipality; or

(b) By petition of not less than ten thousand of the duly qualified registered voters of the municipality, filed with the Commission Council, or other governing body of the municipality, setting forth the proposed amendments or substitute home rule charter.

When such amendments or substitute charters are proposed by ordinance of the Commission Council, or other governing body of the municipality, as aforesaid, such ordinance shall provide that the same shall be submitted to the electors at the next general election for members of Congress to be held in the municipality, provided the date of such election is not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance, or at a special election called for that purpose, the date of which shall be fixed at not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance. When such amendments or substitute charters are proposed by petition, as aforesaid, the Commission Council, or other governing body of the municipality shall, within sixty days after receipt of such petition, provide by ordinance that the proposed amendments or substitute* charters shall be published in the manner hereinbefore provided and shall be submitted to the electors at the next general election for members of Congress to be held in the municipality, provided that the date of such election is not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, when the petition so demands, at a special election called for that purpose, the date of which shall be fixed at not less than the purpose, the date of which shall be fixed at not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance. Any charter or amendment so proposed shall be published in the manner hereinbefore provided and shall be submitted to the electors at the next general election for members of Congress to be held in the municipality, provided that the date of such election is not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, when the petition so demands, at a special election called for that purpose, the date of which shall be fixed at not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance. Any charter or amendment so proposed shall be published in the manner hereinbefore provided and shall be submitted to the electors at the next general election for members of Congress to be held in the municipality, provided that the date of such election is not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance or, when the petition so demands, at a special election called for that purpose, the date of which shall be fixed at not less than ninety days after the effective date of such ordinance. When such amendments or substitute charters are proposed by petition, as aforesaid, the Commission Council, or other governing body of the municipality shall, within sixty days after receipt of such petition, provide by ordinance that the proposed amendments or substitute* charters of the Home Rule Charter of New Orleans.

§46. Control by parish and municipal governing authorities of agencies created by them

Section 46. A. The governing authority of any parish or municipality shall have the following powers over an agency with governmental functions heretofore or hereafter created or established by it: (1) to appoint and remove the members of the governing board of the agency; (2) to exercise budgetary and fiscal control over the agency, including the power to approve or disapprove the submission of proposals to a vote of the people by the agency to levy taxes or issue bonds; (4) to substitute itself for the governing board of the agency and to exercise all of its powers and functions, and (5) to abolish the agency if the obligations of indebtedness of the agency are not thereby impaired.

B. If the creation or establishment of the agency required the concurrence of two or more authorities, then concurrence of all of them shall be required for the exercise of the above powers, unless otherwise agreed upon by the creating authority.

§48. Ratification of outstanding, unpaid indebtedness or bonds

Section 48. All indebtedness incurred or bonds issued under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV of this constitution prior to the effective date of this section which are now outstanding and unpaid are hereby ratified. All provision of Article XIV, as it existed prior to said date, creating rights or providing remedies, including the dedication of specific sources of revenue to the payment and liquidation of bonds and coupons or for the cancellation thereof, the preservation of the evidence of such cancellation, and the giving of public notice thereof, are continued in full force and effect to the extent necessary to protect the contractual obligation of any indebtedness or bonds or to assure their payment in full in principal and interest.

All authority to incur debt or issue bonds granted by or under or ratified by any provision of Article XIV of this constitution as it existed prior to the effective date of this section is hereby ratified to the extent and within the limits of such authority and all provisions of Article XIV as it existed prior to said date, establishing procedures for such incurring of debt or issuing of bonds, creating rights or providing remedies, including the dedication of specific sources of revenue to the payment and liquidation of bonds and coupons or for the cancellation thereof, the preservation of the evidence of such cancellation, and the giving of public notice thereof are continued in full force and effect to the extent necessary to protect the contractual obligation of any indebtedness or bonds issued under such authority after the effective date of this section or to assure their payment in full in principal and interest.

§ 49. Repealed sections

Section 49. Sections 3 (d) (1st) providing for acquisition and financing of sewerage improvements for East Baton Rouge Parish; 3 (e), 3 (f), 6, 13, 15, 15.1, 18, 23.1, 23.3 through 23.41, 23.45, 24.2 through 24.22, 30.3, 30.4, 30.5, 31.1, 31.2, 31.3, 31.4, 31.7, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37.1, 38 (1st), 38 (2nd), 38.1, 39, 39.1, 43, 44, 44.1 and 45 of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution are hereby repealed in their entirety except as hereinabove continued in full force and effect.

§ 50. Legislative consideration of legislation pursuant to revision

Section 50. Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution relative to notice and introduction of local bills or relative to matters to be introduced, considered and acted upon at budget sessions of the Legislature, House Bills Nos. 176 through 197 and House Bill Nos. 199 through 203, all by Messrs. Garrett, Dennis, et al., considered and enacted at the 1971 regular session of the legislature and intended to implement this revision of portions of Article XIV of the constitution, are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated.

§ 51. Schedule provisions pursuant to revision of portions of Article XIV

Section 51. No provision of the revision of portions of Article XIV contained in House Bill No. 176 of the 1971 regular session of the legislature which would have the effect of repealing or removing provisions from the constitution which are intended to be performed in operation and existence without interruption, and which continued operation requires statutory or constitutional implementation, shall become law or until until such statutory implementation or constitutional change shall be adopted by the electors of the state. Therefore it is hereby declared that each of the following provisions of this proposed revision require implementing legislation and that the following enumerated implementing legislation and that the following enumerated implementing legislation were introduced to bills introduced at the 1971 regular session were introduced to provide such implementation:

AGAINST the proposed amendment revising portions of Article XIV of the Louisiana Constitution by amending Sections 14.1 through 14, 22, 23, 24, 46, and 48, by adding tions; discrimination. Permanent appointments and promotions in the Classified Civil Service of the state and of cities having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand, according to the last preceding decennial census of the United States for which the final report of population returns have been printed, published and distributed by the Director of the Census, shall be made only after certification by the appropriate Civil Service Departments pursuant to a general system based upon merit, efficiency, and fitness under which certificates shall be based on examinations which, so far as practical, shall be competitive, and all employees in the Classified Service shall be employed from those eligible under such certification. No person in the State or City Classified Service, having gained civil service status shall be discriminated against or subjected to any disciplinary action except for cause, and no person in the State or City Classified Service shall be discriminated against or subjected to any disciplinary action for political or religious reasons, and all such persons shall have the right of appeal from such actions.

(2). State service. "State Service" or "Civil Service of the State" means all offices and positions of trust or employment in the employ of the state, or any department, independent agency or other agency, board or commission thereof (such as Dock Boards and all Board of Commissioners, Levee and Drainage Boards and Commissions, Housing Authorities, Court House Commission of New Orleans, State Hospitals, Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College), and shall also include all officers and positions of trust or employment in the employ of joint state and federal agencies administering state or federal funds; joint state agencies and municipal agencies financed by state and/or municipal funds, except municipal boards of health; joint state and parochial agencies financed by state and/or parochial funds; parochial agencies financed by state and/or parochial funds; irrespective of whether the pay for such offices and positions of trust or employment is to be paid with state or municipal or parochial funds or with funds contributed jointly by the state and/or municipalities and/or parishes involved.

(3). City service. "City Service" or "Civil Service of the City" means all offices and positions of trust or employment in the employ of the city, or any department, independent agency or other agency, board or commission thereof, or controlled by the city, and persons employed by city or joint federal and city agencies administering city and federal relief and other funds, other than the military and naval service, irrespective of whether the pay for such offices and positions of trust or employment be paid out of the city treasury, either in whole or in part.

(B). Departments; state; city; directors of personnel. There is hereby created and established in the state government a Department of State Civil Service, the administrative head of which shall be the Director of Personnel, to be appointed as hereinafter provided. There is hereby created and established in the city government of each city having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand a Department of City Civil Service, the administrative head of which shall be the Director of Personnel, to be appointed as hereinafter provided.

(C). State commission. There is hereby created and established a State Civil Service Commission to be composed of five members who are citizens and qualified voters of the state of Louisiana. Three members of the commission shall constitute a quorum. The five commissioners shall be appointed by the governor for a term of six years as follows: The presidents of Louisiana State University and Agricultural and Mechanical College, at Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Loyola University of the South, at New Orleans, Louisiana, Centenary College, at Shreveport, Louisiana, Tulane University of Louisiana, at New Orleans, Louisiana, and Louisiana College, at Pineville, Louisiana, shall each nominate three persons, and one member of said commission shall be appointed by the governor from the three persons nominated by each president. Vacancies by expiration of the term of office or otherwise shall be filled by appointment of the governor from nominations made in like manner by the president, or his successor, who nominated the member whose place is being filled. It shall be the duty of the presidents to make such nominations within thirty days after the effective date of this section, and thereafter within thirty days after any vacancy occurs, and appointments shall be made by the governor within thirty days after the nominations have been submitted. Should the governor fail to appoint within said thirty days, the first named nominee shall automatically become a member of the commission.

All appointments, as hereinabove provided, shall be made by the governor with the advice or consent of the Senate, or confirmation by the Senate.

The first commissioners shall serve from the date of their appointment. The first commissioners nominated by the presidents of the five educational institutions shall serve as hereinafter provided.

One of the first five commissioners appointed from nominations submitted by the presidents of the educational institutions, as hereinabove provided, shall serve for two years, two for four years, and two for six years. The respective term of the first five appointees shall be designated by the governor. The term of office for each successor to an original appointment made on nominations submitted by the respective presidents shall be for six years, provided that appointment to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be only for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. If for any reason successor has been appointed and qualified. If for any reason nominations are not promptly submitted to the governor by any of the college presidents herein named within the time herein designated, the vacancy on the commission for the term so designated, resulting from such failure to nominate shall be filled by a majority vote of the other members of the Civil Service Commission.

(D). City commission. There is hereby created and established a City Civil Service Commission for each city having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand, to be composed of three citizens who are qualified voters of the city in which they serve, two of whom shall constitute a quorum. One member of the commission shall be appointed by the governing body from each of said three persons nominated by each president, provided that the governing body of the city may, by appropriate action, elect to have a president of any one of the colleges or universities mentioned in (C) hereof nominate two groups of three persons each, in which event one member of the commission shall be appointed by the governing body from each of said groups of three persons. One of the commissioners first appointed shall serve for two years, one for four years, and one for six years. The respective terms of the first appointees shall be designated by the governing body of the city. Vacancies by expiration of the term of office or otherwise shall be filled by appointment of the governing body of the city in the same manner as the original appointment was made, and in the instances in which nominations were required in the original appointment, nominations shall be made by the president, or his successor, who nominated the member whose place is being filled. It shall be the duty of the president to make such nominations within thirty days after the effective date of this section, and thereafter within thirty days after any vacancy occurs, and appointments shall be made by the governing body of the city within thirty days after nominations have been submitted. Should the governing body of the city fail to appoint within said thirty days, the first named nominee shall automatically become a member of the commission. The term of office of each successor to each original appointee shall be for six years, provided that appointment to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term shall be only for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. Members of existing Civil Service Commissions in such cities shall serve until the first city civil service commissioners are appointed pursuant to this section.

(E). Commissions; domicile; members; removal; political activity. No member of the State or a City Civil Service Commission shall be removable except for cause, after being given a copy of charges against him and an opportunity to be heard publicly on such charges by his appointing authority. The State Commission shall be domiciled in Baton Rouge, and each City Commission shall be domiciled in the city in which its members serve. Each commission shall elect one of its members chairman. All hearings shall be open to the public.

No member of any Civil Service Commission shall be a candidate for nomination or election to any public office or hold any other public office or position of public employment whatsoever, the office of Notary Public or a military or naval office, or Dean or member of the faculty of any educational institution excepted; nor shall any member of the commission be or have been during a period of six months immediately preceding his appointment a member of any local, state, or national committee of a political party, or an officer or member of a committee in any political campaign of any organization, and each commissioner shall take an oath of office before entering upon the duties of office, and such oath shall include a statement of belief in the merit system principles, and a statement of present desire to support the principles of the merit system.

(F) (1). Directors of personnel; appointment, powers and duties; removal. The Director of Personnel for the Department of State Civil Service or any Department of City Civil Service shall be appointed with or without competitive examination by the appropriate State or City Civil Service Commission. Directors shall be classified as civil service employees and act as administrative heads of their respective departments, shall appoint such employees, experts, special assistants and attorneys, with the consent of the appropriate commission, as may be necessary to carry out effective administration of this section, and shall have such other powers and perform such duties as may from time to time be delegated to them by the appropriate Civil Service Commission. A director may be removed only for cause by the appropriate commission after being given a copy of charges against him and an opportunity to be heard publicly on such charges before the commission. Directors of Personnel holding office on the effective date of this section in any existing such positions on the effective date of this section, notwithstanding the state shall retain the services of such persons, subject to the provisions of this section, and such persons shall be classified civil service employees with status until their successors are duly appointed and qualified as provided herein.

(2). Directors of personnel; conduct of examinations. Except as may otherwise be provided in this section or the rules adopted hereunder, Directors of Personnel and their staffs shall hold competitive entrance and promotion examinations and make appointments in the Classified Service as examinations, and under the supervision and direction of the appropriate Civil Service Commission with the approval of the appropriate Civil Service Commission restrict admission to examinations to persons qualified to perform the duties of the position by fixing requirements of training, residence, health, skill, education, character, physical capacity, experience, reputation, and other qualifications. The subject matter, experience ratings, nature, and content of competitive examinations, prepared and given by its experts and staff, shall be subject to the administrative supervision and discretion of the appropriate Civil Service Commission. In the case of positions where the duties thereof require that the applicant or employee hold a license issued by any board or examining authority established under issued by any board or examining authority shall be unassembled and shall be based upon the training, residence, health, skill, education, character, physical capacity, experience, reputation, and other qualifications of the applicant or employee. Where there are sufficient local applicants and the kind and character of positions justifies it and it is otherwise practicable and reasonable to do so, statewide examinations for positions in the state service shall be given at convenient localities in each senatorial district.

(G). Unclassified and classified service; definitions; change of status. The "State Service" and the "City Service" of cities of the state having a population exceeding two hundred fifty thousand shall be divided into the unclassified and classified service.

(a) The unclassified state and city service shall comprise the following offices and positions: (1) heads and City officers elected by the people, and persons appointed to all vacancies in elective offices; (2) heads of principal departments appointed by the governor or the mayor or other governing body of any city, including the State Fire Marshal, Surveyor General, State Live Stock Inspector, Service Commissioner for United Spanish War Veterans, Director of Veterans' Affairs, and Director of Civil Defense, and the Administrator of the Division of Employment Security in the Department of Labor, who shall be appointed by the governor. (b) The Classified Civil Service of the cities subject to the provisions of this section shall comprise all other offices and positions of employment now existing or hereafter created in the city service. The classified civil service of the state shall comprise all other offices and positions of employment in the state service existing on the thirtieth day of June, 1958, or thereafter created in the state service.

(c) Although the Legislature shall not increase the exemptions or add to the unclassified service as defined in (G) (a), no provision or restriction in (G) (a) or this section shall deny to the Legislature or to the governing body of any city, or any parish governed jointly with one or more municipalities of the state of government, having a civil service system, the power to place in the classified state or city service, as the case may be, any offices and positions except elective offices, which are placed in the unclassified service by (G) (a), provided the governing body of any city or any parish governed jointly with one or more municipalities of the state of government, so place in the classified state or city service, as the case may be, any offices and position shall notify, in writing, the city or state Civil Service Commission, as the case may be, of such action at least six months prior to the effective date of the inclusion of said offices under said system.

(d) Nothing in (G) or this section shall prevent the establishment by the Legislature in one or more parishes of a civil service system for any or all parish employees, including those hereinabove exempted from the State Classified Service, or the establishment by the Legislature of a civil service system in one or more cities having a population of less than two hundred fifty thousand, any manner that may now or hereafter be provided by law.

(H). Waiver of requirements in filling certain vacancies. The provisions and requirements of this section as to methods of filling vacancies, establishment of promotional lists and employment lists, eligibility and original entrance competitive tests and admission to tests may from time to time be waived or dispensed with by the appropriate state or city commission in its discretion in whole or in part, and under such conditions as the appropriate commission may see fit, in the case of appointment for salaried unskilled labor, including custodial workers, attendants, street cleaners, garbage workers, janitors, food service workers, and porters. Any position designated by this paragraph, when once duly appointed by the appointing authority in accordance with the rules adopted by the commission shall acquire permanent status in the classified service.

(I). Rules and regulations; removal of names from lists; delegation of powers. There is vested in the State Civil Service Commission and in the appropriate City Civil Service Commission the power and duty to exercise respectively the authority and power, after public notice and public hearing, to adopt, amend, repeal and enforce rules which shall have the effect of law, regulating employment, transfers, promotion, removal, qualifications, and other personnel matters and transactions, and employment conditions and disbursements to employees, and carrying out generally in the foregoing respects, and as may be otherwise necessary to put and keep in operation the purposes of civil service as herein provided, including, but not by way of limitation, rules (1) providing for the approval or disapproval of disbursements to all personal services in the classified service; (2) establishing work-test periods of not less than six months nor more than twelve months before appointees acquire permanent status as classified employees; provided that no more than one work-test period may be terminated successively from the same position during their work-test periods without the approval of the Commission; (3) providing uniform regulations governing examinations, maintenance, consolidation and cancellation of eligible lists and the removal of names from an eligible list, leaves of absence, including transfers, and military leaves, lay-offs, reemployment and reinstatement, and other conditions, (4) providing for promotions on a competitive basis except where the commission finds that it is impractical and except where rules have been adopted under the authority and as defined in (1) (b) and (1) (a); (5) providing for the filling of vacancies in the classified service by demotion, transfer, reinstatement, reemployment, promotion, original appointment or temporary appointment, as such methods are defined, and under the conditions and subject to the restrictions and limitations, including the preference and order of the methods to be used in filling vacancies as set forth in the rules; (6) establishing and recommending hours of work provided that the rules establishing the hours of work shall not become effective until approved by the governor or governing body of the city as the case may be; (7) providing for attendance records, conditions for payment of salaries, training and educational programs for persons in the state or city service, and a uniform service rating system (including the manner in which ratings are to be used in promotions, salary increases, suspensions, and separations); (8) providing the procedure, the grounds for which appeals must be taken, and all other matters pertaining to appeals; (9) according preferences in original appointments to citizens and registered voters of the state and preferences to citizens and registered voters of the state subject to the provisions of this section, and five-point preferences in original appointments and three point preferences in promotions to honorably discharged veterans honorably retired, or discharged under honorable conditions, from the armed forces of the United States, after having served between the wartime dates of April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918, both dates inclusive, or between June 27, 1940 and July 25, 1947, both dates between September 16, 1940 and July 25, 1947, both dates inclusive, or between June 27, 1950 and a date to be established later by presidential proclamation or by concurrent resolution of the Congress of the United States, both dates inclusive, of the Congress of the United States, both dates inclusive, or who served in the peacetime campaigns or expeditions for which campaign badges have been authorized, and ten point preferences in original appointments to honorably discharged veterans who served either in peace or in war and who have one or more disabilities recognized by the Veterans Administration as service-connected, or to wives of veterans who are in such poor physical condition as to preclude their apointment to civil service jobs in their usual line of work, or to unremarried widows of deceased veterans who served in a war period as defined above or in peacetime who died in active wartime or peacetime service or who suffered total and permanent disabilities while in service and who became totally and permanently disabled as a result of service, or divorced or separated mothers of persons who died in wartime or peacetime service or who became totally and permanently disabled in wartime or peacetime service, provided, however, that only one ten-point preference shall be allowed at any one time to the persons enumerated above, provided further, that if the ten-point preference is not being utilized by the veteran, either because of his death or mental or physical incapacity which precludes his appointment to a civil service job in his usual line of work or because of his death, such preference shall be available to his wife, if married and not otherwise entitled to a preference above, in the order specified, provided that all such preferences may be given only to persons who have attained passing marks on the tests which meet or exceed the minimum requirements of the test, and who have received at least the minimum rating required for eligibility.

Wherever the provisions of any law of the United States, or of any rule, order or regulation of any federal agency or authority, providing or administering federal funds for use in Louisiana, either directly or indirectly or as a grant-in-aid, or to be matched or otherwise, impose other or higher civil service or merit standards or different classifications than are required by the provisions of this section, then the provisions of such laws, classification, rules or regulations of the United States or any federal agency may be adopted by the commission as rules and regulations governing such federally financed employment and employees affected thereby, anything in this section to the contrary notwithstanding.

