With both happiness and sadness we bid farewell to six members of our faculty and staff at the end of the 1995-96 school year. Their combined years of service totals 142 years.

Pictured above, Brenda Bearb, Resource Teacher, retiring with 20 years; Billie Smith, Aide, leaving with 17 years; Leon Duhon, Counselor, retiring with 36 years of teaching and guidance and counseling; Joyce Granger, Lunchroom Technician, retiring with 13 years; and Ardine Thomas, Lunchroom Technician, leaving with 20 years of service. Not pictured: Pearl Leach who retires with 36 years service. Mrs. Leach taught high school math and was assistant principal and principal of Grand Lake High School.

Each of these special people has had a tremendous impact on the lives of the Grand Lake community, faculty, staff, and student body. We fondly wish our retirees all the best, and we hope that each one will be blessed with a long and healthy retirement. Enjoy!!

A WORD FROM THE ADMINISTRATION

The 1995 - 1996 school year at Grand Lake High has proven to be an outstanding one. It has left us with many fond memories of the challenges we have met and conquered. Our school has demonstrated its ability to excel both academically and athletically. We are very proud of our school and our community for the standard we have attained. A special thanks go out to the faculty and staff along with a great student body for another fantastic year.

1995 - 1996 What a memorable year! May the memories of this year at Grand Lake be pleasant ones as you turn through the pages of this book. You have done a remarkable job in preserving a most precious possession — our memories.

STUDENT LIFE

Homecoming Week

During the week of December 4, 1995, our lives here at Grand Lake were altered drastically. Homecoming Week began!! We kicked off our week with our ever-so-famous twin day and for the days following we were decked out to the themes of Hat and Tie Day, Weird Day, Bum Day, and for our pep rally, Spirit Day. Grand Lake was hoppin' with preparations for the weekend festivities. The action began on Friday with our early morning pep rally. We survived the decorating dilemmas that plagued us throughout the day. That evening we all came back, some in formals and tuxes, others in uniforms, for the long-awaited court presentation and basketball games. The court presentation proved to be all that we had hoped for. It was positively spectacular. The moment we had all been waiting for had arrived when Jill Eakin was crowned 1995-96 Homecoming Queen. Then the games began!! As usual the Hornets crushed Hathaway with a final score of 71 to 46. The Lady Hornets put up a good fight, but came up short with a final score of 49 to 55. As Homecoming week ended, we were all somewhat sad to see it go, but the memories we made together during that week will remain a part of us forever.

To achieve all that is possible, we must attempt the impossible.

*To be as much as we can be,
we must dream of being more.*

The ladies of 1996 pose for a quick photo before departing.

Going out in style, Jason Toerner shows off his very stylish cap and gown.

The Last Walk ... Robert Young begins the much anticipated walk toward his hard-earned diploma.

Anxious graduates listen attentively to the "pre-diploma formalities."

Hats off! Graduates celebrate the end of an era with the traditional hat toss.

Wills and Prophecies

We, Josh Johnson and David Landry, will to Cody LeBleu our expertise of catching fish with poles other than snoopy poles.

I, Andrea Berry, will to Ginger Broussard my little but useful left foot.

We, Misty Johnson and Jessica Aguillard, will to Samuel Kinder Bordelon our old spectacular cars and our ability to put them through ditches and hit the back of people.

I, Kate Bergeron, will to Kevin Foreman my great personality.

I, Jeffry Drounette, will to Corey Theriot my calm attitude and great ability to score on the basketball court.

I, Seth Guidry, will to Mitch Vick, my ability to catch anything on fire, and my ability to almost always get along with Ms. Fletcher.

I, Candy Thibodeaux will to Jennifer Boudreaux my rhythm, coordination, my bottle of eye wash, and some shampoo to wash your pig.

We, Candy Thibodeaux and Jessica Aguillard, will to Jennifer Drummond the ability to get along with Mrs. Manuel and not hit her with balls.

I, Jill Eakin, will to Vanessa LaBove, the privilege of staying out past her curfew.

I, Neal Kiswer, will to Danny Kingham, (although he already has it) the overwhelming abundance of fouling out in a basketball game.

I, Chris Granger, will to Missy Cox my ability to make her mom mad and my wonderful, outstanding personality.

We, Cottie Brocato and Betty Sue Guillory, will to Bobby Reeves, our endurance for Ms. Fletcher's class. May you always walk in happy and leave mad. May our love for you guide you in good times and in bad.

I, Katie Stearns, will Kim LeBleu a waffle ice cream cone from Baskin Robbins.

I, Keri Billedeaux, will to Tara Abshire the ability to have mood swings every five minutes.

I, Micah Brister, will to Bobby Hebert my undying love of flannel, my philosophic manner of thinking, my cynicism, and my knowledge in Advanced Math.

I, Peter Demarets, will Laura Cox my ability to slide without breaking a leg.

We, Jason Toerner and Jared Fuselier, will Jared Fowler the ownership papers to Grand Lake High School.

We, Amanda Duhon and Jonette Young, hereby will to Delana Savoy our ability to find something wrong with everything.

