Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class of 1985

We, the Senior class of 1985, residents of Hackberry, Louisiana, being of lawful age and of sound and disposing mind and memory, and under no restraint, do publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all Wills and Codicils made by us heretofore.

I, Jacky Gray, will to Tracy Seay my ability to go talk to certain boys in Lake Charles on Friday nights, even if it is Bubba Mhire.

I, Theresa Jinks being a great shortstop will to Kellie Lace Blanchard the ability to play shortstop and not complain about something always hurting. Good luck next year!

I, George Landry, being of sound mind and outstanding wrestling body will to James Arthur alias "Jab" the ability to go to the bathroom without staying in there staring at himself and combing his hair for 10 minutes.

I, Anita "Annie" Walther, being of warped mind and excess body, will to Monica "motor mouth" Esthay the ability to talk in English without getting in trouble and to be able to say "that word" without getting caught.

I, Patrick Broussard, being of little mind, and so so body will to Kyla Sellars, a year supply of Scratch and Sniff stickers to pass the time away in Study Hall.

I, Patricia "Crash" Martin being of great wit and heavy foot, will to Tracy Seay my keen ability to be able to hit a car and still have class.

I, Roy "Howdy Doody" Trahan, being of fine body and scrambled mind will to Joyce "JB" Carroll, the ability to someday organize the lunchroom after you replace your mom as a lunchroom worker.

I, Teresa Hebert, being of south mind etc., etc., will to Dickie McNabb, my ability to tell a joke in mixed company, and not blush half way through it.

I, Kelly "Nashville" Wilson will to Kyla and Tracy, my ability to SKI down hills and around corners without skis and also without breaking their legs.

I, Shawn "Ce-Ce" LaBove being boy crazy and Creole bound will to Missy "Me-Me" Abshire a pair of cowboy boots so that the next time we go to a Choupique Rodeo, she won't have to worry about mudd getting between her toes.

I, Sonya Seay, being of sound mind and great body will to you, Brenda "Beast" East, an extra two hours of sleep after the baby comes.

I, Jackie "Black Boy" Nunez, will to Jerry Paul Constance the ability for him to stay out of the net when playing volleyball.

I, Kim "Poosey" LeBlanc, being of boy crazy mind and Lake Charles bound body, will to Delia "Triple D" DeBarge the ability to go to Lake Charles without losing my shoes and to be able to find the keyhole as the clock strikes 12. Can you relate Delia?

I, Carol "Harry" Kibodeaux, being of great mind and terrific driving ability will to Jimmy "Jimbo" Reed my fascinating ability to stay out of ditches and off of road signs.

I, Theresa Jinks, will to Angie "Busy Street" Barfield the traditional wash rags. Hope you have as much fun as I did with them.

I, Anita "Curly" Walther always being here in body, but hardly ever in mind, will to James "Jab" Beard the ability to learn a new word besides "Retard-O." (Which he calls himself.)

I David "Big D" Richmond, being of casual mind and athletic body will to Mickey Domingue my superior ball handling skills so he can drive around people to get closer to the goal so coach won't have to tell him to wait til he gets past half court to shoot.

I, Teresa Hebert, being as previously stated, will to Bonnie Simon my ability to skip Coach Michalko's class and still be excused for it.

I, Kelly "Pickle" Wilson, being of sound mind and great sense of humor, will to Joyce "Johnson Bayou" Carroll my ability to not turn in your progress reports and be able to talk your way out of it.

I, Roy Trahan, being of short patience and fast mouth will to Damon "Hooking bull" Delcambre the ability to zoom to your locker and finish getting your books before I get there.

I, Carol "Harry" Kibodeaux being a fabulous typist with speedy hands will to Brenda "Beast" East my ability to type 90 words per minute after I leave typing.

I, Patricia "Crash" Martin being of great upper body and intelligent mind will to "Big Herb" Dykeman III the ability to flunk a test like the rest of us and accept it.

I, Kelly "Coca-Cola" Wilson being of great everything will to Herbie "BH" Dykeman III a cordless telephone to go to State FBLA so that he may make all calls that need to be made.

I, Kim "Red" LeBlanc, being of sound mind and body, will to Micheal "Mr. Mickey" Domingue one full year supply of book reports for Mr. Broussard; one full year's supply of ain't definitions for Mr. Broussard; my English III notebook so you can use it for a guide in English IV and the ability to drive around town in a FINE, customized duley so that you can finally compete with (as we say) "THE TRUCK."

I, Patrick Broussard, being of scatter brain and O.K. body will to Damon "Hooking Bull" Delcambre my grades in English. The way Mr. Broussard talks you will need them.

I, David "Big D" Richmond being of highly intelligent mind and solid body will to James "Jab" Beard an official membership in the "Big D" fan club with a "Big D" T-Shirt, sunglasses, shorts, and a comb which we know Jab will certainly use.