The names of persons who have been considered for appointment three times by any one or more appointing authorities and have not been employed, reemployment, or who have expressed unwillingness to accept appointment may in the discretion of the director be removed from a list.

The State and City Civil Service Commission are authorized to delegate to the director from time to time such of their powers and duties provided for in (1) (2) (3) (4) and (7) of this paragraph (I) as they may deem proper, and the director shall perform these duties and functions subject to the supervision and approval of the appropriate Civil Service Commission.

The State and City Civil Service Commissions shall adopt:

(a) rules providing for the method of certification of eligibles for appointment or promotion, and the number of names from each list, but not less than three except if more than one vacancy is to be filled the name of one additional eligible for each additional vacancy may be certified, and except that special rules may be established and in the case of reemployment lists and reinstatement and in the rules defined in (1) (3) (4) and (5), and the rules shall also define and establish such certifications and appointments as are declared and defined by the commission to be emergency, provisional or conditional appointments or appointments for a limited period where civil service status is not obtained and certification not required.

(b) A classification plan, prepared and submitted by the director and the commission, requiring the classification of positions in the classified service according to similarity of duties performed and responsibilities assumed, so that the same qualifications may reasonably be required for, and the same schedule of pay may be equitably applied to all positions in the same class. After such classification plan has been adopted by the commission, the director, with the approval of the commission, shall allocate the positions of every employee in the classified service to one of the classes in the plan. Whenever new positions are created or additional classes are established, or existing classes are divided, combined, altered or abolished, the director shall make such allocations or reallocations of positions to the existing classes and shall report all actions thereby. Following the adoption of the classification plan and any amendments of the plan, and the allocation to classes therein of positions, no employee shall be appointed, reemployed, transferred, promoted or demoted to a position in the classified service under any class title which has not been approved by the director as appropriate to the duties to be performed.

Employees affected by the allocation or reallocation of a position to a class, or by any changes in the classification plan, shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard thereon, first by the director and later by appeal to the commission after filing with the director a written request for a hearing.

(c) Rules fixing minimum, maximum, and such intermediate rates of compensation as may be necessary, and establishing uniform pay plans and amendments thereof from time to time, according to duties and responsibilities, on the basis of recommendations of the director after consultation by the director with appointing authorities and the state or municipal fiscal officers as the case may be and resort to such other measures of investigation and research as he may deem desirable. In the adoption of a pay plan and amendments thereof for the State Service, differences in pay in private business and industry and the scarcity of applicants in the different areas of the state may be taken into consideration in fixing the different rates in the different localities and areas. Each employee shall be paid one of the rates set forth in the pay plan for the class of position in which he is employed. The plan for the class of position in which he is employed. The rate of any employee at the time the original pay plan is effect shall not be reduced by such original pay plan. A pay plan, or amendments thereto, of the state shall become effective only after approval of the governor; and a pay plan and amendments thereto for any city shall become effective only after approval by the governing body of said city.

(J) (1). Promotions. Vacancies in positions in the Classified Service of the State and cities, except for such rules adopted under the authority of (1) (3) (4) (5) as may be adopted under the authority and as defined in (1) (b) and (1) (a), shall, as far as practicable, be filled by promotion from lower classes following competitive tests; provided, that in case the commission so directs, such positions shall be filled by competitive tests open not only to state or city employees serving in lower classes, but also city officers and employees serving in the state or city. A change to persons not in the service of the state or city, or to persons from a position in any class to a position in another class for which a higher maximum rate of pay is prescribed shall be considered a promotion. The director with the approval of the commission shall, to the extent he considers such action practicable, provide for reasonable increases in pay for promotion desirable, indicate the principal or normal lines of promotion from and to each class in the class specifications or in regulations.

(2). Layoffs; preference employees; reinstatement or preferred reemployment lists. Whenever a position in the classified service is abolished or needs to be vacated because of stoppage of work funds, or other causes, the employee or employees in the class involved in the organization unit affected shall be laid off without pay by the appointing authority under such rules and regulations as to selection and seniority as may from time to time be adopted by the commission. Provided, that preference employees (ex-members of the armed forces and their dependents as described in I of this section) having length of service and efficiency rating are as good as or better than other competing employees shall be retained in preference to all other competing employee or employees in the class or in all of the employees; and provided, further, that when any or all of the functions of any state agency are transferred to or when any state agency is replaced by some other state agency, or state agencies, all preference employees in the classified service of the state agency affected by the function or functions transferred or in the state agency which is replaced by some other state agency shall first be transferred to the replacing state agency or agencies, for employment in positions for which they are qualified, before such state agency, or state agencies, shall appoint additional employees from eligible lists for such positions. The appointing authority shall give written notice to the director of any proposed layoff a reasonable time before the effective date thereof, and the director shall make such orders relating thereto as he considers necessary to secure compliance with the rules. The name of every regular employee so laid off shall be placed on the appropriate reemployment lists, and said employee shall also be eligible for reinstatement and shall be reinstated in any position in the same class in the same organization unit in which a vacancy exists. If he cannot be reinstated, as hereinabove required, the director shall, upon employee's request to be made within one year from the time of his layoff or the time his position was abolished, place his name on a reinstatement or preferred reemployment list for the class of the position which was abolished or from which the employee was laid off. The appointing authority of the organization unit, during the time such employee's name remains on such lists is prohibited from filling any vacancy in the class in which the employee formerly held written without first offering appointment to, and appointing, if he accepts, the employee who has reinstatement rights in such organization unit.

(K). Commission members; compensation. Members of the state and city commissions shall each be paid twenty-five dollars for each day devoted to the work of the commission, but not more than two thousand dollars each in any year. They shall also be entitled to reimbursement for actual traveling and other expenses.

(L). Department records. The records of the State and City Civil Service Departments (except such records as the Commission may properly regard as confidential, be-cause they involve (a) investigation correspondence and data, related to the moral character and reputation of applicants and employees in the classified service, and (b) for employment or employees in the classified service, (1) statements, reports, correspondence and other data in connection with and related to investigations of violations of this section conducted by a commission and members of its staff, and (c) examination materials, questions and examination papers and records relating in any way to competitive examinations and tests conducted and held by the State Department of Civil Service or any City Civil Service Department), shall be public records and their inspection, availability and regulation shall be subject to and governed by the provisions of R.S. 44:1 through 39 and any future amendments thereof.

(M) (1). Departments; Service agreements with other public bodies. Subject to the approval of the commission, the director of the Department of State Civil Service or any municipality having a civil service department may enter into agreements with any municipality, political subdivision or public body of the State to furnish services and facilities of the department to them in the administration of their personnel on merit principles. Any such agreement may provide for the reimbursement of the reasonable cost of the services and facilities furnished, as determined by the director. All municipalities and political subdivisions of the State, and the state, are hereby authorized to enter into such agreements.

(2). Cooperation. The Directors of the State and City civil service departments may cooperate with governmental agencies for other jurisdictions, whether state, municipal, charged with personnel administration in conducting joint tests and establishing joint lists from which eligibles shall be certified for appointment in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

(3). Certification of payroll. After the State or any City Civil Service Commission decides that it is prepared to function under the provisions of this Section, and the Governor of the State and all appointing authorities of the state or governing body of any city, as the case may be, have been notified of this fact by the appropriate Civil Service Commission, thereafter no payment for personal services of any employee in the Classified Civil Service shall be made until after certification by the appropriate State or City Civil Service Department.

(N) (1). Employees' rights and obligations; dismissal, etc., for cause. No person in the State of Classified Service, having acquired permanent Civil Service status, shall be demoted, dismissed, or discriminated against, except for cause, expressed in writing by the appointing authority. (a) The burden of proof on appeal, as to the facts, shall be on the employing officer.

(2). Discrimination; political or religious. No person shall be appointed or promoted to, or demoted, or dismissed from any position in the State or City Classified Service, or in any way favored or discriminated against with respect to employment in the Classified Service because of his political or religious opinions or affiliations.

(3). Political contributions. No employee in the Classified Service of the State or a city, and no member of the State or City Commissions shall, directly or indirectly, pay or promise to pay any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political organization or purpose, or solicit or take any part in soliciting any such assessment, subscription or contribution of any employee in the Classified Service.

(4). Falsifications; fraud. No person shall make any false statement, certificate, mark, rating or report with regard to any test, certification or appointment made under any provision of this Section, or in any manner commit or attempt to commit any fraud preventing the impartial execution of this Section and the rules.

(5). Purchase or sale of position. (7). Political activity; campaigning, etc. No employee in the Classified Service of the State or a city, and no member of a State or City Commission shall be a member of any national, state, or local committee of a political party, or an officer or member of any factional, political club or organization, or a candidate for nomination or election to any public office, or shall make any political speech for public political statement in behalf of any candidate, faction, or party, as a part of any political campaign for the nomination or election of public officers, or shall take any part in the management or affairs of any political faction or party or in any political campaign, except to exercise his right as a citizen to express his opinion privately, to serve as a commissioner or official watcher at the polls in any election, and to cast his vote for whom he pleases.

(8). Elective officers; exclusion from classified service. No person elected to public office shall, while serving in such elective office, be appointed to or hold any position in the Classified Service of the State or a city.

(9). Political activity; commission rules. The State and City Civil Service Commissions shall have the authority to adopt rules prohibiting other and additional political activities on the part of appointing authorities, which may have the effect of limiting the political exercise of employees in the Classified Service for political or partisan purposes.

(O) (1). Appeals; jurisdiction; decison; judicial review. There is vested in the State Civil Service Commission and in the appropriate Civil Service Commissions for the several cities respectively the exclusive right to hear and decide all appeals and the legality of all removal and disciplinary cases. The decision of the appropriate Civil Service Commission shall be final on the facts, but an appeal shall be granted to the Supreme Court of Louisiana on any question of law if application to the Commission is made within thirty (30) days after the Commission's decision becomes final. The Supreme Court shall promulgate rules of procedure to be followed in the taking and lodging of such appeals.

(2). Right of appeal. Subject to the rules governing the right of appeal, persons in the State or City Classified Service who allege that they have been deprived of their rights or discriminated against under the provisions of this Section, or persons who shall have applied for but shall have been examined for the Classified Service and shall not have established their status as permanent Classified employees and allege that they have been discriminated against in review of their applications, admission to the examination, the scoring of examinations, the establishment of eligible lists and certifications therefrom, shall be granted the right of appeal before the appropriate Commission.

(3). Reinstatement by commission; conditions; pay for lost time. If any Commission after any hearing orders a discharged employee reinstated, it may reinstate such employee under such conditions as it deems proper and may order full pay for lost time.

(4). Violations; investigations; hearings; suspension or dismissal. The State and each City Civil Service Commission may, at any time, upon its own initiative investigate any vimay, at any time, upon its own initiative investigate any violation by any person of the provisions of this Section, and shall upon the filing of written charges by any person of such a violation within one year after the alleged violation, investigate such charges. Within ninety days after the filing of charges as herein provided, the Commission shall hold a public hearing concerning the charges. If the appropriate Commission, after public hearing in an investigation instituted either on its own initiative or after charges, shall determine that the person or persons under inquiry have violated any of the provisions of this Section, the appropriate Commission is empowered, in its discretion, to direct the appointing authority having power and supervision over any offending officer or employees in the State or City Service, as the case may be, forthwith to suspend without pay for a period of time designated by the Commission or to dismiss such officer or employee, and such officer or employee shall be suspended or dismissed as directed by the Commission.

(5). Witnesses; production of evidence. The State and City Civil Service Commissions and each member of the Commissions, the Director, and any specially designated agent of the Commissions, shall have power to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses and compel the production of books and papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing authorized by this Section.

(6). Reference; powers of referee. Any Commission may refer the taking of testimony to one or more members of the Commission, the Director, or any other employee of the Department. If a referee is appointed as herein provided, he shall have the power to administer oaths and shall examine under oath all witnesses brought or summoned before him at the parish seat nearest the place of employment of the employee, and shall cause a true transcript of the testimony to be recorded. Such transcript, together with any documentary evidence that may be introduced, shall be submitted to the Commission, which shall render decision on the basis of such evidence, and its opinion as thus rendered shall be final.

(7). Witnesses; offenses; contumacy. Any person who shall fail to appear in response to a subpoena or to answer any question or produce any books or papers pertinent to any question or proceeding or hearing, or who shall knowingly give false testimony therein shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall have the power to administer oaths and shall examine subject to the penalties provided by law for like offenses. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, any District Court of the State of Louisiana within the jurisdiction of which the inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which said person guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business, upon application by the appropriate Commission, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the Commission, its member, agent or agency, and to produce evidence, if so ordered, or there to give testimony touching on the matter under consideration or in question; and any failure to obey such order of court may be punished by said court as a contempt thereof.

(8). Costs. The appropriate Commission may, in its discretion, order the costs of any hearing or appeal, or any portion of such costs, including the cost of recording and transcribing testimony, to be paid by or charged to the department or organization unit against whose action the appeal is taken or hearing granted.

(P) (1). Conduct of employees; refusal to testify; forfeiture of office. If any member of the State or City Commissions or any officer or employee in the State or City Civil Service shall willfully refuse or fail to appear before any Civil Service Commission, court, or judge, any legislative committee, or any officer, board or body authorized to five committee, or any officer, board or body authorized to conduct any examination or inquiry, or having appeared refuse to testify or answer any question relating to the affairs of the State or city, or the conduct of any office or government of the State or city, on the ground that his testimony or answers would tend to incriminate him, or shall refuse to waive immunity from prosecution on account of any matter about which he may be asked to testify at any such hearing or inquiry, he shall forfeit his office or position and shall not be eligible thereafter for appointment to any position in the State or City Service for a period of ten years.

(2). Violations; eligibility for employment. The appropriate Civil Service Commission may, in its discretion, render an effective decree ordering that any applicant for employment or person in the State or City Classified Service who has been found by it to have violated any of the provisions of this Section shall not again be eligible for employment or public office in the State or City Service for a period not exceeding ten years from the date of dismissal.

(3). Violations; offense; punishment. Any person who willfully violates any provisions of this Section or of the rules issued hereunder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor more than one thousand ($1000.00) dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(4). Conviction of violation; eligibility for employment. The rights of any person under Act 102 of 1944, as amended and under the above Sections of the Revised Statutes which exist on the effective day of this amendment are continued in effect. Every rule, classification, plan, or allocation established under the above Statutes which is in force on the effective day of this amendment is continued in effect until it is amended or repealed by the proper authority under this Section.

5. System of Classified Civil Service. There is created in the municipal government a classified civil service consisting of the positions of employment, the officers, and employees of the municipal fire and police services. The classified civil service shall be known as "the municipal fire and police civil service".

6. Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Boards. a. A municipal fire and police civil service board is created in the municipal government. The board shall be composed of five members who shall serve without compensation. The board shall have a chairman, vice-chairman and a secretary. The domicile of the board shall be in the municipality it serves.

b. To be eligible for appointment or to serve as a member of a board, a person shall be a citizen of the United States of America, a resident of the municipality in which he is to serve for at least five years next preceding his appointment, and shall, at the time of his appointment, be a qualified voter of the municipality. Any employee while serving as a member of a board shall occupy as a regular employee a position or office lower than that of chief, assistant chief, district chief, or battalion chief of his department. No member of a board shall have been, during a period of six months immediately preceding his appointment, a member of any local, state, or national committee of a political party, or an officer or member of a committee in any factional political club or organization. No member of a board shall be a candidate for nomination or election to any public office or hold any other elective office or position or public employment, except that of notary public, a military or naval official office, or that of a municipal fire or police department which is expressly required by the provisions of this Section.

c. The first five members of a board shall be appointed by the governing body of the municipality during the ninety day period immediately following the date that this Section takes effect in a municipality under paragraph 1.

The members of the board shall be appointed by the governing body as follows:

(1) One shall be appointed by the governing body upon its own nomination.

(2) Two members shall be appointed from a list of four nominees, which shall be furnished within thirty days after receiving such request by the executive head or* a legally chartered and established institution of higher education located within the municipality; or, if there is no such institution in the municipality, by the executive head of any such institution of the governing body's choice within the state.

(3) Two members shall be appointed who shall be first nominated and elected by and from the regular employees of the fire and police departments as follows:

One member shall be elected and appointed from the fire department, and one member shall be elected and appointed from the police department. The employee-nominee from each department shall be elected by secret ballot of the regular employees of his respective department at an election to be called and held for that purpose by the chief of the department. The chief of each department shall call such an election within forty-five days after this Section takes effect in the municipality by posting, for a fifteen day continuous period immediately preceding the election, a notice thereof on the bulletin board of each station house of his department; and, shall officially notify the governing body of the municipality within the ten day period immediately following the election, the name of the employee-nominee so elected by the regular employees of his department. The chief of the department shall vote in the election only in the case of a tie vote.

d. The term of office for all members of the board shall be for a period of three years, except that the first member appointed by the governing body of a municipality upon its own nomination shall serve for a period of two years; the first employee members nominated and appointed shall each serve a term of one year. Each member shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

e. Upon the term of office expiring for a member of a board, or because of a vacancy in the office of any member thereof, the governing body of a municipality shall appoint a successor in the same manner as the outgoing member was appointed; and such successive appointment shall be made within ninety days immediately following the expiration or vacancy.

f. Each member shall take the oath of office before entering upon the duties of his office. His oath shall include a statement to uphold the Constitution and laws of Louisiana and of the United States; to administer faithfully and impartially the provisions of this Section and the rules adopted under the authority of this Section.

g. Members of such a board serving under Act 102 of 1944 or under Sections 2471 through Section 2476 of Title 33 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 at the time this Section takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which they were appointed.

h. Any member of a board shall be liable to removal from office by judgment of the district court of his domicile for conviction of misdemeanor in office, incompetency, cowhigh crimes and misdemeanors, favoritism, extortion, oppression in office, gross misconduct, or habitual drunkenness. The district attorney of the district wherein the board member resides may institute such suit, and shall do so upon the written request, specifying the charges, of twenty-five citizens and taxpayers of the municipality of which the board member is a resident. The district attorney shall assume the full and active prosecution of such suit or may employ attorney selected and employed by the citizens and taxpayers.

i. The governing body of the municipality shall advise, within and not later than the expiration of the ninety day period prescribed for the appointment of the board members, each appointee of his appointment and term of office as a member of the municipal fire and police civil service board; and, an official record thereof shall be placed in the official minutes of the governing body.

j. The original members of the board shall meet within thirty days after their appointment in their first official meeting; take the oath of office; elect a chairman and vice-chairman; and transact any other business pertinent at that time. The oath of office shall be administered by the city clerk or by any other person having the legal authority to administer it.

k. A chairman and vice-chairman shall be elected by the members of the board. The term for which either the chairman or the vice-chairman shall serve as such, shall run concurrently with that for which he was appointed a member of the board; except the term of either shall terminate with the death of the incumbent, or his resignation from the office or from the board or his removal from the board.

l. At the discretion of the board, the office of secretary shall be filled:

(1) By electing one of its members thereto;

(2) By appointing the city clerk or secretary-treasurer of the municipality to fill such office ex officio;

or

(3) By employing and paying on a part-time basis any other person a salary not to exceed twenty dollars per month; or

(4) By requiring the state examiner to act in such capacity. The board may terminate the term of office of any person serving as its secretary at any time. No person serving as secretary of a board, except a member thereof, shall have the right to vote in its proceedings. The secretary shall attend the meetings of the board; keep a record of its proceedings; attend to correspondence directed to him, and other correspondence ordered by the chairman; perform other functions assigned to him by the board; and cooperate with the state examiner in a manner that will assist the examiner to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon him by this Section or those functions which may be requested of him by the board.

m. The board shall meet at any time after its original meeting upon call of the chairman, who shall give all members of the board due notice thereof. The chairman of the board shall call, and the members of the board shall attend, one regular meeting of the board within each quarterly period of each calendar year. If a chairman fails or refuses to call such quarterly meeting of this board, the members of the board shall meet upon the written call of any two members mailed ten days in advance of the meeting. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and the concurring votes of any three members comprising the quorum of the board shall be sufficient for the decision of all matters to be decided or transacted by it. Meetings of the boards shall be open to the public.

