On the requests for replacement culverts and maintenance work, surveyees and canals in the Holly Beach area and area to the east, the board will replace the culvert south of the dump (east of Hwy. 27) and repair ditch (maintenance work) when machine is available.

The Paul Hannen request was referred to CPPJ and has been completed.

The Utley Trahan request has been completed.

Lloyd Badon has checked the Dwight Erbelding request, motion by Rogerest Romero, 2nd by Ivan Barentine, passed, to replace/repair culvert.

Executive Secretary Rodney Guilbeaux reported on various meetings. The Cameron Prairie Refuge dedication by U.S. Senator John Breaux and the 5 CWPPRA projects were held at the Cameron Parish Extension Service center on Tues., Aug. 12th. The marsh meeting of the state conservation districts at the Fina Camp west of Holly Beach was a 2 day event with slide presentations, field trips, panel discussions, etc., on Tuesday, August 12th and Wednesday August 13th. Guilbeaux conducted a slide presentation on La. Hwy. 82 and the Constance Beach breakwaters and led two field trips to that area. He then attended a two day coach 2050 district 4 meeting in Abbeville on Thursday and Friday August 15th and 16th. This is a local, state and federal partnership cooperative effort on developing in 18 months a technically sound plan to sustain coastal resources and provide an integrated multiple use approach to ecosystem management.

The SBA has a tax lien on GDD #7 for $3234.07 (for taxes owed for 1996.) Taxes were paid, a mix up on federal EIN credits resulted in the refund of $2390.66 being refunded to CPPJ. That refund has been returned to Gravity Drainage District No. 7 and that amount is being returned upon the IRS. Still in contention is penalty and interest on that amount.

The board reviewed that SWLR draft permit for control structures at Hog Island Gully, Headquarters Canal and West Cove. The Exec. Secty. was instructed to acquire another copy of draft dated 9/4/96.

New relays were installed in A/C units at board office and office at shop and another discussion on a computer for the office.

Talks About Cameron State Bank
"Cameron State Bank was extremely helpful in the process of building my new store. They went out of their way to make things go smoothly. If I had a question, they were there to answer it. And since I was a local businessman, and the people who made the decisions about my loan were also local, they worked very closely with me to find the best ways to make the expansion plans work. That's what makes Cameron State Bank different – it's local people helping the community grow."

Sugarcane becomes a Cameron Parish crop

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

A new agriculture crop has been introduced to Cameron Parish--the growing of sugarcane.

Last week two fields totaling about 200 acres on the farm of Elaine Hebert and her son, Glenn, at Sweet Lake, was planted to sugarcane.

The Heberts have joined a Calcasieu Parish Cooperative, Walker Louisiana Properties and Prairie Land Company, managed by J. C. (Jack) Chelette, in the sugarcane enterprise.

Chelette, who has been in agricultural management since he graduated from McNeese University,has been working on bringing sugarcane to Southwest Louisiana for six years. He brought to the industry to Calcasieu Parish two years ago.

He said he had been looking for an alternate crop for rice and soybeans, which markets have been on the decline.

His company formed a cooperative with sugar mills and farmers who had lands for lease, and others who agreed to buy and service the Co-op.

Elaine Hebert, Glenn and his wife Peggy, had been farming rice and beans for years in the Hebert-Precht Partnership, a family operation. This year they pulled their land out of the partnership and joined the Co-op to become the first commercial sugarcane farmers in Cameron Parish.

The Co-op plants and harvests Billit cane (no burning of fields), and says that they have found that can grown in this area is sweeter than that grown in other areas and should make very good sugar.

The cane is planted in September by contract laborers from Mexico, and harvested in November or December by cutters from Australia.

The stalks for the planting are cut from one field in about three foot strips and are transferred to the worked up fields, which have been disked up several times, with fertilizer and lime added as needed.

After the rows are made they are opened up and three rows at a time are filled with three stalks of cane by the laborers who walk in back of the cane filled trucks.

A packer comes in, closing the rows, 3 at a time, and waters the plants as it goes. Each node in the cane stalk will sprout into a stalk of cane.

At least three harvestings can be obtained from a planting, and in the case of the Cameron Parish soil, it is believed that they will be able to get four.

Since the sugarcane has to be well drained, unlike rice which is planted in water, it requires plenty of drainage, so a drain ditch is installed every 64 rows.

Stan Sweeney furnishes the laborers who do the planting, here on an agricultural visa from Mexico.

Sweeney also furnishes laborers to do tree plantings in a three state area and picks them up in Mexico to stay in the States for three months at a time.

He grew up on a tomato farm in Arkansas, and said he picked up the Spanish language when he was 12 years old and worked side by side with Mexican laborers on the family farm.

This has enabled him to work with his laborers and make the arrangements with the governments of the United States and Mexico for their temporary visas.

The laborers are usually from the same families, or friends from the same villages.

The Mexicans are very loyal and hard workers, Sweeney said, and he assumes the full responsibility for their care, health, housing and food.

HWY. DEPT. SECRETARY SAYS:

Bridge or no bridge--the Monkey Island ferry going!

The Secretary of the State Dept. of Transportation and Development advised Rep. Dan Flavin in a letter this week that the alternative to the proposed low level bridge to Monkey Island is no bridge and the termination of the Monkey Island Ferry.

Secretary Frank M. Denton wrote Rep. Flavin:

"Local constituents should be aware of, and grateful, you and Senator Theunissen were able to obtain any funding for a bridge over Calcasieu Loop, given the enormous backlog of transportation infrastructure projects throughout the state.

"The alternative to such a bridge, as funded, is no bridge and termination of state operated ferry service for such a limited customer basis. We would, of course, consider a proposal by Cameron Parish or a private operator to take over operation of the ferry."

The Legislature recently appropriate funds for the construction of a low-level bridge to replace the Monkey Island ferry.

At a hearing held by the Police Jury last week, some land owners on the Island as well as some marine operators objected to placing the bridge at the present ferry site as they said it would cause a hardship on boat operators and also present a silting problem.

Other parties, including a number of families living on the island, welcomed the proposed bridge.

The proposed bride will be 30 foot wise and about 900 feet long. It will allow for 10 feet of vertical clearance above mean high water and 65 feet of horizonal clearance between bridge piers.

Flavin says ferry will be shut down

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Cameron has no option in getting a Monkey Island high level bridge, Rep. Dan Flavin informed a packed crowd in the Police Jury room Thursday night. He said the State Department of Transportation has made a final decision that it will put a low level bridge across the river from Cameron to Monkey Island, and will shut down the ferry that now services the island. The bridge will be installed where the ferry is now located.

Local fishermen and Monkey island landowners had asked for a high level bridge that would not be a hindrance to navigation so they could get under it to go to the ice house that is located west of the bridge site. If not they would have to go around the island, out into the Gulf, and up the Calcasieu pass to get back to the ice house and fuel dock.

Frankie Henry and his son, Scott, also spoke opposing the low level bridge. Their family owns 25% of Monkey Island, and 95% of the waterfront industrial property and they said if the low level bridge is built a plug will be formed because the wash from the boats is needed to keep the river deep enough for navigation.

Flavin said that local residents are lucky the state just didn't pull the ferry out and leave the island with no access at all.

Scott Henry pointed out that fishermen and the oil company boats would spend at least two hours trying to go around the island to get to the fuel docks and ice house from their docks on the east side of the bridge.

"When the Calcasieu Ship Channel was dug for a straight shot up the river to lake Charles, Monkey Island was formed cutting it off from the mainland, the high level bridge should have been put in right then before the area was developed," Henry said.

Ed Kelley, secretary-treasurer of the West Cameron Port Commission, said the commission has 150 acres of land on the island and they are very anxious to develop it. He is also a member of the Cameron Tourist Commission, which wants to develop a Battle of Calcasieu Park on the island, which is the site of the Civil War battle in which the Confederates defeated the Union forces. He said the commission has already lost a government grant because of the poor access to the island.

Flavin said he is excited about the many things that can be developed in Cameron, which he said "has more possibilities for development than any area in the state". He also said that the Corps of Engineers promised the dredging of the loop to 30 feet. Flavin said the state also plans to overlay the road on Monkey Island.

Letters in favor and opposing of the low level bridge to the island were sent in with the report on the meeting, with the fishermen opposing it, and most of the landowners opposing it, and many others being in favor of it.

Meeting set on fish laws

Many new regulations affecting fishing were passed in the 1997 Legislative Session. Most of these laws are already in effect. In an effort to clear up misunderstandings and confusion a meeting on the new regulations and policies will be held Fri., Sept. 12, at 1 p.m. in the Cameron Parish Police Jury Annex.

Many of the new regulations will affect the way most fishermen do business. Anyone involved in the fishing industry is urged to attend. For additional information, call Kevin A. Savoie with the Louisiana Extension Service, 318-775-5516.

Man indicted for murder

A Sulphur man has been indicted on a first degree murder charge by the Cameron Parish grand jury.

Joshua Brown, 24, of Sulphur is charged with the slashing the throat of his Hackberry girl friend, Christina Simon, 21, in July.

Simon was killed at the Hackberry home where she lived with her parents. They were not home at the time of the slaying.

There is no bond in capital cases, according to District Attorney Glenn Alexander.

He said one attorney has been appointed for Brown, but two are required in murder cases and a second defense attorney has not been appointed yet.

Alexander said Brown will probably go to trial early next year.

All McNeese coaches at Lions meet

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

"I don't want to talk about last year, we had no depth, but we have it now," McNeese Head Coach Bobby Keasler told the Cameron Lions Club last week.

Keasler, Athletic Director Sonny Watkins, and seven other coaches were guests at the noon meeting of the club.

Keasler said he and his staff went out to various junior colleges and recruited players for the team, and said he is very impressed with the players who were recruited.

He commented on the large players, saying they had to get a set of livestock scales installed ina the Cowboy dressing room to weigh them.

"We really feel good about our line-up. We have speed, maturity, and depth, a great staff, and hard workers", he said.

Oil, gas companies protest their taxes

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Tuesday Cameron Parish Clerk of Court Bobby Conner appeared before the Cameron Parish Police Jury, along with John Landry representing oil and gas companies, in regard to letters of protest to 1997 ad valorem tax assessments and the collection of taxes on oil and gas wells.

Conner reported that there had been 48 protests received in his office from oil companies on their assessments.

He introduced a representative of Prichard and Abbot Company, an expert on appraisals, which he has hired to do the appraisals in Cameron Parish on gas plants. The jury agreed to go along with Conner's handling of the matter.

Dennis Arnold, representing the Cameron Telephone Company, presented to the jury a framed print by artist Marty Busch, which was the print on the front of the Cameron Telephone book this year, to be hung in the Police Jury Building.

The Jury ratified the calling of election District No. 4 Drainage District in the Creole area for Nov. 18. The millage is for 11 mills for the $1.2 million project and 5.51 mills for maintenance. The district has been suffering for some time with drainage problems and has held several meetings on the matter. Parish Engineer Lonnie Harper has designed a layout of the whole area which should solve the drainage problems when complete.

The Jury president was given the authority to sign a contract, Off-System Bridge Rehabilitation and Replace Program (the bridge at the eCreole intersection replacement, which will cost $100,000) and the Calcasieu Parish Police Jury Interagency Agreement in Christmas Tree Funds. Tina Horn, Parish Administrator, reported that this will give the parish $18,000 more for the project when Calcasieu joins in the program which will be for the used Christmas trees from both parishes to be laid in the Cameron marsh areas.

The parish sick leave policy that was recently approved was again reviewed and the jurors agreed to discuss it further in a committee meeting when the jury tied on a 3 to 3 vote for a change, with Dusty Sandifer, Brent Nunez, and George Hicks voting to leave it as is, and Douaine Conner, Malcolm Savoie and George LeBoeuf voting for a change.

Budget amendments were made with an increase of $151,133 in the General Fund, $133,485 in the Road and Bridge Fund, and $42,732 in the Library Fund.

Condemnation hearings on the following land owners who were notified that their dilapidated housing would be condemned and torn down if it was not fixed, was deferred to the October meeting: Rapheal Bargeman, Alice Brown, Swannie Felton, Angeline Gause, Ben Gauthier, John Wesley Godette, Bertha Nolan, Gloria Pettiway, Shanita Ramirez, Sophie Savoie and Claire Speight.

RAISES GIVEN

Salary adjustments were made to Police Jury employees: $100 a month raise to the constables and justices of the peace until May of 1998, and the $100 will be taken away from those who are not certified at that time. LeBoeuf voted no, and Malcolm Savoie abstained.

Buck Stephenson, Justice of the Peace in the Sweet Lake area, explained that the local justices of the peace are trying to upgrade the offices by handling cases locally that would have to go through the 38th Judicial District Court in Cameron.

The local area justices can handle cases of up to $2,000 in local courts, even to DWI's. To be certified, the local justices have to take a 3-day course to be schooled at various times of the year. They can also give tickets for littering and other charges.

The jury set the part-time employees salary (garbage held) at $6.25 an hour, up from the present $5.87. All raises are to start Sept. 1, 1997.

Douaine Conner moved that the Civil Defense Director be given a raise of $25 a month, but it died for lack of a second. It was pointed out that Pete Picou already receives an annual salary of $6,000 plus retirement benefits and full insurance coverage to head the parish civil defense.

The jury agreed that the salary for the new IMCAL director for Cameron Parish would receive a salary of $28,00 annually, with full benefits and insurance. The position is open and applications are now being taken.

George LeBoeuf reported that he is still getting complaints from fishermen on Grand Geophysical Company which is doing seismograph work in inshore waters off Cameron.

George Hicks was given permission from the jury to come up with an agreement on Dugas Landing, which is having a bad problem with erosion problems along the Calcasieu River in Hackberry.

Permission was granted by the jury to put up a street light in Hackberry at Highway 27 and Dugas Road, which is a check point for the parish civil defense in case of hurricane evacuation.

Savoie asked that wetland permit application fees go to the individual drainage districts, but the jury agreed to discuss it further at their monthly claims meeting.

Brent Nunez reported to the jury that Amoco Oil Co. is selling 60,000 acres of land in Louisiana and Texas, and suggested that the jury consider making a bid for some of the land on sale in the parish for economic development such as an industrial park.

"I feel like we would be missing the boat if we would let this once in a lifetime chance pass us by", he said. Bids must be in by Oct. 1, 1997.

Dove season opens on 6th

No, Louisiana dove season isn't shorter this year. It's actually longer - 70 days instead of 60 - it's just starting a little later. Federal frameworks under which Louisiana sets its migratory bird regulations require dove season to open no earlier than Sept. 1. In most years, dove season opens the Saturday of Labor Day weekend, which this year falls in August. As a result, the opening has been pushed back to Sept. 6.

The 1997-98 dove season is divided into three splits, the first from Sept. 6 to Sept. 14, the second from Oct. 18 to Nov. 17 and the third from Dec. 13 - Jan. 11.

The daily bag limit is 12. Possession limit is 24. Shooting hours are on-half hour before official sunrise to sunset except on Sept. 6 - 7, Oct. 18 - 19 and Dec. 13 - 14 when shooting hours are noon to official sunset.

The Metropolitan Opera House in New York City is the largest opera house in the world, it has a standing and seating capacity of 4,065.

SHELL SPREADING

Spreading of shell on the Gulf Beach Highway between hackberry oil field and the town of Cameron has begun. This work, long talked, planned, and worked for, is now in actual progress.

W. T. Burton of Sulphur, contractor for the completion of this first modern highway to the town of Cameron from the outside world, has finished digging barge canals into the right-of-way of the road for the movement of shells to it from the shell beds of lower Cameron and at this time has approximately 1,000 yards of the highway hardsurfaced.

Floyd Hamilton of Lake Charles, state highway engineer who supervised the construction of the grade more than a year ago and is now in charge of the engineering work for the state in connection with trestles through Cameron marshes and the spreading of shell, stated last night that rains are delaying work, but with the summer months ahead, rapid progress is expected.

FISHING NEWS

Anglers are still enjoying our national refuges which are still open to sports fishing. It's still early morning, late evening fishing the trails with topwater spinner baits and plastic worms and frogs. Fish the heavy stuff with spoon and pork chunk.

An 8-4 bass was taken out of Lacassine Refuge this past weekend by a Hayes angler. A picture was taken and the fish weighed and released.

Week 18 of the dogfights saw a 3 bass limit of 10-23 pounds, the largest fish, 7.22, coming out of Lacassine Refuge.

On the saltwater scene, Calcasieu Lake has slowed some, but red fish have moved in toward the Prien Lake area, and some nice ones caught.

NEWS BRIEFS

Oyster season for Calcasieu Lake and Sabine Lake is due to open Oct. 16 to Apr. 30. Louisiana oysters are a delicacy enjoyed by many people throughout the country. Wide-spread reports have talked on contamination of oysters by sewage-born virus and has decreased the demand for Gulf Coast oysters and it has also lowered the price our fishermen get per sack.

The LDWF encourages oystermen as well as recreational boaters and anglers to help take care of state waters. Bring all your trash and sewage back to shore. Overboard discharges of sewage from boats has caused closures to our east a couple of years ago. If we all work together, we could protect the Louisiana oyster grounds and give our state a better image.

HUNTING BRIEFS

Alligator harvest opens Sat., Sept. 6; Dove season opens Sat., Sept. 6 (remember, dove shooting on first weekend starts at noon to sunset), daily bag limit 12, possession, 24.

Sat., Sept. 27, has been proclaimed Louisiana National Hunting and Fishing Day. Events take place at Waddil Refuge located around Baton Rouge, Minden, Monroe, and Natchitoches. Activities will include demonstrations and exhibits, plus recreational canoeing, fishing, BB gun shooting, skeet shooting, muzzleloaders, archery and duck and goose calling, plus bow shooting, flay casting, and more.

GOOSE HUNT

Snow and Blue, Nov. 8-Feb. 22, 107 days, daily bag 10, possession 30.

Speckle Belly, Nov. 8-30, 23 days; Dec. 13-Jan. 28, 47 days, daily bag 2, possession 4.

Canada Goose, Jan. 20-28, only 1 daily or 1 speckle belly, and 1 Canada goose, possession twice daily limit.

Remember, for Canada Geese a special non-refundable $5 permit is required. Check the certain boundaries for Canada geese that are legal to hunt. Shooting hours one half hour before sunrise to sunset.

DOGFIGHT TIME

I don't know if you've noticed but our days are starting to get shorter. Since July sunrise and sunset have been creeping a minute or two each day. Example: On June 7, sunrise was 6:10 a.m., and July 7, sunset was 8:18 p.m. Now, Sept. 4, sunrise is 6:51 a.m. and sunset is 7:32 p.m. It will keep getting shorter and then when the time changes one hour sure sees it get dark early.

DID YOU KNOW?

For folks who throw containers overboard or on roadsides, plastic will stay for years and years, but glass never wears out; it can be recycled forever.

WHO'S DAY?

For all the grandpas and grandmas, Sept. 7, is "Grandparents Day". Grandkids, don't forget the day, and show them your love.

Boys invited to Cub Scouts

All area boys in grades 1-5 are invited to join Cub Scout Pack 210. A sign-up will be held Mon., Sept. 8, at 6 p.m. at Wakefield Methodist Church for all interested boys.

Sabine Refuge to open Sept. 20 for teal season

The Sabine National Wildlife will open Sept. 20, 21, 24, 27 and 28, for the teal season, Refuge Manager A. W. Nidecker announced. The dates reflect the refuge's hunting format of Wednesdays, Saturdays, and Sundays, only. The designated hunt area contains 24,000 acres and is the same area that has been hunted in the past years.

Teal hunting will be permitted until noon each day of the teal season. All persons 16 years of age or older participating in the hunt must be legally licensed to hunt waterfowl in the State of Louisiana. All hunters are required to check in at the check station before hunting and check out upon completion of their hunt.

Refuge teal hunters should be extra cautious this season. They will be sharing the West Cove parking lots, canals and bayous with fishermen. Teal hunters may enter the West Cove parking area to line up their boats for launching at 4:30 a.m. Teal hunters will be permitted to enter the refuge two hours before legal shooting hours. Legal shooting time is one half hour before sunrise. Teal hunters will complete their hunt and be out of the refuge by noon. Nidecker continued.

Nontoxic shot shells are required for hunting teal. Steel shot, steel shot reloads and bismuth-tin shot may be used.

There is no minimum age for youth hunters. They must have proof with them for successfully completing the Hunter's Safety course in order to enter the refuge hunt area. Each hunter under the age of 16 must be under the close supervision of an adult. For safety reasons, each adult may have only one juvenile under his supervision.

The use of motors to run boats in the marsh is prohibited, Nidecker noted. The operation of trolling motors is permitted.

The refuge hunting brochure is also a permit to enter the refuge. It must be signed and in the hunter's possession while on the refuge. The permit is free and is good for the early teal season and regular waterfowl season.

Additional information, copies of regulations or maps of the hunt area may be obtained by writing to: Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, 3000 Holly Beach Hwy., Hackberry, La. 70645 or by calling (318) 762-3816.

Alligator hunters are asked to check for tags

Louisiana's 30-day alligator season begins Sat., Sept. 6, and all trappers are asked to check alligators for foot-web tags placed previously by Department of Wildlife and Fisheries personnel.

LDWF biologists and technicians capture, mark and release several thousand wild alligators annually from various habitats. Two or more metal tags are also placed in the webbing between the gator's toes. Each tag is numbered for identification. Sex of the alligator is also recorded. Alligators returned to the wild from alligator farms are marked in a similar fashion.

Long-term alligator research evaluates movement patterns, survival, growth and dispersal. Alligator trappers, workers, processors and skinners are encouraged to help the research program by carefully checking harvested alligators for tail notches and/or toe tags.

Recaptured alligators can be reported by calling Rockefeller Wildlife Refuge (318/538-2276) or your local Wildlife and Fisheries office. Recapture forms supplied to trappers at the time of alligator tag issuance should also be mailed to the Department.

"The total length of the alligator and the entire number on the toe tag are the most important data to be recorded and returned," said LDWF Fur and Refuge biologist Ruth Elsey. "Additional data such as harvest location, body condition or weight of the animal is also appreciated."

The 1997 wild alligator harvest season runs from Sept. 6 through Oct. 5. Louisiana's thriving alligator population continues to support the largest wild harvest in the United States. Data compiled by LDWF biologists indicates that nest production was excellent this year in areas experiencing optimum water conditions.

According to LDWF's Fur and Refuge Division, the wild harvest generated nearly $9 million for Louisiana's economy last year.

Licenses, tags and information packets for alligator season are available at LDWF district offices, Rockefeller Refuge and at the Baton Rouge, New Iberia and Bourg offices.

Gator hunting opens in Sabine Refuge Saturday, Sept. 6

The Sabine National Wildlife refuge will be open to alligator hunting Sept. 6 - 12. The ten permitted gator hunters will take up to 1134 alligators from the refuge. The hunters will be taking their quota by hook and line sets. They will be setting their lines on Sept. 5. Refuge Manager Will Nidecker reminds all refuge visitors to please not tamper with the alligator sets.

Refuge visitors using the West Cove Recreational Area are asked to be especially respectful of each other during this period. The West Cove Recreational Area will be used by refuge biologists to gather data from alligator hunters, fishermen and teal hunters and their harvest.

Tarpons show stuff in Jamboree game

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons put 16 points on the board in the first half, then scored again in the second half as they demolished the Barbe JV 22-0 in the Iowa Jamboree.

The Tarpons had possession first and on the third play Steve Moore broke loose for a 57-yard touchdown. A couple of plays later the Tarpons John Pradia intercepted a pass and returned it to the Buc 10.

The Tarpons John Mark Montie hit an 18 yard field goal to put the Tarpons up 10-0. The Tarpons final touchdown of the half came when Ryan Billingsley caught a 30 yard touchdown pass.

The Tarpons final touchdown of the night came on a run with less than two minutes left in the game.

The Tarpon defense was all over the ball, the Barbe team never once seriously threatened to move the ball with any consistency.

South Cameron rushed for 116 yards in the short game and passed for at least 50 yards. The Tarpons open the season this Friday at home against DeQuincy. This should be a much more severe test than the Barbe J.V.

Bike-A-Thon set Sept. 13

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital has announced plans for the Hackberry "Wheels For Life" Bike-A-Thon to be held Sept. 13 at 9:30 a.m. at the Hackberry High School. Coordinator for this year's event is Glenda Abshire who encourages all residents and businesses to support this community project.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, founded in 1962 by the late entertainer Danny Thomas, is the largest childhood cancer research center in America in terms of the number of patients treated and treatment success. Treatment was provided at no cost to the family and all findings are shared freely with doctors and hospitals all over the world.

In the "Wheels For Life Event," participants ask sponsors to make a donation based on each mile completed. All participants turning in money will receive a certificate. Those who raise $35 or more will receive a certificate and a special St. Jude t-shirt. When $75 or more is raised, the participant receives a sports bag in addition to the certificate and t-shirt.

"The real prize, though, is the pride everyone can take in giving children a chance to live a normal life," Abshire said.

Contact Glenda Abshire, 762-3938 for details on participating or becoming a sponsor. Sponsor forms can picked up at the Hackberry Recreation Center, Hackberry High School, Cameron State Bank, and Glenda Abshire's residence.

The Cameron Parish Police Jury will consider resolutions on two bridges at Cameron at a special agenda meeting to be held at 5 p.m., Tuesday, Sept. 16 at the Police Jury building.

A resolution is expected to be offered approving state plans to construct a low level bridge connecting Monkey Island and Cameron at the present Monkey Island site.

The Louisiana Legislature has approved funds for the construction of the bridge and the La. Dept. of Transportation has announced its intention to shut down the Monkey Island ferry.

Some marine operators and land owners oppose a low level bridge at the proposed site, but state officials have indicated that the ferry will be closed whether a bridge is built or not.

Cameron Police Juror George LeBouef predicted the jury will approve a resolution endorsing the Monkey Island bridge. "We don't have any choice," he said.

Also up for discussion at the Tuesday meeting will be a proposed feasibility study on the construction of a bridge over the Calcasieu ship channel, a project that has been talked about for years.

LeBouef said parish officials recently met with the engineer that designed the Sabine Causeway bridge to get his ideas on a ship channel bridge.

It was generally agreed that a high level bridge might not be practical because of the cost and due to the elevation needed to clear ship traffic.

LeBouef said it was suggested that the bridge be constructed with two left spans which could be raised to permit ships to pass.

He also noted that the Legislature has given Cameron permission to set up a bridge authority and issue revenue bonds to be repaid with fares. He said that motorists already are paying fares to use the state ferry on the channel.

LeBouef said a $200,000 feasibility study has been proposed to look at all aspects of the bridge construction and financing.

The juror said that with the big increase in oil and gas operations in Cameron parish, the amount of traffic on the ferry has increased greatly and can justify the construction of a bridge.

Cameron's dual bridge problems were created years ago when the Lake Charles ship channel was dredged following the channel of the Calcasieu River.

A loop of the river at Cameron was cut off so as to shorten the channel thereby creating Monkey Island. At the time the Corps of Engineers promised Cameron to construction a bridge to the island, but the promise was never kept.

Although the Calcasieu River could have easily been crossed by a low level bridge, following the creation of the ship channel this was not an option due to the large ships using the channel.

SOME PARENTS ARE UPSET

New bus policy protested

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

A dozen parents and grandparents of Cameron Parish school students appeared before the school board Tuesday to voice their anger over a new school bus policy.

At issue is the regulations eliminating buses traveling down private roads or lanes under three tenths of a mile from the main highway. Now students must walk to the main road to catch the bus, and the parents are concerned for their safety.

Ron Vining, school transportation director, pointed out that under the new regulations 63 lanes were affected with 30.4 miles per day at 40 cents per mile which equals a savings of $2,164.48 annually.

Board member Bill Morris said he felt the concerns of the parents and that cuts should be made in other areas.

Marlene Leger of Grand Lake said she didn't understand why the board is jeopardizing the safety of the children to save a little money and urged the board to reject the new policy.

Bobbie Menard said she has to leave for work early and her aging parents have to walk her three children out to the road to wait for the bus to be sure they are safe.

Mrs. Leger presented a petition with 153 signatures protesting the new policy.

Dwight Erbelding of Johnson Bayou offered to pay the extra cost for his grandchildren to be picked up down his lane.

Vining pointed out that the time saved on the new pickup policy is also needed for double busing on some of the routes. Three buses and drivers have also been eliminated saving $39,000 in salaries and $120,000 in bus replacement. He said he has received calls from angry parents calling him all kinds of names.

Morris made a motion to suspend the policy, but it died for lack of a second.

MINERAL BIDS

Following the recommendations from Uland Guidry, the board rejected bids for a mineral lease for all lands owned by the school board in Sections 16-14-5 containing approximately 640 acres as nominated by Kenneth S. Hill Properties, Inc. The board will readvertise.

The board also rejected bids on Section 16-12-5 and entered into a joint service agreement with the Department of Interior, and U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service for $6500 a year, with an option to renew in 5 years. This is located on three sides of Lacassine Refuge.

They voted to advertise for surface leases on Sections 16-12-10 and 16-15-6; and granted permission to new lessee on Section 16-14-5 to have 5 camper trailers on the lease.

They revised the 1997-98 school calendar to add Professional Development Day, Mon., April 13, 1998, as requested by Peggy Boudreaux, Calcasieu Association of Education President.

State salary increases of $350 for support personnel and $1,057 for certified staff were implemented.

A special meeting was set for Sept. 23, at 9:30 a.m. for the adoption of the 1997-98 school budget.

They voted to advertise for a lunchroom manager for Cameron Elementary School.

Dennis Arnold, representing Cameron Telephone Co., presented the school board with a framed picture print of the cover of this year's telephone directory, and Pete Duhon presented each board member with an individual copy.

The board went into executive session to consider a request from an expelled student from South Cameron High School for readmission on a probationary basis.

Grand Lake class learns about parish's wetlands

In Roselyn Harris' sixth grade science class at Grand Lake High School you will find part of Cameron Parish wetlands inside a children's pool.

Before school began this year, she and her husband, Glenn, a biologist at Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuge, and Scott Durham, wetlands manager for Sweetlake Land and Oil Company, ventured out into the marsh near her home and collected vegetation and aquatic animals to create a natural wetland habitat for her students to research, make day to day observations, and conduct controlled experiments.

The pond is a 4 week study in which Harris is implementing a new approach to teaching science.

Harris was one of 25 science teachers in the state selected to participate in the Leadership Institute for Science Teachers at Louisiana Tech University this past summer. Instructors modeled the new scientific approach using lessons that the teachers could take home and use immediately in their classrooms. Later in the course the teachers themselves designed lessons and modeled them at Tech, then made them ready for all to use in their classrooms this school year.

Brooklyn Bowers, a student in the class, said that science is fun, not boring, and she gets to move around a lot. Monica Jennies explained that this is the first year she liked science because of the research she is conducting and because she has the freedom to move about the classroom to do it.

Better Baby contest set

The Calcasieu-Cameron Fair Better Baby Contest will be held Monday, Oct. 6 at the Health Unit building, 201 Edgar, near the Sulphur City Hall.

The contest is for the healthy babies and is not a beauty pageant. The children are judged by qualified nurses who use weight and growth charts in their judging.

There are two age divisions: 3 0 12 months and 12 - 24 months.

The child cannot have reached his or her second birthday by the day of the contest. There are five winners in each division for a total of 10 winners.

The winners receive trophies presented on the Ca.-Cam Fair stage at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 14.

There is no fee to enter and children should be dressed comfortably because the nurses undress the children when judging them to examine the children's eyes, ears, nose, throat and extremities. No parents can be present while the nurses are checking the children.

Winners will be notified by telephone the afternoon after the contest. Fair officials ask that parents not telephone the Calcasieu Parish Health Unit in sulphur as staff will not know any results.

Tarpons will play Lions in Vinton Fri.

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons take their Number 3 state ranking on the road this week as they travel to Vinton for a 7 p.m. kickoff in Lion Stadium. The Lions bring a 1-0 record into the game as they opened the year with a 19-6 win over Lake Arthur.

The Lions had 157 yards rushing with their top rusher Brandon Payne getting 70 yards on 15 carries and Jean Fontenot gaining 59 yards on 11 carries. The Lions scored all their touchdowns on short runs.

Meanwhile South Cameron was scoring 38 points against DeQuincy. They had a very balanced attack scoring two touchdowns through the air and three on the ground.

The Tarpons had at least three strong runners in Brandon Conner, 79 yards; Steve Moore, 72 yards; and John Pradia.

Pradia and John Mark Montie both threw the ball well.

The Tarpons also had five turnovers, three pass interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

The Tarpons should be a definite favorite. One thing they cannot afford to do is look past the Lions in looking at Pickering, next week's opponent at home.

Last year the teams played with the Tarpons registering a 30-0 win.

The Tarpons should win by a count of 31-6, let's get a good crowd up to Vinton for the kickoff.

The Tarpons last week had another strong part of football displayed as they did an excellent job kicking the ball - 5 extra points and one field goal and all the kickoffs into the end zone. The Tarpons also were well disciplined as they were whistled for only 3 penalties.

This is South Cameron's second opponent from District 4AA.

Tarpons shut out Tigers 38-0 here last Friday

By JOE MUELLER

The DeQuincy Tigers have opened the 1997 season with a shutout loss to the South Cameron Tarpons by a score of 38-0. The Tigers could only garner three first downs against the Number 3 2A team in the state.

The Tarpons had a very balanced offensive attack as they scored three touchdowns on the ground and two through the air.

The teams played a scoreless first quarter. Then with 9 minutes left before half time, John Pradia hit Kelly Roberts with a 9 yard pass. John Mark Montie hit the extra point kick and the Tarpons were up 7-0. Less than a minute later the Tarpon's Corey Kelly recovered a Tiger fumble and on the next play Steve Moore ran the ball into the end zone from the 14 yard line. Montie again converted the extra point and the Tarpons went to the locker room at half time up 14-0.

The second half opened with the Tigers taking the kickoff and moving from their 20 to the Tarpon 38 yard line where the Tigers fumbled and it was again recovered by Corey Kelly.

The Tarpons couldn't move the ball and they punted for the only time of the night. Following the punt the Tigers Chad Kellogg had a pass picked off by Brandon Conner and returned to the Tiger 15. Three plays later Conner ran in from the one. So, with 5:30 left in the third quarter, the score was 21-0. In the final quarter the Tarpons scored 17 points, three on a 27 yard pass to Bryan Billings from John Mark Montie, a 30 yard field goal by Montie and a 33 yard run by Jamie DeShields.

The Tarpon defense collected five turnovers, three pass interceptions and two fumble recoveries while limiting the Tigers to only 121 yards of total offense.

Top ground gainers for the Tarpons were Brandon Conner with 79 yards on 18 carries and Steve Moore, 82 yards on 9 carries.

PUBLIC NOTICE
CAMERON PARISH COASTAL USE PERMIT APPLICATION

Interested parties are hereby notified that the Coastal Management section of the Cameron Parish Police Jury has received the following apparently complete application for a Coastal Use Permit in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Louisiana Coastal Resources Program and R.S. 49, 213.1, the State and Local Coastal Resources Management Act of 1978, as amended.

L.C.U.P. Application #970901

Name of Applicant: Pat Pinch, P. O. Box 102, Creole, La. 70632

Location of Work: Cameron, St. Johns Island, Section 14, T14S, R10W, Cameron Parish, Louisiana.

Character of Work: To cut down spoil disposal levee with a dragline and allow for natural refilling of watering hole and high land adjacent to ship channel. This is a spoil disposal area for the Corps of Engineers that was leveled off and revegetated in about ten months ago. The levee on the north side of the spoil area is about 10 feet above marsh level with a 3 foot top. I would like to cut the levee down and put material adjacent inside of spoil area to create a 12' top to be used as a cattle walkway. Approximately 570 cubic yards of sand and clay material to be removed from the top of the levee and used as fill to widen levee.

The Police Jury proposes to issue a permit will be based on an evaluation of the probable impacts of the proposed activity in accordance with the state policies outlined in R.S. 49:213.2. The decision will reflect in the national concern for both protection and utilization of important resources. The decision must be consistent with the state program and approved local programs for affected parishes and must represent an appropriate balancing of social, environmental and economic factors. NEW BASS RECORD

The existing world record hybrid bass record was broken by two pounds. A 27.54 pound hybrid bass was caught on Greers Ferry Lake in Arkansas by a guide while trolling a crank bait. The big fish measured 39.5 inches in length and 25.75 inches in girth. Hybrids are a cross between striped bass and white bass.

Greers Ferry Lake is also the home of the current world record walleye and the world record brown trout was caught in Little Red River, just down stream from Greers Ferry Dam. Not only has Arkansas produced a U. S. President, but also world record fish.

DOG FIGHTS

The week 19 dog fight at Lacassine Refuge had a 3 bass top stringer of 5.84, with the largest bass 2.86. The hot days are taking their toll.

The regional dog fight will be held Sept. 10, while the super dog fight on Toledo Bend will be Sept, 21.

SALTWATER

Bid redfish are being taken in the 27 to 30 inch length in the Mermentau River. Also, nice speckle trout east of the Grand Chenier jetties. Wade fishing along Rutherford Beach and Holly Beach is also paying off.

ATTENTION

To our local anglers who fish Chicot Lake, the draw down started Aug. 15, and the lake is now closed since Labor Day, until the draw down is over.

HUNTING

Dove season opened last Saturday and will close this Sunday, Sept. 14, at sundown.

Many of our dove hunters missed out as they are busy with alligators. For those whodid hunt, some areas had a few doves, especially where grain or goat weeds are plentiful. It's still the early season and the October season is always better.

This time of the year it's very hot, so farm ponds and water holes are good places to be to kill doves. Wear camouflage clothing as doves have keen eyes. Stay still and try to hide as best as possible.

Remember, safety first, as fields get crowded and hunters sometimes get too close to one another. Baiting can be a problem so check the field yourself before you start to hunt. Be careful for the heat, not only for yourself, but for your dog. Remember to bring plenty of water for him and yourself and keep your bag of doves cool so they won't spoil.

Cold fronts will bring doves down, but heavy shooting lots of rain, can make them move. They're here today and gone tomorrow.

Archery season for deer opens Sept. 20, the same day as teal season. This is mostly for private landowners as most refuges don't open their hunting until Oct. Be sure and check around before hunting.

Last year deer season with heavy fogs, hot weather, tropical lows, was tough on deer hunters. Because of this terrible weather, we may have a greater season this fall.

Our harvest last year probably didn't reach 200,000, 20,000 to 25,000 less deer than we normally take. Now, all those deer are a year older and a year bigger, so population should be up and larger deer should be taken.

REMEMBER

All you young hunters, remember you need to take a hunters safety course. If you're born on or after Sept. 1, 1969, this course is necessary to obtain a Louisiana hunting license. Hunters 10 years and older can be certified. Hunters under 10 years of age who successfully participate in a class will get a certificate of attendance, good only for one year. They will be required to repeat the course after turning 10 in order to be certified. Hunters must attend all class meetings, classes cannot be repeated.

The only class close to us at this writing is in Calcasieu Parish and that starts tomorrow, Sept. 12-13. You may call 318-855-3256 but it may be too late or the class could be filled.

FISHING TALES

It has been said that the happiest days of a boat owner's life are the days he buys his boat and the day he sells it.

One needs not to be a musician to love the song of his fishing reel, so if fishing interferes with business, quit the business.

Finally, all liars are not fishermen. Some sell lightning rods, however, the fishermen are the most interested.

SUNRISE-SUNSET

Fri., Sept. 12, 6:55 a.m., 7:22 p.m.

Sat., Sept. 13, 6:56 a.m., 7:21 p.m.

Sun., Sept. 14, 6:56 a.m., 7:20 p.m.

Remember, only 9 days before teal season.

There is suppose to be a hunters education course at Grand Lake High School Vo Ag Dept. in Sweetlake from Oct. 27-29, from 6 to 9:30 p.m. nightly. There will be 30 applicants accepted. You can get this in before regular duck season. Call Gary Poole, Grand Lake High School, 598-3316.

IN MEMORY

MACOLA WILLIS GUTHRIE died Sept. 6, 1997, at South Cameron Memorial Hospital. She was 85 years old. Macola was survived by two sons, Willie T. Guthrie of Fernindina Beach, Fl. and David C. Guthrie of Cameron, La., eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Macola was born in Morehead City, N.C. and was a long time resident of Fernindina Beach, Fl. An avid fisherwoman, many pictures in our photo albums showed her knee deep in the rolling Atlantic surf, casting for the "Big One". Our portrait of her in our minds depicts her as a strong-willed sharp-witted matron of our family. She was respected for her strength and dearly loved, she will be sorely missed.

Red snapper season set

The season for the commercial harvest of red snapper in Louisiana waters was set for Sept. 5-15 and Oct. 1-15. The season will open at 12:01 a.m. on Sept. 5, close at noon on Sept. 15, open at noon on Oct. 1, and close at noon on Oct. 15. Thereafter, the season will open at noon on the first of each month and close at noon on the fifteenth of each month in 1997 until the remainder of the 1997 commercial quota is harvested.

All closing and re-opening dates are contingent on not reaching the harvest quota.

The Louisiana Wildlife and Fisheries Commission voted to accept these harvest season dates at its Sept. 4, meeting. The Commission also authorized the Secretary of the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries to close the commercial red snapper season in Louisiana when he is informed that the commercial quota for the species for the Gulf of Mexico has been filled or is projected to be filled. Any closure by the Secretary will close the season until the date set for the opening of the commercial red snapper season in federal waters, currently set for Feb. 1, 1998.

Children today are on the move—at school and in a variety of extra-curricular activities. They need satisfying meals and fast snacks to keep them going throughout the day.

Refuge is visited by Russian group

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

A delegation of officials from Kazakstan, a former republic of Russian, were guests of the Rockefeller Wildlife Refuge at Grand Chenier last week.

The group was led by Philip J. Manella, an official of Mobil Oil Co. and of the Offshore Kazakstan Internal Oil Co. (OKIOC.) The latter is a consortium composed of seven companies of which Mobile is the only American firm.

Manella said OKIOC is negotiating an agreement with the Kazakstan government to permit seismic operations and drilling for oil in the country.

Kazakstan is now the largest country of Central Asia. Kasakstan obtained its independence from the Soviet Union in 1991. It is bounded by China on the east, Kryzyzstan and Uzbekistan on the south, the Caspian Sea and a small section of Turkmenistan on the west, and Russia on the north.

The delegation is in the United States and Louisiana to get information on the effects of oil drilling on the environment.

Tom Hess, a biologist at Rockefeller, gave a slide presentation to the group who commented on the similarity of the marsh area to the Kazakstan area around the Caspian Sea.

Hess gave a history of Rockefeller Refuge which was given to the state by E. H. McElhenny, of hot sauce fame, with the understanding the funds earned on the refuge would go back for the upkeep of the preserve.

The refuge encourages mineral development, keeping close watch on the operations, and earning millions of dollars through the years from the operations. The area was set aside for the preserve in the 1920's, lands were leased in the 1940's, and drilling was begun in the 1950's, and with careful operation some of these same wells are still producing today.

Only one minor oil spill has occurred on the refuge during all these years, which was quickly cleaned up and no permanent damage occurred, Hess said.

Other topics covered were the hydrology of the marshes, pelican rehabilitation (pelicans in the northeast Caspian region are endangered and rare) , and what has been done to protect them, coastal erosion, fires, research in water control, striped bass rehabilitation (which is similar to sturgeon in the Caspian Sea), and the impact of seismic activity in the refuge.

After the slide presentation, which was interpreted for the visitors, the group was taken to the alligator pens, where the gators were muzzled so they could not bite as pictures were taken.

Others in the group were: Tungatarow Zhakeylyk Sadykovich, 1st Deputy of Atyrau Region; Tkenbaev Zhalga Musaevich, City Mayor; Vikulov Yuri Gurievich, Chief of Atyrau Region Bio Resources and Ecology Department; Karen Zhiger Mentaevich, Senior Doctor of Atyrau Region Hospital; Amigaliev Ualitkhan, Director of Kazak Fishery Research Institute in Atyrau; Kushekov Zhaslylan, journalist of the newspaper "Ak Zhauk"; Bakhmetov Serik, Cameraman from Atyrau TV company; Kuzhagaliev Askar, Director of USC "Kasakstan-caspishelf" Atyrau Branch; Paul Jeffery, NCPT Manager Atyrau; and Yvonne Iwaniuk, Shell Oil External Affairs.

The group came here from New Orleans and Baton Rouge, where they met with Lt. Gov. Kathleen Blanco in the Senate Chamber.

Oil & gas production is up here

When figures for the first half of 1997 were tallied they showed that natural resource production in Cameron Parish well exceeded the levels recorded during the first six months of the previous year.

According to the state Department of Revenue and Taxation, June severance taxes received for work in the parish dipped somewhat in June to $1.5 million, still the sixth highest total in the state. While that is about $100,000 lower than collections during May, it is more than $100,000 higher than the taxes reported for work in the parish during June 1996. The cumulative 1997 total of more than $8.9 million for the first half of the year is almost $1 million more than the tax totals reported between January and June 1996.

Most of the production in the parish during June was attributed to oil, which contributed $966,011 toward the month's total. Natural gas production added another $628,104 to rank the parish fourth in that category.

Severance taxes for June totaled $31.17 million statewide, up from $19.2 million the previous month. That brought the January-June tall to $202.3 million compared to $184.5 million for the same six months of 1996. The June 1996 receipts, however, were higher than this year's, topping $34.6 million overall.

Monkey Island bridge endorsed

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

It took the Cameron Parish Police Jury less than five minutes Tuesday to conduct the business for which it had called a special meeting.

Two resolutions were passed unanimously by jurors present (Douaine Conner and George Hicks were absent.)

One endorsed the construction of a low level bridge to replace the Monkey Island ferry which the La. Dept. of Transportation plans to close. The bridge construction has been approved by the Legislature.

The second resolution concerned undertaking a project to construct a bridge or tunnel connecting the east and west Cameron Parish across the Calcasieu ship channel.

The average daily traffic on the ferry often exceeds 1,000 vehicles per day and requires 24 hour service. The volume of tractor-trailer traffic and commercial vehicles carrying flammable and hazardous materials further restricts cross channel operations.

Lacassine to lease additional acreage

Five Louisiana wildlife refuges got the go-ahead this week to buy or lease more property to expand protection of wintering waterfowl, said Sen. John Breaux (D-La.), a member of the National Migratory Bird Conservation Commission.

Sen. Breaux said the commission meets periodically to approve projects that preserve habitats for such waterfowl as mallards, pintails and wood ducks. Canadian snow and greater white-fronted geese, as well as deer, bear and turkey.

The Senator was named to the commission in April 1996 to help lead the independent federal board in preserving wildlife while also protecting the rights of hunters. Commission members also approve projects that are then funded through various federal, state and private sector wildlife partnerships.

Among the Louisiana projects approved by the commission under the Migratory Bird Conservation Act is Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge, Cameron and Jefferson Davis parishes, to lease 640 acres on a refuge that supports more than 300,000 ducks and 150,000 geese.

Teal hunt to begin on Sept. 20th

Waterfowl numbers are estimated to be near record highs for yet another year, and hunters looking for a taste of September excitement can do no better than take advantage of Louisiana's upcoming nine-day teal hunting season. The season opens at one-half hour before official sunrise on Saturday, Sept. 20, and closes at official sunset on Sunday, Sept. 28.

According to Robert Helm, Department of Wildlife and Fisheries Waterfowl Study Leader, blue-winged teal numbers are at record levels across the continent. They have had four consecutive years of good production associated with good nesting habitat. Having them arrive here is, as always, largely dependent on the weather.

