Bryan BRYAN bryan

In Memory of One Sweet Light

*Since all belongs to God,
and He reminds us we're His own, our children are not ours to keep -- they're only here on loan.*

They are a brilliant spark from God's eternal light above -- sent here to families God is sure will shower them with love.

They come to give the world the gifts that only they can bring... sweet innocence, accepting faith and hope in everything.

Yet now and then our hearts are torn when such a special child is only here to shine that light on earth a little while.

Remembering their lives brings joy, although our hearts still grieve, there's so much love and comfort in the memories they leave.

*God's holding that sweet child right now just as He's holding you.
He knows the awful pain your heart --
He's lost His dear child, too.*

*In loving memory of this precious child,
the sweet light of love who now shines in heaven with God.*

Thinking of You Praying for You

It takes a special love of parents to raise a child and a special love for God to let him go.

--11 years ago, you left this Earth, but you live on forever in our hearts, BRYAN!

Eddie Benoit
Principal

As we enter into the new millennium, we also enter into a new Technological Age. Everyone at SCH is proud of the traditions and accomplishments of our school. The faculty, staff, alumni, community and student body all work hard to make this an outstanding school. Our goal is to help each student reach his/her potential and become a productive and responsible citizen. SCH is special in that three different communities, each unique in its own way, are represented and united into one family.

Education is the foundation of an effective life strategy. It starts at our birth and end at our death. The formal education of children is one of life's greatest challenges. It must cross all barriers, defy all abstacles, and promote individuality. The rewards are often intrinsic and the failures public, but the desire to educate, must remain moment by moment.

RETIREMENT

GINGER
BOUDREAUX

I began my teaching career at SCHS in 1973. I am thankful for the opportunity to have taught with a faculty and staff that really cares about one another. I have witnessed and experienced many acts of kindness through the years. Our faculty has always pulled together when some person or group needed help. It's been fun watching my students grow from awkward eighth graders to hopeful young adults. One thing a teacher can never say is that she has "seen it all." Students will always continue to surprise you. I guess that's what makes teaching so interesting. There is much about this area that I will miss especially the people. I'm not going too far so I hope to stay in touch. Mostly I'm grateful for having had the chance to work for and with so many wonderful people.

GLADA GUIDRY

I began working as sweeper in 1989. I had left Creole upon my graduation in 1957. In 1989 I moved back home. For the last fifteen years I have worked at SCHS sweeping, mopping and vacuuming. I can gladly say I'm ready to go home to care for my grandchildren and precious daughters.

OUIDA
BOUDREAUX

In November 1978, I started driving for the Cameron Parish School Board. I needed a chauffeur's license and had to purchase my own bus. When my bus was beyond repair, I acquired a bus from the school board, and they paid for everything. Then the bus was equipped with a cell phone, camera and anything else needed for a safe ride. In the twenty-five years, I have driven my own children, nieces, nephews and now I am driving my grandchildren, great nieces and nephews. I enjoyed my job, co-workers and especially the children. Every new year was a challenge.

It is truly humbling to be considered worthy of such an honor as Cameron Parish High School Student of the Year. It has been my pleasure to represent the first-class educational systems of South Cameron High and Cameron Parish. Being selected from such an elite group of students is an experience that I will treasure forever.

Student of the Year has been a wonderful experience. I have gained so much pride in myself, my school, my parish and my education. I have also learned so much through this whole process, such as being proud of my accomplishments and interacting with others on a professional basis. The opportunity to hold such an honor as Cameron Parish Middle School Student of the Year is one that I am truly thankful for.

CAREER DAY

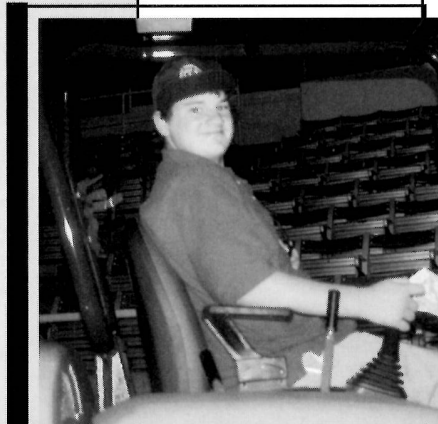

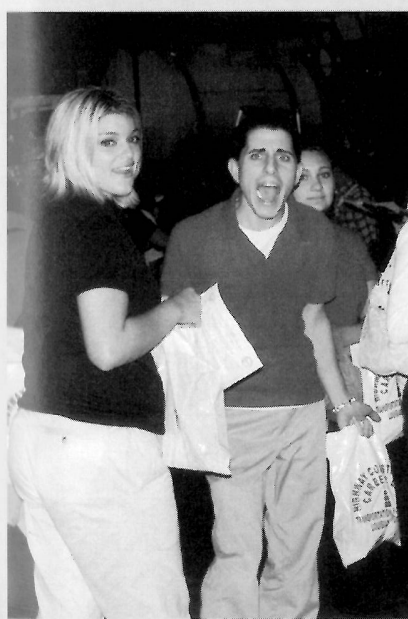

Students begin the school year campaigning for class officers. They post campaign posters throughout the school. Students handout stickers, campaign favorites and give a campaign speech to gain student body votes.

