Spending time after school at your favorite fishing spot. Tracy Bowen holds her catch for the day.

Joining the fight against drunk driving. President of S.A.D.D., Barry Baden picks up "Contracts for Life" from Bonita and Kelly Kopple and Amanda Trahan.

Life On The Bayou Means . . .

Seeing snow once every ten years. An unexpected snowfall on the first Sunday in February gave residents a rare opportunity to build snowmen.

With snowball in hand, Jennifer Blanchard tries to avoid being hit so she can toss a snowball at her friends. In the background, Blaine Badon watches the snowflakes fall.

Helping others. To raise money for the Louisiana Heart Association, Mrs. Garber's class sold brownies during recess. Displaying a check for $51.35 are Pam Trahan, Mindy Trahan, Ryan Romero, Dane Crader, Michael Menzel, Rachael Constance, Corey Badon, Elizabeth Meaux, Paige Bellard, Gina McDowell, and Hope Tingler.

Having fun in the sun. On a Saturday afternoon, the beach is a great place for an outing. Working hard to bury Heath Jinks in the sand were Sheila Kopple, Heather Trahan, Stephanie Vining, Karen Erbeling, Kelly Kopple, April Tingler, Travis Trahan, Richard Badon, Julie Boudreaux, and Tonya Jinks.

Celebrating your birthday with friends. On her birthday, Bobbie Lane Trahan shares her cake with her friends during study hall. Birthdays for students and staff were acknowledged daily over the intercom.

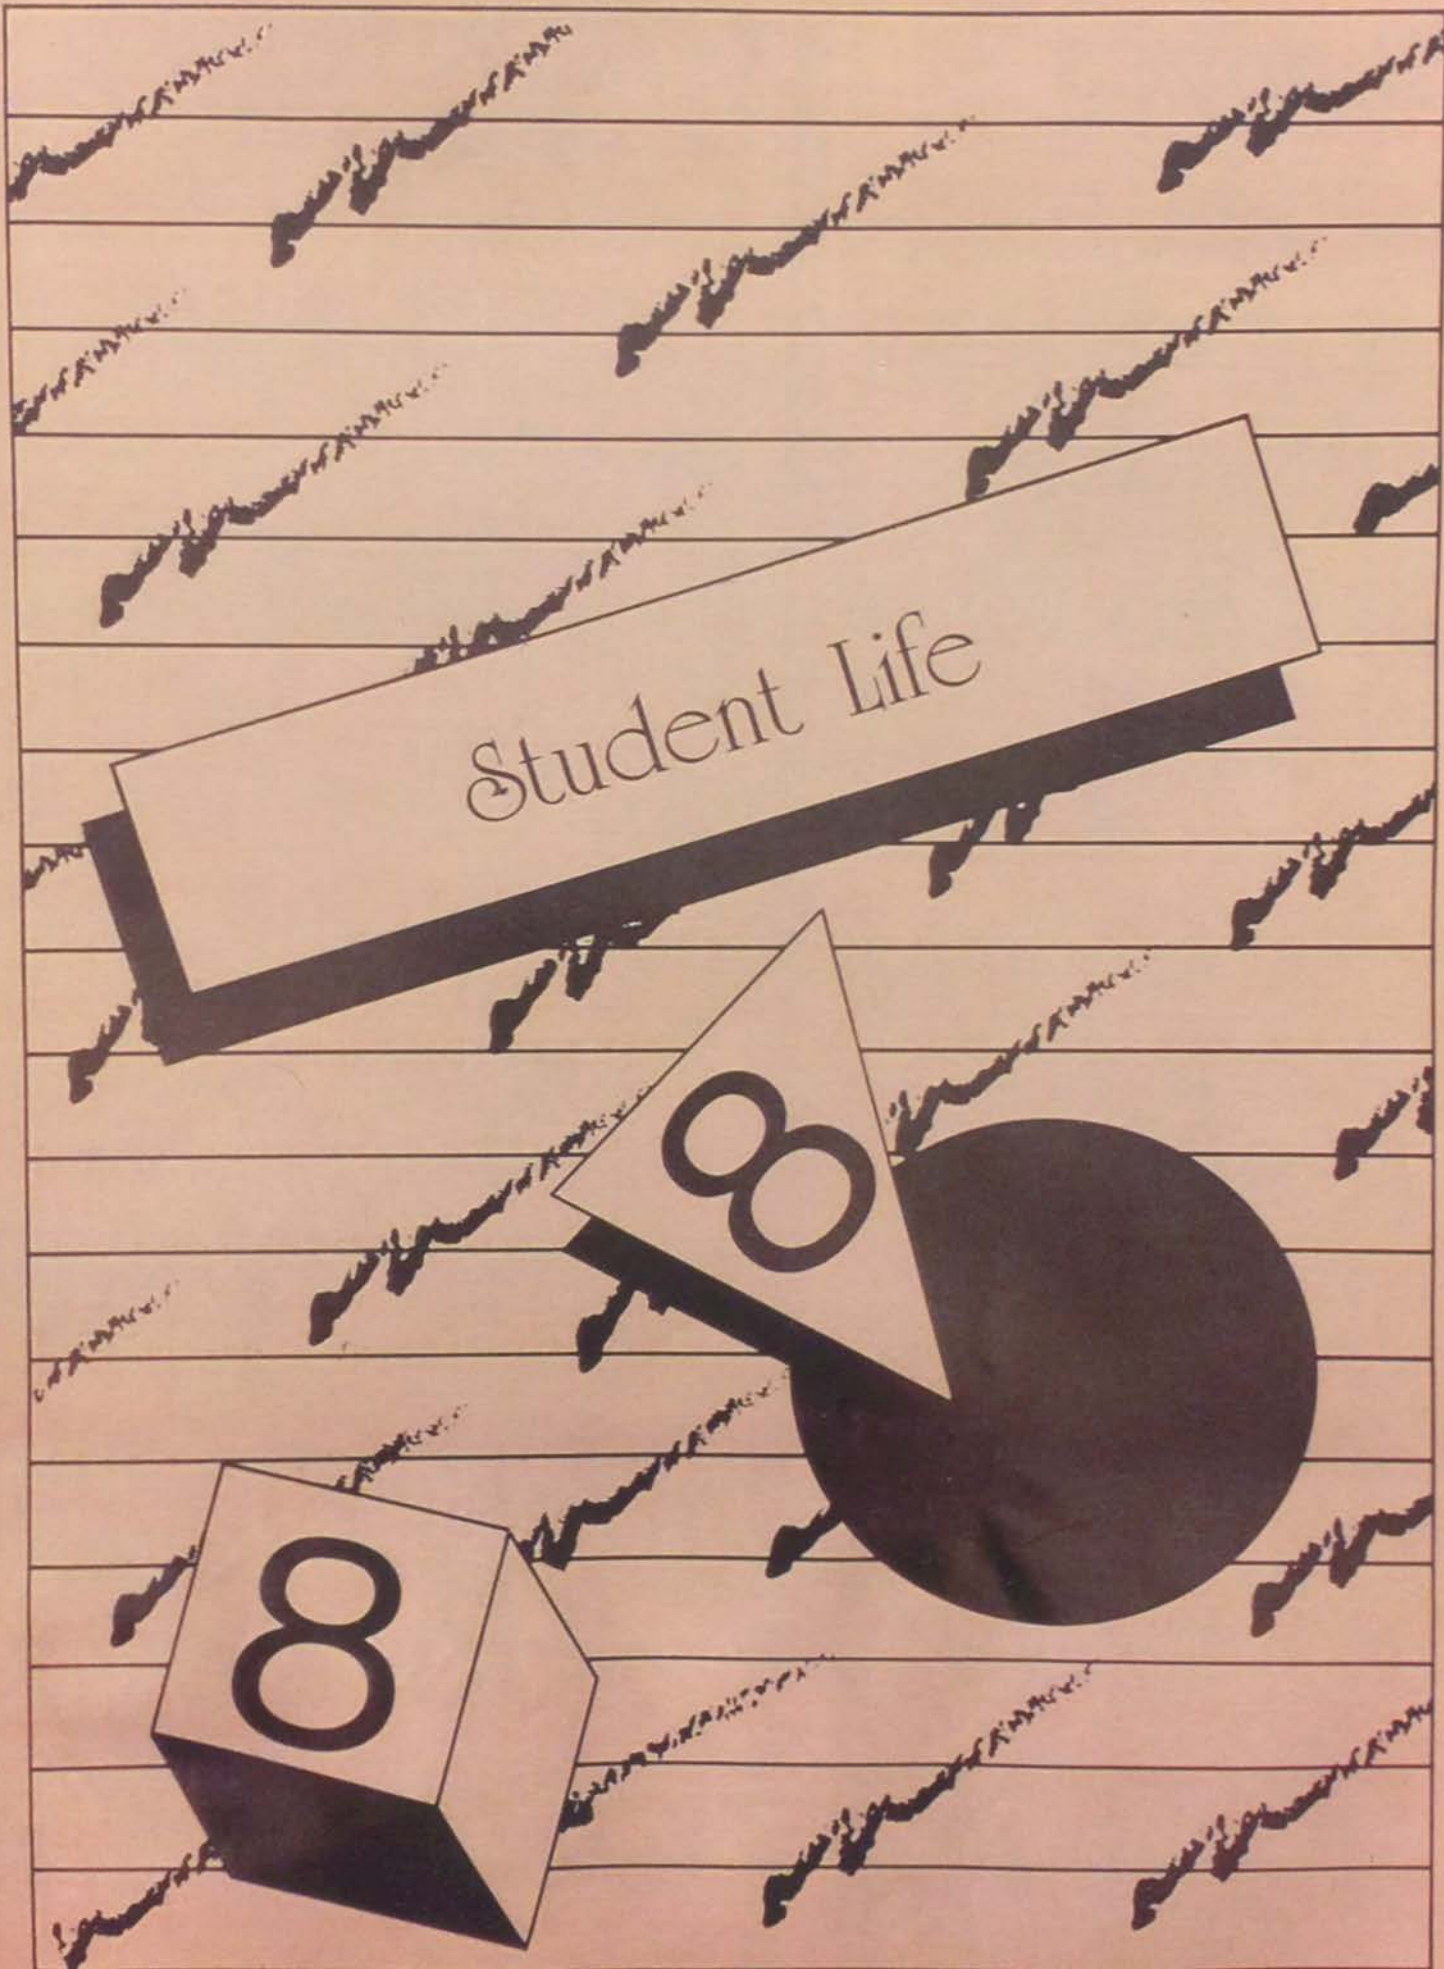

Heading for the state track meet every May. Elementary students wave to the boys' and girls' track teams as they leave for Baton Rouge. The teams were followed by many faithful Rebel fans.

