DEDICATION . . .

To the parents who have toiled diligently with us to help us reach our goal of graduation . . . who have helped us in our ups and downs and given us confidence when our spirits were low.

We, the Hornet staff, are proud to present our edition of the "Hornet" to the parents of the senior class.

Thanks, Mom and Dad, thanks for everything.

WHAT ROLE IN LIFE'S DRAMA?

Each student is playing a role in the drama of life. Each of you today is playing the role of the student. Some have played their part and they are leaving our midst to face life's drama.

To these who are leaving, and those who remain, it is our hope that you in your role do not play the part of a complainer, a griper, or the part of a clown; but most of you I hope - play the part of one who cares, who is interested in life and loves his fellow man.

To the 1965 graduating class, we hope that you get the best from life by putting the best into life.

ALVIN HOFFPAUIR
PRINCIPAL

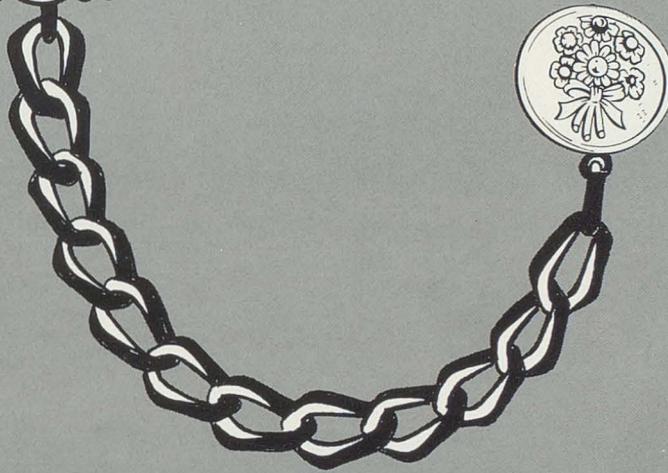

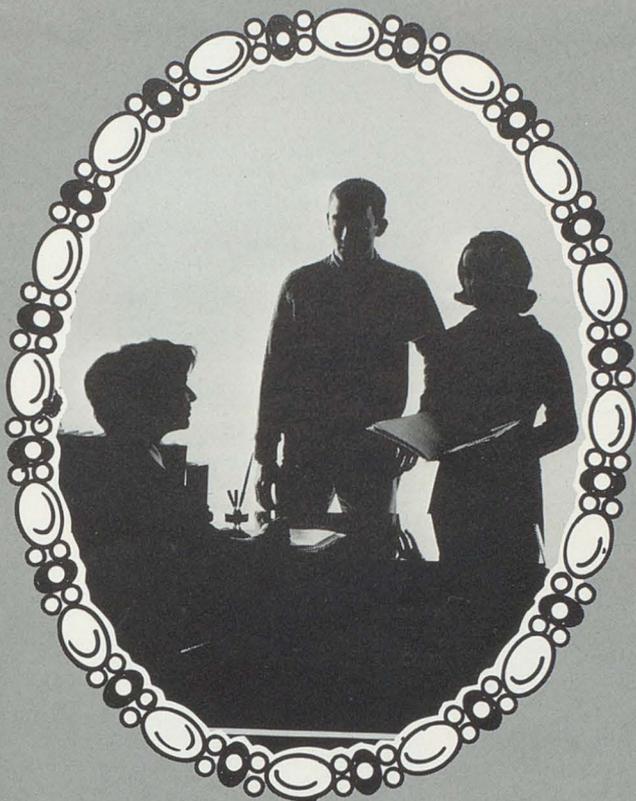

Preparing this yearbook has been a challenge to all of us on the "Hornet" staff.

It has required the time and patience of our sponsor, the teachers, staff, and the students. We wish to thank everyone who has contributed to our cause through advertisements. We also wish to thank anyone else who has helped us.

We've tried to capture as many of the school activities as possible. As you look back on your school activities, we sincerely hope that this yearbook will bring fond memories.

I'm not going to throw it up
Mr. Vincent, honest!

He'll laugh when he finds out what I put in his coffee.

I tell you I'm not playing with Paulette's feet.

Oh! Mr. Wells...uh...we were just coming to class

What! a rat in the stew!

Oh no! Not some more students

Too bad they're not real weights.

They all posed just for a free lollipop.

Is six and three two?

No Frank!! It's a rotten Ostrich egg, not a ball.

Tee Hee, There's the cutest spider over here.

His crowning glory.
