11 Suggestions For a Better Life

1. Let the child in you LIVE.
2. Learn the pleasure of giving.
3. Don't dwell in regrets.
4. Find an inner peace.
5. Be loyal to friends and family.
6. Don't be afraid to show your feelings and emotions.
7. Find work that has meaning for you.
8. Learn the fine art of forgiveness.
9. Find a safe escape or retreat.
10. Be someone that others can find comfort in.
11. NEVER, I repeat NEVER, lose your sense of humor.

11 Ways to Insure a Life of Trouble, Pain, & Heartache

1. Become obsessed with greed and selfishness.
2. Use alcohol or drugs as an escape or crutch.
3. Try to dominate and control others lives.
4. Never be satisfied with where or who you are.
5. Search for weaknesses and faults in others.
6. Use love or friendship as a weapon.
7. Lose your motivation and excitement for life.
8. Close you mind and become immune to change.
9. Accept the world and its people as unfair and evil.
10. Become obsesses with revenge.
11. Lose your sense of humor.

***** Check this list one or twice a year and evaluate yourself.
Remember the good times.
Listen to that voice deep inside you.
Trust but don't be naive.
Say you're sorry. It's easy.
Don't lose your self-esteem or pride.
Call me if you need a friend.

Forests Are More Than Trees

There are trees in a forest,
Yes, tall and beautiful.

But there is so much more
To those woods so bountiful!

There are animals that stay
In these forests all day.

Like squirrels that scurry
Up the trees in a flurry!

And those birds that sing
It's pure joy they bring!

If I have but one wish,
When the future is here,

I still want birds
For us all to hear,

Animals and trees for us to see
Because forests are so much more than trees.

THANK YOU, FATHER

Thank You for life
in a world of bluegrass lawns,
of maple trees and fragrant pines, life
in a world of sparrows and doves,
a world of mocking birds
and cricket symphonies.

Thank You for life
in a world of people, life
in a world of friends, of families and festivities.

Thank You for life
in a world of challenges,
of golden fields and custom cutters,
of factories and refineries.

Thank You for life
in a world of motion, of sound, of color,
a world of living—and thank You for hope,
hope of life in another world
of living that never ends.

Maybe you already know me by now; I'm your very own exchange student — Suzan. My year in Grand Lake is over today. I just can't believe it. Of course I'm glad to go back to Indonesia, but I'm sad to leave. I feel like a part of your big family, and saying good-bye is very hard.

Everybody in Grand Lake has been very special to me. I want to thank all of you for everything — for your friendliness and for sharing with me. I learned a lot this year. I also want to thank the Dartez family whom I lived with this year. I want to thank my parents, Alan and Meis, for all the support. I want to thank everybody for making my year abroad great. It is impossible to write all of their names down.

For the last time, I'd like to say I'm proud to have gone to Grand Lake. I will miss you a lot, and I love you.

1987-88 OFFICERS

1988-89 OFFICERS

The 1987-88 school year was one of great success for the Grand Lake Chapter of FBLA. The year began with the annual selling of TOM-WAT. We made a total of over $6000. Our top salesperson was Shadd Taylor.

Amy Pool started the year with not only filing her duties of Local President, but also her duties of District IV Vice President. The Grand Lake Chapter was in charge of hosting the District IV FBLA Conference at McNeese in February. Organizing, planning, and preparing for the District Conference took hard, dedicated work from all FBLA members and especially our advisor, Mrs. Bertrand.

Everyone arrived at the conference with positive attitudes and high hopes for a successful conference. It definitely paid off when all of the congratulations came pouring in. We received much praise and recognition for our outstanding accomplishments.

Our FBLA Chapter received excellent ratings from the following: Kem Ogea in Acct. I, Kirk Fruge in Bus. Calculations, Michelle Primeaux, and Amy LeBeouf in Intro. to Business, Anne Wood and Billie Guillory in Office Procedures, and Missy Reon in Bus. Math.

SENIOR MEMBERS:

Rendy D.	Angela L.
Billie G.	Red M.
Bryan J.	Amy P.
Dena L.	Anne W.

FBLA MEMBERS

Our superior ratings were from the following: Casey Vincent in Bus. Math, Larry Broussard in Computer Concepts, Rhonda Verzwylt in Bus. English, Tara Faulk in Public Speaking, and last but definitely not least Derrick Robideaux, Chad Primeaux, and Jason Cheramie in Current Events. Amy Pool MC'd the entire conference and ended with sincere closing remarks which touched everyone.

After a successful day at District, FBLA students continued to prepare for state competition. At the State Conference, we received sixth place in Bus. Math from Casey Vincent.

As the year drew to an end, the chapter held its annual Award's Banquet at Piccadilly where members and officers were rewarded for their many achievements throughout the 1987-88 year.