Changes

Masked by his spiritual war paint, Richard Miller prepares to face our native rivals, the Hackberry Mustangs.

When the doors opened, attention was focused on improving the school climate and increasing student involvement.

On September 19, students joined other volunteers to clean our beaches. Over 300 people led by Mr. Dan Billiot collected 1,375 bags of trash from Mae's Beach. After four hours of hard work, they gathered at the multi-purpose building for refreshments.

To create awareness of the 4-H Club, the club hosted a series of events during 4-H Week. Students made bookmarks, wore green, and brought a favorite stuffed animal to celebrate the week.

For Sape's Week, students created badges, signs, and door designs to help in the battle against drug and alcohol abuse. (continued on page 9)

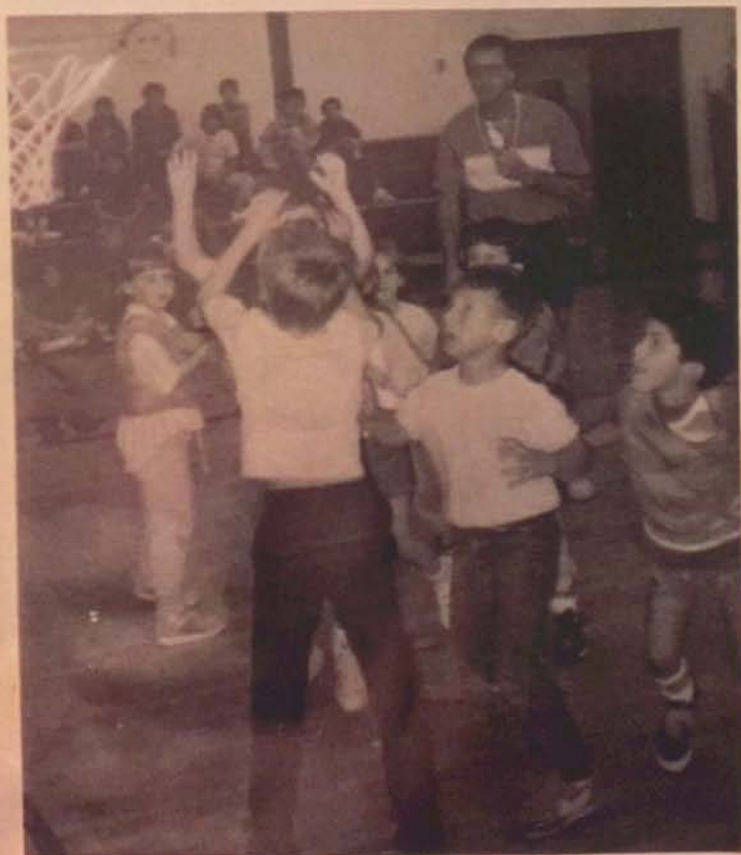

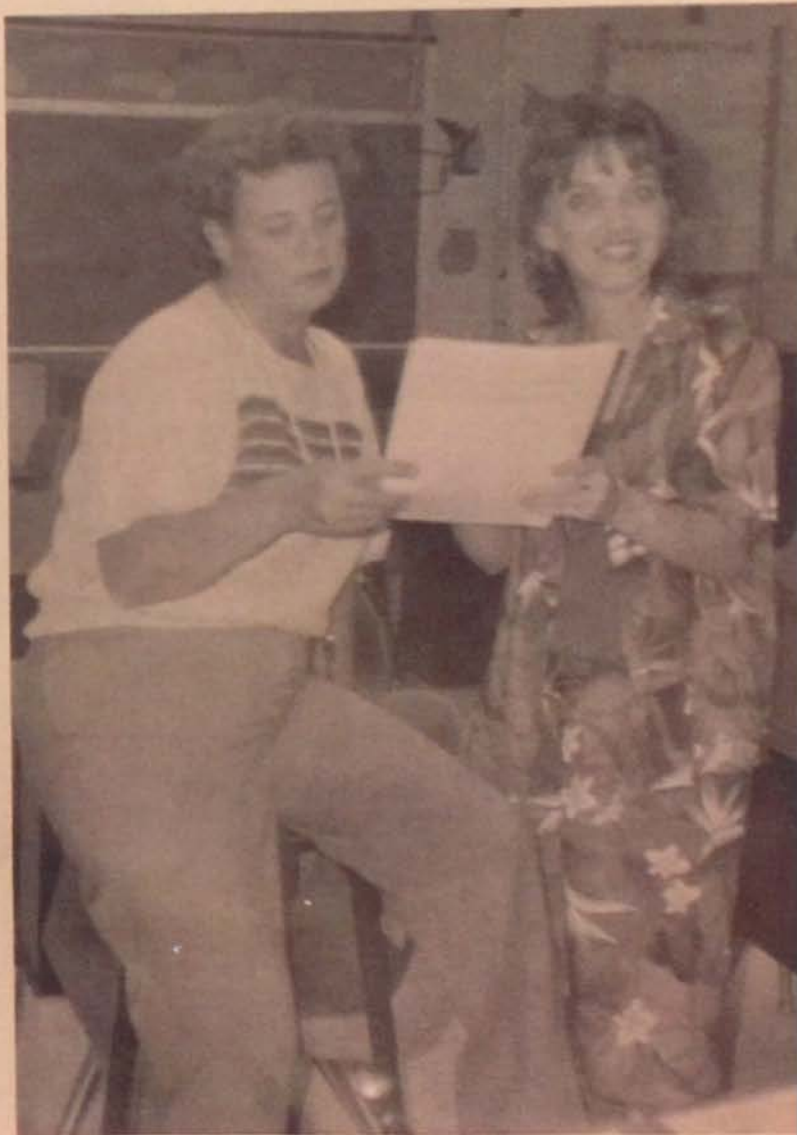

At the first pep rally, Tonya Logan and Todd Jinks shout cheers while Amanda Trahan and Layne Boudreaux shake their noise makers.

Participating in the "Louisiana September Sweep", Jason Trahan, Daniel Billiot, Don Morris, Barry Badon, and Don's father dump garbage they've collected from Mae's Beach.

◆ Dazzling the judges with their creations, Blandon Badon, Jeannie Garber, and Shawna Badon collect ribbons for the best Halloween costumes in the fifth grade.

◆ At the annual Open House, when parents meet and talk with teachers, Mrs. Alice Logan discusses her daughter's class schedule with Miss Frey.

◆ Bridget Burchette, Eric Badon, Sasha Dupree, Brodie Trahan, Brandon Adams, and Wesley Crader please the crowd with their ball-handling skills. Reserved especially for future athletes, the Biddy Basketball night was held to benefit the Athletic Association.

☛ To support the Athletic program, parents, friends, and students enjoy an afternoon of bingo in September.

◆ With Halloween on their minds, the sixth graders try out their fangs in anticipation of the treats awaiting them.

Cody Trahan, Kim Wilford, Brent Badon, Casey Theriot, Trevor Trahan, Jack Constance, and Sarah Griffith display pride in the third grade's entry in the Pumpkin Carving and Decorating Contest held during Halloween Week.

Seventh graders Jonathan Tramonte and Jason Trahan show off their class' door which won first place during Substance Abuse Week.

Parental involvement has been an asset to the overall improvement in parent-teacher relations. The turn out for Open House, when parents visit teachers and tour the school plant, proved this.

The FBLA Club organized Halloween Week with all clubs choosing an activity to spotlight each day. Carving and decorating pumpkins and wearing orange and black gave students a break from the usual. Highlighting the week was a costume parade and contest held in the gym, with winners chosen from each grade.

With these and other similar happenings, students traded a routine school year for an exciting, memorable time. - CHERELLE DUHON & DALE JINKS

Pride In Stride

The enthusiasm of Homecoming Week began with the introduction of new ideas to continue the flow of school spirit. Activities were held in the gym during lunch break each day. These struck the spirits of many people, which made for an action-packed week.

Spirit activities were: Monday, Rock 'n Roll Day and music played; Tuesday, Black Tuesday and Bulldog funeral; Wednesday, Lazy Day and "Coach Says"; Thursday, Nerd Day and musical chairs; and Friday, Rebel Day and pep rally.

Although sleet and snow postponed the scheduled games, the traditional ceremonies were held. Graduating classes of 1957, 1967, 1977, and 1983 were honored after the presentation of the court.

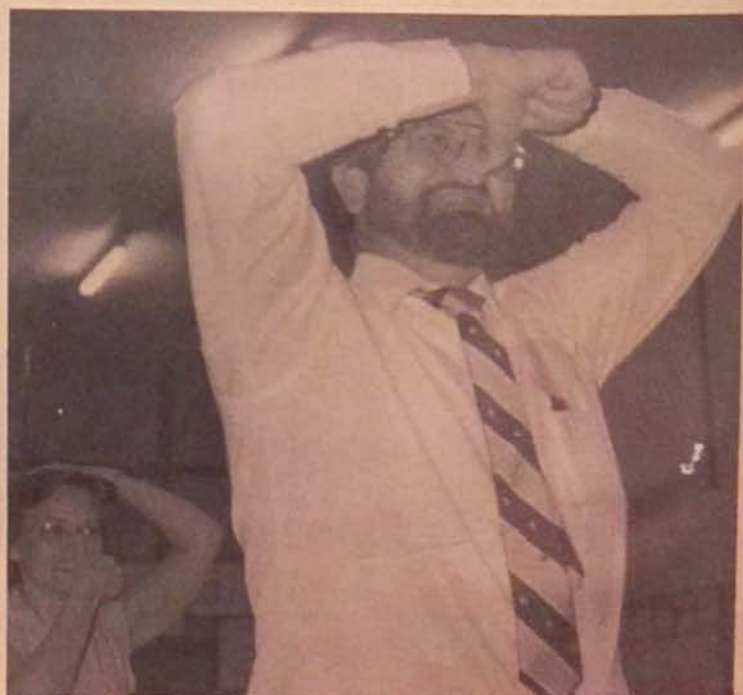

In finishing the ceremonies Cherelle Duhon crowned the new queen, Tiffany Romero. Many danced the night away to music played by Barry Badon. -Dale Jinks & Cherelle Duhon

Mr. Romero reads the eulogy, as basketball players, cheerleaders, and students pay their respects at the Bulldog funeral.

On Rock 'n Roll Day, David Skidmore demonstrates his talents as a rock star.

Reacting to Coach McDowell's command, Mrs. Bearden and Mr. Romero compete against other teachers in "Coach Says."