Career Day was sponsored by the LA Department of Transportation at Burton Coliseum. Students were able to explore career opportunities by visiting booths and viewing machinery pertaining to the Department of Transportation.

Working Together

for the memories

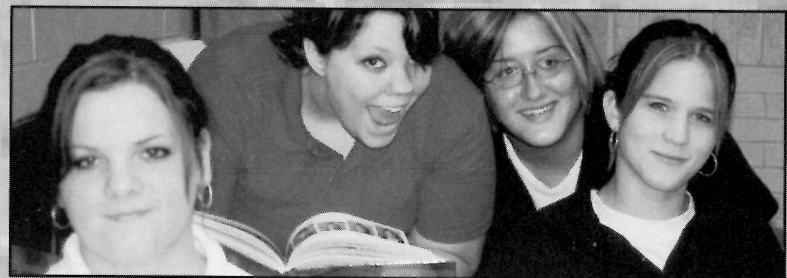

Annual Staff had a challenge for them this year. A new sponsor and one student from the previous staff. The new staff wanted to have more pictures and more creative layouts. We know this book is a new beginning for us all. We have enjoyed working with the student body to get the best memories for the 2004 school year. Enjoy the memories!

Lady Tarpons

The Lady Tarpons began their year with one goal in mind. Yes, they did make it to the State Fastpitch Tournament for the fourth year in a row.

They finished third in district due to some upsetting losses. Winning the Bi-District game in Port Sulphur was a happy event for the team and the school.

The Regional game against Catholic PC was home. The Lady Tarpons finished the season in the Quarterfinals against Ascension Catholic.

Several members of the team were named All-District. All-District 1st Team: Santana Conner, Courtney Conner. 2nd Team: Laken Mock, Cassandra Trahan, Erin Dinger. Honorable Mention: Lauren Roberts, Christian McCall, Amber Trahan

JOY that you have brought to us since December 21, 1985.

OUTSTANDING accomplishments through the years.

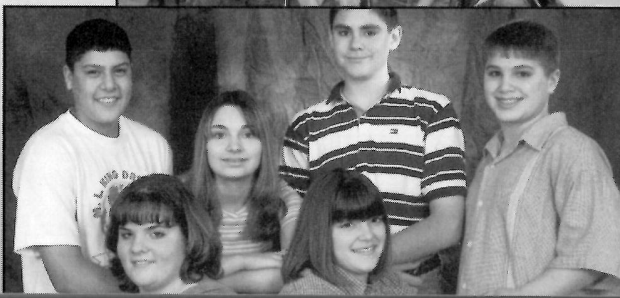

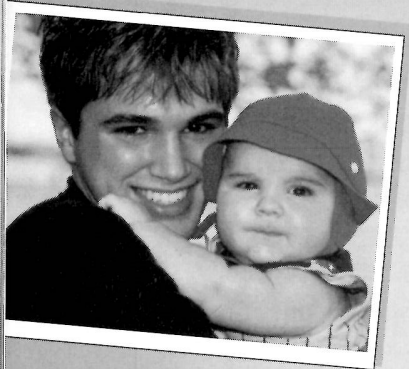

BLESSED to have you as our son, brother, and friend.

YEARS of happiness, laughter, learning ahead of you.

MOM, DAD, CHANCE AND GAGE

GOD grant me the serenity,
To accept the things, I cannot change
The courage to change the things I can
And the wisdom to know the difference.

John Paul

Build me a son
who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid;
One who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son
whose wishes will not take the place of deeds, a son who will know Thee, and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him I pray not in the path of ease & comfort but under the stress and spur of difficulties and challenge.
Here let him learn to stand up in the storm;
here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son
whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high;
a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men;
one who will reach into the future,
yet never forget the past.

After all these things are his add, I pray enough of a sense of humor so that he may always be serious yet never take himself too seriously.
Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom and the meekness of true strength.
Then I his father will dare to whisper,
"I have not lived in vain."