I, Kerri Sellers, will to Crystal McBride my awesome ability to communicate with Ms. Fletcher.

I, Shawn Joubert, being of sound mind and body, leave you, Bobby Hebert, the ability of finishing twelve years of school without losing your mind.

I, Brigitte Benoit, will to Jenny LeJeune some of my free time to you, because I have plenty of it to spare.

I, Sarah LaVergne, will to Michelle LeDoux my ability to speak loudly and clearly.

I, Dena Ezell, will to Rhonda Browne my calm, pleasant attitude.

I, Cari Hooper, will to Jessica Zerangue my ability to show up at school everyday.

We, Stacy Templeton and Alyson Briggs, will to Kane Richard our expert shoe tying ability as well as our impeccable intelligence.

I, Jeremy LeBlanc, will to LeAnn Carpenter my arrogance and my ability to drive 75 mph down Gulf Highway.

I, Mikie Granger, will to Blaine Arbour my awesome ability to cake mud on my truck and drive it in the same muddy condition for a while.

I, Missy Cox, predict that in the next ten years all guys will like Keri Billedeaux, and she will not have to work for the rest of her life because she will have all the money she wants.

I, Laura Cox, predict that within the next ten years Mikie Granger will married and become the sole owner of the most productive rice farm in the South.

We, Ginger Broussard and Delana Savoy, predict that Andrea Berry will become a successful accountant but will remain in Grand Lake to give seminars on how to be organized.

I, Vanessa LaBove, predict that Misty Johnson will be engaged to Cody LeBleu until other interests come along.

I, Cody LeBleu, predict that David Landry will be a World Champion Body Builder of the Stick People.

I, Rhonda Brown, predict that Cari Hooper will decide to get married soon after graduation. She will marry a rich lawyer, have three children, and live here in Grand Lake.

I, Corey Theriot, predict that Chris Granger will go away to school, have a great time, but still return to Grand Lake to run the family feed store.

I, Jennifer Drummond, predict that Micah Brister will go crazy and be put into an insane asylum by the age of 25.

I, Jared Fowler, predict that Jason Toerner and Jared Fuselier will stay in Lake Charles forever and become eye doctors. They will help people focus on life's wonderful opportunities and will live long lives and become rich by helping people's vision.

I, Delana Savoy, predict that Stacy Templeton will graduate with honors from Louisiana College, and become a chemical engineer, inventing the first non-flammable hair styling products.

I, Danny Kingham, predict that Neal Kiser will go play basketball for a college, move on to the NBA, and make millions. He will also give me season tickets to all of his games.

I, Rhonda Browne, predict that Alyson Briggs will go to Centenary College, decide she doesn't like mass communications, and return to Grand Lake to become the next Ms. Fletcher.

We, Jennifer Boudreaux and Vanessa LaBove, predict that in 25 years Betty Sue "Marie" Gullory will own her own chain of Wal-Mart stores.

I, Jennifer Boudreaux, predict that Candy Thibodeaux will be happily married to Eric Boone in the next ten years.

We, Jennifer Boudreaux and Delana Savoy, predict that Amanda Duhon will acquire so many speeding tickets that she will be doing community service work until she's 75.

I, Tara Abshire, predict that Jessica Aguillard will miss graduation because she was grounded, but she will return and graduate with the class of '97.

I, Danny Kingham, predict that Josh Johnson will become a successful pro baseball player, retire at the age of 28, and move to Johnson Bayou to coach Boys' baseball.

I, Sam Bordelon, prophesy that Jeff Drounette will seek a degree in early childhood education and will replace his mom as kindergarten teacher.

I, Corey Theriot, predict that Shawn Joubert will complete his education at McNeese and decide to return to work at the feed store as Chris Granger's assistant.

I, Jessica Zerangue, predict that Brigitte Benoit will form a support circle for chronically loud people.

I, Kane Richard, predict that Kerri Sellers will one day open up a nationwide chain of music stores filled with music no one wants to listen to.

I, Michelle LeDoux, predict that Jonette Young will marry 5 years after graduation and will form a support group named "Short People Anonymous."

I, Blaine Arbour, predict that Dena Ezell will be married within the next ten years and will be a room mother for all of her seven children.

I, Kari Precht, predict that Seth Guidry will someday restart the South and run for president of the Confederacy.

I, Crystal McBride, predict that Katie Stearns will marry Russell Nunez after he receives his Ph.D. in college.

I, Kimberly LeBleu, predict that Sarah LaVergne will become owner of the Seven Dollar Store and will marry and have 3 boys.

I, Bobby Reeves, predict that Pete Demarest will start a new car club named "Big Guns."