7. Duties of the Board. a. Represent the public interest in matters of personnel administration in the fire and police services of the said municipal government.

b. Advise and assist the governing body, mayor, commissioner of public safety, and the chiefs of the fire and police departments of the municipality, with reference to the maintenance and improvement of personnel standards and administration and improvement of personnel standards and administration in the fire and police services, and the classified system.

c. Advise and assist the employees in the classified service with reference to the maintenance, improvement, and administration of personnel matters related to any individual or group of employees.

d. Make, at the direction of the mayor, commissioner of public safety, chief of either the fire or police department, or upon the written petition of any citizen for just cause, or upon its own motion, any investigation concerning the administration of personnel or the compliance with the provisions of this Section in the said municipal fire and police services; review, and modify or set aside upon its own motion, any of its actions, take any other action which it determines to be desirable or necessary in the public interest, or to carry out effectively the provisions and purposes of this Section.

e. Conduct investigations and pass upon complaints by or against any officer or employee in the classified service for the purpose of demotion, reduction in position or abolition thereof, suspension of dismissal of the officer or employee, in accordance with the provisions of this Section.

f. Hear and pass upon matters which the mayor, commissioner of public safety, the chiefs of the departments affected by this Section, and the state examiner of municipal fire and police civil service bring before it.

g. Make, alter, amend, and promulgate rules necessary to carry out effectively the provisions of this section.

h. Adopt and maintain a classification plan. The classification plan shall be adopted and maintained by rules of the board.

i. Make reports to the governing body, either upon its own motion or upon the official request of the governing body, regarding general or special matters of personnel administration in and for the municipal fire and police services of the municipality, or with reference to any appropriation made by the governing body for the expenses incidental to the operation of the board.

8. Rules. Each board may adopt and execute rules, regulations, and orders necessary or desirable effectively to carry out the provisions of this Section, and shall do so when expressly required by this Section. No rule, regulation, or order shall be contrary to, or in violation or, any provisions, purposes, or intent of this Section or contrary to any other provisions of law. The board may amend or repeal any rule or part thereof in the same manner provided herein for the adoption of the rule. All rules shall be applicable to both the fire and police classified services, unless by express provisions therein, it is made applicable to only one of the services.

A board may adopt any rule, either in its proposed or revised form, after holding a public hearing at which any municipal officer, employee, private citizen, and the state examiner shall be given an opportunity to show cause why the proposed rule, amendment, or any part thereof should not be adopted. Before the board holds this public hearing, it shall furnish at least thirty days notice in advance of the date, time and place thereof to the mayor, commissioner of public safety, and other municipal commissioner whom the rule may in any way affect, the chief and each station of the departmental service to be affected by the adoption of any such rule, and to the state examiner. A copy of all proposed rules to be discussed at any hearing shall be furnished with all notices. Such notice and copy of proposed rule furnished the various stations of a respective department shall be posted upon the bulletin board of each station for a period of at least thirty days in advance of the hearing.

Within thirty days after the board has adopted any rule, whether it is a new rule or amendment of an existing rule, or an addition in whole or part thereof, it shall furnish an official copy thereof to all persons and places set forth above.

Rules adopted under the authority of this Section shall have the force and effect of law.

9. State examiner and Deputy State Examiner of Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service. a. The office of state examiner of municipal fire and police civil service is created.

b. The office of Deputy State Examiner of Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service is created, subject to the supervision and orders of the state examiner; he is authorized and empowered to exercise the authority and perform the duties of the state examiner as herein provided. He shall receive and be paid a salary in the amount fixed by the Governor and shall be paid traveling and living expenses while away from the place of his residence.

c. The state examiner shall be a resident and qualified voter of the state. He shall be a person who has had experience in the field of personnel administration. He and the deputy state examiner of the municipal fire and police civil service shall come within and be bound under and amenable to the Classified Service of the state as established and existing, except no pay plan thereunder shall be applicable to the said state examiner or deputy state examiner. The state examiner and deputy state examiner shall be subject to removal and other disciplinary action by the State Civil Service Commission only for a good and sufficient cause set forth in written charges filed with the Commission by any member of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Board created by this amendment or by any qualified elector of the State, and only after a public hearing by the State Commission to be held in accordance with rules to be adopted by the said Commission.

d. The State Civil Service Commission shall exercise no administrative control over the State Examiner or Deputy State Examiner. Its functions and powers relating to this office shall consist solely of the right of appointment, hearing of charges for removal or other disciplinary action legally brought against the incumbents of these officers, and the ordering of their removal or the removing of such other judgment of a disciplinary nature as it may deem proper after a hearing.

e. When a vacancy occurs in the office of the said State Examiner or Deputy State Examiner, the State Civil Service Commission shall make a provisional appointment of any person it deems qualified to fill the vacancy until a competitive examination can be given by and under the direction of the State Civil Service Commission; and until a list of persons eligible for appointment to the office can be established. As soon as such list can be and is established, the State Civil Service Commission shall appoint one of the three persons ranking highest upon said eligible list to fill the office; and thereupon the appointed shall serve a working test period of six months which shall be considered a portion of the examination. At the termination of such working test period, if successfully completed, the appointee shall become a regular employee as defined in the State Civil Law and subject and amenable thereto to the same extent as the original State Examiner as hereinbefore set forth; and may be subjected to removal or other disciplinary action by the State Civil Service Commission only for a good and sufficient cause set forth in written charges filed with the Commission by any one of the Municipal Fire and Police Civil Service Boards created by this Act, or by any qualified elector of the State, and only after a public hearing by the State Commission to be held in accordance with rules to be adopted by the State Civil Service Commission.

f. The state examiner shall maintain a suitable office in the city of Baton Rouge. The officer charged by law with the custody of state buildings shall assign suitable office space to the examiner. The examiner shall appoint employees necessary for him to carry out his duties effectively. All of the employees appointed by the state examiner, except persons employed on a temporary basis to conduct or assist in giving examinations, shall be selected by him after certification to him by the State Department of Civil Service of names from eligible lists established by the State Department of Civil Service; and they shall, in all other respects, be covered by the provisions of existing Civil Service laws and rules and regulations legally adopted by the Department of State Civil Service.

g. The state examiner shall serve on a full-time basis. He shall be paid a salary of not less than forty-two hundred dollars per year. He shall be paid for his traveling and living expenses while away from the city of Baton Rouge.

h. The state examiner shall take the oath of office and furnish bond for the faithful performance of his duties according to law in the sum of five thousand dollars. The premium of the bond shall be paid from the funds appropriated to the state examiner. The state examiner shall be ex officio a notary public for the state at large.

i. The state examiner may obtain on a contractual or fee basis the services which his office is unable to supply and which are necessary for his compliance with the provisions of this Section.

j. The state examiner shall:

(1) Assist the various boards in an advisory capacity in the discharge of their duties.

(2) Prepare and submit a classification plan to each board for its approval, after consultation with the appointing and departmental authorities of the departmental service for which a plan is prepared and submitted, as provided in paragraph 13.

(3) Prepare and administer tests of fitness for original entrance and promotion to applicants for positions in the respective classified service of the municipalities; score the tests and furnish the results to the board for which the tests were given.

(4) Cooperate with the secretary of each board in maintaining a roster of all the fire and police civil service employees in which shall be set forth the name of each employee, the class title of position held, the salary or other compensation, any change in class title, and any other necessary data.

(5) Act as secretary of any said board requesting such service.

(6) Assist and cooperate in an advisory manner with the various appointing authorities, department officers, and the classified employees, of the municipalities regarding the duties and obligations imposed upon them by the provisions of this Section.

(7) Encourage employee training in the classified service and, when possible, attend the training courses or parts thereof.

(8) Make annual or biennial reports regarding the work of his office to the Governor.

k. The state examiner may delegate to the deputy state examiner such of the above duties as he may deem expedient.

10. Appropriations; Facilities for Board. The legislature shall make adequate annual appropriations to enable the state examiner and deputy state examiner to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon them by this Section. The governing body of the municipality shall make adequate annual appropriations to enable the board of the municipality to carry out effectively the duties imposed upon the board and shall furnish the board with office space, furnishings, equipment, and supplies and materials necessary for its operation.

11. Classified and Unclassified Service. a. The classified service shall comprise every position, except those included in the unclassified service, to which the right of employee selection, appointment, supervision, and discharge is vested in the municipal government or with an officer or employee thereof and which has as its primary duty and responsibility one of the following:

(Fire)

(1) The chief and assistant chiefs; the intradepartmental division, bureau, squad, platoon and company officers of the fire department.

(2) Fire fighting.

(3) Fire prevention; inspection.

(4) Driving, tillering, and operation of fire apparatus.

(5) Operation and maintenance of radio, fire alarm, or signal system.

(6) Fire department instructors in employee training.

(7) Fire salvage and overhauling services; and first aid.

(8) Automotive or fire apparatus repairs, if such service is operated exclusively by and for either or both the fire or police department.

(9) Secretary to the chief. Departmental records clerk.

b. The unclassified service shall comprise the following:

(1) All officers, employees, and positions of employment in the municipal government, not having as a principal duty one of the duties hereinabove provided in the classified service.

(2) Officers elected by popular vote and persons appointed to fill vacancies in elective offices.

(3) Secretaries, stenographers, and all clerical positions not specifically included in the classified service.

(4) Pound keepers, dog catchers, janitors, porters, elevator operators, chefs, kitchen helpers and workers, mechanic's helpers, car washers, unskilled labor, special guards at dances, or any part-time, or temporary employee.

(5) Any position of employment, the duties of which are included in the classified service, to which the right of employee selection, appointment, supervision, and discharge is vested in and with those authorities the municipal government or an officer or employee thereof.

12. Right of Employee Who Entered Armed Forces to be Reinstated. Any regular and permanent employee who left a position of the departmental service, which now comes within the classified service, subsequent to May 1, 1940, and entered the armed forces of the United States shall be restored to his position and, thereafter, be subject to the rights and jurisdiction of the classified service created by this Section if he makes application therefor to the appointing authority within sixty days from the date of his honorable discharge or discharge under honorable conditions, and is physically and mentally capable of performing the work of his position to the satisfaction of the appointing authority.

13. Classification plan. Each board, as soon as practicable, not to exceed a period of eighteen months, after this Section takes effect in the municipality, shall adopt a classification plan for the fire and police services of the municipality. Each classification plan shall consist of classes to be designated either by standard titles, ranks, or a combination thereof, for all positions included in the classified service for each of the fire and police services. The classification plan may be divided into groups of classes. The various classes of positions shall be arranged in each classification plan so as to show the principal and natural lines of promotion and demotion. The classification plan shall be adopted as rules of the board, in the manner provided by this Section for the adoption of rules. Rules creating the classification plan, future classifications, abolition of any classification, any amendment thereto, or revision thereof shall be adopted by a board only after consultation with the appointing authority, and the chief executive. The original classification plan to be established when this Section takes effect in a municipality shall be prepared, after consultation with the appointing authority, and submitted to the board for its approval and adoption, by the state examiner. The board may amend or revise the classification plans before adopting them. The state examiner shall advise and assist the board in all future classifications when requested to do so.

14. Allocation of Positions to Classes. The board, or chairman thereof subject to the subsequent approval of the board, as soon as practicable, not exceeding forty-five days, after the adoption of a classification plan, after consultation with the appointing authorities concerned, shall allocate each position in the classified service to its appropriate class; and thereafter shall likewise allocate each new position created in the service, and, when for the benefit of the service, reallocate positions from class to class.

Whenever the duties of a position are so changed by the appointing authority that the position in effect becomes one of a different class from that to which it is allocated, the change shall operate to abolish the position and to create a new position of the different class.

Whenever the board finds any change in the duties of any position in the classified service was brought about by the appointing authority to affect a reduction in the classification of any employee because of political, religious, or discriminatory reasons, or without just cause, it shall refuse to recognize any such action, and shall order the appointing authority to continue such employee in the position and class with all rights and privileges.

15. Use of Class Titles. The title of each class shall be the official title of every position allocated to the class, for all purposes having to do with the position as such, and shall be used to the exclusion of all other titles on all pay rolls, budget estimates, and official records and reports pertaining to the position, except that any abbreviation or code symbol by the board may be used to designate a position of a class. Any other title satisfactory to the appointing authority may be used in official correspondence and in any other connection not having to do with the personnel processes covered by this Section. No employee shall be appointed, employed, or paid under any title other than that of the class to which the position occupied by him is allocated.

16. Status of Incumbent of Position When Allocated. Every person employed in the municipal fire and police services for a continuous period of at least six calendar months immediately preceding the date that this Section takes effect in the municipality, who was regularly and permanently appointed to a position coming under the classified service, shall be retained in said position and bound under the classified service, the provisions of this Section, and the rules adopted hereunder.

When any position is first allocated hereunder, or is reallocated to a different class because of error in the first allocation, or because of a change in the duties of a position which has the effect of abolishing the position and creating a new position of another class, the employee and the position thus affected shall be subject hereto, with the status and all rights and privileges he would have had under this Section if he had been originally appointed by examination and certification hereunder to a position of the class to which the position has been allocated or reallocated. Such employee however may be transferred without further tests of fitness or certification to any position of the class to which the position was previously allocated while held by the employee.

Any employee who feels himself aggrieved because of any allocation or change in classification affecting his position shall, upon his request, be heard thereon by the board; and the board shall hear and decide the complaint in any manner deemed proper.

17. Methods of filling vacancies. Vacancies in positions in the classified service shall be filled by one of the following methods:

a. Demotion

b. Transfer

c. Reinstatement

d. Promotional appointment

e. Competitive appointment

f. Reemployment

g. Temporary appointment

A vacancy shall be considered filled under any of the methods specified above, and employment thereunder effective, as of the date on which the employee enters upon the duties thereof.

18. Demotion. Demotions of regular employees shall be made by the appointing authority when it becomes necessary to reduce the number of employees in the classified service or in the class therein. Demotions from any class, except for disciplinary action or because of the abolition of, except for disciplinary action or because of the abolition of an entire class in the classified service, shall be made by demoting employees from lowest to highest in point of total seniority earned in positions of the class plus that earned in any higher classes in the classified service. The names of regular employees demoted for any reason, except for disciplinary action, shall be recorded upon the reinstatement list for the class from which they are demoted in the order in which the demotions are made.

19. Transfer. Any employee may transferred from any position in the classified service to any other position of the same class within the classified service, at the pleasure of the appointing authority without notice to and confirmation by the board.

Any regular employee so transferred shall have the right of appeal to his board upon the grounds (1) that his transfer was made to a position not included within the class to which he was previously allocated, or (2) that the position to which he has been transferred is not included within the classified service; or (3) that the transfer was made deliberately to discriminate against him.

20. Reinstatement and reemployment. a. Each employee who, during or at the expiration of his working test period of probation following his promotion after being certified from an appropriate employment list, is rejected and refused permanent status in the position and class to which he was promoted, shall be automatically reinstated to the position from which he was promoted without his name being placed upon any list.

b. All employees whose names appear upon the reinstatement list for a prospective class shall be reinstated in a position thereof, in the reverse order from which their names were placed upon the list, before any other appointment is made therein.

c. All employees whose names appear upon the reemployment list for a class from which they laid off are entitled to the provisions of paragraph 29, shall be reemployed in a position thereof, or offered such appointment, in the reverse order from which their names were placed upon the list for the class, before any other employment or appointment is made in it.

d. Any regular employee who resigns from a position in the classified service may, with the prior approval of the board, be reemployed in a position of the class or in a position of any lower class for which he is qualified, provided that if reemployment is made within four years of the date of resignation, and that no person whose name appears upon either the reinstatement or reemployment list for the class in which any such person is reemployed is willing to accept an appointment therein. Any person who is reemployed shall be physically fit to perform the duties of the position to which he is appointed. He shall furnish a favorable medical certificate to the appointing authority and the board after a recent examination by a practicing physician.

21. Establishment and Maintenance of Employment Lists. The board shall establish and maintain employment lists containing names of persons eligible for appointment to the various classes of positions in the classified service, as follows:

a. Names of regular employees who are demoted from any class for a reason other than disciplinary action shall be placed upon the reinstatement list for the class from which they were demoted in the order in which the demotions were made.

b. Only the names of regular employees who have been laid off in accordance with provisions of paragraph 29 shall be eligible for entry upon the reemployment list. The names of such persons shall be entered upon the reemployment list for the class from which they were laid off in the order in which the layoffs were made.

c. A name placed upon either the reinstatement or the reemployment list shall remain thereon for a period of four years. The board may remove the name of any person who refuses an offer of employment following a certification from either list.

d. Names of persons attaining a passing score on a promotion test shall be placed upon the promotion employment list for the class for which they were tested, from highest to lowest, according to their total seniority in the departmental service. The names of persons attaining a passing score on a competitive test shall be placed upon the competitive employment list for the class for which they were tested, from highest to lowest, according to their final test scores.

e. Any person whose name is placed upon the competitive employment list for the entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service who has served in the armed forces of the United States of America during the times of war, and has been honorably discharged or discharged under honorable conditions, shall have added to his final test score a total of five points at the time of placing his name upon the list. Proof of such service and discharge shall be required by the board in any manner it deems advisable.

f. The minimum and maximum period for which a name may remain upon a promotional and competitive employment list shall be twelve and eighteen months, respectively, for each list.

g. The employment list for which eligibles are obtained from the results of the tests given for that purpose shall be reestablished in the manner further provided in this Section.

h. When new names are to be placed upon a promotion list for a given class, the remaining names thereon shall be rearranged with the new names so that all names appearing upon the list for the class shall rank, from highest to lowest, according to their final test scores.

22. Tests. The board shall provide through the state examiner for tests to determine the eligibility of applicants for entry upon the promotional and competitive employment lists, as follows:

a. Official notice of examination shall be posted on the bulletin board in each station of the respective department. The notice shall state (1) class of positions for which tests will be given, (2) whether the tests will be given on a promotional or competitive basis, and (3) the final date on which applications for admission to the tests will be received. The notice shall be posted for a continuous period of thirty days preceding the date for administering the tests. In addition to the posted notice, public notice for all tests to be given on a competitive basis shall be published at least four times during the thirty day period in the official journal of the municipality in which such tests are to be held. This notice of examination need not reveal the exact date on which tests shall be administered, but all applicants shall be advised the date, place, and time to report for an announced test at least five days in advance thereof in any manner the board may prescribe. Each person comprising a group of candidates being tested at a given time for the same class of employment shall be given the same test, and it shall be administered in the same manner to each candidate. No questions shall be framed so as to elicit information concerning the political, factional, or religious opinions or affiliations of any applicant.

b. All tests shall be restricted to those matters which will fairly test the relative capacity and fitness of the candidates to discharge the duties characteristic of positions of the class to which they seek to be appointed. Tests may include written or oral questions, trials on the performance of work characteristic of the class, inquiries into facts relating to education, experience, or accomplishments in specialized lines of endeavor, or any combination of these and other elements duly related to the purpose of the tests.

c. Seventy-five percent shall constitute a passing score for all tests administered under the provisions of this Section.

d. Promotional tests for positions in the various classes in the classified service, except those classes in which positions shall be filled only from the competitive list, may be held as the need of the service require, but must be given at least one time during each successive period of eighteen months.

e. Competitive tests shall be held only as the needs of the service require and shall be given for classes comprising only the following duties or positions:

(1) Chief of the departmental service.

(2) The entrance or lowest ranking class in the classified service.

(3) The entrance or lowest ranking class in any group of classes where the various classes have been divided into groups by the classification plan.

(4) Operation, maintenance, and supervision of radio, fire alarm, police alarm, and other signal systems.

(5) Automotive or fire apparatus mechanics and repairmen.

(6) Secretary to the chief.

(7) Departmental records clerk.

(8) For a position in any class in the classified service after reasonable efforts by preceding methods provided by this Section have failed to produce names of persons eligible for regular appointment thereto.

f. All tests required by this Section shall be prepared, administered, and scored by the state examiner in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The results of tests shall be furnished the board for which the tests have been held as soon as practicable after the tests have been administered. All test questions, answers, and papers shall at all times be kept in the custody of the state examiner, and shall be produced by him and exhibited by him at the domicile of any board upon its written request.

g. The board for which any test is administered may, at any time, up to six months after receiving the results from the state examiner, receive and review any or all parts of the test and the methods used in its grading, in order to determine whether the test was a fair and reasonable one and was fairly graded. If, after the board reviews any test and consults with the state examiner, it concludes that any item or parts of the test was unfair or unreasonable or finds errors in the grading, it may, at its discretion, cause a regrading of the test, and, thereupon, correct or establish the appropriate employment list in accordance with the revised ratings. If the board finds that a fair rating can be determined only from an entire new test, it may cause a new test to be given to all persons taking the previous test and, establish a new employment list for the class from the results of such new test.

h. Each applicant who makes a passing score on a test administered under the provisions of this Section shall be advised, in the manner the board prescribes, of his final grade and relative standing on the list appropriate for the class for which he was tested.