Blue-winged teal make up 90 percent or more of the birds harvested during the September teal season. Hunters may also take green-winged and cinnamon teal, but the season was designed to take advantage of early migration habits of blue-wings. Most blue-wings move through Louisiana and on to South and Central America. Few are normally available during regular waterfowl seasons. Hunters should remember that only blue-wings, green-wings and cinnamon teal are legal to hunt at this time.

Teal season is Sept. 20-28, for blue-winged, green-winged and cinnamon teal only. Daily bag limit is four.Possession limit is 8. Shooting hours are one-half hour before official sunrise to official sunset. Federal and state duck stamps are required.

HUNTING SEASONS

The first split of dove season sure didn't go off with a bang from Cameron going east. Not many doves except the ones that stay and raise here. The Johnson Bayou area had some fair shooting. The weather is just too hot and not enough cool weather to push them down. Let's hope there is enough cooler weather to bring down the teals for this weekend's opening. The alligator hunters said they see a few teals in the marshes, but at this writing, water was awfully low.

Many hunters are really geared up for opening of teal season., opening officially at one half-hour before sunrise on Sat., Sept. 20, until sunset each day until Sun., Sept. 28, 9 days.

Wildlife and Fisheries says blue winged teal numbers are at record levels across the continent, with four consecutive years of good production. Migrations are currently underway and each cool front that comes through will keep them moving further south.

Blue winged teal make up 90 percent of our September teal hunt, but hunters may also shoot green winged and cinnamon teal. Most blue winged teal move through Louisiana and on to South and Central America. Making a good teal hunt in the morning and a good speckle trout and redfish trip in the afternoon makes a good day for the outdoorsmen and women. Don't forget your mosquito spray.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

Alligator harvest is in full swing with most selling their gators whole. Many have tagged out with some tagging out 105 alligators in five days some getting 89 in one day.

It seems the larger gators are bringing less money per foot than say a 7 footer. Prices are fair, but down from last year.

The commercial red snapper harvest for Louisiana waters was set for Sept. 5-15 and Oct. 1-15. The season will open again at noon on Oct. 1 and close at noon on Oct. 15. The season will open at noon on the first of each month and close on the 15th of each month for 1997 until the remainder of the 97 commercial quota is harvested. When closure occurs, it will stay close until Feb. 1, 1998 when the federal waters open.

The 1997-98 trapping season for Louisiana statewide will run Nov. 20 to Mar. 20, and will include all designated Louisiana furbearing species — nutria, muskrat, raccoon, mink, opposum, otter, skunk, red fox, grey fox, bobcat, beaver and coyote.

FISHING REPORT

The hot weather has held down saltwater fishing with speckle trout being especially slow.. Redfish fishing is still good. Lots of surf fishing and it's paying off. Mullets and pogies and live cockahoe minnows are best bait choices.

DOG FIGHTS

Last week the qualifiers for the regional dog fight fished to see which teams go to the Super Dog Fight at Toledo Bend. The top ten finishers per region automatically go on to Toledo Bend. The regular season for anglers to qualify runs 20 weeks.

Calcasieu River will send 16 teams, Lacassine Refuge its top 14, and the Sabine Refuge, its top 12.

At the Super Dog Fight on Toledo Bend, the local regional qualifiers will compete against anglers from the mermentau River, Chicot State Park, Kincaid Lake near Alexandria, Henderson Swamp, as well as the Natchez River out of Beaumont, Tex., and Taylor's Bayou of Nederland, Tex.

Some of our local anglers ho qualified for the reigonal dog fight were: Darren Thibodeaux and Quenton LeBoeuf, 13.05, heaviest stringer of three bass, caught June 23, The top fish, 9.28, caught June 30 by Darren Richard and Todd Conner.

SUPER DOG FIGHT

The Super Dog Fight to be held on Toledo Bend will have our representatives from Cameron Parish. Taking first place team at the regional was Quenton LeBoeuf and Darren Thibodeaux of Creole, with 3 bass weighing 12.41. They also had the largest bass of 5.17. Also, Danny DeMary of Big lake and his partner, Doug Logan, with 4.53 pounds.

STATE ADVISORY

A renewed warning was issued about eating king mackerel caught in the Gulf of Mexico because of elevated levels of mercury. The state health department also advised not eating any fish bigger than 39 inches and smaller fish can be eaten with certain limits. Because of high mercury levels, limited consumption advised also on shark, gafftop, catfish, jack crevalle, spotted seatrout, ladyfish and Spanish mackerel.

NEWS BRIEFS

Freshwater fishing ranks near tops as most popular sport among men, ranking third. The number one sport was lifting free weights, followed by basketball. Fly fishing and saltwater anglers didn't make the top ten. In order, starting with the number 4 spot, was billiards-pool, in-line skating, golf, fitness walking, bowling, running-jogging, and slow pitch softball.

FACTS

Going fishing should be written in three chapters. Anticipation, realization and gratification, so the old yarn about the barefoot boy catching the biggest fish has not kept pace with all the modern improvements.

Court of Sts. Mary, Patrick

The Court Sts. Mary and Patrick #2411 met Sept. 8.

Regent Laudry Darbonne read correspondence form the national office with several suggestions of things the C.D.A. could do to show their stand against pornography. It was decided to have petitions to be signed after all the Masses and send them to our Senators. A person who signed the petition would receive a white lapel ribbon to show their stand against pornography.

Bobbie Thomas, chairman of Pro-Life Activities, gave a report on the seminar she attended in Lake Charles.

Since no one is leading the Rosary before the Saturday afternoon Mass and the 8 and 10:30 Masses on Sunday morning, someone suggested that the C.D.A. take the responsibility of having someone lead the Rosary at all the Masses.

It was also decided on meeting night to meet at 6:45 to recite the Rosary.

In the adopt-a-shut-in program, a list was compiled and passed around. Each member put their name next to the person they were adopting.

Weather bureau offers better coverage here

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Stephen K. Rinard, Meteorologist-in-charge of the Lake Charles Weather Bureau, was the guest speaker at the Cameron Lions Club meeting last week.

He reported that the Weather Bureau has revamped the local Doppler radar system to give even better coverage of the local weather. He extended an invitation for everyone to visit the Lake Charles office.

He gave a slide presentation showing how the Doppler units, cover areas in circles and overlap to give a complete coverage of the weather.

The Lake Charles unit covers a range of 250 miles, covering southwest Louisiana and southeast Texas. Houston-Galveston radar overlaps to cover southwest Louisiana also.

Other Doppler units are located at Fort Polk and Slidell.

The weathermen on the local television and radio stations get their information from the local bureau.

Starting this week, a professor from an eastern college will also use the Doppler unit to follow the migration of hawks, counting the actual number of birds in each flock that migrates overhead from the printouts. Also helping out in the reporting of the weather are volunteers in the communities who are given rain gauges and envelopes to send in data t`.ey collect. J. Berton Daigle, a member of the local Lions, volunteered to be one of the rain watchers in his area.

He also said that there is no way anyone can predict how many hurricanes, or how many will be dangerous, using for an example University of Colorado's Professor Gray's yearly predictions of about a dozen on the Gulf Coast this year.

The problems in the western Gulf are usually between June and September, he said.

CURTIS RICHARD stands on top of a ladder while son Jimmy holds the ladder. The 40-year-old oak tree split during a recent high wind and fell on Curtis' house. The only damage to the house was to two window screens.

leyoub warns about scam

Attorney General Richard Ieyoub is warning consumers not to be fooled by rumors of a "Gerber Baby Foods settlement" after receiving several inquiries from consumers about the so-called settlement. He advises consumers not to send birth records or other information in connection with this rumor.

"Although the rumors vary, the scam leads consumers to believe that they will receive a $500 savings bond if they mail a copy of their child's birth certificate to a Minneapolis Post Office Box. According to Gerber, the company is not involved in any settlement involving reimbursements to customers," says General Ieyoub.

Tarpons to play the Pickering Red Devils

By JOE MUELLER

The Number One 2-A team in the state will entertain the Number 3 team this Friday at Creole. The South Cameron Tarpons and the Pickering Red Devils square off at 7 p.m. in Tarpon Stadium.

The two teams will be renewing a rivalry that has been intense over recent years. Last year the teams played twice with Pickering winning the first game 22-7, then in the semi-finals the Tarpons won 20-14 and earned a trip to the Superdome.

Both teams are 2-0 this year. Pickering has beaten Welsh and Vidalia, while the Tarpons victims have been DeQuincy and Vinton.

South Cameron has had two shutouts while Pickering has allowed 40 points.

The Tarpons have scored 62 points while the Red Devils have put 64 points on the board.

Both teams have strong running backs. The Tarpons Brandon Conner has over 300 yards rushing while Sam Blocker and Artis Stanley led the Red Devil attack.

Both teams have excellent kickers with John Mark Montie handling the kicking for the Tarpons and David Latta doing the Red Devil kicking.

Both teams are very physical so it should be a very good match. let's all get out and pack the stadium and show our support for the Number One ranked Tarpons.

Both teams are very disciplined so there shouldn't be many penalties.

Vol. II—No. 6 Battle Creek, Michigan September, 1957

DO YOU REMEMBER?
This is a reproduction of a Civil Defense publication following the devastation of Cameron Parish by Hurricane Audrey in June 1957.

HIGH WINDS and waves herald the approach of Hurricane Audrey last June 27 along the Louisiana coastline near Cameron. Before the storm subsided, it had left at least 518 dead, 1,000 injured, and millions of dollars in property damage in one of the severest tests of State and local disaster organizations in the recent history of the nation. (Photo by Louis King, Lake Charles, La.)

SEN. RUSSELL LONG of Louisiana (right), chats with Jack Heffelmeyer, who voluntarily travelled from the East Coast to the Hurricane Audrey disaster area to help out. Heffelmeyer holds one of the three types of civil defense drinking water cartons, which are now used by dairies near most areas to pack and distribute water where needed in disaster relief. BACK FROM DESPAIR

Cameron Rebuilding Better Community on Ruins of Old

Cameron is coming back.

The town which felt the brunt of Hurricane Audrey's assault on the southwestern Louisiana coastline last June is rebuilding rapidly after being nearly leveled.

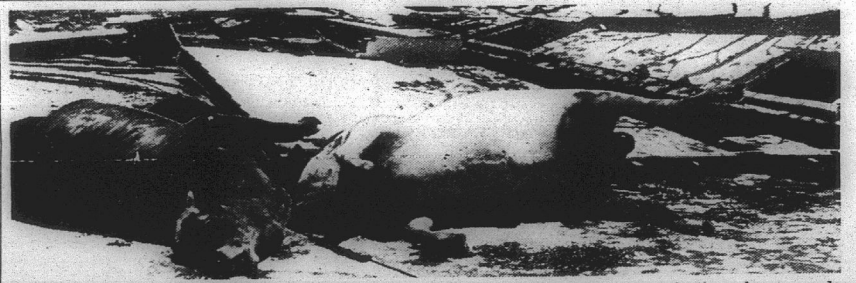
CAMERON IS COMING back in many ways—through disaster funds administered by the Federal Civil Defense Administration, and through $3,000,000 from the Red Cross and gifts from many parts of the nation, including even donations of labor by contractors and construction unions from nearby Texas.

Cameron is also coming back through its own efforts. What is one of the nation's first disaster planning commissions has been set up there. It will oversee the rebuilding of most of Cameron within nine months, allocating gifts and other resources as it sees fit.

In time, it should be a better town than it was. In the past, Cameron and its neighboring communities, Creole and Grand Chenier, each had a tiny clinic. Now they will have a new Cameron Memorial Hospital, built with the help of Federal funds, the American Legion, and others. The Junior Chamber of Commerce will build a public library, which the town has never had.

Even 34 college students, whose resources were wiped out by the hurricane, will be able to continue in school through help received from the Louisiana Department of Education.

STARK DISASTER still in her eyes, a survivor of Hurricane Audrey is comforted by a Federal Civil Defense Administration official visiting a refugee center in Cameron, La. (FCDA Photo)



DEAD ANIMALS were a familiar sight in Cameron Parish (county), La., after high waters from Hurricane Audrey swept over land only about two feet above sea level, and wiped out some 35,000 head of cattle. Farm organizations have made some overtures to the agriculture division of the Cameron Planning Commission toward helping reestablish a foundation herd in the stricken area. (Lake Charles, La., American-Press Photo)

LANDLUBBING shrimp boat "cruises" down the highway at Cameron, La., amid a scene of desolation left by Hurricane Audrey winds and waters. For repairing public facilities, the Federal Civil Defense Administration has so far allocated the area $2,650,000 in Federal disaster relief funds. (Lake Charles, La., American-Press Photo)

HURRICANE AUDREY survivor in Cameron, La., greets two Federal officials at the entrance to her new tent house, built by the Housing and Home Finance Administration under the overall coordination of the Federal Civil Defense Administration. Such structures have been constructed pending the completion of more permanent housing, aided by gifts of material and labor. (FCDA Photo)

REFUGEE SHELTER and sorting-out center for casualties in the McNeese College gym at Lake Charles, La., was crowded by homeless Hurricane Audrey survivors from the Cameron area. The disaster caused at least 518 deaths in the hell would have been much higher were it not for heroic action by doctors in the disaster zone, and a 200-bed civil defense emergency hospital set up on the spot in isolated, sparsely settled Creole, La. Letters to the Editor

"Bus lane policy"

Dear Editor:

We are writing this letter to voice our concern over the school board's new bus lane policy. As the policy now stands, any child living 3/10 of a mile or less from the main road must walk to the bus stop, those living farther than that may picked up down their road, providing it is a parish road.

Two of our grandchildren do live down a road that is greater than 3/10 of a mile, but it is a private road. The bus has come down this road for the last eighteen years, unfortunately under these new rules it is no longer permitted.

Our greatest concern is in the afternoon when four of our grandchildren and fourteen other children have to cross busy Hwy. 82 to come home. At this time of the day the traffic is very heavy because of plant workers returning home, also, many 18-wheelers travel this highway. There have been many instances when these vehicles failed to heed the stop signs on the bus.

We and many other concerned parents and grandparents attended the school board meeting held Sept. 9, 1997 to voice our concerns over this issue. We were informed, over the telephone, by our superintendent, that we might not be able to speak at the meeting.

Although we were allowed to speak at the meeting, with the exception of Mr. Bill Morris, they seemed to have their minds made up to stand by their policy, no matter what. Ron Vining, the author of this policy, explained how much money would be saved parishwide. The amount they are unwilling to spend to insure the safety of our children is a staggering $2,164.48 annually. Of course Mr. Vining's children never rode the bus to school a day of their lives, so how could he possibly make a knowledgeable recommendation on this particular issue.

Dwight Erbelding offered to pay the cost for all the children of Johnson Bayou (not just his grandchildren) to resume their old bus routes. The amount for Johnson Bayou would be $230 a year. He offered to pay $250 a year. We were informed that they didn't know if this would be legal, although Mr. Cecil Sanner was present at the meeting. We have, as yet, received no further information on this proposal.

This afternoon as we were writing this letter, the school bus carrying our children was almost hit by an 18-wheeler loaded with pipe. The bus was stopped, with lights on and signs out in front of James Erbelding's home to offload children. There are black skid marks on the highway for at least 200 feet where he tried to stop and went around the bus. If the children had been crossing the road they would have been killed. It is a miracle he didn't hit the bus killing all of the children.

In closing, we would like to commend Mr. Bill Morris for his concern for the safety, as well as the education of our children. To Mr. Dan Billiot we would like to say, Where Are You? To the rest of the board and officers, Shame On You.

/s/ Dwight and Judy Erbelding

Voters complain

Dear Editor:

I am trying to figure out if we still live in a democracy or not. The Cameron Parish School Board changed the bus routes, against the voters wishes. I must add, to a savings of $2164. What does this do to your property value if you should ever decide to sell your home? People will ask if bus transportation is being provided.

The new policy says, "the buses will only travel roads that are .3 of a mile or longer." It does not matter that you have a five year old or not.

We live in a rural parish where livestock, oilfield traffic, farmers, etc. are traveling up and down our roads. Do we need five year olds standing on the side of our roads? Is your child's life worth only $2164 to you? Who are they to put a price tag on our children?

We have passed two taxes to keep our bus routes the same, but the school board still changed them. Also, we have turned in petitions, but to deaf ears of the school board. I see but three choices left:

1. Sue the school board for discrimination (because of it to be fair it should affect everyone, not just the ones who live on short roads).

2. Recall the present school board members and elect someone who will represent their communities, not the school board.

3. The school board listen to the voters of Cameron Parish and change back to the old bus routes.

Lanes deleted

Dear Editor:

I am writing this letter as a concerned grandparent, who has five grandchildren, four of which attend our public school system. My five year old granddaughter catches the bus in the morning at my home and gets off the bus at my home in the afternoons. Recently our school board decided to delete lanes that were 3/10th of a mile or shorter from the school bus routes. My lane is affected by this change and so are many other lanes in the parish. This was supposedly to save money and time. However, the school bus still passes at the same time that it did when my children were going to school.

The change in bus routes was approved in the July meeting. However, the school board failed to give parents any notice. There were no letters sent to the parents of the children and there were no advertisements published in the Cameron Pilot or the American Press.

After the incident I called my school board member, Mr. Tony Johnson. Mr. Johnson supports the change. However when asked what the school board was saving with this plan, he could not tell me. I also contacted Mr. Ron Vining, who proposed the change, but he couldn't tell me what the school board was saving either. In fact, the school board passed this measure without having any figures to base it on.

I also contacted Mr. Bill Morris, who voted against the plan and is still very much against it. He assured me that he would attempt to bring the issue up at the September meeting. Mr. Daniel Billiot and Mr. Clifton Hebert also told me that they were against the new bus routes and would vote against the measure when it came up. On September 9th, Mr. Morris asked to discuss the new bus routes, but no one would second his motion and therefore the issue was not addressed. Mr. Hebert was present but said nothing and Mr. Billiot did not even attend the meeting.

About three weeks after school started, the school board prepared a report that indicated that the bus plan will save approximately $2,000 a year. The small savings seems hardly worth putting our children's safety in jeopardy and having them in the cold weather during the winter months to wait for the bus. Further, Dwight Erbelding offer-ed to pay the $250 for the Johnson Bayou bus routes, so that the school buses could return to their original routes.

Bet the school board did not reply to the generous offer.

The people of Cameron Parish just recently passed a school tax, (which was heavily advertised in the Cameron Pilot), so why do we need to make cuts that directly affect our children. And if cuts need to be made, it seems that more meaningful cuts could be made elsewhere. It's time for the school board to put our children first.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brenda Quinn

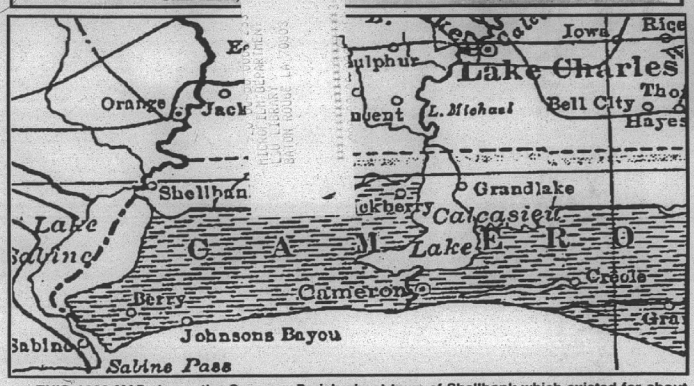
The Cameron Parish Pilot 35¢
"Cameron - The ors Parish"
September 25, 1997
Cameron, ear –No. 38



THIS 1909 MAP shows the Cameron Parish ghost town of Shellbank which existed for about 40 years, disappearing in 1915. The town of Radford is not shown here, as it was destroyed by the 1886 hurricane, along with Johnson Bayou. Radford was gone forever but Johnson Bayou came back.

Two SWLA ghost towns are featured in article

(EDITOR'S NOTE--The following article was written by W. T. Block of Nederland, Texas, who has written numerous articles on the history of Southwest Louisiana and East Texas. This article tells the story of two ghost towns of Cameron Parish that most people do not know existed.)

In the Cameron Pilot of Nov. 27, 1970, there was an inquire about Shellbank, Cameron Parish, La., and a response from the Cameron Library reported that there was no Shellbank, Louisiana. However while the writer was officer-in-charge of the Orange, Texas post office in1972, he found the ancient metal hand postmarking stamp (later destroyed by a postal inspector) of the old Shellbank, La. post office.

Shellbank was perhaps more of a trading post than a community, located on Pavell's Island, the delta island in the Sabine River, now known as Sabine Island. Between 1853 and 1915, many farm families, principally from Black Bayou or the present-day Bridge City vicinity, received their mail at Shellbank, although they could only reach that post office by boat.

In 1853, Augustine and Sophie, who were German immigrants, built a cotton-trading post and wharf on the heigh shell bank of the island. For 20 years,the Sabine River flatboatmen had floated their loads of cotton to the mouth of the river, where sometimes they waited indefinitely for the New Orleans schooners to arrive to buy their products.

Afterward, Gus Pavell bought the cotton that came down the river and later he carried it to Galveston on his schooner Sophia. Steamboats and schooners often stopped to deposit or pick up mail, and as a result Shellbank soon became a post office as well. And for 40 years, Shellbank remained the nearest post office for all the farm families living on Black Bayou or in southeastern Orange County, Texas.

In 1867, Gus Pavell died, but he willed the trading post and his schooner Sophia to his Brother, Ferdinand Pavell of Johnson's Bayou. In 1870, A. G. Swain leased the trading post for a couple of years, and in 1871, Linford and Co.. built schooners in its shipyard there. After Swain left, Ferd Pavell operated the shellbank trading post and served as its postmaster until 1900, when he relinquished it to his son, August Pavell.

Ferd Pavell owned two residences, one at Pavell's Island, where he also owned a shingle mill, and the second at Johnson's Bayou, where he and his son owned a store, a cotton gin, and a sugar mill. During the 1870's-1880's, Shellbank received mail on a twice weekly schedule via the steamboats, that traded between Orange, Texas and Johnson's Bayou.

In 1915, all reasons for the Shellbank post office ceased to exist. All the Sabine River cotton was being shipped by rail to New Orleans or Galveston. Most of the Black Bayou farmers had moved away because of the loneliness; no transportation except by water, and eroded soil; and the nearby Texas farmers were by then receiving rural service from Orange. With his business severely depleted, August closed up the trading post, and the postal service discontinued the Shellbank post office.

THE TOWN OF RADFORD

Radford, the other ghost town, was one of two post offices that developed on Johnson's Bayou after 1870, and was the nearest town to Sabine Lake. Louisiana cotton farmers, always on the move for more productive soil, streamed into Johnson's Bayou after the Civil War, and by 1885, its farm population was estimated at 1,200 persons. Both Radford, with 175 persons, and Johnson's Bayou,population 150, were thriving by then. Four stores at Radford were owned by Caswell Peveto, J. C. Griffith, Austin B. Smith (the writer's uncle), and Calvin Peveto, and there were also two cotton gins and two sugar mills located there.

In 1885, about 600 acres of farm land were expected to yield 1,000 bales of cotton. There were also about 200 acres planted in sugar cane, needed to feed the cane grinders, and elsewhere on the bayou about 100 acres of satsuma orange trees and grape arbors provided much of the fruit sold in Galveston.

Two steamboats, the Emily P. and Lark, remained exclusively in the Orange to Johnson's Bayou trade, importing groceries, lumber, and hardware, and returning with cotton, syrup, fruit, and cattle. The schooner Dreadnaught sailed exclusively in the Galveston to Johnson's Bayou trade, making one round trip weekly.

1886 HURRICANE

The morning of Oct. 12, 1886, showed no particular cause for alarm, with most of the children in the school house and all the field hands were picking cotton. by 4 p.m., the lake waters had risen 4 feet,and by 7 p.m., 140-mile gale winds were pounding the homes and oak trees.

Some houses, except those

Tarpons victorious over Pickering last Friday

By JOE MUELLER

The Number One ranked South Cameron Tarpons used a strong defense to beat the Number 3 ranked Pickering Red Devils 17-3 last Friday night at Tarpon Stadium.

The Tarpons took an early 7-0 lead when John Pradia recovered a fumble and converted it into an early 7-0 lead.

Pickering scored their only points on a David Latta field goal in the second quarter. The Tarpons held a 7-3 halftime lead. South Cameron scored their second touchdown in the third quarter on a 5 yard run by Steve Moore. The run culminated a long ball control drive of the Tarpons.

Brandon Conner had five carries for about 40 yards in the drive. Conner had 102 yards rushing on the night.

The South Cameron defense shot the Red Devils down in the second half.

The Pickering running backs, Sam Blocker and Artis Stanley, only netted 107 yards between them.

The Tarpons final score came on a 23 yard John Mark Montie field goal. Montie averaged 48 yards punting.

The win raised the Tarpons record to 3-0. They will be at home again this week against the St. Louis Saints.

Tarpons to play Saints

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons take their Number 1 State AA ranking and put it on the line against a 3-A team.

The St. Louis Saints, who moved up from 2A to 3A this season, come to town and face the Tarpons in their final pre-district game. The Tarpons open district next Friday.

The Saints and Tarpons in recent years have played some close tough games. Last year the Saints beat the Tarpons 3-0. St. Louis went deep into the playoffs last year and the Tarpons went all the way to the Dome.

St. Louis has had trouble scoring this year but last week they put 24 points on the board.

The Tarpons defense has only given up 3 points this year so they are definitely a force to be reckoned with.

The game should be a good final tune-up before district. The Tarpons can't have a let down after being so high for Pickering. If they do, the saints can beat them. Let's get a big crowd again to Tarpon stadium.

The Tarpons Brandon Conner will be looking to rush for over 100 yards for the fourth time this year.

S. Cameron is still No. 1

South Cameron, with their 17-3 win over Pickering held onto the Number One slot in Class 2A. The Tarpons collected 9 of 10 first place votes in the latest poll.

Pickering collected 63 votes to fall from third to sixth place. Iota of District 5 2-A along with South Cameron, is eighth with 62 votes.

1. South Cameron, 3-0, 115
2. Northeast, 3-0, 104
3. Port Barre, 3-0, 97
4. Newman, 3-0, 84
5. Homer, 3-0, 79
6. Pickering, 2-1, 63
7. Riverside, 2-1, 62
8. Iota, 7-1, 60
9. West St. John, 2-1, 39
10. Oak grove, 2-1, 30

Others with votes: Ouachita Christian 18, Teurlings 9, McCall 8, Many 8, Jonesboro Hodge 3, and Ridgewood 1.

TEAL SEASON

This past weekend, the excitement of the teal season showed as many hunters were out. The biggest problem was no water in our marshes in most cases. There were teals if you had water, however, temperatures were fairly hot, even with a little cool front. Mosquitos were so-so. The 9 day season will close this Sunday, Sept. 28, as well as rails and gallinules. This weekend also marks Louisiana National Hunting and Fishing Day, Sat. Sept. 27.

Next weekend will see two more season opening, on Sat., Oct. 4, rabbit and squirrel season open. Daily bag limits on each is 8 per day or 16 in possession, after the first day. Shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset.

Archery season on deer is open, but again check refuges for Oct. 1 opening. Muzzleloader opens Oct. 4 thru oct. 10. Regular gun season for deer opens Oct. 11 and runs thru Dec. 7, for the first season.

Alligator season closed Oct. 5. Most hunters have their gators caught and already sold. It was a good harvest.

FISHING REPORTS

Freshwater activity locally has slowed but saltwater fishing is still going strong, both inshore and offshore. Redfish still hot, speckle trout slow, and red snapper offshore are good.

October through most of November are good flounder months, along the Louisiana coastline, in the passes leading to the Gulf outlets will see good action. The southern flounder will gang up in the passes, ready for their seasonal movements towards the seashore, preparing for their annual offshore spawning migration. Food is also good at this time of the year.

DUCKS ARE FAST

We all think the teal duck is the fastest duck in our area, but here's a few facts on speed. These birds fly at speeds as if being chased. Canada geese 60 miles per hour, snow geese 50 mph, mallards 60 mph, pintail, 65 mph, redhead 45 mph, canvasbacks 45 mph and green-winged teal 40 mph.

A canvasback was clocked once at 72 mph by an airplane, but a speed record was a red-breasted merganser pursued by an airplane, got a top airspeed of 100 mph.

GHOST TOWNS

with holes cut in the floors, floated away; in others the terror-stricken refugees fled to the attics or roof tops, where they tied themselves to chimneys, or children to branches in the live oak trees. By the following morning, 17 small children had lost both parents, and 20 parents had lost all of their children. During the night, 110 persons had drowned there, and 86 more drowned at Sabine Pass. Most of those that survived walked about in a dazed state, talking incoherently. The two steamboats, carrying rescue workers, were soon providing what relief was possible.

Within a few days, all of the survivors left on the steamboats, for the stench from 20,000 dead cattle became unbearable.

Both Radford and Johnson's Bayou were totally destroyed, and Radford and its post office were never rebuilt. A Galveston newspaper soon reported: "Johnson's Bayou and Radford were once communities with more than 1,000 inhabitants, today they are communities of beggars. The buzzards are the only feathered fowl in the air."

By 1887, only six families had returned to Johnson's Bayou, the remainder having scattered about elsewhere. Slowly some of them returned, and by 1894, there were 57 families, totaling about 400 persons, living there.

In Galveston Daily News of June 1, 1894, merchant John M. Smith (also the writer's uncle) bragged about the general good health of the Johnson's Bayou population, and he cited two large families to prove it.Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Berwick had married in 1866, and by 1894, they had 24 children and had "never had a doctor in the house." By then, Mrs.Berwick was 48 years old and she "was the picture of good health."

Mr. and Mrs. Dolzie Theriot of Johnson's Bayou also had 24surviving children from a single marriage. The oldest person living there,Placide Leban was a War of 1812 veteran of the Battle of New Orleans, and he was 102 years old.

Shellbank, La. lived out its usefulness, and as a result, was abandoned. Radford, La. was totally destroyed in 1886 and was never rebuilt.Both communities once played a vital role in the economy of Cameron Parish, and their erstwhile existence deserves to be noted and remembered.

THE LONG BROTHERS, Huey, left, and Earl, were the two most colorful and controversial governors that Louisiana ever had. A new video, "The Kingfish and Uncle Earl," tells their story.

Huey and Earl Long video now available

The charismatic power of brothers Huey and Earl Long is quite evident in the new video presented by the Louisiana Political Museum and Hall of Fame. Titled The Kingfish and Uncle Earl, it combines original film footage with personal memories of citizens close to the campaigns. The result gives the viewer an insight of Louisiana politics which turns out to be both educational and entertaining.

Among the often humorous glimpses of the Kingfish, as he was known, is Huey's famous High-Poppa-Larum speech and his "...and they impeached me" address. Also included is his explanation of the Share the Wealth platform, and his premature announcement as a candidate for President in 1936.

Earl Long's campaign speeches are among the most talked about in the state and these excerpts show why. His down home manner and sharp wit are evident as he declares "If I was crazy in Galveston and Mandeville... I'm still crazy". And his discussion about the state of Texas taxing "corn in the crib and billy goats" clearly indicates why people gathered around to hear Uncle Earl.

The biographical narrative of these Louisiana icons was written by Daniel Graves, an independent producer whose past projects have chronicled Louisiana history during the French Colonial period and the Civil War.

Graves comments on this investigation into 20th century Louisiana politics, "The first thing each person asked me when I talked to them about an interview was 'Are you going to tell the truth, or is this going to be like the movies made about the Longs?' I had to assure every interview that the museum was only interested in the public getting to know these men better, and in putting their lives into a proper perspective of history. The resulting accumulation of oral history is fascinating, and as important as talking to a Civil War Veteran during the Reconstruction period."

The video follows the brothers from their childhood at the turn of the century through their respective deaths in 1935 and 1960. Huey was assassinated Sept. 8, 1935 and this event is recalled by retired Judge Julian Bailes, who was working as an elevator operator that night. Additionally, as an interesting interview with Tom Votier, the son of Paul Votier, one of Huey's bodyguards. Paul Votier was reluctant to speak with reporters after the assassination and so his story was told only to his son.

Earl Long's Congressional campaign, which led to his heart attack and death Sept. 5, 1960, is recalled by two close associates, Ellis Littleton and Jay Chevalier. Chevalier had a hit record about the governor in 1959 and entertained crowds at campaign stops across the state. Littleton, who Earl nicknamed "Easy Money", was with Long for 16 years and watched the ever present candidate win the Congressional seat he would never fill.

Most Louisiana citizens have a favorite story about these two colorful politicians. But the growing number of voters registering today will have to view the tape to understand the people that their fathers and grandfathers elected to office.

To order a copy of this Louisiana history video, send $22.50 to Louisiana Political Museum, 499 E. Main, Winnfield, La. 71483.

Parish Fair's activities and exhibits varied

Parish fairs soon will be bubbling with activities - including opportunities for exhibiting fresh vegetables.

Most fairs conducted during the fall offer opportunities for exhibits that are both educational and competitive, says Extension horticulturist Dr. Tom Koske of the LSU Agricultural Center.

"If you want to have some fun and participate in a fair, enter some of your quality home-grown garden products in the fair," Koske suggests, saying, "It's easy to do, and you may win some prize money and blue ribbons."

Koske says by following some simple points you should be able to score well when the judges review your exhibit. Among his advice:

–Be sure to have the right amount or number of items required for the show.

–Your vegetable group should be very similar in size, shape and appearance.

–Wash all vegetables, except cured sweet potatoes, Irish potatoes and dried onions. Brush and rub potatoes and onions well until they are clean.

–Do not remove the roots or tops from your vegetables unless the rules say you are permitted to do so, because they are important for determining freshness and vigor.

–Pick vegetables at their peak of ripeness; then chill or hold properly until shown.

–The best vegetables to show will be true-to-form and medium-large in size; jumbos often are downrated. The supermarket produce counter is a good place to determine these ideal characteristics for your crops.

–Be sure to take along an extra specimen in case part of your sample is bruised or damaged.

Koske, who has judged at many fairs and exhibits throughout the state, says potential winners and good samples often place lower because of small details that could have been easily corrected. "Pay attention to those details," he stresses. "And be sure to follow all the rules."

For more information on gardening or exhibiting your produce, contact a county agent in your parish office of the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service, the educational branch of the LSU Ag Center. County agents usually can provide you with the premium or entry requirements list and rules for fairs in your area.

leyoub warns about scam

Attorney General Richarc Ieyoub is warning consumers not to be fooled by rumors of a "Gerber Baby Foods settlement" after receiving several inquiries from consumers about the so-called settlement. He advises consumers not to send birth records or other information in connection with this rumor.

"Although the rumors vary, the scam leads consumers to believe that they will receive a $500 savings bond if they mail a copy of their child's birth certificate to a Minneapolis Post Office Box. According to Gerber, the company is not involved in any settlement involving reimbursements to customers," says General Ieyoub.

Breaux urges new coastal policy

With more than 30 percent of America's wealth generated in the nation's coastal areas, it's time to update national ocean and coastal policy that protects fisheries and the marine environment, Sen. John Breaux (D-LA) said recently.

"Louisiana and many other coastal states would benefit from an updated and coordinated national policy to protect our oceans, wetlands and coastal areas," Sen. Breaux said. "And with half of all Americans living within 50 miles of our shores, we all have an interest in protecting our oceans and coastal areas from pollution."

The Senator stressed that it's been 30 years since the Stratton Commission first developed a comprehensive national program to explore the oceans, and develop marine and coastal resources. He said it's not only time to update American policy, but emphasized that our renewed national efforts help in the United Nations' efforts to focus global attention on the world's oceans in the 1998 International Year of the Ocean.

The Ocean Act of 1997 would:

*Develop and implement a coherent national ocean and coastal policy to conserve and use sustainable fisheries, protect the marine environment and create marine technologies and economic opportunities.

*Establish and fund a 15-member commission, appointed by the President and the Congress, to examine U. S. policy and recommend new policy within 18 months.

*Create a federal interagency council to advise the President and develop and implement an ocean and coastal policy, coordinating many federal agency manpower and funding.

New regulations told for shrimpers, crabbers

New regulations take effect beginning Jan. 1, 1998, for shrimpers and crabbers, and Department of Wildlife and Fisheries Marine Fisheries managers want to make fishermen aware of the changes in time to make any necessary preparations. The new las involve changes in gear used to harvest these species. The new regulations reflect acts passed during the 1997 Louisiana legislative session.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1998, Act 262 of the 1997 Louisiana Legislature requires shrimping vessels operating in the state's territorial waters use only nets that don't exceed 130 feet of corkline and 165 feet of lead line. This will remain in effect until Dec. 31, 1999, after which a maximum of 100 feet of corkline and 132 feet of lead line will be allowed.

Crab fishermen should be aware that crab traps must have a minimum of two escape rings. Act 302 of the 1997 Louisiana Legislature, which created the regulation, further defines placement, size and other requirements:

"All escape rings shall be placed on the vertical outside walls flush with the trap door or baffle, with at least one ring located in each chamber of the trap. The minimum sizes of the rings shall be two and five-sixteenths inches inside diameter, not including ring material. The rings shall be rigid and attached to the trap with material of smaller diameter than the wire strands of the trap. Escape ring openings shall not be obstructed with any material that prevents or hampers exit of crabs, except from March 1 through June 30 and from Sept. 1 through Oct. 31. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to those crab traps placed in Lake Pontchartrain by persons holding a soft shell crab shedders license."

This regulation will allow small crabs to escape crab traps and reduce the capture of undersize crabs, according to LDWF Marine Fisheries biologist L. Brandt Savoie.

POLICE JURY Association Executive Board Member Algie Breaux, Calcasieu Parish, presented Senator Gerald Theunissen a "Friend of the Parishes" award at the recent Police Jury Association Region 7 meeting hosted by Evangeline Parish.

Meeting set here on new food stamp cards

Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) for Food Stamps (FS) and Family Independence Temporary Assistance Program (FITAP) cash benefits will begin in Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes on Nov. 1. The current paper system for dispensing FS and FITAP benefits is being replaced by the Louisiana Purchase Automated Benefit Card.

Deluxe Data, the company awarded the EBT contract in Louisiana, will begin training current FS and FITAP recipients in Calcasieu Parish on Oct. 1. The training site for Calcasieu Parish is at 2323 Broad Street, Lake Charles.

Cameron Parish recipients will be trained on Oct. 14. The training site for Cameron Parish is in the Cameron Parish Police Jury meeting room in Cameron.

Recipients will receive a letter in the mail giving them the time and date for them to report to the training site. All recipients must attend this training at which time they will assign a Personal Identification Code (PIN) and receive their cards. The PIN is a 4 digit secret number the recipient chooses for use with the cad.

This number, along with the card will allow them to receive their food and cash benefits at store terminals and automated teller machines. The card is the only way to receive FS and FITAP cash benefits effective Nov. 1.

$200,000 funding approved for study of Cameron Loop

Congressman Chris John has announced the final passage of the Conference Report on the FY98 Energy and Water Development Appropriations Act by a vote of 404-17, which includes a study on the Cameron Loop.

The proposal provides $200,000 for the Corps of Engineers to re-evaluate the feasibility of dredging a 40-foot channel in the Cameron Loop to the Port of Cameron. "I am delighted that the funding was included. This is the first step in providing improved access to facilities along the southern end of Cameron Loop," commended Congressman John.

Currently, the southern end of Cameron Loop is silting and as a result, the controlling depth varies. Businesses located along the southern end are at a disadvantage due to the uncertainty of the channel depth.

Congressman John asserted that many businesses expressed the importance of improved navigational access to the Cameron Port and the potential ramifications of inaction. "They expressed the concern that silting is an impediment to the future economic development of southwest Louisiana because the current draft prohibits larger vessels from accessing the Port.

"This lack of access would likely turn businesses away from Cameron and toward Texas ports which have deep draft access."

"It is my belief that due to the resurgence of the offshore oil and gas industry, the potential for a feasible federal project is great. I am confident that the Conference Report will be signed into law in the near future," concluded Congressman John.

Wetlands study told for parish students

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Eighth and ninth grade Cameron Parish students are due to learn more about wetlands and the amount of land the parish is losing each year in an Earth Science program to last a week, it was reported at the Police Jury agenda meeting Tuesday.

It is provided by the Cameron Parish Police Jury and Stream Property Management, Inc., and was written by David Richard, Executive vice president of the company, who was recently hired by the Jury as a wetlands consultant.

Richard has prepared a map of Cameron Parish which shows in red the amount of land loss that has occurred from 1956 to 1993.

Each school will be given a copy of the map so students can see what is happening in the Mermentau and Sabine Basins.

School officials have approved the curriculum and Tina Horn, Parish Administrator, suggested that it could also be used by adult groups.

Lonnie Glenn Harper, Parish Engineer, opened the only bid received on the resurfacing of the Jetty Road, $432,261.79 from Heidt Construction Co. for a 2-inch overlay for 2.1 miles.

Horn reported that Robert Landry submitted the lowest proposal for putting vinyl siding on the county agent building for $7,500.

Parish Treasurer Bonnie Conner presented proposals for the 1998 budget to the Jurors for their review. She said that several companies are appealing their taxes, and since the taxes are under protest it will probably be hard to determine what the actual income of the parish will be.

Board gets grant for reading program here

The Cameron Parish School Board recently received a $98,000 grant from the state to improve the reading performance of students in grades kindergarten through third grade.

A committee of Cameron Parish teachers decided to enhance the reading program with the purchase of two programs. "Land of the Little People" will be implemented in all parish kindergarten classrooms. The goal of this program is to improve the oral language development and phonemic awareness skills of kindergarten students.

"Word Wise" will be implemented in grades one through three. This program will supplement the basal and is a method of teaching direct phonics and word attack skills to students. Interactive videos will be utilized to help motivate students. Teachers will receive training in both of these programs in November.

G.L. students study legend

The English II classes of Grand Lake High School recently completed a unit of study on the King Arthur legend. After reading the material, students discussed the importance of chivalry and related it to present day.

For a week sophomores practiced doing acts of chivalry, wrote journal entries about their good deeds, and finally wrote an essay about their experiences. Students also designed a personal coat-of-arms and chose a motto for their poster. Pictured above are several members of the English II classes.

TEAL SEASON

Teal season came and went in a jiffy. Marshes with no water and only mud suddenly became lakes, with water up to the ridges. Overall, teal hunts were good from the Johnson Bayou marshes through Creole and Grand Chenier. Many hunters had their limits, however, some marshes were slower than others. Now that we got the rain lots of the teal ducks were right off the ridges for the last four days of the season. Where I drove 20 miles one way plus boat ride, I just had to step about 20 feet from my back hurricane fence to get good shooting.

Many anglers also took advantage after teal hunts and fished for redfish and bass. In Grand Chenier a 44 inch redfish weighing 30 pounds was caught and good bass are being caught in the Cameron area.

Rudy McEvers, wife and family and the Terry Rutherford family made a trip to Toledo Bend. They caught plenty of schooling bass but most were under the 14 inch minimum.

On Lacassine Refuge, work the trails and outer pot holes. Now that we may see the weather cooling off, the last few days of opening may very well be good. Closure is set for Oct. 15.

SEASON OPENINGS

Rabbit, Oct. 4-Feb. 28, daily bag 8, possession 16.

Squirrel, Oct. 4-Feb. 28, daily bag 8, possession 16.

Deer (area 3), bow open now thru Jan. 20.

Muzzleloader, Oct. 4-10, and Dec. 13-19.

Dove (second split), Oct. 18-Nov. 17, daily bag 12, possession 24.

Duck, coots, geese, Nov. 8, opening along with rails, gallinules and snipes.

SEASON CLOSURE

Alligator - Oct. 5. Teal, gallinule, rail, dove, closed at this time.

HUNTER ED

Remember, bow hunters education certification is required to hunt on national wildlife refuges, managed by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. There is no age restriction. Also remember if you are born after Sept. 1, 1969 you need the hunter's gun course before getting a hunting license.

There will be a hunter's course at the Grand Lake High School Vo Ag Dept. in Sweet Lake from 6-9:30 p.m. nightly, Oct. 27-29. Instructor is Gary Poole. Contact Grand Lake High School, 598-3316 before the class is full.

WILDLIFE PERSONNEL FIRED

Some law makers as well as the average Joe are very unhappy about the firing of 24 year employee James Manning of Baton Rouge and Robert E. Johnson of Alexandria, 22 year employee.

Manning, who was assistance chief of fur and refuge, was well known locally, as he has made many trips to Rockefeller Refuge and helped their personnel and even local folks with certain matters. A well liked down to earth person, Manning had many friends, a person you could talk to.

Johnson was the agency's boating education coordinator. Both were fired by Secretary of the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries Jenkins, a former member of the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission, was also a former president of the (CCA) Coastal Conservation Association of Louisiana.

Many in the wildlife department and administration are not happy with Jenkins, but can't afford to say too much and you can't blame them. Employees such as Manning and Johnson with that many years nd retirement around the corner surely got the shaft. Remember when Jenkins took the power away from specialists and biologists on wildlife management areas who would enforce refuge laws, some who had been in enforcement for years.

I'll say this for Jenkins, he has his own mind and he seems not to care what criticism he gets.

Manning and Johnson have both hired lawyers and are appealing their firings through the State Civil Service.

DID YOU KNOW?

Before becoming rich selling chewing gum, William Wrigley went broke attempting to sell umbrellas. I guess it's like the smile on a man's face when there's hunting or fishing, and the frown on the wife or girl friend. I guess it's also why music more easily moves men to tears than it does women.

No. 1 Tarpons to meet Lake Charles-Boston Fri.

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons take their 4-0 record and Number One ranking in Class 2-A on the road to Lake Charles. They play Lake Charles-Boston in Wildcat Stadium at 7 p.m., Fri., Oct. 3.

The Tarpons take a 4-0 record into the contest. South Cameron has given up only three points all year and hope to record another shutout. They have shutout DeQuincy, Vinton and St. Louis so far this year.

They bring a balanced running attack into the game as John Pradia, Steve Moore and Brandon Conner all rushed for over 60 yards last week against St. Louis.

Lake Charles-Boston is a Class 3-A school and would love to beat the Number 1 ranked team in the state.

Lake Charles-Boston is winless with a 0-4 record. Last week they lost to Cecilia 14-0. Cecilia has one of the stronger football programs in Class AAA in the state.

The Lake Charles-Boston team has given up 111 points while scoring only 54.

The Tarpons can't relax too much. Being Number 1 in the state, everyone wants to beat them. They have to be ready for a war every week.

This will be the last pre-district game. I know I said that last week but I was wrong.

In recent years this date has been open but the Tarpons scheduled Lake Charles-Boston to give them ten games rather than nine.

Let's get a big crowd to support the Number One ranked Tarpons.

Tarps beat St. Louis

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons ran their overall record to 4-0 as they registered their third shutout of the year, beating Class 3A St. Louis 20-0.

The Tarpons with the win should remain as the Number 1 team in Class 2A.

The Tarpons scored 10 points in each half. They scored on a 31 yard field goal by John Mark Montie and a 23 yard run by Steve Moore in the first quarter.

In the fourth quarter the Tarpons scored on a 28 yard run by John Pradia and a 29 yard field goal by Montie.

The Tarpon defense held the Saints to only 8 first downs. They forced the Saints to punt five times. The Tarpons recovered two fumbled and intercepted four passes.

The Tarpons had very balanced rushing with Steve Moore getting 73 yards, John Pradia 63 yards and Brandon Conner 60 yards.

The Tarpons travel to Lake Charles this Friday to face the Lake Charles-Boston Cougars in a game with kickoff scheduled for 7 p.m.