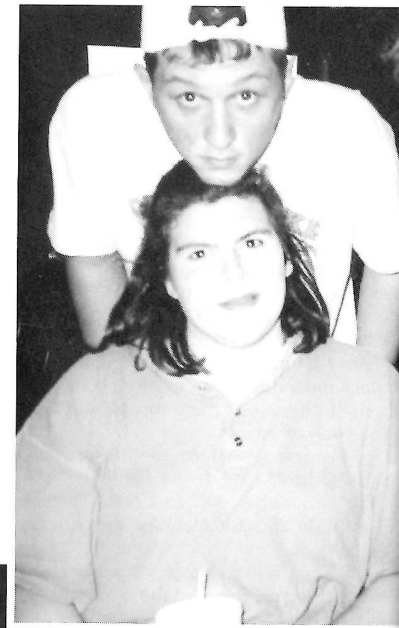

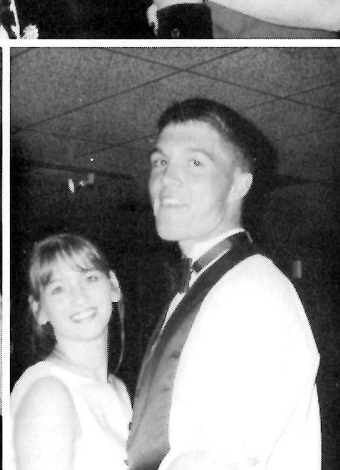

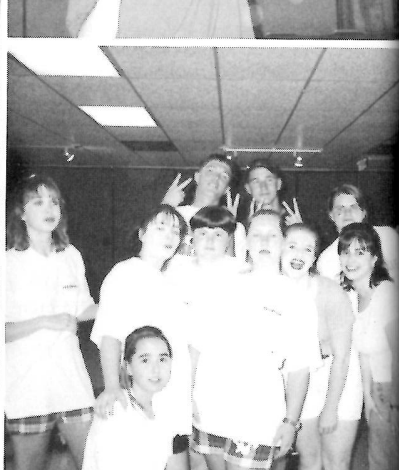

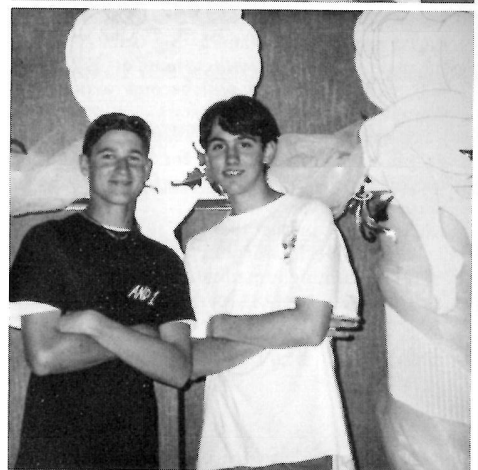

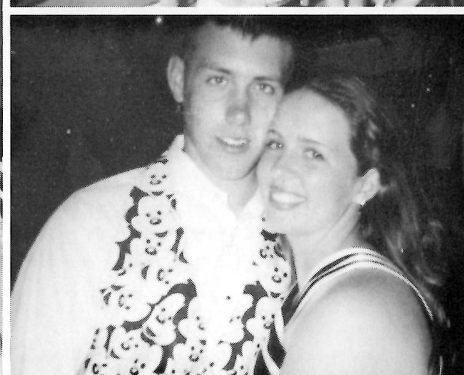

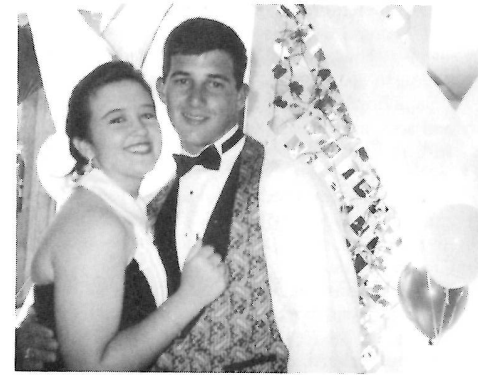

I, LeAnn Carpenter, predict that Cottie Brocato will marry Ryan and will become a rich and famous accountant for the stars.

I, Bobby Hebert, predict that Kate Bergeron will go on to medical school for ten years and become a doctor, having perfect attendance during her college years.

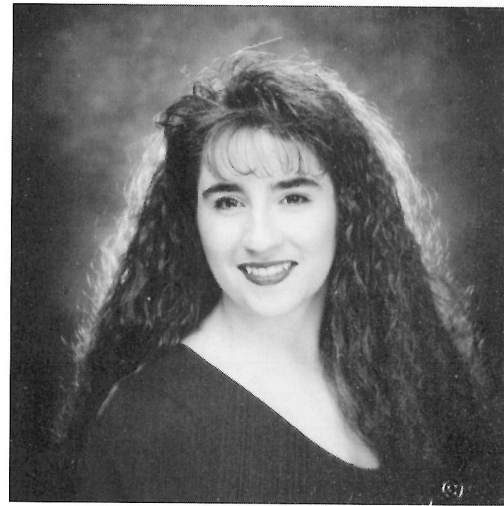

I, Mitch Vick, predict that Jill Eakin will become a private investigator and will have a second career of farming armadillo.

