Dear Mr. JB., Ms. Linda Sus, and Mrs. Loretta,

We just wanted to keep you informed of our progress and triumphs. Although the storm really upset our season, we are landing on our feet. Our teams are just as successful as before, and we wish you could watch us perform in our new gym.

We miss seeing and "hearing" you guys at our events, but we know ya'll are cheering us on from heaven.

The Lady

Sayonara, Seniors!

Coach Michalko in action!

05-06 First String

Not only must we say goodbye to our seniors, it's farewell to Coach Michalko. We'll miss you!

05-06 Lady Mustangs

What a year! The Lady Mustangs made the most of a wild year having to deal with Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. With both gym floors destroyed, the ladies drove to practice everyday. Although we had a late start because of the storm, the Lady Mustangs improved as the year progressed.

Record 17-13

Wins in the Hackberry Tourney and an exciting finish and win in the Parish Tourney (the Lady Mustangs' 10th in a row) were just some of the highlights. The ladies finished a strong second in district then suffered a first-round loss to state runners-up, Atlanta. A quick end to a strange year.

Thanks to the leadership of my seniors, Mandy Michalko, Sarah White, Jena Sanner, and Amanda Miller, the ladies never gave up.

This being my last year at Hackberry High School, I would like to thank all the people that have helped me and supported the ladies. I've have some great times, great friends, and great memories.

Thanks to all my players that have given so much of themselves to keep the Lady Mustangs a class act.

Love, Coach Michalko

There you are in your cap and tassel
Ready to make the world your castle.
It seems just yesterday you were a kid
Watching everything we did.
Now we're watching you graduate—
The grown man we helped create.
We couldn't be prouder, Steven, of you!
We wish you success in all you do.
Remember one thing we want you to know,
Our love is with you wherever you go.

Sugar & spice and everything nice...
It wasn't long ago you were a shy blue-eyed blonde with cute wire framed glasses...
Now you are a grown-up lady all finished with high school classes!

Able to scale a brick wall
with just fingers and toes...
Must have come handy on top of the bridge for that pose!
Brains, beauty, and bravery
have become your new tools...
from Salutatorian to McNeese
you've played by the rules!
Morgan Rae, we are so very proud of you...
and may your future find that all of your dreams come true!

In the fall of 86, there were hopes & dreams of producing a NBA star like Larry Bird. Fall of 87, three little birds were born, not quite a Larry Bird but stars none the less. Though we have no NBA star, we are just as proud of our birds.

*Congratulation and Best Wishes in your future.
Love your families*

JAY

CONGRATULATIONS, JAYBIRD

Today is a very wonderful day
For the 5th in line of our great crew.
Again your family wants to say
Just how proud we are of you.

Your life has been such a blessing,
And still is to this very day.
We have always called you Jaybird,
Cause it fits in a special way.

When sports came into the picture,
Once again you made us proud.
Basketball, baseball and track for sure,
Could you hear us yelling in the crowd?