23. Admission to Tests. Admission to tests shall be as follows:

a. Admission to a promotional test shall be limited to regular employees of the class next lower from that for which they are to be examined. However, the rules may provide for admission to be extended to applicants from any one or more of the next lower classes.

b. Admission to competitive tests shall be open to all persons who meet the requirements provided by this Section and the rules.

c. Any applicant admitted to a test shall be a citizen of the United States of America and, if of legal age, shall be a qualified elector of the State of Louisiana.

d. Special requirements or qualifications for admission to tests, or for eligibility for appointment, such as age, education, physical requirements, etc., may be established by the rules adopted by the board, after consultation with the appointing authority. Any applicant must be, at the time of his appointment to a position in the classified service, of reasonable health, good moral character, and of temperate and industrious habits.

e. The board may reject the application of any person for admission to tests of fitness, or refuse any applicant to be tested, or may cancel the eligibility of any eligible on any employment list, who

(1) Is found to lack any of the qualifications prescribed, or which may be legally prescribed, as requirements for admission to the tests for the class for which he has applied;

(2) Is physically unfit to perform effectively the duties of a position of the class;

(3) Is addicted to the habitual use of drugs or intoxicating liquors to excess;

(4) Has been adjudged guilty of a crime involving moral turpitude or infamous or notoriously disgraceful conduct;

(5) Has been dismissed from the respective service for delinquency or misconduct;

(6) Has made a false statement of any material fact; or

(7) Has practiced, or attempted to practice, deception or fraud in securing eligibility for appointment or attempting to do so.

Any such facts shall also be considered cause for removal of any employee. The board shall reject any application filed after the time fixed for closing receipt of applications as announced in the public notice of the tests.

24. Certification and Appointment. a. Whenever the appointing authority proposes to fill a vacancy in the classified service, except in case of demotion, transfer, emergency appointment, or by substitute employment not to exceed thirty days, he shall request the board to certify the names of the three persons highest upon the appropriate employment list for the class next below. No such certification shall be required to be made within thirty days following the date thereof. The board shall certify in writing the names from the appropriate employment list for the class next below. No such certification shall days, he shall request the board to certify names of persons eligible for appointment to the vacant position. The board shall thereupon certify in writing the names of eligible persons from the appropriate employment list as provided below. No such certification shall be valid for more than thirty days following the date thereof. The appointing authority shall, if he fills the vacancy, make the appointment as provided below.

b. The board shall first certify the name of the person appearing upon the reinstatement list who is eligible for the first reinstatement in the class of the vacant position. The name of this person and all others appearing upon the reinstatement list for the class shall be certified and offered the appointment in the order provided by paragraph 20a before the vacancy is filled by any subsequent method provided by this Section. The appointing authority shall appoint to the vacant position the first person so certified to him who is willing to accept the appointment. If the position is one of a class from which layoffs have been made as provided by paragraph 29 the names of eligible persons appearing upon the reemployment list for the class shall be certified and offered the appointment in the order provided by paragraph 20c before any other appointment is made thereto.

c. In the event a vacancy cannot be filled by reinstatement, or by employment as above provided, the board shall next certify the names of the persons upon the promotional list, in the order in which they appear thereon, for the class in which the vacancy is to be filled. The appointing authority shall appoint to the first vacancy to be filled the one person certified to him who has the greatest seniority in the departmental service. Any remaining positions to be filled in the same class shall be filled by appointing to each such successive vacancy the one of the remaining persons certified therefor who has the next highest seniority in the departmental service. If any one or more persons so certified refuse the appointment, the appointing authority shall then select and appoint one of the persons certified by the board with the next highest seniority in the departmental service. This procedure shall be followed until the position has been filled by appointment of the one person who has the greatest seniority in the departmental service, and who is willing to accept the appointment, or until each person who appears upon the list, has been in this order been certified and offered the appointment for the vacancy.

d. Certification and appointment from the competitive list shall be limited to those conditions and classifications for which the competitive test may be given as provided by paragraph 22a. Upon the appointing authority's request for the certification of eligible persons from which he may fill a vacancy, and if the competitive list is the appropriate list from which the names of eligible persons shall be certified, the board shall certify the names of the persons upon that list, in the order in which they appear thereon, for the class in which the vacancy is to be filled. The appointing authority shall select and appoint to the first vacancy to be filled one of the persons so certified to him for the vacancy. If any one of the persons so certified to him shall refuse the appointment, the appointing authority shall then select and appoint one of the remaining persons certified by the board. This procedure shall be followed until the position has been filled by appointment of one of the persons certified from the list and willing to accept the appointment, or until each person whose name appears upon the list has in this manner been certified for the vacancy.

e. Appointment to the position in the classified service from which the regular employee is away on an authorized leave of absence shall be made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 26.

f. The appointing authority shall notify the board of the filling of a vacancy as provided in paragraph 33.

25. Working Tests. Every person appointed to a position in the classified service following the certification of his name from the promotional or competitive employment list, except those appointed on a temporary basis, shall be tested by a working test while occupying the position before he may be confirmed as a regular and permanent employee in the position.

The period of the working test shall commence immediately upon appointment and shall continue for a period of not less than six months nor more than one year. Any employee who has served at least three but less than six months of his working test for any given position may be removed therefrom only with the prior approval of the board, and only upon the grounds that (1) he is unable or unwilling to perform satisfactorily the duties of the position or (2) his habits and dependability do not merit appointed or (2) his habits and dependability do not merit continuance therein. Any such employee may appear before the board and present his case before he is removed.

Upon any employee completing his working test, the appointing authority shall so advise the board and furnish a signed statement to the respective employee of its confirmation and acceptance of the employee as a regular and permanent employee in the respective position, or of its refusal to confirm the employee and the reasons therefor. If, at the expiration of an employee's working test period, the appointing authority fails to confirm or reject the employee, such failure to act shall constitute a confirmation. Any employee who is rejected after serving a working test of six months but not more than one year, may appeal to the board only upon the grounds that he was not given a fair opportunity to prove his ability in the position.

The appointing authority may remove, and shall remove upon the request of the board, any employee during his working test period who the board finds, after giving him notice and an opportunity to be heard, was appointed as a result of an error, misrepresentation, or fraud.

In any event where any employee is permitted under this Section to appeal to the board, the decision of the board shall be subject to the judicial review provided by this Section and the appointing authority and employee shall be governed accordingly.

26. Temporary Appointments. Temporary appointments may be made to positions in the classified service without the appointees acquiring any permanent status therein, as follows:

a. (1) When a vacancy is to be filled in a position of a class for which the board is unable to certify names of persons eligible for regular and permanent, or substitute, appointment, the appointing authority may make a provisional appointment of any person whom he deems qualified. When practicable, the appointment shall be made by the provisional promotion of any employee of a lower class. A provisional appointment shall not continue for more than three consecutive months. No position in the classified service shall be filled by one or more provisional appointments for a period in excess of three consecutive months and successive like periods of time; provided, however, authorize such not be permissible. The board may, however, authorize the renewal of such appointment, or authorize such successive appointments for a period not to exceed three additional months whenever it has been impracticable or impossible to establish a list of persons eligible for certification and appointment to a vacancy. Any provisional appointment, if not terminated sooner, shall terminate upon the regular filling of the vacancy in any manner authorized under this Section, and, in any event, within fifteen days after a certification from which a regular, or substitute appointment, as the case may be, can be made under the provisions of this Section. A provisional appointment shall be reported to the board within fifteen days following the appointment.

(2) During the times of war, and after the board continues to offer tests provided by this Section in an effort to obtain persons eligible for regular and permanent appointment to a position of any class which has been permanently vacated by the regular employee thereof, and it finds it impossible to establish a list of persons qualified for certification and permanent appointment to the position, it may authorize the appointing authority to fill the position with a provisional appointee until the appropriate employment list can be established.

(3) Provisional appointments may be made in any position until a classification plan is prepared and adopted and for such time thereafter as may be required for the preparation and administration of tests and the establishment of employment lists from the results of the tests. But such special authority shall be valid for a period of not more than eighteen months immediately following the date that this Section takes effect in the municipality.

b. A substitute appointment may be made to any position in the classified service (1) from which the regular and permanent employee is away on an authorized leave of absence, or (2) from which the regular employee is substituting for some other regular employee who is authorized to be away from his respective position. No position shall be filled by a substitute appointee for a time beyond that for which the regular and permanent incumbent is away on an authorized leave. Whenever such appointment shall continue for not more than thirty days, the appointing authority may appoint thereto any one whom he deems qualified. Substitute appointments made for a period exceeding thirty days shall be made in the same manner as provided in paragraph 24 for filling of a vacancy by a regular and permanent appointment. Any person employed on a substitute basis shall, for the duration of the temporary employment, enjoy the class title and be entitled to receive the rate of pay for the class title and position in which he is employed. The appointing authority shall notify the board within fifteen days following any substitute appointment made for a period to exceed thirty days, the name of the appointee, the class of position filled, the period for which the appointment was made and attach to the notification a signed copy of the leave of absence granted the employee for whom the appointee is substituting.

c. Emergency appointments of any person may be made at any time the need of the service required because of any local emergency of a temporary and special nature. No such appointment shall be effective or continued for more than ten days.

27. Leaves of Absence. The board shall adopt rules to provide for leaves of absence in the various classes of the classified service. Such rules shall provide for annual vacation and sick leaves with pay, and special leaves with or without pay. They may provide for special extended leaves with or without pay or with reduced pay for employees disabled through injury or illness arising out of their employment. The right to regulate the time at which any employee may take an annual leave, or any other leave which is not beyond the control of the employee, shall be vested at all times with the appointing authority.

28. Abolition of Positions in the Classified Service. Whenever the appointing authority abolishes a position in the classified service and there is no position vacant in the respective class to which the regular employee of the abolished position may be transferred, the employee shall be transferred to any position of the same class which may be held beyond the control of the employee. If there is no such position he may be transferred to another position in the respective class, and the holder of that position shall thereupon be demoted in the order provided by paragraph 18.

29. Layoffs. If, for any reason, the lowest class in the classified service, or the lowest class in a respective group of classes, as grouped by the classification plan, should become overburdened with the number of persons holding positions therein, and a reduction of personnel becomes necessary, the reduction shall be made only by laying off persons without pay. The order of removal shall begin with the person youngest in point of his accumulated total service in the departmental service and shall continue upward until all persons to be removed have been laid off. Layoffs shall be made from positions only within the classes above set forth. The names of persons laid off, the date, and class of position held, and the order in which each person was laid off shall be reported to the board by the appointing authority. The board shall, thereupon, enter such information upon the employment list applicable for the class from which each person was removed.

30. Corrective and Disciplinary Action for Maintaining Standards of Service. a. The tenure of persons who have been regularly and permanently inducted into positions of the classified service shall be during good behavior. However, the appointing authority may remove any employee from the classified service, or take such disciplinary action as the circumstances warrant in the manner provided below for any one of the following reasons:

(1) Unwillingness or failure to perform the duties of his position in a satisfactory manner.

(2) The deliberate omission of any act that it was his duty to perform.

(3) The commission or omission of any act to the prejudice of the departmental service or contrary to the public interest or policy.

(4) Insubordination.

(5) Conduct of a discourteous or wantonly offensive nature toward the public, any municipal officer or employee; and, any indecent, disgraceful, or immoral conduct.

(6) Drinking vinous or spirituous liquors while on duty or reporting for duty while under the influence of liquor.

(7) The use of intoxicating liquors, or habit-forming drug, liquor, or preparation to the extent which precludes the employee from performing the duties of his position in a safe or satisfactory manner.

(8) The conviction of a felony.

(9) Falsely making a statement of any material fact in his application for admission to any test for securing eligibility or appointment to any position in the classified service, or, practicing or attempting to practice fraud or deception in any test.

(10) Using or promising to use his influence or official authority to secure any appointment to a position within the classified service as a reward or return for partisan political services.

(11) Soliciting or receiving any money or valuable thing from any person for any political party or political purpose.

(12) Inducing or attempting to induce by threats of coercion any person holding a position in the classified service to resign his position, take a leave of absence from his duties, or waive any of his rights under the provisions of this Section, or of the rules.

(13) The development of any defect of physical condition which precludes the employee from properly performing the duties of his position, or the development of any physical condition that may endanger the health or lives of fellow employees.

(14) The willful violation of any provision of this Section or of any rule, regulation, or order hereunder.

(15) Any other act or failure to act which the board deems sufficient to show the offender to be an unsuitable or unfit person to be employed in the respective service.

b. Unless the cause or condition justifies an employee being permanently removed from the service, disciplinary acting may extend to suspension without pay for a period not exceeding the aggregate of ninety days in any period of twelve consecutive months, reduction in pay to the rate prevailing for any lower class, reduction or demotion to a position of any lower class and to the rate of pay provailing therefor, or such other less drastic action that may be appropriate under the circumstances. Nothing contained herein shall prevent any employee who is physically unable to perform the duties of his position from exercising his rights of voluntary retirement under any applicable law.

c. Although it is incumbent upon the appointing authority to initiate corrective or disciplinary action, the board may, of its own motion or upon the written request of any qualified elector of the state which sets out the reasons therefor, make an investigation of the conduct and performance of any employee in the classified service and, thereupon may render such judgment and order action to be taken by the appointing authority. Such action shall be forthwith taken by the appointing authority.

d. In every case of corrective or disciplinary action taken against a regular employee of the classified service, the appointing authority shall furnish the employee and the board a statement in writing of the action and the complete reasons therefor.

31. Appeals by Employees to the Board. Any regular employee in the classified service who feels he has been discharged or subject to corrective or disciplinary action without just cause, may, within fifteen days after the action, demand in writing, a hearing and investigation by the board to determine the reasonableness of the action. The board shall forthwith set a date for the hearing, the board may decide and at the hour fixed for the hearing, the board may decide the issue involved on the basis of the evidence adduced and confined to the question of whether the action taken against the employee was made in good faith for cause set forth in the provisions of this Section. Both the employee and the appointing authority shall be afforded an opportunity to appear before the board, either in person or with counsel, and present evidence to show that the action was or was not taken in good faith for cause as set forth in the provisions of this Section. The board shall have complete charge of any such hearing and investigation, and may conduct it in any manner it deems advisable, without prejudice to any person or party thereto. The procedure followed shall be informal and not necessarily bound by the legalistic rules of evidence. The board shall not be required to have the testimony taken and transcribed, but either the employee or the appointing authority may, at their own expense, make the necessary arrangements therefor. In such cases the board may name any competent shorthand reporter as the official reporter. If the testimony is not taken or transcribed, then the board shall make a written finding of the fact. After such investigation the board may, if the evidence is conclusive, affirm the action of the appointing authority. If they find that the action was not taken in good faith for cause under the provisions of this Section, the board shall order the immediate reinstatement or reemployment of such person in the office, place, position, or employment from which he was removed, suspended, demoted, or discharged, which reinstatement shall, if the board so provides, be retroactive and entitle him to his regular pay from the time of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other disciplinary action. The board may modify the order of removal, suspension, demotion, discharge, or other disciplinary action by directing a suspension without pay, for a given period. The decision of the board, together with its written finding of fact, if required, shall be certified, in writing, to the appointing authority and shall be forthwith enforced by the appointing authority.

Any employee under classified service and any appointing authority may appeal from any decision of the board, or from any action taken by the board under the provisions of the Section which is prejudicial to the employee or appointing authority. This appeal shall be taken by applying to the board, within thirty days after entry of its decision, a written notice of appeal, stating the grounds thereof and demanding that a certified transcript of the record and entire findings of fact, and decision be filed in the office of the board affecting or relating to such decision, be filed with the designated court. The board shall, within ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal, make certify, and file the complete transcript, with the designated court, and that court shall thereupon proceed to hear and determine the appeal by summary manner. This hearing shall be confined to the determination of whether the decision made by the board was made in good faith for cause under the provisions of this Section. No appeal to the court shall be taken except upon these grounds.

32. Oath, Testimony, Production of Records; Refusal to Testify. The board, and each of its members, shall have the same power and authority to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and compel the production of books and papers pertinent to any investigation or hearing authorized by this Section as is possessed by the district courts of Louisiana. Any person who (1) fails to appear in response to a subpoena, (2) fails to answer any question, except those which may incriminate him, (3) fails to produce any books or papers pertinent to any legal investigation or hearing, or (4) knowingly gives false testimony therein shall be subject to the penal provisions of this Section. In case of contumacy or refusal to obey a subpoena issued to any person, the district court within the jurisdiction of which the investigation is being carried on, or within the jurisdiction of which the person is guilty of contumacy or refusal to obey is found, or resides, or transacts business, upon application of the board, shall have the requisite jurisdiction to issue to the person an order requiring him to appear before the board, its members or examiners, to produce the required evidence or give testimony touching the matter under consideration or in question. Any person failing to obey such order may be punished by the court for contempt.

Any officer or employee in the classified service who wilfully refuses or fails to appear before any court, officer, body or person properly authorized to conduct any hearing or inquiry, or any employee or officer, who, having appeared, refuses to testify or answer any relevant questions relating to the affairs of government of the municipality or relating to the conduct of any municipal officer or employee, except upon the ground that his testimony or answers would incriminate him, shall, in addition to any other penalty to which he may be subject, forfeit his position, and shall not be eligible for appointment to any position in the classified service for a period of six years.

33. Duties of Municipal Officers and Employees. The appointing authority shall report to the board within fifteen days following any appointment or employment in a position in the classified service, unless otherwise provided, the name of the appointee, the title and character of his office or employment and the date he assumed or commenced work or employment and the date he assumed or commenced work or employment and the date he assumed or commenced work in the position. The appointing authority shall also report the date of and official action in, or knowledge of, any separation, promotion, demotion, suspension, layoff, reinstatement, or reemployment in the classified service.

34. Political Activities Prohibited. a. Political activities by and extending to employees of the classified service are hereby prohibited as follows:

(1) No person shall seek or attempt to use any political endorsement in connection with any appointment to a position in the classified service.

(2) No person shall use or promise to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence, whether possessed or anticipated, to secure or attempt to secure for any person an appointment or advantage in appointment to a position in the classified service, or an increase in pay or other advantage in employment in any such position, for the purpose of influencing the vote or political action of any person, or for any consideration.

(3) No employee in the classified service shall, directly or indirectly, pay, or promise to pay, any assessment, subscription, or contribution for any political organization or purpose, or solicit or take part in soliciting any such assessment, subscription, or contribution. No person shall solicit any such assessment, subscription, or contribution of any employee in classified service. The prohibitions of this subsection shall not be construed as applying to membership dues paid, or contributions made, to any political employee organizations, pension funds, civic enterprises, the Louisiana Civil Service League or any similar nonpolitical and nonpartisan organization.

(4) No employee in the classified service shall (a) be a member of any national, state or local committee of a political party, (b) be an officer or member of a committee of any factional, political club or organization, (c) be a candidate for nomination or election to public office, (d) make any political speech or public political statement in behalf of any candidate seeking to be elected to public office, or of any candidate seeking to be elected to public office, or (e) take any part in the management or affairs of any political party or in the political campaign of any candidate for public office, except to privately express his opinion and to cast his vote.

(5) No person elected to public office shall, while serving in the elective office, be appointed to or hold any position in the classified service.

(6) No appointing authority, or agent or deputy thereof, shall directly or indirectly, demote, suspend, discharge, or otherwise discipline, or threaten to demote, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline, or discriminate against any person in the classified service for the purpose of influencing his vote, support, or other political activity in any election or vote, support, or other political activity in any election or vote, support, or other political activity in any election or

Louviere's Texaco Service Station

"ERNIE LOUVIERE

- Owner"

If you are particular about your car, then you should be particular about your car's servicing. People throughout this area go out of their way to stop in at Louviere's Texaco Service, because they know that these friendly attendants are completely familiar with all models and makes of automobiles and can handle anything from a tune-up to transmission work. Ernie wants to remind every car owner that a tune-up will allow your engine to operate smoother, longer and get better gas mileage thus saving you money. 50% of cars today need a tune-up and by having yours tuned properly, you can preserve our clean air. A tuned engine burns fuel more completely and reduces exhaust pollutants. Here they also feature steam cleaning, wheel balancing, lawn mower repairs and give big bonus stamps on your purchases.

