The Rebel

CAN'T HIDE

What A Year! And we thought last year couldn't be topped. To describe this year in one statement would have to be, I'm proud! Proud of what? Everything. For some time now we as students, as parents, as Americans have been lacking something. Through the events of this year we have recaptured our pride. With the threat of war as our school year began, we searched our hearts for the true purpose of life. When war began we searched again for the purpose of such drastic measures. When victory became a reality, we found what we had been looking for. We found that we as people of the United States of America possessed something that was worth fighting for. Something that was worth dying for. Our freedom is priceless. Through it all we have come to realize that life is worth living and we can be PROUD of who we are!

Proud to be American . . .

from Louisiana . . .

from Johnson Bayou . . .

a REBEL!

*The community pulled together as a team to give our troops a warm welcome.

*I feel proud that our school had such a large part in supporting our troops.

*We love the U.S.A. I was born in the U.S.A. What we stand for is what we are.

*I'm proud to be a Rebel because Rebels always try and if we don't succeed, we try again.

*I'm proud to be a Rebel because the teachers are great.

*I'm proud to be an American because you can be what you want to be when you grow up.

*I love the men and women who fought to keep us free.

*When you raise the flag, say the pledge, or even sing the national anthem, say it with pride!!!

It's SPIRIT YELL time!

Reesa Badon, Rachael Touchet and Julie Boudreaux were the cheerleader sponsors.

"What goes up, must come down," seems to be the thought of these players at the Biddy ballgame.

Mikey Merritt, Tasha Roberson and Matthew Labauve seem a little puzzled as to what to do next.

PEP IT UP!

Shake it to the left. Shake it to the right. Stand up. Sit down. Fight! Fight! Fight!

The cheerleaders performed their class's rap at one of the pep rallies.

Natasha Trahan has the lead on Garret Burrows during a dribbling race.

Attending a basketball game can be quite exciting for adults and teenagers, but for the little ones it's just too much. Here, the preschoolers find coloring more to their liking.

Music is played at most pep rallies. The kindergarteners found the music a little hard to get used to.

JOHNSON BAYOU SCHOOL REFLECTS UPON ...

Each year grades kindergarten through sixth grade present a Christmas program. This year they decided to present the original Christmas story. The play was narrated by Britney Trahan. It was a beautiful presentation by all involved. After the play, the children were paid a visit by Santa.

AH, YES! THE JOY OF GIVING OR RECEIVING?

Each class has a Christmas party the last day of school before the holidays. The joy of exchanging gifts and eating good food is always something to look forward to. Some of the high school classes have their party in the gym. They are able to party with their class and then visit their other friends in other grades.

THE VALIANT VOLUNTEER FIREMAN'S CREED

- Who spends endless, exhausting hours training without pay?
- Who instantly responds to a cry for help?
- Who's consummately devoted to saving lives and stands devastated when they are lost?
- Who's more joyously welcomed at the scene of a tragedy, accident, or catastrophe?
- Who's often ridiculed for his commitment rather than complimented for his sacrifice?
- Who's car remains always mechanically fine-tuned, parked head-on in the driveway?
- Who tolerates interruptions in his work and in home life and is expected to be always ready to act?
- Who's devotion to God and country are a hallmark of his character?
- Who's more willing to subordinate his own comforts, health and even his life to benefit his community?
- Who never measures his contribution to his neighbors or expects their gratitude?
- Who guards life and property at all hours everyday, regardless of personal convenience?
- Who is ever available to serve despite rain of frost, storm or blizzard, even through the darkness of night?