I, Dana "Da Da" Toups being of sound mind and great cheerleading ability will to Kyla Sellars my outstanding Senior locker with the great interior of the "SOUTH CAMERON HIGH SCHOOL RODEO TEAM." Kyla take care of it.

I, Jacky Gray, will to Delia DeBarge the ability to finally drive her fine Dodge Ram to Lake Charles. Maybe that way I won't have to drive every time.

I, Alan "Nose" Meyers will to James "Allemute" Alleman the ability to work cows and finally remembering to close the gate. Way to go James!

I, Marla "KK" Landry, will to Paul "Clutsey" Constance the ability to keep your balance as I do walking down the hall.

In witness whereof, we hereunto set our hand at Hackberry High School, this 27th day of April, 1985.

Seniors of 1985

Boys' & Girls' State

We bet you're wondering what Boys' & Girls' State is? Well, it's an imaginary 51st State where officials and local officers are elected. Even a governor of the State. We were honored to be chosen to attend such an educational and exciting place. Our advise to you the students, is if you have the chance to attend, go. You'll be very surprised.

Anita Walther
Roy Trahan

Prophecy

We see Kim "Red" LeBlanc not being just the other RED HEAD in Blinky's eyes.

We see Patricia Martin finally getting the man of her dreams, Congratulations Patricia and Alan.

We see Dana "Da-Da" Toups moving to Creole, living in a two story gray house, driving a customized duley, and owning the Tarpon Freezo with Trina as the manager.

"Romeo, Romeo, where art thou Romeo?" Yes here he is, David Richmond at 85 years of age in his motorized wheelchair, thinking of himself as a suave, debonair, LADIES MAN. Dream on Dave!

We see Sonya "Triple S" Seay finally arriving at school on time.

We see Jackie "Black" Nunez finally going out without playing in ditches.

We see George Landry finally going out without getting left in Lake Charles.

The year is 2020 and there in the summer olympic games, Hackberry is finally represented by our own Theresa "Legs" Jinks, she has just won the 200 meter dash with Hokey still chasing a lap behind.

We see Jacky Gray finally learning how to drive down Ryan street and find "THE TRUCK" at the same time.

We see Shawn LaBove auditioning for an act at "SWOOP'S PALACE."

"Baby you ain't seen nothing yet" just take a look at Carol Kibodeaux, sure enough she invented a permanent, instant tan and with her profits now owns Holly Beach.

We see Tony "Legs" Pooser getting a pair of correction shoes so he can walk without tangling his feet.

The old saying "The shy and quiet are the ones to look out for," well sure enough, we the Juniors have to believe this because here our own Kelly Wilson has taken over Xavier Hollander's House of Ill-Repute and has as her chief business manager Roy Lynn.

We see Alan Myers becoming the first psychiatrist in Hackberry because "THE NOSE" knows.

We see Anita Walther sitting through one of Mr. Broussard's English classes without laughing until she is blue in the face.

We see Theresa "Miss Trivial" Hebert selling her own version of Trivial Pursuit world wide.

As we travel down the river Kelso, we happen upon Marlapatra Landry drifting along in her floating palace while sitting on her throne and being fanned by her chief slave Angie L.

We see Patrick Broussard becoming Holly Beach King with Angie Touchet as Holly Beach Queen.

Just ending his term, as President of Fantasy Island, Roy Lynn Trahan has accomplished more than any president we know, what other macho, red head with such fraternal love for his sister would grant her a one way ticket to the frozen waste land of Siberia during his Presidential term of office. Christy: de-plane, de-plane.

I would like to express my deepest thanks to Ms. Kaufman for her support and help through our four years together on the Yearbook Staff of HHS. I would also like to say to the community that we (the Yearbook Staff) need your help and support, for without you, there would not be a yearbook.

This year the Yearbook almost ceased to exist. But with the hard work of a few of the staff members and Ms. Kaufman, we have managed to put this wonderful book together. People don't realize how much money it costs to put a yearbook together. We were forced to raise the price of the yearbook to $20.00 this year because of the price that we pay was very steep. I hope that you will enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed putting it together for you. Thanks for a wonderful four years. Good luck next year!

Sincerely,

Roy Trahan, Editor

School Board Member's Message

I am honored to have the opportunity to speak to you through this year's Yearbook, and hope that in some way my remarks will help you.

I firmly believe that many of you are the future leaders of our community — maybe even of our nation. However, leadership does not come easy; it is achieved through self-analysis to determine how one can help another and by giving of one's self in the actual helping of others.

Many people believe that "leaders are born — not made." This is not true. We are all born with the equal opportunity to work toward achieving leadership. Some do this by study, determination and application, while others do nothing.

I learned several traits and qualities during my years as a 4-H Leader, and have tried to abide by them ever since. I would like to share some of these with you now.

One should have a sense of responsibility. Do what you agree to do and be conscious of the example you set.