So the next time you're in the area, stop in at Louviere's Texaco Service, the service station that "cares" for you and your car.

They are located at 502 7th at Hodges, in Lake Charles, phone 436-9182, for fast, friendly emergency road service, 7 days a week.

We, the editors of this 1971 Town and Country Review, would like to call the attention of the driving public to this fine service center. And we suggest you stop in soon for a taste of the best in automotive service.

Ernie Louviere wishes everyone who reads this a most joyous Holiday Season and invites you to tum on your car lights for Xmas and keep your Holidays bright.

Lake Charles Alignment And Brake Service

ED MAYOR AND

BILLY RICHARDSON

- Owners

Thousands of people are killed each year in auto accidents attributed to faulty brakes. Don't let you or your family become a statistic, have your brakes checked and put in perfect working order by the experts at the Lake Charles Alignment and Brake Service located at 2103 Enterprise Blvd. in Lake Charles, phone 439-9465.

These men are experts in brake service of all kinds including metallic drum brakes, disk brakes, dual servo systems and power units. In addition, they can put your frame straight with their frame rack straightening system. They specialize in aligning your front end, and adjusting caster, camber and toe-in to just what it should be for easy handling and minimum tire wear. Remember, front end aligning and wheel balancing is very reasonable but tires are expensive. So keep from spending your hard earned money unnecessarily, let the Lake Charles Alignment and Brake Service align your front end and balance your wheels sometime soon.

This firm is also noted for its excellent work in repairing damaged cars. For many miles around, experienced motorists and garage men have learned to call upon this concern for service on wrecked cars. In many cases they have completely restored wrecked cars which the owners thought were beyond the aid of even expert service.

The policy of this establishment is to employ only the most competent men. Do not fail to call the Lake Charles Alignment and Brak Service when your car is in need of brak work, front end aligning, body repair or an expert paint job. In knowing the reputation of this fine firm, we the writers of this 1971 Town and County Review recommend them to all our readers.

Ed and BIlly want to wish everyone the best Christmas ever.

Visit to Santa Claus made by kindergarten

Thursday, Dec. 9, the Grand Chenier Elementary Kindergarten visited Santa Claus at Muller's.

The children toured the store and rode the escalator and the elevator as well as walking up and down the stairs. They ate dinner in the coffee shop.

The picture above was taken at the entrance of the cave with the camera recently donated to the Kindergarten by Louis Canik. Those in the picture are from left to right, front row: Dana Richard, Lisa Dyson, Tammy Miller, Jeri Spell and Roni Theriot.

Second row: Joseph Mhire, Lana Hebert, Kirk Rutherford, Elizabeth Miller. Third row: Leah Trahan and Stephen Canik.

Mrs. Frank Theriot and Mrs. Leroy Dyson furnished the transportation.

Art exhibit entries due by January 5th

Mrs. Charles Perry, chairman of the elementary school art exhibit, to be held at the Cameron Library during the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival, says exhibits must be in the library by 5 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 5.

Exhibitors must be residents of Cameron parish and exhibits must be this year's work (since last festival).

Exhibitors are asked to divide their work into categories, grade school, and to designate if it is a kit or original.

The categories are: drawings, oil paintings, (kit or original), photography, handicraft (kit or original), photography, and handicraft (kit or original) with subcategories which are needlecraft, macrame, rugs, ceramics, decoupage and miscellaneous.

Mrs. Perry said that drawings and paintings must be framed and ready for hanging. Be sure screweyes are securely attached. Drawings must be matted or mounted on heavy poster board.

In photograpy, prints should be mounted on white mounts. Only one picture on each mount, unless it is a series of pictures telling a story. All prints should have a title placed in the lower left of the picture and written or printed on the mount, not on the picture.

The Cameron library asks that Grades I through 6 submit no more than one exhibit in the drawings category.

1971 Town and Country Review commend this dealer for their honest and fair dealings, and remind our readers that any time of the year, summer or winter, is a good time to see Havard's Lawn Motor Sales and Service for your lawn equipment needs, repair and service. Big Cy wants to wish everyone a Joyous Yuletide and a Prosperous New Year.

Constitutional Amendments

(e) The jurisdiction of said court shall extend to the trial of offenses against the ordinances of the city of New Orleans regulating traffic within said city of New Orleans. The jurisdiction of said court shall further extend to the trial of offenses involving traffic and the regulation thereof punishable by state statute including violations of the Criminal Code of Louisiana involving traffic except as hereinafter provided. The jurisdiction over state traffic offenses shall be concurrent with the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans. In addition, every prosecution in the Traffic Court of New Orleans under state law shall be filed in said court by affidavit under the provision of state law defining said offense and such prosecution shall be brought by the city attorney of New Orleans. The legislature may enact laws conferring additional jurisdiction upon said court for the trial of violations relating to street and highway regulatory laws and such other state laws as relate to the operation of a vehicle. The said traffic court shall have no other jurisdiction, and shall not have jurisdiction over the trial of any state offense that now or hereafter may require a trial by jury.

(f) The procedure in the traffic court and the trial of all cases therein shall be as now provided by law governing such court. Said court shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations governing the operation thereof as may be necessary for the proper functioning of the court. The court shall have the right to issue all necessary writs and orders to carry out its jurisdiction.

Section 2. All laws or parts of laws including portions of this constitution contradictory herein are herein repealed.

Section 3. This proposed amendment shall be submitted to the electors of the state of Louisiana at the next election for members of the legislature, to be held on February 1, 1972.

Section 4. On the official ballot to be used at the said election there shall be printed:

FOR the proposed amendment to Paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of Part II of Section 96 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the Traffic Court of New Orleans, to confer upon said court additional jurisdiction relative to the trial of traffic violations punishable by state statute, and to provide otherwise with respect thereto.

and also:

AGAINST the proposed amendment to Paragraphs (d), (e) and (f) of Part II of Section 96 of Article VII of the Constitution of Louisiana, relative to the Traffic Court of New Orleans, to confer upon said court additional jurisdiction relative to the trial of traffic violations punishable by state statute, and to provide otherwise with respect thereto.

Each elector voting on said proposition for so amending the Constitution shall indicate his vote relative thereto in the manner provided by the General Election Laws of the state of Louisiana.

Secretary of State.

Around the Capitol

By JACK GOULD

One of the three candidates for governor is reportedly already prepared to try his three-point plan to help the state recover from the deficit it faces next year, including an $80 limit on homestead tax exemptions paid by the state.

ONE CANDIDATE for a minor state office got offers from both runoff candidates, both offering to pay his campaign expenses, but one offering to pay "something extra for your time." The eliminated candidate liked both men, but, with his political future in mind, wisely decided to take only the "actual cost" offer.

CUTEST TRICK of the week is the use of a postal meter stamp, by Mosley Hudson, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, reading "Happiness is a Republican Governor. Elect Treen Team."

"SLICKEST" trick of the campaign -- if they don't get caught -- was the use of envelopes printed for the Graduate School of a state university, to mail sample ballots.

FRIENDS of Ed Kennon, who ran an amazing "10-day" race for lieutenant governor, are trying to persuade him to run for public service commissioner "to keep his name before the public" and run next time for governor.

INVESTIGATORS, believed to be part of a federal "team," are going over the minutes and other reports by the Bond and Building commission and other state bodies who have been spending some federal monies.

EVEN rabid LSU fans do not expect the Bengal basketball team to match the Tiger football record this season, but they do expect some great games. First home game, Jan. 3 with Vanderbilt, probably will be played in the new $11 million "Mini-Dome," an assembly center which is large enough, each way, to contain a football field and then some.

THE "ME-TOO" radio debate between the two Democratic candidates for governor almost didn't come off, because of preliminary "debate" on the makeup of the panel of newsmen asking the questions. One candidate strongly protested being questioned by a Baton Rouge reporter with whom he had once "exchanged" remarks in New Orleans.

CIVIL DEFENSE agency people, whose job includes reminding all of us that Cuba is just minutes away by rocket, hope to do just that again Dec. 10 at an industrial seminar in New Orleans; and make suggestions for protection.

OF POSSIBLE interest to other cities in Louisiana whose highways are congested, Baton Rouge and New Orleans (and the federal government) seem to be getting together on plans for a "trackless" (all-cushioned) passenger train to run from the Capitol to the Crescent City, and possibly to Lafayette.

CHRISTMAS will bring the first telephones to many families in the Toledo Bend area, under a $260,000 project set up to help that district reach for a goal of becoming a nationally-known "fishing hole."

BIGGEST political surprise of the week was the "BLAC" endorsement of Dennett Johnston, despite his "no-deal" policy; followed up by a detailed and strong attack on Edwin Edwards' actual voting records and public speeches.

Reina to head drive

J. C. Reina, principal at Cameron Elementary School, will head up the 13th Annual LSU Alumni Fund in Cameron Parish, according to Dr. Abe Mickal of New Orleans, general chairman of the year-long giving campaign.

It will be Reina's third consecutive year in the volunteer post. Last year under his chairmanship 10 Cameron alumni contributed $80 toward the 12th Fund's record total of $229,457.64.

The Alumni Fund supports a variety of LSU Alumni Federation projects such as "Top 100" freshman scholarships, Alumni Professorships and teaching awards, student employment, continuing education and information.

Reina, a Lake Charles native, earned both the B.S. and MEd degrees from LSU. He was a teacher and coach at Creole, Bell City and South Cameron High Schools and has been in his present post for nine years. He is past president of the Southwest District Principals Association and the Cameron Teachers Association and past chairman for District 3B football, as well as past chairman of the Cameron Parish Library Board.

Groups have holiday party

A meeting of the Creole Blue Bird group was held in the home of Mrs. Roland Primeaux Tuesday afternoon.

The group made Christmas tree ornaments and then went to the Richard Bros. Post No. 176 American Legion Hall to decorate the Christmas tree and enjoy a Christmas party with the Camp Fire girls.

Each girl was asked to bring a gift as an exchange gift at the party.

Ask your Better Business Bureau

By CATON LANGSTON

Dear BBB:

Ever since I was a little girl I've been fat. I think I have been trying to lose weight all my life. I bought a booklet about a grapefruit diet but a friend of mine says that I would be crazy to try it. The diet plan sounds great. I like the part that says I can eat anything I want--and as much as I want--and as long as I eat grapefruit I will lose weight. My girl friend says that this is not on the level. Is she right?

Tired of Being Fat

Dear Tired:

We think your girl friend is right. Before you go on ANY diet, see your doctor. There may be a medical reason why you are fat. Your doctor will prescribe a diet that will be suited to your height and metabolism. Many people have asked the Better Business Bureau about these so-called low carbohydrate diets. Many medical and nutritional authorities consider the low carbohydrate diet to be one which is potentially hazardous to health as well as being nutritionally inadequate unless supervised by a physician or a nutritionist. There are some people who have to keep to a low carbohydrate diet for medical reasons--but these are usually the exception. Don't be cheap about your health. Make an appointment to see your doctor and follow his advice. You won't be tired anymore.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

Last week I went into a restaurant and sat down and waited for someone to take my order. Two waitresses spent fifteen minutes talking about their boyfriends and their beefs against the boss. They filled up sugar jars and salt shakers, but no one came to take my order for half an hour. The girl who came didn't clean my table, but just stood there--so I left. This same restaurant advertises on television and in the newspapers and the message is always the same: that their service is superior. How can they do this?

Disgusted customer

Dear Disgusted:

The restaurant will keep on advertising in an effort to get customers--like you--who get disgusted and leave. And if something isn't done about its service, it will go out of business. A few weeks ago a major airline had to make a massive effort to lure back travelers who refused to use their line--and they stressed service.

There are thousands of people who go into department stores and wait while sales clerks finish their conversations and then leave without buying anything. We call them the people who never come back. They don't complain, they just go away.

This is why restaurants, stores and companies who stress courtesy and service keep customers. They'll keep you, too, if you go to them.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

My mother really has a soft heart. She is always helping people and worries about the whole family. Last week a young man came to the door and said he was trying to make a living selling long-lasting light bulbs. My mother bought a dozen because she said he limped and had to use a crutch. I told her that I thought she had been taken and she said I'm just hard-hearted. No one I've talked to has ever heard of the charitable organization this young man says he sells for -- but several people on the block bought from him.

Hard Hearted

Dear Hard Hearted:

The Better Business Bureau believes that selling a handicap instead of a product is unethical--whether it be magazines, pens, neckties, soap, or long-lasting light bulbs. The Bureau has heard of the organization this young man works for: It has no connection with any charity--except lining the pockets of its officers and employees. One of these so-called handicapped youngsters called on a Bureau staff member one evening. When he was asked for identification he, threw away his crutch and ran. Tell your mother to support the needy, not the greedy. She can check on a charity by calling the Better Business Bureau and we don't charge for our services.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

My grandfather is getting on in years and lives with my parents. He's always going on about the Old Country--which is England--and that our family name was an honorable one. Recently grandfather paid $50 to get a coat of arms through a New York company. We all thought it was great and he was so proud. But last week when I picked up my girl friend her father had the same coat of arms--the only difference was that their family name was on it. Do you think I should tell my grandfather and try to get his money back?

Family Crest

Dear Family Crest:

Maybe if you and other members of your family had taken the time to pay attention to your grandfather he wouldn't have felt he had to prove what he was saying and wouldn't have a phony coat of arms. The Better Business Bureau has received many complaints about this company. Many people complain that they don't receive delivery after paying for the coat of arms. But most people say that the company sends out the same coat of arms to many families--most of the coats of arms have not been authenticated. Refunds and adjustments are very difficult to get.

Caton Langston, BBB

(To the Reader: The services of the Better Business Bureau are made available to you by the financial support of business and professional firms in your community. If you need the services of the Bureau, call them at 433-1633 or write 220 Pioneer Building, Lake Charles, La.)

Apartments are on the upswing

Apartment construction is booming, statistics demonstrate. In 1971, 44 per cent of new homes will be "multi-family units." Included in this classification are townhouses, condominiums, cooperatives that are for sale and rental apartments that are for rent.

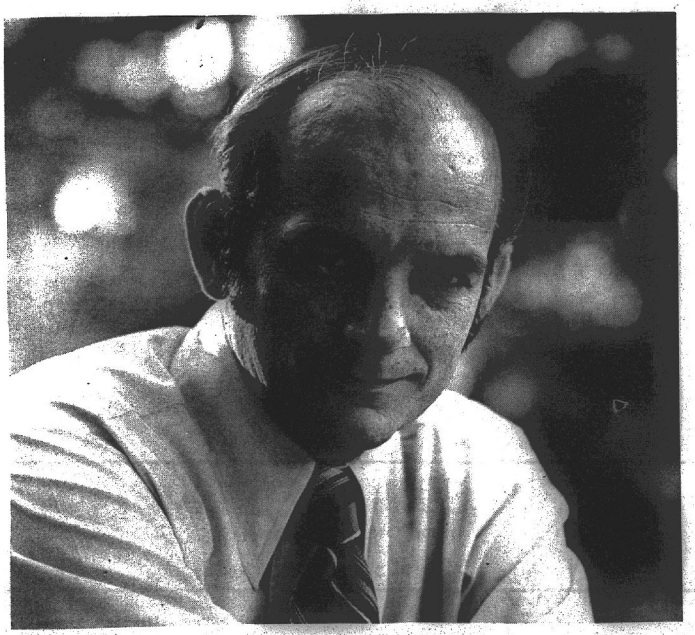
"I have always been opposed to 100% property assessment."

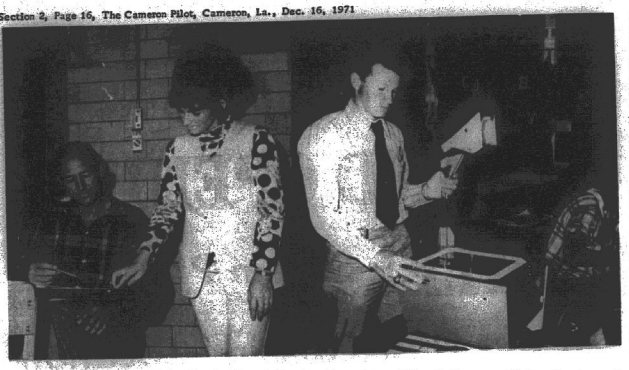


The present law on property assessment, which goes back to the 1880's, says property should be assessed at 100 per cent of cash value. In practice no assessor does this. However, House Bill 645 would have permitted assessors to assess property at any level selected by them, up to 100 per cent, in accordance with the desire of each parish assessor. Bennett Johnston proposed an amendment to the assessors bill that would set a state wide limit of 25 per cent to be reached over a period of years. The facts are, Bennett Johnston's record shows he favors a limit on assessment of state property taxes. Bennett Johnston stands firm on the things he believes in.

ELECT BENNETT JOHNSTON GOVERNOR

Vote #8.

(Paid for By Cameron Parish Citizens for Johnson, H. Ward Fontenot, Chairman)



AMONG THOSE participating in the adult education class at South Cameron high school are E. R. Hendrix, left, shown being aided by Mrs. John Boudreaux, instructor, and Wayne Kershaw, an instructor, using the overhead projector.

Cameron adults go back to school

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Many Cameron parish adults are going back to school now-a-days and finding it a satisfying and profitable experience.

Presently there are 26 pupils enrolled in the adult education course now going on at South Cameron High School each Tuesday and Thursday night, under the supervision of Wayne Kershaw and Mrs. John Boudreaux. Pupils in the class range in age from 15 to 60, and each one studies on his own grade level, but all have the same goal - to get their high school diploma.

There is an opportunity here in Cameron parish that many eligible people are not aware of, or not taking advantage of. Adult people are often heard saying that they wish they had finished school, and this is their opportunity to do just that.

There have been over 25 adults to complete their high school education in the last two years and receive their diplomas. The Adult Education class is now in its third year at South Cameron high school.

The classes are divided into two sections; one for grades 1 through 8, instructed by Mrs. Kershaw, and grades 9 through 12, instructed by Mrs. Boudreaux. The only fee charges is a $10 deposit for those in grades 9 through 12 to cover the cost of supplies. The cost is borne by the State and Parish Education Departments.

When a student enrolls in the Adult Education class he is tested to determine at what grade level he needs to start in. Usually, a student will progress very rapidly after work is started in the workbook.

The students are often surprised at their fast rate of progress. If a student really applies himself, it is possible to complete 5 years in only 9 months of school.

Teaching machines are often used in these classes to advance the students as rapidly as possible. Records are kept up-to-date for students to use as reference at the school board office for employment.

Along with the regular text and workbooks, the instructors use many interesting helps to make the classes more rewarding and interesting. Film clips are shown on various subjects such as: How to buy, borrowing money, installment buying, how to drive on the highway, answering want-ads, looking for a job, filling out an application, filling out a medical record, and many-many more.

Mrs. Boudreaux said that instructing adults is so rewarding. Every pupil is so anxious to learn, because they realize the value of an education and appreciate every bit of knowledge they learn.

The only requirement for enrollment is that a student be 18 or older, they can be younger if they are married. There is room for more students in the classes now going on, especially in grades 1 through 8.

"Students have often expressed embarrassment at coming back to school at an older age," Kershaw said. "But when they get there they find people there much older than they are, even in their sixties."

These classes will be going on until school is out, the instructors said, and more information can be obtained by contacting the Cameron Parish school board office, Mrs. Boudreaux, Mr. Kershaw, or J. C. Reina, South Cameron high school principal.

It is a golden opportunity to receive a complete education.

Some of the students enrolled in the class had these comments:

E. R. Hendrix, a gas plant worker: "I quit school to join the Navy. That was many years ago, and I have been trying to work toward the completion of my education and the goal of receiving my high school diploma ever since. I first attended an adult education course at Lamar Tech in Beaumont, Tex., but had to drop out because I was roughnecking, now since I have enrolled here I plan to complete it."

Leda Mae Bartie: "I quit school in the 9th grade because I was expecting my first child. As a mother of nine children it is very hard for me to help them with their school work when I did not get the education. I want to be able to help them as well as myself. I just love this course. I am not only earning my high school diploma, I get a lot of help in everyday living and problems."