The proposed area is about 685 feet wide and 1,024 feet long and is located west of Oak Grove and about 3 miles from Creole.
Approximately 300,000 cubic yards of sand is to be hauled from the site which adjoins an existing borrow pit.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 94-1730
CLASS ACTION
JUDGE WALTER
MAGISTRATE JUDGE PAYNE

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT, SETTLEMENT CLASS DETERMINATION, AND NOTICE OF PENDING CLASS ACTION LAWSUIT

This is to notify you of a proposed partial settlement of two class action lawsuits brought on behalf of all persons who purchased and/or leased new or used motor vehicles during the period January 1, 1988 through August 31, 1997, from existing or former new motor vehicle dealers who were or are members of the Louisiana Automobile Dealers Association (LADA) in the State of Louisiana. If you purchased or leased a new or used vehicle from an existing or former new motor vehicle dealer in the State of Louisiana at any time during the period January 1, 1988 through August 31, 1997, your rights may be affected by this litigation and proposed settlement.

I. THE LITIGATION

Two lawsuits were filed in 1994 against the Louisiana Automobile Dealers Association (LADA) and certain named motor vehicle dealers (as representatives of all Louisiana new motor vehicle dealers). In both lawsuits, the Plaintiffs allege that the new motor vehicle dealers entered into an unlawful agreement to add ad valorem tax (a tax on the dealer for the dealer's inventory) to the selling price of vehicles. The Defendants deny these allegations.

This Court has now recommended certification of a Settlement Class for purposes of this settlement. The Court previously certified a Plaintiff Class of purchasers of new motor vehicles. The Court has not ruled on the Plaintiffs' allegations of violation of the antitrust laws, fraud or other State law claims. This notice is not to be understood as an expression of any opinion by the Court as to the merits of any of the claims or defenses asserted by either side.

II. THE SETTLEMENT

What You Will Receive Under the Proposed Settlement

You are entitled to file a claim or claims to receive one Certificate for each vehicle purchased or leased by you from a Louisiana new vehicle dealer since January 1, 1988. You may use your Certificate(s) at any of the Settling Defendant dealers to receive a cash payment after a purchase or lease of a new or used vehicle or you may use one Certificate to pay 25% of each repair bill up to the service amount of the Certificate. If all members of the Settlement Class timely file claims, the face value of all Certificates could exceed $250,000,000. You are entitled to receive a Certificate even if the dealer that sold or leased the vehicle to you has not joined in this settlement or is not currently in business.

The Amount of Your Certificate(s):

The amount of each Certificate you receive may be used for the purchase or lease of a vehicle at any of the participating new motor vehicle dealers. The amount of the Certificate will be three (3) times the estimated amount of ad valorem tax identified or collected from you. The maximum amount of a Certificate for sale or lease is $500.00. The same Certificate can alternatively be used to pay for 25% of service performed on your vehicle at any of the dealers listed below. The amount of the Certificate for purpose of service will be two (2) times the estimated amount of ad valorem tax. The maximum Certificate for service is $400.00. Once a Certificate is used for service, it cannot thereafter be used for purchase or lease.

When You Can Use Your Certificate(s):

Each Certificate may be used at any time within five (5) years from the date of the issuance of the Certificate. You may either present the Certificate or mail the Certificate up to seven (7) days after the delivery of the vehicle. An "Important Notice" on the Certificate suggests that you wait until after delivery of the vehicle to disclose to the motor vehicle dealer that you hold or intend to use the Certificate(s). For service, you will present the Certificate at the time of payment.

Transferability of Certificates/Multiple Certificates

You may use up to a maximum of $500.00 of Certificates issued directly to you in connection with any sale or lease transaction. You may transfer a Certificate to another person or acquire a Certificate from another person. Certificates acquired from another person are subject to certain limitations.

Attorneys' Fees and Expenses

The Settling Defendants have also agreed to pay approximately $6,400,000 cash. The settlement proposes to use this cash portion of the Settlement Common Fund plus interest accrued thereon, to pay the attorneys' fees for the Plaintiffs Class counsel identified below. The Defendants have also agreed to reimburse Plaintiffs Class counsel for expenses incurred through the date of settlement up to $300,000 and to reimburse Plaintiffs Class counsel for expenses incurred in connection with obtaining approval of the settlement up to the sum of $150,000. Up to $15,000 of the $150,000 may be used to compensate the Plaintiffs' Class Representatives, subject to approval of the Court.

The counsel approved to represent the Settlement Class and the Plaintiff Class are:

The Defendants, without any admission of liability, have agreed to the entry of a Court order which will prohibit the participating motor vehicle dealers from adding ad valorem tax or inventory tax to the negotiated price of a motor vehicle and/or identifying ad valorem tax in the addition column in sale and lease documents. The Settling Defendants have also agreed to not ask you if you hold or intend to use one or more Certificates.

III. HOW TO RECEIVE YOUR CERTIFICATES

To receive your Certificates, you must complete and return a Claim Form by January 5, 1998 (postmark date). You must use a separate Claim Form for each vehicle that you purchased or leased since 1988. You may obtain Claim Forms by calling toll free 1-800-523-2030 or by writing and requesting additional Claim Forms from the "Claims Administrator" at P. O. Box 2775, Mora, MN 55051-2775.

Since 1988, almost all of the new motor vehicle dealers (both existing and former dealers), including all of the dealers listed below, have identified ad valorem tax or inventory tax in the addition column of sales documents. If you purchased or leased from a new motor vehicle dealer who never identified ad valorem tax in the addition column or who did not identify ad valorem tax in the addition column during the time period you purchased a vehicle, your claim may be disallowed.

IV. DEFINITIONS OF SETTLEMENT CLASS AND PLAINTIFF CLASS

By Order dated September 10, 1997, the Court recommended certification of a Settlement Class consisting of:

all persons, whether corporation, partnership, individual or other who purchased or leased one or more new and/or used motor vehicles on or after January 1, 1988 from a new motor vehicle dealership that was or is a member of the LADA with a buyer's order, purchase agreement, lease agreement, worksheet, invoice or similar document showing a fee or charge identified as an "ad valorem tax," "ad valorem inventory tax," or similarly styled add-on charge wherein the motor vehicle dealership identified this tax or charge in the addition column of one or more of the above types of documents. Specifically excluded from the Settlement Class are any government entities.

On March 11, 1996, the Court certified a Plaintiff Class consisting of all persons, whether corporation, partnership, individual or other who purchased one or more new motor vehicles from a motor vehicle dealership on or after January 1, 1988 with a buyer's invoice showing a fee or charge identified as an "ad valorem tax," "ad valorem inventory tax", or similarly styled add-on charge. (Note: The Court has indicated that the phrase "buyer's invoice" also refers to buyer's orders, purchase agreement and other similar documents.)

ABSENTEE VOTING IN PROGRESS

Sun. sales vote near

Absentee voting for the Oct. 18 election in Cameron Parish on Sunday sale of alcohol beverages began Monday, Oct. 6 and will end Saturday, Oct. 11 in the Registrar of Voters office in the basement of the courthouse.

Hours for absentee voting will be from 8:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. on weekdays and from 8:30 a.m. to noon on Saturday.

Voters will be decide if alcoholic sales will be prohibited between midnight Saturday and midnight Sunday.

The present parish ordinance permits restaurants and package sales of wine and beer on Sundays, but bars are not allowed to open.

Sunday closing ordinances were ruled invalid in Lake Charles by the Third Circuit Court of Appeal because no elections were held on the matter.

Cameron voters have never voted on Sunday alcohol sales, and the police jury decided to put it on the ballot after bar owners requested permission to stay open the Sunday of the Memorial Day weekend.

The proposition on the ballot is passed on Oct. 18, the sale of all alcoholic beverages on Sunday will be prohibited. This will include the restaurants and package stores which presently are allowed Sunday sales.

The Police Jury is running an ad elsewhere in this issue of the Pilot to make clear to citizens what they are voting on. They state:

"A YES vote means YOU DO NOT WANT TO ALLOW The sale, serving or dispensing of alcoholic beverages on Sunday.

"A NO vote means YOU WANT TO ALLOW the sale, serving or dispensing of alcoholic beverages on Sunday.

"The proposition applies to all bars, restaurants, convenience stores, private clubs and festivals."

In the past the Police Jury has frequently granted special permission for Sunday of beer at various festivals. Passage of the proposition will prohibit the jury from doing this in the future.

Alligator Festival is held Sunday

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The Grand Chenier State Park was rocking Sunday as citizens of Cameron Parish gathered to celebrate the end of alligator season.

Reigning over the festivities was the 1997 Alligator Queen Loretta Nunez, who was crowned by last year's queen Cressie LeBrun. Runners-up were Leola Theriot and Ella Hebert.

The queens are chosen from members of the Cameron Parish senior citizens group.

The Alligator Man of the Year was Iris Broussard, who won the award by catching the largest alligator of the season, 12 foot 10 inch creature from Grand Chenier.

He was presented with a plaque form the Joseph Sturlese family given in memory of their late father, a well known alligator hunter from Grand Chenier.

Other events of the day were boat races, little Miss and Mr. contests, childrens contest and games, an old fashioned dance with a live band and plenty of food.

The festivities were opened by Rep. Dan Flavin in the outdoor pavilion at the State Park on the Mermentau River.

It was sponsored by the Grand Chenier St. Eugene Catholic Church and proceeds will go toward church activities.

MARANDA DAIGLE, a junior at Hackberry High School, has completed Sea World of Texas' Careers Camp, an element of Sea World Adventure Camps and the only marine sciences education program of its kind for high school students. Daigle accompanied Sea World's animal care and training staffs as they performed duties involving sea lions, stingrays, killer whales, sharks, penguins and other fascinating species. Spaces are now available for 1998 spring, summer and fall sessions of the week-long Careers Camp, which is held at the San Antonio marine life adventure park. Voters need photo identification now

-CAPITAL NEWS-

Voters in Louisiana will have to carry picture identification with them when they go to the polls in future elections.

The U. S. Justice Department has approved a new state law requiring election officials to ask for the identification before allowing voters into the booths, a move aimed at preventing future allegations of fraudulent voting.

The law was passed by the Legislature during its 197 regular session and signed by Gov. Mike Foster on July 10, with an effective date of Aug. 15. But, like all legislation affecting voting procedures, it was subject to approval by the Justice Department under the federal Voting Rights Act. The Department's approval clears the way for enforcement of the new requirement.

Assistant Secretary of State Wade Martin said he was surprised at how quickly Justice Department approval was granted. New Orleans Rep. Emile "Peppi" Bruneau, the author of the bill, said he was not since he used a previously cleared law in Georgia as the pattern for his legislation.

He said the new law means "it is mandatory" that a poll commissioner ask for a Louisiana driver's license, a special identification card for those who don't have a driver's license or some other "generally recognized picture identification card" before voters cast their ballots.

The new law also allows voters lacking photo identification to use forms provided at the polls to swear to their identity. Their votes, however, could be challenged by a candidate seeking to overturn election results. The affidavits in such cases would have to be matched to a registered voter and a confirmed ballot.

Chinese prosecutor pays visit to Cameron Parish

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The Cameron Parish Police Jury had a special guest at their monthly meeting Tuesday.J. B. Jones, local attorney introduced Le Xin, a public prosecutor from China who is in Louisiana for two weeks on an exchange program of the International Academy of Rural Advocates, of which Jones is a member.

She is here to observe the local judicial system. She was presented with a key to the parish by Brent Nunez, Police Jury President.

The Police Jury also presented certificates of appreciation to parish winners in the National Little Britches Rodeo; Megan and Nancy Norman, Casey Vice, Trevor Duhon, Tobi Devall, Mary Devall, Mathew LaBove and Bobby Mhire.

The Police Jury went on record opposing the oil and gas processing tax proposed by State Senator Foster Campbell which could increase gasoline costs by 25¢ per gallon.

Jurors were told the tax could not be passed to out-of-state customers, leaving the entire tax burden to fall on the backs of the people and businesses of Louisiana, and would cause oil and gas activity to suffer.

A resolution to this effect has been sent to the state.

Becky Watson, representing Entergy Inc., asked the Police Jury to vote for a resolution supporting a transition to competition plan for electric energy deregulation.

The Police Jury endorsed the plan and a resolution was sent to the Public Service Commission.

The following appointments were made by the Jury:

Cameron Waterworks and Sewerage, Ricky Wolfe; Tourism Commission, Shane Terrebonne; Economic Development Task Force, Earnestine Horn.

The Jury accepted the bid of R. E. Heidt Co. of $432,261.79 for blacktopping the Jetty Road Project, which will be amended to only 1.6 miles of the road which will be from Hwy. 82 to the Old Chevron office.

At the request of Juror Douaine Connor the jury created a Gravity Drainage District for the Lowery area.

At the request of Juror Malcolm Savoie the Jury agreed to abandon the west 175 feet of Parish Rd. #3172 - Layton Lane.

The last 200 feet portion of Parish Rd. #3172, Joe Demarest Road in Grand Lake, was also abandoned.

The Jury agreed to accept a right-of-way from Bayle and Chad Belaire in Klondike and amend the garbage, trash and refuse ordinance to add Gulf Breze Subdivision, and a variance request from Phyllis A. Gough was accepted.

An extension was granted to property owners faced with condemnations until Dec. 31, at which time the conditions must be met.

The Jury voted to have the Wetland Permit application fees go to the drainage boards as proposed by Malcolm Savoie, with Dusty Sandifer and Douaine Conner opposing.

The Jury voted to apply for money in the Capitol Outlay bill to complete the Jetty Pier and repair Hwy. 82.

The Jury agreed to accept and turn over to the Cameron School Board Wetland Educational Material that was developed by David Richard, to be used in the parish schools.

After an executive session, the Jury agreed to hire Laura London as Parish Economic Director, and asked Tina Horn, Parish Administrator to advertise to hire a secretary, after the Jury agreed to lift the hiring freeze for this position.

Long range school plans are told

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

All of the principals of Cameron Parish schools appeared at the Cameron School Board Long Range Planning Committee meeting prior to the regular board meeting to present their schools' needs.

Much planning had been made at meetings with faculties and parents to come up with the needed changes and technology plans for each school.

The main concern was in changing all of the roofs in the schools from flat tops to pitched roofs because of the continuos leaking problems at each school. It was decided to eliminate all flat top roofs at all schools.

Also decided was to rewire all classrooms to accept Internet, remove any existing asbestos ceilings, replace temporary building with permanent additions to present buildings, paint buildings, re-do fire alarm systems, sandblasting and painting of buildings.

Because of the rapid growth in the area, Grand Lake is in dire need of additional space in the existing building. Covered play area and fencing around the athletic fields, more electrical outlets in each room, the replacement of worn out furniture were some of the other needs.

In the finance committee meeting Uland Guidry introduced Larry Blanchett, who outlined conditions and repairs and maintenance and service agreement annual costs in the present

Remembering the hero of the J. Bayou storm

by W. T. Block

One does not expect to find heroes during a natural disaster such as a giant hurricane, and if one did appear, there would be little time for commendations or hand-clapping. And Bill Stafford of Johnson's Bayou knew he had all of the imperfections of Huckleberry Finn or Tam O'Shanter, and few, if any, of the attributes of the legendary George Washington. When Bill saw one of the ladies of Radford or Johnson's Bayou snickering or whispering to a child, he knew that nothing good was being said about him.

Perhaps the Galveston Daily News described Bill's incivilties the best to its issue, datelined Radford, La., Oct. 17, 1886, as follows:

"Bill Stafford worked as a field laborer in Johnson's Bayou. He had the reputation of being the roughest man in the community. He loved whiskey and fighting. He stands more than six feet high, and is a giant in strength. According to all accounts, his temper did not attract to him many friends, and he is dissolute and quarrelsome. He worked from place to place and did not remain with any employer very long."

Bill's bouts with drunkenness and ill-temperament were usually limited to Saturday nights, when he had a few coins in his pocket for whiskey. He spent his Sundays sobering up and enduring his intense hangovers. Since farm labor was usually scarce in the community, he often found some one to employ him for at least a week, plowing, chopping, or picking cotton, or other activity. Invariably, some mother considered Bill's presence an evil influence on impressionable children, and Bill's work tenure was cut short.

In the fall of 1886, Johnson's Bayou had reached the apex of its cotton producing history, with 1,2000 residents supporting two small communities of Radford and Johnson's Bayou. Cotton was truly king, and there were also several gins and sugar mills, ready to harvest the 600 acres of cotton and 200 acres of sugar cane. However, almost nothing would survive alive, after the nine-foot tidal wave swept across Johnson's Bayou on the night of October 12, 1886.

About October 8th, Bill Stafford had verbally contracted to rebuild a long fence for Ralph Hackett, and he apparently was performing his chores adequately. About 4 p.m. of October 12, when Hackett and his wife saw a dark cloud hovering over the gulf waters, they hurriedly entrusted their two toddlers to Stafford's care, while they drove their buggy to Cas Peveto's store to buy groceries. Instead, the storm soon trapped the parents inside the Peveto store, as the Galveston Daily News article reported:

"Bill Stafford was working for Ralph Hackett, building fence. Hackett and his wife went into Radford that afternoon, leaving two children, one a boy of 2 years and the other a girl of four, in Stafford's care. When the flood waters rose, he took the two children upstairs when it continued to rise, brawling Bill grew nervous. He lifted the two children, one on each shoulder, and vacated the house."

"The water by then was up to his waist and rolling furiously. He headed for the nearest tree and was thrown down twice, each time the children being wrenched from him, but he recovered them and climbed the tree."

"For hours, he remained in the tree with his helpless charges, when a blast of wind knocked them off. He caught one of them and also a piece of floating debris. He held the back of the child's dress in his teeth, held the floating debris with one hand, made a lunge for the other child, and caught it."

"Fourteen hours later, a relief party found Bill and the two children, all of them alive, but incoherent. The little boy died a few hours after being found, but Bill and the girl will recover. Bill was acquainted with the children he struggled so nobly to save for only four days. The parents of the children were found alive, but more than ten miles apart, when the waters receded."

The story of Johnson's Bayou in 1886 is only too reminiscent with that of Cameron in 1957. The subsequent fate of Bill Stafford is unknown, but apparently he evacuated to Orange with the other refugees, and never returned to Johnson Bayou.

In the aftermath of the storm, Jeremiah Quinn was found some days later, still clutching the body of his wife with one hand and running his fingers through her blonde tresses with the other. Although she had been dead for at least 48 hours, he still moaned, "Cheer up, Mary dear! We'll make it!"

Little Hancock Paisley floated ten miles on a feather bed, but his mother, father, and all siblings drowned. Seventeen small children lost both parents, and 20 parents lost all of their children.

None, or no more than one, survived of the following families: Joseph Paisley, J. Quinn, F. Gallier, S. Gallier, (8 children of) Sam Brown, Joseph Luke, Frank Tanner, Owen Jones, George Stephens, Wm. Ferguson, George Smith, Michael Wagley, Alfred Lambert, James Hawkins, R. Berry, Adam Smith, Dick Hambrick, Alphonse DeGard, Jack Lewis, James Lewis, E. Fanchett, and Henry Johnson. Altogether, 110 persons drowned.

At least a dozen severe hurricanes have buffeted Johnson's Bayou between September, 1865 and Hurricane Audrey in 1957. And like Sabine Pass, Johnson's Bayou has always had a nucleus of nestors that cling to the bayou like barnacles on a boat's bottom.

In 1887, only six families returned to Johnson's Bayou to live, but by 1894, there were 57 families, totaling 400 persons, living there. Today's greatest boon to the residents of the bayou are Highway 82 and the Sabine Lake causeway, which enable them to evacuate to safety in an hour's time. Like the

Citizen expresses view of school board action

Dear Editor:

In July, 1996 and May, 1997, the voters of Cameron Parish passed two ten year ten-mill property taxes that our local school board stated were needed for maintenance, improvement, operations, the latest technology, purchase new buses, improve our school buildings, and maintain competitive salaries for our personnel. With these two taxes the school board was able to continue to operate, purchase four new buses, and still have a $1.3 million surplus.

Then in August, 1996, the new student transportation policy was voted on by our school board. The policy was introduced by Mr. Ron Vining and the vote was recorded as follows: Ayes: Mrs. Nunez, Mr. Johnson, Mrs. Abshire, Nays: Mr. Morris. Absent: Mr. Billiot, Mr. Hebert.

After contacting the school board office about speaking at the Sept. 9, meeting I received a phone call from our school superintendent, Pam LaFleur, informing me that my road still would not be traveled and that I would only be allowed five minutes to speak. (The public participation states that I am to tell them how long it should take to speak).

Also, she stated that I did not have to go before the board, that I could speak not only to my representative but that I could speak to the other five members. I sent registered letters (with self-addressed stamped envelopes included) to all six members. To this date I have received responses from Mr. Morris, Mrs. Nunez and Mrs. Abshire (which, Mrs. Abshire, I received the day after the school board meeting).

With the exception of Mr. Morris the board members were asked if they had made any attempts in finding out the views of their communities before voting on this policy. Mrs. Nunez and Mrs. Abshire stated that, yes, they had. In an earlier conversation with Mrs. laFleur, she stated that the policy could be rejected by the board if there were enough complaints. I presented a petition with 153 signatures, which would have been more if I had not been asked not to return to the school with it, and had I thought of it sooner.

I guess to be fair, if they discussed the policy over the dinner table with their family it would be considered getting the community's views. Apparently 153 signatures were not enough complaints. Mrs. LaFleur, how many is enough?

That was the first school board meeting I had ever attended. I am ashamed to admit that those seven people (excluding Mr. Morris, but adding Mrs. LaFleur and Mr. Vining) have been put into office for the benefit of our children. They have made a mockery of representation. Well, the joke may be on us now but in October of 1998 the residents of Cameron Parish can have the last laugh. That is when the next school board election will be.

It will be interesting to see which ones will have the backbone to go knocking on the doors of the same people that they have turned a deaf ear to. In six to nine months some of them will be asking for our vote again. Mrs. Nunez and Mrs. Abshire have stated that they are "undecided" if they would seek re-election.

Their minds were already made up the day of that meeting about rejecting the bus policy. Mr. Morris voted for the board to reject it and no one would second it, therefore it died due to lack of a second. Mr. Morris is the only member of the school board worthy enough to represent our children. Oh, sure, they humor us by allowing us to speak, but when they hear something they do not like they say, "We have heard enough, five minute recess," slam the gavel and leave the room.

On Sept. 11, two days after the meeting there was an article in the Lake Charles American Press (not in the Cameron Pilot) stating that in the Sept. 9, meeting that the school board decided to gather information to assess maintenance and refurbishment needs at each school in the parish. They state that they would get input from their own communities and then meet with "key system personnel" to pool ideas, (Mrs. Nunez, is that what that was at the open house?). Mrs. Abshire will be heading this committee.

Mrs. Abshire says that there has been discussion in Hackberry and Grand Lake seeking local bond issues to fund needed school improvements. She also says that there is some confusion over what is routine maintenance, which would be funded by existing parishwide taxes, and what is renovation or improvement, which could be paid for by extra local taxes.

Now, isn't that what they wanted the other two taxes for? When South Cameron's concession stand burned down it was declared an emergency and was reconstructed in time for the first home game of the season. The Cameron Pilot stated it was paid for by our school board, and the central office, with ANR Pipeline donating the paint.

Mr. Johnson stated in the meeting that parents should show as much concern over the education their children receive as they do about things like buses, football mouthpieces and concession stands. Well, Mr. Johnson, in case you haven't noticed, I don't know of any other school in Cameron Parish that has to worry about football mouthpieces, because we are not fortunate enough to have a football team.

Mr. Johnson also said that some of the buses had holes in them that you could put your hand through. How did the buses come to get in that condition without being properly maintained. Where is all our tax money being spent? It is time the people of Cameron Parish know what is happening to all the money. It is also time the school board realizes they are working for us and are accountable for their actions. The schools keep asking parents to get involved with their children's education, and when we do they get the attitude that they know what is best for our children, not us.

It is amazing how these members can say to all of Cameron Parish that their opinions do not matter. So they think cuts need to be made; well, how about considering these suggestions:

1. Pay the board member according to their attendance record (if they do not attend they do not get paid). Apparently some are not able to attend because of conflicting work schedules. Why should they be getting paid twice for doing nothing.

2. Let the board members volunteer their services instead of drawing a salary. 3. Have the bus drivers drive their personal vehicles to the schools, run their route, and then go home in their own vehicles.

As I am writing this letter I received a call from a parent about a telephone conversation with their bus driver. The driver informed them that they will be doing both routes at the same time because there are no students riding the buses. Could it be because the parents do not want to jeopardize the lives of their children by letting them walk to the bus?

If there are no children riding the buses there is no need for drivers or buses is there? Without the children there is no education, without the children there is no need for a lot of things. Come on Cameron Parish, let's get these people out of office and put someone in who "really" cares about our children. (With the exception of Mr. Morris.)

A few more things that need to be addressed. 1. Can anyone explain why the school board rejected a bid of $97.000 for a mineral lease when it was the only bid they received? 2. For the bus drivers at Grand Lake, remember, there are children around when you are on your routes and in the halls of Grand Lake School. They can hear you and they repeat what they hear. 3. has anyone seen Mr. Billiot.

Come On October 1998.

/s/ Marlene Leger,

(Lake Charles American Press, Sept. 15, 1933)

But for a return of the old Borealis Rex days, Cameron Parish would be isolated today.

High water, remaining from the recent heavy rains, and pushed even higher by waters from the gulf disturbance, yesterday left Cameron cut off from the world as far as highway traffic is concerned.

Just as the Borealis Rex carried the mail to Cameron, the Tramp, a gasoline boat owned by J. S. Thomson, left yesterday with mail for Cameron, and makes the return trip today.

Up until about a year ago mail was delivered by boat to Cameron three times a week, and this schedule will be followed with the Tramp, until water recedes at Hackberry, where Route 104 is inundated. Since completion of the Cameron highway, out of Sulphur and through Hackberry, the mail has been delivered by truck.

A Salute To South Cameron High School

I wish to extend my best wishes to the students, faculty and graduates of South Cameron High School on the occasion of the annual Homecoming Friday.

South Cameron High School is truly a credit to Cameron Parish. The school has one of the finest school plants to be found anywhere. It also has a fine faculty and outstanding programs.

All of the returning alumni of South Cameron as well as graduates of the school's predecessors, Creole and Grand Chenier High Schools, remind us of the fine citizens who have graduated at South Cameron over the years. We know that they continue to be proud of their old Alma Mater.

On one last note, I hope that all of the students and graduates enjoy the homecoming festivities and the ballgame. I sincerely urge all of you to be careful when driving home to enable the parish to continue its safety record and make the Homecoming have a happy ending.

Your Friend,

James R. Savoie
Sheriff, Cameron Parish

Tarpons to host Kinder at Homecoming game

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons open district 5 2-A play here this Friday as the Kinder Yellow Jackets come to town. The Tarpons take a 5-0 record into the opening district game while Kinder brings a 3-2 worksheet into the contest. The Tarpons have some injuries as offensive backs Brandon Conner and Steve Moore are lost for the year.

The Tarpons had Cory Broussard return for the first time. He scored a touchdown on a two yard run. The Tarpons also can turn the defense loose and get more turnovers. They have only given up 11 points in five games.

John Pradia, the quarterback, can run more now that two of his running backs are gone. Another plus for the Tarpons is the kicking game. They can hit field goals anywhere inside the 45 and you will always start from the 20 on kickoffs.

The Tarpon punter, John Mark Montie, also does an excellent job.

The Tarpons, even without Moore and Conner, are the favorites to win the district. The district members are Kinder, Oakdale, Welsh, Lake Arthur, Iota and South Cameron.

Let's fill Tarpon Stadium Friday night and show our support s the Number One ranked Tarpons open district. It is also possible with the two running backs out that the Tarpons may throw a little more often. Both John Pradia and John Mark Montie are capable of throwing. The Tarpons top two receivers have been Scott Suratt and Ryan Billingsly.

The Tarpon offensive and defensive lines are capable of stepping up their game as the district season gets underway.

Other district games find Oakdale at Welsh and Iota at Lake Arthur, tonight, Thurs., Oct. 9.

Tarps still Number 1

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons maintained their hold on Number 1 in the prep poll. The Tarpons received nine first place votes and a total of 118 to hold a 7 point lead over second place Northeast.

Iota, also of District 5 2-A, is in fifth place with 77 points. Many received 19 points and Pickering is fourth with 79 points.

CLASS 2-A

1. South Cameron, 9, 5-0, 118
2. Northeast, 1, 5-0, 107
3. Port Barre, 0, 5-0, 100
4. Pickering, 5-0, 79
5. Iota, 90, 5-0, 77
6. West St. John, 4-1, 65
7. Homer, 0, 4-1, 54
8. Newman, 4-1, 47
9. Oak Grove, 0, 4-1, 46
10. Ouachita Christian, 4-1, 39

Others: Many, 19; Teurlings, 17; Riverside, 6; Livonia, 3; Oakdale 2; Pope John Paul, 1; Buckeye, 1; Jonesboro Hodge, 1.

Red snapper fishing ends

The commercial fishery for red snapper in Louisiana waters closed at noon Oct. 6, the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries announced. The fishery will remain closed until further notice.

National Marine Fisheries Service officials notified LDWF Secretary James H Jenkins Jr. that the commercial quota of red snapper has been taken and that season closure is necessary to prevent overfishing of this species.

Commercial fishing for red snapper in adjacent federal waters will be closed by NMFS at the same date and time.

Sabine will close 15th

Sabine National Wildlife Refuge's interior fishing season will close at sunset on Oct. 15. These areas will remain closed throughout the winter to protect and maintain waterfowl concentrations in the area. All gates to the boat ramps will be closed. No person should launch a boat during the closure except for a person possessing a valid refuge permit.

The West Cove Recreation Area'c North Boat Ramp and canal will remain open only for boat access to the West Cove of the Calcasieu Lake.

The areas along the roadside canals adjacent to Highway 27 will remain open during the winter for fishing, crabbing, and castnetting. The refuge fishing regulations remain in effect. The Marsh Nature Trail will remain open. Public use will be limited from sunrise to sunset except for a person possessing a valid refuge permit stating otherwise.

All boats left on the refuge must be removed by sunset on Oct. 15. Any boats left on the refuge after Oct. 15, will be seized by the Government.

Anyone desiring additional information about the closure should contact the refuge at 318-762-3816 or stop by the headquarters between 7 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Friday Night KICKOFF

Tarpons are 5-0 after LC-B win

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons raised their season record to 5-0 as they beat the Lake Charles-Boston football team 38-0.

The win enabled the Tarpons to maintain their hold on the Number One ranking in Class 2-A.

The Tarpons jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead, scoring 21 points in the second quarter. Brandon Conner ran in from the 3-yard line for the Tarpons first score. Then Steve Moore scored on runs of 1-yard and 19-yards.

Brandon conner scored on a 2-yard run in the third quarter and John Mark Montie hit a 40-yard field goal.

The Tarpons defense again did an excellent job holding Lake Charles-Boston to only 22 yards rushing. They also had four turnovers, three fumble recoveries and one pass interception.

The Tarpon kicking game again was excellent as Montie punted twice and had a 57-yard average.

The Tarpons had both Brandon Conner and Steve Moore receive injuries in the game.

The Tarpons start district this Friday as they play Kinder at home with a 7 p.m. kickoff.

Open house to be held at Cameron Prairie

There are hundreds of special places across the country where you can view alligators basking in the sun, observe wintering waterfowl, photograph a wide array of migratory birds or wet a line for trophy redfish. These special places are called national wildlife refuges, and there are more than 500 of them throughout the United states, many within an hour's drive of major cities.

In southwest Louisiana there are three, Cameron Prairie, Sabine and Lacassine National Wildlife Refuges.

Refuge Manager Paul Yakupzack of Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuge announces that the refuge is celebrating National Wildlife Refuge Week Oct. 12-18, by having an open house for refuge visitors on Sun., Oct. 12 and Sat., Oct. 18. The hours of operation on these two dates will be 8 a.m.-4 p.m. The refuge visitors center is normally closed on Sundays and has reduced hours of operation on Saturdays.

The refuge visitors center features wildlife dioramas, displays, exhibits and a Cajun robot named Tante Marie that amazes most audiences. There is a ten minute video about Cameron Prairie NWR that is shown upon request.

Anyone with questions or needing directions to Cameron Prairie NWR should call the refuge office at 318-598-2216.

Rules told for voters

New voter procedures outlined by Act 779 of the 1997 Louisiana Legislative Session have been approved by the U. S. Justice Department and will be implemented in all upcoming elections, according to Secretary of State W. Fox McKeithen.

The New Act requires election commissioners to identify each voter by asking for a Louisiana driver's license, a Louisiana special identification card or some other generally recognized picture identification. In addition, commissioners are asked to compare the voter's signature with the one on the picture ID.

Voters without a valid Louisiana driver's license can obtain a free Louisiana special identification card from the Office of Motor Vehicles upon presentation of their voter registration card. If a voter does not have the special card or some acceptable form of picture identification, he must provide further identification by presenting a current registration certificate, giving date of birth or providing other information stated in the precinct register. He must then execute a "Voter Identification Affidavit" which will be available at the polls to verify his identification.

"This Act is a tightening of election procedures in an effort to assure fair and valid election results, and we must adhere to the law," notes Wade Martin, director of the Secretary of State's Elections Division. "Notices of the new procedures will be posted at polling sites, and commissioners will be sent special instructions."

The Shallow Prong Project was reported by George Bailey, Wm. Lloyd Badon and Joseph Boudreaux. The Marsh Machine is heading north along the canal cleanout and is approaching the right of way of NGPL 2 pipelines that cross our digging. Bailey and Mark Grant of NGPL are discussing the situation and agreements are expected shortly. Also, 3 3" low pressure pipelines are to be checked into where they cross our digging.

Discussion with Quality Industries on delivery of new Link Belt Marsh Machine indicate that delivery is expected about Oct. 15, 1997. On a motion by Ivan Barentine, 2nd by Carroll Trahan, passed, that 2 deteriorated culvert structures at Deep Bayou where it meets B-T Canal be replaced.

Discussion on Head of Deep Bayou drainage problems, George Bailey is to visit with land owners after drawing preliminary plans for their inputs.

With reference to culverts replacement and levee repairs in Holly Beach area, culverts are to be ordered, and when new Marsh Machine is delivered work is to be done.

Lloyd Badon is to check out pipelines on Jim Badon request.

The Dwight Erbeldings request is complete.

The financial report for August was presented by Executive Secretary Rodney Guilbeaux. It was discussed, reviewed and accepted.

Rodney Guilbeaux reported on the Monkey Island Bridge meeting held on August 28 at the Cameron Parish Police Jury Annex. Representative Dan Flavin stated that a low level bridge (fixed span) would be replacing the old present ferry crossing from Cameron to Monkey Island according to La. DOTD.

At the Economic Development meeting held on Sept. 8, at the Jury Annex, it was decided to ask for a $250,000 feasibility study for a bridge over the Calcasieu Ship Channel at Cameron. The study would be for a fixed span high level, draw bridge, a twin swing span medium level bridge and a tunnel under the channel. A twin swing span was voted to be the only solution generally agreed to. The CPPJ will pass a resolution at its next meeting (special) calling for the study ASAP.

Guilbeaux reported that the IRS tax levy was handled and resolved. The tax was paid in July of 1996 (using a Fed ID # that the Board had been using since it was organized) and refunded to the CPPJ on March of 1997. The CPPJ refunded the check to this Board this month, and then the tax was again paid to the IRS. The penalty was waived, but not the interest.

A letter was sent to the Sabine Wildlife Refuge re: Draft Permit for Control Structures. No reply or correspondence has been received.

A discussion on Holly Beach drainage problems by John Castle, Kenneth Kellum, Wayne Pugh and Evelyn Lagneaux on Mallard Street was delayed until next meeting when the Board will review culvert policy.

The Board requested that the Executive Secretary contact Joe Prochaska and others for computer information. A list of specifications for computers will be given to 4 or 5 firms for price quotes and will be reviewed at the next meeting. The Board auditing firm will be contacted for information about compatible programming and software.

George Bailey reported on his field trip with Fina Oil on their permit application for culverts at 1st Bayou north of Holly Beach. Fina will furnish and install 4 culverts 36" x 46'. On a motion by Rogerest Romero, 2nd by Carrol Trahan, passed, the Board agreed to have our back hoe and operator assist in the installation.

Carl Wayne Jinks requested that the culverts were repaired be lowered. Lloyd Badon to check it out and subject will be discussed at next meeting.

There being no further business, motion by Rogerest Romero, second by Carroll Trahan, passed, that the meeting be adjourned.

The next regular meeting will be held on Thursday, october 16, 1997 at 6:30 p.m. at Board Office at 205 Middle Ridge Road in Johnson Bayou, La.

VISITORS

Resident and non-resident fishermen as well as hunters, boaters and bird watchers, enjoyed Louisiana last year. Residents alone accounted for 1.2 million people with a $1.8 billion impact, helping our state's economy. More than one million Americans fished Louisiana waters last year. License sales were up in 1996, 662,960, compared to 606,200 in 1993. Here's a break-down of activities: Louisiana residents fished an average of 25 days, out of state anglers, 4 days. Resident hunters spent 21 days in the field, while out of state hunters averaged 5 days in the field.

Bird watchers, wildlife photographers, visitors to state parks from out of state numbered 260,000 and spent 9 days doing so.

FISHING REPORT

The teams from the Henderson Swamp won first place at the Super Dogfight held on Toledo Bend, with a 16.44 pound stringer worth over $18,000. Billy Billeaud and Brooke Morrison also had the second place largest bass, going 6.25 pounds. Second place went to David Rabalais from the Lacassine Refuge region. Thirteen pounds of fish was worth $800 in cash and a trip for two to Mexico for David.

Calcasieu River anglers Paul Frilot and Troy Tate had the largest bass, 9.03 pounds and took 4th with 12.37 pounds of fish.

There were two local teams from Lacassine Refuge who placed, as well as two teams from Sabine Refuge and three teams from the Calcasieu River.

Anglers fishing Lacassine Refuge were fighting heavy growth following the trails, using gold spoons with pork chunks as well as red shad and tequilla sunrise worms.

Redfish are biting in the Mermentau river in the Hog Bayou area, cut and the ponds. Water running is best, speckle trout still around the jetties close to shore, but also at the closer small platforms offshore.

Calcasieu Lake is producing some special trout on top water baits, especially late evening and right after dark. A few more cold fronts and redfish will start schooling and the fun begins.

HUNTING

Reports of rabbit bagged was slim, but weather is still hot. Also, reports of archery deer harvest is slim, again, the deer are still way out in our marshes as there's lots of food, heavy cover and just enough rain for them to drink and stay put. This weekend, Oct. 11, gun season will open and I think it'll be good as distance with the rifle will make the difference for the deer in the marshes. Also, it's either sex hunts for opening weekend, Oct. 11 and 12. The other either sex days for our area are Oct. 25-26, Nov. 1,2,8,9,28, 29, and 30.

In another week, if we don't get too much rain, and a little colder weather, opening of dove season on Oct. 18, should be good. Remember, noon hunting for the first two days. Daily bag 12, possession 24, after first day. Dove hunting is among the most popular and sought after bird, yet one of the least practical. Eighty percent of the dove hunters hunt opening weekend or maybe two and that's it for the rest of the season. Really some of the best dove hunting comes later in the second split.

Dove hunting dropped 50 percent mainly because of no place to hunt and the complication of state and federal baiting regulations. Many dove hunters have stopped hunting in once productive fields rather than end up on the wrong side of the law and not know it.

Refuges are the focus of this week

The second week of October has been proclaimed as National Wildlife Refuge Week. To celebrate this event, the Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge and the Lafayette Ecological Services Field Office will sponsor an information booth at the Prien Lake Mall, Lake Charles, on Oct. 16 from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Stop by the booth and receive information, refuge brochures, and refuge hunting permits for all of Louisiana's National Wildlife Refuges.

The first National Wildlife Refuge, Pelican Island in Florida, was established by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1903 to protect herons, egrets, and other colonial nesting birds from slaughter by market hunters. What began 94 years ago with a small island off the coast of Florida is now more than 500 refuges strong, 92 million acres in size, and in all 50 states and several territories.

For additional information on National Wildlife Refuge Week, a map, and a poster of our National Wildlife Refuges, call 1-800-344-WILD, stop by the Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge ,located on Highway 3056, 11 miles southwest of Lake Arthur, telephone 318-774-5923, or write: Refuge Manager, Lacassine National Wildlife Refuge, 209 Nature Road, Lake Arthur, La. 70549.

The Challenge of Genealogy

by MARIE WISE

Daniel Sylvester WARD born c1810 in North Carolina, died 1874 in Lake Charles, Louisiana; had bought land there in 1853 from Samuel A. Kirby, adjoining property already owned by Daniel.

Daniel married Caroline Alzenith Keller c1848 and they had 3 children: Nancy Alice who married Henry Clay Powell, 1865, probably at Lake Charles, moved to Texas after 1880; William F. who mar. Sarah Elizabeth Clark, 1880, in Rapides Parish, died in West Carroll Parish; and Susan Frances who mar. Louis H. Lyles, 1878, in Calcasieu Parish (possibly at Lake Charles).

Also, Caroline's daughter by a previous marriage to Richard N. Insall; Alzenith Elizabeth Insall, born 1841 in Avoyelles Parish, married Augustus Hodges, 1855, at Lake Charles, died 1926 at Ragley, Beauregard Parish, at the home of her son, Henry Hodges.

SOUTHWEST LA KINFOLKS

Kinfolks, quarterly publication of the Southwest Louisiana Genealogical Society, gives the above family information and more in an article by Artie McDonald in its current Volume 21 No. 3 issue.

"Marriages Weren't Made in Heaven" is another of the interesting and informative articles in this issue of Kinfolks. "Marriages" tells much of colonial America and Louisiana marriage customs; names many individuals from records; and advises on researching marriages for genealogy.

"The Cowboys" by Zilda M. Hebert recalls the early Louisiana cattle industry and the famous cattle drives. "Southwest Louisiana, The Alamo and Santa Anna" re-tells the Alamo story and concludes with "Genealogy of the Ryan Family (1730-1878) of Southwest Louisiana" by Martha Jean Ellis. (Issac Ryan was one of the Alamo defenders.)

"Charles Cronea, the Last of Lafitte's Pirates" by Doris Saxon Breaux and W. T. Block outlines this man's life from his 1805 birth in France to his 1893 death at High Island, Texas, leaving 94 descendants. "Hurricane" tells about the 1886 devastation between Johnson's Bayou, LA and Sabine Pass, TX and "The 1918 Storm in Lake Charles" by Marjorie Nelson Myers tells about that disaster - both stories with many names.

"Genealogical Data From Abstract" by Gayle Royer Salter traces 1892-1927 records for a parcel of land in Calcasieu Parish, Ward 6 north of Sulphur.

Softcover, 8 1/2 x 11 in., 47 pages, indexed, available with $12.00 annual membership in the Society, P.O. Box 5652, Lake Charles, LA 70606-5652.

CAMERON CATTLE

H.K. Midkiff, federal tick inspector for Calcasieu, Cameron and Jeff Davis parishes, returned Tuesday noon on the steamer Rex from attending a session of the Cameron Parish Police Jury in Cameron Monday night for the purpose of conferring with that body on tick eradication and to submit his monthly report of progress and of work done.

His report of dippings and the condition of cattle as regards ticks in Cameron is as follows:

Cattle dipped, 48,980; horses dipped 2,111; total horses and cattle dipped, 51,091; herds of cattle dipped, 409; ticky cattle herds, 9; ticky cattle, 35.

According to this report there are only nine ticky herds and 35 ticky cattle in Cameron at this time.

Mr. Midkiff said the president of the Cameron Parish Police Jury asked him to warn stock owners against driving cattle into his parish from Calcasieu without certificates from the federal inspector showing they are free of ticks, that such action is against the law and that he would cause to be prosecuted any persons who do so.

Cameron Pilot, Sept. 10, 1964

HACKBERRY DIKE MATTER

After kicking the matter around for some four or five months, the Cameron Parish Police Jury Monday finally acted on the Hackberry spoil dike matter.

Upon a motion by Archie Berwick, the body adopted unanimously a resolution addressed to the U. S. Corps of Engineers asking them to delete from the ship channel enlargement project a dike on the west side designed to keep spoils from going back into the channel.

The Jury also asked the Engineers not to dump any spoils on the Hackberry side, but to put it all on the east side of the channel.

The adoption of the resolution was due to the persistence of one man--fishing camp owner Jasper King of Hackberry who has brought the matter before the jury at every meeting for the past four or five months.

King contented that the dike would cause the cove on which his and other camps are located to silt up closing off the lake to them and also killing the shrimping and oystering in that area.

LONG LINES AWAIT FERRY

Traffic is again crossing the Intracoastal Canal north of Hackberry but it's a mighty slow process. Long lines of cars, trucks, vehicles with boat trailers, etc. can be seen on either sides of the canal, particularly in the morning and evenings.

The cable ferry was brought in to replace the Ellender pontoon bridge which was knocked out recently by a barge. Repairs to the bridge are expected to take about six months.

TEAMS OPEN SEASONS

Cameron Parish's two high school football teams will open their 1964-65 seasons both a way from home this week--Hackberry at St. Maria Goretti in Lake Arthur Thursday night, and South Cameron at Marion.

The Hackberry game had been scheduled for Friday night but has changed to Thursday night and will be played on the Lake Arthur High School field.

Hackberry, although handicapped by the small number of boys out--16, and having only three returning starters, hopes to improve this year.

The returning starters are fullback Ernie Parker, guard Mike Devall, and back Jim Duhon. Other lettermen include Thomas Frey, Raymound Toups, M.O. LaBove, Robert and Clarence Silvers.

The South Cameron Tarpons, who made a creditable showing by playing Iowa to a 0-0 tie Friday night in the Iowa Jamboree, will be taking on Class A Marion this week--a team which they have never been able to beat. The Tarpons came through the Iowa game with no injuries and expect to be in fine shape for the Marion game.

ROUNDABOUT THE PARISH

Creole--Someone must have left the "bad weather" gates open this past week because no less than three of those rough, turbulent females--Dora, Ethel and Florence by name--escaped into the open seas, churning up some powerful hurricane weather. With so many hurricanes at one time, "hurricane jitters" swept through Creole, Little Chenier, and Chenier Perdue, this past Tuesday with the result that rumors to evacuate were rampant, prompting several families to pack up and leave.

Grand Chenier--Much oil activity is seen around Grand Chenier. This past week the H.T. Porter, Inc. rig moved into the north marsh back of Moise Sturleses' place. A Penrod rig moved into the Deep Lake field in the south marsh south of the Sturlese place. Several other rigs are busy drilling here also.

Grand Lake 4-H Officers--The following officers for the senior 4-H Club will serve during the new school year: Anriette Greathouse, president; Judy Sensat, vice-president; Priscilla Dulion, secretary; J.M. RIVER TO BE DREDGED AT CAMERON

The U. S. Corps of Engineers has agreed to dredge out the old loop of the Calcasieu River, cut off by the Lake Charles Ship Channel, which serves as the harbor for the town of Cameron.

At the suggestion of the Cameron Lions Club, the Cameron Parish Police Jury last month wrote the Corps requesting that the silt and sand be dredged out of this section of the river which provides dockage for the Cameron fishing and oil industries.

In a letter to Jury President Frankie Henry, Col. Thomas Bowen, district engineer, New Orleans, advised that the Corps has scheduled the work for next April.

FIRE DEPT. AT GRAND LAKE

A meeting will be held at the Grand Lake High School Friday, Sept. 18, to organize a volunteer fire fighting company for the communities of Grand Lake and Sweetlake.

Other communities in the parish which have volunteer fire departments include Cameron, Hackberry and Creole.

system and allow a contractor to come in and look at present equipment and recommend proposals.

The board agreed to advertise for a comprehensive energy contract.

Guidry, a student services supervisor, outlined for the school board the new changes in the state law in disciplinary matters.

No disciplinary action will be taken against a student for using force when the student is acting in self defense in the use of force.

When a young student is removed from class for disciplinary reasons, he or she will not be allowed to return to class without the teacher's permission and older students will not be permitted to return before the end of the class period.