One should be sociable and friendly. Always meet people with a smile and listen attentively.

One should be sincere. Believe what you say and say what you mean. Do not pretend.

One should be enthusiastic. Show enthusiasm for anything that will bring about improvement; enthusiasm is contagious.

One should have integrity. Be honest with yourself and with your fellowman. Respect others and be a good sportsman at all times.

One should have self-control. Be able to think clearly. Don't let your emotions keep you from making wise and unbiased decisions.

One should be tactful. Always say what is proper and respectful. Being able to say the right thing to the right person at the right time is very important.

One should develop his or her abilities. Special interest, combined with hard work, can develop real abilities.

One should be a good follower. This may help you acquire new ideas and techniques, and it lets others know you are also interested in their views.

Many people don't care to become leaders because they have the false idea that they would have to "boss" others. The following, author unknown, explains the difference between bossing and leading.

The boss drives men — the leader guides them.

The boss depends on authority — the leader on good will.

The boss creates fear — the leader develops confidence

The boss assigns tasks — the leader sets the pace.

The boss says, "I" — the leader says, "We."

The boss says, "Go" — the leader says, "Let's go."

The boss fixes the blame for the "breakdown" — the leader fixes the breakdown.

So, all of you, don't be afraid to strive for leadership. That is one of the many great opportunities offered by our school systems today. Just remember, leadership is earned through education and hard work — not by indifference and laziness.

Oh, so bad!

I want to grab your neck?

What's for lunch?

Cool Witches!

We want to shut you up!

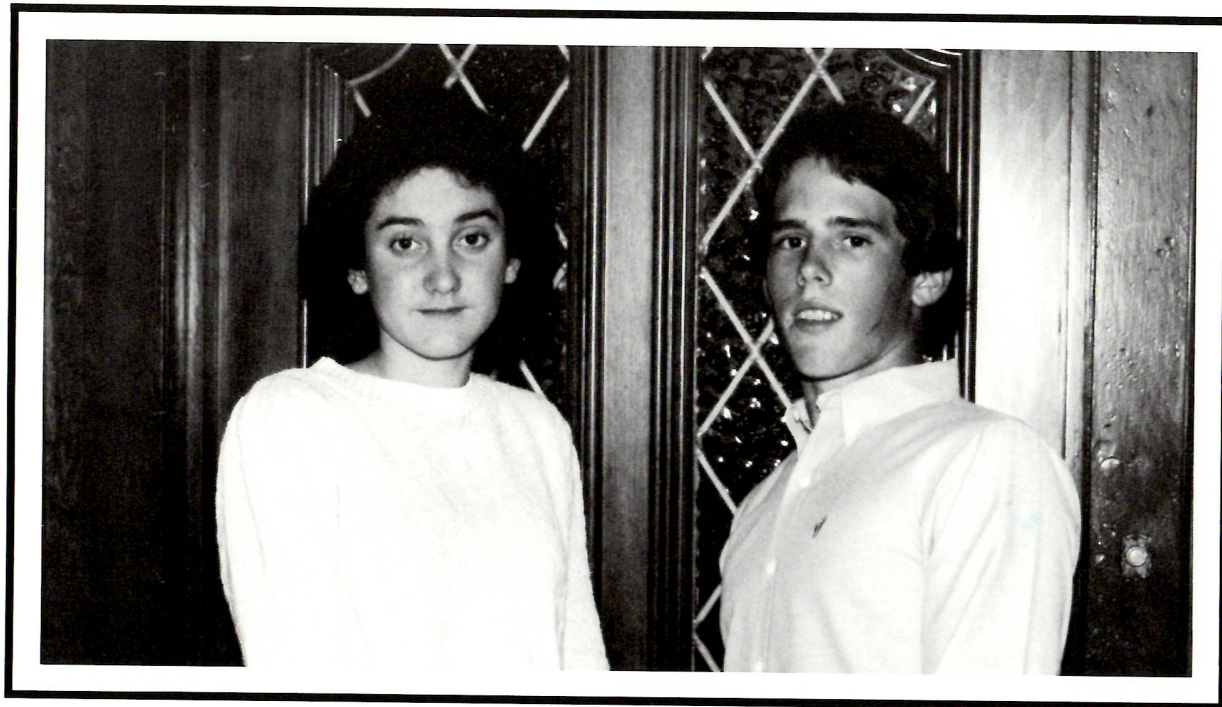

This operation should be a breeze.

He's got a heart after all!

Children Learn What They Live

If a child lives with criticism, He learns to condemn.

If a child lives with hostility, He learns to fight.

If a child lives with ridicule, He learns to be shy.

If a child lives with shame, He learns to feel guilty.

If a child lives with tolerance, He learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement, He learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise, He learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness, He learns justice.

If a child lives with security, He learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval, He learns to like himself.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship,

He learns to find love in the world.