Tisha Trahan, Heath Jinks, and Troy Miller grab chairs while Rita Tingler, Emily Fontenot, Julie Boudreaux, Martin Miguez, and Ricky Harrington scramble for a spot.

In a game of "Coach Says," Sarah Griffith, Tanya LeJeune, April Tingler, Ruthann Romero, and Jennifer Tingler follow the directions of Coach McDowell.

Students choose Beth Skidmore, Carl Trahan, Cherelle Duhon, and Dale Jinks as top nerds at J.B.H.S. on Nerd Day.

Former Homecoming Queen, Cherielle Duhon crowns sophomore maid Tiffany Romero who expresses her emotions in becoming the new queen.

Loy Bader, David Skidmore, Dale Jinks, Cherielle Duhon, Reesa Badon, Tiffany Romero, Tracy Bowen, Bobbie Trahan, and Tonya Jinks relive the may rock eras on Rock 'n Roll Day.

Junior maid, Erica Laria, escorted by Mr. Edward Laria.

Senior maid, Sandy Salter, escorted by Mr. Fred Salter, Jr.

Senior maid, Angie Trahan, escorted by Mr. Curtis Trahan.

Some Special Times

Before the Christmas holidays begin, students assemble in the gym to sing carols.

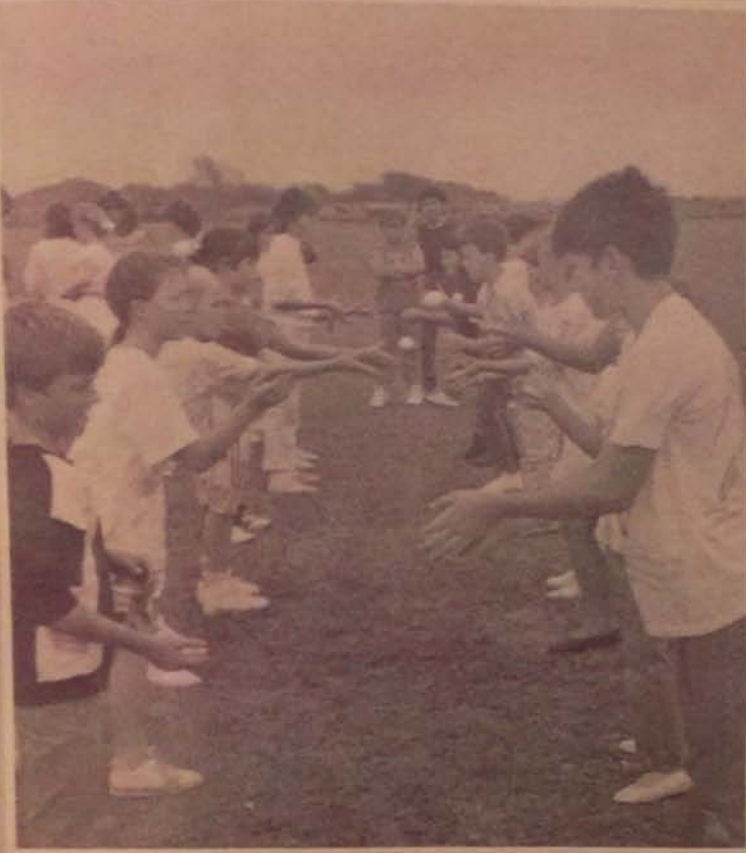

At the annual Christmas play, students in the first and second grades await their turns to go on stage.

J.J. Laria watches Alvin and the Chipmunks, alias Jenny Trahan, Mindy Jinks, and Beth Skidmore, check out their props before performing their Christmas skit.

After winning the Little Mr. & Miss Johnson Bayou contest, Corey Badon and Regina McGee competed in the Little Mr. & Miss Cameron Parish Contest during the Louisiana Fur & Wildlife Festival. Corey was chosen first runner-up.

Fourth grade students find out that it takes concentration and coordination to be successful in an egg toss contest.

Hoping for a safe landing, Wendy Vining, Gene Constance, Blandon Badon, Jenny Trahan, Chris LeBeauf, and Shawna Badon open their hands wide.

After the first grade's egg hunt, Mr. Romero presents prizes to winners Ryan Romero, Dane Crader, and Corey Badon.

Third grade egg hunt winners, Rachoel Carusso and Emily Fontenot receive prizes from Mr. Romero.

Winners in the second grade's Easter egg hunt, Hank Badon and Angie Kellum, receive chocolate bunnies from Mr. Romero.

Final Scene

After thirteen years of learning, the seniors of 1988 participated in the rite of passage into the adult world.

Valedictorian was Nathan Delino while Ricky Harrington was salutatorian. Others completing their education with a 3.5 or better were Tracy Bowen, Cherelle Duhon, Dale Jinks, Angie Trahan, and Bobbie Lane Trahan.

Awards presented were the American Legion: Ricky Harrington, Sandy Salter; Lion's Club Citizenship: Bobbie Trahan; Masonic Lodge Patriotism: Ricky Harrington, Cherelle Duhon; I Dare You: Angie Trahan, Nathan Delino; President's Academic Fitness: Nathan Delino, Ricky Harrington, Cherelle Duhon; Dale Jinks; Woodman of the World: Nathan Delino; Knight's of Columbus: Joey Jinks, Cherelle Duhon; Scholar-Athlete: Cherelle Duhon, Ricky Harrington.

Scholarships awarded were President's Leadership and McNeese Foundation Freshmen: Angie Trahan, Nathan Delino; H.C. Drew: Sandy Salter, Ricky Harrington; Robert C. Byrd: Angie Trahan, Riley Richard; Ricky Harrington; J.B. Fire Department: Dale Jinks.

Other students recognized for their scholastic ability in various school subjects were Barry Baddon, Dawn McRight, Joe Griffith, Sonja Trahan, Tiffany Romero, Betsy Koppie, April Trahan, Kelly Koppie, Stephanie Vining, Scott Trahan, Nicole Duhon, and Julie Boudreaux.

After a slide presentation, graduates received their diplomas from Mr. Romero and Mr. Dan Billiot.

Valedictorian Nathan Delino reaches for the gold cord he will wear from his mother. Nathan graduated with a 4.0 average.

Close friends, Sandy Salter helps Tammy Erbelding arrange the collar on her gown.

Hugging her father, Kelli Trahan Jaubert says a special thank you. Graduates paid tribute to their parents during the ceremony.

Ricky Harrington, salutatorian, walks to the podium for his diploma.

After receiving their diplomas, graduates listen for the words declaring them graduated.

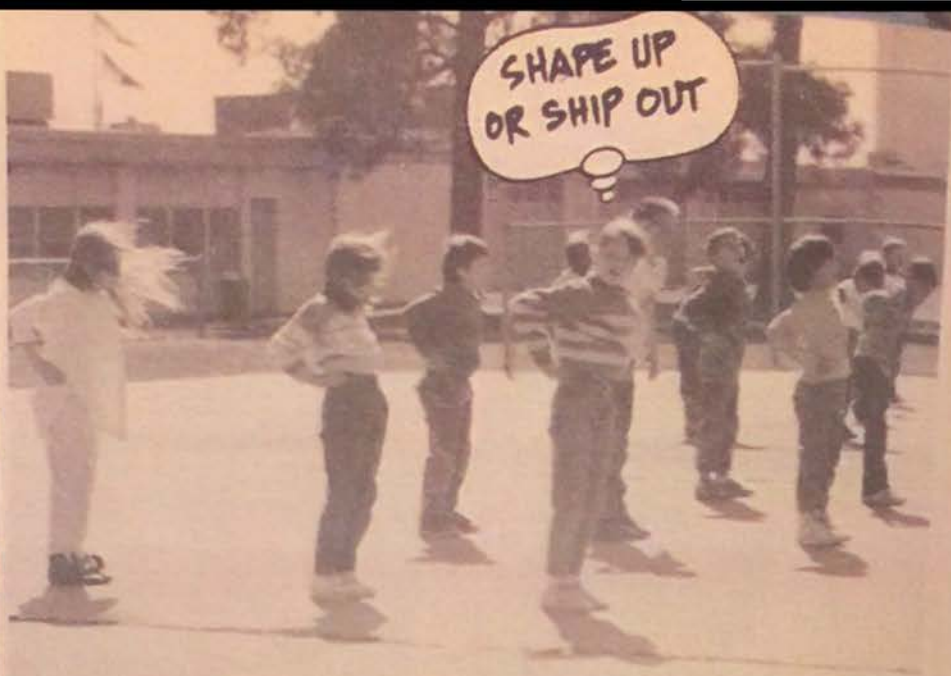

Tammy Erbeling and Jeffery Tramonte lead the graduates off the stage.

