Bill OKed to merge 2 districts

By JIM BEAM

The Louisiana House has given final legislative approval to a Senate bill affecting Cameron Parish.

The House voted 105-0 for a bill by Sen. Jerry Theunissen, R-Jennings, that merges Cameron parish Waterworks District 1 and Cameron Parish Sewerage District 1. The senate earlier gave the merger its unanimous approval.

Both existing boards serve the same residents. The new board will become the Cameron Parish Water and Wastewater Board for District 1.

Theunissen said existing taxes levied by the two boards will be eliminated and replaced with a smaller tax. He said savings realized by merger of the two boards will result in lower costs of maintenance and operation.

H'berry Ramblers to be honored

(Southwest Daily News)

For nearly seven decades, the Hackberry Ramblers have played a toe-tapping blend of Cajun music and western swing, with a dash of Gulf Coast "swamp pop," classic country, rock 'n' roll, and rhythm and blues.

In recent years the band has performed all over America and this summer the band will debut in Europe. But hometown appearances in Lake Charles are rare. So don't miss the Hackberry Ramblers Friday, April 12, at McNeese State University.

The Grammy-nominated band will perform at 7:30 p.m. in Bulber Auditorium, not Parra Ballroom as originally scheduled, as part of the 2002 McNeese Banners Series. Tickets are $7 for adults, $3 for students and free to MSU students and are available at the McNeese Bookstore, McNeese Connection and at the door.

Then at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 13, the Hackberry Ramblers will be back at McNeese for a free "sneak preview" screening of "Make 'Em Dance!" in Parra Ballroom. Directed by documentary filmmaker John Whitehead of Saint Paul, Minn., "Make 'Em Dance!" covers the Hackberry Ramblers' long, distinguished and still on-going career.

Whitehead will attend the screening and discuss the film. He'll stay in town a few days to do more filming on the project, which is a work-in-progress.

He has already filmed the Ramblers in and around Lake Charles, as well as at the Grand Ole Opry, the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival, the House of Blues and the Liberty Theater in Eunice. (Incidentally, Whitehead is seeking old photos and/or home movies of the Hackberry Ramblers for use in "Make 'Em Dance!" Readers who know of such material are asked to call 477-0655 or 598-2338, in Lake Charles.)

One of the most powerful scenes in "Make 'Em Dance!" was shot in Hackberry when Luderin Darbone and Edwin Duhon, the band's co-founders, visited the very spot where they formed the band back in 1933. In those early days, the Hackberry Ramblers were an all-acoustic string band. Darbone played fiddle while Duhon played guitar.

Darbone and Duhon have used different instruments and employed many musicians since then. Some of the notable members from years past include Floyd Rainwater, Lonnie Rainwater, Joe Werner, Crawford Vincent, Lennis Sonnier and Grover Heard, among others.

Besides filling dance floors, Darbone and Duhon brought two important innovations to south Louisiana music. They were the first to blend Cajun music, sung in French, with Anglo-American country songs sung in English.

Before the Hackberry Ramblers came along, the two musical traditions were completely separate.

The Hackberry Ramblers were also the first band to introduce electronic amplification to local dance halls. Many of these rural places had no electricity, so Darbone powered his Sears-Roebuck "public address system" from the idling engine of his car.

Dear Editor,
I would like to say thank you to many people who helped me to complete my Eagle Scout Project including the Cameron Parish Council on Aging for giving me information on the senior citizens who live in the East Creole area, the senior citizens that allowed me into their homes and supported me in my efforts to complete my project.

Thanks to everyone who sent me money to purchase the smoke alarms and my fellow Boy Scouts, my parents, and my scoutmaster for helping me plan and especially carry out my project.

Finally, I would like to thank the Cameron Pilot for their interest in my project and continuous support by publishing articles. Without the help of all of these people, my Eagle Scout Project may never have become a reality.

In Loving Memory
KENNETH ARMENTOR
April 14, 2001

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same, but as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Michel Miller's descendents still around

By MURPHY MILLER

What do Ella Mae Miller, better known as "T. Mae" of Booth's Grocery, Martha L. Mhire and Warner Dua Miller have in common? Michel Miller. He is buried on Cow Island, Circle Cemetery. Michel Miller is the 2nd great-grandfather of T. Mae and the 3rd great-grandfather of Martha L. Mhire and Warner Dua Miller.

Michel and wife Hiacinthe LeJeune's first child, born in 1830, was Michel, Jr. He married Mary Elena Broussard in 1849. Michel Miller died in 1864 on Bayou Bouef on his way home to Grand Chenier after serving in the Civil War. Martha Leonor Mhire is a descendent of this family through the marriage of Michel, Jr. and Mary Elena's daughter Uranie Miller.