Brett Baccigalopi

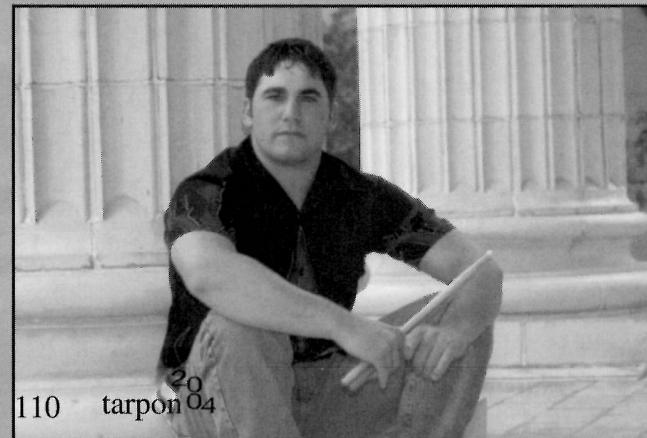

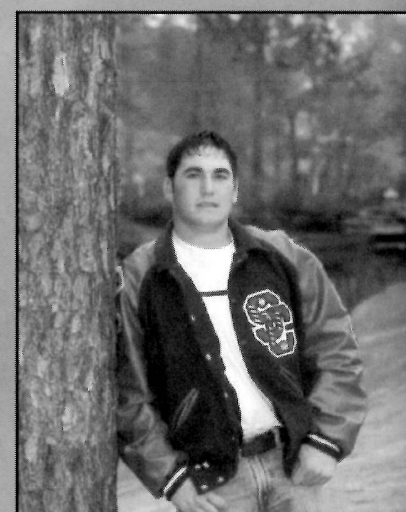

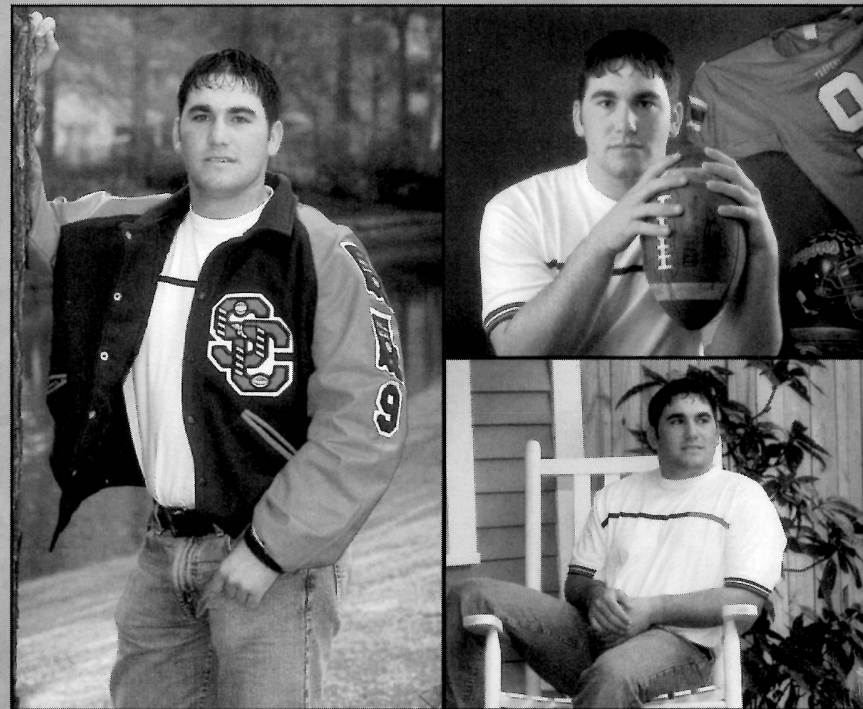

Your High School Graduation . . .

is more than just a milestone to mark school achievements. It is a time to reflect on what has been and to look toward new challenges.

So take some time to treasure the things you've gained in school, the friendships that have grown, the things you've learned.

And take some time, too, to see the goals that lie ahead and to embrace the life before you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Brilee

Mikey, you haven't really changed.

No matter what I asked, you did it with a smile and asked if I needed anything else.

No matter what I expected of you, you did more.

No matter what you promised, you always kept your word.

No matter what you achieved, you kept trying to improve.

No matter how bad your day was, you always cared about what happened to me.

You have been such a wonderful son. Your character has shone through in all of your endeavors. We love you with all our heart and soul.

The next door you open is to your future, and what a bright one it is bound to be.