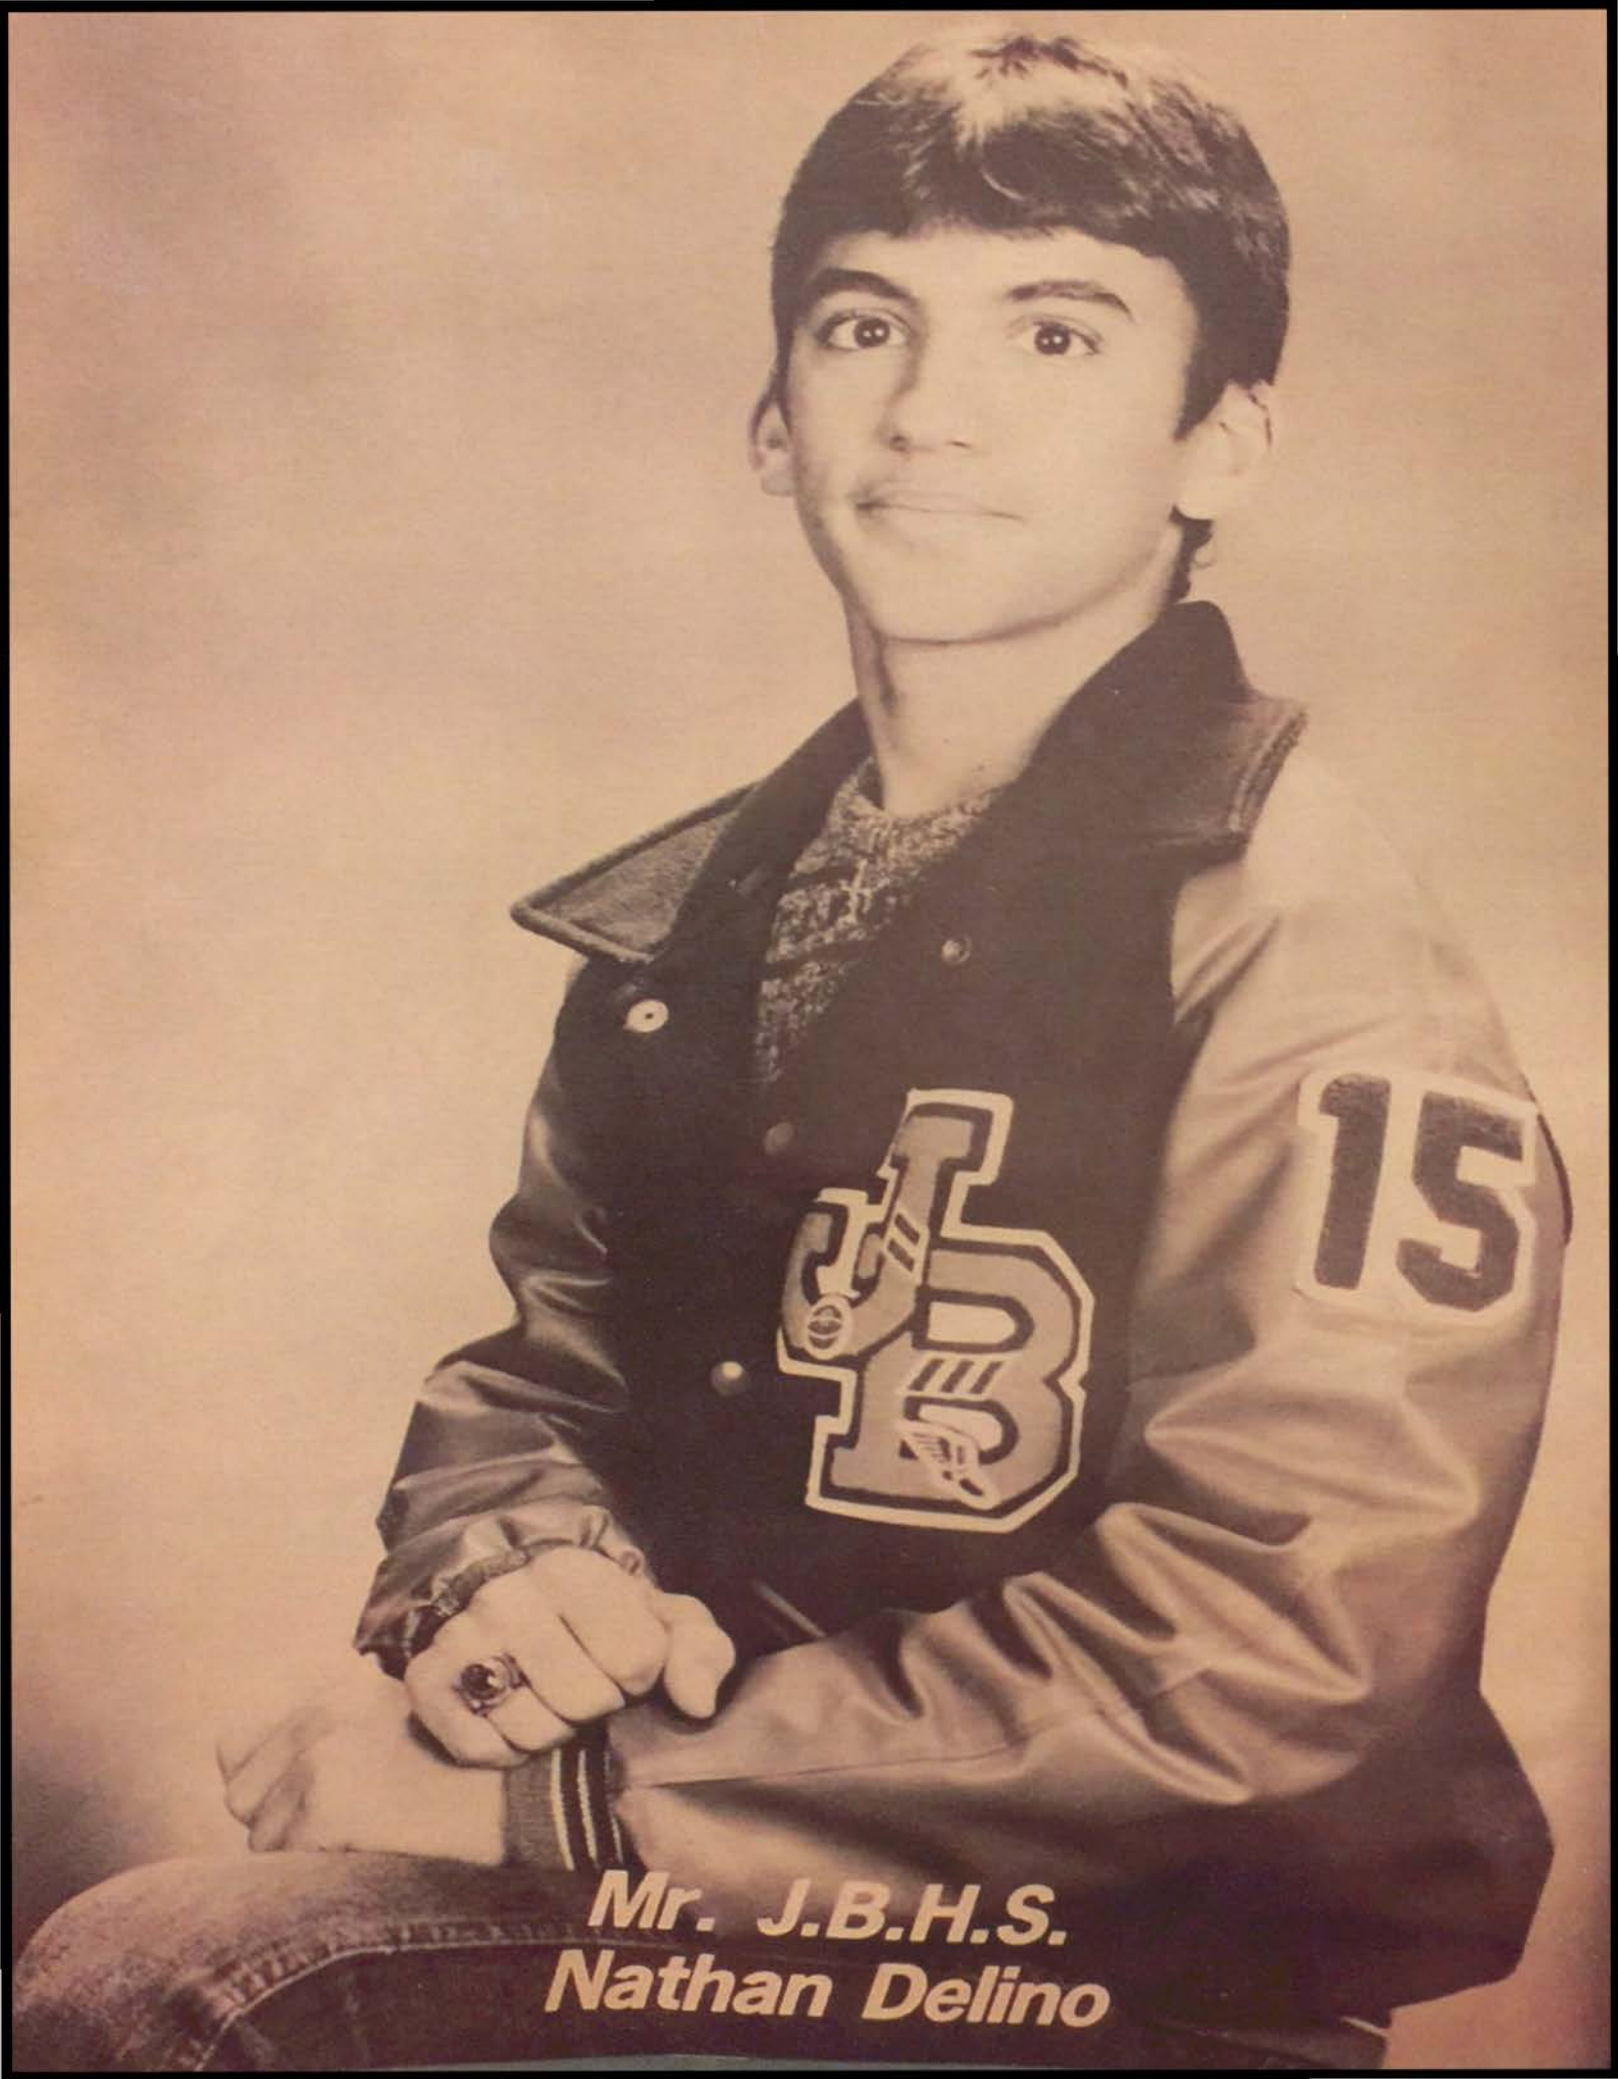

Graduates Dale Jinks, Angie Ttahn, Cherelle Duhon, Scott Romero, Jeffery Tramonte and Tammy Erbeling stand for the benediction.

A Slice Of Life

*Mr. J.B.H.S.

When a job is to be done, students call on SANDY SALTER and BARRY BADON. As MOST DEPENDABLE, Sandy works as a student aid in the office, while Barry handles the sound system for school events.

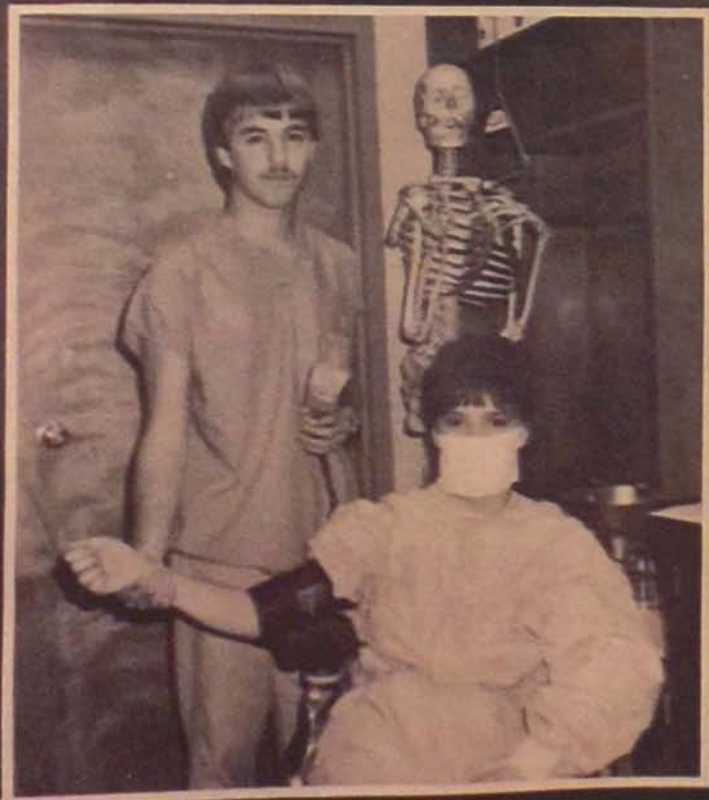

Taking their role as MOST COURTEOUS to heart, JOEY JINKS helps TRACY BOWEN take off her boot, while Tracy politely says "thank you."