Uranie married John Thomas Bonsall. Mary Alice Bonsall was the sixth child of Uranie and John T. Bonsall. She married Apollinaire Mhire. Son Horace Pervis Mhire and Rosa Thibodeaux are Martha's parents. Martha married George Homer Miller while a student at USL Lafayette in 1945. George H. Miller is a Pennsylvania Miller and not part of the Louisiana Miller families. George died in 1998. Martha still lives in Pottstown surrounded by some of her children and grandchildren. She has many family members in Cameron parish and visits periodically.

Horace P. Mhire, Martha's father, was one of four descendants born in the house built by Michel "Micheau" Miller, Jr. An active leader in the community, he was a farmer, a cattleman, a carpenter and contractor. He contracted and built the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Creole, La. He served in the U. S. Coast Guard Patrol during World War II, in the Cameron area.

Mr. Mhire was elected to the Police Jury, Ward One, in 1940 and remained in office for 32 years, retiring as the Dean of all his predecessors. In 1972, he was cited as a devoted Public Official and a tireless worker for a better Cameron Parish. He was a leader in the proposal to create the Hug, the Coast Highway system in Cameron Parish. It was through Mr. Mhire's leadership and foresight that Louisiana Highway 82 from Grand Chenier to Pecan Island became a reality and part of the State Highway system crossing some of the worst marshland on the Louisiana Gulf Coast.

In 1966, Mr. Mhire co-authored the 1.5 million dollar blacktopping (asphalt surfacing) program in the parish, with an ultimate goal of blacktopping every shell and gravel road in the parish. He also co-authored legislation to pass a hospital tax. The tax provided the revenue for the construction of the hospital in Lower Cameron Parish.

He also led a fight to have a tax millage approved for construction of a Parish Library, which he worked to have built. Horace Mhire was also instrumental in the passage of A Health Unit Parish Tax. He was a strong backer of the Mosquito Control program and a guardian for improved hunting and fishing in the parish.

were Natalie Prect, 1-2, solo homerun; Sarah Brister, 2-3 with a RBI; Shelly Granger, 1-3 with 2 RBIs and 2 runs; and Sammis, 1-3 with a RBI and a run.

Andeol Miller and Sidalise Miller home

The first child of John T. Bonsall and Uranie Miller is Odelia Bonsall. She married Joseph Thozine Miller. They are half-second cousins once removed. Odelia and Joseph Thozine Miller are the grandparents of Warner Dua Miller, a retired LA Highway Police Officer. His parents are Dua Joseph Miller and Melanie Portie. Warner and his wife, Julie, live in Port Arthur.

Joseph Thozine Miller's parents are Andeol Miller and Sidalise Miller. Sidalise Miller's ancestry is not known. Andeol's parents and grandparents are Jean Baptiste Miller and wife Celistine Roy and Jean Miller and his wife Marie Magdelaine Boutin, respectively. Andeol is a Civil War veteran and served in Company G of the La. Heavy Artillery.

Ella Mae Miller, known as T. Mae, owner of Booth's Grocery, is a descendant of Michel, Jr.'s brother, Drosin, born in 1848. Drosin married Ellen Trahan and their second child, Clementine Miller, married Celestin Miller, a 2nd cousin and descendant of Francois Xavier Miller, son of Jean Miller and Marie Francois Mayer. Clementine and Celestin are T. Mae's grandparents.

Her parents are Drozan Joseph Miller and Clodia Boudoin. In his early career Drozan went to Pecan Island by boat to sell appliances. He later opened Gas Appliance Store on Ryan Street in Lake Charles. Today his son, Lee, is still running the retail business.

But who are Michel Miller and his wife Hiacinthe LeJeune? Michel Miller is the eighth child of eleven born to Jean Miller and Marie Francoise Mayer. Jean is the seventh child of

Horace Mhire and Drozan Miller

Jacob Miller and Anne Marie Thegin. Michel was born in 1807. He married Hiacinthe LeJeune in 1828. They had nine children. Hiacinthe's family roots go back to Pierre LeJeune and Marie Thibodeaux, the same family roots as Jean Miller's 2nd wife, Marie M. Boutin.

Hiacinthe LeJeune was the seventh child of Blaise LeJeune, Jr. and Anne Adelaide Quintero. The LeJeune's were one of the families required to leave Acadia beginning September 5, 1755. The British Crown began a cruel systematic program of deportation of Acadian ancestors from their homes in Nova Scotia, the former colony of Acadia. The exile became known as "Le Grand Derangement."

DOGFIGHTS TO BEGIN

The annual "Dogfights" held each year in different parts of Southwest Louisiana are soon to begin.