Mrs. Rita Dearborn, the mother of four children ranging in ages from 4 to 9, quit school when she got married, in the 10th grade. She said she was motivated to finish her education because her children were not interested in school anymore. This worried her and she told them that she would go back to school if they would try to be interested in it.

She said she would also like to get a good job and there are none available to anyone without a high school diploma. She hopes to go on to complete a business education when she completes the high school course.

Mrs. Joseph Girior, who had quit school in the 5th grade to get married, has now progressed to the 10th grade since she has been in the Adult Education class and her ambition is to complete the course and earn her diploma.

She wants to get a job as soon as the last of her ten children are in school. Her daughter, Sylvia, who had quit school in the 10th grade because she was tired of school is also enrolled in the class and expects to complete it.

"I guess you don't realize how important an education is when you are young. I dropped out of school because I was tired of it when I was in the 11th grade. I have a sister in the 5th grade that wanted me to help her with her homework and I couldn't, that was when I realized I needed to complete my education," these words spoken by another pupil, Linda Maria Moore.

Safety experts say that the best safe operator practices around farm machinery are staying away from ditches and embankments and not permitting others to ride. Keep children away.

Mrs. Hebert, formerly of here, dies

Mrs. Elina W. Hebert, 75, of New Iberia, died Dec. 5, at a New Iberia hospital. A former resident of Cameron from 1945 to 1965, she was the mother of E. J. Dronet of Cameron, and Jules Dronet of Creole.

Other survivors are four other sons, Purvis Dronet, Delcambre; Murphy Dronet, Sulphur; Emery Dronet, Baldwin, Fla.; and Ashton Dronet, Thibodaux; three daughters, Mrs. Paul Viator, Winnie, Tex.; Mrs. Helen D. Broussard, New Iberia, and Mrs. Ambrose Freyou, Avery Island; three sisters, Mrs. Elza W. David, Mrs. Eddie Labit, Sr. and Mrs. Otto Broussard, all of New Iberia; two brothers, Adoph Waguespack, Port Arthur, and Avery Waguespack, Galveston, Tex.; and 29 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Howard is re-named to board

Gordon S. Gunn, President of the Better Business of Southwest Louisiana, announces the results of the annual BBB Board of Directors election.

BBB members, voting by mail ballot, re-elected the following from Lake Charles, Wayne Kingrey, John H. Henry, C. Lynn Watkins, A. L. "Sparky" Myers, Jr., and Robert B. Smith.

Elected for the first time from Lake Charles for a three-year term were Fred Nodier, Ed Nevils and Bill Finley.

Elected for the first time from Sulphur for a three-year term was Bruce Alexander.

Re-elected from Cameron Parish for a three-year term was A. J. Howard of Cameron State Bank.

The most needed equipment changes for safe operation of farm machinery are the installation of roll bars, use of seat belts, and a rear view mirror.

Wake up South Louisiana; it's our turn now!

OUR TURN FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP!

- North Louisiana has had the Governor for 28 years.
- 4 North Louisiana parishes (Winn, Webster, Caddo and Caldwell) have elected 6 Governors who served 10 terms for 40 years.
- THOUGH SOUTH LOUISIANA HAS MORE PEOPLE, MORE VOTERS THAN ALL NORTH LOUISIANA; PAYS THE BULK OF THE TAXES, NORTH LOUISIANA POLITICIANS CONTROL OUR STATE AND DECIDE WHERE THE BENEFITS GO.

WE'VE BEEN SHORT CHANGED LONG ENOUGH!!

THE TIME IS NOW, SOUTH LOUISIANA!

Time for us to WAKE UP,
Time for us to STICK TOGETHER.
Time for us to VOTE TOGETHER,
Time to Turn-the-Tide of Louisiana politics.
Time for US TO HAVE THE GOVERNOR and the benefits he brings to his home area.

It's Time for a Real Change!

EDWIN EDWARDS

Is our ONLY CHANCE for another 4 years

16TH YEAR -- NO. 11 CAMERON, LA. THURSDAY, DEC. 23, 1971 10¢ A COPY

SANTA CLAUS passed out candy to Cameron children on the courthouse steps Saturday with the aid of the Cameron fire department. Here Fire Chief Ray Burleigh helps out.

Aid sought for flooded areas

State Rep. Conway LeBleu has asked Governor John McKeithen to ask for a presidential declaration of Cameron Parish as a major disaster area.

Gov. McKeithen promised that he would contact the State Civil Defense director to set the wheels in motion for the declaration.

The local Farm Bureau, Cattlemen Association, and Cameron Parish ASCS County and Community sent telegrams to the congressional delegation in Washington D. C. last week requesting that they ask President Nixon to declare the area a major disaster area so free feed can be obtained for the cattlemen who are in a critical situation with their pastures flooded with rising flood waters.

The delegation replied that they had contacted President Nixon requesting expeditious and sympathetic consideration to whatever requests he might receive regarding the disaster.

They also informed the local groups that the disaster declaration for the parish can come only from the Governor's office and under the law, is limited to situations in which the extent of damage exceeds the capabilities of state and local resources to deal with the situation, based on statistics prepared by local FHA, ASCS, and Civil Defense officials.

The declaration of the disaster area must come through the regional director of the office of Economic Preparedness.

The OEP regional director surveys the damage and in turn makes a recommendation to OEP National headquarters, which finally presents the case to the President.

Citizens urged to wear patches

J. B. Jones, Jr., president of the La. Fur and Wildlife Festival, reported to the weekly meeting of the festival officers that plans are coming along fine for the festival.

Jones asked that the local people wear their festival blazer patches to advertise the festival. They can be secured from Jones or Garner Nunez at the Police Jury Annex building in Cameron for $1 each. The colorful patch carries out the theme of the festival with ducks and fur bearing animals on it.

It was reported that several area bands will participate in the Festival parade Saturday, Jan. 8.

Fur judging winners given

The annual Cameron Parish 4-H fur judging contest was held Monday in Cameron.

The club members were tested on their knowledge of the fur project and industry, using a written exam on their project books and muskrat and nutria pelts which they had to grade according to commercial grades used to purchase furs.

This year's winners were:

SENIOR DIVISION

1st Place - Donny Nunez, South Cameron High

2nd Place - Mike McCall, South Cameron High

3rd Place - Jody McCall, South Cameron High

JUNIOR DIVISION

1st Place - Russell Roy, Grand Chenier Jr. 4-H Club

2nd Place - Mike Prescott, Johnson Bayou Jr. 4-H Club

Klein heads ASC committee

Francis Klein of the Klondike-Lowery area has been reelected to a three term on the Cameron parish Agricultural Stabilization Conservation county committee.

Klein was also elected chairman of the local committee at the county convention held this week in the Cameron courthouse.

Joe G. Boudoin, Creole, was elected vice-chairman, and Herman Precht, Sweetlake, was elected regular member.

Howard Cox will serve as first alternate and J. B. Meaux as second alternate.

The local ASC County committee supervises the handling of all federally administered farm programs for the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The office is located in the Cameron Courthouse and is opened on Tuesday and Friday of each week.

Light winners

The Cameron Home Demonstration Club held it's annual lighting contest Dec. 20. Winners are as followers:

Most Original: Robert Doxey, 1st; Mrs. Ladd Wainwright, 2nd; and Robert Styron, 3rd.

Over All: E. J. Dronet, 1st; Larry Taylor, 2nd; and A. J. Howard, 3rd.

Door: Hubert C. Smith, 1st; Carlos Ratcliff, 2nd; and George Wilkerson, 3rd.

First place prizes were donated by: Cameron Construction Company, electric clock radio; Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Blake, electric percolator; Jefferson Davis Electric Co-op, electric fry pan.

93 and still fiddling

Mrs. Cora Montie, who at 93 still loves to play the fiddle, entertained the Grand Chenier kindergarten children with Christmas carols and other songs last week.

The children gathered around her are Roni Theriot, Tammy Miller, Kirk Rutherford, Lana Hebert, Stephen Canik, Liz Miller, Lisa Dyson (Mrs. Montie's great-great-granddaughter), Leah Trahan and Dana Richard.

Ward 3 & 6 posts filled

An incumbent was re-elected and a new juror was elected in the two police jury runoff races in Cameron parish Saturday.

Charles A. Riggs of Hackberry was re-elected to a fourth term as Ward 6 juror, beating John R. (Bud) Rollins 421 to 341.

In the first primary, Rollins had led Riggs 329 to 311 with Virgil Real getting 27 votes.

In the Ward 3 race, Norman McCall polled 861 votes to 623 for Roland J. Trosclair, Jr.

In the first primary, Trosclair had led the field with 557 votes, followed by McCall with 459, Braxton Blake with 157 and Ray Burleigh with 98.

The present Ward 3 police juror, Frankie Henry, had announced some months ago that he did not plan to seek reelection.

One other new juror was elected in the first primary--Ernest R. Myers, beating veteran Ward 1 juror Horace Mhire.

Ward 5 juror Archie Berwick was re-elected in the first primary and Ward 2 juror Lyle Crain and Ward 4 juror Charles Precht were unopposed.

The new jurors will take office next spring.

Record vote counted

A record number of voters turned out in the Democratic second primary election Saturday in Cameron parish. A total of 3668 persons voted as compared to 3622 in the first primary.

Edwin W. Edwards, who won the governor's race by a very narrow margin statewide, carried Cameron parish by more than a 2-1 vote. He got 2469 votes to Bennett Johnston's 1149 here.

James E. Fitzmorris, Jr., who was elected lieutenant governor, got 1843 votes in the parish to Jamar Adcock's 1535.

William J. Guste, Jr., who was elected attorney general, had a small margin in Cameron parish--1622 to 1592 for George Gubre.

Sherman Bernard, who was the successful candidate for commissioner of insurance; also won big in Cameron parish--2391 to 900 for Dudley Guglielmo.

Van M. Andrus, who as elected member of the state central committee, received 1510 votes to Dr. Rex Smelser's 1459 in Cameron.

LeBleu elected to third term

State Representative Conway LeBleu of Cameron was re-elected to a third term as he beat Lon Tyndall of Lake Charles 6,735 to 5,026 for representative for the 36th district in Saturday's second primary election.

Tyndall had served as state representative from 1956 to 1960.

Both he and LeBleu were running in the new 36th district composed of eight precincts in Ward 3 of Calcasieu parish and all of Cameron parish.

Tyndall ran slightly ahead in Calcasieu Parish with a total of 3,843 votes to LeBleu's 3,843, but LeBleu ran strong in his home parish, with a total of 2,892 votes to Tyndall's 667.

LeBleu is chairman of the Cameron Waterworks District No. 1 and a member of the Sabine River Authority.

Bank to close

In observance of the Christmas holiday, the Cameron State Bank will be closed all day Friday, Dec. 24.

The bank will close at 2 p.m. at the end of the business day Thursday and will open for business at 9 a.m. Monday, Dec. 27.

Festival poster contest planned

The Catholic Daughters of America, Court Mary Olive #1463, is sponsoring the second annual poster contest in conjunction with the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival.

Entry forms are available from each school principal. Any child attending Cameron Parish schools is eligible to participate.

There are three categories, with first, second and third place plaques awarded in each category.

Categories are:

a. - Grades 1-2-3

b. - Grades 4-5-6-7

c. - Grades 8-9-10-11-12

Winning posters will be exhibited in the lobby of the Cameron elementary school auditorium Friday and Saturday of the festival.

Awards will be presented at the Friday night performance.

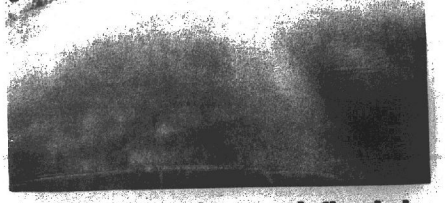
Rules are as follows:

1. Attach entry form to the back of poster.
2. Use standard poster paper 22" x 28".
3. May be drawn in pencil, water color, oil, felt markers, crayons or cut-outs.
4. Must have title.
5. The Festival is honoring the oil industry. Poster should be about any phase of oil.
6. Turn in to school principals by noon Jan. 4, 1972.

For more information contact Mrs. Whitney Baccigalopi, Grand Chenier, Louisiana.

Garbage pickup

The Hackberry garbage pickup, which would have been on Friday, will be Thursday, Dec. 23, because of the Christmas holidays, according to C. A. Riggs, police juror.



Chenier Pardue road flooded

About two miles of the 3 1/2 miles of the shell road leading to Chenier Pardue in Cameron parish has been flooded the past several weeks since the big rains.

Passage is almost impossible and the school bus can no longer get down the road.

Residents of the area are circulating a petition asking that the road be raised.

Police Juror Lyle Crain recently requested the police jury to see state or federal aid in raising the road.

Jones renamed to commission

Jerry G. Jones, Cameron attorney, has been appointed to a second six-year term on the Louisiana Wild Life and Fisheries Commission by Gov. John McKeithen. The appointment was made Dec. 13.

Jones was originally appointed to the commission in January, 1965. Jones has been chairman of the commission for the past four years.

A native of Cameron parish, Jones is a graduate of the LSU law school and an Air Force veteran. He is also the secretary of the Cameron parish police jury.

W.R. Smith on Advisory Board

W. R. Smith, supervisor of elementary education, Cameron, is a member of the 39-member Kindergarten-Early Childhood advisory board recently appointed by Gov. John J. McKeithen.

The executive committee of the board met at LSU-Alexandria Dec. 11 to formulate plans and goals for the implementation of French education at the Kindergarten-preschool levels.

"This pre-school program is the most important step taken so far to to root bilingualism in Louisiana," said James Domengeaux, State Chairman of the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana (CODOFIL).

Memories of old Rex

By MRS. GEORGE NUNEZ

Memories were brought back by the story in the Pilot a few weeks ago about the Borealis Rex and the 1918 storm. I rode the Borealis Rex to Lake Charles as a small girl and had my tonsils removed in Doc Loomis' office. I spent a week at Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roux's (now deceased) and came home on the Rex.

Jim Hansen, called Capt. Jim, let me hold that big wheel and steer the boat. I thought it was the grandest thing.

Joe Bradley sold candy, cookies, and smoking tobacco, and we would bring a lunch along. They served dinner on the boat, but we were always ready to eat as soon as the Rex left Leesburg.

At that time Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hansen and girls lived by the new Catholic church where Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mouton live. They were grand people (now deceased) and Tom McCain was a grand old man.

I recall the day of the 1918 storm. We didn't have radios at that time and my father, Dennis Murphy, went on the Rex to get off at Vincent Settlement to visit his daughter, Mrs. Della Broussard. When the Rex sank, Mr. McCain had all the life boats lowered and said "All ladies first." My father said he was the first one in the life boat.

My mother and I were home alone cooking pear preserves. Tan Savoy came and made us go to his house which was a larger and better house than ours. Their house went off the blocks and we thought it was going to pieces so we all got outside and were tumbled about.

During the lull, we went over to Uncle Tom Murphy's and the storm caught us. We crawled to the salt cedar trees and stayed there until it

GRAND LAKE-SWEETLAKE NEWS

By EDDIE MAE FAULK

Edie Faulk celebrated her 5th birthday on Dec. 9. Her mother carried cupcakes to Kindergarten for the class to enjoy. After school she had a birthday party. Among those attending were Ginger Faulk, Kevin, Jared, Richard Janice, Mondell and Chaslene Faulk, Mrs. Dennis Nunez, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Demarets and Mrs. Melba Faulk. Edie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Faulk.

Mrs. Earl Toemer of Lake Charles has returned home from a long stay in St. Patrick's. She fell and broke a bone in her thigh. She is still confined to bed, but glad to be home for Christmas.

Mrs. Toemer wishes to thank everyone for her flowers, cards, gifts and everything - for she still isn't able to answer any of them. Mrs. Toemer is formerly of Chenier Perdue.

The Morgan Faulk home was the scene of a double birthday party. Their two son, Ricky and Richard, celebrated birthdays on Dec. 16. Among those attending were Ricky Poole, Kay and Edie Faulk, Randy Richard, Bill Robicheaux, Mrs. Johnnie Faulk, Mrs. Alvin Duhon, Mrs. Nolton Richard, his brother Jared and sisters Mondell, Charlene and Janice.

All the school children enjoyed Christmas parties the last day of school. Santa Claus came to the Kindergarten class at 10:30 Friday to give out the presents and visit with the children. Refreshments were served to them by Mrs. J. L. Duhon, Mrs. Charles Petteffi, Mrs. Larry Eagleson, Mrs. Kenneth Myers and Mrs. John A. Faulk.

Congratulations to Johnnie Fossom and Herman Ogea on graduating from McNeese.

Mrs. Lora Pennington returned home Friday from a three month vacation in Floridsy. She visited her daughter, Mrs. Angus Peterson in Port St. Joe and other relatives in Freeport and Pensacola.

Recent visitors in Mrs. Tom Taylor's home were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Smith of Jennings, and her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Placid Chesson of Lake Charles.

Mrs. Jack Broussard of Sweetlake is a very remarkable woman. For someone over 90 years old she still has a sparkle in her eyes. She has a deep freeze full of vegetables that she has grown herself. She works in her garden in a walker. Her three sons, Mac, Stephen and Cleveland work up the ground. But she plants the garden and tends to it. Just last week she was finishing a quilt.

Merry Christmas to everyone.

LIVESTOCK PRODUCERS DAY - A wide range of topics on beef cattle and swine will be presented at the 12th annual LSU Livestock Producers' Day on Jan. 6 on the LSU campus in Baton Rouge, beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Topics on the general program include livestock waste disposal, recent regulations on feed additives and the futures market as it relates to Louisiana livestock prices.

The morning beef cattle program will include talks on Coast-cross I Bermudagrass and other new forages, summer forage programs for beef cattle, and results from a program for maximizing beef production.

Topics on the swine program include a self-help program for pork production and promotion, roasted soybeans vs. soybean oil meal, purebred vs. hybrid boars, feeding management of bred and lactating sows, problems of marketing Louisiana feeder pigs, and problems of marketing slaughter hogs in Louisiana.

The afternoon beef session will have such presentations as nitrate poisoning and grass tetany, control of external parasites, and a panel discussion on the management of feeder and stocker calves for shipment. Panel topics will be: A Winter Grazing Program for Growing Steers and Calves, Treatment and Prevention of Diseases of Feeder and Stocker Calves, and Managing Feeder and Stocker Calves Prior to Shipment and After Arrival.

Anyone interested in combining rides may call me anytime at the County Agent's office or at my home after 7 p.m. It will be necessary to leave Cameron no later than 5:30 a.m. and should be back around 7 p.m.

FOUNDATION SEED RICE - Cameron Parish has been allocated 5800 lbs. total of Vista, Saturn and Starbonnet foundation seed rice from the Rice Experiment Station in Crowley for 1972 planting.

Parish rice farmers interested in getting some of this seed should attend the meeting to be held on Tuesday, Dec. 28, at the Community Center in Sweetlake at 10 a.m.

This seed will be treated with Captan and ready to pick up at the station in Crowley in early spring. The cost will be the same as in the past.

RICE CLINIC - The annual Cameron-Calcasieu Parish Rice Clinic will be held on Monday, Jan. 10, beginning at 2 p.m. at the Iowa High School in Iowa. Topics to be discussed by L.S.U. personnel will include: 1972 Rice Outlook and Varieties to Plant, new development in rice research, N-fertilization, grass and weed control and also insect control.

Following the above program, a meal will be served and then a presentation on rice marketings will conclude the clinic.

IT'S A HOLIDAY SEASON - The County Agents office will be closed from Dec. 21 until the 27th, and then from Dec. 30 until Jan. 4. However, if need be, call me at home. From the County Agents office to all of you a very Merry Christmas and a Healthy, Happy and Prosperous '72.

A buffet dinner prepared by the members included ham and turkey and all of the trimmings.

MUSING . .

By BERNICE STEWART

If it were possible to capture in so many words the meaning of Christmas with all its holy promise, beauty, and warmth, I would give you those words in this column today. In the giving I would bestow upon you the greatest of gifts, greater even than the gold and frankincense and myrrh brought to the Bethelehem Babe by the Wise Men of the East.

But the true meaning of Christmas is too magnificently sublime to travel in even the most majestic vehicle of words. It is borne only in the hearts of mankind -- in hearts that have permitted the Master Musician to make harmonious adjustments between Him and them and between theirs and the hearts of fellowmen.