Always wearing the latest fashions BOBBIE TRAHAN and JEFFERY TRAMONTE continue their reign as BEST DRESSED.

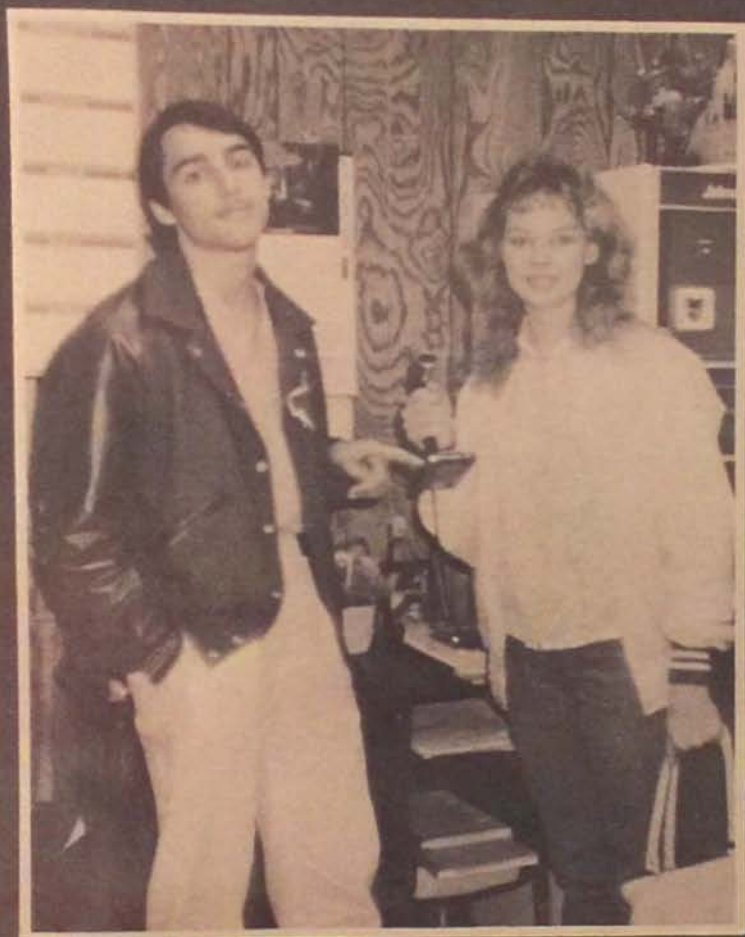

Noted for their great minds, ANGIE TRAHAN and BARRY BADON live up to their title as MOST INTELLIGENT.

Looking toward the future, students feel that BOBBIE TRAHAN and RICHARD MILLER are the MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.

Continuing their title as QUIETEST, KELLI JAUBERT and TROY TRAHAN could give tips on how to quietly switch classes.

Preparing to lead the students in the daily pledge to the flag, ROBIN PEAVY gets last minute instructions from GEORGE CONSTANCE. The student body chose them as the MOST TALKATIVE students on campus.

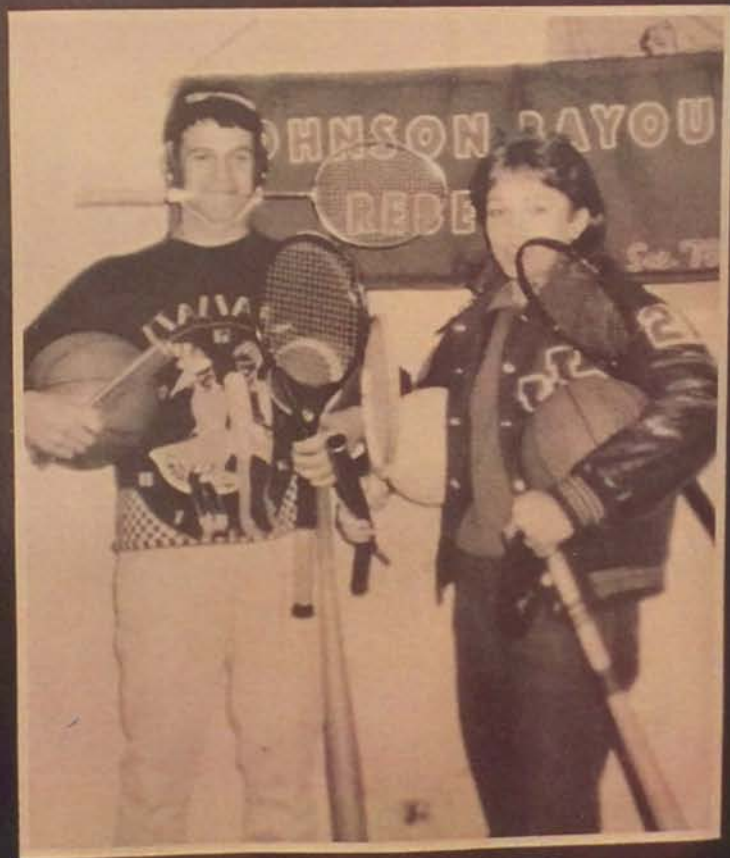

Never a dull moment in their presence, JOANIE CONSTANCE and DAVID SKIDMORE make life on campus a little more amusing. These qualities make them the WITTIEST.

Being the FRIENDLIEST on campus, TROY TRAHAN and DELISA LEGER always find time to greet a friend.

SENIOR CLASS FAVORITES JEFFERY TRAMONTE and SANDY SALTER, test the new playground equipment.