Suspension periods can carried over into the following school year. Sometimes there are problems with the students on the last day of school year because they think they can get away with it, Guidry said.

Expulsions will be, in most cases, for one semester, but can carry over into the following school year.

Expulsion is permitted, but no longer mandated, if a student is convicted of a felony.

Judy Jones, lower elementary supervisor, reported that the school system planned to upgrade the lower elementary reading program with a program grant which will not cost the local school anything.

A $58,000 grant is being used by social studies and science to development program lesson plans that will be centered around the technology carts, she said.

The staff is also seeking an $83,000 state grant to implement the first phase of its technology plan.

Karen Terrebonne, a mother of a student in the Johnson Bayou elementary school, spoke to the school board after having filled out a card in the board's new system of speaking before the board.

She said that students were being disciplined unnecessarily for minor offenses at the school, and she wanted to help the staff in overseeing the use of the system.

In other business the board:

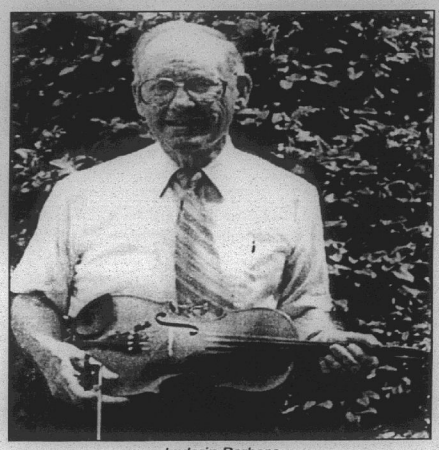
Rejected bids for six new school buses and voted to re-advertise.

Appointed Lois Murphy as lunchroom manager at Cameron Elementary School.

Approved eight weeks of leave without pay for Cynthia Savoie, lunchroom technician at South Cameron High School, and leave without pay until Jan. 10, 1998, for tutor Lisa Savoie.

Rejected a sole surface lease bid because it was not accompanied by a certified or cashier's check, and voted to re-advertise.

Accepted bids for $8,478 worth of instructional equipment, and lowest bids on fuel.



Luderin Darbone

Ramblers still playing after 66 years of fun

By ALLAIN A. de la VILLESBRET

Sulphur resident Luderin Darbone is a man who smiles easily. If you were Darbone, you'd smile too. Married to the same woman, the former Miss Mary Lue Dupuis of Crowley, for 58 years, a union that is blessed with one son, Edward Joseph, a successful engineer in Baton Rouge, the fiddle player has seen enough of life to know a good ride. At present, his band, the Hackberry Ramblers, is enjoyed a very good ride.

Generations of fans in southwest Louisiana and east Texas have enjoyed the Hackberry Ramblers during the band's 66 year entertainment career, a time during which the local group has risen from dance hall band to festival attraction, from radio headliner to recording artists, to become a legend and innovator of folk and Cajun string music. But the band's musical success is far from an end result.

Just last month, USA Today printed a highly favorable review of the band's latest CD, Deep Water, which utilizes the talents of great guest singers like Marcia Ball. The Ramblers soon will head to New York for full slate of activities, which includes a gig at the Bottom Line, a Sunday morning guest broadcast on radio and a television appearance on the September 22nd Vicky Lawrence Show on the Fox network.

USA Today's David Zimmerman wrote of the Ramblers' Deep Water: "After playing swampy Louisiana dance tunes for six decades, the Ramblers have sacrificed a bit of virtuosity but none of their vitality. Octogenarians Luderin Darbone and Edwin Duhon still kick out the jams in loose, festive arrangements of raw, countried Cajun music. The hillbilly duo, recording since 1935, beat Bob Dylan to the electric folk revolution when they powered a dance hall sound system off the battery of an idling Model-T Ford."

It was a Model A. But the error doesn't bother Luderin Darbone. He just smiles about the national exposure, and the local attention it has attracted. The Ramblers are rambling just fine right now.

On a recent Summer afternoon, while the 83 year old fiddle player was enjoying his home on Darbone Street, a street that was named after his mother's house, the first on the then unnamed road, Darbone talked about his band, past, present and future.

"See those bricks," he said, pointing to the walls of his tidy home. "I built this place back in 1953. I figured out the cost of each and every brick. I figured that I had played one tune for each brick in this house."

Today, the brick-for-each-tune formula would build the Sulphur Judicial Center twice over. The Hackberry Ramblers, the oldest country/Cajun string band in the world, cut their teeth on dance numbers, lots and lots of dance numbers. You can't Faisdo-do without dance tunes, and the Ramblers are, first and foremost, entertainers.

The band was formed in 1933 by Luderin Darbone and his neighbor, Ed Duhon, whose family lived across the street from Darbone's family.

Luderin's family moved to Hackberry in 1931 from Orangefield, Tex. Darbone was twelve years old when his parents bought for him a mail order violin and correspondence lessons. "They called it a violin," he said, "but since I've been playing by ear, it's a fiddle." His neighbor Ed Duhon was learning to play the guitar and the accordion, so the boys hit it off right away. They played and practiced together, and soon they were getting dance hall dates. Along with Lennis Sonnier and Floyd Rainwater, they became known as the Hackberry Ramblers.

When Darbone started getting good, his father, an oil field worker, bought the young musician his second fiddle. "The man always had work," Darbone said, "even in the Great Depression, he always found a way. I got my second fiddle because he worked for an oil company that owed him money. And they said, 'we own a jewelry store in Port Arthur, just go over there and get whatever you want, for the amount we owe you.' So we went there, and we saw this violin hanging on the wall. He got it for twenty dollars. That was an expensive instrument in those days. That's the one I used until 1937, when I bought a new one from Montgomery Ward."

In the 1930's and 1940's, the Hackberry Ramblers played dance halls all over Louisiana and east Texas. Some of these communities were pure French speaking, and most of the dance halls had cornmeal spread on their floors to make dancing easier. The problem for a string band, however, was that the noise from dancing and general celebration often drowned out the music. Darbone, who had taken business classes and was an agile thinker, devised a system of amplification that consisted of a 20 watt amp, one speaker and one crystal microphone. It was powered by Darbone's car, a 1928 Model A Roadster. On the car's spare tire was advertised the name of the band and a phone number.

They placed the speaker on the opposite side of the hall from the band. The results were so successful that dance hall owners began electrifying their structures, which let Darbone's car off the hook.

In 1935, the band moved to Crowley to be more centrally located. That was how Luderin met his wife. "We had neighbors next door who had a truck," Mary Lue Darbone said. "they'd take people to the dances. Ten cents a head. So I went with some friends and I met Luderin, and I liked him. He was a cute guy, and he was nice. Very nice. We went together about three years. When we married, he was playing about one dance a week, about five dollars a week. That was in 1939. He'd go to the store and buy two bags of groceries. Two bags, for five dollars.

The 1930's were good for the Hackberry Ramblers. Not only were they getting dances, but they managed to get a daily morning radio show with KFDM in Beaumont when the station set up a remote in Lake Charles. The band cut its first record of ten selections for RCA Victor in 1935, on the Bluebird label. With musical success, however, life's struggle did not cease.

"My dad got killed right after I got married," Darbone said, "and the company, Star Oil Corporation, hired me to work the lease. I had to work nights, and that gets old when you're young. But the fellow who was in charge was a relative, and he'd take care of the lease when I had a dance to play. I worked for them for about a year, then went back to business college as the war broke out. That was when the band broke up. Since most of the guys were off at the war - they didn't want me - I got a job right away. I went to work for Swift and Company Meat Packing as a bookkeeper. I worked for them for 17 years."

Darbone has kept a day job throughout his musical career. He owned and operated a small gas station in Crowley, then he worked for Swift, then he put in another seventeen years with PPG. "After I retired," he said, "I worked for PPG for another three years. I was known as a consultant, and I was drawing twice the money I was before."

The Hackberry Ramblers got back together after WWII ended, to play the Silver Star Club on weekends. The band has been playing, in one form or another, ever since their reunion. Over forty members have played and recorded with the Ramblers in sets of trio to sextet. They have played clubs in New York, California, and the Midwest. The band has played folk and heritage festivals and fairs all over the country, including th New Orleans Jazz and Heritage Festival; Fan Fair in Nashville, the Bluegrass Festival in Rhode Island, and the Berkeley Folk Music Festival at the University of California.

In 1963, the Hackberry Ramblers returned to recording. Over the years, they have recorded over 100 songs, some original tunes, some classics of Cajun music, some both.

The band is in the Country Music Hall of Fame, has won the Big Easy best country folk band award, has broadcast over National Public Radio, and has been honored by the legislature of Louisiana for its contributions to Louisiana music and culture. Gov. Foster gave the band a life time achievement award, and Sulphur's Mayor Charles Reed has honored the Hackberry Ramblers on several occasions.

To give something back to the community, the Ramblers have been playing nursing home dates for a number of years. It was at one of these dates that they lost an old friend. Rhythm guitar player Johnny Farque pitched forward at a concert at Rosewood. He was dead before he hit the floor. "Johnny once said he wanted to go like that," said Darbone, "playing his guitar. And that's the way he went."

On the Ramblers new CD, Luderin Darbone and Edwin Duhon play with relative youngster Ben Sandmel, who beats the skins. Glen Croker plays lead guitar player, sing and serves as Master of Ceremonies, and Johnny Faulk, known far and wide in Cameron Parish as a showman supreme, is the bass fiddle player. Guest singers include Marcia Ball, Rodney Crowell, and Jimmie Dale Gilmore. By all accounts, the music is not time in a capsule. It's as vibrant and alive as a dance hall in Louisiana on a hot summer night.

PARISHWIDE POLICE JURY PROPOSITION

TO PROHIBIT THE SALE, SERVING, OR DISPENSING OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ON SUNDAYS.

Shall Chapter 3, Article III. Sunday sales and closing of the Code of Ordinances, Parish of Cameron, Louisiana, regulating or prohibiting the opening of certain businesses and/or the sale of certain stock or articles of merchandise on Sunday be amended, approved and enacted as follows:

Article III. Sunday sales, serving and dispensing.

Sec. 3-45. Sunday sales, serving, or dispensing of beverages of alcoholic content prohibited.

Vote set Saturday on Sunday liquor sales

Cameron parish voters will have two choices when they go to vote Saturday, Oct. 18 on the proposition on the sale of alcohol beverages on Sunday:

*If they vote YES on the proposition, they will be saying they do NOT want ANY alcohol sold on Sundays in the parish.

*If they vote NO they will be saying that they DO want sales of alcohol in the parish by any type of establishments--convenience stores, grocery stores, bars, festivals, private clubs, etc.

The package sale of beer and wine by convenience and grocery stores and with meals by restaurants has been permitted in the parish in the past, but if the proposition is approved these sales will end.

Also, if the measure passes, the police jury no longer will be able to grant special permission for festivals and other functions to sell beer on Sunday.

The police jury called the election after a number of bar owners requested the parish ordinance be changed to permit the bars to sell alcohol on Sunday. They maintained it was unfair for other establishments to sell beer on Sunday when they were not allowed to do so.

The police jury decided to call an election on the matter after it was found that the parish Sunday sale ordinance was invalid since it had not been voted on by parish citizens.

Both the ministerial association and Sheriff Sono Savoie have expressed their opposition to Sunday liquor sales.

Convenience store owners point out that losing their Sunday sales will be costly to them and that their customers will drive to Calcasieu or Vermilion parishes or into Texas to get their beer on Sunday.

Persons going to vote Saturday are minded to bring a picture identification, such as a driver's license, with them as a new state law requires these to be presented before they can vote.

The fact that the voter is known to the voting commissioners will not be enough to allow them to vote.

Ruby Kelley, Cameron Parish Registrar of Voters, said that 95 persons voted absentee last week. She said this was a sizable number considering that there are usually only about 30 absentee votes cast in anp election.

From comments made by the absentee voters, she said that the sentiments of the voters seem to be running about 50-50 on the proposition.

Mrs. Kelley said the parish now has 6,631 registered voters which is up about 200 from the recent past.

Rules told for voters

New voter procedures outlined by Act 779 of the 1997 Louisiana Legislative Session have been approved by the U. S. Justice Department and will be implemented in all upcoming elections, according to Secretary of State W. Fox McKeithen.

The New Act requires election commissioners to identify each voter by asking for a Louisiana driver's license, a Louisiana special identification card or some other generally recognized picture identification. In addition, commissioners are asked to compare the voter's signature with the one on the picture ID.

Voters without a valid Louisiana driver's license can obtain a free Louisiana special identification card from the Office of Motor Vehicles upon presentation of their voter registration card. If a voter does not have the special card or some acceptable form of picture identification, he must provide further identification by presenting a current registration certificate, giving date of birth or providing other information stated in the precinct register. He must then execute a "Voter Identification Affidavit" which will be available at the polls to verify his identification.

Some stories, photos held

The Pilot received so many honor rolls, 4-H stories, pictures, etc. this week that we were unable to get them all in the paper this week. However, we will try to print them all next week.

Special children sought by board

Governor Mike foster has proclaimed October as CHILD SEARCH month in Louisiana. This recognition acknowledges the programs in each parish school system which attempt to locate and identify individuals from birth through 21 years of age who may require special education services.

The Louisiana Department of Education has established a standard procedure for the identification, screening, and evaluation of exceptional children between the ages of birth and 21. Cameron Parish School Board's Child Search Program is part of this state-wide effort to provide all children an appropriate education.

The Child Search Program attempts to identify students who may be mentally disabled, hearing or visually impaired, learning disabled, speech or language impaired, emotionally disturbed, health impaired, or gifted and/or talented. A student may be exceptional if he or she does not respond to sounds, appears clumsy is over-aggressive, withdrawn, shows lack of academic achievement, or over-achievement.

Following screening procedures, parental permission must be obtained, to conduct a formal multidisciplinary evaluation. Although only a parent or guardian may give formal written approval for an evaluation, any individual may refer a student.

Cameron Parish's Child Search Program is also concerned about disabled students who have chosen to discontinue special education services or drop out of school. Special Education services continue to be available through 21 years of age. Should you know of someone who would like to re-enroll in this program, a referral to the Child Search Program would be appropriate.

To refer a child or to request addition information, please contact Stephanie Rodrigue, supervisor of Special Education or Donna Kaufman, Child Search Coordinator at 775-7570 or write to P. O. Box W, Cameron, LA 70631.

Shots needed by children

Louisiana Department of Health and Hospitals is now requiring that children age 6 and younger who will enter pre-k or kindergarten in 1998 have a completed Hepatitis B series. This is in addition to the immunizations required for a child at his/her particular age.

The following is a list of immunization requirements for children entering pre-k and kindergarten in 1998.

Hepatitis B - (3 shots) A completed series takes 6 months.

MMR - (second shot).

DPT - (booster - minimum of 4 shots). Must be given on or after 4th birthday.

Polio - (booster - minimum of 3).

Food festival set at B. Lake

St. Mary of the Lake Catholic Church at Big Lake will hold a bingo at 5:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 24 and its annual Food Festival, Sunday, Oct. 26 starting at 11 a.m. on the church grounds.

The festival will include food, games, music, auction, country store, etc.

Rest of story

The last sentence in the story on the hero of the Johnson Bayou storm by W. T. Block was inadvertently left off in last week's Pilot.

The paragraph including the missing sentence, reads as follows:

"In 1887, only six families returned to Johnson Bayou to live (after the storm), but by 1894 there were 57 families, totaling 400 persons living there. Today's greatest boon to the residents of the bayou are Highway 82 and the Sabine Lake causeway, which enable them to evacuate to safety in an hour's time. Like the population of Cameron, they know only too well that a severe hurricane can be terribly costly in human life."

Citizens to 'do time' to assist MDA

Some business and civic leaders throughout Cameron Parish will be "serving time" in the MDA Jail on Thurs., Oct. 30, sponsored by the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department from 9 a.m. to 4 pm.

Each "jailbird" will be arrested by deputies and taken to the "jail" and will be given one hour to phone their friends, neighbors, relatives and business associates to help raise their "bail." Funds raised from the "lock-up" will stay in Southwest Louisiana allowing MDA to fund medical research and patient services.

The Association is dedicated to the cure and treatment of forty neuromuscular diseases. Some of the services MDA provides are support groups, a vast number of aids for daily living including wheelchairs and braces, and a summer camp for children ages 6-21.

If you would like to have someone arrested (your boss, employees, friends, or family members) and join in the fight against neuromuscular diseases contact Sheila Hite or Bridget Brignac at 433-1890.

Puppets enthrall Head Start kids

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Bring fun and problems to life through the use of puppets for children is the goal of a unique program put on for the Head Start program in Cameron last week.

Families Helping Families of Southwest Louisiana, Inc. sponsored a puppet show "Kids on the Block", a Disability Awareness Puppet show, put on by two McNeese University students Susan Shaffer and Yvonne Viator, assisted by Wallace Johnson.

The unique puppet show is done in the Bunraku, a form of Japanese puppetry. Instead of the characters being maneuvered from above with the handlers staying out of sight. The bunrakee handlers are in full view handling the puppets from in back of them, but are dressed all in black with their faces all covered in black also.

It seems odd, but the audience is focused only on the puppets and do not even notice the black covered handlers in the back.

The performance featured a puppet in a tiny wheelchair, explaining to the other puppet about his disability and how he is able to live a normal life. He also explains away the query to the other puppet why he has to wear a helmet to keep him from injuring himself when he has a spell and falls.

The Head Start children were mesmerized, and were allowed to ask the puppets questions at the end of each presentation which mostly brought the question "How old are you, and when was your birthday".

Johnson explains the FHF is a multifaced comprehensive Family Directed Family Resource Center for individuals with any kind of special need (mental, physical, emotional or educational concern).

It was founded in 1991, representing Lake Charles as part of a statewide network of family-directed family resource centers which serves Allen, Beauregard, Calcasieu, Cameron and Jeff Davis Parishes.

Trick or Treat

According to Sheriff James R. Savoie, residents of Cameron, Creole and Grand Chenier have requested trick or treat to be on Thursday evening, Oct. 30, due to the Tarpon football game. Residents in other parts of the parish will leave trick or treat on Friday the 31.

Sheriff Savoie reminds parents and children to be careful on the nights and remember to check candy before it is eaten.

DEER SEASON

last weekend many deer hunters took to the stands, as official gun season for deer opened in our area. Still reports of deer in the marsh, but the 4-wheeler is a way to get to where the deer are.

This weekend will see our dove season open at noon on Saturday and sunday for the opening of second split (Oct. 18-19) until sunset. The rest of the split is from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. Limit 12 daily, 24 in possession Again we need some cooler weather and not much rain for doves to stay in our area.

FISHING NEWS

It is said that global warming will affect Louisiana as silting up of the Mississippi River, loss of wetlands will mean loss of seafood.

There's also in the news about over-fishing. Seafood such as Pacific salmon, bluefin tuna and American lobster can reproduce fast enough because of the presence of fishing. Stricter regulations are to be seen.

There's 279 species of fish in our federal waters, and 96 species are over-fished by commercial and sports fishermen according to a National Marine Fisheries Service report.

Other over-fished species are flounder, Atlantic shark, swordfish, Atlantic sea scallops and pink shrimp.

REFUGE NEWS

Closure of Lacassine, Sabine and Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuges is Oct. 15, for fishing.

The Sabine Refuge West cove area will remain open (north ramp and canal), only for boat access to Calcasieu Lake's West Cove.

Archery on Lacassine Refuge is open until Oct. 31, but the impoundment fishing is closed.

Cameron Prairie fishing is closed except along roadsides of La. 27/82.

These closings are to provide sanctuary for migratory wildlife.

Our first national refuge, Pelican Island in Florida, was established by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1903. It was to protect egrets, herons and other colonial nesting birds from slaughter by the market hunters.

Now 94 years later, there are more than 500 national refuges in all our 50 states with over 90 million acres.

Oct. 12-18, has been set aside to observe National Wildlife Refuge Week and this is celebrated by our three national refuges.

Ducks Unlimited, one of the world's largest private wetland and waterfowl organizations, has raised more than one billion dollars since it formed 60 years ago in 1937, to help wildlife habitat for ducks and geese.

NEWS BRIEFS

•Five squirrels were taken in the Grand Chenier oaks opening day. No reports on rabbits this week.

•The commercial fishing for red snapper is closed in both state and federal waters for Nov.

•A record breaking crowd of 3432 folks attended Louisiana National Hunting and Fishing Day in Baton Rouge Sept. 27.

•If everything goes well, the Calcasieu and Sabine Lake tonging area will open one-half hour before sunrise Oct. 16, if water and health conditions are okay. Some oyster fishermen are a little worried if they'll have buyers or not.

To All The People of Cameron Parish,

I am giving you my annual report of my seventeenth year and I know you will be like me, surprised in seeing how much it costs to operate these days. The cost of everything you buy or touch keeps going up. Ninety (90) percent of our ad valorem tax goes for salary, health insurance and liability insurance. Each new car on the road costs a little over $20,000.00 plus liability insurance. Thank God that you all give us tax money to operate sufficiently.

I am also giving you a breakdown on our annual report of money and arrests. If you have any questions on anything you do not understand, please give me a call. I will do my best to explain it to you.

I would like to say thanks - thank you - for the wonderful support you have given me in these past seventeen years. May God bless each and everyone with health and happiness.

Thank You,

Tarpons lose to Kinder last week

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons fell to 5-1 as they suffered a 14-7 set-back at home to the Kinder Yellow Jackets.

The Tarpons, playing with at least three of four starting backfield members out injured, won the statistical war but lost the battle. The Tarpons had more first downs, more total yards and fewer points.

The Yellow Jackets scored first in the opening quarter as Terrell Humphrey ran in a Kinder fumble from the 45 yard line.

The Tarpons came back late in the quarter to score on a 60 yard run by John Pradia. He was playing at running back, moving over from quarterback and John Montie played quarterback.

The Yellow Jackets scored the winning touchdown on a 27 yard pass to Terrell Humphrey from Brian Rice. The score came with little time left in the third quarter.

The Tarpons couldn't do much in the final quarter. They did move down to the Kinder 21 where they lost the ball on a pass interception.

Top rusher for the Tarpons was Pradia as he had 157 yards on 22 carries. The Tarpons had 114 yards passing as Montie hit 10 of 23 passes. Top receiver was Scott Suratt with 6 catches for 59 yards. The Tarpons take to the road this week as they travel to Oakdale for a district 4 game.

Tarpons play Oakdale this Friday night

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons will be out to even their district worksheet at 1-1 as they travel to Oakdale to face the Warriors in a 7 p.m. game.

Oakdale opened the district wars last week with a 30-23 win over Welsh on the road. South Cameron suffered their first loss of the year to Kinder 14-7 at home.

The Tarpons will once again be without their top two running backs, Brandon Conner and Steve Moore, who are both out with injuries for the season. John Pradia rushed for 157 yards last week as he moved over from quarterback to running back. The Tarpons threw the ball more than usual as John Mark Montie threw 23 times completing ten for 114 yards.

The Warriors last year were in Class 3A and are moving down to District 5-AA. They have a new coach in Doug Guillory.

The teams have one common opponent in DeQuincy. South Cameron opened the year with a big 38-0 win over the Tigers while DeQuincy scored a win over the Oakdale Warriors.

The tarpon defense was all right last week as they limited Kinder to less than 300 yards and had one fumble recovery. What the Tarpons need to do is cut down on their turnovers as they lost two fumbles last week and had two passes picked off.

The Tarpon kicking game last week was fine as they punted twice for a 45 yard average. The Tarpons are also capable of kicking field goals.

The Tarpons should rebound from their loss last week. They need to stop Markus Brunson, who had 114 yards and two touchdowns in the Warrior win over Welsh.

It's a good ways up to Oakdale, so get an early start as traffic can be heavy with the Friday crowd going to the Casino above Kinder. Let's get a big crowd as the 5-1 Tarpons are worthy of your support.

SHUTTING DOWN THE POWER FOR A FEW MINUTES MAY HAVE INCONVENIENCED THOUSANDS OF LIVES, BUT IT SAVED ONE.

"DOWN HERE THE BLUE HERON IS KIND OF A NATIONAL TREASURE. SO WHEN ONE OF 'EM GOT CAUGHT IN SOME POWER LINES LAST FALL, SOME WORRIED FOLKS CALLED US AT ENTERGY. NOW IT WAS SUNDAY, SO I GOT THERE PRETTY FAST. THAT BIRD WAS HUNG UP REAL GOOD. ABOUT THE ONLY WAY WE COULD SAVE IT WAS TO CUT THE POWER TO SOME 5,000 CUSTOMERS. NOW THAT'S A TOUGH CALL ANYTIME, BUT THAT DAY, THERE WAS A COWBOY-FALCONS GAME ON TV. WELL, WE GOT IT APPROVED, SO I WENT UP. In accordance with Church policy, and to foster a family atmosphere, no alcohol will be sold, served, or allowed on the premises.

TO THE VOTERS OF CAMERON PARISH:

You will be asked to go to the polls on October 18th to vote YES or NO on sales of alcohol on Sunday. The way this is worded on the ballot is very confusing. If you vote "yes" on the ballot that would mean no alcohol will be sold on Sunday. If you vote "no" then alcohol sales will be wide open from this day forward.

I think voting "no" is contrary to God's law of keeping the seventh day holy. I think if the good Lord created the world in six days, I think everyone should be able to drink enough in those six days so they could obey God's law on the seventh day and observe this day of rest.

I am 73 years old and not to my knowledge was it ever legal to sell alcohol on Sunday and I think if we're going to lead our children in a positive direction, preach to them about not using drugs, of which alcohol is the biggest drug addiction we have in the U. S. today, then as leaders and parents we should set examples to our children and young people that God made the seventh day for rest and worship of your faith. We are already losing the battle on drugs because of greed of money. It now seems that they want to use the same greed of money to sell alcohol 24 hours a day - 7 days a week.

Stop and think how many young people have met their deaths by overindulging and partying. I feel it is my duty as Sheriff to express my opinion on this matter because in the last 17 years I've had the most experience on this than any other 10 people in this parish. It's not a pleasant job to call a husband, father, mother, wife or child and tell them a tragedy has happened by overindulgence.

This decision will be entirely up to the voters of the Parish and whatever the outcome, I hope it is for the good of our children and future generations to come. So weigh out the pros and cons and go vote your conscience and not your greed.

May God Bless each and everyone of you.

Your Sheriff,

James R. "Sono" Savoie

Some tracts available for leasing may be situated in the Louisiana Coastal Zone as defined in Act 361 of 1978 (LSA-R.S. 49:213). Such tracts may be subject to the guidelines and regulations promulgated by the Coastal Management Section of the Department of Natural Resources.

All leases awarded shall be executed upon terms and conditions provided in the current State lease form with all applicable riders appended thereto, including but not limited to provisions as follows: Should lessee fail to begin the actual drilling (spudding in) of a well on the lease premises within one year from the date of the lease, the lease shall terminate as to both parties to the lease, unless on or before such anniversary date, lessee shall pay a delay rental (which shall in no event be less than one-half (½) of the aforesaid cash payment offered for the lease), which shall cover the privilege of deferring drilling operations for a period of one year. Upon like payments annually, drilling operations may be further deferred for successive periods of one year each during the primary term of three years. The lease shall provide for the drilling of offset wells where necessary to protect the State's interest and shall contain the provisions against the assignment or sublease of the lease unless approved by the State Mineral Board. The lessee shall have the right to enter into pooling or unitization agreements with respect to development of the leased premises subject to the approval of the State Mineral Board.

Certified check, cashier's check or bank money order payable to the OFFICE OF MINERAL RESOURCES for the full amount of the aforesaid cash payment, shall accompany and be submitted with each bid, and no bid thus submitted may be thereafter withdrawn or cancelled. Any certified check, cashier's check or bank money order submitted by the bidder of the successful bidder shall be immediately negotiated by the Office of Mineral Resources, and the proceeds thereof disbursed in the manner required by law.

SPECIAL NOTE

By rules promulgated by the Department of Natural Resources under authority of Act 13 of the 1988 first Extraordinary Legislative Session, a fee equal to 10% of the cash payment is required to be submitted by the successful bidder for all leases awarded on and after the September 14, 1988 Lease Sale. The successful bidder on each new lease is required to submit a separate check equal to 10% of the cash payment. Such fee may be paid by regular check. The fee may be submitted either with the bid (inside the sealed bid envelope) or within ten (10) days after the lease is awarded. In the event that the check is submitted with the bid, and the bid is unsuccessful, the check will be returned along with the unsuccessful bid and check for cash payment. The successful bidder will not receive the lease executed by the State Mineral Board until the fee is received.

The successful bidder to whom the lease is awarded on the date of the lease sale shall furnish the written lease, duly executed, within TWENTY (20) DAYS after bidder's receipt of same under penalty of forfeiture of the lease, and the aforesaid cash payment previously tendered and negotiated in the event of failure to do so.

NOTE: In the case of all State Agency Lands, herein offered, certified checks, cashier's checks or bank money orders for the cash payment shall be made payable to each respective State Agency, provided that if a subject section, or part thereof, located in a township and which is situated in more than one parish, is offered, certified check, cashier's check or bank money order for the full amount of the cash payment shall be made payable to STATE TREASURER. Any Amendment, Assignment or Agreement entered into after the State Mineral Board has awarded such lease must be approved by the Lessor Agency or Agencies.

Bids may be for the whole or any particularly described portion of the land advertised, but consistently with the policy of the Board as expressed in a resolution dated August 12, 1965, all bidders are hereby notified that bids on portions of tracts should be described by metes and bounds and be accompanied by a transparent plat outlining thereon the portion bid upon. The plat shall be 1 inch = 4,000 feet in scale and should identify the Point of Beginning, the Section, Township and Range, the Parish, the X and Y Lambert Plane Coordinates, any adjacent existing State Mineral Leases, and should clearly show the entire tract boundaries in relationship to the portion bid upon. It shall also show the Topographic features (land and water) of the area in detail similar to the most recent edition of the U.S.G.S. Quadrangle Maps.

The State Mineral Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids or to grant a lease on any portion of the tract advertised and to withdraw the remainder of the tract.

Letter to Editor

Dear Editor:

This Saturday, Oct. 18, Cameron Parish citizens are faced with an election on whether to stop selling beer and all alcoholic beverages on Sundays. This means a business who has a license for these sales cannot sell beer or alcoholic beverages on Sundays. This also means no person, no organization can get a state or local permit to sell beer or alcoholic beverages on Sundays.

I don't know if our citizens of Cameron parish know the impact it will have on your grocery, convenience stores and yes, bars and nightclubs, but the hurt may surely put some stores out of business. That will also mean most grocery stores and convenience stores will have to close on Sundays, and yes, layoff at least one to two employees. Again, these employees and their families will suffer.

Our parish is a tourist parish, with the Creole Nature Trail, Festivals (Alligator, Fur, etc.) a fishing haven, great refuge fishing, Calcasieu lake fishing, Miami Corporation permit fishing and yes, the great Gulf of Mexico, which brings thousands of anglers from all over down to fish.

We have some of the greatest hunting in the world. Duck hunting brings hunters from all over the world, and yes, we have many hunting clubs who give us their business. We also have many bird watchers who travel here, and yes, we get their business.

We have great beaches like Holly beach and Rutherford Beach where tourists come to our places of business

Now, the main business, our own local folks, who have helped us all along the way.

All this said an done, we are going to tell these people, no you cannot buy a 6-pack of beer. How many will get mad and we as business folks will have to take it to follow the law.

Citizens are already telling me, well it's back to the old days. We'll just drive to Pecan Island or Lake Charles and buy our beer and that's money we as business folks cannot afford to lose.

Remember when the school board, police jury, drainage boards and others need to pass a property tax we in business are always asked to support it, and remember we are not tax exempt. if we lose these sales we still have to pay taxes so where do we stand.

This Saturday this is the only thing on the ballot, but please go and vote, it's important to many businesses of Cameron parish. Be careful, as the way it's on the ballot is tricky.

Please vote "NO" to this parishwide proposition if you want to continue buying beer and alcoholic beverages on Sundays and you want to still be able to have beer at your festivals and functions on Sunday. We as businesses need your support and someday you will ask us to help you on a vote, and then we can help in return.

Again, please vote "NO" so we can still sell beer on Sunday.

/s/ Loston McEvers,

THE WATER fountain in front of the Historic Shrine of Our Lady Star of the Sea in Cameron is back in operation. Thanks to the initiative of T. J. Porche, right and Clifton Hebert, the fountain can be seen aglow in the evening due to a new pump and lighting system installed by both men who are members of the congregation.

SHOWN WITH the Icon of the Virgin Mary at the Marian Prayer ceremony held Oct. 4 at Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Cameron were Readers Roy Nash and Clifton, standing, and Howard Lancon, kneeling. They assisted Father Al Volpe in the ceremony. The Icon now goes to the Big Lake KC Council.

DONNA LABOVE, from Star of the Sea Catholic Church here in Cameron, was recently appointed Minister of Hospitality for her congregation. In line with her new assignment, Donna bakes some homemade cookies for the children who attended the blessings of the animals on Oct. 4. She tried out the new stove recently purchased for the church ladies.

BLESSING OF The Animals...The Rev. Al Volpe, pastor of the Star of the Sea Church was on hand to greet local youngsters and their pets on Sat., Oct. 4th for the Feast of Saint Francis. Church members Donna LaBove and Carla Richard were on hand for some milk and cookies served in the Education Center.

Rev. Raphael Bargeman

Minister Raphael Bargeman will be honored at an appreciation celebration to be held at 3 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 26 at Bargeman Memorial Church of God in Christ at 141 Isaac St. in Cameron, according to Pastor Charles Porter, Sr.

Sun. sale of alcohol approved

In a fairly close vote, Cameron parish citizens voted last Saturday to permit the sale of alcoholic beverages by all licensed establishments in the parish, including bars.

A proposition to prohibit alcohol sale on Sunday was defeated 815-737 or by a 52.5 to 47.5 percent margin.

The immediate effect will be to allow bars to open on Sunday and to allow the sale of beer and liquor at functions such as festivals on Sunday.

A previous parish ordinance had permitted package liquor sales by stores and beer and wine by restaurants but had prohibited sales by bars on Sunday.

After it was found that this ordinance was invalid the Cameron Parish Police Jury called a special election on all Sunday sales.

There was a 23 percent turnout of voters Saturday.

Birders to observe 50th anniversary

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The Louisiana Ornithological Society will hold its state convention in Cameron next weekend and will celebrate its 50 years existence. Members will meet in the Knights of Columbus Hall in Cameron.

Roger Breedlove will be the speaker at the Friday night program and will make a presentation that includes over 70 Cornell University slides that concentrate on the Birds of Louisiana Record Review list.

Peter Dunne will be the Saturday night main speaker. He is the Director of Natural History Information for the New Jersey Audubon Society and founder of the World Series of Birding. He is also well known for his books "The Feather Quest", "Tales of a Low-Rent Birder", and is co-author of "Hawks in Flight".

The cost is $10 for the meal and $7 registration. The meal starts at 6 p.m., followed by the meeting at 8 p.m.

Citizens to 'do time'

Some business and civic leaders throughout Cameron Parish will be "serving time" in the MDA Jail on Thurs., Oct. 30, sponsored by the Cameron Volunteer Fire Department from 9 a.m. to 4 pm.

Each "jailbird" will be arrested by deputies and taken to the "jail" and will be given one hour to phone their friends, neighbors, relatives and business associates to help raise their "bail."

If you would like to have someone arrested (your boss, employees, friends, or family members) and join in the fight against neuromuscular diseases contact Sheila Hite or Bridget Brignac at 433-1890.

Creole classmates have 50th reunion

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

There was a lot of reminiscing going on last week when the Creole High School Class of 1947 gathered to celebrate their 50th graduation anniversary.

There were 18 graduates, four of whom are now deceased, and eight who attended the homecoming celebration at Pat's Restaurant in Cameron.

It was a time of remembering the school years when Cameron was practically isolated from the outside world and hardly anyone had locks on their doors, a very innocent time.

The old Creole school closed over 40 years ago, when all of the high school students in lower Cameron Parish were incorporated into South Cameron High School.

Frankie Henry noted that there was no athletic program in the Creole school and when they went before the school board to request a football they were turned down, so Ulrick Hackett, school superintendent, donated one from his own funds.

Everyone remembered that this was the first class to have a yearbook, which was named the "Bow-Wow".

There was a disagreement on what the class motto was, either it was "one step at a time and always forward" or "Victory comes only to the gallant".

Two special guests were Estelle Theriot, a former teacher, and Mrs. Wayne Montie, a school cook.

Those attending were: Boyd Allen Nunez, Iris Pichnic Vinson, Maryanna Dyson Tanner, Fay Welch Ingram, Eldie Hebert Cheramie, Lurlie Broussard Broussard, W. F. Henry, Jr. (Frankie), and Roland Primeaux.

Deceased members of the class were: Don Conner, Lillie Baccigalopi Guillory, Kermit Murphy and Linda Faulk.

Those not able to attend were: Alva Conner Savoie, Gay Dyson Reeves, C. A. Miller, Benny Bourg, Donald Dupuie, and Edith LeBouef Miller.

Refuge smoke blots sky in Orange area

(Orange Leader)

Heavy black smoke drifted south across Orange Monday afternoon, blotting out the sky, turning the sun red and alarming some residents.

The smoke came from controlled marsh burnings at the Sabine National Refuge near Hackberry.

Also, a wild marsh fire at McFaddin National Refuge, about 15 miles west of Sabine Pass, burned Monday. But Dan Dinkler, manager of the McFaddin Refuge, said smoke from that fire was blowing in a different direction from Orange.

The smoke in Orange grew about 4 p.m. from the south and first appeared to be a big thunder-cloud. But its origins were not celestial. The darkness was rising from the ground into the sky.

As it crept northward, it blocked out the sun, which would occasionally shine out a dark red. Eventually, the smoke sunk to the ground, making a fog-like atmosphere. Cars drove with lights on. There was only a slight smell of smoke, though.

Some residents in the Little Cypress area reported small amounts of soot and ash falling.

Dawn Zirrillo of the Sabine National Wildlife Refuge in Louisiana said the refuge had a prescribed burn that was kept under control. The prescribed burns are noted in areas every two to three years, she said.

The burns help reduce dried grasses to prevent wildfires and encourage new vegetation for wildlife, particularly waterfowl, she said.

She said another prescribed burn was set for Wednesday.

Local lawyers are elected

Donald G. Kelly of Natchitoches was elected president of Louisiana Trial Lawyers Association at the associations annual convention in New Orleans.

Elected to the LTLA Executive Committee were Calvin C. Fayard, of Denham Springs, Gauthier, Sam N. Gregorio of Shreveport, Leah S. Guerry of Baton Rouge, J. B. Jones, jr. of Cameron, Michael C. Palmintier of Baton Rouge and Drew Ranier of Lake Charles.

LTLA members at the September 27 convention also elected six Lake Charles attorneys to the association's Board of Governors. They are Erin McCall Alley, Thomas A. Filo, Hunter W. Lundy, Gregory P. Massey, Robert Michael McHale, Jr., and Rex D. Townsley.

Other Lake Charles area attorneys elected to the Board of Governors are Glenn W. Alexander and Jennifer J. Bercier of Cameron.

Food festival set at B. Lake

St. Mary of the Lake Catholic Church at Big Lake will hold a bingo at 5:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 24 and its annual Food Festival, Sunday, Oct. 26 starting at 11 a.m. on the church grounds.

The festival will include food, games, music, auction, country store, etc.

Faulk, Ramblers travel the nation

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Dressed in his bright red suspenders, a white straw cowboy hat filled with colorful pens from all over the United States, and dragging his huge base fiddle, John Faulk travels the nation bringing Cajun music to everyone. He is a charter member of the famous Hackberry Ramblers band which was recently presented with a "lifetime achievement" award by Gov. Mike Foster.

The band was formed in 1933 and is the oldest Cajun country band in the world. Two of the original members, Edwin Duhon and Ludwin Darbonne, are over 80 years old and still playing.

Faulk lives in Grand Lake, but spends most of his time on the road playing with the band at a dozen nursing homes a month, various festivals around the country, television and radio stations, and traveling where they are called to entertain. The band has played for four living presidents.

Faulk was the speaker at the meeting of the Cameron Lions Club last week and brought along souvenirs from the band's many travels.

His colorful hat draws plenty of attention everywhere he goes, he says, and he is always glad to stop and talk to everyone.

Cajun culture is very popular everywhere, including Cajun cuisine, and music.

The band has recorded over 100 records and two recent ones, "Cajun Boogie" and "Deep Water" are especially popular.

Faulk donated a copy of "Deep Water" as a door prize, which was won by Bruce Eisen. It can be purchased at Harvest Records in Lake Charles.

Lion president Robert Primeaux announced that a shotgun is being raffled for the eyeglass program and the drawing will be held at the Saturday night program of the Fur Festival.

No mandates says board

At its Oct. 7 meeting, the Cameron Parish School Board adopted a resolution urging the Legislature to include public school districts in legislation and a constitutional amendment prohibiting the state from imposing any mandates on the districts unless adequate funding is provided.

The resolution urged the Legislature to amend Act 1066 and the Constitution to include school districts.

The Aymond quintuplets and their mother

Quints attend festival

By JERRY WISE

If you attended the Texas Renaissance Festival last weekend, you probably did a double-take when you saw five small blond headed, blue eye children dressed in identical Scottish garb.

Yes, they were quintuplets--the Aymond Quints from Baton Rouge--who for the second straight year were celebrating their shared birthday at the festival.

They were five years old this year and celebrated by riding in the festival parade and having their faces painted.

The quints are Garrett, Conner and Harley, boys, and Alyssa and Krysta, girls. Connor and Harley are identical.

They are the children of Kirk and Denise Aymon of Baton Rouge. Their festival costumes were designed and made by their father.

The quints were featured in the September, 1996 issue of Smithsonian Magazine in a picture showing them eating ice cream.

Iota Bulldogs coming to town Friday night

By JOE MUELLER

The second ranked Iota Bulldogs come to Tarpon Stadium this Friday night for a District 5 2-A game. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

They bring a 7-0 record to town 2-0 in district.

The Tarpons who have a 52, 02 record definitely need a win. last year the teams also played at South Cameron. Because of the new district alignment this year, the game is again in Creole.

Last year the teams were tied for second place in the district. Iota had a 7-1 record and were ranked 8th in the state. South Cameron was 4-3 at game time last year. South Cameron won the game 10-3.

The Tarpons defense held the Bulldogs to only seven first downs in the win. The Tarpons with the win finished second in district. Notre Dame was the district champ. The Tarpons went to the playoffs and all the way to the Dome.

A fact brought out last year was that Iota has never won at Creole.

The Tarpons will have to play excellent defense to stay in the game as the Bulldogs Josh Ortego has over 700 yards rushing. The bulldogs Kyle Richey has completed 50% of his passes.

The Tarpons offensively have been decimated by injuries as they have lost their top rushers to injuries for the year.

John Pradia has rushed for over 100 yards in the last two games.

Defensively the Tarpons lead the district, having given up only 37 points in 7 games. The Bulldogs have given up 88 points.

The Tarpons lost another player to injuries last week, as starting line backer Kelly Roberts suffered a broken leg.

The Bulldogs, Kinder and Oakdale are tied for the district lead with 2-0 records. The Tarpons will probably take the wildcard route to the playoffs as their 5-2 overall record with wins over Pickering and DeQuincy and Class 3-A Lake Charles-Boston

Gravity Drainage District No. 4 of Creole has been faced with drainage problems for many years. The existing system is deteriorated and in desperate need of expansion and repair. The existing budget $40,000 in ad valorem taxes does not go very far considering the high cost of maintenance dredging and new culverts. Tarps lose to Warriors

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons fell to 0-2 in district as the Oakdale Warriors scored twice in the last 10 minutes to edge the Tarpons 12-10.

The win moved Oakdale's record to 2-0 in district.

The Tarpons fell to 5-2 overall. They lost their first game of the year last week to Kinder in their opening district game.

The Tarpons, who lost their top two running backs in the Lake Charles game, scored first in the Oakdale contest.

They scored in the second quarter as John Pradia ran into the end zone from 24 yards out and John Mark Montie hit a 32 yard field goal. The Tarpon were up 10-0 at half time. The score remained at 10-0 throughout the third quarter. The Tarpons rushed for 108 yards and had 12 first downs. The Tarpons were forced to punt 4 times and John Mark Montie averaged 39 yards a kick.

The Tarpons could only connect on two passes and they had one intercepted. The interception came late in the game after the Warriors had taken the 12-10 lead.

South Cameron is at home this week as Iota comes to town for a district game. The Bulldogs were ranked number two and the Tarponis number 5 in the 2A prep poll prior to last week's game.

RANCHER ROPES WOLF
(By Mrs. Walter Stanley)

Harry Erbelding sighted a pack of wolves last Thursday while range riding and the lack of a gun didn't deter him from taking after the critters.

It takes a good horse to run a wild animal down through marshes and it takes an excellent roper to lasso on the run. Harry got his trophy by roping one of the young wolves in the pack.

The group of animals were at a watering hole on the range below the Robert Merritt home. Four old ones and eight younger ones, almost adult size, were in the pack.

Friday, he again sighted the wolves, but missed out on a catch. They were at the same vicinity. They have been heard and seen frequently in that area. They do considerable killings among young calves.

AROUND THE PARISH

Creole -- Jet Helicopter -- Recently touching down for the first time at the heliport at South Cameron Memorial Hospital was one of the huge, new, jet helicopters which were just put into service by the U. S. Coast Guard. One of the new giants of the airways attached to the Coast Guard Station in Galveston brought in an injured man off a shrimp boat in the Gulf, and, according to Kenneth Hopper, hospital director, the jet helicopter was so huge that the pilot had to circle the hospital heliport three times before he could bring the "copter" in for a landing.

A motion was made by Scott Henry, seconded by George Kelley, and unanimously carried to approve the minutes of the July 15, 1997, regular meeting.

A motion was made by Scott Henry, seconded by E. J. Dronet, and unanimously carried to adopt a resolution to authorize Kelly Quinn to write an opposition letter to the Corps of Engineers regarding the recommendation for water introduction into the Mermentau River Basin, based on our opinion that this would be detrimental to the Cameron-Creole Watershed.

Scott Henry reported that he has talked to Lamar Dyson about repairing the top of the box culvert at the Mobil pump. It will probably not cost more than $2,000 to do this situation. Consensus that Mr. Dyson be authorized to perform this work.

It was also noted that we need to find out if the corrugated metal culvert on the Cameron-Creole Watershed levee is the responsibility of this Board to repair. It was agreed that Scott Henry will look into this situation.

President Quinn reported that he has received an estimate of $1,370.00 to change 16 posts on fence around W-1 West Pump.

A motion was made by Scott Henry, seconded by George Kelley, and unanimously carried to accept the Audit Report prepared as of December 31, 996, by Vernon R. Coon, CPA, and to authorize President Quinn to sign an engagement letter for Vernon R. Coon, CPA firm to perform audits at year end 1997 and 1998.

Engineer Lonnie Harper presented the lien free certificate from H & S Construction Company received pursuant to the completion of Project 1996-04: Drainage Improvements in Big Pasture Area.

It was noted that Gulf Coast Soil & Water Conservation is requesting reimbursement in the amount of $880 for mitigation required for cleaning out the Sells Lateral.

Charles Hebert then requested permission to close in a drainage ditch by inserting culverts and covering the ditch on the property of MI Drilling Fluids. It was agreed that Engineer Lonnie Harper will give them recommendations for culvert sizes and other specifications. It was also agreed that MI Drilling will provide maintenance on the work being done.

It was agreed by consensus that Scott Henry will talk with Attorney Glenn Alexander to see what it will take to remedy the situation of possible damage to the culvert on Amoco property at the Northernmost end of the Cameron-Creole Watershed.