I can, and I do, give you thanks for all your visits and gifts, your wonderful letters and cards that have come to me during the past year. And I thank you for your words of kindness and encouragement.

To all the readers of this column I wish a happy, happy Christmas, and I pray that its true meaning will abide in your hearts forever.

What I would like to say is best expressed in the beautiful Christmas prayer of Robert Louis Stevenson:

"Loving Father, help us to remember the birth of Jesus that we may share in the song of the angels, the gladness of the shepherds and the worship of the wise men.

"Close the door of hate and open the door of love all over the world.

"Let kindness come with every gift and good desire with every greeting.

"Deliver us from evil by the blessing which Christ brings, and teach us to be merry with clear hearts.

"May the Christmas morning make us happy to be Thy children, and the Christmas evening bring us to beds with grateful thoughts, forgiving and forgiven for Jesus' sake. Amen!"

Refugees to be aided

A special offering to assist East Pakistan refugees fleeing into India as a result of the India-Pakistan war, will be received across the 10 million 500 thousand member United Methodist Church.

Minimum goal in the offering is $1 million, according to Bishop Ralph T. Alton of Madison, Wis., chairman of the United Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief (UMCOR).

The mass exodus of more than 9 million 500 thousand refugees from East Pakistan into India has been described by UMCOR leaders as the worst human tragedy of history. Neither the Biafra nor Palestine problems "even begin to look like the tragedy of the East Pakistan refugee situation," said the Rev. J. Harry Haines, UMCOR executive secretary.

Dr. Haines said a 20-to-30 mile wide "belt" of refugees extends along the eastern border of India for 1,300 miles. "Every tree in this area has a refugee family living under it," the executive told the church's Board of Missions recently.

Bishop Alton said funds collected in the relief offering will be expended largely through ecumenical channels, particularly the Christian Cency for Social Action in India. The bishop stressed that machinery will be established to administer the funds "effectively and responsibly."

Hackberry 4-H plans for float

Dec. 14 was the last 4-H meeting of 1971 for the Hackberry clubs.

A film was shown by Sgt. Hayman on driving safely. Project books and record books were handed out by agents.

Christmas songs were sung by the club. The song and yell committee demonstrated cheers for Achievement Day. A float committee was elected to start to design the 4-H float for the Fur Festival.

Activities we will work on this month will be Christmas caroling, Fur Festival float, and tray favors for old folks home.

Project reports were given by Tonia Penny and George Shove on their lambs.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. O'Quain, 4-H faculty leader.

Beans different

There is a difference between green beans and wax beans. Wax beans are so called because of their waxy yellow color. Green beans are more common but there is little difference in the nutritional value of the two types of beans.

Better Business

Dear BBB:

My husband is a foreman with a trucking company. Last week he received a letter from an outfit in North Carolina that said he was an outstanding leader in our community and they wanted to list him in a book with other community leaders. The cost is $150. We don't have this kind of money to spend. But ever since we've been married my husband has been convinced that he really is a leader in the community. He is active in all the charity drives, all the events our church puts on and he tells me that he is finally getting recognition for all his work. I think he's being taken. What do you think?

Wondering

Dear Wondering:

We think you're right. While your husband should be commended for his interest in community affairs we doubt that an out-of-state organization really knows how active he is in his community. This type of offer is strictly one that appeals to the ego. The Better Business Bureau has in its files the case of a man who spent almost one thousand dollars to get his name listed in several of these publications. He learned that the books were not distributed. In fact, he doesn't know of anyone who has ever heard of the publications. Tell your husband to check such offers with the Better Business Bureau.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

I met this great girl last year and we started going steady. When I got out of school and went to work we started talking about marriage. There's a jeweler near my office and he agreed to let me buy a diamond engagment ring on time and two months ago we picked it out. The ring she wanted was about seven hundred dollars more than I could afford. But I figured that you only get engaged once in your life and the jeweler said I could pay it off as I went along. Anyway, right after she got the ring we had a fight and she took off to visit her aunt in Hawaii. She broke the engagement but didn't return the ring. The jeweler says I have to pay, but I think she should have to pay -- after all she has the ring.

Bitter

Dear Bitter:

It is customary for a girl to return the ring if she breaks off an engagement. However, in a case like this the jeweler is right: you have to pay for the ring. He sold the ring to you -- and you signed a contract. Why not try to contact the girl or talk to her parents and ask for the return of the ring and see if the jeweler will take it back? In the meantime, we suggest you keep up the payments. If not, the jeweler will be within his rights to garnishee your salary or take legal action.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

Last week a friend of mine told me knew how I could get rich. All I had to do was join up with him in selling distributorships for a new cleaner. It's a great product and the sort of thing most women would want to use. My father says there is no sure-fire way to get rich quick and to check this out with the Better Business Bureau.

Curious

Dear Curious:

We know an elderly man who says that there is a sure-fire way to get rich and that is to work hard, be lucky, save your money and marry a millionaire's widow. We know of the product you asked about -- and it is an efficient one. However, what is actually being sold here is not the product but the distributorship and this is somewhat like a chain letter. Many states have laws prohibiting such multiple level sales plans and we advise you to be very, very careful. In most cases you are required to make a substantial investment -- and many people tell us that they have not gotten rich, not made a profit and must have lost their original investment. Do check such things with the Better Business Bureau.

Caton Langston, BBB

Dear BBB:

My boss is the kind of man who refuses to listen to anyone who works for him. A couple of months ago our firm received an unsolicited order from a company in Nigeria. The bill came to our department for payment and I wanted to have the purchase order before it was okayed and put through -- this was a bill for $2,600. My boss said that a company wouldn't bill us for this amount unless it had been ordered and he refused to discuss it. Sometimes he's a real pain, but I like him and I'd hate to see him get in trouble. Does the Better Business Bureau have any information on something like this? It just doesn't seem right to me.

Worried

Dear Worried:

The Better Business Bureau has many complaints from companies who do not have alert employees like you on their staffs. In fact, so many Better Business Bureaus throughout the United States have complaints on this type of operation that we call it the Nigerian Swindle. Here's what happens: The foreign company will place an order and require your company to post a certain amount of money in a bank in its country as evidence of good faith that the shipment will arrive on time. Your company's goods and money will usually not be recovered. We suggest that you tell your boss to check with the Better Business Bureau for information on the scheme. And remember, if you have any idoubts about the legitimacy of an order your company has received from Nigeria you should check the name of the company with the local U. S. Department of Commerce field office. Check also with the foreign department of the bank your company does business with and send for -- and use -- the National Association of Credit Manager's credit interchange report. You can also get a booklet on how to do business in Nigeria called "Establishing a Business in Nigeria." You can get a copy by writing to the Nigerian Consulate, 575 Lexington Avenue, New Yor 10022.

Meet your teachers

The Pilot continues to feature the teachers of Cameron parish schools, with teachers of South Cameron elementary in the spotlight this week.

Mrs. Helen Manual, left, teaches fifth and sixth grade language arts and second grade French. She received her B. A. degree from USL. Prior to coming to South Cameron Elementary she taught in Westlake, Iowa, Elton, Basile, East Baton Rouge, Cameron Elementary and South Cameron high school.

Mrs. Estell Theriot, center, teaches English, mathematics and science to the fourth graders. She received her B.A. degree from U.S.L. She has taught at the Creole High, Hayes Elementary, Grand Lake High, Cameron Elementary and South Cameron High School. She enjoys sewing and growing flowers. She has been teaching for 26 years.

Mrs. Eleanor West, right, teaches social studies to the fourth, fifth and sixth graders and first and fifth grade physical education. Her teaching experiences include Creole High School, Grand Lake High and South Cameron High. She received her B. A. degree from USL. She has been teaching for 38 years.

Try simple zucchini dish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

A simple recipe but well worth trying.

BRAISED ZUCCHINI

4 (1¼ to 1½ pounds) zucchini
2 to 3 tablespoons olive oil
Salt

Cut off ends from zucchini; with a vegetable brush scrub in cold water. Cut in half lengthwise; do not pare. In a 12-inch skillet heat oil; add zucchini, cut sides down. Cook over moderate heat, tightly covered, until cut sides are lightly browned—10 minutes or so; turn; continue to cook until tender-crisp—10 minutes or so. Sprinkle generously with salt. Makes 4 servings.

Interesting info

Due to the tangy flavor of buttermilk it cannot successfully replace other forms of milk in recipes.

Need filler for Saturday supper

In a hurry and need a filler for Saturday night supper: Cream together ¾ stick butter and 1 cup Cheddar cheese. Add a touch of caraway seed for character. then spread sliced French or Vienna bread with the mixture, wrap in aluminum foil and heat in a 350 degree oven 30 minutes. It's a tasty treat for the entire family!

AN OPEN MESSAGE TO THE PEOPLE OF HACKBERRY AND CAMERON PARISH:

I wish to thank my many supporters who rallied to the occasion and made possible an overwhelming victory. To my knowledge, this is the first time any Police Juror has been elected to a fourth term from Ward 6. Certainly I feel proud, and in no way will I ever betray your confidence.

I wish to ask my opponent and his supporters to join with me in a sincere effort to promote harmony and better community relations. I would also welcome any constructive ideas that you may have.

I further pledge to all of the Citizens of Cameron Parish to represent you honorably, and to work with other public officials that you have elected to promote your best interest.

On behalf of my family and my wonderful supporters, I say God Bless you and Merry Christmas to all.

Classes study living things

The South Cameron Elementary fifth grade science class are studying a unit titled "Exploring the World of Living Things."

Science classes 5A and 5B have collected animal pictures in order to classify them into two large groups, with backbones and animals without backbones and placing them on the wall.

Later they will classify them into five groups, mammals, birds, reptiles, amphibians and fish.

Then they will classify them according to their structure near the end of the unit.

To Our Friends:

The Holiday Season is here and we pause to extend greetings and express our appreciation for your friendship and good will.

In the search for the true meaning of this happy time we find that to be at peace with oneself and to have a friendly relationship with others is what we wish for all our friends.

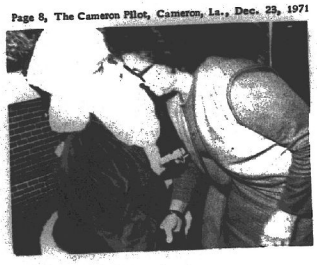
Peace On Earth, Good Will Toward Men.

Let us all strive to make these treasures a reality to fulfill the destiny of America and all mankind.

We hope that your Holiday Season will be Joyous and Happy, and that the New Year will bring Health and Prosperity to you and yours.

With sincere best wishes,

Loston & Raymond



KCs have yule party

A Christmas party was enjoyed by the J. P. Boudoin Knights of Columbus Council 3014 last week at the KC Hall in Creole.

Wives of council members were guests at a supper preceeding the party.

Santa (Ual Bonsall) arrived and passed out presents to everyone.

Here Santa, above, kisses Mrs. Brandon Cartee and gives her a gift at the party.

Dimas host to group

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dimas were hosts to the chairmen of Outdoor Events of the La. Fur and Wildlife Festival, recently at a buffet supper at their home in Creole.

Dimas is in charge of all outdoor contests which includes the parade, trap setting, trap shooting, archery, fur skinning, duck and goose calling contests.

The contest chairmen reviewed plans for the upcoming festival contests. It was decided that the finalists in both the women and men's division of the fur skinning contests will be held on stage at the Saturday night program.

Contestants in the duck and goose calling contests will only be allowed to enter one category, either Junior or Senior. The age limit on the junior contest is 16. A junior cannot compete in the senior contest.

FHA holds yule party

A report on the annual hayride was given at the December meeting of the South Cameron FHA club.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas party to be in the home of Mrs. J. C. Reina, club sponsor. Members will sing Christmas carols at the hospital before the party, where gifts will be exchanged.

A report on parliamentary procedure was given by Carolyn Rutherford. Club members who wish to donate toys for the orphans are asked to turn them in this week.

On motion of Mr. Trahan, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board approved payment of bills covering checks No. 19939 through 20000, and No. 1 through 70 totaling $16,023. 21 and payroll totaling $156, 207. 70 for the month of November, 1971.

The following resolution was offered by Mr. Richard, who moved its adoption, which motion was seconded by Mr. Taylor and carried unanimously by the Board:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has reduced the appropriation for the Title I Program for the 1972 budgets, and

WHEREAS, the reduction of this appropriation has resulted in reducing the allowance for materials needed in completing planned programs under Title I,

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Cameron Parish School Board that the Congress of the United States be requested to consider restoring such funds to the Title 1 1972 budget as necessary to reimburse the school systems of the nation for the reduction in appropriation, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That the Congress is requested to restore these funds at the earliest possible date in order that reduction will not interfere with completion of planned programs, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that The Superintendent be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to Honorable Edwin Edwards, Congressman representing the Seventh Congressional District of Louisiana.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Conner and carried, the Board changed the Finance meeting in January to Thursday, January 6, 1972, due to the Fur Festival holiday.

On motion duly seconded and carried, the Board ajourned to meet in regular monthly session on Monday, January 10, 1972.

CREOLE NEWS

By GARI BAILEY
(Last Week's News)

High waters, the results of the heavy rain we received a week ago Sunday was the concern of the residents of Little Chenier, East Creole and Chenier Perdue this week. Children were seen playing in their front yards in pirogues Sunday. Also, with the warm temperatures, many of the children were swimming.

Cattle had to be moved to higher grounds with the rising waters flooding the marsh. Reports of snakes looking for higher grounds were reported by many of our concerned mothers.

Mrs. Margaret Sturlese and Mrs. Joyce Sturlese went Christmas shopping in The Mall in Lafayette last week.

Harold Savoie, scoutmaster of troop #202 of Creole, took his scouts on a rabbit hunt Sunday. The rabbits were cleaned for a supper at a later date.

Kenneth Montie, Pooh Landry, Johnny Boudoin, Clifford Conner, Eddie Joe Conner and C. B. Welch attended the Cranland Rice Bowl Football game in Baton Rouge Saturday.

Congratulations to Trudy Savoie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Savoie, who was selected to represent South Cameron Elementary in the Little Miss Cameron Parish contest held Friday in Cameron.

Kenton Trahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ortego was nominated as Miss Savoie's escort.

Mr. and Mrs. Israel Broussard from Lake Charles, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Theriot and family.

A speedy recovery is sent to Mrs. Viola Brune of Lafayette who underwent surgery in Lafayette last Tuesday. Mrs. Brune is the sister of Blanc Bonsall and Elton Bonsall, both of Creole.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Savoie and son, Kevin, from Abbeville are spending a week visiting family and friends.

Congratulations to Mrs. Marvin Duddleston who will graduate from McNeese School of Nursing. Also, Belle Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Miller and Kay Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller.

Mr. Asa Clifton's family have been on the sick list, as were also Mr. Dennis Elender and her little daughter.

The Misses Patsy Landry, Alice and Celestine Landry and Della Ellender were out visiting the Misses Liza and Rebecca Elender, and all went out sailing on a pine breeze. Lee Landy was captain and all the girls were first mates.

I don't know what's the matter with the boys around here, there was lots of calico out and there wasn't a boy nor man to be seen, except little Lee Landry, he was right there. Our boys are a little shy of girls. You Cameron boys better come up and try your luck.

Mr. Clairville Elender and family from Lacka[illegible] are down visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. David Spates is suffering from a bone felon. She has my sympathy. Fire-Lilly.

Joint Resolution.

Act No. 6 S. B. No. 3—By Mr. Cuno.
JOINT RESOLUTION.

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Louisiana, relative to ratifying and carrying into effect the Canal Act, and to authorize the City of New Orleans to establish public improvements, and to establish public improvements of sewerage and water, the issuance of bonds therefor and the ways and means to pay the principal and interest of said bonds.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, (three fifths of all the members present concurring) that the following amendment to the constitution of the State be submitted to the electors of the State at the next general election for representatives in the legislature, to be holden on the Tuesday next following the third Monday in April A. D. 1900, to-wit:

Article 1. "The special tax for paying the improvements, voted by the property taxpayers of the city of New Orleans, at the election held in said city by Ordinance No. 15,351 approved June 26, 1899, and the bonds authorized by said ordinance, shall never be questioned in any court of this State or elsewhere, except at the Special Session held on August 28th, 1900, constituting the emergency session of the General Assembly, convening the city of New Orleans, authorizing the city of New Orleans to issue bonds, and providing the means to pay the principal and interest thereof, and for all other purposes cognate to the purposes of the special tax aforesaid, in the manner specified and approved, specially including the bonds authorized by said ordinance to refund the same; saved legislative rights to amend the constitution and all provisions of the statutes of said act, in conflict with this amendment, are hereby and with this amendment, are hereby repealed."

Section 2. Be it further resolved, etc., That on the fifth Monday after the passage of said election, shall be held a special Public Improvement Election in the city of New Orleans, at which the Amendment and Ordinance of the City of New Orleans Public Improvement Assessment Act and ordinance shall be submitted in the general election laws of the State which of the propositions, "for" or "against" he votes for.

MEMORIES OF REX . . .

was over.

Uncle Tom's house wasn't too badly damaged, but we were homeless.

Our house we completely blown down; only one board standing with the coffee mill nailed upon it. The next day my brother-in-law, Bill Roux, came out in his wagon and took us into his home until his brother, Asa Roux, was able to build us a home.

In the 1957 storm our house was blown completely away; only the cement steps left and the cement form of our slaughter house was left. So it is no wonder now how frantic we get when we hear of a hurricane coming.

Getting back to the Rex, there were only four or five cars here then. They belonged to Doc Carter, Gable Richard and maybe a couple or more at that time. I was about fifteen and one day coming from Lake Charles were two "drummers" (now called salesmen) on the Rex with their cars aboard.

They inquired how far I lived from Cameron and I told them about 7 1/2 miles. They both offered to drive me home. I said, "Oh no thank you. My father, Dennis Murphy, and Eddie Mae Murphy (now Mrs. Pierre Savoie) will be there to meet me." And sure enough they were there in a wagon. I was so thrilled to be home with them and was telling about my trip when the salesmen came by and nearly scared our horses off the road. They stopped to see if any harm was done and asked if we wanted to go with them. It was a great experience.

We had forgotten all about the times we'd ride horse back to Cameron and sit on Mrs. Debbie Anderson's store porch and wait to see the Rex arrive and go down to meet her.

So Mr. Ratliff, we all enjoyed your write-up in the Pilot and hope to have some more of the old times write something. We enjoy Bemice Stewart's write-up so much.

Around Capitol

By JACK GOULD

BATON ROUGE - To all the candidates in the Feb. 1 general election: The best Christmas gift you can give to more than three million Louisiana citizens is to lay off "politickin" until well into 1972.

Oh, they probably will not flip too much if you limit yourselves to a brief--repeat brief--Holiday greeting. But any more than that could result in a castor-oil reaction difficult to spell - "yecccchhhh!"

True, this state is noted for its "365-days-a-year" campaigning. But even around this Capitol, when politics is a way of life, people sometimes get jaded about the whole thing. And this is one of those times.

What should winning candidates, especially those for governor, do with their spare time in the next two or three weeks? Some might do well to review all of their campaign promises, with a view of trying to figure some way to take them back!

This idea of a general shake-up in Louisiana government, for example, sounds great -- in theory. But without approval first by the legislature (which can be tough), and then by voters (even tougher), it simply can't be done.

True, some new governors have been given a "honeymoon" with the first session. But the new legislature, regardless of the result of the general election, promises to truly be different for the first time in many years.

Even the idea of consolidating more than 200 different state agencies into just a few is going to run into a hot fight. Heads of most agencies are going to "prove" to the legislature that they must operate as before, for the "good of the state."

Veteran legislators coming back -- and there are a few -- will tell you who have just been elected that some of the larger state agencies have any number of ways to "persuade" lawmakers what they must do -- to get re-elected!

These same veterans will also tell freshmen members one simple fact of life in this Capitol: Talk of "independents" sounds fine, but without leadership, the legislature will flounder in rough seas.

Because of his powers under hundred of laws, the governor usually provides that "leadership." Some rugged legislators have managed to fight this "city hall," but usually end up "ragged."

The difference is, the Old Timers explain, between "leadership" and "dictatorship;" and Louisiana has had a sample of each in the last several terms. This time, many old-and-new lawmakers hope, things will be vastly changed.