ONE DAZZLING NIGHT

Tuxedos, dresses, and hairdos! Prom night here we come! It all began early Friday morning when we all piled up in the ever so popular school bus to head over to the ever so glamorous Multi-Purpose building. As always, our day began with chaos and goofing off. The clock started ticking and we started working. As the decorations started coming together, the Multi-Purpose building started looking better and better. By two o'clock, we finally accomplished our goal. The decorations were awesome!! We all parted ways until Saturday, the day of our long awaited prom extravaganza. Prom night had finally arrived! Pictures were taken, and dances were danced. Towards the end of the evening, Neal Kiser and Alyson Briggs were named 1995-96 Mr. and Miss Grand Lake. Slowly, our prom night dwindled. Once again, we parted ways, realizing that our prom night had come to an end. The dresses and tuxedos were shed, the hairdos were taken down, and hearts were filled with memories never to be forgotten.

TIME OUT. As younger players look on, Coach Thomas gives varsity starters techniques on how to dominate in their successful play-off game against Centerville.

JUMP BALL. Josh Johnson, senior, sets the tone for the game against Centerville as he wins the opening tip off. Josh has been a varsity starter since his sophomore year of high school.

PLEASE GO IN! Jeremy LeBlanc, senior, waits to see if his lay up attempt will be successful. Jeff Drounette, also a senior, looks up in hope that there will be no need for a rebound.

CHECK IT OUT! Senior, Neal Kiser, doing what he does best. Neal was one of the Hornets' leading scorers throughout the year. Neal enjoyed dazzling the crowd with his crazy shots that always seemed to go in.

WE'RE #1. This captures the feeling of everyone as the Hornet team defeated Pecan Island to claim first place in the Grand Lake Tournament.

IT'S A MATTER OF . . .

PRIDE

The 1995-96 Hornet basketball team had a successful year with the leadership of head coach Mike Thomas and seniors Jeff Drounette, Chris Granger, Neal Kiser, Josh Johnson, and Jeremy LeBlanc.

With solid team play, the Hornets battled to a 22-11 record and were 5-1 in district play. This earned them the title of District 9-B Champions. The varsity team also won Bi-District.

Seniors Neal Kiser and Josh Johnson were named to the All-District 1st team, while junior Danny Kingham made the All-District 2nd team. Jeff Drounette, Chris Granger, and Mitchell Babineaux earned honorable mentions for the All-District Team.

We at Grand Lake hope that next year will bring even more success to our basketball program.

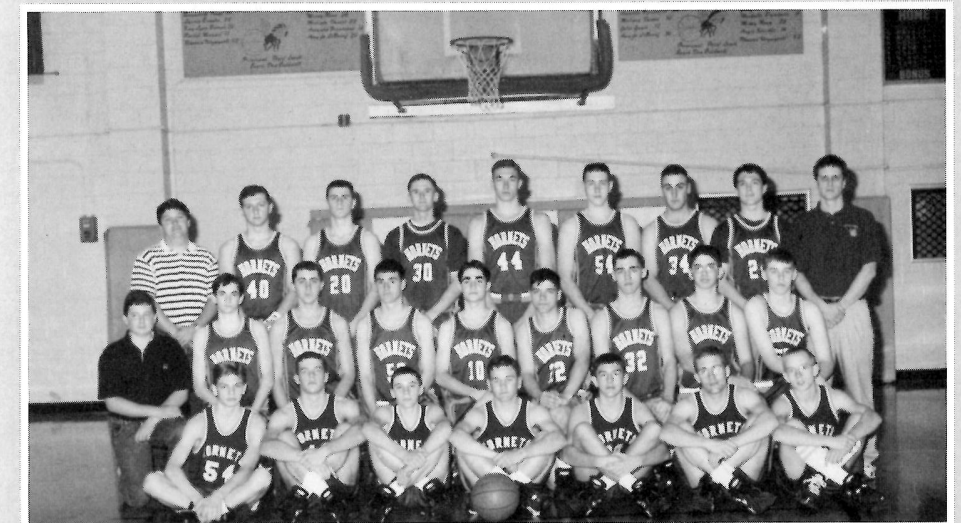

DOING IT RIGHT. After realizing yelling won't work, Coach Thomas begins patiently explaining how he would like plays executed. Fans still get a kick out of seeing Coach Thomas lose his cool.

The Lady Hornets show their aggression as they cause a jump ball.

Lindsay gives a little shove as she spins into rebounding position.

Heather moves into rebounding position as the ball ricochets off of the rim.

