"A Decade To Remember"

It is hard to believe that it is the dawning of a new decade. The 80's have gone by like a flash. But it has not been a decade of repetition. The past ten years have brought both thrills and agony to the people of Johnson Bayou and the students at Johnson Bayou High School. This past decade has seen our school become a "model" school through the SPUR Reading Program. It has seen our athletes become state champions. The thrill of victory in academics and athletes has given our students the recognition they so richly deserve. Our community has so much to be proud of. There has also been much pain endured throughout these ten years. The loss of many loved ones through tragedy has left bittersweet memories of this decade to remember. Through it all the people of Johnson Bayou have laughed together and cried together, bringing us all a little closer together.

Sports

Rebels Are Fan-tastic

A vital part of any sporting event is to have fan support. Here the fans witness the Rebels' final victory of the season over the Hyatt Bulldogs.

Rebel pep rallies were organized by different high school classes. Sophomores Krystal, Aaron, Kelly, and Freshman Tonya pose after a successful rally.

The varsity team lines up for the presentation of Rebel supporters.

Eric Lagneaux carefully aims for a 3-pointer.

Lucky Rebel fans proudly display their rebel supporters naming them as special fans for the game.

Justin Trahan and Jessica Leger struggle to stay alive in the 3-legged race.

During the last pep rally "Davey" (Mr. A) gets the crowd into the spirit of things.

During the "Coach Says" section of the pep rally, Ms. Sandifer says a prayer not to embarrass herself too much.

Ms. LaFleur seems to be able to remain poised in any situation.

Someone goofed! Was it Ms. Faye or Coach Welch???

How to you, O great rockin' Rebel.

The Class of 90 proudly display their banner given to them at the last pep rally by their Rebel fans.

It was 2 seasons ago when the Lady Rebels hosted the Hyatt Bulldogs. At the end of regulation the score was tied 46 all. At the end of the 1st overtime each team had advanced 2 points. The 2nd overtime ended with the score 49-49. The third and final overtime saw Hyatt scoring two more points to be victorious. It was a moment to remember.

"Look, they're taking our picture," whispers Karen to Reesa while the lady Rebels huddle up.

"I listen better with my eyes closed," adds Kelly while Coach Trahan gives instructions.

Tonya gives Coach Trahan a break from coaching.

"I got it! I got it!" Karen pushes out her opponents for a defensive rebound.

"We should take ballet," says Tiffany and Stephanie while looking picture perfect for this one.

"It's mine!" Betsy struggles to snatch the ball from a determined opponent.

"Daddy, why does it have to end?" Sonja gives Coach Trahan a hug after the final game of the season.

Although battling high March winds is routine for track season, this year's weather was rather unseasonable. Above the volunteer timers for the J.B. Relays are seen wearing their winter coveralls to stay warm in the 50 degree temperature and high winds. The Regional track meet also had unusual weather. The meet took two days because of drenching rains that caused the last few events to be postponed.

A vital part of every track meet is the recordkeeping necessary to correctly award the participants. Many thanks to all volunteers who worked at the various events at each meet.

Others lettering were: Troy Miller, Dale Morris, Heather Benoit, April Tingler, Julie Boudreaux, Ginger Trahan and Heath Jinks.

Participants were: Jonathan Tramonte, Don Trahan, Travis Trahan, Bradley Jinks, Lance Benoit, Keith Price, Robby Trahan, April Trahan, Heather Trahan, Jenny Trahan, Wendy Vining, Tina Reed, Shannon Trahan and Chad Merritt.

This year cake and punch were served at the banquet. Jamie Trahan and Britney Trahan get ready for the guests.

Mr. Hot Shot was presented a T-shirt for being such a supportive fan.

Coach Welch was presented a plaque from the Rebel team.

Coach Trahan was presented a T-shirt with the signatures of the Lady Rebels along with a portrait of the team.

The Lady Rebels were presented with T-shirts by the Cameron Telephone Company for being state champions in Class "C" track.

The Rebels also received a T-shirt for being District Champions.

DANIEL "Tanker" BILLIOT being promoted to manager of Popeyes and opening up his own organization called "Sweet Dreams" Anonymous for people with compulsive sleeping habits.

LAYNE "Know-It-All" BOUDREAU moving to Hollywood to become a permanent guinea pig for hair experimentation. Surprisingly his hairstyles become famous all over the world.

ALTON "Alfonz" EAST designing his own professional line of computers called ALFONZ INTERNATIONAL. They can be seen in the homes of many American families and businesses by the year 2000.

BLAINE "Do-You-Know-What-I-Think" ERBELDING becoming a famous psychiatrist, touring around the world offering his advice to anyone who will listen.

QUINTON "Double" ISTRE opening up his own comedy hall called SCOOBIE DOUBIE DOO's where he can be seen Saturday's 7-11 p.m.

BETSY "Get Well Soon" KOPPIE coming up with the exceptional idea of buying her own hospital thinking it would be cheaper to own one.

