TARPON FOOTBALL 1997

After making it all the way to the state finals in 1996, the Tarpons were expected to return in 1997. As the season started the Tarps were strong. South Cameron's defense was thought to be the best in our district. In their first four games none of their opponents scored a touchdown against them. During the fifth game the Tarpons took a turn for the worst. The team experienced several injuries afterwards. All of which were to their opponents advantage. Even though the Tarpons only made it to the first playoff game they played their best, held their heads high, and once again made their fans proud.

Best Team: Worst Luck

Considered a team, but more like a family
 For this 97 season we were so ready
 Ready to play with all of our heart
 Always a team, never apart
 Our goal was set, we knew what we had to do
 A dome dream is what we would pursue
 In the beginning we started so strong
 Who was to know that it would all go wrong
 In a period of three games three starters would fall
 It made us ask the Lord would this be all
 The end of a dream, we could not find hope
 Team members split apart, we could not cope
 Although we were never to play football together again
 Off the field we would always have each other as best friends
 Our destiny turned out to be different than we had thought
 We were not going to make it, no matter how hard we fought
 All of our fans this is what they say
 If not for the injuries we would have went all the way
 Even with the bad luck, our memory will never rest
 In the game of high school football we are the best,
 The best that ever was at South Cameron High
 From players, fans, to coaches, our memory will never die.

Coach Henry Griffin retired in November 1994 after more than thirty years of service. Coach Griffin began his teaching and coaching career at Audrey Memorial, later moving to South Cameron Elementary and then to South Cameron High. He was a true friend to everyone he encountered, in and out of the classroom. He always had the interest of his students welfare at heart.