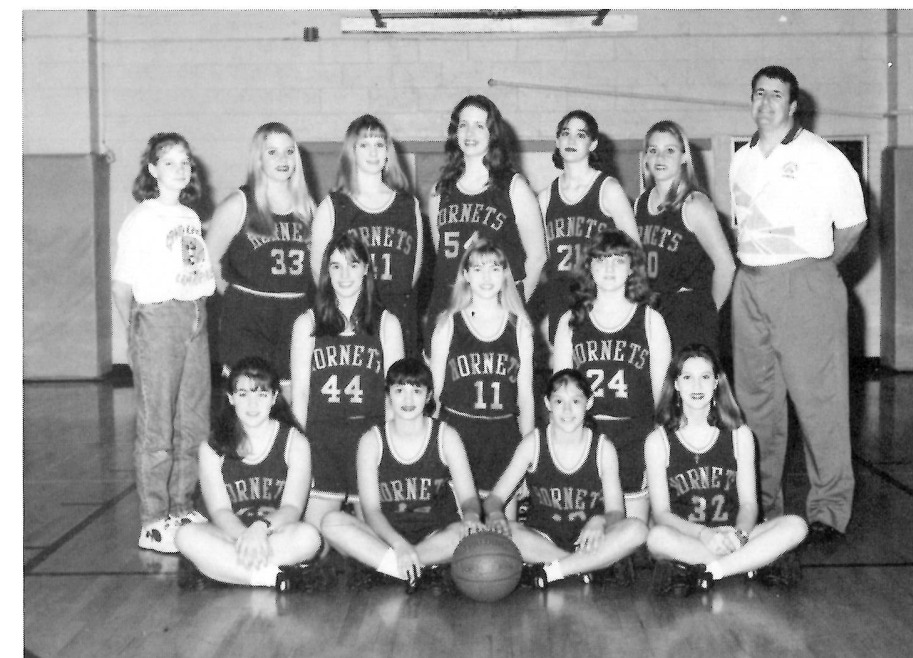

Knowing this is a critical point in the game, the team stares in hopes that the shot will go in.

Missy drives in as Laura sets a successful pick leaving the lane clear.

Laura maneuvers around offense in preparation for a clean steal.

The 1995-96 season began as a challenge to the Lady Hornets and Coach Terry Bergeron. The Lady Hornets displayed dedication to learning the tactics of a new head coach. Their first effort toward teamwork showed when they redecorated the Varsity locker room in mid-June. The Lady Hornets accomplished many goals this year. The season ended with a 10-21 record. They received the consolation trophy in the Hackberry Tournament. They also placed third in district, yet they sustained a loss to Centerville in their first playoff game. Named to the All-District teams were Missy Cox, 1st team; Laura Cox, 2nd team; Lindsay Smythe and Marylyn LeJeune, honorable mention. There is much enthusiasm as the team looks forward to more success.

Josh looks at the catcher hoping for a sign which will help him strike out the batter.

Watch Out! Neal catches the ball before colliding into his teammates.

Come on! With a determined look, Bobby runs past third and into home.

Huddle Up. After winning yet another game, the Hornets come together for a pow wow.

Just in time. Neal reaches first base one stride ahead of the ball.

In the 1995-1996 season, the Grand Lake Hornet Baseball Team established themselves as one of the top teams in the state. With a record of 9-1 in district, and a 15-3 record overall the Hornets proved to be a team with many talents and strengths. These strengths and talents paved the way for a win in the Grand Lake Tournament.

The team was led by seniors Peter Demarets, Jared Fuselier, Josh Johnson, Neal Kiser, Dave Landry, and Jeremy LeBlanc, Named to the All-District First Team was pitcher, Josh Johnson, who was also named District MVP; catcher, Brandon Fitkin; second baseman, Neal Kiser; shortstop, Chris Duhon; centerfield, Cody LeBleu; right field, Bobby Reeves; and utility player, Josh L. LaBove. First baseman, Peter Demarets, was named to the All-District Second Team. Coach David Duhon was named Outstanding Coach in the District.

Some of the many accomplishments achieved this year were District Champions, Bi-District Champions, Regional Champions, and Quarterfinal contenders. There are many talented players leaving the diamond in Grand Lake; but, fortunately there is no shortage of players who are coming up to take the open spots on the field.

LATE BREAKING STORY . . . three of our outstanding baseball players have been named to the All-State Class B Baseball Team. Receiving state honors are Josh Johnson, pitcher, with an 11-2 overall record; Neal Kiser, second base, with a .571 batting average and Cody LeBleu, centerfielder, received Honorable Mention. Congratulations guys!

Brandon gives the camera a pre-game smile that is sure to brighten everyone's day.

Not shown: Josh Johnson, Jared Fuselier, Josh Carlile.

Josh attempts to steal third while knowing Centerville cannot compete with his speed.

Cody kicks up some dust while checking out the other runner's position.

Peter stretches for the oncoming ball hoping it will get to him before the runner does.

1.2.3. . . Defense. The Lady Hornet Team huddles before the beginning of another inning. During this time Mrs. Manuel gives the girls a pep talk that she hopes will pump them up.

Bust that ball. Missy Cox, junior, gets in her stance as she awaits the pitch from the French Settlement pitcher. Missy was the Hornets starting centerfielder.

Look at that tongue action! Candy Thibodeaux, senior, puts some umph in her pitch while trying to get any chills out on a cold winter day.

Look Mr. Ump! Keri Billedeaux, senior, tags a player from Hosanna Christian while waiting on the call from the umpire. The official agreed with her and the player was called out.

The Grand Lake Softball program had a superior season this year. Under the coaching of Geraldine Manuel, the Lady Hornets soared to a 11-3 overall record, and were undefeated (6-0) in district play. Their overpowering play earned them the title of District 9-B Champions. They won the Bi-District Championship versus Hosanna Christian 18-1, but fell to French Settlement in the Regional game. The team placed 2nd in the G.L. Tournament and 1st in the Consolation Bracket of the South Cameron Tournament.