Glenn Harris presented the Water Management Report for the previous month. He stated that flapgates are closed, and he recommends leaving the gates closed. Paul Yakupzack suggested that they will go back to full flapgate opening when water levels reach 1.0. It was agreed that this Board reinforces its recommendation that marsh elevations be maintained at 3. Mr. Yakupzack recommended trying to get a private boat launch for the public so the boat bay doesn't have to be left open. He stated that this would greatly enhance the ability to control water levels.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Three employees of Norwell Equipment (John Deere backhoe) explained the repairs to the backhoe. The fuel pump was repaired few months back, 20 hours were put on the machine and fuel pump stopped machine again. They said contaminants (possibly water and fine sand or silt) had entered the fuel system and stopped the engine. The initial invoice was $3,300.01, amended to $2590.01, and finally amended to $2,199.02. The addition of a Racor Filter was discussed, as was an extended warranty. Norwell Equip. is to check back with GDD #7 Board. Board is to check fuel storage system.

Tracy Billiot, Red Chambers, Kurt Storm, Billy Storm and Jim Garrard requested that a earthen plug in Double Island Bay be opened up. It was closed in the last 3 weeks and prohibits fishermen from access to Sabine Refuge fishing area. On a motion by Ivan Barentine, 2nd by Leroy Trahan, passed, upon approval of John stacy of DNR CMD, the plug be removed by land owner and Stacy was called and a field trip was set up for Wed., Oct. 22.

A request from David Richard of Stream Properties to our Board Engineer George Bailey Re: salt water intrusion from Shallow Prong Structures to adjacent property. Bailey informed Richard that not only that we had not installed the structures at this time, but that we put in a plug last month to prevent such an occurrence.

With reference to the unpermitted culverts and flap gates on land south of La. Hwy. 82, the Board is still awaiting reply from John Stacy of DNR CMD to our letter request from the Sept. 25 meeting. Stacy has our field trip with David Richard to these locations and will fax to us the reply.

The B-1 Canal Structures request resulted in a field trip to be taken by Bailey and Lloyd Badon on Tues., Oct. 21.

Four price quotes from different computer companies were reviewed by R. John Guilbeaux III, who volunteered his services to the Board. The quote of Bayou PC's was the lowest of the four received for Intel Pentium 200 mhz computer, Hewlett-Packard Laser Jet printer, Windows 95 and Quick Books.

Guilbeaux recommended the purchase of this system over Laptop 133 mhz and Laptop 166 mhz) and that it be purchased from Bayou PC's. A motion by Carroll Trahan, 2nd by Rogerest Romero, passed, that the Board purchase the Mini-tower and Printer system from Bayou PC's for $4,171.81. The other quotes were: Gateway-$4,254 (no quickbooks), Micro-solutions-$4,720 (no quickbooks, Visual-solutions-$4,820 (no quickbooks), Guilbeaux, Senior Vice President of Cameron State Bank, offered his services for no pay. He will assist in instruction for the day to day operation of the computer by the Executive Secretary and Bookkeeper.

Exec. Secty. Guilbeaux reported on the delivery date of the new Link Belt Marsh Machine from Quality Industries of Houma, La. Jay Dornie of Quality stated that we could expect delivery Fri., Oct. 31, 1997. At that time they will pick up the old machine that was traded in on the new one.

Lloyd Badon and Joseph Boudreaux reported on the progress of the Shallow Prong permit. The NGPL pipelines (2) were crossed with a revised digging under and plugging. Fill material was placed in the canal to prevent salt water from intruding on Sept. 20, 1997. The structures will be placed after the digging is complete, still a long ways off.

The Holly Beach culvert request for Castille, Kellum, Pugh, etc. is complete.

A revised La. State Tax for G.D.D. #7 for 2nd, 3rd, 4th quarter of 1996 and 1st quarter of 1997 was assessed and paid to the La. Dept. of Labor. A higher tax rate was used to calculate our taxes (with no notice to us), and taxes, interest and penalty were levied to the amount of $340.70.

The Exec. Secty. presented a financial report for Sept. to the Board. It was reviewed and accepted.

George Erbelding disputed the 36" culverts that the Board required him to put in on his emergency road leading to his subdivision in Gulf Breeze. After Lloyd Badon checked it out, it was decided that 3 x 24" culverts instead of 2 x 36", and 24" in 2 other places instead of 36" would be sufficient.

A list of water quality monitoring readings was sent by Roy Walters of Sabine Refuge for August, July and September and reviewed by the Board. A list of water levels and salinity readings was passed out by Lloyd Badon.

Badon reported that the structures have been put in by Fina at 1st Bayou with the other 2 to be installed next Monday.

Dusty Sandifer reported that he had received a letter from SWLR Re: Structures Draft Permit. He will make it available to the Board.

Exec. Secty. Guilbeaux gave an update on the La. Hwy. 82 damage report as well as proposed shoreline protection modification for the 85 breakwaters on the 8-mile segment from Holly Beach to Constance Beach. A 3-foot elevation of each breakwater plus a 50-foot to 57-foot extension of each breakwater as well as soil management from breakwaters to shoreline was outlined by the Board.

A Louisiana coast 2050 meeting was held Oct. 15, in Abbeville and a follow-up meeting will be held in Cameron on Wed., Nov. 5, 1997.

Lloyd Badon requested permission to purchase a cellular phone for his personal use and have the Board reimburse him for any and all calls on Board business. The Board agreed to reimburse him for all calls on Board business. Badon will purchase the cellular phone himself. This is a safety item as it could be very important should a breakdown or accident or injury occur on the job in marsh. The Board already has a cellular phone, and it is being used by Joseph Boudreaux on the Marsh Machine.

There being no further business, a motion to adjourn by Rogerest Romero, 2nd by Ivan Barentine, passed.

Next regular meeting be changed from 3rd Thursday to 2nd Thursday in November. The new date is Thursday, Nov. 13, 1997, at 6:30 p.m. at G.D.D. #7 office at 205 Middle Ridge Road in Johnson Bayou, La.

RESOLUTION
STATE OF LOUISIANA
PARISH OF CAMERON

A Resolution undertaking a project to plan, finance, construct and acquire a bridge or tunnel connecting east and west Cameron parish across the Calcasieu Ship Channel.

WHEREAS, the citizens of Cameron Parish have long desired a fixed crossing connecting east and west Cameron Parish to enhance economic growth and overall regional mobility in the interest of economic development, industrial growth and public safety; and

WHEREAS, vehicular traffic in Cameron Parish is adversely affected by the lack of a fixed crossing of the Calcasieu Ship Channel; and

WHEREAS, traffic on LA 27-82 traveling between Cameron and Hackberry/Holly Beach must utilize the Cameron Ferry for operation on a toll basis by the LADOTD (District 08); and

WHEREAS, average daily traffic on the Ferry often exceeds 1,000 vehicles per day and requires continuous 24 hour service; and

WHEREAS, the volume of tractor trailer traffic and commercial vehicles carrying flammable/hazardous materials further restricts cross channel operations; and

WHEREAS, the residents and business interests in Cameron Parish have long needed and desired a fixed crossing to provide a second hurricane evacuation route, as well as to promote economic development, industrial growth, investment, and expansion of tourism/recreational opportunities; and

WHEREAS, a fixed crossing would provide immediate economic benefits by promoting expansion of industry and trade in the Parish as well as providing an unobstructed east-west route for the movement of goods in East Texas, as well as increased transportation network capacity for hurricane evacuation and overall regional mobility; and

WHEREAS, this Police Jury desires to cause to be constructed and acquired a bridge or tunnel that fully meets the requirements of all interested state and federal agencies having jurisdiction, including particularly, protection of the free navigation along and through the Calcasieu Ship Channel; and

WHEREAS, this Police Jury in the exercise of its powers is authorized by R.S. 33:1236 (2) (a) and (8) and other applicable provisions of law, desires to proceed with the project and employ engineers and attorneys in connection therewith.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Police Jury of the Parish of Cameron, State of Louisiana, as follows:

SECTION 1. The Cameron Parish Police Jury does hereby adopt and approve the project to plan and undertake to finance and acquire a fixed crossing over the Calcasieu, L.27-82, between Cameron and Hackberry/Holly Beach, presently served by a ferry operating twenty-four hours a day. The initial phase of the project herein approved consists of the undertaking of preliminary engineering and economic planning and development of the project on which phase 2 of the project can be undertaken. In order to carry out phase 1 of the project it is necessary that engineers and attorneys be employed who, together with this Police Jury, shall constitute a working group for the accomplishment of the project.

SECTION 2. In order to carry out the project, there is hereby authorized to be undertaken and attained a study to be undertaken by the Cameron Parish Police Jury to define feasible alternatives for a crossing of the Calcasieu Ship Channel, including various bridge (high level fixed span, mid-level moveable span) and tunnel (immersed tube, deep bore) configurations, as well as implementation approaches (privatized, turn-key design/build, build-operate-transfer (BOT), conventional design-bid-build). The study herein authorized to be undertaken will weigh various environmental considerations of alternative crossing locations and construction types to determine the most feasible alternative and cost effective way to implement the project. Due to anticipated high cost of construction, a number of alternative funding mechanisms (publicly or privately operated toll facility combined with existing federal, state and/or local support) will be investigated. The project will provide an opportunity for local business interests (private industry, trucking interests, West Cameron Port, Commission, Cameron Parish Police Jury, and others) to consider the need for a public/private partnership to promote the project.

SECTION 3. Parsons, Brinckerhoff, Quade & Douglas, Inc. ("parsons, Brinckerhoff"), a national engineering firm, has experience in this type feasibility study. Said firm is qualified to perform the engineering services necessary to conduct the study herein authorized to be undertaken and, accordingly, Parsons, Brinckerhoff is hereby employed to perform the study, subject to the conditions of this resolution. The feasibility study will serve as a planning document to identify the best location crossing the Calcasieu Ship Channel and would determine bridge structure type and tunnel configuration to be used in the construction of the crossing, as well as method(s) of finance of the project. Parsons, Brinckerhoff is employed on a contingent basis to perform the study. Parsons, Brinckerhoff is authorized to prepare and submit to this Police Jury for approval an application to obtain funding for the study from the Louisiana Department of Transportation or other lawfully available source. Consideration for the services of said engineers and the undertakings herein authorized, this Police Jury will enter into a contract with said engineers in seeking to obtain funding for the study. No sums shall be due by the Police Jury to the said engineers for work performed hereunder; it is the intention hereof that the fee of the engineers and reimbursement of expenses shall be paid from funds to be applied for under 2a of this Section to the Louisiana Department of Transportation.

SECTION 4. It is anticipated that the bridge or tunnel to be considered and acquired shall, in part, be financed through the levy of tolls, which may be funded into tax-exempt bonds, and therefore, a real public necessity exists for the employment of bond counsel for the issuance of the bonds and all matters appurtenant and incidental thereto, including the preparation of the feasibility study and report to be undertaken in cooperation with the engineers, Parsons, Brinckerhoff Quade & Benton P.L.C., Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is qualified to perform the services and is hereby employed to perform comprehensive and professional bond professional work in the issuance of the bonds and in helping to obtain additional funding from other sources necessary to finance the project. Said bond counsel shall work with and under the supervision of Glenn W. Alexander District Attorney, Parish of Cameron, Louisiana, who is authorized and employed to perform work in the bond counsel category and as local associate counsel to the bond counsel.

Fees for legal work shall be contingent upon the actual issuance, sale and delivery of revenue bonds for the project and will be in an amount permitted by the Attorney General's approved guidelines for comprehensive and coordinate professional legal services as bond counsel for revenue bonds based on an itemized hourly basis for legal work in addition to the normal duties of bond counsel. The employment herein authorized is subject to the approval of the Attorney General. The legal employment herein authorized shall extend to and include assisting Parsons, Brinckerhoff in the study and report for financing of the project.

No legal fees or reimbursal of expenses shall be due the attorneys hereunder except from the proceeds of bridge or tunnel revenue bonds actually issued, sold and delivered. As the project progresses, the Police Jury may request the attorneys to undertake the drafting and presentation of legislation and/or to assist in applying for grants or other financial assistance for the project, which are specifically directed to be paid for and reimbursed on a current basis from funds lawfully available for such purpose.

SECTION 5. In the conduct of the study and the preparation of the final report the engineers and attorneys working group may recommend the utilization of the Louisiana Transportation Development and Finance Act, House Bill 1127, or may recommend that the Police Jury or a road district or other political entity may be utilized as a legal entity to issue the bonds and to operate and administer the project.

In any such event, work performed by Parsons, Brinckerhoff and attorneys shall be assigned to the political entity determined to provide work on the project, all as may be hereafter determined.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, in the last decade children being raised by grandparents have seen a staggering growth and nationally approximately 3.4 million children under the age of eighteen are currently living with grandparents; and

Whereas, having grandchildren can be a time of great joy; raising them can be a time of great stress, major upheaval, and family conflict; and

Whereas, grandparent caregivers may be subjected to many legal and school challenges. Housing, medical expenses and financial hardships may be constant worries.

Whereas, grandparents who accept the role of surrogate parents are from all walks of life.

Whereas, grandparents are raising their grandchildren because of teenage pregnancy, substance abuse, death, divorce, parental joblessness, incarceration, neglect, etc.; and

Whereas, grandparents need readily available resources that will help them overcome financial and social barriers such as support groups, kinship care services, the right to make medical decisions for a child in their care either at home or at school, and legal assistance.

Now, therefore, the Cameron Parish Police Jury does here proclaim the week of September 7-13, 1997, as " in the State of Louisiana, and urge all citizens of the Parish of Cameron to join in recognizing the many contributions grandparents make to the growth of our children.

GRANDPARENTS WEEK

Area DAR members go to big flag raising

By LOLA MITCHELL

Three area women attended the dedication of the Veterans Memorial Highway, from Archibald to Vidalia, and the raising of the largest flag in the State of Louisiana in Winnsboro on Oct. 4.

The flag was a project of Oakley Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, the City of Winnsboro and Franklin Parish.

Among those attending were Gov. and Mrs. Mike Foster; U. S. Congressman John Cooksey, State Senator Noble Ellington, Jr., Mrs. Dorla Kemper, president general, National Society, DAR, and Miss Louisiana.

The flagpole extended 150 feet into the air and 18 feet into the ground. It took 35 men to raise the flag, which measured 40 ft. by 75 ft.

The project took eight months of working day and night by many people to complete. The citizens of Franklin Parish and Daughters of the American Revolution are very proud of the accomplishment.

Also shown is the special flag as it is being raised for the first time.

Cameron Outdoors

By Loston McEvers

This is a tough time of the year for hunters as well as anglers. With the deer season in full swing, the second split of dove season opening last Saturday and the redfish running, which do you choose?

Many hunters hunted deer Saturday and Sunday mornings, as dove season didn't open until noon. The colder weather brought us a few doves, however, the deer season is great. A ten pointer, a seven pointer plus many more bucks were harvested and for the two doe days, a good kill of doe was reported. The deer are in good shape. With the vegetation good, these deer are big and heavy. We do have a good population of deer in our parish and hunters are doing well.

Something else to start thinking about next week is getting decoys and weights ready, repair and cane up the old blinds as duck hunting is around the corner (November 8). This cold front has pushed a few ducks our way but plenty of speckle bellies are coming down, actually early for these, but they're here.

I didn't get any reports on rabbits or squirrels this week. I traveled quite a few miles last weekend on my three-wheeler in the marshes and ridges while deer hunting and didn't see a rabbit, so I really can't tell if the population is there or not.

FISHING REPORTS

The redfish are starting to run up the bayous and inlet marshes. A few reports of limits caught up to 24 inches.

A couple of friends of mine braved the north wind and really had a good trip to the Lacassine Refuge on the last day. They fished the cuts, canals and boat trails and caught 8 bass with the largest around 6 pounds. They were using sluggo and floating worms.

Offshore fishing was fairly good before the cold front, but the high seas put a stop to this, catches of redfish, big bull reds, triple tail, ling, and red snapper. The redfish were released because of Federal waters. These reds were running 20 to 30 pounds and popped quite a few lines.

NEWS BRIEFS

Many folks are cast netting, catching shrimp for the family deep freeze. Rockefeller Refuge is producing shrimp as well as the river basin of the Mermentau and the Cameron area.

Remember deer hunters, you cannot use sweet potatoes to feed deer, because of beetles that could spread and wipe out the sweet potato crops of our state.

The Wildlife and Fisheries Commission has put a ban on bringing deer into Louisiana. The reason is it poses a danger to the state's wild deer herd as well as the health of humans. I do know the Texas folks are looking into Anthrax in West Texas deer. As most cattlemen know, Anthrax in the cow herd can wipe them out and yes people can contract this disease too.

Crop damage in Michigan is over $32 million a year from the huge deer populations. The problem is so severe that the Michigan Farm Bureau gave the wildlife folks until 1999 to do something or a lawsuit will be filed. Management efforts have failed and the herd has increased from 1.3 million to 2 million animals.

DID YOU KNOW?

Ain't no mountain high enough! The highest ever recorded migration flight by a waterfowl species are those of a bar-headed goose, which crossed Mount Everest in the Himalayas at just under 31,000 feet. In North America, the record is held by a mallard that was hit by an aircraft at 21,000 feet near Elko, Nevada.

Governor backs plan for beach

Gov. Mike Foster has lent his support to efforts to fight shoreline erosion in the Holly Beach area and save Hwy. 82 which is being threatened by the Gulf.

Rep. Dan Flavin has provided the Pilot with a copy of the following letter from Gov. Foster to Col. William Conner of the Corps of Engineers concerning the matter:

"Congratulations to you and your staff for joining my Department of Natural Resources in initiating a precedent-setting solution for the critical problem of shoreline erosion at Holly Beach. I am personally interested in seeing agencies pool resources for necessary projects that have multiple purposes in the coast.

"Bo Ackal and Len Bahr of my staff have informed me that fixing the eroding beach will save Highway 82, protect homeowners and save thousands of acres of threatened marshes at the same time. Given the separate but common interests and benefits, it is only right that Breaux Act dollars be pooled with state wetlands and transportation funds and capital outlay monies to pay for this critical project. I am told that this represents an important new direction for the Breaux Act Task Force and one that I strongly support."

Russian student is attending S. Cam.

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Olga Sarmitskaya will turn "sweet sixteen" next week, but she will not celebrate it with her family, for she is thousands of miles away from her home in Russia.

Instead, she will blow out the candles on her birthday cake at the home of her host family, Mr. and Mrs. Joey Trosclair in Cameron. She is an exchange student from Briosersk, a suburb of St. Petersburg.

She is a junior at South Cameron High School and will stay here until the end of the school year.

Her trip was underwritten by a scholarship grant from the United States Government. She won it on the basis of a year of tests and themes she was required to write.

Even though Olga will have completed the 11th grade here, she will be required to take it over again when she gets home.

A straight A student, she was not surprised when she received the perfect score after her first semester here, because she said it was very easy. The lessons back home are much harder, she said.

Her favorite subjects in school are accounting and American history, and she plans to become an accountant when she completes her schooling or something in the field of Economics. Her sister is enrolled in college studying to become a lawyer.

She had great praise for her teachers in these two classes, Mrs. Hession and Mrs. Booth, and said she is enjoying her schooling very much.

She has molded easily into the student body and her host family, including the 15-year-old daughter Kristin Sturlese, who have taken her on all kinds of adventures, including an alligator hunt where they caught 13 alligators.

But the greatest adventure, thus far, she said, was their trip to New Orleans to see the Saints game. She was amazed at the French Quarter and is looking forward to another trip back soon with other Louisiana exchange students which is given by the sponsoring organization. There are only 3 Russians in the program in Louisiana among the over 50 from many foreign countries.

She was amazed at the amount of shopping that is done in this country and how everyone takes advantage of the plentiful goods to be purchased. Even though her parents are both veterinarians, they do not make the money that people in their profession do in the United States, and have to be very careful with their money.

She loves Cajun food and especially any way shrimp is cooked. She finds that she is lucky that she is in the home of family that owns a shrimp factory.

Olga found her way to Cameron because Kristin signed up in school to host a foreign exchange student and it is apparent that she and the host family have all benefitted from the experience.

At this time there are seven foreign exchange students in Cameron Parish with families who are interested in sharing their homes with students from other countries.

Worker dies in accident at G. Chenier

A 19-year-old construction worker was killed last Thursday morning when a crane which he was operating fell off a barge docked in the Mermentau River at Grand Chenier.

The Cameron Parish Sheriff's Dept. identified the victim as Todd A. Chauvin of Theriot, La. He was an employee of Laredo Construction Co.

A second Laredo employee, James Ogle of Grass Valley, Calif., also was injured. He was taken to South Cameron Memorial Hospital and then transferred to a Lake Charles hospital, where he was released later that day.

The men reportedly were working on the M/V Dularge, owned by Grand Ltd. of Metairie and which was leased to Laredo.

A spokesman for the Coast Guard in Lake Charles said an investigation was under way concerning the accident.

New committee to promote Grand Lake/Sweetlake area

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

A group of community leaders met in the Grand Lake-Sweet Lake Community Center last week to organize the Grand Lake-Sweet Lake Action Alliance to address the needs and problems of the community. The committee is composed of 15 members. Officers elected by the Alliance were: Brent Nunez, president; Wendell Greathouse, vice-president; Dinah Landry, secretary; Jerry Goss, reporter-publicity; and Scott Poole, treasurer.

The committee will meet at the Community Center on the first Thursday of the month at 6:30 p.m.

"Our community is growing so rapidly we need to start facing the problems in our future," Brent Nunez said.

"The committee will incorporate and will be able to apply for government grants and other resources," he said.

Nunez reported that the Big Diamond clean-up is moving forward, according to Rep. Dan Flavin.

One of the immediate items the committee will address is the water problem in Granger Cove, caused by the rapid growth in the community.

With the Amoco sale there will be several ventures taking place in the community, causing putting a burden on the water and school systems, Nunez said. The committee, however, will not address any of the school board problems.

Some of these problems are zoning, overlaying of highways, road widening, a sewerage system, water pollution, obtaining natural gas, establishing an industrial park, a community baseball field, a cemetery for the area, and a post office.The latter was approved at one time, but nothing was ever done on it, and it will be rebid along with a North Lake Charles Post Office.

Of immediate concern to the citizens is the problem of the Big Lake Pontoon Bridge, and the committee will address this with the Dept. of Transportation.

Litter is another big problem and the committee will get the 1-800 number that can be called to report license numbers of anyone seen littering along the highways.

Nunez loaned the committee $250 to get started, and said that anyone wishing to help the committee with seed money can send it to the treasurer, Scott Poole, 160 McCain Rd., Lake Charles, La. 70607, phone 318-598-3441.

After the meeting a supper was served, compliments of the Cameron State Bank.

Dye to be put in Pilion Bayou

The Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) is planning to conduct a water quality study on Pilion Bayou, located off the East Pass of the Sabine River in Cameron Parish. The study will be done during the week of Oct. 27, provided the water level is not too low or too high.

As is the case in most of the department's water quality studies, Rhodamine WT, a non-toxic, bright red dye, will be injected into the stream. Area residents may notice a red tinge in the stream near the point of injection, but officials say the dye is not harmful. The dye is used to trace a particular slug of water to allow sampling as it moves downstream.

The studies are a part of an ongoing DEQ effort to obtain hydrologic and water quality data for various types of streams across the state.

Highways, rail crossing hearing set for Nov. 6

Members of the Joint Highway Priority Construction Committee and the Task Force on Railroad Crossing Safety are joining forces to hold a series of special hearings in communities across the state and they want your help. The state legislators who serve on the two groups want to get your ideas on how best to spend taxpayer dollars to improve the state's highways and how best to protect the public at the thousands of railroad crossings throughout Louisiana.

One of the community meetings wi l be held at 10 a.m. on Thurs., Nov. 6, in the contraband Room of the Lake Charles Civic Center.

The Joint Highway Priority Construction Committee, composed of members of both the House and Senate Committees on Transportation, Highways and Public Works, holds special hearings around the state each year, as required by law, to explain the state's highway priority program and to get input from the public on highway needs and plans in various communities. This year in addition to the highway needs, the legislators will also be talking about railroad crossing safety.

The railroad crossing safety discussion is the result of the work of the Task Force on Railroad Crossing Safety created by the legislature earlier this year at the urging of State Senator Art Lentini (R-Kenner). Louisiana has the third highest vehicle-train accident rate in the nation and while accidents at railroad crossings are on the decline in other states, such incidents are on the increase in Louisiana. Just since the task force began its work a few months ago there have been a number of vehicle-train accidents across the state involving deaths and serious injuries.

Although we don't see you anymore, you are often on our minds and always in our hearts... We cherish the memory of the good times we knew and look forward to the day when we are together again... And we know the joy of your presence will warm our world just as the thought of you now warms our hearts.

We love you and Miss you more everyday.

Tarps on comeback trail after Iota win

By CHRIS MUELLER

Don't count the South Cameron Tarpons out yet as they knocked off the 2nd ranked Iota Bulldogs 27-26. South Cameron, who started the season ranked 3rd in the state but fell on hard times with a string of injuries, rebounded for the victory.

Jamie DeShields and Steven Landry scored a pair of touchdowns and the Tarpons held off an Iota 4th quarter rally as the Tarpons handed the Bulldogs their first loss of the season.

The Tarpons improved to 6-2 overall and 1-2 in district play. Iota fell to 7-1 and 2-1 in district despite a 230 yard and 2 touchdown performance by Chris Fruge.

South Cameron led 27-14 going into the 4th quarter but Iota scored twice on runs of 42 and 50 yards by Fruge to cut the deficit to 27-26. The Bulldogs kicker, Josh Ortego, was injured so the Dogs were forced to go for the 2 point conversion on both touchdowns. Both attempts failed. With 2 minutes to play the Bulldogs got the ball back at the South Cameron 41, but two costly penalties forced Iota into 4th and long. Iota's quarterback, Kyle Richey, had trouble with the snap and was sacked, ending Iota's threat.

DeShields rushed for 107 yards on 16 carries. He scored first for the Tarpons on a 9 yard run with 2:50 left to play in the first quarter to give the Tarpons a 7-0 lead. After a Kevin Guillory 9 yard run to tie the game, DeShields scored on a 75 yard swing pass. The extra point failed and South Cameron led 13-7.

A 58 yard pass from Richey to Guillory put Iota ahead 14-13. Landry gave the Tarpons the lead for good at 8:23 in the third quarter as he scored from a yard out on 4th and goal. The score was set up by an Iota fumble at the Tarpon 17 yard line recovered by Scotty Brown.

Refuge to open for waterfowl hunting

The Sabine National Wildlife Refuge will open on Nov. 8, to public waterfowl hunting, Refuge Manager Will Nidecker announced recently. The designated hunt area contains 24,000 acres in the game area that has been hunted in past years. Hunting is permitted three days each week - Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday. The western zone state season is applicable to the refuge and the dates for this year's seasons are Nov. 8-30 and Dec. 13-Jan. 18.

Hunters may enter the West Cove parking area to line up their boats for launching three hours before legal shooting hours. All hunters will be permitted to enter the refuge two hours before legal shooting hours. One half hour before sunrise is legal shooting time and hunters should plan their hunt so they are finished hunting and be out of the refuge by noon,, Nidecker continued.

Waterfowl identification is especially important because of the restrictions on taking various species. Hunters are urged to positively identify each bird as it is killed in order to avoid over limit problems. The daily bag limits are the same as the Louisiana's daily bag limits. Steel shot shells are required for hunting and steel shot reloads may be used.

There is no minimum age for youth hunters but they must have completed their hunter safety course and have proof with them in order to enter the refuge hunt area. Each hunter under the age of 16 must be under the close supervision of an adult. For safety reasons, each adult may have only one juvenile under his supervision. All adults entering the hunt area must be legally licensed to hunt waterfowl.

Nidecker noted this year trolling motors may be used in the marsh. The use of other boat motors to run in the marsh is prohibited. Motorized boats can be used only in the canals and bayous.

All hunters are required to check in at the check station before hunting and check out upon completion of their hunt.

There are other special regulations which apply to hunting and boat operations on the refuge. No entry is allowed in the hunt area until opening day of the waterfowl season. Additional information, copies of regulations or maps of the hunt area may be obtained by writing to: Sabine National Wildlife Refuge, 3000 Holly Beach Highway, Hackberry, louisiana 70645 or by calling telephone number (318) 762-3816.

DRILLING FOR OIL AT SWEETLAKE

R. H. Stark of Houston, advance man of the Gulf Refining Company of Louisiana, is in Lake Charles at the present time, assembling material and making preparations for an immediate drilling on the lands his company recently leased from the North American Land Company at Sweetlake, south of the city.

H. G. Chalkley, with the North American Land Company, stated Monday, that his barges would come up from Sweetlake Tuesday or Wednesday and take the derrick material to the location on the south side of the lake.

Local oil men are much interested in the Gulf's location at Sweetlake and declare that several concerns are trying to secure leases in the vicinity, some of them offering good prices.

DOVE HUNTING

Many in our parish have enjoyed dove hunting the last two weekends. It's really been fairly good shooting so far. I know I did better my first day this year, than I did last year. The group I hunted with made a fresh dove jambalaya outside in an iron pot, plus barbecue meats. Chief cook, no other than Galton Boudreaux.

Oh, before I forget, Terry Conner's got a new dog, yes, a retriever lab. He named him J. C.

There are two states west of the Mississippi river, that do not have a hunting season for mourning dove, the other is the state of Minnesota. Currently of the 48 states which have dove populations, 38 states allow hunting.

Iowa is one of 14 states in the Central Management Unit, a federal designation under which doves and other migratory birds are managed. The Central Management Unit contains 57 percent of the entire U. S. dove population, with the dove population in Iowa numbering 13 million (Don't you know you could fill a limit fast). Now the state of Iowa is trying to get a dove season, wanted by sportsmen.

Deer hunters are still harvesting a few deer, but some areas are being hampered by the seismic crews with the air boats and marsh buggies. Some of these crews are beginning to leave and most will be out by the start of duck season. This will surely help our deer hunters.

BEWARE OF HAWKS

While dove hunting last week I noticed three different times a hawk chasing a dove, yes looking for a meal. Shoot him you say! No-no.

Killing a bird of prey, like a red-tailed hawk, or falcon or other birds of prey, is a violation of state and federal laws. A conviction could result in a fine of several thousand dollars or a jail term of up to six months or both.

It is also illegal to possess claws, feathers or any other parts of these birds of prey. A person may want to have one dangling on his or her rearview mirror, it may even seem fashionable, but it could be costly.

FISHING NEWS

Flounder fishing has picked up in the last week or so, and as the weather gets colder, it'll only get better.

A few speckle trout and redfish are being taken, but things are a little slow at this writing.

BIRD OIL

What does the fat from the world's second largest flightless bird have to do with bass fishing?

Plenty, according to several pro bass anglers, like Bill Dance and my good friend Tommy Martin of Hemphill, Tex.

Pro fishermen and sports anglers, being as they stay in the sun, get their hands wet in the winter time, suffer from chapped hands, sunburned ears and other skin ailments.

These pros swear by the emu oil, extracted from the fat of this large Australian bird, about how it helps clear up sunburns, chapped hands and skin ailments. They say it's also good for knicks and cuts from fish hooks and fishing line. It eliminates the soreness and discomfort.

This ointment is now in the U. S. and is awaiting FDA approval. It has been used by Australia for centuries. They use it over there for arthritis as well. It is said it penetrates the skin better that other skin oils. Trainers are using the emu oil for treatment of pro athletes with injured elbows, hamstrings and back spasms. Hey, it removes the heat from sunburn and keeps the skin from peeling and yes, good for mosquito bites and wasp stings.

COMMERCIAL FISH NEWS

Commercial fishermen are trying to convince the state's highest court that the Louisiana ban on gill nets is unconstitutional.

Things like the buy back program on nets and the $250 fee fishermen were required to pay to travel through state waters to get to federal waters where gill nets are allowed. The $250 fee was abolished during the 1997 legislative session.

Many of the fishing towns have seen gillnetters become licensed charter boat skippers. They know the waters and know where the fish are, so they are good at their jobs.

SEASON TO OPEN

Many hunters are fixing their blinds to get ready for the start of duck, coot, goose season Nov. 8. The count down is on.

DID YOU KNOW?

Flashlight batteries will last longer if you keep them warm by sleeping with your flashlight inside your sleeping bag on cold nights out in the field. Also, carrying your flashlight inside your coat during cold daylight hours.

LOUISIANA ORNITHOLOGICAL Society members, are shown observing birds in the Baton Rouge Audubon Society's Peveto Woods Sanctuary at Johnson Bayou

Birders celebrate 50 year anniversary at meet here

By DAVE PATTON
LOS President

The Louisiana Ornithological Society (LOS) celebrates its 50th anniversary at this year's fall meeting, Oct. 25 and 26, in Cameron. The meetings were attended by 138 participants who made fields trips observing the birds of Cameron Parish.

The Friday night program was presented by past president Roger Breedlove, who reviewed the rare birds of Louisiana, many of which are found in Cameron Parish. Pete Dunne, director of the Cape May Bird Observatory in New Jersey, was the special guest.

The Saturday night listing of the birds seen during the day in Cameron Parish totaled 196 species. One of the most unusual was the Mountain Plover seen near Johnson Bayou. Special thanks to Dusty Sandifer for allowing access to the property where this rare bird was seen.

There are many other people in Cameron who the LSO is very grateful to for making the meeting so enjoyable. Marianna Tanner and Judy fruge worked hard to make sure all the details of the meeting were tended to. A special thanks goes to Hayes Picou, Howard Lancon, Calvin Boudreaux, Lorie Broussard, Milton Theriot, and Clifton Hebert, and all the Knights of Columbus for providing a great meeting hall, and wonderful food for the banquet. Ed Kelley and the Chamber of Commerce made us feel welcome with the greeting displayed in front of the Chamber office.

We also appreciate the kindness and understanding of certain property owners of Cameron Parish. There would be few areas along the coast to explore for bids without the help of Scott Henry and his family, Conway LeBleu, Dean Rome of the Rutherford estate, and many others.

Cameron is a very special part of the state to LOS members, and our spring and fall meetings are always the highlight of the year. We look forward to the next fifty years of enjoying the birds of Cameron Parish.

Good oyster season is forecast here

Oysters are plentiful, say Department of Wildlife and Fisheries resource managers, urging the public to take advantage of what looks like a good season for state oyster fishermen.

"September production on public oyster grounds has been good," said LDWF Program Manager Ron Dugas, adding that a preliminary estimate indicates more than 200,000 sacks have been harvested on Louisiana's public oyster grounds since the season opened Sept. 3.

Louisiana oyster harvesters are seeing an increase in the price per sack of oysters over last year and prices are expected to hold. Yield, however, has been low because of warm temperatures that have only recently cooled along Louisiana's coast.

The oyster resource in Calcasieu Lake, which opened Oct. 16, is expected to be good. Dugas said, "We anticipate a good yield in Calcasieu for the early part of the season and there is a lot of dealer interest. Prices should hold."

Calcasieu and Sabine Lake tonging areas are scheduled to remain open until one-half hour after sunset on April 30, 1998. The secretary of the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries is authorized to take emergency action to close areas if oyster mortalities are occurring, or close areas where significant spat catch has occurred with good probability of survival, or where it is found there are excessive amounts of shell in seed oyster loads. The secretary has the authority to re-open any closed areas if the threat to the resource has ended.

Free oyster recipes are available from the Louisiana Seafood Promotion and Marketing board (504/568-5693).

INJUNCTION WILL STAND

Jury loses appeal in Audubon suit

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Glen W. Alexander, Cameron Parish District Attorney, reported to the Cameron Parish Police Jury Tuesday that the Third Circuit Court of Appeal has turned down the jury's appeal in the suit of the Baton Rouge Audubon Society against the Police Jury.

The appeal was from a permanent injunction against the Police Jury forbidding the enforcement of its "Grass and Weeds" ordinance insofar as it affects 21 lots in Little Florida Subdivision owned by the Baton Rouge Audubon Society.

The ordinance makes it unlawful for owners of property within specific subdivisions of Cameron Parish to "fail to regulate the growth or accumulation of grass, obnoxious weeds, or other delete deleterious or unhealthy growths" on their property.

It also provides a method of enforcement that allows the police jury to remove the vegetation and assess the cost to the owners.

In July 1996, the ordinance was amended to add Little Florida as a subdivision covered by its provisions and shortly thereafter the parish sent a notice of violation to the Audubon Society.

It was in response to that notice of violation that the Audubon Society sued to enjoin the enforcement of the ordinance and for declaratory judgement that the ordinance was unconstitutional.

The issuance of a temporary restraining order was followed by a temporary injunction.

Following the trial, the 38th Judicial District Court permanently enjoined the police jury and its agents from entering the Audubon Society property (The Peveto Woods) and from removing and destroying the vegetation there.

From that judgement, the police jury appealed.

New technology is slated for schools

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The Cameron Parish School Board made a decision at its monthly meeting Tuesday received a report from Judy Jones, supervisor, on new technology for the school system.

She reported that 15 computer carts have been purchased for parish schools for $135,403 with no cost to the school board.

She also reported that she is working on a grant of $82,693 from the state to install new equipment at South Cameron High and Hackberry. The board approved advertising for bids for computer equipment for the two schools to be paid for by state funds.

With the addition of the new technology to all the schools there is an added need for a technical person to oversee it all, Mrs. Jones said. She asked the board to approve Peggy Benoit, already paid on a 10month basis from Title I funds, be paid an extra two months to do this work.

Jones and Benoit demonstrated the newest computers, Powerpoint, which will be installed in the schools. The board also approved the purchase of software for Johnson Bayou School.

The board approved a proposal of a voluntary unit by Linder Oil Company in Section 16-12-6, Chalkley Field, on two wells of 107 acres, explained by David Sturlese, geologist for the school board, and supervisor Uland Guidry.

The board approved a surface lease on Section 16-12-10 for Billy Doherty for $950 annually; also a bid by Cliff's Oil and Gas for $750 annually on Section 16-14-5; and a mineral lease on Section 16-14-5 for $45,600 from Matrix Oil and Gas, Inc.

The board approved bids from Kent Mitchel and Atterbury for $259,248 for six school buses.

The LSU Agricultural Center and cooperative Extension Service annual report was given by Agents Kevin Savoie, Mike LaVergne and Penny Thibodeaux. Trisha Silver, president of the Hackberry High School 4-H Club and Justin Landry, representing Grand Chenier 4-H Club, reported on their 4-H experiences.

Savoie reported that a Marsh Maneuvers and Wetland Management Seminar was held this past year at Rockefeller Refuge and was well attended.

Uland Guidry reported to the board that he had met with all the parish school principals regarding the volunteer International Drug Free Youth program (IDFY), which the board approved. It will be implemented in January, 1998.

The board approved the payment of unused sick leave to retiree Clarence Vidrine.

Jury hears report on agriculture program

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The annual report from the LSU Agricultural Center was made to the Cameron Parish Police Jury Tuesday by Agents Kevin Savoie, Mike LaVergne, and Penny Thibodeaux, along with Toni Kay Nunez of the South Cameron Sr. 4-H Club and JOhn Paul Trosclair, Cameron Elementary 4-H Club. They all thanked the Police Jury for their help in the parish 4-H program.

It voted to abandon the west 175 feet of that portion of Parish Road No. 3172, and approved the probationary right-of-way of Ernest Broussard of Grand Lake.

The jury heard a report from the Sabine National Wildlife Refuge on 1998 projects given by Herb Bell.

The Police Jury provides payment-in-kind for certain project of the refuge.

A lengthy discussion was held on the budget, which will be approved at the Dec. 3, meeting of the Jury.

On the Jetty Road project, which received only one bid, and the jury decided, after consulting with Glenn Alexander, the District Attorney, and Lonnie Harper, consulting engineer, to cut 25% off the original bid and specifications.

South Cameron Tarpons to end season at Welsh

By JOE MUELLER

DISTRICT 5-2A FOOTBALL STANDINGS

Kinder	3-1, 6-3
Oakdale	3-1, 5-4
South Cameron	2-2, 7-2
Iota	2-2, 7-2
Lake Arthur	1-3, 5-4
Welsh	1-3, 3-6

The South Cameron Tarpons take to the road to close out the regular season as they play Welsh in the middle of Greyhound country.

The two teams have just about opposite records as the Tarpons bring a 2-2 record into the game and Welsh is 3-6. The Tarpons are 2-2 in district while Welsh is 1-3.

Both teams scored victories last week. Welsh beat Kinder 20-7 a team that beat the Tarpons 14-7. South Cameron beat lake Arthur 17-14 and Lake Arthur beat Welsh for their only district win.

The tarpons found a strong runner in last week's game as Ryan Billings rushed for 144 yards.

The Greyhounds have given up 155 points in 9 games while the Tarpons have only allowed 77 points in 9 games.

The Tarpons could finish in a tie for first in the district if they win and both Kinder and Oakdale lose. They should have a wild card wrapped up with 7 wins, all against quality opponents. The game should be hard fought as all South Cameron-Welsh games are.

Last year the Tarpons won 26-13. The game was played at Welsh. The win allowed the Tarpons to grab second in district at 4-1. Notre Dame won the district with a 5-0 record.

Let's get a good crowd down to Welsh and cheer the Tarpons on. The wild cards should be announced Sunday afternoon. So be sure and check Monday morning's American Press for the playoff pairings.

Students learn about drugs

Miss Walker's kindergarten class at Grand Lake School has been learning about drugs. Jimmy Horner of the Calcasieu Parish Sheriff's Department Narcotics Division visited their class and talked to them. He brought his partner and friend, Armand, a specially trained drug dog.

The students created and decorated a "Monster Maze" out of cardboard boxes, and invited other classes to go through their maze to learn that drugs are scary.

At the end of the week the kindergarten classes participated in an assembly carrying ghost signs, and yelled the cheer: "Say Boo! to Drugs". The entire Grand Lake student body let balloons loose in the front parking lot.

Shrimp season reported is 'better than average'

Most Louisiana shrimp fishermen have enjoyed a better-than-average fall shrimp season, thanks to a combination of sufficient catches and high prices. Harvested shrimp are becoming smaller as the season progresses, but Department of Wildlife and Fisheries biologists anticipate established trends to continue before the season's expected close in late December.

Abundant shrimp production favored many fishermen this fall and good catches were landed particularly in Terrebonne Parish and below the Atchafalaya Delta. Respectable catches were also made east of the Mississippi River in areas around the Caernarvon outfall. High dock prices offset below average shrimp production in Barataria Bay and Calcasieu and shrimpers did better than expected with modest catches.

Every season is unique both in size of shrimp and area of production. This is due to many factors, including environmental conditions and recruitment. Both spring and fall inshore shrimp production is made up of several size classes or "crops" of shrimp. As larger shrimp migrate to Gulf breeding grounds, younger shrimp left behind continue to grow and begin to dominate the catch. Movements of larger shrimp outside estuaries are greatest during frontal passages in the fall. New waves of juvenile shrimp continue to be recruited into estuaries even after the season starts. As a result, fishermen may catch larger shrimp at the start of the season with sizes diminishing after each frontal passage as fall progresses.

LDWF resource managers report also good numbers of brown shrimp left from the spring season mixed with catches of white shrimp this year. Larger shrimp, (21-26 count per pound) were caught for the first few weeks, along with some smaller shrimp (50-60 count per pound). Recruitment was up and fishermen continue to make decent catches along the cost. However, following a cold front several weeks ago, much of the catch now consists of smaller shrimp (80-100 count per pound).

Mullet net rules altered

Orange Buoys at each end of commercial mullet strike nets will now be accepted as an alternative to the official strike net tags issued by the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries. But commercial fishermen are being warned, "don't throw away those official tags."

LDWF Enforcement Lt. Col. Charlie Clark announced the adoption of a procedure to allow fishermen to remain legal while harvesting mullet. State law requires all mullet strike nets to be tagged with a Department of Wildlife and Fisheries issued tag. Some mullet fishermen have reported that the tag has a tendency to tear away from the net when the net is being struck.

"If mullet strike nets are tagged at each end with orange buoys that contain the commercial fisherman's full name and mullet permit number legibly and in the English language, Department-issued tags will not be required to be attached when striking the net," said Clark. "The official tag must be possessed on board the strike vessel, however."

Mullet strike nets must be tagged with the Department issued tag at any time other than when actually striking the net. Nets that are not tagged as required will be seized and persons using such nets will be subject to arrest or citation.

The Louisiana commercial mullet season runs from Oct. 20 through Jan. 19. Commercial mullet fishermen are required to have a commercial mullet permit and permit holders are required to report their harvest to LDWF. No commercial mullet fishing is allowed at night or on weekends.

Rice once grown here in lower Cameron

By Archie Hollister

Some of the older residents of Lower Cameron will recall, and the younger generation will be surprised to learn, that from time to time some rice was grown in the area. It can probably best be described by quoting from the recollections of Homer Broussard, originally from the Chenier, but now living in Lake Arthur. Homer's memory spans 80 years.

He says: "My people would get a little rice from up the country from time to time. How come they did not get a whole lot, I don't know. My father decided after a while that he would raise his own rice. So we raised rice providentially --- 'a la providence'--- we call it. We planted some rice and it came on up very nicely in the spring time. Then we got several showers and it grew up as tall as I was -- I was just a little fellow then, but I would say that it grew four feet high, and we had rice galore.

"We had a mortar and pestle; Grandpa Miller made one for us. I would pound that rice and get all the hulls loose, and then we'd shake it in the wind and let the hulls blow away.

"But growing rice was not successful enough to justify the work. We had no irrigation to control weed growth and furnish enough water at the right time. The weeds were the biggest problem of all, and my father planted only one crop."

I have also heard of another experiment at Grand Chenier. Someone planted a few acres at the west end of Indian Point -- it seems to me that my informant mentioned the name Telesmar Theriot in this connection, but I am not certain. This rice grew well also, but the biggest drawback was an invasion of blackbirds, or, to be more specific, the red-winged variety locally called rice-birds. They are evidently well named. There also could have been a limited attempt at irrigation, for the rice field was adjacent to the river. But again, I have no certain information.

Magazine subscription schemes increasing

Be careful when signing up for magazine subscription packages over the telephone, advises the Better Business Bureau of Southwest Louisiana. According to the BBB, consumers are complaining that they have been tricked by smooth-talking telemarketers into purchasing expensive multi-year magazine subscriptions. Once they receive the bill, often totaling hundreds of dollars, they realize that it greatly exceeds the total yearly cost of each magazine.

"You've got to be tough to fight this particular scheme," said Carole Vennier, president of the Lake Charles BBB. "If you're contacted by a magazine telemarketer, listen carefully to the initial sales presentation. Don't be afraid to interrupt and ask questions. If you want more information, ask them to send you written materials. If you're not interested, it's simple, say goodbye and hung up."

Last year the local Bureau received hundreds of complaints on magazine subscriptions by telephone. Nationally, the number of complaints against subscription services by telephone increased 55 percent from 1995 to 1996. Typical complaints include: not being informed of total cost, billing for more magazines than ordered, being billed when no order at all was made.

"While there are legitimate companies that sell magazine subscriptions over the telephone, watch out for the salespeople who avoid giving you their name or the company's name. Call the BBB to check on the reliability of the company before agreeing to any offers," said Vennier.

The BBB offers the following tips when responding to telemarketers who are offering magazine subscriptions:

■ If it sounds like a good deal and you're interested in buying, as the caller for his/her name and the name, address and phone number of the company. Do not give out your credit card number before verifying the caller and checking out the company.

■ Before buying anything, ask to receive a written copy of the sales terms offered over the phone.

■ If and when you agree to buy, some sellers may want to tape your telephone conversation to prove you understand all terms of the agreement. In some states your verbal agreement to buy may become an immediate legal contract.