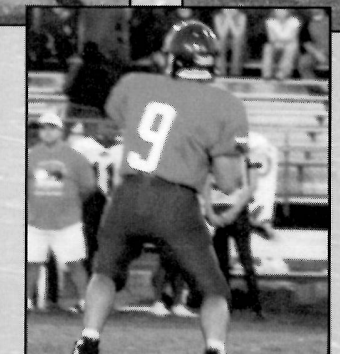

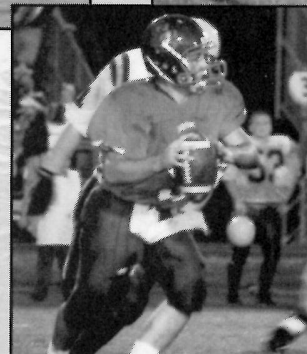

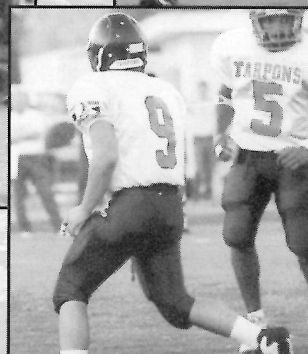

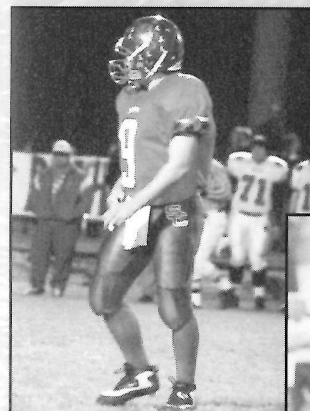

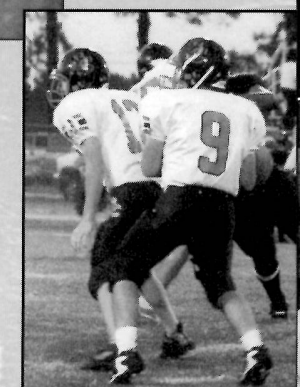

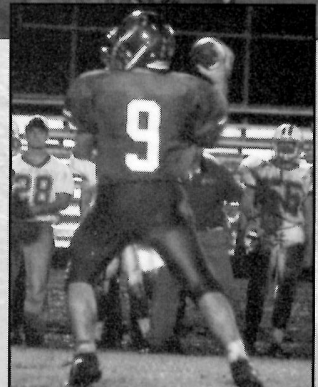

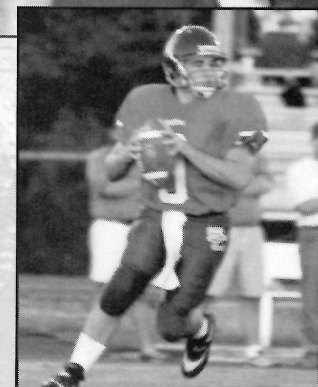

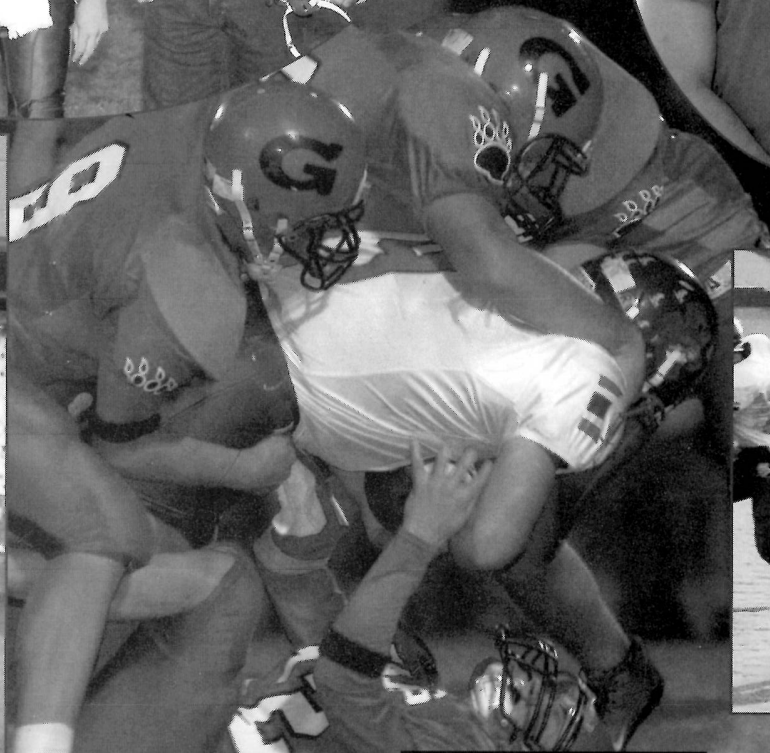

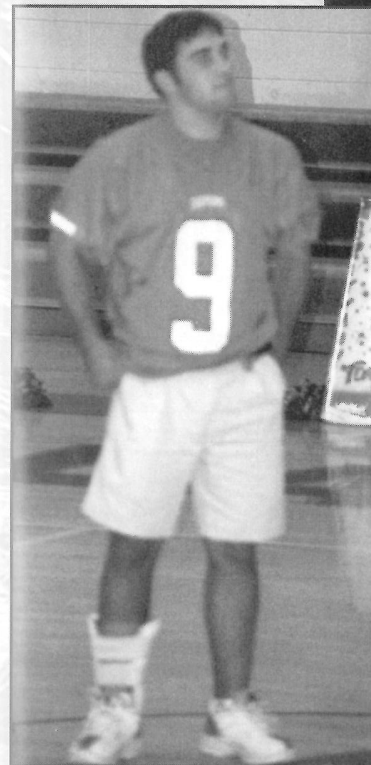

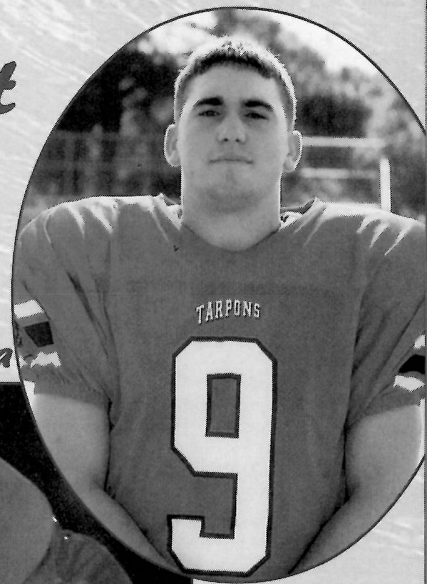

We were in front of you leading you as you grew, now we will be behind you supporting everything you do. Remember to keep close to God and you will be successful in all you do.

Well, it's finally here. After nine years of cheerleading, ten years of softball, and a few years of track, you are at the point in your life where one chapter is closing and another one opens. I guess we will be in shock with not having to run from one practice or game to another.

We tried to rear you to the best of our ability, right or wrong, we will have to answer to God for the job we have done. You, on the other hand, are about to spread your wings and fly on your own. If you falter, just remember, God doesn't make mistakes; you will only grow from it. When you succeed, it's another of his blessings he has bestowed upon you.

You were given to us on loan; you were never ours to keep. So as you get ready to face college and the world, remember, put God first and you won't ever go wrong.

Best of Luck,

Mom, Dad & Kyle

On that sweet April 29th morning, our son of 18 years came into our lives. We knew from the beginning how very special you truly were, you have always been independent and it seemed to be kind of scary at times. We know you will always be true to our expectations and follow your dreams as far as they will take you. From birth, all through your high school years, and now to Graduation Day, we have watched you grow into the very special person you have become today. Now, as we see you enjoying your life to the fullest, we have to stop and say: "We are so proud of you!!!" We know you have many dreams that are yours and yours alone. If you reach for the stars, they can only get closer and closer. Do not let anyone stand in the way of your dreams. Dream big and catch all the stars you can fit in your mind.