There were seven 1st team All-District players — an amazing accomplishment! They were senior pitcher, Candy Thibodeaux, also named Outstanding Player; junior Tara Abshire, catcher; junior, Jennifer Drummond, shortstop; senior, Keri Billedeaux, third base; juniors Vanessa LaBove & Missy Cox, outfielders; sophomore Jessi LeBoeuf, utility player. Second team All-District squad: sophomore Lindsay Smythe, first base; freshman Jessica Daigle, outfield. Coach Manuel earned District Coach of the Year honors. Congratulations on an outstanding year.

Ready. Keri Billedeaux stays in defensive stance, while the French Settlement runner gets set to boogie on down to home.

To bunt or steal? This question flies through sophomore Jessica Leboeuf's head as she waits for the pitch to arrive.

Don't mess with me. As the rival pitcher pitches the ball, Jennifer Drummond, junior, gives her a hard stare in hopes she will throw a bad pitch.

Dare you. Junior catcher Tara Abshire looks at third base and wonders if she should attempt the throw. Even with her quick arm, she decides against it.

I think I can. Lindsay Smythe, sophomore, tells herself that she can hit the oncoming ball. With determination and luck, Lindsay successfully hit a bunt.

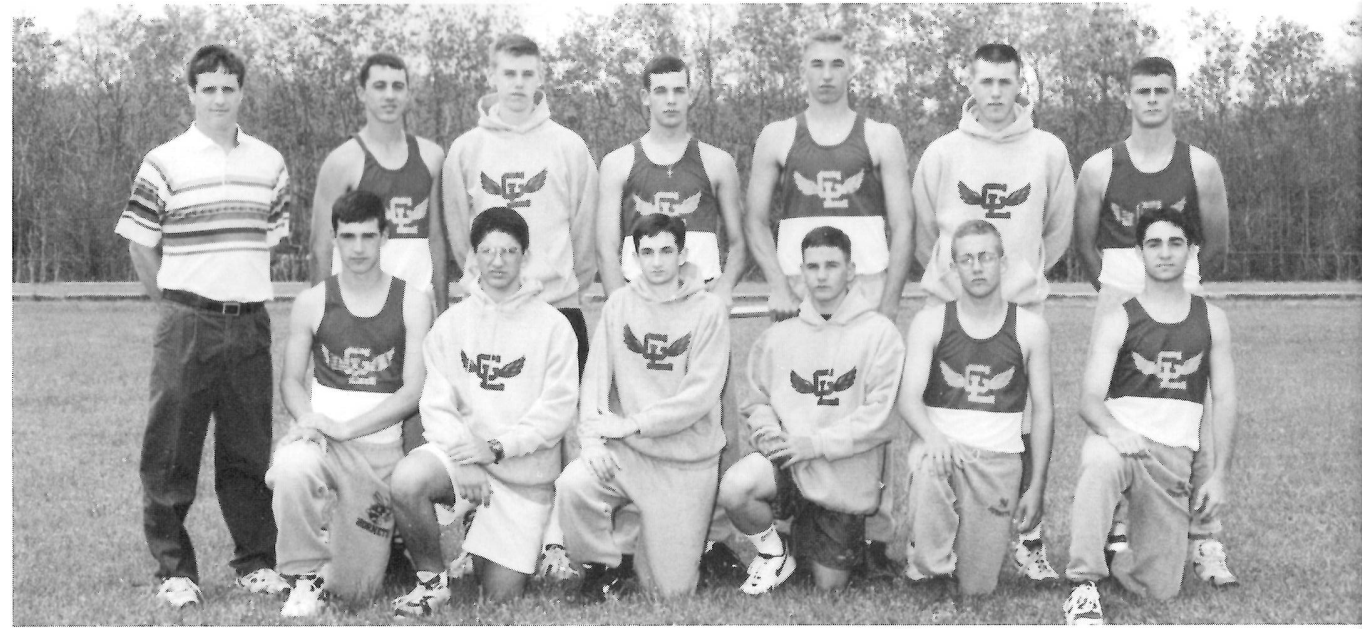

Over the fence? After Vanessa LaBove, junior, picks a spot on the field to hit, she sets her feet and chokes on the bat to try to make it possible. Vanessa was the Lady Hornets fourth batter all season long.

The 1995-96 wrestling season began once more with great enthusiasm. With self-discipline and hard work, the wrestlers began a progressive year. October brought about long hours of conditioning for the wrestlers. It was not uncommon for these athletes to run three miles per day. Building up muscles and reducing fat were primary goals for this year. Each wrestler did their share of push-ups, sit-ups, and weightlifting. The team participated in seven meets including the State Meet. Brad Granger obtained 4th in his weight division at state.