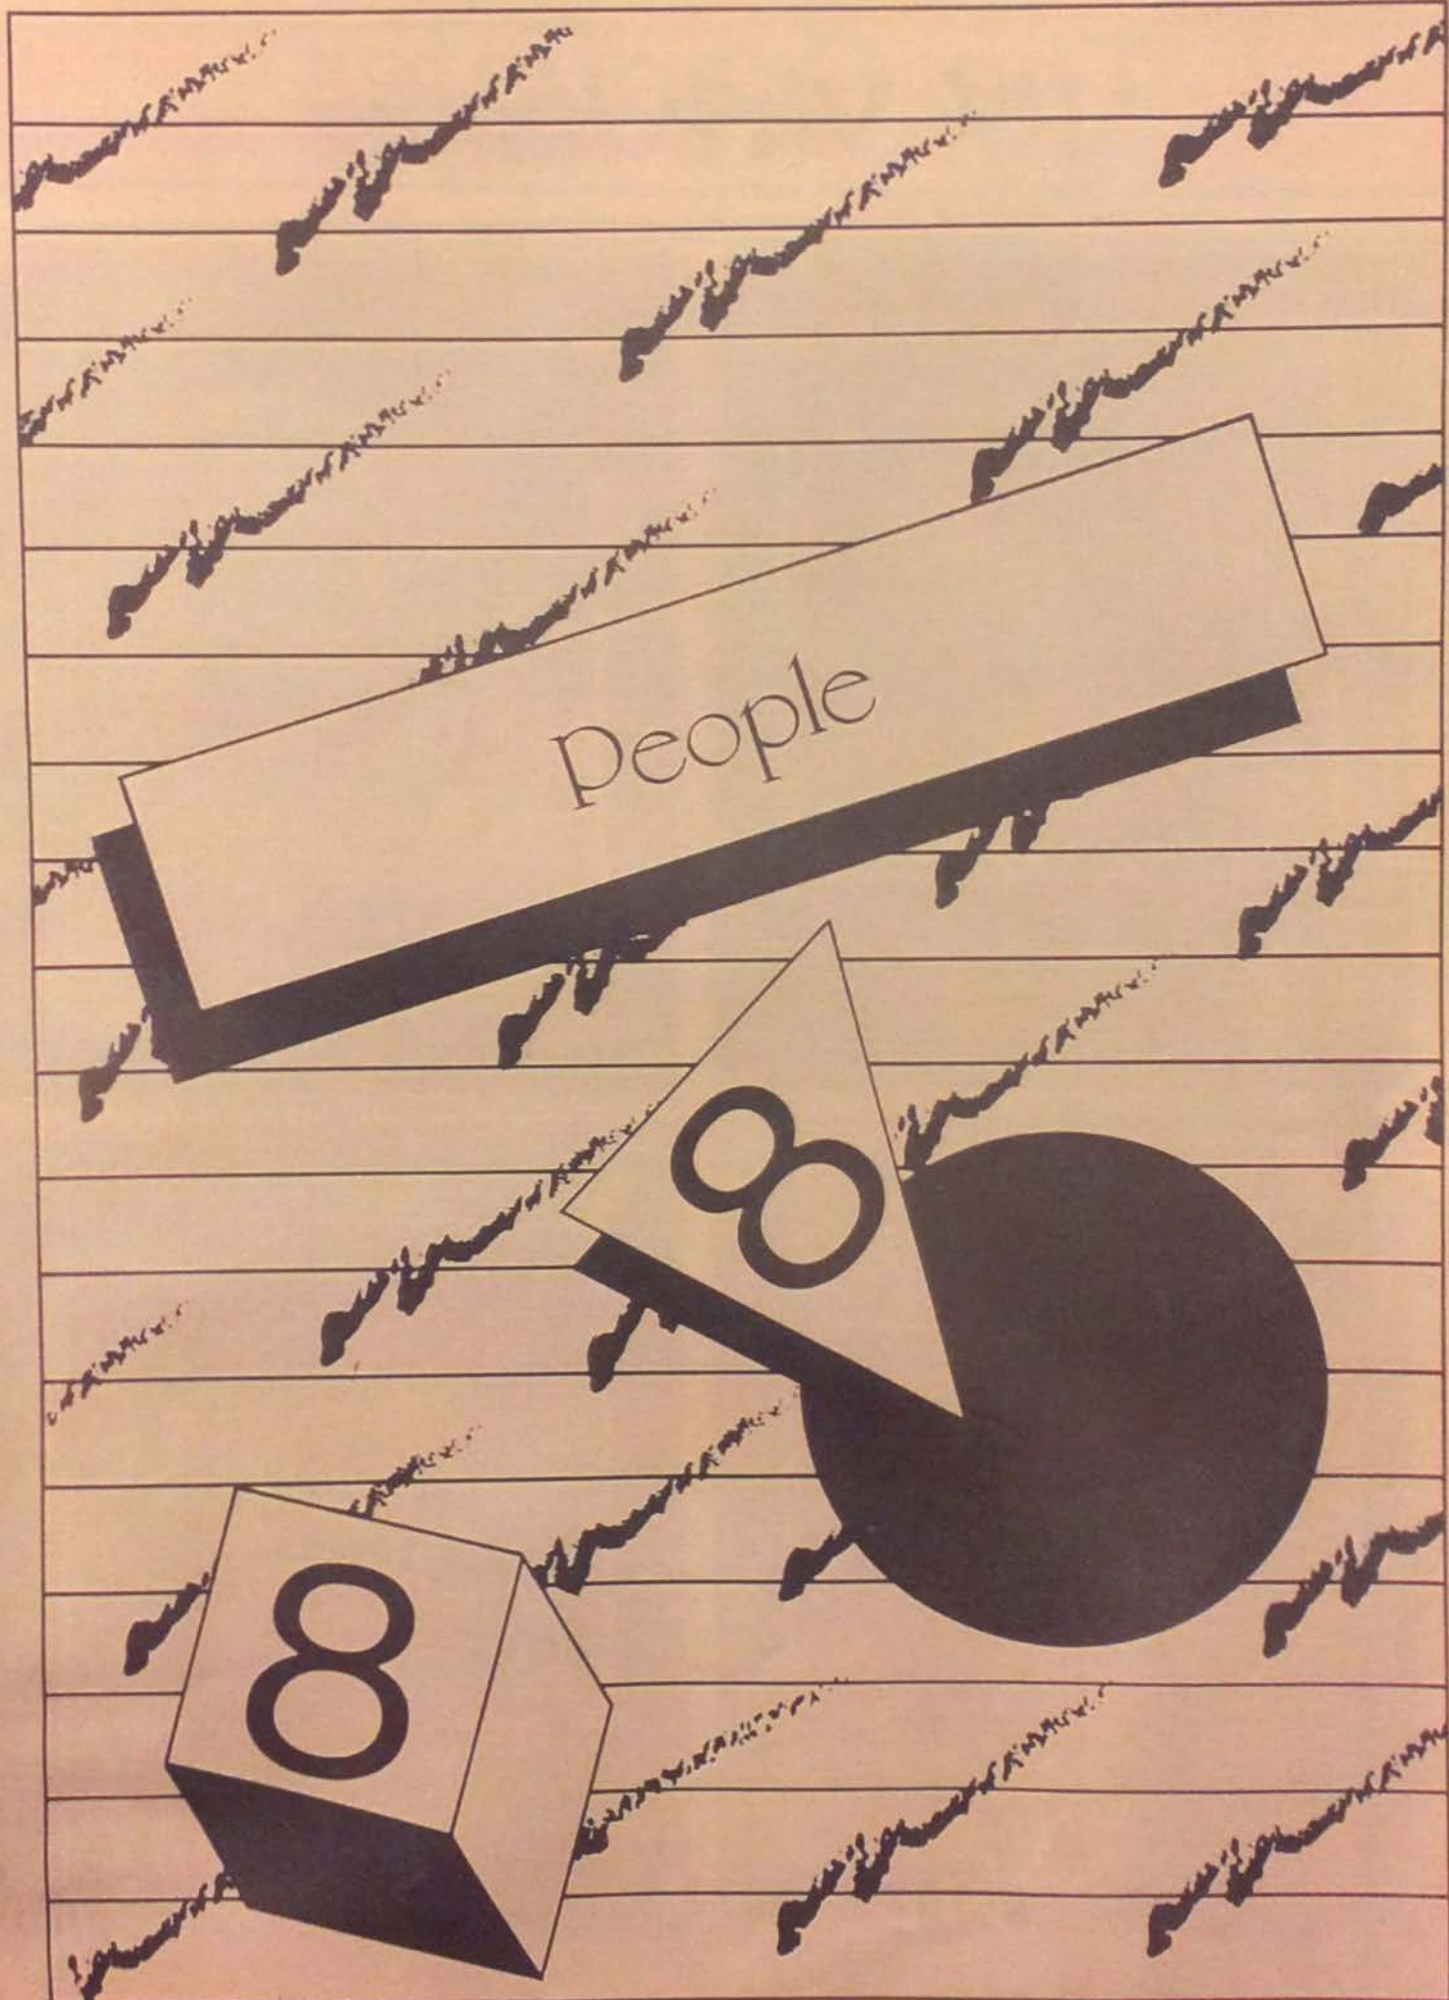

Participating in sports keeps SCOTT SANDIFER and CHERELLE DUHON busy throughout the school year. As members of the basketball teams, they were selected all-district. In track, each competes in four events. Their love of sports is the reason students selected them MOST ATHLETIC.

The Graduates

Tracy Bowen

Witty, outspoken and carefree define Tracy's magnetic personality. She has been a spirited leader at JBHS. Her outgoing nature and social ability have made her a friend to all.

Nathan is charming, witty, and intelligent. His years at JBHS have been characterized by his hard work in his studies and easy-going friendship with classmates. Nathan has been active in basketball and track during his high school years.

Nathan Delino

In her three years at JBHS, Cherelle has left her mark in basketball and track. A natural leader, she has been active in FBLA and the student council. Her grade point average has been kept high despite her extracurricular activities.

Cherelle Duhon

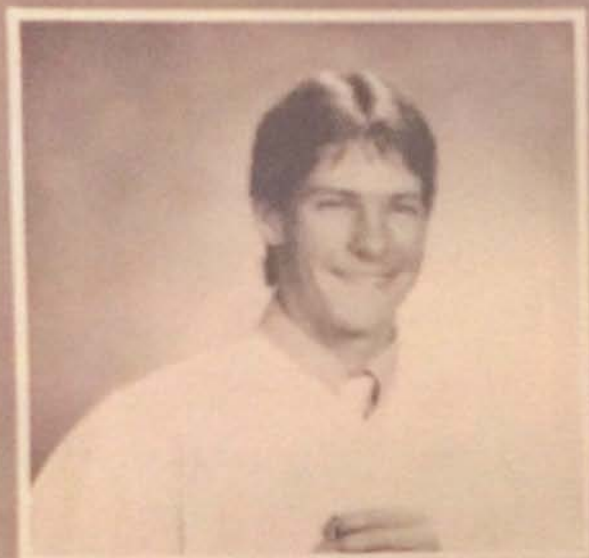

Tammy Erbelding

Tammy is an easy-going yet, responsible person. She has taken an active role in FHA providing a helping hand in its many projects. Her caring manner gives her a quality found in a true friend.

Class Of 1988

Ricky is serious, responsible, and dedicated. He has been an asset to the baseball and track teams. He is a leader and is respected not only by his classmates but also by his peers.

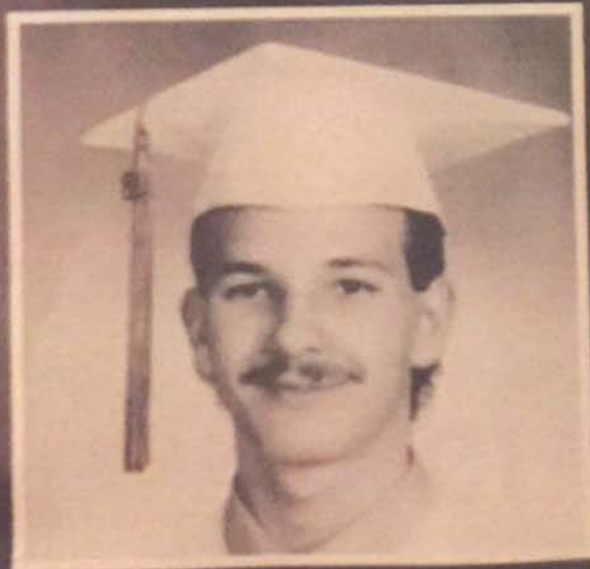

Ricky Harrington

Kelli Joubert

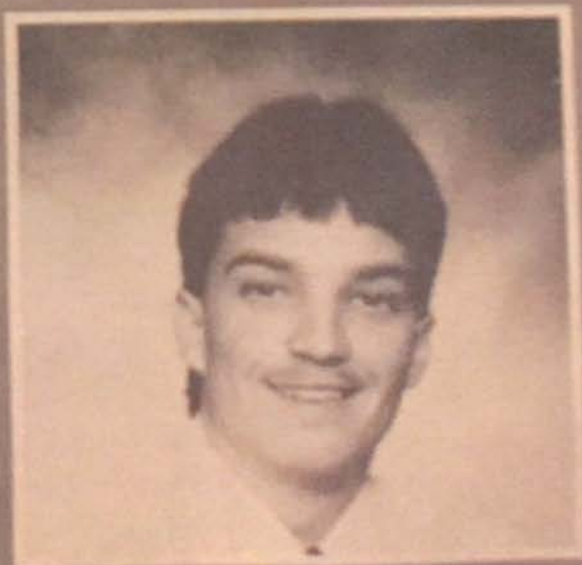

Quiet, polite, and respectful, Kelli has contributed to JHS in terms of kindness and caring. Kelli has grown and accomplished much in her school years.

Dale Jinks

Dale is a born leader who besides implanting school spirit is a member of JHS athletics. With all of his athletic accomplishments and abilities he sportsmanship has set an excellent example for others to follow.

A gentleman's gentleman, Joey exemplifies the outstanding qualities of friendship and service in his three years of JHS. His humor and ease of presence makes students happy to be with him. Joey plans to pursue a career in communications.

Joey Jinks

The Graduates

Outspoken, intellectual, and possessing a magnetic personality, Gilbert is never at a loss for words or friends. He has excelled academically and socially in his six years at JBHS. He has also been manager for the boys' basketball team.

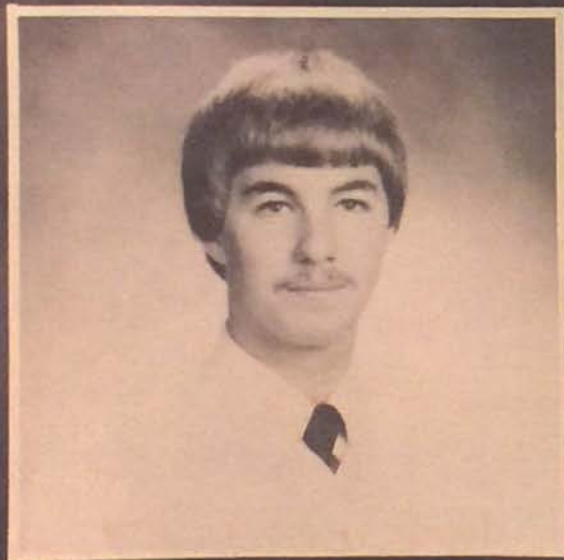

Gilbert LeBeouf, Jr.