We Love You,

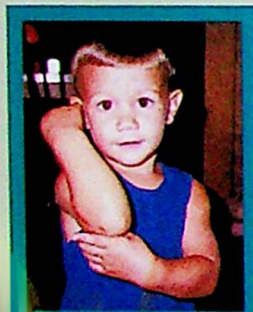

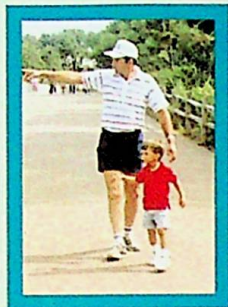

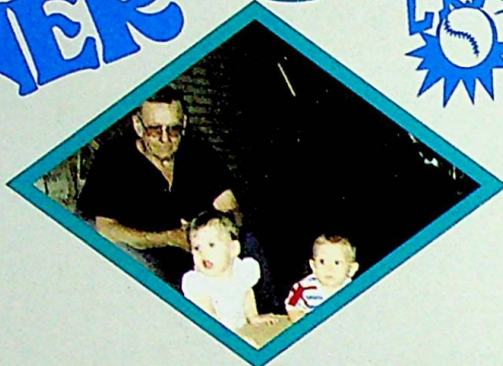

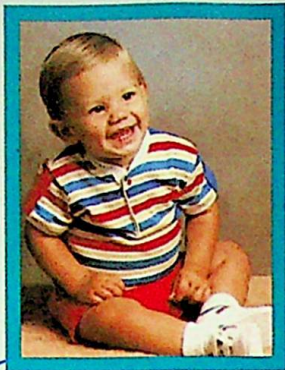

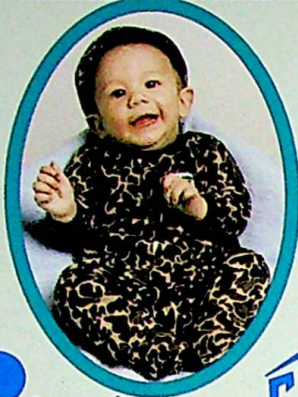

Papa & Granny
Mona & Terry, Cindy & Kent
And all of the rest of the crew

SANNER

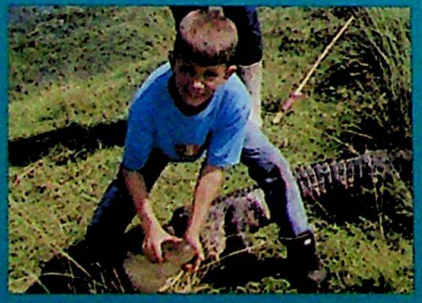

JAYMES "JAY" ALDEN SANNER

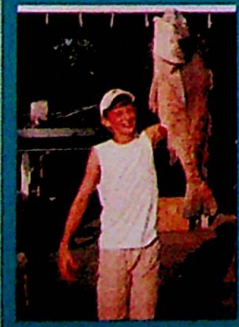

You were named after your two grandfathers;
They loved you so like many others.
First came T-Ball, Basketball, Track, too;
That is where your light really shined through.
There were trophies, medals, all-district honors,
even MVP;
But the state champion hi-jumper was the sweetest to be!

We were there with you every step of the way,
Because we knew the moments wouldn't stay.
You will always remember this year the most;
Things would've been different if "Rita" hadn't hit
the Gulf Coast.

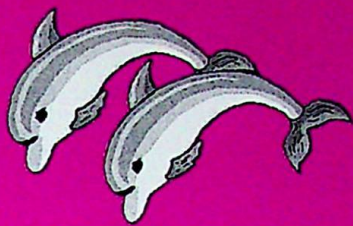

"Rita" left many obstacles in your way;
But you kept your head up anyway.
So proud of you we always are;
You will always be our shining star!

Mom & Dad

GOD'S CHILD

October first in eighty-eight,
would mark a most important date.
Your mom and dad stood up for you,
They asked me if I'd stand there too.
We promised God your infant soul,
Above the rim for you our goal.
We'd hold your hand, show you the door,
Then pray for what we're standing for.

Right from the jump you set your sight
You spent each day to save this night.
Trophies won were not the prize
You saw new chance with each sunrise.
With careful pride you've made your way
The black and white erased the gray.
You've learned from past mistakes you've made
Then stood up tall and passed each grade.

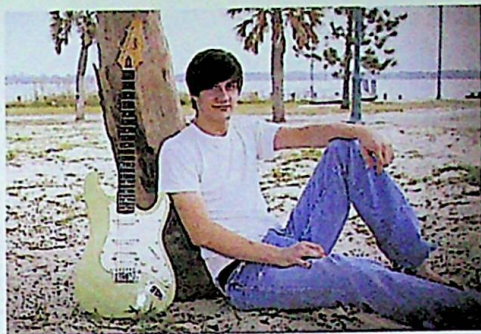

So as you travel on this day
You've practiced for this game you'll play.
Your team will be your memories
The wisdom earned will be your keys.
Keep family, faith and friends with you
And know my love for you is true.
You've learn to lead not chase the crowd
Today's the day we all stand proud.

Senior 2006

Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts
And saying them out loud.

It's a time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And jut before it leaps its
banks,
To let the loved one know.

And so we're very proud of you
For being who you are,
For making something of
yourself,
For making it this far.

We're proud because we are a part
Of everything you do.
This time's the time to say
how much
Love we have for you.
