Junior Prophecy

We the Juniors of 2000 for-see:

Jeremiah "It wasn't my fault" Stelplugg
Going off to the navy and becoming a world famous admiral-Admiral Red Stelplugg. When he retires he will move to Ireland and discover his pot of gold at the end of his rainbow!!

Megan "Yes I have Blue Jeans" Zammit
Starting her own line of bell-bottom sweat pants to fund her trips to Cameron. It's okay Megan, we know no one can resist the sweet aroma of Cameron!!

Roxanne "George Strait is MY man" Trahan
Going to college and becoming a psychic. One day she gets a call from George Strait offering her a leading role in his new movie "Rosy Goes to Town"!!

Christen "I'm the boss, Applesauce" Dempsey
Becoming partners with her mom, Gayla and opening their own salon "CURL UP AND DYE". Christen. WHO'S THE BOSS!!

John "Probably So, Boys" Trahan
Graduating from High School and opening his own floating party club "GEMINI" on Deep Bayou, right off the shore from "Curl Up and Dye". Watch out Lagneaux's.

Christopher "Einstein" McGee
Appearing frequently on politically incorrect as a famous people critic, letting the world know just how wrong they are. Don't worry Chris, we know your right!!!

Brooks "It's all fun and games" Skeldon
Finally losing an eye on a duck hunting adventure. Looks like the games are over huh Brooks!!!

Amber "Footloose" Jinks
Going off to college pursuing a degree in cartography (dance inventor) and holding a full time job at Gemini's as a dance instructor. Hey Amber, BUST A MOVE!!!

Samara "Watch out for that Ditch" Clark
Inventing her own hair scheme. Who's her #1 customers? None other than "Curl Up and Dye". Don't worry Samara, women are not known for going bald!!!

Bridget "I've fallen and I can't get up" Trahan
Inventing the world's first chairs specially made to dance on during her summers off from her new job as secretary of Johnson Bayou School. Bridget will personally test each chair before it's sold. Watch out Bridget, GEMINI already set you in back order!!!

Andrew "Microsoft" Scroggins
Creating the world's most dangerous computer virus "Shut Up"!!!

Shannan "Blabbermouth" Wright
Co-hosting with Jerry Springer: Spring Break Live!!!

Jim "Play that funky music white boy" Snyder
Opening a chain of car audio's and paint and body shops named "Welcome to My Level". Don't worry Jim, Casey and John will give you plenty of business!!!

Casey "Superstar" Trahan
Being a lottery pick for the Lakers and replacing Kobe Bryant. During the off season he will take Jim Carry's place in the sequel of "Liar Liar"!!!

Sam "Do you understand the words that are coming out of my mouth" Coleman
Graduating high school and leaving for the navy. After graduating from the navy, he will come back to Johnson Bayou and take over the head coaching position.

I, Roxanne will to the Juniors, especially Lacey, Amanda, and Tasha thanks for always giving me a good laugh with your crazy sense of humor. To Misty, I leave my friendship, and my hang in there it's only two more years. To my classmates, thanks for the memories and for being, and for being the best friends I could ever have. To my family and friends, thank you for always being there for me no matter what I chose to do. Last but not most important, I would like to thank God for giving me the strength and will to be where I am and who I am today.

I Jeremiah Lee Stelplugg, will to my brother Mack, my ability to keep a cool temper, no matter the situation. To Fren, I will the ability for my hair to lie down. I will to Brodie, my ability to go out and have fun once in a while. To Cole and Dominique, I will my basketball skills. To my friends in Johnson Bayou, I leave my love and everlasting friendship.

