TARPON

VICTORY

The 2006 Lady Tarps became the first State Champions at SCHS.

Coach Angie Little and Coach Coy Mudd lead the team to a winning season. Seniors on the team were Pitcher, Laken Mock; Catcher, Christian McCall; Third Base, D'Nae DeSonier; Short Stop, Meagan Trahan; Outfield, Kelsi Kiffe. During this season, the Lady Tarps faced Merryville three times in district play and unfortunately lost each game. Ironically, the State Championship game was between Merryville and South Cameron. The Lady Tarps came out on top with a 5-0 shut out victory.

On September 21st, 2006, we left school to evacuate for Hurricane Rita. On September 25th, everyone realized that not only were their homes destroyed, but their school, church and entire community was in total devastation.

On October 31st, school resumed in Grand Lake. We attended school on Monday, Tuesday and a half day on Wednesday. The week was short but the school year was long.

Memories of Sandra Hession Retired May 2006

I remember Mrs. Hession as being a caring teacher who always took the time to send a note of encouragement when a student or fellow teacher was discouraged or disheartened.
Sethie Trosclair

My favorite memory of Mrs. Hession is the way she always closed her eyes when she spoke and could see everything that was going on.
Torrey Bonsall

Even though you don't remember anything from the classes you've taken in the past, you'll always remember debits are on the left and credits are on the right.
Thanks to Mrs. Hession.
Jillian Duddleston

My favorite memory of Mrs. Hession, is when she would laugh the whole class would laugh at with her.
Chynna Little

One of my favorite memories deals with her calling me "Boothy Baby" and the little memento's (food) she'd bring to me at lunch. She was and is a great friend whom I miss.
Michaeil Booth

I remember Mrs. Hession as a great teacher, cousin, co-worker and most of all a great friend. She loved us, taught us, made us practice our faith and traveled many miles with us.
Sheila Miller

I can still remember her entering SCHS one of the first days of her teaching career. As usual all the guys went "stir crazy!" She was a very attractive and outgoing person. Her organizational skills and positive influence has certainly made an impact on my life and others. After graduation, I was fortunate enough to share a lasting friendship with her.

It seems like only a short time ago that you were my beautiful "little drama queen," playing with my makeup, bossing everyone around. Now you're all grown up, a beautiful, young lady with your own makeup, still bossing everyone around. You've made me proud so many times. The way you took care of grandma and grandpa at home and each time they went into the hospital was amazing. So many people told me how impressed they were with you for that care, especially at such a young age. Everyone predicted that you will make a great nurse and I totally agree. It comes so natural to you, and then along came Maddie, Grandma reincarnated. You're an awesome mom -- I never doubted that you would be. We had to beg just to hold her. Even with all the responsibility of a child and everything else, your grades never suffered. In fact, they got better. Chels, I admire so many other qualities in you -- your compassion for others, especially how you fight for the ones being treated badly, your fieriness, your love of family and most of all, your love of God. Reach for the stars. There is no doubt in my mind that you will achieve in life whatever you attempt. Just remember, keep God first, and everything else will fall into place.

WE LOVE YOU!!!

Mom, Mr. Bobby, Chad, Chloe' and Maddie

"My Baby Girl"

You have been the light of my life from the very beginning. Over the years, I've watched you grow into this beautiful, graceful, loving, and caring person. I am very proud of you. I have had the pleasure of being there for your first words, your first steps, watching you get on the school bus for the first time, your first date and your first prom.

I've been there to dry your tears and calm your fears. Now, I'm here to help you make the next step in your life. I know you'll do great!! I will always be here for you and I want you to know that . . .

CALLIE

It only seemed like yesterday that our little "Sweetie Pie" took her first ride to school. And in a wink of an eye, you are already graduating. My how those years have gone by so quickly. Just like everything you chose to do in school you did it well.

So just remember the rest of your life is your choice. Like the fine dancing that you did, we know that whatever you choose you will be good at.

You were our bright morning star the day you came into our lives. Now you are all grown up, and you are our "Miss Wonderful."