Club de Español

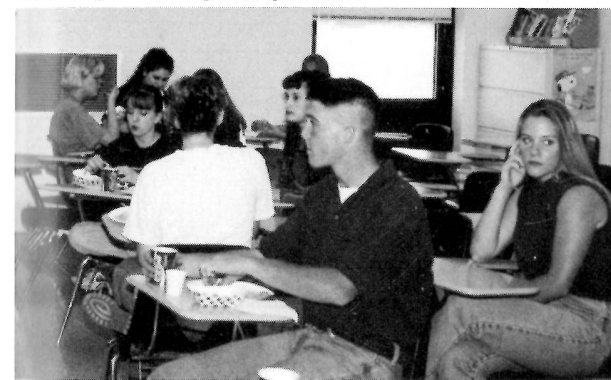

During the 1996 school year, Spanish Club members participated in several activities. The Spanish classes were honored to listen to Señora Moraima Reddit speak about her native country of Venezuela. At the Annual Fall Festival, Spanish Club students made and sold soft tacos and raffled a piñata. At Christmas they designed and sold candy grams with holiday messages in English and Spanish. In March the Spanish Club donated money to the POPS team for prizes for the First Annual Easter Parade. Members also judged Easter bonnets and baskets for those participants in grades K-3. In April the Spanish classes created a bulletin board in Spanish for the high school hallway. All in all, the Spanish Club had many good things going on throughout the year. Hasta luego!

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN STUDENTS

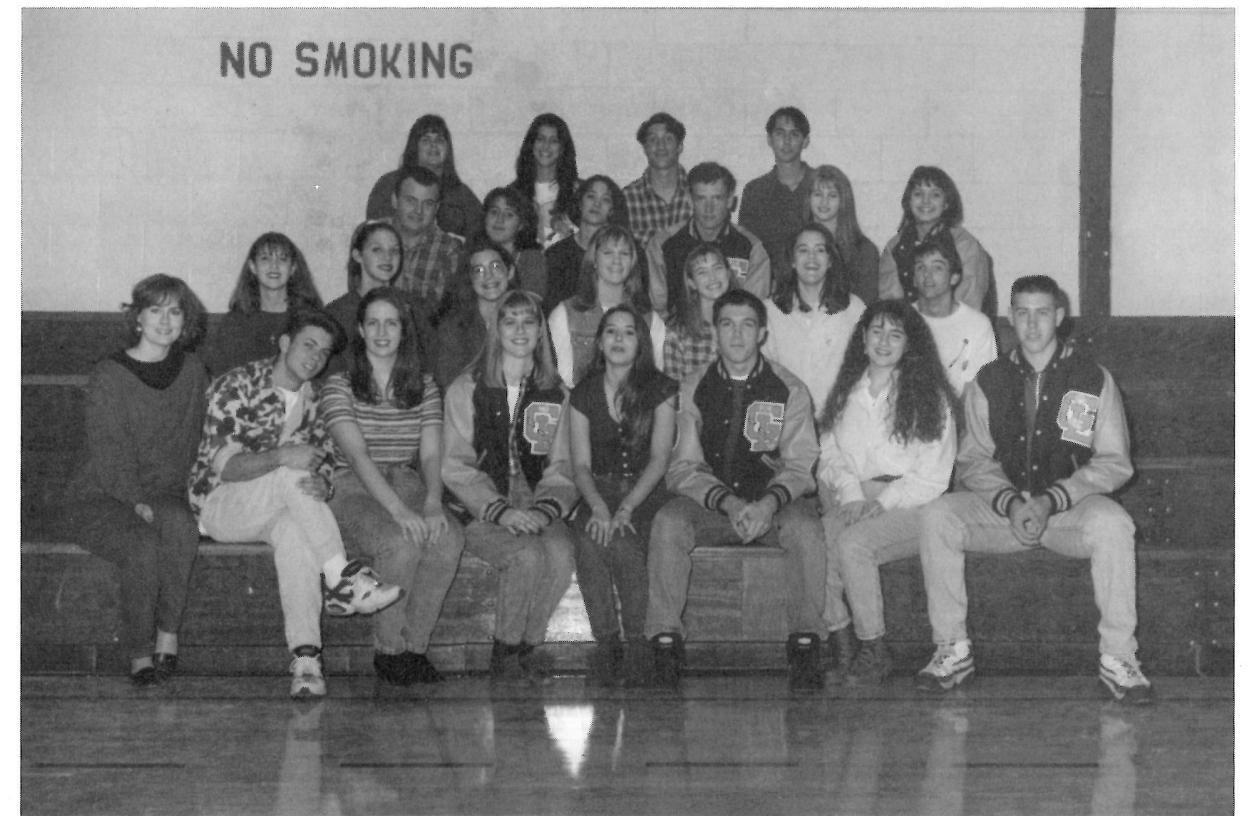

A dynamic group of 9th-12th grade students, FCS, is new to the Grand Lake campus.

The goal of the club has been to come together as one united group with one thing in common . . . the love of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

FCS is not only a social group, it is a service organization as well. Two of our projects this year were a visit to Grand Cove Nursing Home, and a Thanksgiving food drive. The group in conjunction with the newly-formed P.O.P.S. team helped organize the "Caught Ya Being Good" contest. We also sang together in the Christmas program.