When serious campaigning does get under way for the general election, many nominated Democrats admit, they had better get ready for "anything," even a presidential visit to the Super Bowl.

"These Republicans are serious," some admit, "and believe most voters are not yet satisfied with made Nov. 6 and Dec. 18."

Republicans say they will go "all out." This might even mean, they hint, calling in Sen. Barry Goldwater, actor John Wayne -- or even "Tricia!"

But please, fellows -- can't you at least wait until next year?

To The Voters of The 36th District

I want to sincerely thank all of the voters of the 36th District (Cameron Parish and part of Ward 3 of Calcasieu) for the overwhelming vote that you gave me in Saturday's election.

I sincerely appreciate the vote of confidence that you have given me in re-electing me to a third term in the Legislature. I will strive to merit that confidence and to serve all sections of my district faithfully and equally.

To the voters of Cameron parish, I wish to say that that by giving me nearly a 4-1 vote you have made me very proud. I am grateful for the continued support that you have given me.

SINCE DAYS OF OLD, REPLICAS OF THE MANGER scene have helped to bring mankind closer to the meaning of Christmas. The crib or creche here is typical, in its presentation of Mary, Joseph and the Infant Jesus, with the shepherds and Wise Men and, of course, the animals of the manger. It's typical, too, of the way the Nativity and the events surrounding it have long inspired artists and craftsmen, musicians and singers, poets and writers.

Christians Celebrate Holy Day With Prayer and Thanksgiving

For those who celebrate Christmas as a holy day, the holiday is greeted with rejoicing, with prayer and thanksgiving, in church and private devotions.

The word "greeting" has a special significance here, for herald angels singing to shepherds in the fields and a star shining in the heavens truly brought greetings—according to the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, "good news of great joy which will come to all people."

Long before the December 25 birthdate of Christ was celebrated in devotions, it had marked a season set aside for another kind of greeting. In Northern Europe, Teutonic tribes of pagan times greeted the rebirth of the sun, of the winter solstice.

Earliest celebrations of Christmas combined some of the ancient pagan traditions. By association with Christian beliefs, old customs of greeting the sun became symbolic of a recognition—a greeting of faith, hope and life eternal.

Champion to perform

Edwin Edwards

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

On Jan. 7 and 8, Cameron Parish will honor one of the industries which plays such an important role in it's economy, the fur industry, with the 16th annual Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival.

On hand to defend his state muskrat skinning title will be J. A. Miller, a young fur trapper who this year set a new world's record at the National Outdoor Show in Cambridge, Maryland, by skinning five muskrats in 52.1 seconds. The old world record was 63 seconds.

Miller traps with his father, Fletcher, who has been in the business over 40 years in Cameron Parish. The Millers trap on about 6000 acres.

Their typical day starts at 3:30 a.m. when their marsh buggy takes them out to their camp, located a mile out in the marsh. Mud boats are used to run the traps along small trails dug out in the marsh to get to the rat beds.

The average day ends about 3 p.m., with the average catch being about 200 hides.

The trappers then bring the catch home to Fletcher Miller's home in Cameron where an assembly line operation goes into effect.

First the pelts are skinned. This involves several steps. One person cuts the rat around the mouth and teeth. The rat is then passed to the next person who cuts the pelt up the back leg and down the tail on both sides. The rat is then passed to J. A. Miller who shakes it vigorously by the tail. Miller explained that rigor mortis has set in by the time the rats have been brought back to Cameron, and by shaking them in this way the spinal cord is loosened and the rat is pliable, not stiff anymore, and easier to handle, Miller then skins the rat and turns it inside out.

The hides are now ready for scraping. One worker quickly puts them on a scraping board and scraps off all the loose meat. Another worker prepares the meat from the carcus for sale to dogfood and other companies who buy the meat.

Next, the pelts are put into a washer to wash for 10 minutes. Fletcher Miller designed the washer this year and he and his son, J. A., built it. It washed 200 nutria pelts or 300 muskrat pelts in 10 minutes. It saves about 3 hours working time. It cost Miller about $500 to build, and he plans to get a patent on it. It turns

Edwards to be parade marshal

Congressman Edwin Edwards of Crowley, who recently won the Democratic nomination for governor of Louisiana, will put in one of his first public appearances since the election in Cameron next week.

J. B. Jones, Jr., president of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival, said that Edwards has accepted an invitation to be parade marshal for the festival's parade set for Saturday afternoon, Jan. 8 in downtown Cameron.

"We are very pleased that the man who probably will be Louisiana's next governor has accepted an invitation to take part in our festival," Jones stated.

"Congressman Edwards has always been a close friend of Cameron parish and we are pleased that we will be able to honor him in this way," Jones said.

Although he has won the Democratic nomination, Edwards still must meet Republican Candidate David Treen in the general election on Feb. 1.

RUPERT DOXEY, seated, retiring after 30 years on the parish Democratic committee, here is commended by Clerk of Court J. Berton Daigle.

Rupert Doxey retires from Demo. committee

Rupert Doxey, chairman of the Cameron Parish Democratic Executive Committee and a member of the committee for 30 years, was honored at a meeting of the committee last week when he announced his retirement.

J. Berton Daigle, clerk of court, on behalf of the committee commended Doxey for his faithful service to the committee and the party during his tenure.

During the business session the committee tabulated and compiled the returns from the recent election and certified the nominees.

Plans were made for a meeting of the committee in January where a new member will be chosen to take Doxey's place and a chairman and secretary will be selected.

Members of the committee are: Garner Nunez, Kenneth Nunez, H. Ward Fontenot, J. A. Lowery, Ronald Istre, Dr. Cecil W. Clark, Lionel A. Theriot and Jerry G. Jones.

Food stamps changes noted

Effective Jan. 1, there will be a complete revision of the Federal Food Stamp Program, according to Leonard Sonnier, Welfare Visitor for Cameron Parish.

The eligibility requirements have changed in reference to households, work requirements, resources, and income.

Additional stress is laid upon the responsibilities of the recipients in reference to errors and fraud.

For example, the amount of food stamps for two persons has been increased to $32 per month with income up to $170 per month.

In addition to these changes, the recipient has a choice of purchasing the full amount of certification of any quarter of this amount.

Toys donated for children

Leonard Sonnier, Cameron Welfare Visitor, said there were many needy children in Cameron who enjoyed a delightful Christmas thanks to the generosity of four Cameron parish citizens.

Mrs. Marie Venable, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mouton, owners of the Western Auto Store and J. A. Calligan owner of Cameron Drug Store, donated toys and gifts for the needy children. Sonnier said they deserve thanks from both himself and the welfare department.

Fur film given to the library

A recently released film "Fur Luxury From Louisiana" produced by the Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission has been donated to the Cameron Library.

The film will be used by the commission to promote the fur industry in northern markets.

Several Cameron parish people appear in the film including Cherie Griffith, the 1971 Louisiana Fur Queen, who appears in a sequence at the Mardi Gras in New Orleans; Isaac A. White, a fur trapper from Hackberry, and Ulrich "BB" Doxey, a Cameron fur buyer.

Jennings B. Jones, Jr., president of the La. Fur and Wildlife Festival said that the film will be shown during the upcoming festival.

TABERS HAVE TWIN GIRLS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Taber are the parents of twin girls, Ginger and Gunilla, born Dec. 14, at Lake Charles Memorial Hospital. One weighed 4 lbs. 7 oz., the other 4 lbs. 6 oz. The twins were greeted by a sister Monique, and a grandfather, Ernest Taber.

Ballots for fur king

W. F. Henry, Jr., chairman of the Industry and Fur Committee of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival, announced that ballots have been mailed to directors of the Festival to choose a king to reign over the 1972 event.

The board chose the oil industry to honor at the 1972 festival and the king will be chosen from this industry.

The ballots are to be returned to Henry by Jan. 4.

MISS CAMERON TO BE NAMED

Seven Cameron Parish girls have entered the Miss Cameron Parish contest to be held during the Friday night program of the Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival, Jan. 7. Pamela Gail Riggs, of Hackberry, the reigning Miss Cameron Parish will give up her crown that night to the winner.

Contestants who will be competing are: Cindi Lynn Tanner, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tanner of Cameron. She is a sophomore at McNeese State University in Lake Charles.

Peggy Ann Kelly, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kelly of Cameron. She is a senior at South Cameron High School.

Glenda Marie Schexnider, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Schexnider of Hackberry. She is a senior at Hackberry High School.

Laura January, 22, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John January of Grand Chenier.

Brenda Taylor, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Taylor, Sr. of Sweetlake. She is a senior at Grand Lake High School.

Wanda Devall, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Devall of Grand Lake. She is a senior at Grand Lake High School.

The girl selected as Miss Cameron Parish will represent the parish in the 1973 Fur Queen's contest in Cameron. Gail Riggs of Hackberry, the 1971 Miss Cameron Parish, will be in this year's furqueen contest.

Ambulance plan given

The ambulances will continue to roll in lower Cameron parish as the result of a new non-profit organization formed to take over the operation.

Ambulance service had been scheduled to end in the parish after an ambulance tax was voted down by local citizens. However, a committee appointed by the Cameron Lions Club was able to come up with a solution to the problem.

Emergency ambulance service for lower Cameron is being taken over by the South Cameron Voluntary Medical Association, a non-profit organization being incorporated by George Wilkerson, Wilman Saltzman and Conway LeBleu.

The association will have two full-time employees, supplemented by a group of volunteers to operate the service. It will be supported by donations from individuals and businesses.

The financing plan formulated by the corporators and other local citizens requires donations from local heads of families in the amount of $12 a year. (Business donations will be larger and will be based on the size of the business.)

Donors and their families will have to pay less for emergency ambulance service than others.

It is asked that the citizens of lower Cameron support this program with their donations when contacted.

For further information please contact George Wilkerson, temporary chairman.

Fees will be charged for the ambulance service. Rules will be published at a later date.

MRS. LARRY BOUDREAUX wants to make doubly sure that everyone knows about the La. Fur and Wildlife Festival. Here she attaches another bumper sticker to her car.

Licenses to be sold here

Cameron Parish Courthouse has been designated a substation for the sale of 1972-73 automobile license plates beginning Jan. 17; Feb. 7 is the deadline for obtaining the new car tags.

R. L. Miller, manager of the district revenue office at Lake Charles, said the Cameron substation will be opened from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Jan. 17-19. Albert Richard, deputy revenue officer, will be in charge of the substation.

Beekeepers may file

Beekeepers who want to file for indemnity payments for bee losses from pesticide use may now obtain forms at the Cameron and Calcasieu Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation service (ASCS) office.

Commenting that the beekeeper indemnity payment program is new, Charles S. Hackett, County Executive Director, said no estimate can yet be made on the number of claims to be filed or beekeeper's estimates of losses.

The indemnity payment program for beekeepers is retroactive to Jan. 1, 1967, and, under the Agricultural Act of 1970, will continue through Dec. 31, 1973.

Hospital news

Admitted to South Cameron Hospital recently were the following patients:

Dec. 20, Richard M. Savoie, Abbeville; Aristie Broussard, Nolan Griffin, Cameron; James W. Trahan, Creole.

Dec. 21, Kala Sue Belanger, Cameron.

Dec. 22, Margaret Tate, Pat Cheramie, Cameron.

Dec. 23, Alvin R. Conner, Grand Chenier; Loula Fae Savoie, Cameron; Arthmond Conner, Creole; Tonia Conner, Kaplan.

Dec. 24, Numa Richard, James Dyson, Cameron.

Dec. 25, Murphy Dyson, Cameron; Guy Murphy, Jr., Grand Chenier.

Dec. 26, J. Berton Daigle, Cameron; John P. Boudreaux, Creole.

Hunter dies while in marsh

Jim Crow of Orange, Texas, died from an apparent heart attack while hunting in the Black Bayou area of Cameron parish Friday afternoon, Dec. 24.

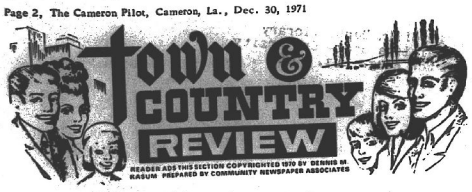
The Cameron sheriff's department sent a helicopter to pick up the body, but a Civil Air Patrol helicopter reached the area first and flew the body to Orange.

Removal of the body to Orange was authorized by Dr. Cecil Clark, Cameron parish coroner.

Contest rules

Jules Dronet, chairman of the duck and goose calling contests of the Fur and Wildlife festival, reminds contestants they can enter only one category of each contest. For instance, anyone who has entered the adult contest is not eligible to enter the junior contest, or visa versa.

Dronet said there was some misunderstanding about this last year, and new rules have been made for this year's contest.



TRUCKERS 3-T EQUIPMENT & SERVICE INC. 3-T TIRE CENTER

JOHN BROUSSARD - Mgr.

This is your complete tire recapping and front end service headquarters in Lake Charles and is located at 1015 Enterprise Blvd., phone 433-1075.

Smoothly worn tires are exceedingly dangerous and no motorist or trucker should continue to use them, endangering his own life and that of others who may be in his path when skidding or blowout takes place.

By actual experience, motorists and truckers know that they can save at least 50 percent on tire expenses by having good, smooth, worn tires recapped. There are various types of recapping service but the wise motorists has this work done where it can be handled with the proper equipment and skilled workmen. This type of service is furnished by this well known concern who by reason of their honest, high class work are witnessing a steady growth in their business.

This company is also your dealer for new DAYTON TIRES, for autos, trucks and tractors. They can save you money on new tires, winter or snow tires, or recap service on auto, truck or tractor tires.

And after you've purchased your new tires let them professionally correct any misalignment in your front end and balance your tires, thus ending the excessive tire wear and shimmying.

The editors of this 1971 Town and Country Review are pleased to recommend this first rate tire dealer to our many friends in the area.

AMERICAN HIGH PERFORMANCE

HERBERT (CORK) BLISS - Owner

If you want better performance from your family sedan or from your AA fuel funny car, see the American High Performance, located at 5840 Common in Lake Charles, phone 478-4700.

This firm features a complete engine rebuilding service including blueprinting, crankshaft grinding and stroking, piston pin fitting or floating, head milling, porting and "C Clag", along with other special services.

From the front of your car to the rear, they can supply you with the best components for your digger, sport car, family sedan or dune buggy.

They specialize in engine balancing, slider clutch adjustments, shift-lock hydros and clutch flite transmissions and "Detroit Locker" rear ends.

So, for a "boss" engine and a mean machine, remember to see them first.

We, the editors of this 1971 Town and Country Review, would like to single out this fine firm as one of the leaders in their field of automotive performance specialists.

Remember that man in your life with a special Christmas present in the form of an automotive high performance item from American High Performance this year, he'll love it.

Look for silvery bloom on berries

When buying fresh blueberries look for a dark blue color with a silvery bloom. This silvery bloom, a natural protective, waxy coating that is a good indication of quality. Buy blueberries that are plump, firm, uniform in size, dry and free from stems and leaves.

GRAND CHENIER NEWS

By ELORA MONTIE

We had a very unusual Christmas Day. The weather was warm with folks wearing short sleeves and many Poinsettas in bloom in yards.

Churches were filled with out-of-town as well as local folks.

The Christmas lighting contest was a big success. Very many beautiful outdoor decorations were seen. One unusual scene was the first decorative boat seen here at the Chenier, that of Claude V. (Pete) McCall's Sunrise II docked at the warf along the Mermenteau River. Lights were strung along the outline of the boat and Santa with a bag of toys on the top of the boat waved to everyone.

WATER RECEDING

Although the water has receeded some at the Chenier many pastures and much grazing land are still covered. Cattlemen are still kept busy, and as expected, the mosquitoes came after the rains.

Many cattlemen are also trying to do some trapping.

Alvin Conner and Guy Murphy Jr. are both in South Cameron hospital recovering from the flu.

Mrs. Alvin Conner is at home also with the flu.

VISITORS

Spending Christmas with Mrs. Emily Theriot here were Miss Marilyn Miller of New Orleans and Miss Annie Laurie Miller and a friend of Baton Rouge.

Creole lighting winners named

The Joe O'Donnell home won first place in the overall outdoor Christmas decorations category in the annual Christmas Lighting contest sponsored by the Creole Home Demonstration club. The O'Donnells received a Sunbeam frypan as their prize, donated by the Jeff Davis Electric Coop.

Mrs. Alma Rome's home won the second place award and a hi-intensity lamp donated by the Gulf Appliance Store.

Third place prize was won by the Robert Montie family. They received a carving set from the Creole Home Demonstration club.

Honorable mentions went to the Robert Wickes, the Clifford Conners and the J. H. Monties.

The Clifford Myers home received first place award in the door decorations category, and a 12 quart gumbo pot donated by Nunez grocery.

Second place in this category went to the Winston Theriot family. Their prize was a chip and dip set from the Cameron State Bank.

Third place award went to the Jerry Broussard family, a carving set sponsored by the Creole HDC.

Honorable mentions went to the Tom Mudd and Ray Conner families. Judges for the Creole event were from the Cameron HD club. The winners are pictured above. Top photo: Left to right: Mrs. Joe O'Donnell, Mrs. Alma Rome and Mike and David Monie, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montie.

Lower photo: Mrs. Clifford Myers, Mrs. Winston Theriot, Mrs. J. T. Primeaux and Mrs. Jerry Broussard.

G. Chenier winners

"Lollipop Lane" Santa's dream of Christmas, won for the Robert Mhire family the first place award in the annual Grand Chenier outdoor lighting contest sponsored by the Grand Chenier Home Demonstration club.

All of the decorations in the Mhire's outdoor display were made by hand by the whole family. The snowflakes hanging from the trees were made by covering straws with aluminum foil. The lighted lollipops were also handmade. The christmas wreath on the front porch was made from dried corn husks painted gold.

The Vallian J. Theriot home captured the second place prize. It told the story of "The Night before Christmas". The children nestled in their beds were featured, while Santa was on the roof climbing down the chimney. There was a fireplace and a very cozy setting in the room below.

Third place winner was the Curley Vincent's "Winter Wonderland". The small animals in a snow-covered woods were all waiting and watching as Santa, on his sleigh with reindeers came riding through the brush.

The nativity scene created by Elora Montie won an honorable mention. The stable was complete with all the animals and the three wise men, with Mary, Joseph and the Child Jesus. Angels flew above and a large star shined down on the entire scene.

Also winning honorable mention was a very beautifully lighted "Sunrise No. II", a party boat owned by Claude V. "Pete" McCall, anchored in the Mermentau River, near the State Park. A friendly Santa Claus reigns overall outlined by strings of lights. The decorated boat was an added attraction to the lighting contest this year.

Mrs. Guthrie Perry, club president was in charge of the contest this year and judges were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Choyea and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Williams, all of Lake Charles.

Jeff Davis Elec. Coop. furnished the first prize, Crain Bros. of Grand Chenier furnished the second prize and the HD club gave the third place prize.

Takes and Mrs. Joe Takes from Davenport, Iowa visited the Nunez family earlier in the day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Takes from Davenport, Iowa spent Christmas with their daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and Tommy Joe.

Mrs. Madeline Bailey from Ottumuwa, Iowa arrived in Houston Monday. She will spend the winter months with her sons, John and Roy Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Nunez moved back to their home since the water has gone down some. Mr. Big Nunez cut a hole in his levee to help reduce the water level on his property. The marsh is still full of water. Mr. Big reported the level has droppe about one inch each day. They are still running their pumps, they feel like it will take about one month to drain all the water to normal level.

Many castles

Castles have been part of Spain so long that the name "castillo" was given to Castile, the nation's central region, and to many cities and villages.

about 50 revolutions per minute. Miller said that no fur trapper should be without one.

From the washer the pelts go to the wringers. There is one each for the muskrats and nutrias. The muskrat wringer is not set as heavy as the nutria wringer to take off less meat, making the hide heavier.

The pelts are then put into huge driers (the Millers' fur house contains two) where they are dried for 15 minutes. Each drier holds 150 muskrats of 100 nutria pelts at one time.

The pelts are then removed from the driers and stretched on fur stretchers and hung in the fur house.

When the drying process is completed, Fletcher removes the pelts from the stretchers and grades them by putting them in stacks according to size and quality.

After the careful grading, the pelts are ready for sale to buyers who bid on the trappers' catches.

The best ones end up at the huge auction houses in London, New York, Leningrad, Montreal, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Winnepeg, and Seattle.