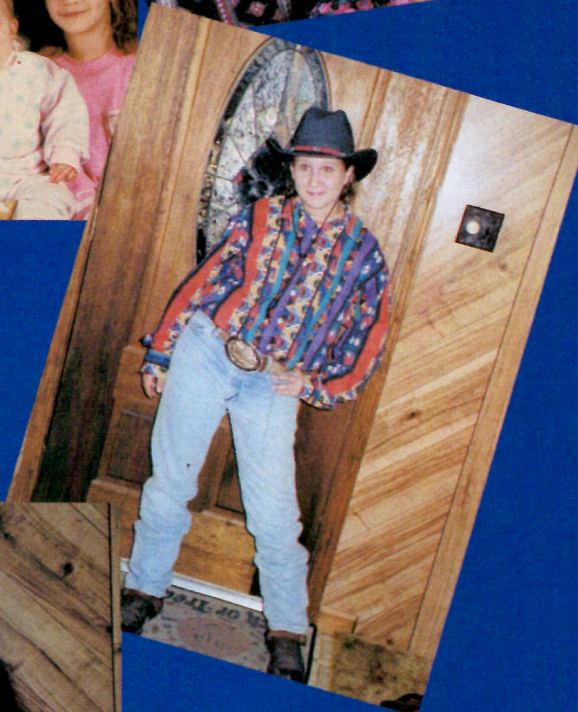

We thank the LORD for sending you, our precious little sweetheart. Congratulations on a job well done at SRHS!

We love you with all our hearts.

There once was a boy
with a smile so bright

that our love began to shine
Like a "jack-o-lantern" in the night.

An angel in a basket
just as snug as a bug

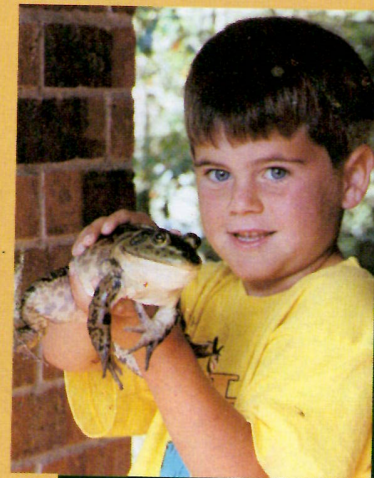

a real "Ladies Man"
we would all grow to love

And a blessing sent to us
from Heaven up above

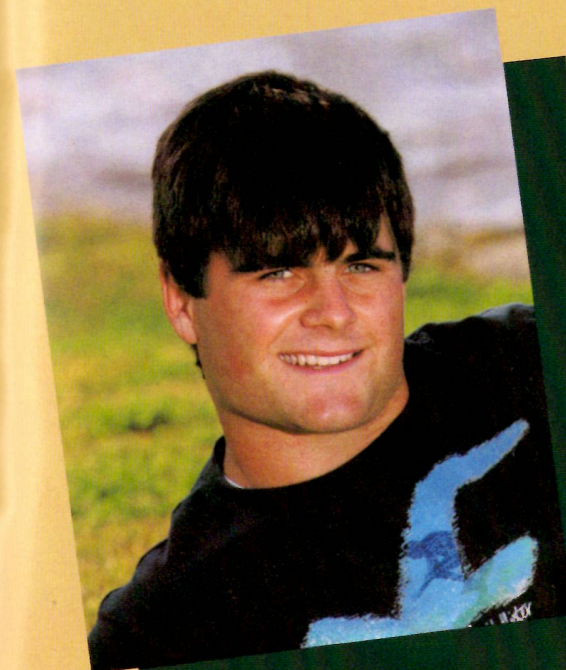

There once was a boy . . .

"Prince Charming" he would become with a kiss from Moma's love not a fish, nor a duck would stand in his way

Who became a MAN.

For Daddy's boy could throw down.

The Person Down the Road
 In thirty, forty, or fifty years, you'll meet a person down the road. Whether that someone is kind and gentle or selfish and demanding depends on what you do today. If you live only in terms of what you can get out of life, this person will be crabby, self-centered, and spiteful. But if you open your life to others and live as a giver, this person will be kind, open and generous. This somebody whom you'll meet down the road some day is you. The person you will be tomorrow depends on the life you live today. Everyday, in every way, you are becoming more and more like yourself. Make sure the person you are becoming is someone whom you'll enjoy being around. (found in the backyard after Hurricane Rita)

Seems like just yesterday, you were born.
 Kept worrying about your name,
 Feeling like you would be picked on
 Being a Justin Payne.

As you grew, the worries changed.
 It's time for football practice
 With games twice a week.
 Roll right into wrestling,
 Spending weekends at meets,
 And of course, fishing and hunting were a must,
 Even if it was before school.
 And after class, a part-time job,
 For truck insurance.
 Practicing roping and riding,
 And the accordion, too, I know
 Were just down the road.

Now, things have changed after Rita,
 Landing another job while finishing school.
 Getting your future goals in order,
 And preparing to graduate.
 So much to be proud of.

Thank you, Justin, for making me so proud of you!