POPS

The Grand Lake High School POPS (Power of Positive Students) Team had a wonderful first year. Committee members were Brian Dodson, Nanette Fontenot, Susan Fuerst, Cindy Hebert, Jackie Holmes, Valarie Precht, and Susan Simmons. During the 1995-96 school year, a variety of activities were held for our very special students. In the fall, Pre-K through 6 students were treated to a puppet show featuring the talented ventriloquist Laura Allured. The First Annual POPS Christmas Pageant was held in December. There was a tremendous response! All classes participated and performed skits, songs, or plays. The attendance by parents and people from the community was standing room only! In March the First Annual POPS Easter Parade was held for grades PreK-3. Easter bonnets, caps, and baskets were judged and prizes were given in a variety of categories. Students in grades 4-12 participated in an egg-decorating contest. During the last two six weeks, POPS sponsored the "Ah-Ha! Caught Ya' Being Great!" Contest. Red tickets were given to students in grades PreK-12 and were placed in specially marked jars in the office. At the end of each six weeks, students in PreK-3, 4-8, and 9-12 received prizes for positive behavior and acts of kindness. During the school year, signs were posted throughout the school with messages about the power of being a positive student.

The POPS Team appreciated all the wonderful Grand Lake parents, students, and teachers for all their participation and support. A special thank you is extended to Mr. David Duhon and Mrs. Jackie Holmes for giving such positive support and enthusiasm to the POPS program. Remember, this is only the beginning!

ELEMENTARY SPORTS

The memory of the 1996 Olympic spirit will long be remembered by the people of Grand Lake as well as in communities all across our nation. This was the year for big cities and small towns across the country to come together in spirit and pride as the Olympic torch made its way across our great country to reach its final destination: Atlanta, Georgia, home of the 1996 Olympics! There was a special excitement for this year's Olympics. In addition to being held on American soil, we celebrated the Centennial of the modern-day Olympics.

The Olympics always instill pride in one's country, but this year great honor was displayed as good, solid, peace-loving Americans carried the torch all across the United States.

On May 23rd, a very special moment occurred for Grand Lake native, Ethel Precht, and her family and friends. Ethel represented Cameron Parish as the sole torchbearer for the Olympic torch relay. She received the flame from Msgr. Irving DeBlanc of Our Lady Queen of Heaven Catholic Church. Ethel explained that she was so excited that she does not recall what she was thinking or feeling as she was carrying the torch. She stated that the moment passed all too quickly. Being selected as part of the Olympic celebration was, in Ethel's words, "the ultimate thrill ... the most awesome thing that could ever happen to you."

Thank you, Ethel, for sharing your special honor and for representing Cameron Parish in the exciting and memorable Olympic Torch Relay.

Stacy,
For 18 years we have watched our little girl grow and mature.

You have at last reached adulthood, and our hearts are filled with love and pride. Though we are proud of your academic achievements, it is your character that most pleases us. Your faith, love, compassion, and integrity are inspiring. We are proud to call you our daughter.

May God continue to be the center of your life, may He guide you, protect you, and may He complete the work He has begun in you is our prayer.

With love,

Dad & Mom

May you always have a zeal for life and a thirst for knowledge.
As you bravely climb to the summit of the spreading elm,
May you forever have the courage to dream
big and shoot for distant stars.
As you anticipate the adventure each new dawn will bring,
May you look into the future with confidence and view the past with no regrets.

You've been together thru your high school years
You've shared each others smiles and tears.
Now that graduation time is here,
College days are very near.
It's time to study hard and have some fun.
For the rest of your life has just begun.

We love you both and wish you the best of luck in the future.

Misty,
 We can't believe that you are already graduating high school. You have traveled and completed one road in your life and there are many more to travel. Soon you will be going to college and then later getting married. Always know that even when you leave home, we are always there for you. We are so very proud of you on how you have traveled life's road so far. You will always be in our hearts and prayers. May God keep you His loving guidance always.

We don't remember when and we don't remember where, and we surely don't remember how we got the name
POOH-BEAR.

We do remember however all the crazy things you've done through the years we've watched you grow and Oh what fun.

We remember curly pig-tails bouncing ever-proudly,
A runny nose, a smiling face, and a voice crying loudly.

We recall the stage you went through when green icys gave you thrills and we surely recollect the time you are the heart worm pills.

All these times remembered and still memories to make,
Keri Lyn we're very proud of you and we love you just the same.

Walk A Little Plainer, Daddy

"Walk a little plainer, Daddy," said a little child so small. "I'm following in your footsteps, and I don't want to fall. Sometimes your steps are very plain, sometimes they are hard to see; so walk a little plainer, Daddy, for you are leading me. I know that once you walked this way many years ago, and what you did along the way, I'd really like to know. For sometimes when I'm tempted, I don't know what to do; so walk a little plainer, Daddy, for I must follow you. Someday when I'm grown up, you are like I want to be; then I will have a little child who will want to follow me. And I would want to lead just right, and know that I was true; so walk a little plainer, Daddy, for I must follow you."

Congratulations Kerri!