There were great dogfights held at Lacassine National Refuge for a number of years, but due to the drought, Lacassine Pool has been closed to fishing, although it is to reopen this year, it's "Catch & Release" only, with no tournaments. It will take a few years to get the pool back like it was, with over 11 pounders caught, but if it can get back like it was, lets hope there's some restrictions on sizes, limits and the number of big bass that can be taken.

The dogfights at the Gibbstown Bridge will begin on Monday night, April 22. Starting time will be 5:30 p.m., and weigh-in will be at "Dark Thirty," meaning the anglers will decide what time to be in line for the weigh-in, announced before each kick-off at 5:30 p.m.

The fishing areas will be the Intracoastal System, to include the outside-of-pool areas of Lacassine Refuge, including the Bell City Drainage Ditch, Lake Misere etc.

Entry fees will be team on singles, $30 for stringers, $10 for Big Bass (optional), $2 for choupique, optional. If you're fishing it all, it's $42 total, team or singles.

Anglers will weigh-in 3 live bass minimum length of 11 inches, however if a bass is dead for weigh-in, a 2 pound penalty per bass will be taken off the anglers total weight.

George Melancon will be weigh-master and judge. Get yourself ready, as this is a well wanted event in the area.

LEMESCHE BASS CLUB

The Lemesche Bass Club held their second tournament of the season last Sunday. Fishing out of Amoco, fishing was tough. Southeast winds were blowing 25 to 30 miles per hour, lots of muddy waters, but still a good tournament for those who found fish, but not so good for those of us who didn't find fish.

The largest team stringers were: 1st. Ricky Canik, fishing by himself, 5 bass weighing in at 7.85; 2nd Carl Broussard and Todd Morales, 5 bass, 7.50; 3rd. Todd Conner and Rod Richard, 5 bass, 6.60; 4th Rudy McEvers and Richard Duhon, 5 bass, 5.75; 5th Darren Richard and Tom Hess, 5 bass, 5.25; 6th George Melancon and Tony Conner, 5 bass, 5.10; 7th Loston McEvers and Jeb Linscombe, 2 bass, 2.75 and 8th Cory Broussard and Johnny LeDeoux, 2 bass, 2.60.

The largest bass went to: 1st. Todd Conner and Rod Richard, 2.20. 2nd. Carl Broussard and Todd Morales, 2.15. 3rd. Ricky Canik, 2.10. 4th. Rudy McEvers and Richard Duhon, 1.85. 5th. Cory Broussard and Johnny LeDeoux, 1.70. 6th. (tie) Darren Richard and Tom Hess, George Melancon and Tony Conner, 1.50. 7th. Loston McEvers and Jeb Linscombe.

Tom Hess had the largest choupique weighing 6.05 pounds.

The next tournament will be May 26, draw parties out of the Big Burns.

Supplement may be Oked

The Louisiana Senate adopted an amendment authored by Sen. Hines (D-Avoelles) that will provide a onetime supplement for Education Support Professionals of approximately $500.

In original form House Bill 132 provided $65 million for State Employee Group Benefits and another $65 million to the new LSU Hospital System. But with Hines' amendment, $18 million of the money for the hospital system will be set aside for an ESP salary supplement.

"Education support professionals deserve this supplement and LAE is urging the members of the House of Representatives to vote for concurrence on this bill," said LAE President Carol Davis. "ESPs are the people who support our teachers, keep up the school buildings and transport our children to and from their schools."

The dialysis unit is still in process. The water filtration system should be in by the first week of April. The dialysis machines are in and the room is almost completed. When the water filtration unit comes the hospital will contact an architect and engineer to come in and draw up plans to be submitted for certification.

Mr. Morris will meet with the new unit tech the first week of March. Also will have a 1 week training class on units starting April 15th.

The only problem the project faces is the hiring of a unit RN. No one has answered the earlier advertisement ran in local paper. Will probably have to go to a rotating system with another unit in the area and also help train our RN's.

If an interested party is found the following package would have to be offered:

$27.00 to $30.00 Per/HR
Offer Sign on Bonus
Relocation Fee
June 8th a Health Fair will be held at Hospital.

Seacor Marine wants clinic to provide stress tests for their employees.

John Bridges with KPLC Television has offered some free publicity for the hospital.

Mr. Morris and staff have looked at a list of businesses in the local area. They will probably make calls on the business and ask about their needs and offer services to them.

Also, Mr. Morris wants to run another advertisement in the local paper to make the public aware of services offered by the hospital and clinic.

Reported that Dr. Hollin was doing great and worked well with Ms. Linda at the clinic. Also admissions were up; no problems and that they were working on paying off the old debts.

There being no further business, Mr. Montie made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Mr. Dupont.