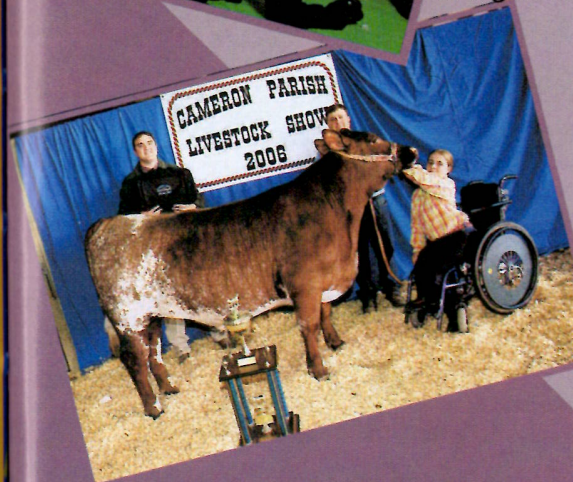

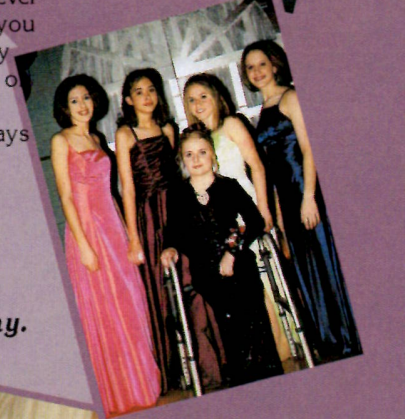

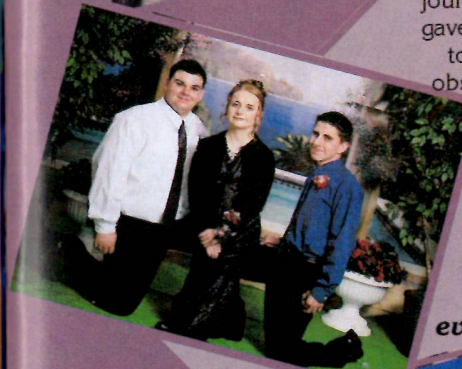

Love,
 Mom and Blake, too

Kaitlin lets journey back in time. It's January 7, 1988 at 10:32AM, when you arrived into our lives. Your head is full of reddish, blonde hair and your eyes are brightly opened. The great world was awaiting your presence. You were a very special baby to us in many different ways.

But the greatest being, you teaching everyone you came in contact with a new and exciting lesson in life. Physically challenged, maybe, but never dependent on anything or anyone, except GOD. Sure we helped you along the way, but you did all the hard stuff on your own. Our journey was a long and sometimes a hard one, but we never gave up. Take the right road and it will always lead you to your highest dreams. You have accomplished many obstacles and many are sure to come. Don't let anyone or anything get in your way!! Always remember your family and friends are always here to help you if you are ever in need.