■ If you wish to cancel, you must do so in writing. Generally, you may cancel within three days of receipt of the agreement. Sign and return the cancellation notice by certified or registered mail so you will have proof of your mailing date.

■ Before buying anything, ask for the total yearly cost of each magazine and of the whole package. Then do your math to determine if the offer is really such a sweet deal.

The Challenge of Genealogy

CHALLENGE OF GENEALOGY

Ancestor Charts and Tables, Volume V has been published by the Southwest Louisiana Genealogical Society, extending this valuable series of family information.

Like the first four, Volume Five is a collection of five generation Ancestor Charts and partial Ahnentafels (Tables of Direct Ancestors) of members of the Society, as furnished by them.

Containing either the 6th and 7th, the 8th and 9th, the 10th and 11th, or the 12th and 13 generations, the Ahnentafels are continuations of lineages published in previous volumes.

Charts and Tables are arranged by membership number (there are no page numbers), each followed by name and address of the contributor. An index of 1,851 surnames references to members' numbers.

"Genealogists should use this book as a research tool and should always confirm their data by seeking proof from primary sources" writes Mrs. Pat Huffaker, president of the Society; and "Surnames included are not only typical of Louisiana, but are also from many other states and countries."

Softcover, 8 1/2 x 11 in., spiral bound, this important volume V to the series is available at $25 from: Southwest Louisiana Genealogical Society, P.O. Box 5652, Lake Charles, LA 70606-5652.

MARRIAGE RECORDS

South Carolina Marriages, Volume VI 1753-1843 Implied in the Miscellaneous Records of South Carolina as compiled by Barbara R. Langdon is a collection of 2,554 marriage references from the original records at the South Carolina Department of Archives and History in Columbia.

South Carolina did not require civil or courthouse marriage records until 1911. This book provides marriage documentation and clues for the colony, province, and state during 1753-1843.

This Volume VI is a companion edition to the previous five volumes in the series: Vol. I, 1749-1867; Vol. II, 1735-1885; Vol. 111, 1671-1791; Vol. IV, 1787-1875; and Vol. V. 1749-1853 as implied in miscellaneous records, marriage settlements, provincial records, law reports, and/or equity reports.

Volumes VI and IV are available at $25 and Vol. V at $30, plus $3 mailing for the 1st book, $1 each additional book ($8 maximum). Each has two alphabetical sections, by the woman's and the man's name, plus a subindex.

Listings give name and spouse, year they were living, source reference to original records, sometimes actual date of marriage or settlement, woman's father or former husband, other info. Included are free blacks, slaves, American Indians and East Indians from the islands.

Also compiled by Barbara R. Langdon are Abbeville County Marriages 1780-1879, Barnwell Marriages 1775-1879, Barnwell County Marriages 1764-1859, and Chester County Marriages 1785-1879, each $20; Spartanburg County Marriages 1785-1911, $25; and York County Marriages 1770-1869, $15.

Each book is softcover, 5 1/2 x 8 1/2 in., varying from 376 to 101 pages, each price plus mailing, available from Langdon and Langdon Genealogical Research, 132 Langdon Road, Aiken, S.C. 29801-9536.

NINETY MORE HOMES ON WATER SYSTEM

The Cameron Waterworks System has just completed an addition of the town's water system extending water service to more than 90 homes in the Primeaux subdivision and black section southeast of the town.

Conway LeBleu, water board chairman, said the laying of the new water mains was done by a crew hired by the board and supervised by Dan Dupont, waterworks superintendent. He said that by doing the work itself, the board was able to complete the project at a cost of about $17,000, or about half of what it would have cost if a contract had been let.

The water board will receive bids on Dec. 9, on pipe and supplies to be used to extend the waterlines to the Kornegay subdivision on the east side of Cameron.

The just completed extension and the new one coming up will be paid for out of funds left over from the original issue which financed the original water system for Cameron.

Mr. LeBleu said that the water system, after a year of operation, was in good financial condition and that the board will extend the system to include all of the area now covered by the fire protection district in the future.

This will include providing to the Garber subdivision east of Cameron and homes in that area.

JOHNSON CARRIES PARISH

Louisiana as a whole may have gone Goldwater, but Cameron Parish remained in the Democratic column Tuesday, giving President Johnson 64 scores of the parish's vote. The vote was 1556 for Johnson and i71 for Goldwater.

But this local Democratic landslide still was not as big as the one in 1960 when John F. Kennedy got 80 percent of Cameron Parish's vote.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

I'm writing in regards to acknowledge the overwhelming generosity and compassion of one of our Cameron residents.

As we all know in July, our priest of 22 years retired. For most, retirement is a time of excitement and joy, however; for our priest it was not. Due to his physical state, he had to make a decision that for him was very difficult, retirement. Upon retirement he was to move.

If not for the grace of God this would have all come to pass. But thanks to the generous heart of one woman we had a chance to see a true disciple of Christ at work. She blessed Monsignior with a home, a wheelchair accessible home, a home that I call "the house that love built", for there were so many including herself who put in a lot of time and effort. But all agree that without the generosity of this woman none of this would have happened.

I would like to disclose the name of this person but like Jesus she isn't looking for any reward. The love you have shown just so another person could have happiness is an inspiration to us all.

You have blessed so many, for we were all saddened by the thought of Monsigniors departure. Thank you!!

You have truly earned your wings.

Teresa Mouton

Dear Editor:

I would like to take the opportunity to share with the community appreciation for a recent event that involved South Cameron High School.

In times of such busy schedules, rushing and hurrying through life, we were given the experience of an occasion to reflect on our true purpose. The coaching staff, faculty, students who are involved in Tarpon football, and parents were invited to come together at Our Lady Star of the Sea for a worship service in honor of the Tarpons on Sunday, oct. 5. Not often enough do we have the chance to see our young people congregated at church to give thanks for our many blessings.

Father Al Volpe has given us great support and his efforts are much appreciated. With help from volunteers from Hibernia National Bank and the congregation, the service and brunch were a tremendous success.

In addition, to celebrate the occasion even further,the pictures featured in the newspaper afterwards were quite moving and evident that Father Volpe and those hardworking volunteers of Our Lady Star of the Sea are truly loyal fans, whether the Tarpons are on the field or not.

Again, please acknowledge our warmest thanks for making time to celebrate that Tarpon spirit.

Sincerely,
/s/ Coach Parry LaLande, coaching staff, faculty and students

Do You Remember?

By Keith Hambrick

(Lake Charles American, Nov. 5, 1890)
GRAND CHENIERE
(An Employee of "The American" views the Country and Tells What He Saw)

When a closely-housed, hard-worked young man of Lake Charles takes a vacation of a week or two for resting up, he invariably spends it on the gulf coast. Your correspondent, when his turn came, followed the style, going down the Calcasieu on the mail boat Xantho, and at Leesburg obtaining, through the kindness of Mr. John McCall, a horse with which to make the trip of 25 miles along the coast to Grand Cheniere.

The road lies along the front ridge for the entire distance. The ridge is high and dry, about a half mile wide, and of late pretty generally settled. Up to within a few years ago, scarcely a house was to be seen between Leesburg and Grand Cheniere; now there are many prosperous settlers, living in good homes, in the midst of well cultivated fields.

Late in the afternoon the Mermentau River was within sight, and before sunset the pallid, health-hunting traveler was chatting pleasantly with Mr. J. A. Doxey and family, who live on the Cheniere three miles east of the river.

It was so late that nothing was seen that night, but the next morning, after showing us over his own beautiful place, Mr. Doxey hitched to his gig and took us along their shell road to see some of the neighbors. These were not far distant. Farm joins farm here, and the houses are scarcely farther apart than those in some sections of Lake Charles. A single road leads from one end of the "island" to the other. It lies along the south side, near the sea marsh, which stretches out for a distance of about three miles. Our companion called our attention to the smoothness and solidity of the roadway, and remarked that it was seldom worked. It is a fine shell driveway fifteen miles long.

The first call was at the home of Mr. Joe Jones, who has a fine place a few miles east of Mr. Doxey's. One of the first things to be noticed is a thrifty banana orchard. The fruit is now about half grown, and it was quite a curiosity to a northern bred man, even though he had resided for three years in Lake Charles; for although bananas are grown to some extent in the yards of our city, they require such tender nurturing that the trees are rather infrequent.

The next stop was made at Mr. Mains' residence, four miles further on. Here we saw probably the finest orange grove on the island, unless Mr. Doxey's equals it. That is saying a great deal, for the people of Grand Cheniere pride themselves upon their oranges. And they have good ground for pride. When the trees were frozen down five years ago, as was nearly every orange tree in Louisiana, they had born only two or three crops, and the people were just beginning to find out what there was in the industry. Most of them went immediately to save their trees after the freeze, and all have succeeded.

Now the Grand Cheniere orange orchards are farther advanced than others in Louisiana. But it has cost labor and expense and time. "Why, sir," said one grower, "I cared for my trees as a mother would for her child. The hardest days' work I ever did were put in on that orchard. Now it is beginning to pay me." And it is. This year that gentleman made a fair crop, and he expects to make two or three times as much next season.

Among those who have fine places on the island may be named Mr. Jesse McCall, who has an orange grove, besides a grove of fine paper-shell pecan trees, and Mr. Doland, the proprietor of the only sugar mill on the island. Mr. Doland was kind enough to explain to us the modus operandi of his mill, and to show his crop of cane, which he will soon commence to grind.

The settlers all seem to be well fixed and comfortable. We venture the assertion that nowhere else can be found a row of houses as neatly finished and surrounded as this one 15 miles long. All face the south, and the farms extend back to the low lands on the north of the island. Very few farms contain more than 50 acres, but that is every foot thoroughly cultivated and made to produce to its utmost capacity.

The front presents almost an unbroken stretch of orange trees. It is virtually an orange orchard 15 miles long, with only a space here and there for a dwelling. But this is not the only fruit raised. Peaches, as fine as can be grown anywhere, are in abundance. Pears, grapes, blackberries, strawberries, figs and others are grown.

A gentleman informed us that when this section was first settled, tobacco grew promiscuously and rank. Even now where the stock does not tramp it out if fills every available space. Each grows his own supply. Stock keeps fat the year round without a handful of feed. We were surprised at the grad eof stock here. Evidently some pains have been taken to grade up the native horses and cattle, and now good sized animals are had.

The trade of Grand Cheniere is mostly with Galveston by schooners, the freight rates being cheaper to that place than by way of the mermentau River and the Southern Pacific Railroad to New Orleans. The principal staple product is cotton, and there are on the island three well fitted gins for the accommodation of the crop. Orange growers have found the cotton seed very useful in their orchards, even on the rich, loose soil of the Cheniere.

To a visitor among these people the days are sure to be short, and Wednesday morning, when the steamed Louisa Storm, Capt. Sweet master, leaves for her weekly trip up the river, came all too soon for your correspondent. Never has it been his pleasure to meet a more genial, hospitable people than those of Grand Cheniere, and his next vacation will certainly be spent somewhere in their vicinity.

After a pleasant trip up the Mermentau, through Grand Lake and Lake Arthur, at the last place obtaining a splendid view of the new hotel, we arrived at last at Lake Charles and reported for duty at The American office, well pleased with our "lay off," and refreshed and strengthened for more efforts to give the people plenty of first class reading matter.

SEASONS OPENING

This is the weekend most hunters are waiting for the opening of ducks, coots, blue and snow geese and speckle bellies. Also opening will be rail and gallinule and snipes. Nov. 8, Sat., is "D" Day.

All the above mentioned birds shooting hours are one-half hour before official sunrise to official sunset. The first split closes Nov. 30, in our west zone. Here are daily bag limits and other information:

Duck, daily, 6, possession, 12; no more than 4 mallards, only 2 of which may be females; 1 black duck; 2 wood ducks; 3 mottled ducks; 3 pintails; 1 canvasback and 2 redheads.

Mergansers, 5, only 1 hooded in addition to the daily bag limit on ducks, possession 10.

Coots, daily, 15, possession, 30.

Rails, king and clapper, daily 15, sora and Virginia, daily 25, possession of these together is 32

Gallinules, daily 8, possession 16; snipes, daily, 8, possession 16.

Geese - blues and snows, daily 10, possession, 30; speckle belly, daily 2, possession 4.

All waterfowl hunters between the ages of 16 and 59 inclusive are required to have in their possession a valid state duck stamp, signed across the face in ink, in addition to federal duck stamps also signed in ink. Naturally a resident hunting license to hunt ducks, coots and geese.

Goose creeping is illegal. Steel shots are required by law or other non-toxic shots available and approved.

Persons born after Sept. 1, 1969, must show a hunter safety education course card to buy a hunting license.

Tagging is required when leaving with migratory game birds with anyone or place. Information needed on the tag is: the hunter's signature, address, total number of birds and species of each, the dates the birds were killed. Also, tagging is required when transporting birds by another person or with a 2-day limit for yourself. Remember, you cannot completely field dress any migratory game birds (except doves and band tailed pigeons). The head and one fully feathered wing must remain attached to the birds.

Being all excited about opening of duck season, we sure need more ducks down as of this writing. I guess it'll take more cold weather.

Deer hunting is going well. This weekend is either sex, Nov. 8-9.

FISHING

Calcasieu Lake is starting to produce some nice trout, some big, using cochahoe and working the birds is paying off.

Redfish are being taken at the Grand Chenier Jetties and the rocks at the Fawvor curve and catfish on Little Pecan Bayou.

Cameron jetties and points at Old River are producing redfish and the rocks between Holly Beach and Constance Beach.

Rockefeller Refuge is producing both redfish and speckle trout. If they're pumping water in the main canals, that's good as the fish come to feed. Work close to the banks while trolling these canals.

DID YOU KNOW?

The state of New York established the first hunting license requirements in 1764 and the first duck club in the United States was the "Tally Ho Club", New Orleans and then in 1918, the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act was passed, prohibiting spring shooting of ducks and putting a daily bag limit of 25 ducks.

JESSICA GUILBEAUX, Natasha Thacker and Ashley Granger are shown with infant simulators at the skating rink. They were in a child development class.

Parenting not easy, parish youths learn

Two child development classes have completed the "Baby Think It Over Program" at Hackberry High School, according to Mrs. Vickie Parker, Family and Consumer Science teacher. The Cameron Parish School Board purchased the infant simulators to be used as an innovative approach to parenting education and prevention of teen pregnancies as well as a hands-on aid in child development classes.

The core of the program is a parenting simulation using a computerized infant simulator. The program helps young adults explore the physical, emotional, social and financial consequences of teen parenthood. The infant simulator "Baby" will cry at random, unpredictable times 24 hours a day and require the student to care for it by inserting and turning a care key in its back.

When the care key is inserted Baby stops crying within a few seconds. The care key must be held in place from 5 to 35 minutes, approximately the amount of time needed to care for an infant. Baby will also cry if held in a position it does not like or if it is roughly handled or abused.

The simulator computer box will record the abuses, neglects, number of minutes of excess crying time and has a tamper proof device to prevent students from unlocking the box. Care keys can be attached to the wrist of students so that they are the only person who can take care of the infant when it cries.

Hackberry students cared for the infants in class for four weeks before taking the infant home for 3 days and nights. Students were required to keep a diary of every time the infant cried, their reaction to the care session and the reaction of others present.

The student's overall feelings after a weekend with the infant was that they definitely did not want a child at this age. The infant responsibility was a 24 hour job that could not be ignored or shoved on others. This makes the program successful.

New director on job

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Laurie London, the new Economic Development Director for Cameron Parish, has settled into her office in the Police Jury Annex and is enthusiastic about her new job.

Brent Nunez, Police Jury President, has taken her around the parish to acquaint her with the various communities.

She will be compiling economic information on Cameron Parish at the Imperial Calcasieu Regional Planning and Development Office in Lake Charles for the next month.

She is a self-employed marketing and business development consultant, and will be developing economic plans for the parish.

She plans to develop a presentation on the parish to use as sales tool as she functions as a planner and salesman for the Parish.

She has been based in Lafayette for the past several years doing marketing consulting for heavy industrial clients, which will be useful when she approaches companies about locating in the parish.

Her duties include being the jury's liaison to the East and West Cameron Port Boards, the Tourist Commission and Chamber of Commerce.

MARANDA DAIGLE, a junior at Hackberry High School, has completed Sea World of Texas' Careers Camp, an element of Sea World Adventure Camps and the only marine sciences education program of its kind for high school students. Daigle accompanied Sea World's animal care and training staffs as they performed duties involving sea lions, stingrays, killer whales, sharks, penguins and other fascinating species. Spaces are now available for 1998 spring, summer and fall sessions of the week-long Careers Camp, which is held at the San Antonio marine life adventure park. Call toll-free for more information at (800) 700-7786.

Drainage to be voted on Saturday

Nineteen projects which would improve drainage in the Creole, Oak Grove and East Cameron areas would be funded through a bond issue to be voted on Saturday.

The election is in Gravity Drainage District 4 of Cameron parish and is on the issuing of $1,260,000 in bonds to fund the project. A second proposition is on a 5.51 tax for maintenance and operation of the drainage system.

The board now collects a maintenance tax of 3.49 mills which brings in about $40,000 a year, which the board says is not adequate to solve the drainage problems of the area. The present tax will be up for renewal in 1998 and would expire in 1999.

The 19 projects to be funded by the bond issue are outlined in the full page informational ad elsewhere in this issue.

Bank adding 2 branches in Allen P.

The Cameron State Bank, which was established 31 years ago in Cameron parish, has announced its intention to establish branches in Kinder and Oberlin in Allen parish.

The move will expand the bank's service area into its third parish. It presently has branches in Cameron, Hackberry, Johnson Bayou, Creole, Grand Chenier and Grand Lake/Sweetlake in Cameron parish.

A few years ago the bank expanded into Calcasieu parish and now has branches in Lake Charles, Sulphur, Westlake and Moss Bluff.

An official notice of the bank's intention to establish the Allen parish branches is to be found in the legal section of this week's Pilot.

Tarpons to meet Devils in playoff game Friday

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons were awarded a wildcard last Sunday by the Louisiana High School Athletic Association. The Tarpons who won eight of ten games during the regular season were selected and will play the Pickering Red Devils Friday night at 7 p.m. in Pickering.

Pickering brings a 9-1 record into the contest. The Red Devils are District 4AA champs with a 6-0 record.

The only loss of the Red Devils this season came at the hands of the Tarpons 17-3, in the third game of the season. Since that game the Red Devils have won seven straight. They went through district outscoring their opponents 346 to 199.

The Tarpons, on the other hand, have lost two district games since then, suffering a 14-2 loss to Kinder and 12-10 loss to Oakdale.

The Tarpons lost their top two running backs in the Lake Charles-Boston game and haven't been effective on the offense since. They have scored 212 points in ten games while giving up only 84.

Last year the Tarpons went to Pickering and beat the Red Devils 20-14 to go to the state championship game in the Superdome. The teams have played at least once a year since Pickering started football. The Tarpons hold a 7-4 edge in the series.

One thing for sure the Tarpons will travel to Pickering ready to play. They definitely won't be intimidated by the Red Devils, No. 2 State ranking and district title. They were an underdog when they traveled to Pickering last year in the playoffs.

The Red Devils have two strong running backs in Sam Blocker and Artis Stanley and have a very athletic quarterback in Van Morriss. The Red Devils kicking game is strong as David Latta does an excellent job punting and handling the kickoff and field goal chores.

The Tarpons top running back in the last couple of games has been Ryan Billings. Scott Surratt caught two touchdown passes from John Pradia in last week's overtime win.

No matter what, it looks like on paper it will be a good game so let's get a lot of fans on the road to Pickering. The Tarpons last year won their opening playoff game on the road at Shreveport as they beat Loyola 20-7.

This is the Tarpons 11th time in the playoffs since Coach LaLande has been head coach. They were runner-up in 1986 and 1996. Coach LaLande starting the playoffs has 136-50-1 record.

Postal drop box to be at Cameron courthouse

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Dorothy Theriot, Cameron postmaster, told the Cameron Lions Club members that the postal service is installing a drive-up postal drop box on the east side of the Cameron courthouse for the convenience of the offices there.

She said that with the increased traffic on La. 27-82 in front of the post office there is much traffic congestion with people trying to get in and out of the post office, something had to be done.

She said that the mail in the drop would be picked up in the afternoon at 3 p.m.

However, anyone who misses that time can still mail everything at the main post office by 4:30 p.m.

The postal service has leased the lot next to the present parking lot from the Cameron library to enlarge the present parking lot.

She said that the local post office is undergoing a complete overhaul, with new and added post office boxes, and should be completed in the near future.

Paul Savoit, postmaster of the Grand Chenier post office and Customer Service Representative of the United States Postal Service explained the extra services the post office is now offering.

One of his jobs is to go out and visit with customers and help them find more economical ways to mail, especially the ones with large mailings.

He also explained the advantages of express mail, priority mail and advertising mail.

Even though some people abhor getting junk mail, he said, it is the main source of income for the post office.

The Lions voted to not hold the Nov. 26, noon meeting because of Thanksgiving.

Theunissen on revenue committee

District 25 State Senator Gerald J. "Jerry" Theunissen (D-Jennings) is taking on new responsibilities in the State Senate as the newest member of the Senate Committee on Revenue and Fiscal Affairs. Senate President Randy Ewing officially appointed Senator Theunissen to the committee which sets out the state's construction program, watches over state debt and considers state taxes and tax exemptions.

Senator Theunissen, who began his service in the State Senate just a little over a year ago, said, "The Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Committee plays a key role in deciding the best use of your tax dollars on state construction projects and leads the way in developing a fair and equitable state tax policy."

Senator Theunissen previously served in the House of Representatives. He was elected to the District 25 Senate seat in a special election last fall and has worked closely with Senate leaders in on-going government reform efforts. Cameron Parish is in his district.

Refuges are written up

Cameron Parish and its many wildlife refuges were highlighted in the December 1997 issue of Birders World in a story entitled "Spoonbills for Christmas".

Marcia Bonta wrote about her visit to Cameron Parish to view her favorite bird, the Roseate spoonbill.

She describes her trip from her home in Pennsylvania to Cameron Parish, to her travel along the Creole Nature Trail Scenic Byway, along La. Hwy. 27, and her pleasant surprise, not only in finding huge flocks of the spoonbills but other exotic birds.

She had secured information on both the Sabine and Cameron Prairie National Wildlife Refuges but also visited the Rockefeller Refuge at Grand Chenier and Lacassine Refuge near Lake Arthur,a nd the Peveto Woods bird sanctuary at Johnson Bayou.

THESE WERE SOME of the courthouse employees who took part in the Drug Free program held recently on the courthouse step. Sheriff Sono Savoie even got in the act with his impersonation of Elvis.

Courthouse folks 'rock' in support of youngsters

Cameron Elementary School made their annual Drug Free March from the school to the Courthouse Square Thurs., Oct. 30.

Entertainment was by Sheriff Sono "Elvis" Savoie, personnel from the Sheriff's Office, and Clerk of Court, and Tax Assessor's Office. Refreshments were provided by the Police Jury.

"Olivia Newton John" and "John Travolta" put in appearances to do a dance step from "Grease".

Tarpons beat Welsh 14-7

By JOE MUELLER

The South Cameron Tarpons closed out the 1997 football season with a 14-7 win over the Welsh Greyhounds. The Tarpons won the game in overtime as both teams had 7 points at the end of regulation play.

Welsh scored on its first possession as they drove 80 yards in 11 running plays. The touchdown came on a seven yard run by Hill with 1:47 left in the opening quarter.

The score stood up to give the Greyhounds a 7-0 halftime lead.

The Tarpons tied the score at 7 in the third quarter as the Tarpons took a Welsh punt at the 44 and moved to the end zone. They scored on a 6 yard pass from John Pradia to Scott Surratt. John Montie kicked the extra point so with 6:16 left in the third quarter, each team had 7 points.

The score stayed tied for the rest of the contest. The Tarpons did drive down to the Welsh 27 in the final quarter but they fumbled the ball.

The Tarpons scored in the overtime on a 9 yard pass from Pradia to Surratt. Again Montie hit the extra point and the Tarpons had a 14-7 win.

South Cameron's top rusher was Ryan Billings with 22 yards. The Top receiver was Surratt with 15 yards. The Tarpons finished district with a 3-2 record and 8-2 overall. Kinder, Oakdale, Iota, and South Cameron all finished district with 3-2 records. Because of who beat who, Kinder claimed first and Oakdale second.

TO THE VOTERS OF GRAVITY DRAINAGE DISTRICT #4:

Throughout my campaign and during my term as your Police Juror, the people have told me, "You will have to do something about the water problem. Most of the phone calls I have received from you say, "I am flooded, do something about the water."

After working with the Drainage Board and Parish Engineer, Lonnie Harper, we called three town meetings and came up with a very good plan for all of the drainage in District #4. Although we have been in the dry season, let's not forget the rainy season.

I am asking you for your support on this Plan on Saturday, November 15, 1997.

If you have any questions, pleas call me, Lonnie Harper, or any of the Drainage Board Members.

Thank You,

Children receiving blessing

Children's church now featured at Cameron

A unique feature of worship at Star of the Sea Catholic Church is the Children's Church which meets regularly on Sunday at the 10 a.m. Mass.

Under the guidance of Hope January, assisted by Theresa Mouton, the children ages 3 to 8 go to the Day Chapel where they listen to Scripture written especially for children. After their 10 to 15 minute session they are then reunited with their parents in time for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Both Miss January and Miss Mouton are Education Majors at McNeese University and they sing and do projects with the children.

Plans are currently underway for a special children's service on Christmas Eve at 4 p.m. All the children, their families and relatives are welcome to attend.

Nature Trail & Bureau win two top awards

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The Creole Nature Trail National Scenic Byway District was named Regional and State Organization of the Year recently, and was presented with the Shining Example award at the annual Southeast Tourism Society's conference in Point Clair, Ala.

The Southwest Louisiana Convention and Visitor's Bureau also was named the Regional and State Organization of the Year.

Attending the conference were Shelly Johnson, executive director and Monte Hurley, chairman of the Visitors Bureau and Sammie Faulk, a board member of the Trail; and Brent Nunez, president of the Cameron Parish Police Jury.

Hurley said, "I always knew the Creole Nature Trail was destined for great things. We have meshed great natural resources, a high performance Convention and Visitors Bureau team and the tireless energy of the Creole Nature Trail National Scenic Byway District resulting in an unbeatable combination. Cameron and Calcasieu parishes can be very proud."

Johnson said she feels doubly proud of the awards since the Creole Nature Trail National Scenic Byway received its national designation in Sept., 1996. The Trail was one of only 14 in the United States with such designation and the only one in the Gulf south.

The Trail has been named 35th of the Top 50 birding spots in North America by Wildbird Magazine and its beauty helped southwest Louisiana cinch a bid for the Southwest Outdoor Press Association's National Conference in the year 2000.

Brent Nunez said, "I am very proud of the Shining Example award, and am glad our area has finally been recognized for its natural beauty."

FIRE STATION DEDICATION

Everyone is invited to the dedication of Cameron's new $34,000 fire station Saturday. The new facility, just completed, will give the town one of the best fire departments of any community its size in the state.

The opening ceremonies will consist of cutting the ribbon by Mrs. Roland J. Trosclair, Sr., who was serving the unexpired term of her late husband on the Cameron Parish Police Jury when the contract of the building was let.

Also scheduled to speak briefly will be W. F. Henry, Jr., president of the Cameron Parish Police Jury, and Ray Burleigh, Fire Chief.

FIRE DEPT. NEARLY TEN YEARS OLD

The Cameron Fire Department will be ten years old in just three months, having been formed on Feb. 15, 1955.

As have been many other worthwhile improvements of the town, the fire department was a project of the Cameron Lions Club. Following several disastrous fires, including a big waterfront fire and the burning of a local cafe, Lions president Hadley Fontenot appointed a committee to seek the formation of a department.

Committee members were Charles Hebert, Fontenot, Edward Swindell, Leslie Richard, and Ray Champagne.

Working with the police jury, a fire protection district was formed, six miles across, taking in the area from the ship channel east to Jim Daigle's corner. A 4-mil maintenance tax was readily passed by the property owners of the district. Last year when the tax was up for renewal, property owners voted 100 percent for its renewal.

Edward Swindell was named the first fire chief and other officers were Ray Burleigh, assistant fire chief; Ray Champagne, captain; Adam Kershaw, lieutenant; and Earl Mouton, secretary-treasurer. Board members then included E. J. Dronet, Leslie Richard, Conway LeBleu, Swindell and Burleigh.

A fire station was build at a cost of $3,000 on a lot leased from E. R. Henry for $100 a year just off the courthouse square.

Chief Swindell recalls that one of the big fires of the one year that he served as fire chief was that of the pogy boat Shoal Harbor which threatened the Cameron harbor before it was towed out to the beach.

Because of the press of other duties, Swindell relinquished the chief's job in 1956 to the assistant chief Ray Burleigh, who has served in that capacity ever since.

The department's first ruck, a 500-gallon Ford truck, was purchased in 1955. It has been kept in such good condition that it still looks brand new.

A second truck, a 750-gallon Seagrave pumper was secured from Civil Defense in 1958. Although it is a 1938 model, it is still in good running condition.

A surplus army ambulance was secured this year and transformed into a rescue unit.

The department has 4,000 feet of 3-1/2 inch hose, 600 feet of 1-1/2 inch hose, two portable pumps capable of putting out 300 gallons per minute each, two resuscitators, two gas masks, two asbestos suits, axes, tools, lights, foam equipment, etc.

The department has three shortwave radios--two on the fire trucks and one in the rescue unit. These are on the sheriff's radio network.

MRS. WARDELLA FONTENOT "WOMAN OF THE YEAR"

Mrs. Wardella Fontenot of Cameron was chosen as "Woman of the Year" at the Cameron Parish Home Demonstration Achievement Day Saturday and awarded with a plaque. The following were named "club Women of the Year" by their respective clubs: Mrs. Dupre Hebert, Jr., Hackberry; Mrs. R. H. Boyd, Cameron; Mrs. Charles Precht, Sweet Lake; Mrs. Robert Montie, Creole; Mrs. Lynn McCall, Grand Chenier.

The Cameron club was named "Club of the Year" for amassing 28,330 points on its activities for the year. Sweet Lake was second and Hackberry third.

ROUNDABOUT THE PARISH

Holly Beach -- Wolves on the prowl -- two wolves have been killed by hunters. Sportsmen from the Murray and Raymond Hebert Club sighted a wolf Saturday while itting in their blinds. They bagged the big game. The other was taken Sunday in the same vicinity. This brings the total to four wolves taken in the past two months. Harry Erbelding got one in September and the Wildlife and Fishery men trapped one last month. According to residents on the lower end of Johnson Bayou, the pack must be of considerable size. Harry Erbelding saw 12 at one time. The animals have been seen on numerous occasions either singularly or in groups. Their howling at night is ferocious and their preying on young calves is a tremendous loss to cattlemen.

Creole -- Once again last Tuesday the local highways leading into Creole echoed to the sounds of hundreds of cattle hoofs as another big local drive took place. The cattle were being driven from summer range at Coulee Jac to winter range in and around Creole. The herds belonged to the Gabriel Richard estate, the Joe Broussard estate, Mrs. Delphie Montie and children, Mrs. Wilma Savoie and children, and John M. Theriot and Mrs. Monroe Wicke. This marks the last of the big cattle drives in this area for the year.

The Challenge of Genealogy

by MARIE WISE

Starks, in the northwest corner of Calcasieu Parish, Louisiana, traces its earliest settlers to as soon as 1807 when families from primarily Kentucky, Virginia and the Carolinas began arriving at this "New Frontier" within the Louisiana Purchase of 1803.

Formerly a part of St.Landry Parish with Opelousas serving as the parish seat, little was done in the beginning to preserve history of the community, so that census and court records comprised most of the factual records available.

The Starks Historical Society established in March 1993 for the purpose of preserving the history of the Starks community, "to collect, preserve and make available for research" this material, has published 14 books with valuable heretofore not readily available information on the early settlers and their families.

STARKS GENEALOGY

Pioneers of the Past, Volume 1 published in 1993, includes 37 mini-biographies for early to the area family heads, giving birth date and place, parents, spouse, children occupation, etc., and name of the person furnishing the information.

Every story has at least one photo – most have more; and other photos follow in a "Looking Back" section of historical places and people.

Pioneers of the Past, Volume 2 published in 1993, includes more than 20 additional mini-biographies with photos, styled after the first volume.

Following is a large section of feature articles reprinted from magazines and newspapers. School group pictures of 1915-1932, other photos, etc.

CEMETERY RECORDS

Doyle Cemetery Census published in 1997 with cooperation of the Doyle Cemetery Assn. furnishes all information given in the inscriptions and an excellent set of plats that locate every grave.

Mrs. Hazel G. Standley, Corresponding Secretary for the Starks Historical Society, writes that those cemetery listings can be used as accurate documentation for genealogy research.

In most cases, the several hundred inscriptions in an alphabetical chart furnish full name, birth and death dates, spouse (sometimes, other spouse), parents, and map location. Many show birth dates from the 1800s, the oldest being perhaps, 1825.

Each of these 3 volumes is softcover, 8 1/2 x 11 in., 98 pages in Pioneers No. 1 and 77 pages in Nov. 2, each priced at $15 plus $2 mailing; 33 pages in Doyle Cemetery Census (located near Starks) priced at $10 plus $2 mailing.

All area available from Mrs. Standley, 308 Old River Road, Starks, LA 70661.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Sale of their publications is the main financial means of operating the Starks Historical Society, Mrs. Standley writes. Their current project is making and publishing a census of ALL cemeteries in Ward 5 of Calcasieu Parish.

The Society meets on the 2nd Tuesday of the month at the Historical building at the intersection of Hwy. 109 and Big Woods/Edgerly Road. Annual membership is $10 for individuals, $15 for a family.

HUNTING NEWS

This past week saw many hunters hit the marsh. Some pleased and yet some not so happy.

Our season is really early, we have very low water in the marshes, some not being able to get to their blinds. It seems we do have a few more ducks down, thanks to the teal numbers helping to make limits. Although we are getting fronts in, as of this writing, not much rain, and then warm weather returns.

Despite unfavorable fall weather, it's suppose to be one of the best hunting season, with larger numbers of ducks down than we've had in the past 37 years. While this season holds great promise, waterfowlers shouldn't expect that a large fall flight will guarantee excellent hunting. We do have to look at our local habitat conditions, weather conditions, water conditions and the skill of the hinter if we are to have a success. Many count their limit of birds to see if they had a good hunt, but might shoot a box or more of shells for 3 or 4 birds. If the birds are there, then it's a good hunt, even if you shoot and miss.

NEWS TALK

A number of states where hunting ranks the number one participating sport are Louisiana, Arkansas, Idaho, Mississippi, Montana, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Wyoming.

Now this may surprise you, but the 10 states with the highest percentage of hunters per capita according to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service are, in order: Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, South Dakota, Vermont, Maine, Alaska, Wisconsin, North Dakota, and Utah rounds out the top ten. Louisiana and Texas were not even mentioned.

FISHING NEWS

Big Lake is hot. Speckle trout and redfish are working and the birds are there to let you know where they are. Specks are running big, so afternoon fishing is still there after the hunt.

There may be good news in store for all you 3 cylinder 25 HP Yamaha outboard owners. Lake Charles Yamaha will host an early spring tournament next year on March 7, on the Calcasieu River out of Parkside Marina. Entry fees will be $40 teams plus $10 team largest bass. There will be 100 percent payback plus door prizes and first through fifth places will have Yamaha double your money. They are also planning on getting involved in the dogfights on lacassine Refuge, Calcasieu River plus a couple more. Names will go in hat if you have a 25 hp 3 cylinder Yamaha and a banquet will be held to pull a lucky winner of a new 25 hp 3 cylinder outboard motor.

DID YOU KNOW?

We all know the white-fronted goose down south is called the speckle belly, well it is also known as the "laughing goose:", because being the most vocal goose, they cackle as in a laugh.

MOON

This Friday, Nov. 14, begins full moon for the next week or so and many ducks will be feeding at night, so remember, if you get a shot don't miss, as hunting could be somewhat slower.

Alliance formed to help solve community needs

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The newly organized Grand Lake-Sweet Lake Action Alliance has chosen as their mission statement "To work proactively to identify, prioritize and solve community needs."

It will meet on the last Thursday night of each month at the Community Center at 6 p.m The public is invited. The alliance plans to tackle community problems and solve them.

One of the peeves of the community is the fact that the addresses of the residences are either Bell City or Rt. 2, Lake charles, and none are Sweet Lake, or Grand Lake, when in fact, no one lives in Bell City or Lake Charles.

The following committees were set up to check into various concerns:

Grand Lake - Sweet Lake Community Cemetery (there are only family or church cemetery plots in the area) - Jerry Goos, Lena Guidry, and Betty Dartez.

Glenn Harris - Little signage for state highways.

Post Office committee - Brent Nunez, Pat Hebert and Grace Robideaux.

The next meeting will be held Dec. 4, at 6 p.m.

The Law & You

Facts From The American Bar Association Lawyer Referral Committee

Where There's A Will

(NAPS)—Q. Is it true I don't need a will if I want everything to go to my family?

A. Not quite. While generally your assets will go to your spouse and children, should you wish to leave some specific item to one person in particular or to provide for him or her in some way other than provided by law, you need a will. Similarly, should you wish to dispose of some of your property to other family members or individuals, charities or the like, a will is necessary.

Estate planning with a lawyer or other professional can help ensure that the assets available to your heirs are maximized, for example, by structuring your estate so it's subjected to fewer taxes.

Gravity Drainage District No. 4 of Creole has been faced with drainage problems for many years. The existing system is deteriorated and in desperate need of expansion and repair. The existing budget $40,000 in ad valorem taxes does not go very far considering the high cost of maintenance dredging and new culverts. The only way to replace and maintain the old system is to increase the amount of tax revenue to the district. A Bond Issue and Maintenance Tax Election has been called for Nov. 15, 1997 for this purpose.

The Bond Issue will fund $1,260,000 of new drainage construction, as itemized below. Money generated by the Bond Issue will ONLY be used for construction of these projects.

Local folks 'arrested' to aid MDA

Prominent citizens of Cameron were "arrested" and sentenced to serve time on Thurs., Oct. 30, at the Cameron Volunteer Fire Station. They were accused of having a "Big Heart". All in fun, each jailbird had to raise their own bail money to get out.

All bail money raised was to benefit the MDA of Southwest Louisiana and $8,042.62 was raised through the efforts of Cameron Volunteer Firefighters and the citizens of Cameron.

The "jailbirds" were Daniel Dupont, Lora Guthrie, April Mock, Ricky Kelley, Don Wagner, Dinah Landry, Debbie McDaniel, Becky Shipman, Dorothy Theriot, Rickie Mitchell, Glen Baccigalopi, Robert Stretcher, Wade Carroll Sr., Terry Beard, Percilla Raven, Cynthia King, Malena Griffith, Deanna Colligan, Robert Connor, Freddie Richard, Bobby Landreneaux, Uland Guidry, Don Menard, Wendell Wilkerson, Beatrice Williams, Betty Savoy, Curtis Thibodeaux, Joe Gaspard, Val Mouton, Ron Johnson, Evelyn Landry and the top fund-raiser, Yvonne Mhire.

MDA thanks the Cameron Parish Sheriff's Office and "arresting officers" Steve Sturlese, Wilson Regnier, Chris Savoie and Freddie Richard for their help, Mercury Cellular allowed the "jailbirds" to make phone calls to get out of jail with the loan of cellular phones.

Gulfway Donuts, Brown's Market and Deli, L & M Cafe, Roger's Grocery and Market, and Pat's Restaurant of Cameron treated the jailbirds with food and drinks while raising their bail.

Drainage taxes are defeated

Like voters in other parts of the state Saturday, voters in Gravity Drainage District 4 of Cameron Parish defeated a $1.26 million bond issue and 5.51-mill maintenance tax.

The bond issued failed in a 105-125 vote, or 46-54 percent. The maintenance tax failed 101-122, or 45-55 percent.

Proceeds from the bonds would have funded 19 drainage projects in the Creole, Oak Grove and East Cameron areas. The new 5.51-mill property tax would have been used to maintain the projects.

The taxes would have increased the total drainage millage in the district to about 20.5 mills -- an estimated 11.5 mills to repay the bonds plus nine mills for maintenance.

Courses set

Two courses of instructions for applicants for Commissioner-in Charge positions in Cameron parish elections will be conducted by Clerk of Court Carl Broussard.

One will be held at 7 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 20 at the Police Jury meeting room. The other will be held at noon on Monday, Nov. 24 at the Lowery Fire Station.

Attending one of these sessions is mandatory for a person to be named as commissioner-in-charge.

Bird counts

The Audubon Christmas Bird Counts have been scheduled at three locations in Cameron Parish.

The Sabine Refuge count will be on Saturday, Dec. 20. Contact Marty Guidry at 504-755-1015 for information.

Bird counts also are scheduled at Johnson Bayou on Sunday, Dec. 21 and at Creole on Monday, Dec. 22. Call Bill Fontenot at 318-291-8448 to participate.

FATHER ROLAND VAUGHN of Johnson Bayou is shown celebrating Mass at the Vatican in Rome on Oct. 25, which was his 53rd birthday.

Italian pilgrimage made by area folks

Four members of the Johnson Bayou-Holly Beach area took part in a pilgrimage to Italy Oct. 17-27. The trip took the travellers to Rome,, Florence, Capri, Assisi, Spoleto, and Orvieto. The trip was organized by the National Catholic Daughters of the Americas through which 39 persons participated, under the leadership of Grace Rinaldi, National CDA Regent.

The four locals - Rev. Roland Vaughn, Pastor of Assumption-Holy Trinity Catholic Church, Gerald and Linda Touchet, and Ula Meaux - were the only pilgrims from Louisiana.

The group attended Sunday Mass, celebrated by Pope John II, at St. Peter's Square in front of the Vatican Basilica on Oct. 19, amid thousands of pilgrims from all over the world. The Mass was a lifetime experience as the Pope made the Proclamation of St. Theresa, the Little Flowers, as Doctor of the Church, only the third woman in the history of the Church to receive this honor (St. Catherine of Sienna and St. Theresa of Avila are the others).

On Wed., Nov. 22, the pilgrims shared the audience with the Pope, who blessed their many religious articles.

While in Rome the group was given a tour of the North American College and were shown plaques of appreciation by the College to the Catholic Daughters and the Knights of Columbus for their support through the years. A Mass and reception were held for the group.

The group also attended a mass celebrated by Father Vaughn in the Vatican on Oct. 25. Special for Father Vaughn was that this was his 53rd birthday.

One night was spent in Assisi, but none of the holy places of St. Francis could be visited because of the earthquakes. Not all were damaged, however, they were being inspected for possible damage. The trip to Orvieto proved to be one of the great highlights of the trip since the group was able to see the Miracle of the Eucharist which occurred there in 1263. The pilgrims saw and prayed before the reliquary containing the blood-stained Corporal on which the Consecrated Host bled in 1263. This miracle helped to start the celebration of the feast of Corpus Christi.

New version of telephone book planned

John Henning, president of Cameron Communications Corporation, announced that Cameron has entered into a joint venture with Safari Information Directories to merge and produce an all new version of the Cameron Telephone directory in March, 1998.

The new directory will include listings and business advertisements from both Calcasieu and Cameron parishes. Every business in both parishes will be listed in the Cal-Cam Directory, as well as on the Southwest Louisiana Internet Yellow Pages. Links to area businesses on the internet can easily be established from these listings.

The directories will be distributed throughout Calcasieu and Cameron parish. "We want to make it perfectly clear that the needs of our communities are the number one priority, and the reason behind expanding our telephone directory service," said Henning. Distribution has been increased to 40,000 books and will feature a numerical cross-reference section and a helpful, informative community information section.

Continuing the tradition that began in1978, the front cover will again feature an original work of art entitled "Early Morning on Whiskey Chitto," by local artists Barbara Seagraves.

Cameron Communications Corporation is a locally owned and operated telecommunication company, that has served this are for the past 70 years. For more information on the new directory, call Cameron Communications at 318-583-8361.

Cameron initiated bill signed by Gov. Foster

On Oct. 15, House Bill No. 84 was signed by Governor Mike Foster. This bill was authored by Rep. Dan Flavin at the request of the Cameron Parish Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber expressed concern that the litter problem in Cameron Parish was detrimental to the tourist trade which in turn affected the economy in the parish. House Bill No. 84 was designed to limit the liability of the sheriff for injury or loss sustained or caused by a prisoner on litter detail. With the help of Sheriff Sono Savoie, who traveled to Baton Rouge to testify before the House of Representatives Civil Law and Procedures Committee, the bill was passed.

Mrs. Alice Foster, the Governor's wife, was also helpful in getting this legislation passed. She is responsible for a statewide push for litter control and forwarded a letter to Rep. Flavin offering her assistance.

"Cameron Parish has such unique natural beauty it is a shame that tourists have not been able to enjoy it. Being able to utilize the inmates for litter detail will provide the manpower needed to help control the litter problem along our roads and highways creating a much more inviting environment for tourists and a more livable environment for the citizens of our Parish," Rep. Flavin stated.

HOW ABOUT A NUTRIA STEAK?

State pushes nutria meat with program

The Department of Wildlife and Fisheries and the National Marine Fisheries Service proposed an imaginative new program earlier this month to combat marshland damage by nutria. Its aim is to determine if a system can be developed that facilitates and encourages nutria harvest by increasing demand for their meat.

The five-year project will match funds from the Coastal Wetlands Planning, Protection and Restoration Act (Breaux Bill) with those of participating processing plants to increase the value of nutria and promote their harvest. Processors participating in the project would receive a supply of nutria meat at a unit cost significantly lower than other meats. Cost savings could be transferred to retail outlets and then to consumers, encouraging consumption.

Processors will purchase nutria from trappers at current market price. Through breaux Bill funding, LDWF will pay trappers an extra dollar for each nutria deemed suitable for human consumption. Other nutria will be purchased at current market price and processed for alligator food.

The proposed program would be administered and monitored by LDWF through a regulatory process involving licensed trappers and meat processors. The program will conduct various nutria meat marketing activities, identify coastal areas impacted by nutria damage, record statewide nutria harvest and meat sales and monitor the recovery or impacted areas.

The proposal comes after a 1996 survey reported damaged acreage along transects in the Barataria and Terrebonne basins had increased from 15,476 acres in December 1993 to a total of 20,642 acres.

In 1995, rules and regulations were developed for processing nutria for human consumption. Nutria meat is extremely healthy. It is lower in fat and higher in protein than many other commonly consumed game and domestic animals. Unfortunately, processing plants did not process nutria for human consumption due to a lack of investment capital and general knowledge of processing cost and price structure for products. All of these obstacles will be addressed with this project.

Total funds requested for the project are $2,070,000. Currently only $400,000 is available which will be spent on marketing activities, establishment of program protocols and procedures and a coastwide habitat damage survey. The remaining funds will be allocated next spring and incentive payments to meat processors and trappers are scheduled to begin in November, 1998.

Tarpons bow out of AA state playoffs

By JOE MUELLER

The 1997 football season for the South Cameron Tarpons ended last Friday night at Pickering. The Red Devils handed the Tarpons a 30-7 defeat.

The Tarpons finished the year with an 8-3 record. They made it into the playoffs where last year they beat the Red Devils to go to the Dome and play Haynesville in the championship game.

The Red Devils jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the opening quarter as they scored on a 19 yard pass play and ran in the extra point. The Red Devils scored twice in the second quarter to take a 27-0 halftime lead. They scored on a 14 yard run by quarterback Van Morris and a 32 yard run by Sam Blocker. The Red Devils also scored on a 62 yard run by Blocker and a 47 yard field goal by David Latta.

The Tarpons scored their only touchdown in the final quarter on a 5 yard pass to Scotty Brown from John Mark Montie.