James Miller

James has participated in various phases of school life and has been a contributing force in the Senior Class. His unique quality is that he dares to be different. Some of his activities include track, 4-H, and wrestling.

Richard Miller

Richard has been a considerate and courteous student at JBHS. He is respected by both students and faculty. Richard enjoys helping people and making new friends. Basketball and track have played major roles in his high school years.

Able to take life's setbacks in stride, Scott is outgoing and friendly. On the basketball court he is aggressive and tough, but his gentle side shows through in his relationships with his friends and classmates.

Scott Romero

Class Of 1988

Gentle in spirit and strong of character, Sandy's sensitivity and spirit have improved the quality of school life during her two years at JBHS. Active in the Student Council and FBLA, her winning attitude has put her on the path to success.

Angie has distinguished herself in her dedication to the pursuit of excellence. She has contributed to the track team by winning honors in field events at local and state levels. Angie's intelligence will enhance the college she attends.

As a leader of the cheerleading squad for two years, Bobbie Lane has set an example for those who will follow. Her enthusiasm and desire to do her best stands out in the minds of her classmates. Bobbie plans to major in marketing.

Bobbie Trahan

Jeffery Tramonte

Assertive, quick-witted, and possessing great charisma, Jeffery has been involved in various aspects of school life. He is well-regarded by his classmates for his individualism and ability to verbalize his ideas.

Teacher's Pet?

According to Joanie Constance, the best way to get on a teacher's good side is to "talk that fancy language."

"I agree with everything they say and compliment them often." — TISHA TRAHAN

"I pay attention and answer questions in class." — ERICA LARIA

"I try to make them laugh." — DON MORRIS

"I always try to flirt with them." — GEORGE CONSTANCE

"I don't know because I never got on a teacher's good side." — SCOTT SANDIFER

"I do things for them without griping." — DELISA LEGER

Revealing his "macho" image, Scott Sandifer shows off some of the latest styles.

Showing a little of their crazy personalities, Erica Laria and Tisha Trahan share a very close friendship, but don't always see "eye-to-eye".

Quietness seems to be a quality most juniors admire as they vote Troy Trahan and Dawn McRight class favorites.

While Layne Boudreaux still "burns" a ride off mom, Blaine Erbelding drives his own truck to school.

Caution: Road Hazard

Given a test usually taken by drivers of 18-wheelers, Daniel Billiot failed his first written driver's test.

"I had no problems taking my test, everything went smoothly." — BETSY KOPPIE

"I had to borrow a car to take my driving test, because the insurance form for the car I was driving was expired." — BLAINE ERBELDING

"I had to drive the examiner all over Cameron so she could do some errands." — SONJA TRAHAN

Second In District

After securing the runner-up spot in District 9-C, the Rebels faced Bell City in the first step toward the finals. Getting there had not been an easy road for the Rebels. Splitting wins with Hyatt and Grand Lake, the team ended district with a 4-2 record.

In the clash with Bell City, Johnson Bayou jumped out to a 9-6 first quarter lead, but the Bruins outscored them 25-11 in the second stanza to take a 31-20 half time lead.

The Rebels rallied back in the third quarter outscoring Bell City by four. Behind and with time running out, the Rebels lost three players to fouls in the fourth quarter. Despite the pressure, the fresh recruits from the bench and the remaining starters were able to close the gap and finish regulation play with a tie game at 65.

Outscored in overtime period 9-5 and dropping two more players to fouls, the Rebels fell 74-70.

Lady Rebels Grab Wildcard

Finishing third in District 9c, the Lady Rebels advanced to the playoffs as a wildcard. Scheduled to play Indian Bayou, the winner in District 11c, in Abbeville, the Lady Rebels faced several obstacles before the tip-off.

With an FBLA meeting in Lake

Charles on the same day, Coach Trahan picked up some of his team in Sulphur before heading east. Near Crowley, bus trouble developed. After two long hours, the squad arrived in Abbeville.

In the first half of the game, the Lady Rebels held their own, ending the half within five points. The second half proved to be a different story. Caught up by the day's events, the squad could not get a scoring drive started, and continued to slip further behind. Losing 59-36, the girls would have to wait another year.

Excited about their first home game, April Trahan, Erica Laria, Cherelle Duhon and Robin Peavy sport new warm-ups.

Starters Cherelle Duhon, Tiffany Romero, and Sonja Trahan crash the boards during the Lady Rebels 63-30 victory over Bridge City. With this win, the Lady Rebels captured third place in their own tournament.

Cherelle Duhon cuts off the shooting lane as Erica Laria moves in to assist.

After three overtimes, the Lady Rebels fell to Hyatt by two.

Girls Win Parish

Capturing a parish title was a feat claimed only by the seventh grade girls' team. In the tournament, their first win was over Cameron Elementary, a team they had lost to previously by one point. Their second win came by defeating Grand Lake.

The boys did not place, and their only win came in the regular season against Grand Lake.

Selected all-tournament were Nicole Duhon, Julie Boudreaux, and Bradley Jinks.

The only games for the freshmen girls were in the parish tournament. Coming off an away varsity game, the girls had a hard time against their fast-paced opponents. Named all-tournament was April Trahan.

Size and experience were the biggest obstacles for the boys' freshmen team. With only players from the seventh and eighth grades, the team was no match for its freshmen rivals.-JOEY JINKS

Cheering Us On

With dazzling smiles and fancy footwork, the cheerleaders sized through the year. Especially busy during basketball season, they cheered at home games and pep rallies. Their enthusiasm lifted the spirits of the fans and players in victory and defeat.

Giving up much of their free time, the squad practiced diligently to learn new routines. For Homecoming, they learned two routines; one to perform on homecoming night, and the other for their sponsor, Bobbie Lane Trahan.

They were there to keep everyone happy; and that they did. -Bobbie Trahan

Jessica Kellum can't help but smile after a 40-37 victory over Pecan Island by the Lady Rebels.

Practicing for their Homecoming routine, Reesa Badon demonstrates some new moves to Rachael Touchet and Tonya Jinks.

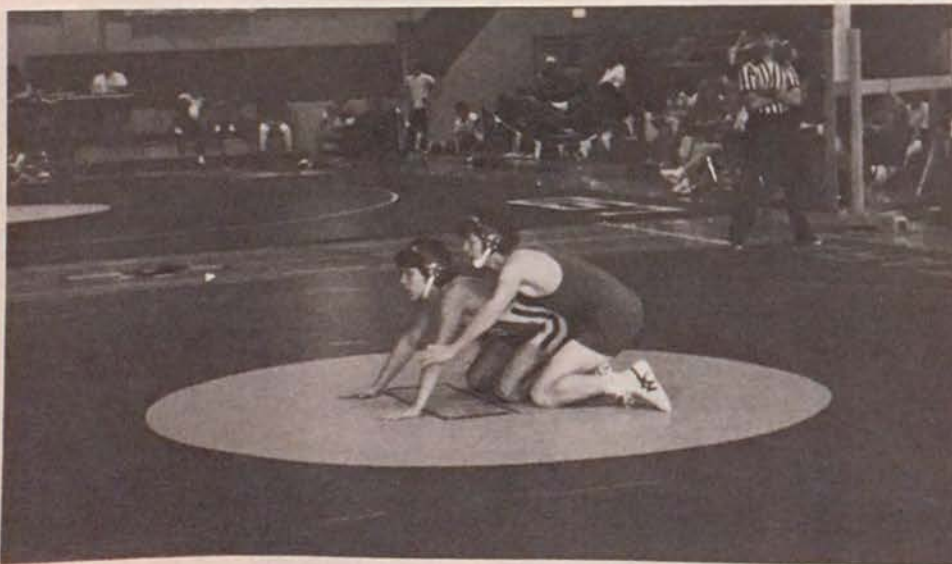

On the playground at the Recreation Center, Karen Erbelding, Tonya Jinks, Julie Boudreaux, Rachael Touchet, Brandy Trahan, Beth Skidmore, and Jessica Kellum take five. This was the first year of cheerleading for Tonya, Beth, Brandy, and Jessica.

Julie Boudreaux and Rachael Touchet anxiously await the funeral ceremony for the Hyatt Bulldogs during Homecoming Week. Cheerleaders for three years, Julie and Rachael have spent many hours boosting the spirits of the fans and athletes.

Rebuilding Time For Wrestlers

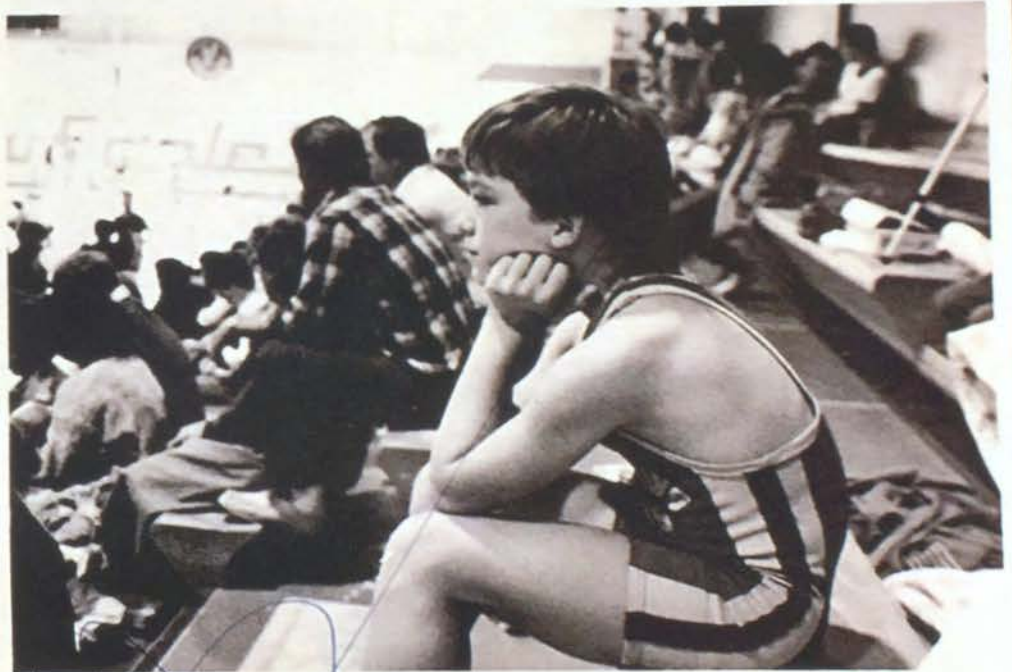

Wrestling coach Brian McDowell summed up 1987-88 as a "rebuilding year." "In most matches our grapplers were out-sized and outnumbered. Our wrestlers did a very fine job, and we're looking forward to next year."