I Christen McRae Dempsey, will to Khal, Chelsea, Katy, and Taylor my athletic abilities and knowledge to get out of school even during the hard times. To Amanda my courage to make it through life especially during the tough times, also my ability to find the right man, even if it does cause a large phone bill and crazy weekends. To Lacey, my crazy, insane ways of going about life, but still making it with a straight road ahead. Also, my car for all the times you rode me around with my feet out the window & my never ending friendship. To Stacy, I know I'm the sister you always wanted, but sooner or later you'll be ready to get rid of me. I leave you the ability to take over my place on the court and track. Make it the best you can! Last but not least, my mom and dad for being the most strong, supportive, people I have ever known. You stuck with me through the good and bad times. I know I wasn't the little angel you always wanted, yet you still showed me love and support. I'll never be able to repay you two. All I can say is I love you, and wouldn't have made it without you.

I, Casey Keith Trahan, will to Joshua my height, so he will one day know what it is like to be 6 ft. tall. To my brother, Jared, the ability to get through school by any means necessary while having fun doing it. Thanks to Red and Brooks for always keeping their papers visible so I could pass my test. To Dominique Sandifer my trash can so he can put all the trash he talks in it. Keep the trash around Dominique, some day you might be able to lock it up. To John & Jim, thanks for the memories of our last year in high school. But remember it will not be our last memories together. To my parents I just say thanks for always being there for me.

I, Christopher Ryan McGee, would first like to thank the teachers for coming to school everyday they could, although I wish most of them would have stayed home everyday. I thank Coach Cormier for being a good coach. You did pretty well for your first year. To my sisters, thanks for being there even though we got into a lot of fights and you never won. To Hunter my love and ability to cut grass and take out the trash. To Kennedy my love for cartoons. To Misty thanks for being there and I will always love you no matter what you do. To you also my ability to stay up late. To my senior class I want to change our motto: Let us be thankful we parted as friends, here is to the past, let us do it again. To Uncle Glenn, ability to admit who the BOSS is. To Aunt Angie I was hoping for you to will me a key to your back door. To Jarrett my love and toys. To Dominique my ability to shoot and TO PASS WELL. To Jeremy and Brandon chalk is bad for you. To Jody and Cody, buy a Ford because those Chevys don't last. To Brina I don't know what to will you so find a new ride to school. To Mikey, you need to get rid of your WCW tape before your mom finds it. To my grandpa I forgive you for buying a Chevy, I know you are getting old. To my Mom and Dad, thank you for putting up with me all of these years, and for your unconditional love. To my Dad my ability to be right, and to put things back where they belong. Oh yeah, and I want to thank mom's checkbook for being there for me too.

I James David Snyder, want to thank the Juniors for always being there for me. To Eric my ability to hang in there no matter how hard it gets. To my brother John, that little piece of paper that has always gotten me out of school, and my sincere thanks for all our years as friends. To my mother, thank you for always being by my side, and helping me in any way that you could. Thanks mom, I love you. I also want thank Mrs. Sandifer for pushing me to the limit, and for putting up with my attitude. To the sophomores, my thanks for always giving me someone to talk to. And to everyone else at school my mistakes so you can learn from them.

I Megan Zammit first of all would like to give my love and appreciation to my heavenly father for allowing me to come this far in life. To Laura, Cheyenne, and Michael I would will my ability to pass and make it out of this here. To Misty, I leave my friendship (remember it's only two more years). To Amanda, Lacey, and Tasha I will the ability to act normal in class or anywhere for that matter. To Ian, Kyrise, and Jarrett I'm going to miss you, it's hard knowing that I'm going to miss out on a lot of your growing up. Nichole, I love you, thanks for being here for me through so much. And to my parents, thank you for raising me. I know I haven't always been the most pleasant person, but I love you and I'll be forever grateful for all you have done for me and taught me.