The Tarpons to rusher for the night was Ryan Billings with 49 yards.

Brandon Conner and Cory Broussard both played in the game but neither was back to their full speed they had before suffering injuries.

The Tarpons opened the season with five straight wins then lost two of their starting running backs in the Lake Charles-Boston victory. The Tarpons lost their opening two district games then reeled off three straight victories. The 8-2 regular season earned the Tarpons a wildcard selection into the playoffs. The Tarpons drew in the wildcard was #2 ranked Pickering.

The Tarpons, when at full strength before the injuries, had beaten the Red Devils 17-3 in the third game of the year. The Tarpons had a good year. They were ranked #1 by the La. Sportswriters during the year before the injuries.

Eight wins and three losses is not a poor season in anyone's book. So thanks Tarpons for the good year and all your efforts during the season. We are looking forward to the 1998 season with much confidence and anticipation for a great year.

How do you plan to get your local channels?

You see, DBS dish systems don't carry local stations! That means no more local news, sports or weather. In fact, the only way you're going to be able to watch your local stations is to keep your Cable TV or install a "regular antenna"... remember those?

Fur trapping opened 20th

Louisiana's fur harvesters trapping season will open statewide Nov. 20, and will close March 20, 1998. For the third consecutive year, trappers will have an extended season.

The season includes all designated Louisiana fur bearing species: nutria, muskrat, raccoon, mink, opossum, otter, skunk, gray fox, red fox, bobcat, beaver and coyote.

Louisiana's fur industry generated approximately $3 million during the 1996-97 season. This was a big increase from approximately $1.3 million taken in 1995-96.

Last year there was also an increase in pelts taken. Approximately 500,000 pelts were taken in the 1996-97 season in contrast to the 280,000 pelts in 1995-96.

SEASON'S OPENER

We were blessed last week with rain, rain that was so much needed for our marshes, but also for our ridges. As of this writing, I've gotten over 4 inches. Our duck pond had only 4 inches of water at the deepest, so this will surely help, unless we're drained off again.

Saturday morning went off with a bang about 6:02 a.m. The opening of duck season was good, with many limits of teals reported. Lucky we had teals, because that's what made up most limits. My son, Rudy and I, set off both days of the weekend and got our limits. Saturday 11 teals and one gray duck, Sunday, one mallard, one wood duck and 10 teals, but slower than Saturday. Monday was a different story, with only 4 teals. Now, back of Cameron and back of the Big Pasture, there's more ducks and a better variety, yet some blinds west of La. 82 are slow. Grand Chenier is good, but a couple of marshes are slow from the two opening days. Johnson Bayou is doing fair. Really, it's too early, hot and we were lacking water. Now we got rain, a good cold front, maybe we'll get some new birds in.

I talked to a friend of mine who works offahore east of here and he tells me he saw plenty of ducks offshore. These ducks are surely going further south.

DEER HUNTING

Deer season is still going good, with good harvests reported. Nov. 8 and 9, were either sex days. The next and last either sex days for our area are Nov. 28-30. The regular deer season will stop on Dec. 7, and start over on Dec. 20 thru Jan. 4.

We do have quite a few snipes down, especially in the marsh where we hunt. The season is open until Feb. 22. Daily bag 8, possession 16.

Not many reports on rabbits, but the colder weather will be better hunting. I did bag a rabbit last week, a young tender rabbit, and a friend of mine got 3 more, all young rabbits.

FISHING REPORT

Reports of large redfish in the Hog Bayou area of Grand Chenier. Also, reports of large red snappers taken offshore in between the rough weather. Cameron is reporting some catches of flounders and Big Lake was still good before this rain. I haven't gotten reports since.

NEWS BRIEFS

Remember, dove season's second split is closed, but the third and final split for this year is Dec. 13 thru Jan. 11.

Our first split of duck season ends Nov. 30. It will reopen Dec. 13-Jan. 18.

There are changes coming up for reef fishermen, offshore anglers will abide by Louisiana regulations. The rules will match up with federal regulations. We will see many species with limits that we haven't seen before, some really down. Example: The recreational creel limit for greater amber jack would be reduced from 3 fish per person per day to one fish per person per day. Red snapper would see a size limit of 16 inches total length, and a minimum size of 10 inches total length for Vermilion snappers. There's more, but I'll wait and see what all other changes re in store.

DID YOU KNOW?

The first waterfowl hunter law, banning the use of camouflaged canoes and sailboats when hunting ducks and geese, was passed in the Massachusetts Colony in the early 1700's, then in 1872, the state of Maryland began providing waterfowl rest days.

Jean Vilior Theriot home built on Chenier Purdue in 1847

Local home featured in Nola Mae Ross book

(EDITOR'S NOTE--This article is an excerpt from a new book by Nola Mae Ross, with photography by Harold Mangum, which will be published at the end of November, 1997. It tells stories of the landowners and original builders of 93 old homes in Southwest Louisiana, including five in Cameron. This hard-back, coffee-table book has over 40 full page colored photographs and over a hundred black and white pictures. It will sell for $39.95 and may be ordered by calling Mrs. Ross at 477-6243.)

By NOLA MAE ROSS

In the late spring of 1847 Jean Baptist Vilior Theriot got busy and tore down his house in Palm-a-Royal, South of Lake Arthur. Loading all the material from that house on rafts, he floated it down Grand Lake to the Mermentau River, continuing southward to Cattail Bayou. In the bayou he branched off west into Chenier Perdue and that's where he built his home, with the material he brought with him.

There were plenty of "lost oaks" on Chenier Perdue but they were large and extremely difficult to cut and shape with the crude tools Theriot had in 1847. So he mostly used the big hand-hewn cypress timbers he'd brought, notching the ends and holding them together with wooden pegs. The axe marks on the hand-hewn cypress boards of the ceiling can still be seen in the Theriot home, especially on the low ceilings of the rooms, which once had dirt floors. Heat in the winter was then, and still is, provided by the massive fireplace made from the homemade bricks of the 1880's.

This house is thought to have originally been an Acadian or Creole style house but it has had several additions as well as some alteration. So it is hard to visualize how it looked when Jean Vilior Theriot built it in 1847. It has a steep roof plus outside stairs leading to the upper story.

Jean Vilior Theriot's great-granddaughter, Loretta Theriot, who today lives lin the old home at Chenier Perdue, said, "The kitchen and dining room that once flanked the west end of the house are gone and a small bedroom has been converted to an office-writing room. The old iron safe where my great-grandfather, Jean Vilior kept his gold coins now stands beside a computer and fax machine. A portion of the original 50 foot gallery has been closed in and is used as a sewing room.

"The great strength of the house is evident because it has withstood the severe hurricanes of 1886 and 1918, as well as the devastating Hurricane Audrey which took the lives of 425 neighbors, but saved those gathered in the bosom of its walls.

"Jean Vilior Theriot came to Chenier Perdue because he was an adventurer and he was also looking for more land on which to graze his cattle," says Ms. Theriot. "He wanted an unhampered land where he could have the freedom he desired. The vastness and aloneness of these marsh lands presented a real challenge to my great-grandfather, and a certain isolation that the strong-willed Acadians needed."

Legend says that Jean Lafitte buried treasure in the place where Vilior Theriot built his home. For decades people tried to dig up Lafitte's treasure but there's no proof that any was ever found. Jean Vilior Theriot reportedly told his sons that he knew where some was buried but he'd not touch it because it was ill-gained.

The Theriot descendants say that Vilior Theriot had a real family dynasty. He continued advising the family until his death. He would take the cattle to market in St. Martinsville where he'd be paid in gold. When he got home he'd divide the gold coins among the five sons. He also bought acres of land nearby and divided it among the sons. Then he helped them build homes.

During the Civil War this isolated land was a constant target of Jayhawkers, who could take what they wanted without fear of law enforcement finding them.

At his death in 1899, Jean Vilior Theriot owned over 4000 acres of land, more than 1,000 head of cattle and large herds of wild Creole ponies.

Today Loretta Theriot is trying to maintain the authentic character of the Acadian style house built in 1847. Modern technology has brought the outside world into the area but the vast aloneness of Chenier Perdue remains.

This Theriot house, called the "Landing", was the setting of the fiction novel, "Tigress" by Jennifer Blake in 1996.

BIG GROWTH IN BUSINESS

Cameron Parish has experienced a phenominal rate of growth in business during the past ten years, far above the state average in most cases, E. J. Dronet, assistant manager of the Cameron branch, Calcasieu Marine National Bank, told Cameron Lions last week.

Mr. Dronet cites the following examples of Cameron Parish workers rose from $67.73 in 1952 to $100.61 an increase of 49 percent. During the same period, the state average income rose from $59.07 to $85, an increase of 45 percent.

The effective per capita buying income for the parish was $531 per year in 1951, which was much lower than the state average of $973. In 1961, Cameron's figure had risen to $1387 and the state to $1431. The parish rose 161 percent while the state rose 47 percent.

Sales tax collection in Cameron Parish in 1950-51 was $49,630. This increased 156 percent to $127,374 in 1960-61. During the same period, the state collection increased 70 percent.

Severance tax collections took about the biggest jump in the last 10 years. In 1950, the total severance taxes from Cameron Parish wa $1,544,781 and in 1960, it was $8,885,095, or an incease of 475 percent. The state severance tax collection rose 58 percent during the same period.

Bicyclist visits area on her trip to Argentina

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Students in Grand Lake and South Cameron schools got an unexpected treat, geography and history lesson combined this week when Theresa DelRosarie passed through Grand Lake community.

A teacher at the Grand Lake school spotted her as she passed on the highway in front of the school on her specially designed bicycle. She was stopped and invited in to tell her story to the students. She also visited with the students at South Cameron when she reached Creole.

Theresa explained that she is on a "rock and roll" tour from Anchorage, Alaska to Argentina.

Her trip started out as a walking trip when she flew to Anchorage with a 58-year-old lady friend, who had to drop out after 2500 miles of walking when she developed a foot problem.

She continued on for 4600 miles dragging a cart behind her which contained all of her necessities.

She explained that she carries everything with her that meets her needs along the road, including a small kerosene stove on which she cooks, tent, warm and cold clothing, and sleeping bag.

She finally realized that if she wanted to complete her dream of crossing the Americas she would have to change from the walking to a bicycle.

So, she went back to her home in Summerset, Wis., and had a bicycle specially made (called a recumbent) to complete her trip.

Instead of a regular seat, it is equipped with a heavy canvas sling-type seat that she leans back on as she rides. It is equipped with extra heavy strutts, and airless tires, as used on mountain bikes.

She keeps a daily journal of her trip and reports back to her website on the Worldwide Web at Berkana.com/walk.

She has raised the money to take her trip by working at various jobs and saving her money. Waitressing was her favorite job.

Theresa has lived in Asia for six years, worked for the Peace Corps for four years, and worked with the refugee programs for the federal government, placing Viet Nam refugees in the United States.

She has now started the second phase of her journey, which she calls the roll part of her "Rock and Roll" adventure.

This phase started when an uncle, who as a truck driver, brought her and her bike to Morgan City, where he had a run.

She has managed to travel approximately 40 miles a day on her new bike, but hopes to get up to 60 miles as she heads further, traveling down the Gulf Coast into texas and down into Mexico.

Greg and Wendy Wicke had been contacted from Grand Lake and were asked if she could pitch her tent in their yard in Creole for the night. Wendy said there was no way she could sleep outside in the cold, windy night, but she was more than welcome to spend the night in their home, along with their three children, Katherine, Amanda and Joshua.

They also introduced her to shrimp gumbo and potato salad. She had never heard of or tasted gumbo before and said she loved it.

She said she has never been concerned with her safety, and has found that most people are very kind and courteous. She carries no weapons except bear spray, similar to mace.

She gets off the road each day by about 4 or before dark, and finds a place to pitch her tent and prepared her supper on her stove, write her journal and bed down for the night.

Total unemployment for October increased to 118,400

The state civilian labor force increased to 2,014,600, with an increase in total employment to 1,896,200.

THERESA DE ROSARIE here tells of her travels to Katherine, Amanda and Jason Wicke, children of Mr. and Mrs. Greg Wicke of Creole.

NOTICE TO AT&T BUSINESS CUSTOMERS

On November 21, 1997, AT&T will file tariff revisions with the Public Service Commission of the State of Louisiana for a 28 cent per call surcharge for all business toll-free, calling card, and access code calls that can be identified as originating from payphones. These rates are scheduled to become effective December 1, 1997.

These increases result from the Telecommunications Act of 1996 which required the FCC to develop a payphone compensation plan for all calls made from payphones. As a result of FCC action, carriers are required to pay payphone providers for both state and interstate non-coin calls completed from their payphones.

SEASON TOO EARLY

I keep saying duck season was too early, however, now where are the ducks we're suppose to have? Don't get me wrong, there are lots of ducks in some of the marshes, but there's lots of marshes with no birds. It seems the teals are gone, and that's always old reliable to make a limit. Some new birds are down, pintails, mallards, and grays, but numbers are still low. I think this first split is going to register another "Louisiana Flop". Maybe next season will be better. Let's hope so. Duck, coot and specklebelly closes Nov. 30 until Dec. 13.

Deer hunting is still good. The water in our marshes has brought the deer to our ridges. This weekend, Nov. 28-30, is the last either sex days of the season.

FISHING

This week, Nov. 26, is the last day to bag red snappers for recreational fishermen in the Gulf of Mexico waters. It closes at 12:01 a.m. Nov. 27 until midnight Dec. 31.

The National Marine Fisheries Service figures that 4.47 million pounds recreational quota was met. Commercial season closed about a month ago.

The La. Wildlife and Fisheries will attempt to close state waters also on red snapper. Very seldom you catch red snappers that close to shore. The state may not have enough time to do the closing, but remember, if you do happen to catch red snapper in state waters, it's illegal to go into federal waters with your catch.

The number of saltwater fishermen increased 4.45% in five years, about 454,000 licensed anglers in our state. The count of under 16 years old and over 59 years old is undetermined, so really there's more than the number mentioned.

More sport fishermen fish speckle trout than any other saltwater fish, and most are happy with the current regulations.

According to reports from the LDWF, Louisiana's redfish stock is in much better shape than stocks Gulfwide. The reports indicate that the harvest of redfish in Louisiana can safely increase above its current level. If we see a change in the regulation harvest, we would probably see it gradually done

COMMERCIAL NEWS

Louisiana trapping season for fur bearing species of nutria, muskrat, mink, raccoon, opossum, skunk, otter, gray and red fox, bobcat, coyote and beaver opened Nov. 20.

A note to commercial fishermen and seafood handlers: New licenses went on sale Nov. 15 at the La. Dept. of wildlife and Fisheries offices in Baton Rouge and New Orleans. Remember, they will no longer accept personal checks for payment of licenses. Cash, money order or cashier's check only will be accepted.

Beginning Jan. 1, 1998, commercial fishermen will no longer be able to sell their catch with a commercial fishermen's license except to a licensed wholesale/retail seafood dealer. Sales by fishermen to the public, to restaurants or to retail outlets will no longer be permitted, unless the buyers hold a wholesale/retail seafood dealer's license. They would require an additional license to be able to sell to these folks.

The wholesale/retail seafood dealer's license exempts softshell crab producers from purchase of the $100 softshell crab shedder's license.

DID YOU KNOW?

When a duck dives underwater it's heart rate slows by about 50 percent. I wonder if this is a crippled duck, and your dog is putting his head underwater to retrieve the diving duck, what rate his heart goes up.

Researchers plan to study 1,000 families to collect more specific information on genetic factors of rheumatoid arthritis.

"Creole Holidays" at St. Martinville

Longfellow-Evangeline State Commemorative Area in St. Martinville invites visitors to experience a 19th-century Christmas celebration during "Creole Holidays", a special program scheduled for Dec. 1 - 31.

"We want to give visitors the opportunity to learn how the French Creole Christmas traditions influenced our present-day celebration of the season," said Lt. Governor Kathleen Babineaux Blanco.

The month-long holiday program will be available to visitors daily, except Christmas Day, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Guided tours of Olivier House will feature information and discussions on the traditions observed by the area's Creole population during the period. With these traditions in mind, Olivier House will be decorated with natural greenery, ribbons, candles and fruit. A special exhibit, entitled "Christmas Past", will detail how the holiday customs, such as the Christmas tree, evolved. The site's interpretive staff will also offer demonstrations of the making of the customary holiday treat - sugar wafers - for school groups scheduling tours.

Longfellow-Evangeline SCA celebrates the culture of the region known historically as the meeting place for French aristocrats fleeing the French Revolution and of the Acadians of Nova Scotia seeking refuge after the British expulsion. Originally a cattle ranch and later an indigo plantation, the property was purchased in the 1800s by Charles Olivier du Clozel, a Creole sugar planter. Under his ownership, the plantation attained its greatest prosperity.

The $2 admission to the commemorative area includes all special programs. Children under 12 and senior citizens over 62 are admitted free. Longfellow-Evangeline SCA is located on La. 31 in St. Martinville, 30 minutes southeast of Lafayette.

Severance taxes up for August in Parish

--CAPITAL NEWS--

A nearly 33 percent increase in severance tax receipts for August pushed Cameron Parish's cumulative tally even further ahead of the levels recorded in 1996.

The latest figures from the state Department of Revenue and Taxation indicate $1.5 million in severance taxes collected for work in the parish during August, up from $1.16 million in the previous report. The current figure also tops August 1996 by almost $200,000, continuing a trend which has held for much of the year so far. Collections for the first half of the year were about $400,000 higher than in 1996, and by the end of August the 1997 total was more than $900,000 higher.

Most of the august taxes were received for oil production, which accounted for $850,871 of the parish total. The $683,602 contributed by natural gas ranked the parish fourth for the month in that grouping. Together, the receipts were enough to rank the parish sixth overall for the month.

The parish collecting the tax on oil and natural gas receives one-fifth of the total up to $500,000 annually. Seventy-five percent of all revenue collected on timber products goes back to the parish.

The state's overall severance tax receipts reached just over $31 million, the first time since March that this year's figures have exceeded those for 1996.

The Challenge of Genealogy

by MARIE WISE

Pierre Gregoire GUILLORY who married (2) Marie Josephe Fontenot in 1782 at Grand Prairie, Louisiana, was the sixth generation of his line which has been traced back twelve generations to Francois Guillory born c1569 in France. He married Elizabeth Thomas and they had Francois II.

Francois II married Anna G. Gaoun in France, 1628 and they had seven children of whom Simon born c1645, immigrated to Montreal, Canada in c1667 where he married Louise Bouchard and they had 10 children.

Of these, Francois married Jean Montfort, 1702 in Montreal and they were the first of this line to immigrate to what would become the United States. In 1712 their son, Joseph Gregone, was born at Dauphin Island off the coast of Mobile, Alabama.

Joseph Gregone married Marie Jean LaCasse in Mobile in 1739 and they had eight children including Pierre Gregoire, the Louisiana immigrant.

GUILLORY FAMILY

La Voix des Prairies, quarterly publication of the Evangeline Genealogical and Historical Society, features the article, "Descendants of Francois Guillory" in its Vol. 18, No. 69 issue, furnishing the above information and more.

Joseph Gregoire had one son, Mathew, by his first wife, Marianne LaFleur and eight more children by his second wife, Marie Josephe Fontenot (see above).

There were many descendants in the following generations who married into the families of Ortego, Deshotels, Guillot, Hayes, Fontenot, Lenclos, La Fleur, Vidrine, Tassin, Kimball, Juneau, Landreneau, Baron, Olivier, Andrus, Shaw, Ardoin, DeRosier, David, Fusilier, LeDoux, Miller, Jackmonn, Young, Tate, Manuel, Sonnier, Rougeau, Billeaudeau, LaHaye, Heire, Veillon, Conway, Pierce, Fogel, LaCasse, Treme, and others.

Descendants live in Avoyelles Parish, Opelousas, St. Landry Parish, Ville Platte, Iberville Parish, Eunice, other Louisiana areas; in Mobile, Houston, etc.

With also a "What Is In A Name!" feature and several queries, La Voix is available from the Society, P.O. Box 664, Ville Platte, LA 70586, with $10 annual membership; single copies, $5. Issues are softcover, 8 1/2 x 11 in., stapled, about 20 pages.

WIGHTMAN FAMILY

The Wighman Ancestry Volume II by Wade C. Wightman is a companion volume to his Volume I published a few years ago.

This genealogy and family history is of the size and scope rarely seen in the field. Over 1,300 pages including an index of some 250 pages with thousands of names which includes also the names from Volume I, this 2nd volume brings the total pages to 2,597 for both.

The contents about this Wightman line - from far back in English and American history - are no less than impressive. Expertly written and made unusually interesting by its great amount of personal histories, this volume has also superior organization and presentation.

Involving a number of states as descendants spread from New England across the nation, this impressive book with its many photos, records, charts, etc. is hardcover, 8 1/2 x 11 in., compiled by Wade C. Wightman, 7202 North Chipman Rd., Henderson, MI 48841-9716.

Publications reviewed in this column are given to the Erbon and Marie Wise Genealogical Library,Louisiana State Archives, Baton Rouge.

Grand Chenier -- Grand Chenier received very little rain Friday night, but inspite of dry spring weather so far, the wild iris and buttecups along the highway make a beautiful sight. The oaks have put on their new crop of leaves, the roses at many homes are in bloom. The State Highway men were busy along the Grand Chenier highway this past week picking up the rubbish and fallen limbs in preparation for the grass mowing.

Grand Lake-Sweet Lake -- Wind, wind, go away -- come again some other day! With the change of the original rhyme, most people say it's mre fitting. The wish of rain is on the lips of everyone these days. Farmers are always busy, but this is really the busiest time of the year for all of them. With or without rain the rice farmer needs lots of water, and that seems to be a main topic for the farmers who furnish theirown water. Large law library donated by attorneys to the parish

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Local Attorney J. B. Jones appeared before the Cameron Parish Police Jury Tuesday to donate an extensive law library, valued at approximately $100,000, to the parish.

It will be used in the 38th Judicial court system and will be housed in the Cameron courtroom, overseen by Judge H. Ward Fontenot.

Other owners of the library who are making the donation are Jennifer Bercier, Jerry G. Jones, and Glenn W. Alexander.

Jones said that his reason for donating the library was because his firm has purchased a computer system containing all of the law cases that are continually updated, and he no longer has a need for it.

Also, Cameron Parish does not own a law library as most parishes do. Since the books will be located on the 3rd floor of the courthouse there will be no need for removing them in case of storm.

He also said that the library would have to be updated periodically with pocket parts, which Judge Fontenot said the law clerk could do in his office. Jones estimated that the cost of building the shelves in the courtroom would be approximately $10,000.

TURNBULL HONORED

Bill Turnbull was awarded the prestigous "Extra Mile Award" from the Louisiana Department of Highways, which was presented by Brent Nunez, Jury President, and Dinah Landry, Director of the Cameron Council on Aging.

Turnbull was employed by the local Council several years ago when he transported Nita Williamson to Lake Charles to see doctors for a severe eye problem, in his capacity as a Council on Aging bus driver. He continued checking on her condition through the years doing what he could to help her.

The jury adopted a resolution made by the state to lease to the Police Jury the state's portion of Rutherford Beach for $1 per year of the beachfront property which will be overseen by Beachfront Development committee #2.

FUND CREATED

After a lengthy discussion of what to do with the $600,000 left over from 1997 funds, which left the jury divided 3 to 3, jurors finally agreed to put it all in special projects fund to build up to be used on future emergency projects and making needed repairs throughout the parish.

All jurors must agree on any of the funds that are used from the fund.

After this was agreed to the Jury accepted the 1998 budget.

The jury gave the president authority to sign a donation from the Moffett Agency in Sweetlake, a Dept. of Natural Resources Grant of $135,000 for a walkway to the Gulf from the Cameron Recreation Center to the gulf, South Central Bell Disclosure Agreement.

NEW DISTRICT

The Jury created a Gravity Drainage District #16 for the Klondike-Lowery area with the following board members: Willie Gary, Ursin Miller, Albert Doucet, Jr., Jerry Hargrave, and Clifford Broussard. The Jury agreed to abolish Road District #7.

Ron Robicheaux, from Holly Beach, spoke to the jury on establishing a noise ordinance for the area which will cover the playing of loud drums day and night which is constantly disturbing the neighborhood. He said the Sheriff's deputies can do nothing about noise covering people in their private homes, so the Police Jury agreed to create an ordinance which will be effective as soon as possible.

Laurie Loindon, Economic Director of Cameron Parish was appointed to the Economic Task Force of the parish to replace Brent Nunez, who resigned.

The jury rejected a request by Louise Cole for recreation for the children on Abraham Street in Cameron.

PROJECT PULLED

The Police Jury was informed that the U.S. Coast Guard had the Monkey Island Bridge project be pulled until the Representative and Senator can meet with the Coast Guard with further discussion.

George LeBouef asked that a vehicle be purchased for Gravity Drainage #3, not to exceed $7,000, but was turned down by the Jury.

$2 million roofing told for schools

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

How much will you pay for additional outlets with DBS?

Let's say you have more than one television in your house. If you have Cable TV, additional outlets don't cost much at all, and each set in your house can be tuned to a different program.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

In September a group of concerned parents and grandparents asked Mrs. LaFleur, Mr. Vining and members of the school board to reconsider cutting the bus routes that excluded many lanes. Their reply was the cuts were very important to save money. Even with a school tax just voted in. They saved about $2,000 at the expense of our small children.

Less than two months later on Nov. 4, Pam LaFleur received from these same board members a $3,139 raise. This brought her salary up to $65,000 a year.

Our tax dollars could not pay for bus transportation but these same dollars found their way to the top of the administration.

The bottom line to all this is people in charge of our children and schools should consider the important issues before themselves. If they are not embarrassed by all of this, they should be.

Sincerely,
/s/ Brenda Quinn

Attorney at Law
YOUR PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEYS

MORE THAN MIGHT BE SUSPECTED

If one's sole impression of the law and lawyers were to come from the media and popular culture, it would consist of nothing but high courtroom drama and criminal behavior. While most people feel themselves to be far removed from these aspects of the law, there are a number of other issues which may concern them. Lawyers play a role in facilitating real estate tracts as well as setting up corporations and other business entities. Lawyers are called upon to initiate or defend civil suits concerning a range of wrongdoings including personal injury. The law also plays a role in matters of death, wills, and taxes. As a result, in this column we expect to point out that the average person has more need of legal advice than he or she may initially suspect.

Welcome to my column. I hope you find the information both helpful and interesting. As an attorney, I have found that many people who have incurred injury or property loss will often forgo the option of bringing suit due to limited finances or an incomplete understanding of their legal rights. To help combat this injustice, I offer a free initial consultation in a relaxed and confidential environment. For an appointment, call 433-8866. My office is located at 1202 Common Street in Lake Charles.

HINT: One's lawyer's expertise can also extend to workers compensation and rights in the workplace.

IT'S ALL OVER

It's over, as the saying goes. The first split of our western duck season was over last Sunday. It surely wasn't much to brag about for 75 percent of the parish. The question is still, where are the ducks? We're suppose to have 3 million more ducks down this year compared to last year. Well, last year's first split was 80 percent better than this year's first split.

Bag limits were low in most blinds. The old reliable teals, black jacks and spoonbills were almost non-existent the last week of the season. More mallards were seen, with grays and pintails - the reliable three - in lots of marshes. We do need some cold weather above us to get the ducks down our way.

The son of a friend of mine hunts in Oklahoma in the tree swamps. They have rain and ducks are eating them up. By the way, they can kill six mallards.

It's now blues and snow geese hunting until the next split, Dec. 13-Jan. 18. Remember, specklebelly is also closed until Dec. 13.

Maybe we'll see some cold weather for the next split, and get our share of the 92 million ducks in our coastal marshes.

FISHING REPORT

More and more women are picking the rock and reel up and fishing, in fact women made up 35 percent of recreational anglers in 1996, about 16 million. Boating among women has also increased 13 percent, making up 42.6 percent of all boaters. We men welcome them aboard.

I saw a couple of nice stringers of bass last week that came out of the Creole Canal north of Creole.

Reports of bass fishing on Toledo Bend is that is slow.

Redfish are in the marshes and catches are fair, but some large, over 27 inch fish, caught. Live mullets or croaker works well.

Calcasieu lake has slowed some, of course we have seen some windy weather and rain, and then the water is clear. Most speckle trout catches reported were along the south bank of West Cove.

FISH KILL

Corpus Christi, Tex., beaches are seeing dead mullets wash on shore and they think it is the Red Tide. This started Thanksgiving Day. Since September over 14 million fish have died and washed upon the Texas coast. Although it is safe to eat fish when there's Red Tide, it's a no-no on eating oysters, clams and mussels.

Those infected with Red Tide can cause nausea, dizziness, and other things, which can make you sick and can last several days.

A REMINDER

On Dec. 11-13, a general hunter education course will be held at the Cameron Recreation Center.

Classes will be from 6-9:30 p.m. on Dec. 11 and 12, and on Dec. 13, from 8 to 11 a.m. Only 35 applicants will be accepted.

Instructors are Joe Dupont, Bobby Doxey and John LeBlanc. Call Joe Dupont at 775-5089.

DID YOU KNOW?

We often hear about ducks by the thousands in the Gulf. Some are on their way to Mexico, but most are there to bathe in the salty water to get rid of their lice.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone;
for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us wonderful memories, your love is still our guide; and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one, The Chain can link again.

AT GRAND LAKE/SWEET LAKE

Lake Area may get natural gas, P. O.

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

The newly organized Grand Lake-Sweet Lake Action Alliance learned at their third meeting last week that two of their community goals will be reached sooner than they had anticipated: securing natural gas and a post office for the area.

Entex officials Billy R. Rogers, Kempton J. Collins, and Stephen LeJeune, Jr, were on hand to listen to the needs of the community. Rogers stated that the company is in the process of running a gas survey of the area.

Brent Nunez, police juror from the area, reported that the community is "bulging at the seams" with people moving in, which is causing a strain on utilities, the school system, and other public services.

"This is only a drop in the bucket to what is coming," he said. "The Moffett Real Estate Agency of Lake Charles has purchased a sizable amount of the acreage in the recent sell-off by Amoco Oil Company in the area, and plans to establish subdivisions. They are also going to donate acreage to the Cameron Parish Police Jury to be used as an Enterprise Zone. There is also another subdivision going up at this time."

Carol Landry, Lake Charles postmaster, spoke to the group regarding their request for a local post office instead of the present designations of either Rt. 1, Lake Charles or Rt. 1, Bell City, the present addresses of the citizens of the community.

This is a very important designation because the community is in Cameron Parish and has no connection with Lake Charles or Bell City.

This becomes important when someone purchases a large item such as a car, because the sales tax in Cameron Parish is still only 4% instead of the usual 8% in Calcasieu.

Mrs. Landry went over what is required by the federal government to secure a post office and what is required to be able to obtain even a small sub-station. A bid was let at one time for a sub-station in the area, but it fell through.

She said that she is trying to get an individual zip code for the Grand Lake-Sweet Lake area, for one reason, to identify that a person lives in Cameron Parish instead of in Lake Charles.

She met with Senator John Breaux on Nov. 12, to address the problem, and assured the community she is working hard on the problem.

Reports were given on roadside litter signs, community cemetery, and laws regarding the use of firearms in or near a residential area.

The next meeting was set for Jan. 8, at 6 p.m.

S. Cameron Hospital gets national award

Governor Mike Foster joined Jefferson Davis Electric Cooperative at the Governor's Mansion recently to honor South Cameron Hospital as one of the winners of the 1997 Commitment to Community Awards. South Cameron Hospital, along with eleven companies nationwide, was singled out for its civic contributions and involvement in local community activities.

The recognition of South Cameron Hospital was the culmination of a two day statewide economic development summit cohosted by Jeff Davis Electric.

Dale Landry, manager of Jeff Davis Electric, said that over 100 business executives, industrial development professionals and local elected leaders from around the state discussed topics on competition, the environment and job security.

Landry said that he cannot think of a better member of the local business community than South Cameron Hospital to be recognized for its positive impact on the economic stability and well-being of our community.

The award is presented to Louisiana companies or commercial businesses which have a highly positive impact on community job creation, civic involvement and overall economic revitalization.

The hospital representatives, headed by CEO Joe Soileau, accepted the award presented by Governor Foster.

South Cameron Hospital is a leading health care provider in southwest Louisiana. Its telemedicine program is part of a network of 17 consortium members throughout Louisiana. Over 400 patients and over 300 continuing education programs have benefited through the telemedicine system that addresses the needs of rural communities by putting smaller hospitals within a network that attracts specialists and the latest technology.

Hospital gets grant

Lake Charles Memorial Hospital has received over half-million dollars in federal grant funds for its telecommunications program.

Sen. John Breaux, D-La., presented the federal money to the hospital president, Elton Williams, at a press conference Monday.

The grant, a total of $515,332, came from the U. S. Dept. of Commerce Telecommunications and Information Infrastructure Program (TIIAP).

The grant money will be used for the creation of Tele-Health Net, a two-way interactive video network that improves the delivery of medical diagnosis, preventive healthcare, patient education, continuing education for healthcare professionals, and wellness education for the general public.

Also at the press conference, a demonstration with South Cameron Hospital was carried out.

Lake Charles Memorial Hospital, Senior Day Hospital of Leesville, LSU Family Practice Residency Program, South Cameron Memorial Hospital, Leesville Developmental Center, Southwest Louisiana Office of Public Health, Louisiana State University School of Social Work, LSU Medical Center at Shreveport, Southwest Louisiana AHEC, the Concordia Substance Abuse Council and the Rural Outreach Telemedicine Consortium.

Cathy L. Denison-Wicke, Ph.D., is the consortium and hub director and Chandra Demaria is the telemedicine secretary.

Oyster limit increased

Effective Dec. 4, and for the remainder of the 1997-98 season, the daily oyster take limit on Calcasieu Lake will be 15-1.5 bushel sacks per boat per day. This new limit increase was set by an emergency declaration at the Dec. 4, 1997, meeting of the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission in Baton Rouge.

The rule was adopted after surveys on the Calcasieu Lake Public Oyster Grounds indicated that there was a significant harvestable oyster resource to be utilized. The Commission increased the limit from 10-1.5 bushel sacks per boat per day to allow fishermen to take advantage of this abundance.

Benedictine monks pay visit to Cameron

Brother Christopher and Brother Joseph from Mother of the Redeemer Monastery in Plaisance, were the recent guests of the Rev. Al Volpe, Pastor of Star of the Sea Catholic Church in Cameron.

The Brothers spent Thanksgiving in Cameron and participated in a special Thanksgiving holiday service. True to their monastic calling, the monks assisted the Pastor with Monastic Chant and Latin hymns for the Family Celebration of Praise.

Father Volpe was a former Benedictine himself and was in community with Brother Joseph several years ago.

Among the many traditions of the Order of Saint Benedict celebrating good liturgy and preserving the Latin Chant has been a mark of the Order's legacy down through the ages, especially in Europe. Some other missions of the Order have included teaching in schools and universities and retreat work in the U. S.

REMEMBER?

By Keith Hambrick

(Lake Charles American, Dec. 3, 1890)
JOHNSON'S BAYOU

Johnson Bayou, La., Nov. 25, 1890 -- This is a very pleasant country to live in, situated immediately on the Gulf coast. I think a healthier climate cannot be found anywhere.

We raise almost any kind of fruit--peaches, figs, and grapes in abundance; also many other varieties that I haven't space to mention. Orange trees are in a fine condition, and will, without doubt, give a good yield next year. We have any quantity of game here, which can be had with scarcely an effort.

Stock are in a fair condition, with as fine salt-grass range as ever grew. There will be quite a number of fine beeves shipped from this place to market this fall and winter.

E.B.J.

(Cameron Pilot, Dec. 3, 1964)
NEW HACKBERRY PLANT

A contract is expected to be let sometime this month for the construction of a new crab meat processing plant at Hackberry and the plant may be in operation by April, Harry M. Hollins, treasurer for Point Bleu Seafoods, Inc. said this week.

It was also announced that the firm has been approved for a $55,000 federal loan through the Small Business Administration and that K. B. Lake, Jr. of Lake Charles has been named general manager for the firm.

R. Wayne Vincent, president, said that the corporation will have no less than $85,000 paid in capital stock, of which $52,000 has been sold or subscribed.

Lake, a graduate of McNeese with a B.S. degree in biology, began his duties on Dec. 1. He will make a study of refrigeration and freezing and processing of seafoods.

The new plant expects to hire between 30 and 40 persons, mostly women, on a seasonal basis.

CONNER, PARKER ON ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Two Cameron Parish football players have been named to the All-District 5-B Team. They are the 185-pound South Cameron center, Lynn Conner, and the 200-pound Hackberry back, Ernie Parker.

Conner, a repeat from the 1963 first team, was credited with a large number of tackles and was ranked as one of the two best defenders in the district.

Parker ran for 630 yards in only seven games, passed for an additional 280 and averaged 40 yards per punt. He also excelled as a middle linebacker on defense, where he averaged eight tackles per game.

Two South Cameron players also made the second team -- John Conner at end and Ronnie Conner at guard.

PARISH ROAD WORK

The Ellender pontoon bridge at the Intracoastal Canal north of Hackberry should be re-opened for traffic by the end of next week. F. Miller and Sons, contractors, have completed work on the damaged approaches and the bridge can be put into operation as soon as the pontoon section arrives from the shipyard and is connected.

The bridge was knocked out of commission in August when it was struck by a barge and tug. A ferry has been in operation since the mishap.

Blacktopping of the Front Ridge Road, or as it is to be known now--the Trosclair Road--has been completed and the shelling of the shoulders and seeding of the roadsides will be completed shortly, according to Frankie Henry, police jury president.

Mr. Henry said that the distance from Jim Daigle's corner to the Creole intersection via the new road is only one mile further than on the old road but that the new route will be faster as there are fewer curves.

The new road has been named for Roland J. Trosclair, the late Ward 3 juror responsible for getting the road blacktopped.

R. E. Heidt Construction Co. of Lake Charles was low bidder on the bituminous hot mix surfacing of nine miles of State Highway 27 between Gibbstown and Creole in Cameron Parish.

The $193,589 bid was taken under advisement by the State Department of Highways. If accepted, work should start within 30 to 60 days.

The 12-month asphalt overlay job will begin at the junction of State Routes 27, 82 and 1143 at Creole and extend northerly along 27 for 8.9 miles to the south end of the Intracoastal Waterway Bridge at Gibbstown.

HURRICANE STUDY TO BEGIN HERE

A representative of the U. S. Corps of Engineers will arrive in Cameron next Tuesday to begin a study of ways hurricane protection can be provided to the parish.

He is Joseph E. Schexnaider and he will meet with Frankie Henry, president of the Cameron Parish Police Jury; J. B. Jones, chairman of a committee seeking information on hurricane protection; State Rep. Conway LeBleu and other interested parties.

Hospital has new program

Sisters of Charity-St. Patrick's Hospital has opened the first bloodless medicine program in Louisiana to treat surgical and medical patients without using donor blood or blood products. The Center of Bloodless Medicine and Surgery is one of about 70 centers in the nation that practices bloodless surgery.

The Center's physicians and nurses apply techniques and skills that dramatically reduce or virtually reduce blood loss.

Individuals may seek alternatives to blood transfusions for several reasons. Some, like Jehovah's Witnesses, have religious convictions that prevent them from receiving blood transfusions. Others feel more comfortable knowing that bloodless products techniques reduce the risk of transmitting disease such as hepatitis B and HIV.

The Center incorporates advanced technology including a cell saver which continually recirculates the patient's own blood during surgery, a skin monitor that tracks oxygen levels without drawing blood, hyperbaric chamber which delivers high concentrations of oxygen to improve tissue oxygenation, stereotactic surgical instruments, harmonic scalpel, hummer microdebrider, surgical lasers, and other blood conservation methods.

YOUR PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEYS

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

While the purpose of this column is to explore the legal aspects of everyday life, it would be an omission to neglect the moral implications of drunk driving. Doing so puts innocent people at risk for serious injury that has the potential to completely disrupt the lives of victims, family, and friends alike. Thus, each of us has a moral obligation to drive in as safe a manner as possible, and than means not mixing driving with alcohol. Those who choose to ignore this obligation, at the very least, risk breaking the law. Aside from the consequences associated with this criminal offense, victims of drunk driving may raise liability questions in civil court that exact further penalties.

If you have experienced a loss or injury due to an accident which involved drugs or alcohol, you should consider the option of bringing a civil suit in order to receive monetary compensation to help you with your recovery and replacement costs. To schedule a consultation, free of charge, call 433-8866. You'll find my office conveniently located at 1202 Common Street in Lake Charles.

HINT: Many states have passed "dram shop" laws that allow injured parties to sue a host or hostess who serves the drunk driver too much alcohol.

FISHING REPORT

A break from hunting means a fishing trip. Some large redfish have been taken on the rocks in Grand Chenier just west of the State Park. The best fishing has been at the start of the tide movement.

Light tackle (5500c) with 17 to 20 pound test line is best, these big reds are strong.

Fishing in the marshes, again light tackle but 12 to 14 pound test line is best.

Calcasieu Lake is still producing reds and specks.

These areas are using white-red artificial cockahoe minnows, purple-chartreuse and blue-chartreuse. Now, some are using fresh shrimp, but the hardheads are a little trouble.

Remember anglers, when you release fish; be extra careful not to bang up your catch, and release the fish right away.

LOUISIANA'S COAST

We all know our Louisiana coast is eating away at a rapid rate. We're losing miles every year. Something needs to be done if and how is a good question.

First it was the nutria that were blamed and yes, they do eat out plenty of valuable vegetation, in return soil loosens up, and the wash out begins. Now it seems a tiny seed-eating fly may also be eating Louisiana out of its coastal home.

Louisiana contains 40 percent of the nation's remaining wetlands, but it's coastal zone is loosing land at the rate of 35 square miles per year. Some of the causes are the approximate 30,000 miles of canals dredged for oil and gas exploration, and for shipping access to inland plants and docks. Global warming makes sea level rise.

Quite a few years ago Louisiana researchers began to realize that the over-population of nutria, once trapped for fur trade and populations kept down, now are again eating away because of fewer trappers and prices not so great.

Researchers now say a small aphid-like fly may be responsible for gradual loss of smooth cordgrass, which is a key plant that holds together fragile soil in our states coastal wetlands.

University of Southwestern Louisiana biologists said infestations of the fly, well known for its damage to agriculture crops, were found to be preventing regeneration of otherwise healthy cordgrass. They stumbled on this discovery while trying to determine the cause of poor seed production by smooth cordgrass. Studies are underway to try and understand the fly's role in this problem.

Our fisheries of Cameron Parish and the Gulf Coast depend highly on our marshes and wetland, with billions of dollars of seafoods involved.

Well, this weekend will start the duck hunting again. Saturday, Dec. 13, we'll see if we've gotten any new ducks down and how many. Let's hope this second split is better than the first.

DID YOU KNOW?

In 1873, Remington introduced its first double barreled shotgun. Before this, double barreled shotguns were imported from Europe and were too expensive for average waterfowlers.

Dr. Cartledge and students

LSU professor visits Grand Lake classes

It was almost Bill Nye, the Science Guy in Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Delaney's classes last week. Dr. Frank Cartledge, chemistry professor at LSU, visited the sixth and seventh grade classes and performed many demonstrations about the three states of matter.

He also incorporated several hands-on activities. He changed the solid iodine to a visible gas, showed students how to "see" layers of invisible gases, and shared quite a few other non-traditional ways to study, show, and see the changes of the three states of matter.

Arrangements were made for Mrs. Watts, the fifth grade science teacher and Mrs. Candace Hebert, the high school science teacher, to participate in Dr. Cartledge's workshop so they could use the information they learned in their own classes at a later date.

Dr. Cartledge became friends with Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Delaney in 1994 when they took several science classes him. He has visited their classrooms each year since.

Thinking about DBS?

Think again.

With DBS you may not get all your favorite Cable Channels.

With a DBS dish system you may not get the same channels that you have with cable - in fact to receive all the same channel combinations that you currently enjoy with Cable TV, you may have to subscribe to more than one programming supplier. And that actually costs more than cable.

If you have Cable TV, then you already receive all the top-rated channels including your local stations, and there's no equipment to buy. Pretty easy, huh?

Talks About Cameron State Bank

"It's a big decision to open your own business. I knew I needed a bank with a group of people who could and would work with me to make it all happen.

I found that the great staff, along with Elmo Sartin, Sr. Vice President of Cameron State Bank, really worked hard to make my new business a reality.

I would definitely recommend Cameron State Bank for the service, the attention to detail, and the personal touch they provide. It's personal banking at its best. And that's what's best for my business."

Bird count to be held in parish

Santa's sleigh is not the only thing you can spot through your binoculars this holiday season. Join the thousands of bird-watchers nationwide and participate in the annual Christmas Bird Count.

This is an annual opportunity for all birders to pursue their hobby and collect valuable biological data at the same time. The purpose of the counts, sponsored by the Audubon Society, is to identify and count as many birds as possible. The information is collected and used to help determine national bird populations during the winter.

Whether you're an experienced birder or just a backyard observer, you can contribute to the effort.

Local compilers select and plot a 25-kilometer (approximately 15-mile) diameter circle in which to identify birds. A count is officially a 24 hour period, but most begin at sunrise and end at sunset. Individual counts are forwarded to a central repository and compared with date from previous years.

For a five dollar fee, anyone can participate. All it takes is knowledge of birds (carry a guide book) and perhaps a good pair of binoculars.

The following is a list of the area 1997 Christmas Bird Counts in Louisiana. Interested participants should contact Bill Vermillion at 504/765-2976 to be put in contact with a local compiler.

Sat., Dec. 20, Sabine Refuge; Sun., Dec. 21, Johnson Bayou; Mon., Dec. 22, Creole; Tues., Dec. 30, Thornwell.

SANTA CLAUS will pay his annual visit to the Cameron courthouse Saturday, Dec. 20 at 2 p.m. courtesy of the Cameron Lions Club and Cameron Fire Dept. He will talk to all the children and present them with candy. Above was the scene at last year's visit.

New state park is planned for parish

(American Press)

Phillip J. Jones, secretary of the Louisiana Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism came to Lake Charles Thursday to unveil a $5 million refurbishment plan for Sam Houston Jones State Park, and long-range plans to establish a new state park on the Gulf Coast in Cameron.

Both projects are part of the state's 15-year Master Plan for State Parks. Jones said Lt. Gov. Kathleen Blanco made rebuilding the state parks a high priority. A total of $28 million is being spent on the rebuilding effort.

Jones said the short-term plans also include a request for $2 million to acquire Little Pecan Island in Cameron Parish as a nature preserve.

He said the future Cameron State Park on the coast would include cabins, hiking and biking trails, picnic facilities and a conference center.

The new park would complete a series of educational resources spanning the entire coast from Plaquemines Parish to Cameron.

Jones said the 15-year master plan which runs to 2012 is expected to give tourism in Louisiana a major boost.

Oil & gas production up in parish

--CAPITAL NEWS--

Natural resource production in Cameron Parish again outpaced 1996levels when severance tax figures were compiled for September by the state Department of Revenue and Taxation.

According to the department's current report, production in the parish during September brought in $1.4 million in severance taxes. While that is about $190,000 less than the same month in 1996, it is only the second time this year that monthly receipts failed to exceed 1996. The cumulative total for Jan. 1 through Sept. 30 reached $13.1 million compared to $12.3 million for the first ninth months of 1996.

Natural gas production provided most of the severance taxes reported for the parish during September, $741,239 of the total and the sixth highest figure in that category. Oil accounted for the remaining $713,929 received during the month.

The parish collecting the tax on oil and natural gas receives one-fifth of the total up to $500,000 annually. Seventy-five percent of all revenue collected on timber products goes back to the parish.