Led by junior George Constance, the Wrestling Rebels participated in several dual meets early in the season. This provided experience for newcomers Shannon Trahan, Dale Morris, Eric Trahan, Troy Trahan, and Lance Blanchard. With such a small team, the Rebels were never able to finish in any commanding positions in the larger meets.

Despite the inexperience of the team, several wrestlers made it to the state meet in Baton Rouge in February. Wrestling in the 98 pound class, eighth-grader Shannon Trahan placed fourth. In the 132 pound division, Dale Morris, an eighth grader, also finished fourth. The only wrestler to pick up a medal was George Constance in the 138 pound division. With a team score of 38 points, the second highest score in Johnson Bayou's history, the Rebels finished tenth out of twelve teams. - Joey Jinks

Despite the youngness of the team, the Lady Rebels made an impressive statement at the state track meet. With seven qualifiers that included two seniors, three sophomores, one freshman, and an eighth-grader, the tracksters scored 46 1/2 points, finishing behind Pleasant Hill with 56 1/2 points and Phoenix with 52 points.

Leading the Lady Rebels third place finish were Angie Trahan, Cherelle Duhon, and Stephanie Vining.

In the discus, Angie finished second with a 102-7 toss. She came back to claim the shot put competition with a new state record at 36-11 1/2.

Cherelle ran a 17.08 in the 100-Meter hurdles to claim second place while Stephanie leaped 4-10 to finish second in the high jump.

During the regular season and with the added help of eight more team members, the Lady Rebels fared well against their competition. Their only finish out of the top two came in the first meet of the year, the Lady Buck Relays. In this opener, their competitors were power teams from A to AAAA schools.

They won the Cameron Parish title easily, feats done by the freshmen and eighth grade teams.

A freshmen, Kris Trahan gives it her best shot in the regional meet.

At the regional meet, Cherelle Duhon, Betsy Koppie, Tiffany Romero, and April Trahan warm up for the 400-Meter relay. They claimed a first at regional and a fourth at state.

In the 1600-Meter run, Sonja Trahan crosses the finish line in first place.

Clearing the bar a 4-11, Stephanie Vining reaches her best height for the season. An eighth-grader, Stephanie also qualified for state in the 400-Meter dash.

Aiming for the finish line, Cherelle Duhon springs across the last hurdle. Cherelle's best time, 16.69, came in the regional meet.

Skimming the bar, April Trahan clears her best height of 4-10 to take her to the state meet.

Karen Erbeling, April Tingler, Julie Boudreaux, and Reesa Badon practice hand-offs before the start of the 400-Meter relay in the regional meet.

Cool and collected, Angie Trahan aims for another record in the shot put. Named outstanding field in the parish, district, and regional meets, Angie set records in both the shot and discus, including a state record in the shot put.

Rebels Win State

Competing in every event but the 800, 1600, and 3200 meter runs, the Rebels were favored to win the title before they left home. Eight athletes went to the state meet, entered in 14 events, with pairs in four field events. Scoring in all 14 events, the Rebels ran away with the Class C crown piling up 103 points.

The Rebels' attack was led by Ricky Harrington. A defending state champion in the pole vault, Ricky bettered last year's record jump by six inches, with a 14-0 vault. Breaking the tape at 17.15 in the hurdles gave Ricky another first.

Other first places came from Scott Sandifer and Dale Jinks.

Scott hopped, skipped, and jumped 42-9 1/4 to win the triple jump. He also took third in the high jump and fourth in the shot.

Dale hurled the javelin 150-4 for first and grabbed a third in the long jump.

Seconds came from Nathan Delino in the pole vault and Kent Leger in the 400-Meter. An 11-6 vault secured the runner-up place for Nathan while Kent edged out Monticello's Freddie Thompson at the line for a second in the 400.

Third places came from Scott Romero in the discus with a toss of 107-7 and Barry Badon in the 200 with a 23.62.

A talented team, the Rebels brought home the second state championship in three years.

Ricky Harrington, Kent Leger, Blaine Erbeiding and Barry Badon prepare for the 800-meter relay. In district they set a new record at 1:35.68.

Pressing forward, Ricky Harrington takes his final steps to another victory. Undefeated in the pole vault, Ricky set new school, parish, district, regional, and state records. His top height was 14-3.

After a false start, Barry Badon and Dale Jinks step into the blocks for another start of the 100-meter dash.

On his first attempt at 11-6, Nathan Delino hits the bar. But he came back to clear it easily on his second try.

Shot putter, Scott Romero steps into the circle at the regional meet.

Clubs

New Leadership

New leadership brought refreshing changes to the 4-H club, drawing it into the mainstream of student life. Teachers Theresa Leonards and Carla Frey took over the reins as the school year opened. One of their main goals was to get more students involved in 4-H, even those who were not members.

To start the year, the club held an action-packed week of activities during 4-H Week. Students found the week rewarding, especially Clover Day. Prizes were given hourly to the person wearing the clover with the lucky number drawn. Later in the year, 4-H members collected food for Thanksgiving baskets that were given to families in the communities.

Members also competed in several parish contests during the year. Beth Skidmore won two first places on Contest Day in cooking and Travis Trahan won first place in the Chicken Que Contest. Troy Miller competed in the parish and state livestock shows.

Members agreed that this year was livelier with activities for all. -Bobbie Trahan

During a monthly meeting, Melissa Trahan passes out bulletins to Jennifer Tingler, Jessica Leger, and Rita Tingler.

Preparing for their annual candy sale, Melissa Trahan, Jessica Logan, Selina McGee, and Summer Hicks discuss sales strategies.

FHA Fund Raising

With the future in mind, members started the year raising money for the district and state meets held at the end of the school year. Candy grams, usually sold in February for Valentine's Day, were sold at Christmas and on St. Patrick's Day. This continued to be a bonanza for the club.

Kris Kringle Week was given a new twist, with teachers giving FHA members daily gifts. Members enjoyed small gifts that included homemade cookies and candies.

Several changes in the annual beauty pageant, including a name change from Sweetheart Pageant to Starlight Pageant, proved to be disastrous for the club. Due to an increase in entry fees, there was a lack of contestants which resulted in poor audience participation.

In March, members attended the district convention in Lafayette. After the convention, members shopped at the local mall.

Baton Rouge was the site of the annual state meeting, where various meetings took place over a three-day period in April. Between attending meetings, members enjoyed the sights of the city.

Working frantically, Tammy Erbelding, Sandy Salter, and Mrs. McDaniel organize the Valentine's candy grams for delivery.

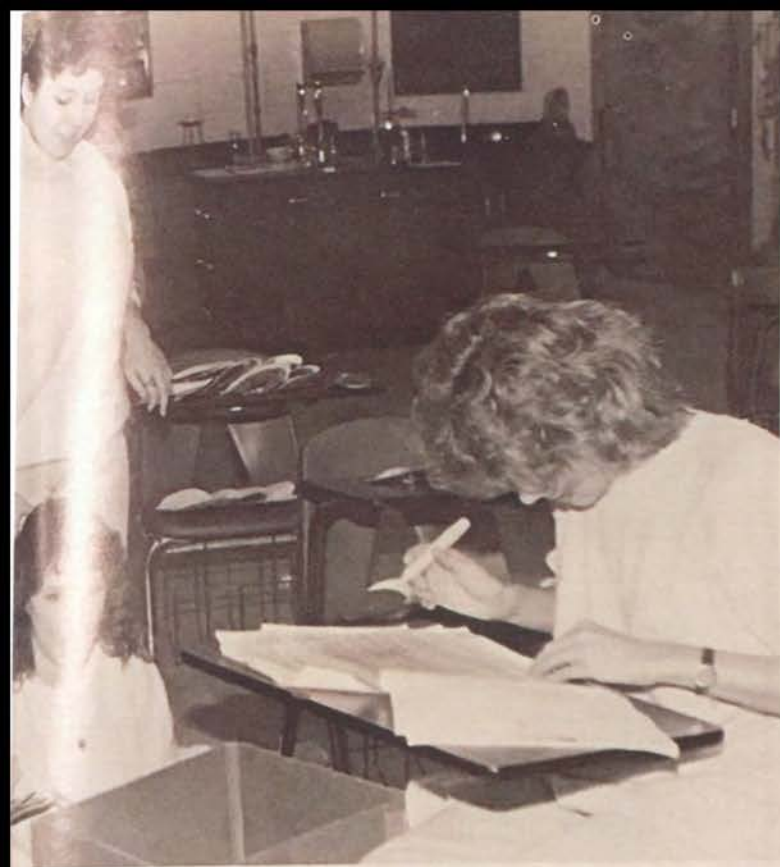

FHA members chose Dale Jinks as their beau.

At the annual Christmas party, Tisha Trahan, Tina Jinks, Erica Laria, and Besty Koppie sample the goodies.

Amanda Trahan and Tammy Erbelding decorate the stage for the upcoming Starlight Pageant.

F.B.L.A. Attends District Meet

In February, F.B.L.A. members traveled to McNeese State University for the 33rd Annual District IV Future Business Leaders of America Leadership Conference. After being tested in many categories, members earning a superior rating competed in Baton Rouge on March 20-23, against superior winners throughout the state.

Angie Trahan, in Business Calculations, rated superior and Dale Jinks and Donald Morris received excellence in the poster contest. -Nathan Delino

For the second year in a row Angie Trahan qualifies for the state meet in Baton Rouge. At the state meet held in March, Angie finished in the top six in her category.

Prior to the district meet, Gilbert LeBeouf, Bobbie Trahan, Nathan Delino, and Joanie Constance listen for their assigned subjects. Each member is tested in a specific business field.

Between her classes and a busy schedule, business teacher Mrs. Sandifer, also manages to find time to be the F.B.L.A. group sponsor.

In Memory Of

In memory of our beloved classmate and friend: Even though you were taken from us at the beginning of our lives, you are still part of us. You have accomplished every goal that we have accomplished and you have lived in our hearts and minds throughout our school years. You will continue to dwell with us until we meet you in the years to come.

You are one of the reasons our class has stuck together and left a lasting impression on people's lives. No matter what anyone says, you are still with us and no one can change that. WE LOVE YOU, KEVIN.
