FROM

The Geometry class compete in a bridge building contest. Bridges made with popsicle sticks were judged in the categories of strength, most creative design, and the bridge weighing the least. Justine Trahan won in all categories. The student body was invited to watch the weigh-ins.

THE

The Physical Science class competed in a dragster race at McNeese's celebration of National Science Week. Students were assisted by science teacher, Ms. Hoffpauer and Ag teacher, Mr. Brant. Jordan and Casey placed 2nd overall in the multi-parish competition. Students explored the many engineering opportunities offered.

PROJECTS

The Home Economics class participate in the annual child development project. Students care for the "babies" day and night for a period of one week. The infants are designed to monitor proper care of the child through computer technology. The experience has been proven to be an "eye opener" for the young parents-to-be.

Homecoming Mock Crash

With Homecoming drawing near, emergency personnel along with members of the student body reminded everyone of the importance of being safe when driving.

Elementary Mock Crash

With the dirt bike craze in full swing, emergency personnel and elementary students showed students the negative side of bike riding.

Students compete for the best looking slipper on pajama day.

Way back in the day.

Proud to be an American

Prayers now rise to heaven
For all in life who serve
Battles for their country
As freedom is preserved

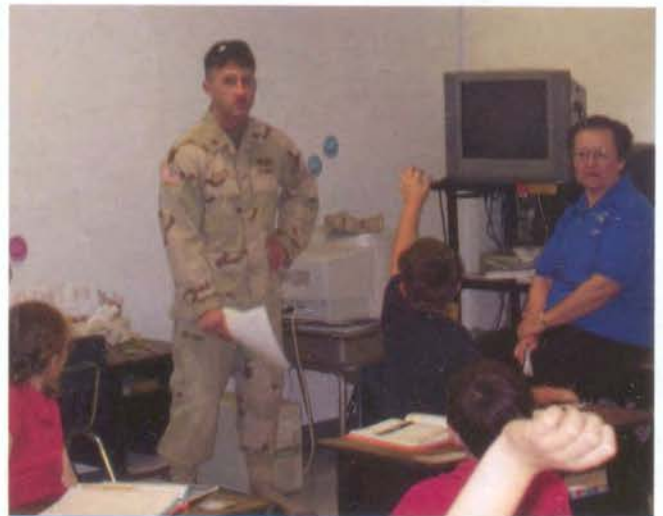

Each one of you are heroes
Who sacrifice each day
Life and soul with dignity
Such courage you display

Hearts are always with you
In any place you dwell
Saluting you with honor
With love unparalleled

Each day a special blessing
Upon those we call "our brave"
Our country's greatest freedom
With memories engraved

Thank you for this honor
You give with pride each day
Those of all our "seasons"
Will never fade away

For each of you our promise
Of all our freedom saved
Each battleground now sacred
By footsteps that were paved.

Glitter, dance shoes, shorts with tights...
 Tears and laughter and, yea, some fights...
 Triumph, frustrations, but never defeat...
 Pointed toes, jazz hands, and "can't you hear the beat?"...
 8 counts, side splits and pas de bourre'e...
 "Can't we just finish this on Sunday?"
 Jazz songs, rap songs, old school beats...
 "One more time", blisters on my feet! ...
 Nervous smiles, "step in place" ...
 "Look at the makeup on their face!!" ...
 Roaring crowds, leapins, and clapping hands...
 "I have never seen so many guy fans!" ...
 "Forgot my shoes", "Glitter my hair" ...
 "Tape me up", "Are they ready out there?" ...
 "Hit the music" "Come on Ya'll..."
 "Shake it up", coming from the hall...
 "First impressions", "End it with a bang!" ...
 I am so proud to coach this gang!!!

Earth Day

April 22nd

Palm trees were planted to add to the beauty of our school and enhance our atmosphere.

General Lee got a bath and Rebel red & white flowers were planted adorn his feet.

Sponge tosses represented the water that makes our planet unique.

Solar cooking utilized our free energy source to heat up hot dogs.

At the track, students dug fossils from the sand pit to reveal the Earth's history.

The celebration was concluded with Tug of War into an ice cold pool.

S.A.D.D. committee members thank you for your help and make a special note of recognitions of the elementary students cooperation and enthusiasm.

SADD

S.A.D.D. members hosted a haunted house the week of Halloween. The theme was "Drugs Are Scary".

All of the Johnson Bayou students launched balloons in the grand finale for Red Ribbon Week, Oct. 16-20. Prior to the launch, students marched a quarter mile, chanting with banners, "We Elect to be Drug Free." The week of events were lead by S.A.D.D. members.