I, Amber Nicole Baska, want to first thank God for getting me here today. To Ms. Sandifer, my "thanks" for everything she has done for me. I really admire your ways and intelligence. To Ms. Bressana, I thank for getting up with me for so long. I know we might not have always got along but it was all lessons learned. I will miss you, but I will be back to prove old scheders can still play ball. To Mr. Larry, thanks for all the blowover candles, it really made a difference on my concentration in class. I will my positive attitude to Sarah and the strength to smile when things don't go her way. To misty, my ability to stand strong, play fair, and never give up. My faithful ways to Amber Romers because we all know this is one thing she lacks. To Lacey, I will my tape so that was she can do a little kickboxing next time the ref calls against little miss 44. Don't worry Lacey just do the beating after enough and you might get promoted to being in the ring with Mike Tyson. My cousin to write to play at least district games without fouling out. Larry I thank for bringing out the true definition of a real friend. To Tasha, my determination to be able to come back strong after all the injuries, but on the same hand be thankful that it wasn't worse. To Lacey, Tasha, & Amanda, the lead role on the basketball team. Just remember, "There is nothing less important than the score at halftime." To the lady rebels, my ability to remember you can fall 100 times but the challenge is how you get back up. To all of my friends at JBHS, do all you can to better yourself now because your time is running out. I also pray that you find it in your heart to look for the best in people although some people don't always find the best in me. Last but not least, I will my everlasting love to my family for all their love, giving, and patience. A special thanks to my mother and father for always all I needed and believing in me. I love you all!!!

I, Sean W. Coleman, Jr., will to Helvigh, Zachery, and the rest of my beloved sisters and brothers my ability to play sports. I will to Mark, my ability to keep quiet. I will to my parents my love and gratitude for all you have given me through the years no matter what I have done. I will to Natasha my love and devotion throughout life. I will to Mr. Tom, Mr. Melinda and Shelby my love and thanks for everything they have done. And to the class of 2000, best wishes for the future.

I Bridget Trahan, would like to thank God who has been there every second of my life. To Shelby, I leave my ability to never give up. Just remember everyone makes mistakes. To Brina and Jeremy my ability to get out of school knowing you did your best. Lacey, Tasha, and Amanda, the senior girls spot "the cherry" to sit and gossip after lunch. Misty, my everlasting friendship. Always know that your 2nd home will always be at my house no matter what. To Blake, Maligh, Hunter, Kennedy, Jarrett, and Madison, my ability to get along with everyone. There are two things you must always remember; you can do anything you put your mind to so never give up, and cousins stick together. Megan, Roxanne, Samara, Chris, Christen, and Amber my friendship. Jim, my everlasting friendship. Jack, thank you for being there, and I love you very much. Brandy, Britney, Brent, and Brian I thank you for the love we share between us. To my parents, I could tell you thank you a million times and still it would not be enough. Thanks mom for taking care of Jarrett. It made me feel safe knowing that Jarrett was in good hands. Thank you Dad for working hard to support our family and raising us the best way you know how. Mom and Dad you have been my greatest support, I love you!

I, Samara Clark, would first like to thank Aunt Donna and Uncle Lynn for being there for me these past two years and putting up with me. To Kimberly, I leave my TV time and remote control. Now, you'll always be able to watch whatever you want. To the cheerleaders I leave my ability to yell louder than everyone else. Ashley and Amber R. I leave my car and some gas money to go riding around and the weekends, but not to go chasing around your boyfriends. To the junior girls I thank you for always knowing how to make me laugh. No matter how down I was all I had to do was sit in a class with you for an hour and by the time I got out of there, the only thing I was thinking about was how funny you guys are. To Misty, I leave the memories of us sitting in the middle of the basketball court. Next year, when you're out there all alone all you will have to do is remember and we will be there with you. To all my friends I'm leaving behind, I just want to thank you for accepting me and be the best friends I've ever had. I see now how you act towards people you don't know and I guess I'm just lucky that you let me in your clique and didn't act like that towards me. To my senior class I will miss you all. I will never forget all the good times we shared together. To my family, I thank you for always pushing me to do my best. If it wasn't for you I wouldn't be where I am today.

SUMMER

is

SOOOOOOOOO

CLOSE

*We've had some laughs.
We may have shed a tear.
But one thing's for sure
It's been a memorable year.
If this be the last that our paths shall meet,
hope your memories of JBHS have been oh so SWEET!!*
