FOREWORD

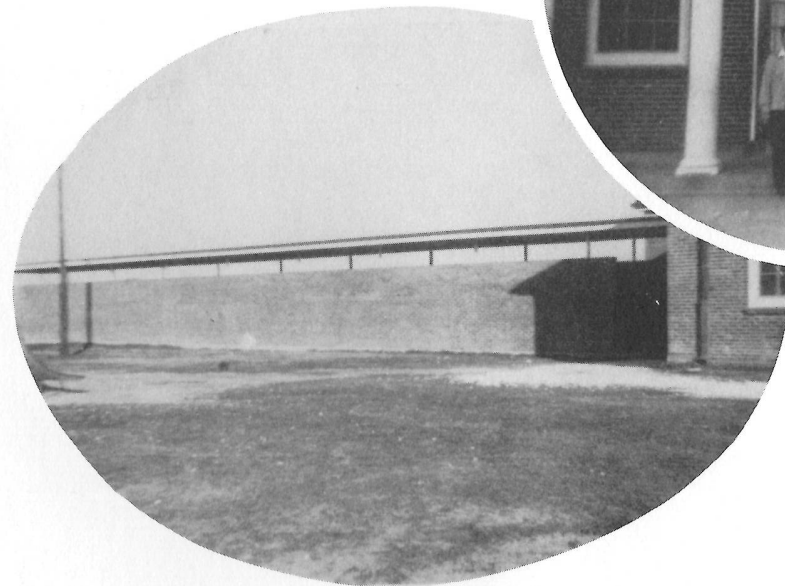

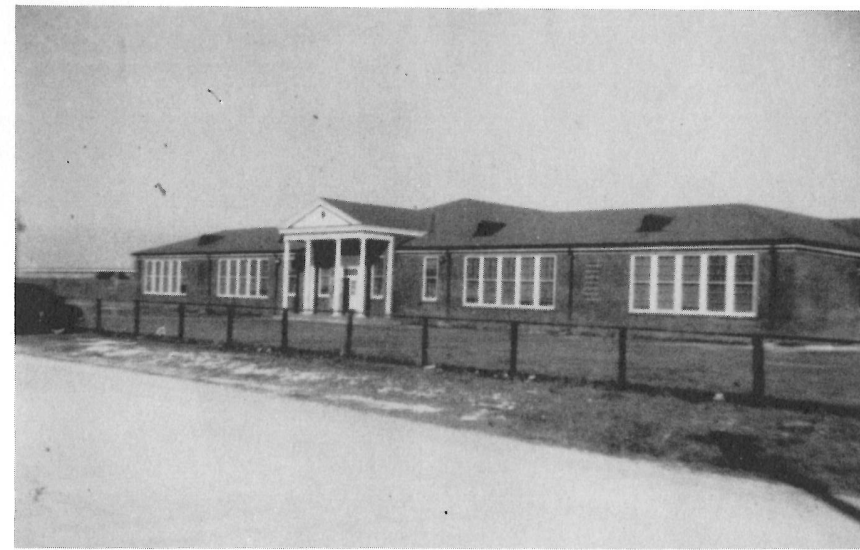

In this annual we hope to preserve many humorous and cherished memories that otherwise may be forgotten. So, if in turning the pages of this book, you recall some of the happiest hours, the best loved scenes, and the treasured friends of the past year, and if the pictures we have chosen will help to make the memories of your high school days more vivid throughout the passing years, then our purpose in publishing this annual has been fulfilled.

DEDICATION

We, the student body, humbly dedicate this our 1953-52 yearbook to the PEOPLE OF THE COMMUNITY, whose kindness, generosity, and understanding have won for them the respect of the Hackberry High School students, faculty, and staff. May the aims and ideals which they have desired be realized in our future lives.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Parents:

Love is not enough, Yes, I know you love your child, but that is not enough. "Not enough!", I hear you say. Yes, that is right. Giving your child everything for which he asks is not enough. Love is very essential, but he needs more; he needs encouragement from the moment of birth. A child must be encouraged; first to eat, then to sit, to walk, to learn. Encouragement is the one thing that brings out the child's intelligence to the fullest capacity. If you do not encourage him to do right, someone will encourage him to do wrong. Encouragement can take many forms. Praise for a deed well done, a song well sung, a chore well done. Any child that is taken for granted feels that his life is not of interest to his parents.

Understanding. Try to understand your child. Try to see the situation from the child's point of view. Never, "I just can't understand him."

Attention is a very little thing, but everyone wants it. Even a dog will nuzzle your hand and ask for a pat. Father, Mother, don't be too busy to pay attention to your child. A minute here, a minute there, stolen perhaps from important matters, will bring reward in well-adjusted young men and women.

Sincerely,

W. B. Richardson

BIGGER THINGS AHEAD

For more than a quarter of a century Reddy Kilowatt and Gulf States have been helping students earn their diplomas and equip themselves to assume their greater responsibilities. In the years ahead you can continue to look to Reddy to be a partner in the progress and development of our schools, our business and the system of free enterprise that has made our country great. Today, more than ever, electric living means better living.