Junior Prophecy

>We see Stephanie, Did Justin Call?, Cox moving to Lafayette to be closer to "her one and only". She's still waiting for that call while going to college and partying it up with Shanna. She's drinking that beer, "root beer that is Mr. Jim". She decides to move back to Lake Charles and live with big sis, Juanita. She opens a pet shelter to provide a loving home for her truly first love, the pets! Justin must now take a back seat as she finds spending time her animals is much more rewarding. One day your true love will come knocking.

>We foresee Marcus, Quelos Alan Belany Erbelding, Jinks, taking on yet one more name and becoming an honorary Badon. He and Corey start a lawn business called "Studs that Mow". The business really begins to boom when the ladies get a view of him mowing shirtless with Lex. At night the local ladies can be seen sneaking out to spray miracle grow on the lawns, just so they can see him sooner. They have a rather large fan club and even have blue shirts with their pictures on them. None of this seems to affect Marcus... he is saving his money to clone a nicer version of Crystan and to stock up on love potion #9.

>Then there's, Natalie, "is there something in my teeth", Griffith joining a sorority at Lamar and partying on Crocket Street every night. After realizing that college and night-life just don't mix, Natalie decides to enter LIT and become a dental hygienist. Although she has access to as much dental floss as she needs, the treat is not enough to overcome the thought of cleaning so many unflossed patients. She heads back to 'ole JB to open her own dance studio named, Fancy Dance.

>We see Victor, chillin' like a villain on penicillin, Guidry opening the very first chiropractic office in Holly Beach. To get business going, Victor goes around the community giving free trial samples of his new back poppin' techniques. Victor soon realized that it's hard to keep in business if your techniques become too pleasurable. After 3 lawsuits Victor gives up on his practice and changes lifestyles and becomes the only full gospel preacher from the hood.

>Mr. Franz, I need a girlfriend, Schmulling realizing that being a rebel is tough and chooses to change lifestyles. Six months after his transformation Franz writes a book entitled, "I know why geeks get the girls". His book hits #1 and his riding high. He marries a supermodel and opens a computer store where he gets free access to all the games.

>We foresee Sassah, I hate this place, Brown leaving the marshes of JB to head for the big city of Cameron. Her goal is to prove that the grass is really greener across the ferry. She's now manager of the Dollar Store but the green tags special just don't fulfill her anymore. She heads off to travel the world and prove once and for all to everyone that "she's out there".

>We foresee Shanna, I'm not finished with my test yet, Romero getting even with the test administrator for the act. She's working in the testing center at McNeese where she has added another instruction to the ACT test. It reads - Take all the time you want. But seriously, we do see Shanna becoming a nurse at St. Pat's joyfully helping patients and administering medications. After all Shanna, you can work at your own pace 'cause the patients can't get out of bed.

>Now for Wesley, Chick Magnet—umm wait that can't be right, Roberts finally getting out of Johnson Bayou only to cut grass for the parish. Wes moves up to the big leagues and opens his own lawn service. Business is seasonal, so Wesley spends the winter months in search of a girlfriend. He finally lands a city girl when he brings her home. He's sure she's "the one" when he tells all his friends, she thinks my tractor's sexy!

>We foresee Cheyenne, "Let me talk to Dominique" Hanks leaving Johnson Bayou and getting a job as a taste tester for General Foods. She loves her job but is laid off because she just can't stop at one bite.

She decides to stay at home with her little ones, Skeet Skeet, Boones, and Little Tiger. Cheyenne want the name Fuzzy Navel instead of Little Tiger, but Dominique said no and named him Tiger Woods Sandifer.

She opens her salon shop, "To the windows, To The Walls" and also has a line of boots on sale. After all a woman never knows when a good pair of boots will come in handy.

>Then there's Gene, Hook me up with you mom, McKenney moving in with momma Faye after serving 20 years in Iraq. At his 20 yr. reunion Gene, now 40, is still trying to get everyone to come to his bonfire. But only his lifelong buddies, Franz, Jake, Beau, Josh, Jonathan, and Patrick show. Gene decides to start a boot camp in Holly Beach for misbehaved children. But he's much too tough says Grandpa Walters and so Gene becomes an army recruiter and marries "an older woman".

>We foresee Sarah, I don't care, Conner moving to Lake Charles, attending McNeese where she plans to become a lawyer. After visiting Cowboys one night she likes the idea of being a bouncer. She quits school and become owner and bouncer of "Bust A Move" in Lake Charles. Sarah's proved us all wrong, you really can party and make money at the same time.

>And for Britni, I don't get it, Oswalt we see her starting a new life outside of Johnson Bayou. She goes on to be a nurse. She's also wife and mother because mothering has always come easy. She feels compelled to write a book, "I Don't Get It", which becomes a best seller. When asked why she thought the book was such a success, she just says, "You know, I Really Don't Get It".

We foresee Rustin, Who are you with this week, Trahan pursuing a career in the Air Force. After years flying high with the ladies, Rustin realizes that he cannot have all the fish in the sea. He returns home to find his bride. He quickly ties the knot with that special someone 'cause with Rustin, next week he may change is mind.