TROY "T-Roy" MILLER becoming a dedicated fireman, crusin' around in his brand new shiny fire truck while putting out the flames of girls' hearts.

KARL "Romeo" ROMERO at 45, still cruisin' the beach flirting with girls, seeking the ideal American woman with perfect teeth.

TIFFANY "Knock-out" ROMERO becoming heavyweight champion of the world after knocking out Mike Tyson in a match in Las Vegas.

AMANDA "Road Runner" TRAHAN being married to Marc with 6 little girls traveling around the world to enter them in beauty pageants.

SONJA "Oh, is my hair right?" TRAHAN inventing a superhold hairspray that can withstand any of nature's unexpected changes in the weather. Also be looking on the market for Sonja's new line of 24 hour make-up. You can wear it, wash it, rub it, and it won't come off.

Junior Prophecy

Senior Will

The Seniors of 1990 want to say thanks to all of you for the fond memories we take with us as we begin our journey of life. We want to leave some of ourselves to you so that we won't be forgotten.

TROY leaves his sneaky ideas to Jason, his luck in passing correspondence courses to anyone who needs it, and managing skill to Tonya. DOUBIE leaves his humor to Peanut, his grades to Randall and some of his hair to Todd Jinks for future use.

AMANDA wills her calculator and her spare time to Ms. Diane, her personality and good attitude to Todd Jinks and her patience of being class president to April Jinks cause she will need it.

BLAINE wills his hustling and running ability to Dale Morris and his night-sight to Eric Trahan so that he can improve his nocturnal boat-driving.

KARL leaves his sleeping spot to Eric Trahan so he can enjoy study hall.

BETSY wills her intelligence to Sheila, her athletic ability to Tonya Jinks, her jumping ability to Karen Erbeling and her good attitude and height to Kelly.

ALTON wills his computer intelligence to Peanut, his cheat sheets to Eric Trahan and his picture collection to Bubba. To Jennifer he will his calculator and typewriter because she will need them.

SONJA leaves her extra set of car keys to Scott in hopes that by next year she will have her own wheels.

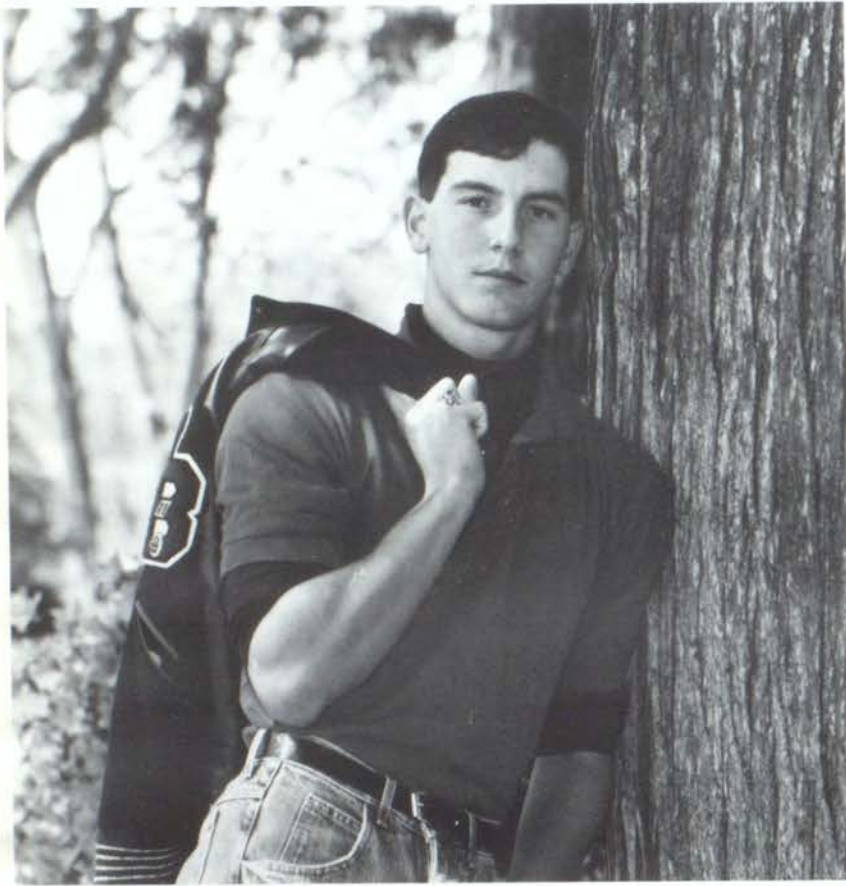

DANIEL leaves his part-time jobs to Bubba to help pay for his tickets. LAYNE pondered over what to will and decided he would need everything he has to survive in the outside world.

TIFFANY wills her smile to April Tingler, enough common sense to figure out a joke to Tonya Jinks and her well developed legs to Tina Reed.

We the CLASS OF 1990 will all of our extra time and energy to the Class of 1991 because they used up all of theirs on us.