The state's overall severance tax receipts of $34.1 million were the highest 1997 collections since February. They brought the cumulative total to $297 million for the first nine months of the year, topping 19096 by almost $17 million. But the September figure itself was $1.8 million less than was recorded in September 1996.

BILL TURNBULL, center, is presented with the "Extra Mile Award" from the Louisiana Department of Highways by Dinah Landry, director of the Cameron Council on Aging, and Brent Nunez, Cameron Parish Police Jury President. Turnbull was employed by the local council several years ago when he transported a Cameron elderly woman to Lake Charles to see doctors for an eye condition in his capacity as a council bus driver and he has continued checking on her through the years, doing what he could to help her. Agriculture census will be held soon

The 1997 Census of Agriculture, scheduled to commence the middle part of December, will be the responsibility to the United States Department of Agriculture, National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS). In prior years the census was conducted by the Bureau of Census.

According to Kirk L. Smith, CED of the Calcasieu-Cameron Parish Farm Service Agency, the first large volume of Census Questionnaires is scheduled for mailing on or around Dec. 12. Nationwide approximately two million farmers and ranchers will receive this Census of Agriculture report form.

The report form should be returned to NASS by Feb. 2, 1998. Individual farmers and ranchers are guaranteed by law that their individual information will be kept confidential.

NASS uses the information only for statistical purposes and publishes data only in tabulated totals. The privacy of individual census records is also protected from disclosure through the Freedom of Information Act.

G. Lake students to aid Ukrainian school

Grand Lake students are working to send a special Christmas present to students in Ukraine.

Students at the school in Cameron Parish are filling water jugs with their pennies and nickels each day in an effort to raise money to purchase a computer for the students of Mickaelovka Village in Crimea, Ukraine.

The effort began when Gary Pool, Agriscience teacher at Grand Lake School, and his daughter, Allison Michael, a senior at Louisiana State University, made a trip to Ukraine as volunteers with the Citizens Network for Foreign Affairs in October. "One of the objectives of our assignment in Ukraine was to find ways to help," Pool said.

While in Ukraine, Pool and his daughter spent three days in the village of Mickaelovka, which is approximately the same size as the community of Grand Lake. Many students in the village asked Pool and Michael to find American pen pals for them.

"We thought it would be good to match up students from Grand Lake with students from Mickaelovka since the schools are about the same size," Pool said, "but it usually takes a month or two for the mail to reach the U.S. from Ukraine.

The father-daughter team began brainstorming about how to solve the problem, and they decided to use the Internet to set up an exchange for "e-mail pals" instead of pen pals. However, the school in Mickaelovka does not have a computer, and that is where the students of Grand Lake come in.

"All the kids and teachers are very excited about this project," Pool said. "Our school board said if this project goes well, they would like to see other schools in the parish adopt schools in Ukraine."

The students are raising money to purchase an IBM Cyrix 686 for the village. Their goal is $1100, which will pay for the computer and for the delivery and set-up in Mickaelovka. On Fri., Dec. 19, the students will turn in their coins, which will then be counted by a representative from Cameron State Bank.

"We hope to get the computer delivered to the village by Jan. 7, which is the Russian Orthodox Christmas," Pool said. "We want it to be our Christmas present to the students of Mickaelovka."

Grand Lake School is accepting donations to help the students reach their goal. For more information or to make a donation, contact Gary Pool at 318-598-3473 or 318-598-3316.

Cameron Outdoors

GOOD DUCK WEATHER

We all know our marshes were well below par on our first split, but we can't say we didn't have duck hunting weather on the opening weekend of our second split. Cold and rain with snow and sleet in the air made it tough to hit the old duck blind, but as a die-hard duck hunter, you gotta go, maybe more birds down, maybe the area here got a rest and forgot about where the shooting came from before.

It will take a few days to see if we do have new and more ducks down, because as the shooting starts, old ducks will know.

DEER HUNTING

Deer hunting in our area will get back in full swing on Dec. 20 thru Jan. 4. Area hunters had been doing well with a good harvest reported so far.

Our wildlife management areas (WMA) had over 15,000 hunters hit the woods this past Thanksgiving weekend to take part in a Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries managed deer hunt. A great success, 2750 deer were harvested by men, women, young and old, over the three day holiday weekend.

This was almost double from last year's hunt. Weights of the deer are up and good quality bucks are harvested.

TALK ABOUT

Rabbit hunting is still slow, but it's usually better in January and February, after a few good frosts or a couple of freezes.

Many anglers took to the inshore waters last week, foggy but warm weather paid off, as good redfish catches reported. Also good stringers of bass caught along the Creole Canal south of Gibbstown.

COMMERCIAL NEWS

Trapping season is in full swing and most trappers are catching a few nutria. Last year proved to be a good year for our trappers, as they got a decent price.

Louisiana's fur industry generated approximately $3 million for the 1996-97 season, way up from the $1.3 million take in 1995-96. An increase in pelts from 280,000 to 500,000 showed the animals were there.

Our oyster fishermen got good news, effective Dec. 4, for the remainder of the oyster season, the daily oyster limit on Calcasieu Lake went from 10 sacks per day to 15 91.5 bushel) sacks per boat per day. The grounds indicate there are plenty of oysters for this limit. This will surely help our oyster fishermen for the holidays.

NEWS BRIEFS

The future of fishing and hunting and other wildlife recreation on our nation's National Wildlife Refuges is brighter than ever. This is because Congress voted 419-1 to support a bill that strongly promotes fishing and hunting on the 509 refuges. This is suppose to be veto proof. Let's hope it stays that way, as many would like to see all refuges closed to hunting and fishing.

REMINDER

Check your shooting hours - daylight is coming later each morning, therefore sunrise is later. Example: Dec. 20 - sunrise is 7:04 a.m. so one-half hour before would be 6:34 before you can legally shoot and it will get later to where shooting time will be 6:40 on Jan. 17.

DID YOU KNOW?

The earth has 326 million cubic miles of water, fresh water accounts for only 3 percent of the total, and 70 percent of which is frozen.

EYEWITNESS REPORT

A recent study raises some serious questions about the validity of eyewitness testimony. The research involved 172 college students who were asked to watch a convenience-store murder recorded by a surveillance camera. After viewing the tape, each student was asked to pick out the suspect from photos. Every student singled out someone in the book as the suspect they saw in the video - even though the real culprit was not pictured. Of course, it would be unfair to draw too many conclusions from one study; however, the National Institute of Justice recently reported on 28 prisoners after DNA tests proved them innocent. Court records showed that eyewitnesses had testified against 24 of them. Sometimes, the "facts" are not so plain.

Brent Nunez stated that regarding the Parishwide Water Management Committee, there are four Police Jury members present, and they will be glad to answer any questions regarding the purpose and function of this committee. Recently Stream Management has been hired by the Police Jury to manage the Water Management Team which oversees drainage in the parishes of Calcasieu and Cameron. The purpose is to bring the parish together and meet its drainage needs as a whole, and to keep all areas informed of what is going on in the whole parish. The goal is not to take authority away from any local Drainage Board.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

"Money talks, your children will have to walk", is the message the Cameron Parish School Board sent out to the parish concerning the deletion of designated roads. In the November meeting Superintendent Pam LaFleur received a $3193 raise and Mrs. Peggy Benoit received almost nine thousand for doing two more months of work, which will both be paid by the parish.

Mr. Morris (who made the motion to give her the raise) justified Mrs. LaFleur's raise by saying since the assistant superintendent's position was eliminated she is having to extra work and she has solved problems within the administration. Is that not what she was already getting a salary of $61,807 for? She has received $5,000 in raises in less than two years.

Our teachers have not had a pay raise from the parish in over a decade. The previous superintendent was receiving $68,000 a year after serving 19 years.

On the first day of school my child's class had one desk with six chairs to accommodate 18 students. Mr. Vining, who is in charge of the maintenance department, put the blame on the principal. The teacher has had to borrow chairs and desks from other classrooms, which are not suitable for the students because their feet do not touch the ground. She has had to put four desks together to make one desk. To this day the furniture has not arrived for this class. I am told this is not an isolated case.

Cameron Parish, stand up and speak out against what is happening to our children. I can respect those of you who wish not to speak out because you are either employed by the school system or are related to someone within the system. But if we do not stand up for our children, who will? Let's get together and do something about it. I have been doing it for yours for four months, will you do it for mine?

If this bus policy is not putting our children at risk as Mrs. LaFleur states, why is it a bus driver is now traveling down a road to pick up students after almost being hit by a vehicle when the bus lights were flashing? This has happened to these same students three times this school year.

Educators attend meet

More than 100 area educators and school administrators in the 7th Congressional District attended an Education Grants Seminar on Wed., Dec. 10, sponsored by Congressman Chris John and McNeese State University at MSU's Alumni Center.

Area educators from over 80 schools were in attendance including some from South Cameron High, Cameron Elementary and South Cameron Elementary.

A panel of federal and state officials discussed available educational grant opportunities and answered questions from the audience.

John, who moderated the panel, said the seminar was the result of a survey he conducted in his district to find out the needs of educators. He said that there are money and programs available at the federal and state levels to help schools and teachers improve the education of our children. "That is why we are here today -- to provide this information for educators and administrators. We must all work together to ensure that our children have the resources they need."

Questions concerning the seminar or further education grant information can be directed to Congressman John's Lafayette office at 318-235-6322.

Priest observes 25th anniversary

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Fourteen priests and Bishop Jude Speyrer gathered at the St. Eugene Catholic Church Friday night for a Mass of Transgiving to celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the church's pastor, Father Vincent Vadakkedath.

Parishioners and friends from as far away as Houston, Tex., and New Orleans came to the celebration.

Father Vincent is affectionately called by his first name, which is how all priests are addressed by their first names in his native India.

He came to Grand Chenier four years ago to fill a vacancy at the local church. Even though he has been offered a job as the president of the an Indian university, he has chosen to remain at Grand Chenier because he loves what he is doing.

He was born in India, the third child of seven children. After high school he joined the seminary in 1964 and studies philosophy and theology at St. Joseph's Pontifical Seminary, Alwaye. He was ordained by Archbishop Joseph Kelanthara on Dec. 19, 1972.

He obtained his Bachelor of Theology in 1973, his B.A. in Sociology in 1975, and a M.A. in Political Science in 1978 from Kerala University.

He was appointed Professor of Political Science at St. Paul's College in 1980.

The title of professor is still held by Father vincent, even though he has taken a leave of absence from this duty to serve the Diocese of Lake Charles in the St. Eugene Community.

He was a member of the National Advisory Council of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal from 1979 to 1994, and a member of the State Service Team of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in India from 1980-1994.

Bishop Speyrer presided over the celebration and Father E. Joseph McGrath was the Homilist. Mona Theriot, Lector, and servers were Jared Cogar, Justin Landry, Nicklaus Pinch; Betty Smith was organist for the choir.

A reception was held following the service in the church hall.

Jurors, Foster meet

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Cameron Parish Police Jurors Malcolm Savoie and George LeBoeuf, and Laurie J. London, executive director of the Cameron Parish Economic Development Board, met with Gov. Mike Foster last week at a local hunting club to discuss local needs.

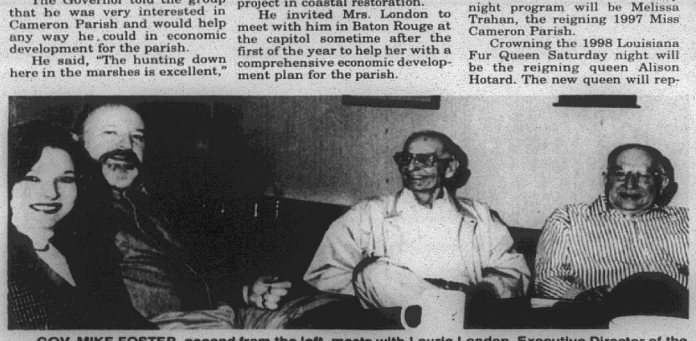
The Governor told the group that he was very interested in Cameron Parish and would help any way he could in economic development for the parish.

He said, "The hunting down here in the marshes is excellent," and was very pleased with his hunt.

He pointed out that in order for the parish to be able to accomplish some of their needs, they will have to pass some taxes, because even though it is the largest parish in the state inland area, there are just under 10,000 people in population.

He said he was very pleased with progress on the Highway 82 project in coastal restoration.

He invited Mrs. London to meet with him in Baton Rouge at the capitol sometime after the first of the year to help her with a comprehensive economic development plan for the parish.



GOV. MIKE FOSTER, second from the left, meets with Laurie London, Executive Director of the Cameron Parish Economic Development Board, and Police Jurors George LeBoeuf and Malcolm Savoie, at the Oak Grove Hunting Club to discuss local issues. Photo by Geneva Griffith.

Fur Festival plans

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Cameron Parish is gearing up for the 42nd annual Louisiana Fur and Wildlife Festival to be held Jan. 15-17.

It has only missed one year since it was organized, and that was due to Hurricane Audrey in 1957.

Each year one of the industries in the parish is honored and this year it will be the cattle industry and the parade floats will feature that theme. Also, the festival king will be chosen from the cattle industry. His identity will be kept a secret until the Friday night program which will be held at the Cameron Elementary School auditorium.

Miss Cameron Parish will also be chosen that night. She will be chosen from contestants from all over the parish and will represent the festival at the National Outdoor Show in Cambridge, Maryland.

The Outdoor Show is a sister festival with the Fur Festival and each year a delegation attends the two shows representing their festivals as guests of the festivals.

Brenda and Jeffery Boudreaux are hosts to the Maryland group that accompanies the National Outdoor Queen to Cameron, and plan a weekend of activities for the group.

Representing the fur festival at the Maryland show will be festival workers Vickie and Kent Little and Stephanie and Shau Rogers.

Hayes "Pete" Picou, Jr. is the festival president, Sue Mhire, secretary, and Peggy Benoit, treasurer.

Crowning the new Miss Cameron Parish at the Friday night program will be Melissa Trahan, the reigning 1997 Miss Cameron Parish.

Crowning the 1998 Louisiana Fur Queen Saturday night will be the reigning queen Alison Hotard. The new queen will represent the festival at the Mardi Gras Ball in Washington, D. C. and will receive a fur coat.

Serving as parade marshals in the Saturday parade will be active charter members of the festival, Butsy Carter, Mayola Wicke, Geneva Griffith, Jeanette Noel, Roland Primeaux, and Blanc Bonsall.

A pre-festival event will be the Jr. Fur Queen contest, to be held in the Cameron Elementary School auditorium Saturday night, Jan. 10, at 7 p.m.

WHERE'S THE WATER?

Same old thing almost like the commercial says - "Where's the ducks" and I guess you could say "Where's the Water"?

Thursday and Friday before the opening of the second split, we put out decoys, pirogues, and did our chores in the marsh. In a quarter mile including our lease, we had 2,000 to 3,000 ducks, about 10 inches of water and everything great. Saturday opening looked good and we had cold weather. In fact, my son called to say he couldn't hunt opening morning, but would hunt the following day. He had to get to the mall in Lake Charles.

I told him of the ducks and to come on and make a hunt that we would be out by 7:30 a.m. and the mall didn't open that early anyway. Well, he was smart, I went by myself. I hunted until 9 a.m. and came home with 4 ducks. Well, Sunday morning he and I went together, first the pirogue was rubbing bottom and at 8:30 a.m. we left with only 3 ducks.

Folks are asking where did all the ducks go. Hunters are very disgusted from the Cameron Ship Channel East, then to top it off, the gates are open and we've lost all our water in the Creole area.

I see where temperatures on the Canadian border were 25 degrees. South Dakota, 56 degrees and our temperature in the high 60's. This is not duck weather, and if this keeps up, we will not see the ducks come down. Well, I got my gripe off my chest, now it could be worse. Read on!!

STRANGE LAWS

There are many old laws still on the books, they sound stupid, but the late 1800's and early 1900's here's a few laws you had to obey:

Twenty years ago, it was illegal to count cattle from a hot air balloon. On Nevada highways it is illegal to drive camels.

We all know how hunting and fishing laws change, but here's some old ones I bet you didn't even know existed. One southern state, it is illegal to fish with your bare hands, but if you use gloves it's legal. Southern dress if you go hunting on horseback - you cannot wear shorts riding horseback and if you weigh more than 200 pounds. That's considered indecent. Your horse needs to be dressed in blazing orange, like a orange saddle blanket, tail ribbon or bridle. Oh, if your horse is a female you may let it wear a blazing orange bikini. If your mule doesn't kick you first, don't kick it, or you could go to court.

Don't pluck feathers from a live bird in one southern state and in another, don't let a chicken cross the road.

If you're driving southern roads searching for game to hunt, you must have your horse properly tied to your vehicle. No fishing from a giraffe and on the rope you use on your horse, you cannot rope a fish, and no fishing from the back of a horse.

In some states you cannot fish in a cemetery if you're a hardcore tackle using fisherman, but okay if you're a bait fisherman. No setting traps for birds around the tombstones, and you can shoot snakes in a cemetery or in your hunting camp, but no snake killing on Sundays.

In some southern states during breeding seasons, you can't shoot clay pigeons, and don't remove a hook of someone else's fish. Cursing in some states is jail time.

In one state it's illegal to expose your gun unless you're being chased by Indians.

Some of these laws were for the times, and some hunting and fishing laws are as old as the south. Some are traditional. Just don't forget if you're chasing raccoons on mulebback down south, for heaven's sake, wear your straw hat. You'll never know when you'll need it, and you definately don't want to get caught without it, it's illegal.

To all of you, have a Merry Christmas and watch what you eat, it might be illegal!

Penalties on fish repeat offenders up

Penalties for first-time and repeat offenders who violate fisheries-related regulations recently became stiffer. House Bill 803, sponsored by Rep. Benny Rousselle during the 1997 Louisiana Legislative Session imposes a penalty barring anyone convicted of a fishery-related class three or greater violation from being eligible for commercial fishing licenses.

Bill 803 states that such persons will be ineligible for a commercial fisherman's license for a period of two years from date of conviction.

Furthermore, upon a second conviction, the period of ineligibility to hold a commercial fisherman's license lengthens to five years from date of conviction. Third and subsequent convictions extend the period ineligibility to 10 years from date of conviction.

This legislation applies to commercial and recreational fishery-related violations.

A commercial fishing license is required for all commercial fishing activity in Louisiana. It is the foundation license of Louisiana's commercial fishing industry and must be possessed in conjunction with other commercial fishing licenses. This includes all commercial gear licenses, harvesting permits for various fish and shellfish species as well as additional licenses.

Class-three fisheries violations include not abiding by rules and regulations of the Wildlife and Fisheries Commission with respect to seasons, zones or size limits; failure to have commercial license in possession; falsifying a commercial license application; and commercial gear and vessel license violations.

Class-four fisheries violations include possession of game fish illegally; using illegal wire nets to take undersized catfish; and taking or possessing 10 or more red drum on the water or more than 10 drum off the water.

Seasons Greetings To The People Of Cameron Parish:

This Christmas, let us all be thankful for the many blessings that we have in America and in Cameron Parish. As the year of '97 is ended and '98 will be ringing in, we can be thankful that our economy is on a strong recovery. May you have many more good years of prosperity.

I hope you all will have a wonderful Christmas with your families. If you go to holiday parties, please be careful afterwards while driving home.

My deputies and I are dedicated to serving you the people of Cameron Parish and feel free to call on us if we can be of help to you in any way.

As I was going over some of my papers I found a Prayer for the Day...

This is the beginning of a new day and soon will be the beginning of a New Year. God has given me this day to do with as I will. I can waste it or use it for my good. What I do today is important because I'm exchanging a day of my life for it.

When tomorrow comes this day is gone forever, leaving in its place something that I have traded for it.

I want it to be gain, and not loss; good and not evil; Success and not failure; in order that I shall not regret the price that I have paid for it.

So I wish each and every one of you a very Merry Merry Christmas, and a Happy and Healthy New Year and a brighter tomorrow and future!

Wishing you Happy Holidays,
James R. "Sono" Savoie

Spanish food a lot like Cajun food--good & spicy

(EDITOR'S NOTE -- Pilot writer Geneva Griffith recently made a trip to Spain as a member of a travel group sponsored by the Northeast University alumni of Monroe. Here are some of her observations on Spanish food.)

By GENEVA GRIFFITH

Traveling in Spain is a gourmet's delight. Spain is a country known for fabulous, hearty meals, and its paella lends inspiration to cooks everywhere.

The rice-based main dish varies from region to region in Spain and may include chicken, sausage, and shellfish, along with a variety of vegetables.

Olive oil is used almost exclusively as a cooking agent, understandably since Spain is the largest producer of olives in the world.

The foundations of modern Spanish cooking were laid down by the Romans, who conquered Spain and brought them olive trees and garlic.

Later conquerors, the Moors, tribes from Northern Africa, left behind not only cities of unsurpassed beauty, but a natural taste for saffron, citrus fruits and nuts.

Regional cuisines have come together to form the varied dishes of Spain today. It is not unlike the South Louisiana gumbos, whose origin can be traced back to Africa from the slaves, the Creoles, with a little bit of France thrown in.

The Northeastern province of Spain borders on the Basque province of France and shares some of the most succulent dishes of Southern France.

The Basque coastline yields an abundance of seafood, on which the excellent cooking of the seafood of the Basque country (Northern Spain and Southern france) is based.

To the south of these provinces are the provinces of Castile and Aragon, famous in history as the dual kingdom ruled over by Ferdinand and Isabella.

Castile produces the full bodied red wines, which are world renowned, and can be found on the tables of the local Spaniards at mealtime. On the tables in most restaurants the wine bottles are already set out.

To the unwary diner, this is not a compliment of the house, but is added to the bill when opened.

Another thing to remember is that the tip is already added to the bill, which is often overlooked by the tourists and the waiter gets an added tip. Of course, it is always permissible when outstanding service is to be rewarded. Restaurants in Spain are classified from five down to one fork. Five being classed as the best, on down to one, and prices usually running from around $60 for five forks to about $9 for one fork. You will notice the forks placed vertically side by side on the restaurant signs.

The services offered must appear in Spanish, French, and English in five, four and three fork restaurants, and two and one fork restaurants must offer the menus of the day posted outside.

The better restaurants do not usually open for dinner until around 9 p.m., but the Spaniards customarily visit Tapas bars before going to dinner. Tapas are tiny portions of food in an assortment of dishes which are served as an accompaniment to wine or sherry.

At their simplest, Tapas can be only a plate of olives, perhaps a few slices of ham, or grilled prawns (like our shrimp).

Neutral Strip was haven for lawless during 1800s

By W. T. BLOCK

During Spanish colonial days around 1800, the region between the Calcasieu and Sabine rivers quickly earned the name of "The Neutral Strip". Moss-draped cypresses lined the bayous and tidal lagoons in the south, and in the northern sector, tall long leaf pines darkened the sun's rays on the forest floors beneath.

The "Neutral Strip" soon attracted the lawless elements and social outcasts of two nations, that ilk of humanity who were indispensable to the slave-trading and buccaneering ventures of Jean Lafitte. By American agreement with Spain in 1806, no troops or law officers were to be stationed in the "Strip."

On April 28, 1895, Galveston Daily News published a long article, entitled "Story of Lafitte on The Calcasieu", reprinted from New York Herald. On Aug. 6, 1897, the Daily News published "Pirates' Buried Gold," a similar long article about Lafitte's activities on the Mermentau, reprinted from the Cincinnati Inquirer.

By 1816, Don Luis de Aury of Galveston was capturing many Spanish slave ships and plate galleons in the Gulf of Mexico. In 1817, the corsairs of Jean Lafitte had replaced de Aury, the former having by then abandoned his old outpost at Barataria Bay. Lafitte often visited Lake Charles, as he marched his slave coffles overland to the sugar cane plantations around New Iberia.

There were also in the Neutral Strip numerous bandit gangs who preyed upon the Spanish mule trains of silver and gold, that traded between Mexico and Natchitoches. Once in 1867, while workmen were digging post holes for a steamboat wharf at Starks Landing on Sabine River, they dug up 214 pounds of bar silver, that bandits had captured from a pack train and had buried for safekeeping. Another legend reported "12 jack loads of Spanish silver and 30 jack loads of gold," captured by bandits and buried on a creek in Jasper County, Texas.

Perhaps a fourth of Lafitte's pirates were recruited from the Neutral Strip, many of them being former bandits. One of LaFitte's best known ship captains was Arsene LeBleu de Cormarsac of Imperial Calcasieu Parish. Others included Capt. James Campbell, Henry Perry, Pierre Guillotte, Henri Nunez, Richard Ballew, Charles Cronea and Jean Baptiste Callistre.

FIRST VOYAGE

Jean Lafitte made his first voyage up the Calcasieu about 1813, when his ships were still based at Barataria Bay. He brought boat loads of slaves to Lake Charles, which were soon sold to sugar planters in Lafayette and Iberia Parishes. Lafitte even befriended many of the Attakapas Indians living around Lake charles. Another friend was Charles Sallier, who often sold meat, corn and potatoes to the Barataria corsairs, and in turn, profited from the latter's largesse, which included French brandies, wine, and fine clothing.

Jean Lafitte left a tremendous legacy in Calcasieu and Cameron Parishes, which still exists today. In 1866, a traveler to Lake Charles wrote about the huge alligators in the Calcasieu River and added:

"This river was at one time the nest of the celebrated Lafitte and his band of pirates. Hackberry Island, in Calcasieu Lake, is still pointed out as their naval depot.... An elevation on the river is to this day called Money Hill, and is pointed out as the spot where Lafitte buried his money. For 50 years the people of this country have occasionally been digging for it, but the proprietor has stopped it...."

"Contraband Bayou is also pointed out as having a depot at its head for the storage of goods that those pirates smuggled in and also as a depot for the African slaves they imported...."

According to the New York Herald, Money Hill, also known as the Barb Shellbank, was the site where the original Sallier home stood until 1841, when it was moved on rollers to the outskirts of Lake Charles. Around 1890, that Acadian home, although extensively remodeled, was believed to be the oldest home still standing in Calcasieu Parish.

SLAVE TRADE

In his journal, Lafitte noted that after 1817, the Sabine, Calcasieu, and Mermentau rivers were his principal avenues for disposing of slaves and captured goods to Central Louisiana. He observed that he had given many slaves, gold watches, and other jewelry to his friends who lived on Calcasieu River. Lafitte added that when his Galveston Island commune broke up in Feb., 1821, many of the pirates and some families returned to the Calcasieu and Sabine Rivers to live.

According to the New York Herald, a French agent arranged for one of Lafitte's ships to be docked at Bordeaux in June, 1815, in the event Napoleon chose to escape on it. Instead several sea chests of the French general's personal fortune were loaded aboard, but when Napoleon did not arrive by June 20, Alexandre Lafitte sailed away without him.

Reputedly, Michel Pithon, an early Napoleonic War veteran of Lake Charles, arrived on that voyage, and in 1836 he fought in the Republic of Texas war for independence. At a late age, he married and raised a large family in Lake Charles and died there about 1871, at age 97. He was a walking history book about Lafitte's activities in Louisiana.

In Sept. 1815, Jean and Alexandre Lafitte (also known as Dominique You) sailed up the Calcasieu to the Barb Shellbank, where once more they traded for a ton of meat and potatoes from Sallier. After a week there, the pirates sailed away in their schooner. It was later reported that upon reaching a marsh chenier near the river's mouth, their schooner lay at anchor for days, while the buccaneers carried Napoleon's sea chests ashore and buried them in the marsh.

On another occasion one of Lafitte's ships was trapped offshore by the New Orleans revenue cutter Lynx. Instead of engaging in battle, the pirates retreated to the open sea shortly before dusk, circled around the Lynx, and sailed into Calcasieu Pass the following morning. On that voyage, Lafitte sailed away while his favorite slave cook, Catalon, was asleep on shore. Catalon then became the property of Charles Sallier. Following Catalon's emancipation in 1865, he remained in Calcasieu Parish until his death at about age 94, but he remained notably silent about Lafitte's activities and buried treasure sites until his death.

On one occasion, Lafitte scuttled one of his leaking ships at the Barb Shellbank, after having removed everything of value to another schooner. Years later, while two Frenchmen were searching the wreck, they found a sea chest of silver plate and bullion, which the pirates had overlooked. The Frenchmen hastily buried it near Cidony's Shipyard, until they had a chance to come back and retrieve it.

WASH'S STORY

There was another ex-slave named Wash, who died at Lake Charles around 1880 at age 100. During his old age, he reported that:

"A long time ago three men came to Contraband Bayou on gray horses. They carried some kind of money-hunting instrument that looked like a watch.... Finally it pointed to a big green knoll right on the banks of Contraband Bayou.

"There them gentlemen dug up an old iron chest, 3 feet long and 2 feet wide, full of gold. They filled sacks with the gold, tied the ends together, and threw them across the backs of their horses.... Before God, I swear that I saw 3 men go into the woods on Contraband Bayou, and only two of them came out and the third horse was carrying a part of the gold.... A few days later, a fisherman found the body of the other man who had been murdered and was floating in the bayou...."

In Nov., 1820, the pirate brig Hotspur ran aground on a mudflat at the mouth of the Mermentau River. The pirates took what coins they could carry and set out for Johnson's Bayou afoot. Then they returned to the Mermentau a month later on another ship, all trace of the wreck of the Hotspur had disappeared.

From time to time, the writer is asked if a particular Lafitte legend is "true." Yes, they were usually "true" to the extent that they were originated by people who knew Lafitte, or some of his pirates, or at least claimed that they did.

Most of the Lafitte treasure legends have two things in common - the burial or search for buried treasure somewhere along the Gulf Prairie, usually a marsh chenier, and nearly always, the existence of a "patron," or apparition, to guard it. The patron might be an eerie light, to lead the money hunters astray; or a big rattlesnake, with fangs bared; or sometimes a cutlass swinging skeleton or other ghostly creature to guard the money.

Regarding buried treasure, perhaps "truth" does occasionally stray from its path, it having no obligation to do otherwise. However, there are two fundamental ingredients that each treasure legend must possess - one being its plausibility; and the other a need to fire imaginations, that is, the readers' interest, passions, and greed, to fever pitch. Indeed, Lafitte left Southwest Louisiana with a rich legacy of pirate legends.

CAMERON PARISH NEWS

The mail boat Xantho made the trip from Leesburg to Lake Charles last Wednesday night, against a strong current and wind, in a little less than six hours, or an average of ten miles per hour. That is equivalent to twelve or fifteen miles per hour in still water.

The American will hereafter visit the Cameron lighthouse regularly. This is as it should be. The mission of The American is to reflect light upon all within the circle of its influence, and it is, therefore, proper that it should go to the lighthouse, where the chief business is to reflect light.

The steamer Edna, which is now completed, will take a party from Jennings, Crowley, Welsh, Lake Arthur, tex., to the Gulf at Calcasieu Pass, on Wednesday, Dec. 17. Fare for round trip, $2. The citizens of Lake Charles and vicinity are invited to join our friends from the eastern part of the parish in this excursion.

PRESCRIPTION FOR TROUBLE?

Recently, new evidence concerning popularly prescribed diet pills has raised the possibility that thousands of patients may have suffered silent heart valve damage as a result of having taken them. Current estimates put one million Americans as having taken a combination of drugs that was never approved by the FDA as a weight-loss regimen, advocates of which claim helps people lose weight by curbing their appetites for carbohydrates. Potential benefits aside, the downside is that the combination of drugs may have caused heart damage in several hundred thousand Americans without their knowing it. It is recommended that those who took the drugs undergo exams to diagnose damage, and then discuss their legal recourse with a lawyer if they have.

If you have experienced damaging results, whether physical or material, from the use of a product, you have the option of bringing a civil suit against the responsible party. Call 433-8866 to schedule a consultation, free of charge. You'll find my offices conveniently located at 1202 Common Street in Lake Charles. I also accept case involving personal injury, wrongful death, and accidents which occur both on land and at sea. I charge no fees unless we win.

HINT: A question of product liability may arise over a drug manufacturer's failure to mention a potentially dangerous interaction.

Hunting/fishing guides to be listed in book

Whether you specialize in marshland alligator hunts or know just where to find the best saltwater action, the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries would like to hear from you. LDWF is currently looking for more entries to add to its list of professional Louisiana hunting and fishing guides.

At present the list includes 39 guides operating within the state. With your participation, this can be expanded, offering the public a more comprehensive record of what Louisiana has to offer in terms of reputable outdoor guide services.

The list began almost two years ago, making the process of finding reliable guides easier for the public. With experts focusing on everything from duck hunting to fishing the Barrier Islands the list is a popular service and is something that every serious guide in the state should participate in.

There are constant requests for lists, many from out of state. It is a way for guides to advertise freely and could really enhance business.

The Department makes every effort to ensure that businesses are legitimate before adding them to the list, but it is the individual's responsibility to fully investigate guide services before choosing to use one. Guide services included in the list are not endorsed by LDWF.

Guides wishing to be added to the list are asked to submit required information to Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, Attn: Andrew Vaughan, P.O Box 98000, Baton Rouge, La. 70898-9000.

Required information includes business name, directions to the service, physical and mailing addresses, a contact persons, telephone numbers, services provided, species guided, areas in which the business operates, and if possible cost.

A sample entry would be:

John Doe's Guide Service: 504/333-5555 Contact: John Doe. 100 Redfish Run, Morgan City, La.: 66 miles east of Lafayette on Highway 90. Exit on Federal Blvd. up two blocks and turn right. Species: Redfish, specks, mackerel, ducks and deer. Services: All tackle and supplies provided. Client must have their own licenses and clothing. Lodging provided for a separate fee. Area: Gulf coast fishing from Cocodrie to Marsh Island and all hunting done in lower Atchafalaya. Cost: Hunting trips $150 per person. Fishing trips $100 per person.

All boats carrying passengers for hire (all guide services) on navigable waterways in the state are required to have applicable U.S. Coast Guard licenses conspicuously posted or easily available for inspection. A copy of this must be submitted with any request to be listed if guide service carries passengers.

All Saltwater Charter Boats are required by state law to have a Louisiana Charter Boat License conspicuously posted in addition to the applicable U.S. Coast Guard license(s). Any questions on captain's licenses should be directed to the nearest U.S. Coast Guard office.

Anyone interested in obtaining a copy of a guide list should contact Andrew Vaughan at 504/765-2618, or write Department of Wildlife and Fisheries, P.O. Box 98000, Baton Rouge, La. 70898-9000.

Global Position System ideal for sports persons

Every outdoor enthusiast would love to have a gadget in his or her pocket that can tell you where you are, where you started from, how to get from one favorite spot to another and, equally important, how to get back to the starting point. A gadget that will do all this at the mere push of a button and a quick glance. Such a gadget is now readily available but is worthless unless you learn how to use it properly.

Hunters, anglers, hikers, birdwatchers and recreational boaters are flocking to the latest technology to easily ensure that they can enjoy outdoor adventures without becoming "temporarily disoriented," also known as "lost". That technology hiding behind the acronym, "GPS", or Global Positioning System.

It's not really a new system. More than 20 years in the making, the Global Position System was developed by the military for precise positioning and navigation guidance, free of the errors, weather interference and various problems or previous systems. The system works on a network of 24 satellites orbiting about 11,000 miles above the earth and carefully positioned so that at least four satellites are in direct "line of sight" at any point on the globe and any time.

A simple electronic triangulation of signals received by the GPS receivers provides an accurate position fix. The devices, which are available to be mounted in a boat or other vehicle or as a completely portable, hand-held device the size of a cell phone, can also provide distance covered, distance to go to a particular location and other valuable information.

Retail prices have dropped steadily and now GPS units promise to be a popular item for Christmas gifts. A few tips: Choose a unit using replaceable batteries and choose a unit containing five or more parallel channels in the receiver. These are more accurate than units using a single channel receiver. Read the instruction book and practice with the unit until you are completely familiar with it. Finally, be sure you carry and know how to use a map and compass as a fail safe backup. If batteries go dead or you drop your unit on a hard surface, you will need that map and compass.

The I&E Division of the Department of Wildlife and Fisheries will present a GPS Familiarization Course for those who receive GPS units for Christmas and for those who already have the units but are not fully familiar with them. The course will be taught by Information Manager Maurice Cockerham from 9 a.m. until noon at the Department's headquarters at 2000 Quail Drive, Baton Rouge, on Sat., Jan. 10. Pre-registration is requested but not necessary. Please call 504/765/2925. For additional information, contact Maurice Cockerham at 504-765-2917, or at cockerham_mm@wlf.state.la.us.

Roosevelt made hunt at Grand Chenier in 1920

(EDITOR'S NOTE--77 years ago this month, December, 1920, Franklin Roosevelt, who was later to become one of our greatest presidents, made a hunting trip to Grand Chenier. The following two articles reprinted from the Cameron Pilot tell the story.)

(Cameron Pilot, Dec. 11, 1970)
(From Beaumont Enterprise)
By DON STREATER

Jennings -- Franklin Roosevelt, candidate for vice president of the United States on the Democratic ticket, and G. H. Roosevelt, formerly an aviator at Gertsner Field in Lake Charles, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Conover of Lake Charles and are completing a delightful and successful hunting trip at Grand Chenier and the Illinois plantation . . .

Franklin proved to be a good sprinter and out-winded all of the party on the long hunting jaunts for various kinds of duck, geese and quail . . . From The Enterprise, Dec. 7, 1920.

I am proud that the man who was later to become president had a good hunt down here in the Louisiana marshes.

FDR had just finished taking a beating in the national elections--he was Cox' running mate--when he made the trip South.

On the hunt were the Roosevelts, Mr. and Mrs. Conover and their daughter, Elizabeth; James W. Gardner and Walter Goos of Lake Charles, John McHugh of Jennings, W. S. Holmes of New Orleans, and John Carnac of Grand Chenier.

The night before the hunt was to begin, word came that a 14-year-old boy, Elmer Olga of Grand Chenier, was lost in the marshes, and the hunters spent the dark hours searching for the boys. He was found about 3 a.m. by the two Roosevelts and Carnac.

I would like to believe that Elmer Olga was Roosevelt's most loyal supporter when FDR ran for president in 1932. And 1936. And 1940. And even 1944.

(Cameron Pilot, Dec. 18, 1970)

Last week the Pilot reported a "50 Years Ago" column from the Beaumont Enterprise telling about Franklin Roosevelt's hunting trip to Grand Chenier in December, 1920.

The article related how Roosevelt and those in his party found a 14-year-old boy, Elmer Ogle of Grand Chenier, who had gotten lost in the marsh.

Mrs. Jim Bonsall of Grand Chenier, has sent some more information on FDR's visit.

She said Olge was Mr. Bonsall's step-brother and that he had taken Mr. Bonsall's gun without permission and was hunting when he became lost.

The Roosevelts hunted on Mr. Bonsall's lease and FDR drank coffee at the Bonsall home.

Mrs. Bonsall sent the Pilot a photostat of a letter FDR had written Mr. Bonsall on dec. 27, 1938--18 years later. Mr. Roosevelt, who had by that time become president, wrote:

"Senator Ellender has written me of his visit to Cameron Parish and of meeting you. I shall always remember those wonderful days we hunted ducks together.

"I suppose Elmer Ogle is grown up and has family by now.

"If you ever come to Washington I hope you will come in to see me."

Mr. Bonsall's friendship with the president may have been of aid in securing Cameron's courthouse, which was built with WPA assistance. When the courthouse was being sought, Mr. Bonsall wrote the president and asked for his assistance in getting it for Cameron.

Excursion to Gulf told in 1890 newspaper account

(Lake Charles American Dec. 27, 1890)
EXCURSION TO THE GULF

The excursion given by the Methodist Episcopal Church of Jennings left our wharf last Wednesday morning about nine o'clock, aboard the steamer Edna. Captain J. T. Cline was in command of the boat.

A total of 37 excursionists were on board. The weather was fine and the Edna in good trim and well officered for the trip. With few exceptions, the entire party was on their first trip to the Gulf of Mexico.

The trip down the Calcasieu River was quite an enjoyable one to all the party. As the boat left our own lake, the passengers attention was first attracted by the immense cypress trees completely covered with the long hanging gray moss; next through Prien Lake, the hum of a sawmill, the beautiful residences of Messrs. J. Broussard, O. F. Lyons, A. West, Wm. Vincent Capt. Johnson and others, a beautiful church away in the distance with its spire pointing toward Heaven, the beautiful prairie land in every direction and not "the cattle of a thousand hills," but the plains of thousands of cattle. The grazing herds were numerous, the stock all fat and looked as if they would not thank their masters for one morsel of food from his barn.

On and on we wound our way, making but a short stop at Calcasieu post office, twenty miles from Lake Charles. The next scene of special interest was when our trusty boat ran out into Calcasieu Lake. One who has not been told, would scarcely think from looking on the map, that this lake contained such grand proportions, it is eighteen miles long and about seven miles wide. One can easily imagine when out in the centre of it that it is a little sea in itself.

Leaving the lake and getting back into the channel of the river, flying game became so numerous that the sportsmen with their shotguns and Winchester rifles and amused themselves and others by shooting at the ducks, geese, brant, etc., and missing them. The porpoise, a large sea animal, a species of the whale, also served as a target, as we neared the gulf.

About sunset, we arrived at Leesburg wharf, a "little village by the sea," the parish seat of Cameron Parish. Here we cast anchor till the morning light was breaking. The shrill whistle of the Edna brought all the party down from the hotel, a cry of "all aboard!" and we were soon our way to the beach, one and a half miles away, to see the Sun rise out of the sea.

Our boat landed on a point at the mouth of the river and all went ashore, pausing awhile, and in silence gazed out upon the boundless waters and then went strolling on the beach, "picking up shells on the sea shore." Thus all amused themselves for about two hours, when they again were called back by the whistle. We all returned to Leesburg.

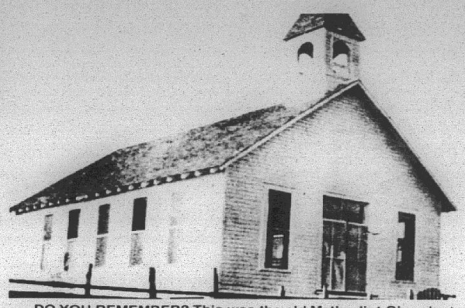
Some of the party, because of "business before pleasure" returned on Thursday to Lake Charles on the return trip of the boat, while a goodly number remained until Saturday. This scribe stayed over and joined others looking around the country, fishing, hunting, gathering oysters off the reefs and catching crabs.

There are several things about Cameron to admire:

1. Good land. The principal products are cotton, corn, cane and rice. The yield is great; over one bale of cotton per acre is the average. The orange groves are beautiful, and produced well this year, but a much larger crop is expected next year. It is a mistake that land cannot be bought on the gulf coast in Cameron Parish. We were offered improved land that would make one bale of cotton per acre on the coast for $10 per acre, on easy terms. The people want settlers to move in among them, and are willing to divide their land with them to get them to do so.

2. Good health. There is but one physician in the parish, and he could not be kept there if it were not by subscriptions. The people give him a compensation to stay there in case of an accident or an emergency.

3. No saloons. Whiskey is not allowed sold on their territory. A great deal has been said pro and con about prohibition, but if it is as effectual elsewhere as it is in Cameron, it would be a grand thing for Calcasieu Parish or any other section of the country. As a sequel to prohibition in Cameron, we learned that there were no mortgages on the homes and farms of the people; that there had been but one or two prisoners in jail for three or four years, and that the cost of the criminal docket of the court was almost equal to nothing. We saw their open, empty jail. Our own parish could learn a lesson from Cameron if it would.



DO YOU REMEMBER? This was the old Methodist Church at Grand Chenier which was built around 1923. It was destroyed by Hurricane Audrey in 1957.

JUST YESTERDAY

Remember when cattle were fenced off highway

(Cameron Pilot, Dec. 24, 1964)
HACKBERRY FENCES

A number of miles of fencing are now under construction along the two main state highways in the Hackberry area as cattlemen there prepare for a stock law ordinance which will go into effect on May 30, 1965.

The fencing is being built on both sides of the main highway south from Hackberry to the Sabine Refuge. Cattleguards are being built on several side roads which enter the highway.

Hackberry cattlemen earlier this year agreed to erect the fences and sponsor the passage of a stock ordinance by the policy jury if the voters of Ward 6 would vote down a stricter stock law which had been called.

The new ordinance and the new fences are expected to get the cattle off of the main state highways and the downtown Hackberry area.

PARKER SIGNS WITH TULANE

Earnie Parker, 200-pound, 6-foot-1 Hackberry High School all-around athlete, has signed for a football scholarship with Tulane University, it was announced this week by John DeBarge, Hackberry principal.

Parker was one of the outstanding area high school football players this year. He ran for 630 yards in seven games, passed for an additional 280 and averaged 40 yards per punt. He averaged eight tackles per game.

The Hackberry senior was named to the All-District 5-B team and made the third team for All-Southwest Louisiana, Class B.

He is a five-year letterman, having garnered his first letter in the eighth grade. He also has been a standout performer in basketball and track. Parker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sanner.

SCHOOL BUS DRIVERS MEET

A special guest was Rep. Conway LeBleu of Cameron.

Parish officers for the Association were elected. Ray Nunez of Grand Chenier was elected president; Ovia Duhon, Hackberry, vice president; Mrs. Annie Marie Demory, Grand Lake, secretary.

THIS WEEK
(By Jerry Wise)

Although there has been no official announcement as yet, we understand that work will start shortly on the new Continental Oil Co. plant at Grand Chenier.

The company has leased the site from Curley Vincent and a large deep water well is being drilled. Actual construction will start in a few weeks.

Another story which is very much common knowledge around the parish, but of which there has been no formal announcement yet, are two new proposed banks--one for the town of Cameron and one for Creole. We hope to have announcements on one or both in the near future.

Educators of bygone days told

(By Archie Hollister)

The more progressive people of a century ago realized the desirability and value of an education as much as we do today, and within their means they attempted to provide it for their children. A public school system, such as we know, was almost unheard of in Louisiana in that day. The nucleus was present though, and such a system had begun to take form, however primitive and nebulous it might have been, in the period just prior to the Civil War. That conflict, however, and the Reconstruction period, disorganized the social and economic life of the country so much that a public school system worthy of the name did not emerge until the close of the nineteenth century.

What little attempts at schooling which existed in the rural areas were to a large extent privately financed.

At Grand Chenier, John Wetherill, who had come from Pennsylvania by way of Indiana and Texas, taught a number of years. It is possible, even likely, that he had a college education, for an old family tradition holds that he was a member of a wealthy family.

Leopold Mudd from Maryland, Thomas Carr from Massachusetts, John Lindsey from Virginia, Pierre Lenoir from France, Edmond Poe from Mississippi, George Thomas of Missouri, whose parents were from Prussia, Henry Michon from France--he has descendants living in Southwest Louisiana today--these were some of the early teachers. No doubt there were others.

The mint family of plants includes more than 3,000 kinds of mint, including sage, thyme, rosemary, lavender and basil.

New book gives complete championship results

A new book has recently been published by Louisiana native, Eddie Jenkins. He has titled the book "Louisiana High School Football Championships The Complete Reference Book 1921-1996". According to Jenkins, the book is "the first and only reference book published about every Louisiana high school and coach who has participated in a LHSAA sanctioned championship game.

The 200 page book contains dozens of lists and will serve as a reference to every Louisiana championship game since 1921. These lists rank schools and coaches in many different categories such as Most Wins, Most Appearances, Most Consecutive Wins, and many other categories. The books also contains lists which compare Louisiana's towns, parishes and regions and show which area of the state has participated in the most championship games and which area has won the most championship games.

Complete game scores from every game are included and are sorted by year and by school. The book has two indexes, one for schools and one for coaches, to assist the reader in locating information quickly and easily.

The book may be purchased by mail order from: 14-0 Publications, P. O. Box 7401, Shreveport, La. 71137. The cost of the book is $14 plus $3 shipping and handling.