ALL THE BEST TO THE CLASS OF 2005.
WE WISH YOU LOVE, HAPPINESS, JOY AND HEALTH.
MAY ALL YOUR DREAMS COME TRUE.

I, Sarah Conner, want to thank God for making this day possible. I would like to thank my Mom for being there for me when I needed her the most, and I want her to know I love her. To my brother and sister, I Love you very much and no matter what, KEEP YOUR HEADS HIGH! To Toni, thank you for helping and giving me advice. To Tara, thanks for sticking with me thru everything. To my Brother WADE, I will you the ability to stay in school, graduate and go to college and to BELIEVE in yourself and don't let anyone make you think or believe any different. To my sisters NAOMI and XAVIER, I will ya'll the ability to stand up for what you believe in and never give up. Thanks to all my friends and faculty at Johnson Bayou High School for the memories I will cherish forever.

I, Stephanie Cox, give a special appreciation to the cafeteria ladies for being the best, even though sometimes we couldn't get seconds, but that's ok!!! I thank Mr. Reynolds, Mrs. Brenda, and Mrs. Julie for being a great administration and to the greatest ladies in the world Mrs. Nita and Mrs. Anne. Coach Lee and Coach Joey, sports were great this year you made it fun. I want to thank all of the elementary teachers who ever taught me because you prepared me for the ups and downs of high school. Luckily, I have turned out ok! Mostly I would like to thank Mrs. Juanita Sandifer and Mrs. Denise Trahan because you have been a big part of my life. You both have been someone I could ALWAYS go talk to about anything. To my parents and family you are the most important people in my life. You have and always will be here for me, which I can say with great pride. You will never know how special you are to me. I love you dearly. To my buddies Dani, Melissa, and Kia, follow your heart and you will never let yourself down. To my class, the people I have been with my whole life, I would like to thank you all for making me the person I am today. It has been an adventure. Good Luck I love you all!!!

I, Sasson Brown, first would like to thank my parents, teachers, and friends. To the girls of the senior class I will you my height. Until then, long live the midgets. To the guys I will you a little common sense. To Mrs. Juanita I will you the ability to stay exactly the way you are. We've all learned a lot from your speeches on life. To the younger classes I will you the ability to listen to what Mrs. Juanita has to say. To my brother, Luke, I will you the ability to think before you speak. To my best friend and cousin, Laura, I will you the patience to accept what comes, to let the little things go and to party your heart out just don't let mom and dad know. To Danielle I will you patience & a heavy pot. Bubba I will you the ability to run fast. To Heather I will you the ability to endure the long road ahead of us. To Kandace Young I will you the ability to live as who you are. To my family I will you all the love you ever gave me. Finally to every one I've not mentioned I will you the ability of good humor it makes those long days go by faster.

I, Wesley Roberts, a man of fine mind and Beautiful body would first of all like to thank Mrs. Sandifer for being the greater teacher and motivator I always needed. I will the few basketball skills I got to Mr. Jordan Storm. Maybe one day you can be as tall as me and jump as high as me. I will my great shooting to Aaron. I know you're better than me now but the little I give you will help. To Brandon Alamo, the power to hit a baseball without striking out and to know that quitting gets you nowhere. I leave my kindness and love to my little sister Whitney and hopefully you will do your best. My power to work hard to the future workers of Enviro Solutions. (Whoever it is). I thank God for being with me the entire year keeping me safe and here at school. I thank Mr. Reynolds, Coach Lee, and Coach Williamson for starting baseball and being my coaches this year. It was a pleasure playing for all of you. Last but not least I thank Mr. Edmond and Mrs. Alberta for helping me and being there for me when I really needed it.

I, Rustin Trahan, will to my little cousin the ability to keep your head up and try your best. To my little buddy, Scrrrrreechhhhh, my parking spot if you ever get a truck. To Aaron, the ability to get tuff on the court you got the skill. My ability not to be a quitter to D.J. and Blaine but I don't have that ability. To Dustin the ability to not get hurt, but I don't have that either. To Patrick P., my running abilities hang in there. To KK, my alarm clock then maybe you'll come to school. To Adam the ability to hold onto the ball then maybe you can dunk it. To Dakota I give you the ability to chase those little hotties. Remember chicks dig it. To Mrs. Juanita, I want to give you my thanks for never letting us have a day off, just like the real world. To everyone else, I leave the ability to take pride in yourself. To Coach Lee, thanks and I give you the ability to just let loose every once in a while, you know what I mean. To Britni thanks you're a very special girl. I hope you follow your heart wherever it may lead you. I love you very much!