Christmas On

As the last day before Christmas vacation draws to a close, the sixth grade share refreshments and exchange gifts.

Sunshine Anderson and Virginia Hollenshead unpack gifts with Miss Frey as Angie Kellum and Joey LeJeune watch the fun.

Brandi Graves, Michael Jinks, Mindy Trahan, and Corey Badon are special toys to be loaded in Santa's sleigh.

As elves, the kindergarteners make Mr. & Mrs. Santa's job easier.

Natasha, Charles, Brandon, & Tasha gather around the first grade's tree.

During breaks in the Christmas play, choir members entertain the audience with their favorite carols.

The Bayou

While listening to their favorite music, eighth graders party in the gym with the freshmen, juniors and seniors.

Narrators Selina McGee and Jody Trahan set the mood for the annual Christmas play.

Todd Jinks and Amanda Trahan star as Mr. and Mrs. Santa in "Santa Claus is Coming to Town".

Sasha, Kyle, Megan, Amber, Norma, Jason, and Wesley find out the true meaning of Christmas by giving toys to the needy.

Seventh graders show off the gifts they received for Christmas.

Tonya LeJeune, Stella Tingler, and Nicole Doucet perform in the Christmas play.

We were honored to have some of our community senior citizens as the judges. They were: Mrs. Thelma Jinks, Mrs. Vida Constance, Mrs. Pat Chenney, Mrs. Verna Trahan and Mrs. Ophelia Marshall.

Sponsored by: Sallye Jean Toniette

The Fur Festival had Sarah Nunez and Charles Meaux as Johnson Bayou's Little Mr. & Miss representatives. Amanda Trahan receive 2nd runner-up and Miss Personality.

Three dance groups entertained for our school's pageant. They were: Top: Sunshine A., Casey R., Alesha T. and Regina M. Middle: Raedella B., Summer H., Jessica L. and Jessica Leger. Bottom: Tina R., Selina M., Britney T. and Mendy H.

Amanda Trahan and Tiffany Romero represented Johnson Bayou in the Miss Cal-Cam Pageant.

Beth Skidmore was Johnson Bayou's representative for the junior division of the Miss Cal-Cam Pageant.

Having Fun

Natalie Boydston, Summer Hicks and Sasha Dupree compete in the Bunny "Dress Up" contest organized by the Activity committee Easter week.

Mrs. Bearden's second grade class decorated bunnies for Easter. Winners are: Front row: Casey Trahan, Chris McGee and Jacob Nunez. Back row: Bridget Burchett, Sarah Nunez and Norma Jean Jinks.

The Activity committee held a Best Decorated Egg contest. Winners were: Front row: Sasha Dupree, Amber Romero, Michael Jinks, Mendy Jinks and Jamie Trahan. Not shown: Julie Boudreaux.

At Easter Time

Kindergarteners Natasha Trahan, Tonya Istre, Christy Billiot, Ashley Erbelding and Clifford LeJeune anxiously await their turn to hunt Easter eggs.

"I got it," "I got it," "I got it" says Wesley Crader, Jacob Nunez and Eric Badon as they find an egg at the same time.

Demonstrating the proper way to place an egg in the basket is Natasha Trahan. Being in kindergarten, she will have quite a few years to perfect this skill.

Preschoolers get to enjoy the Easter festivities when their older siblings begin school. Here Amber Boudreaux munches on some Easter goodies.

Prom
1990

"Enchanted Nights"

This year's prom was a little different than usual. With such few juniors, it took 3 days of hard work to decorate. The prom began with a special video presentation given by the juniors. The video showed the seniors from birth to present. After the presentation, the seniors and juniors had a banquet meal. The sophomores were invited to the dance this year.

Heather Benoit puts together decorations while April Jinks stop to give Aaron his 2:00 feeding.

Todd Jinks and Heather Benoit practice their steps while putting the final touches to the floor.

Aaron "Bubba" Lagneaux was the Prom's D.J. for the night.

Looking "chilled out" are Sonja, Amanda, Karl and Troy.

Arriving in rare form are seniors Daniel Billiot and Alton East. In the background are Heather B., Troy T., and Kelly Finch.

Seniors and their dates make a toast to the night.

Adding a little romance to the night are couples Amanda and Mark and Sonja and Double.

The Sophomores looked poised as they stop for a picture.

Although this year's group was not the most "footloose" crowd, they were in step as you can see.

A Graduation
 to Remember

It was graduation of 1983. The small class of six had worked very hard to decorate the stage for commencement exercises. Everything was just right except the weather. There had been tornado warnings and school was let out early. Just as the children were arriving home, several twisters swept through Johnson Bayou's middle ridge. One caught the edge of the school gym causing heavy rains to drench the gym floor. Thanks to a few faithful volunteers, the water was removed before any damage could be done. Graduation was postpone until the following week. One graduate had already left and was unable to attend. Thank goodness no lives were harmed.