WE LOVE YOU!!
Mom, Dad, Gregoire, and Kaitlin

CONGRATULATIONS

*to you and the CLASS of 2004.
I was blessed with a second son.
That charming smile and your independence shows me that you have the strength, wisdom, and courage to face life's hardships.*

*As you face life's journey, with our love and encouragement, always remember that Jesus walks beside you and will guide you in the right direction.
We will always be there for you and we are all so proud of you and your accomplishments.*

We are very proud of you for all your accomplishments but also for being who you are! In your future the best advice I could give you is to always place the LORD at the very top of your list!

Proverbs 3:5,6

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

We love you,

We are proud of you and what you have grown to be. You have added so many memories to our lives and made us so proud. Our little girl and sister has now grown into a beautiful woman with goals set in her heart that she hopes to achieve. Keep the faith and your head high. May God bless you and may you prosper in whatever you do. Look back with pride on your high school years. May your graduation be the start of a lifetime of dreams and accomplishments. Make it special just like you.

Love you always,

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed alot and loved much. Who has gained the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children: Who has filled His and accomplished His task. Who has left the world better than He found it. Whether by an improved poppy, a perfect poem, or a rescued soul: Who has never lacked appreciation of Earth's beauty or failed to express it, Who has always looked for the best in others and given the best He had, whose life was an inspiration.