I, Britni Lynn Oswald, want to thank God for giving me the strength to be the person I am today. To Bailey my car. Oh, wait, I don't have one and, the ability to stay home every now and then. To the rest of the Brady Bunch, hang in there with the big family everything's going to be all right and I love every one of ya'll. To Shai my ability of determination. To little Chelsey Leger, my ability to "pitch. To Katrina Ann LeJeune, a.k.a. KK, to stick to one guy for at least 1 month. Naomi, I leave the ability to slow down and enjoy life. To the Junior Class, I wish you all good luck for the next year. To my senior class, always have ambitions and never hesitate to succeed. I love all of you and I'm just a phone call away. To Rustin, good luck in the Air Force I know you have a little trouble with authority, but you are going to be ok. I wish you the best and I will always love you. Thanks to Coach Joey and Jaime for always being there for me. To Coach Lee, thanks for motivating me this year. To my mom, words can't explain how much you helped me this year. I love you with all my heart. To daddy, I love you & thank you for being involved with me as much as you could this year. To Babe, you are the coolest grandma ever! You have been to everything I have ever been in and you always encouraged me and motivated me. To everybody else I haven't mentioned, I love every one of ya'll.

I, Franz Schmulling, have a sole will. I solemnly will to the entirety of Johnson Bayou, my ability to be completely indifferent in any situation. This way there is no one person left out, everyone in Johnson Bayou has touched my life in a way, good or bad, and I am thankful for that.

I, Natalie Diana Griffith, want to thank Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior, for seeing me through the ups and downs of high school. To my Mom and Dad, thank you so much for giving me a strong foundation. I am so blessed to have loving parents like you. To Sarah, you are an awesome big sister! I am very proud of you. To Lil' Nate, you're a really cool little brother. I know that you will accomplish many things. Remember to always put God first. I will always, always be here for you. To the class of 2005. We've had our fights, bonding time, and all of that other crazy stuff that comes with high school. I wish each of you the best in the future. To Katie, thanks for being a good friend! To Destiny, Sabrina, Katrina, Holly, Tiffany, Justine, Laura, Keith, and Travis, you guys are super cool! To Shalyn, continue to stay the life of the party, and have tons of fun on church and school trips...wink, wink! Oh yeah! Katie, Kandace, and especially, Nathan, I will you the ability to make it to school on time, I never did, but you guys should. I would like to say a special thanks to Mrs. Brenda, you have been a great source of encouragement to me both in academics and sports. Throughout the years, your guidance has definitely had a positive impact on me. You rock, Mrs. Brenda! To everyone at Johnson Bayou High School, thank you for making my high school experience very memorable. Remember to always have fun and enjoy every bit of high school.

I, Cheyenne Rae Hanks, want to thank the Lord God for making all things possible. Thanks to the entire junior class of 2005 for making my last year full of fun, laughter, and great memories. To Kayla, you're a great gal and an awesome person. Crystan, thanks for all the fun parties we had. To Sunny, keep all the teachers lined up, I know you're good at it. To Dani, I leave you free access to the bathroom after lunch. To Sabrina, well, yeah, I'm sure I'll be seeing you around. To the rest of the girls, I won't forget you guys. I'm just a phone call away. Just think, one more year. Enjoy it, believe me it will definitely fly by. This is to a very special person who has made it possible for me to graduate this year. She has helped me tremendously and there is absolutely no way I could have completed by courses without the help and guidance of her. Ms. Juanita, thank you so much for all your time, hard work and patience that you have given. You're such a wonderful person. To Michael, I hope you find a ride to school Buddy. I know you are a hard worker, don't give up. Ian, I will you the ability to work hard, get up on time for school, and pay attention. To Dominique, thanks for always believing in me, I love you. I want to sincerely thank my parents for supporting me and trusting me throughout my school years. Just think, only two kids left to and you'll be finished. Thanks for all the money you gave me for my courses. I love you both dearly. To the rest of the student body of JBHS, believe in yourself and strive to be your best. Before you know it you'll be graduating, too.

I, Shanna Romero, would I like to thank the man above for always being by my side and for being there for me to turn to. I want to thank my parents for helping me out throughout all the ups and downs and guiding me in the right direction. You are the ones who have encouraged me and given me so much confidence. I cannot tell you how much I appreciate everything you have done for me. I will always love you. To my grandparents, I would like to thank you for being there to give me the extra comfort I needed. To Vance, thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to. You have been a great source of encouragement. You, too, have given me the confidence to believe in myself. I love you, baby. A special appreciation to Mrs. Juanita Sandifer for always giving me the push when I needed it. To Ashton, just be patient and take it slow because it will come sooner than you expect. To Tabatha, always remember to follow your heart because it will never let you down. My sister, Katie, anytime you need anything I will always be here for you, no matter what. To the Junior Class, make the most of your senior year because before you know it, it will only be a memory. To the Class of 2005, thank you for all the crazy but memorable school years. I enjoyed them and wish all of you the best of luck in the future.