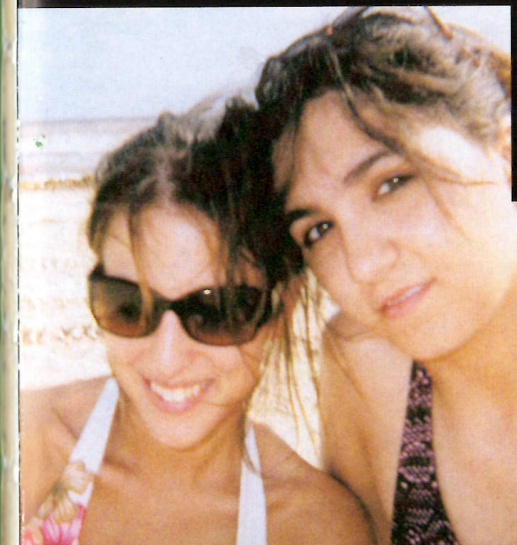

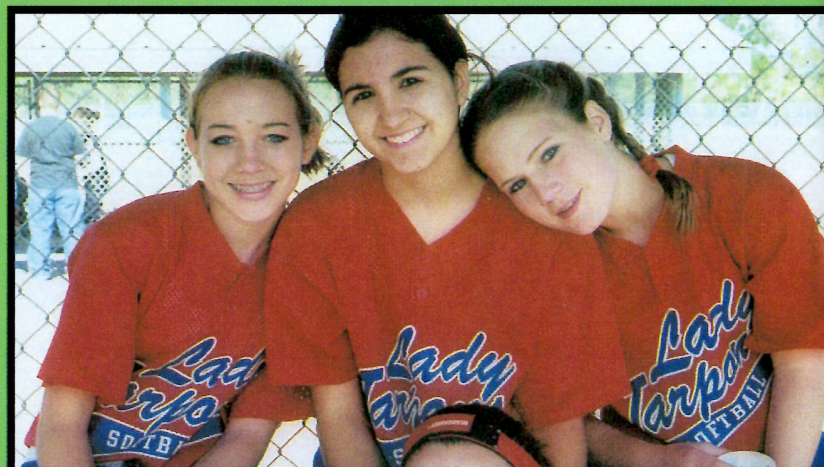

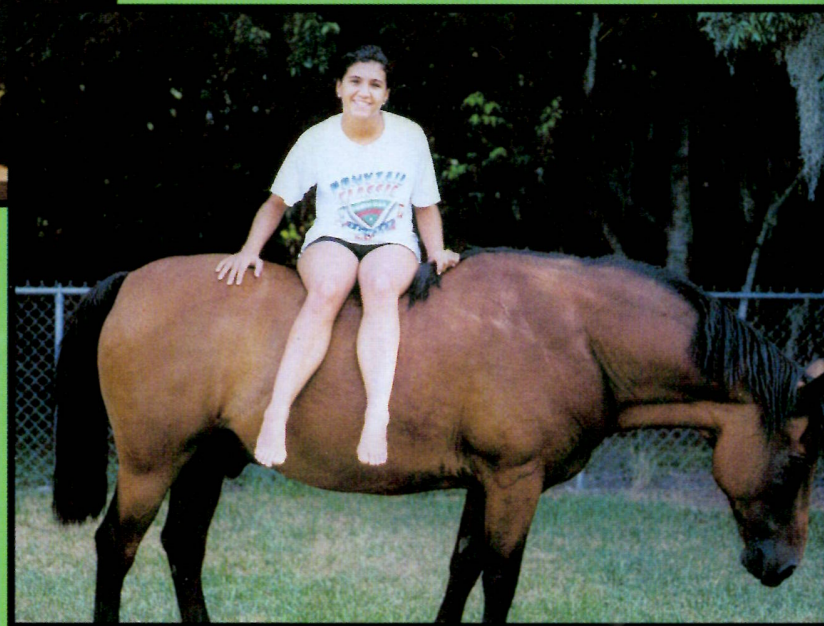

Good Luck and Love Ya!
Mom, Dad, Gregoire, Tyler
everyone who has helped you along the way.

Congratulations, Lauren

Scott,

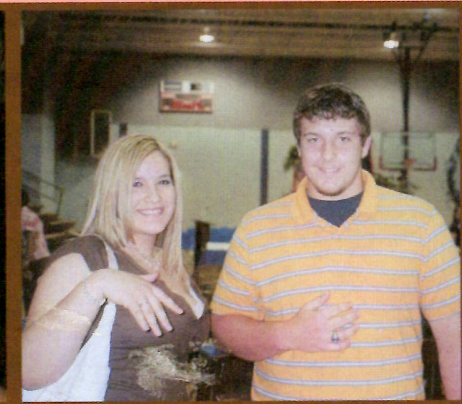

Wow, what journey. Through all the hard studying and obstacles, you made it!! You are graduating! We are extremely proud of you. Scott, you could have given up a long time ago, but you didn't. That takes courage and determination. Your journey through high school has taught you an important lesson that many don't learn until there adult years, that nothing comes easy; you have to work at what you want in life. You have made us so proud of you. Just always remember . . . "Behind you, all your memories, before you, all your dreams, around you, all who love you, within you, all you need."

*Love you bunches,
Mom, Dad and Justin*

*I'll remember your childhood, all the joy and tears.
I've treasured everyday of you over the years.
The baby days when you would just crawl,
The dress up sleep-overs when you were small,
The teenage years when the parties hit,
Have fun while your young and never quit.
Dream big, be proud, and keep your head held high,
Always look for the rainbows up in the sky.
My love and pride will only get stronger,
As the years go by and memories get long.*

*With love,
Mom*

Meagan, Through circumstances beyond your control, you have had to grow up very fast. You went beyond what was expected. Your actions and love have not gone unnoticed or unappreciated. As you continue to grow, bring God with you, and know we will always be there for you.

Love always, Mom, Dad, Ciana & Jonathan

Jamie,

This is really hard to write, since you are our baby, and the last one to graduate. We have watched you grow and mature throughout the years and are very proud of whom you have become. It seems like just yesterday, you were born and now we are planning your graduation. We would like to let you know how proud we are of your accomplishments in your life up to this point.

It is especially hard since what we have all been through, with the destruction that Hurricane Rita left behind in our lives. Our family has been through alot along with other families, our church, our community, and your school. It has changed our lives and it will never be the same. But God will get us through all this.

Jamie, just remember that God has plans for you, so continue to put him first in your life and let him guide you on the right path to accomplish your goals.

And always remember your family loves you and is there for you. Be happy with who you are. We are really proud of you and wish you all the happiness in the world.

We love you,

Mom & Dad, Jennifer & Amaiya, Jessica, Alli, Joshua & Chris

CONGRATS LAKEN!
WE ARE PROUD OF YOU!
