I look at your graduation pictures and I think of the baby girl I once held. Now the young woman that I adore. You have given me strength to endure. The hardship and the tears, with the heart of loving a daughter. Keep in mind no matter where you go in life my love goes with you too.

We love you.

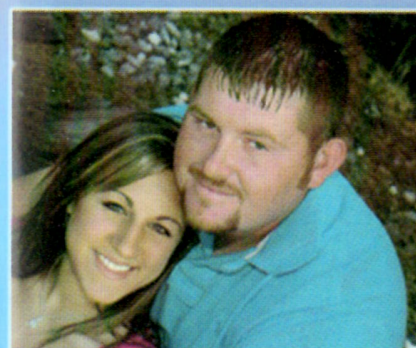

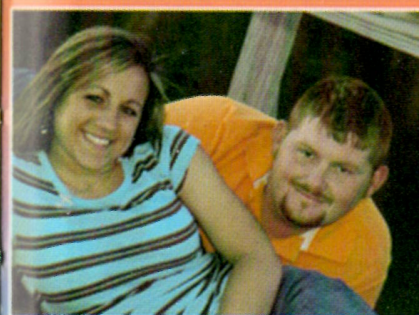

Mom, Charles Wayne and Brenlee

On Graduation Day, while you're saying "Goodbye",
Some may laugh and some may cry.
Time has passed by... so very fast.
Before we knew it, the present became the past.
New doors will soon open; fresh ideas will arise
Opportunities await you.
And your future is the prize.
Watching you grow up... throughout all the years
Brought us much joy, and cause many tears
"A beautiful woman", defines what I see.
Tomorrow only knows, what one day you could be.
Ali, you are unique; you're special through & through.
And, as time did tell, you've done so well.
We're so Very Proud of You.

Love Jason, Maw Maw & Paw Paw

Work like you don't need the money.
 Love like you have never been hurt.

A little girl in Pig-tails with eyes so big, first day of school she said "Now I'm a big kid"

Watching her pass grades one through twelve, in her hands our hearts she held.

No longer a girl in pig-tails did she say, Now a woman who'll glide across the stage.

In Cap and Gown she'll greet us all diploma in hand, standing so tall.

Proud we are of our little girl grown, our baby she'll stay even out on her own.

*We love you,
Dad, Mom, Janice, and CJ*

God has truly blessed you with unique talents and abilities and you have used his gifts extremely well. Your positive attitude, your willingness to try new things, your dedication, and your caring ways; all this shows you just how much you've done with these gifts.

We couldn't be more proud of you! Love, Mom, Ray-Ray, Myli, Daddy, Michelle, Ashley & Austin

Wow! What a woman you have become! When you were little, you were so busy that we wondered what you would be like when you grew up. Well, needless to say, the wondering is finally over. You have become the most extraordinary person we know. You've set goals for yourself and accomplished them by leaps and bounds. You wanted to be a dancer, and what a dazzler you turned out to be! God put horses in your life, and when you weren't in the barn dancing for them, you were in the arena practicing for your rodeos. What can any parent say after seeing their little girl come so far with her dreams? We are so proud of the woman you have become. You are a very talented rodeo competitor, dancer, and leader. You are a kind, caring, and wonderful daughter. You mean the world to us! Victoria, remember to dream big, and don't let anyone hold you back. The future is yours! Keep God in your life and remember to listen to his wisdom. Structure your future around the goals you've set for yourself. And remember, we will always be here to love and support you!

Congratulations!

Words can't express how proud we are of you. You were a true blessing at birth and you continue to be such an amazing young lady. I know without a doubt that you will accomplish all that you set your mind to. You have the smarts and determination to succeed. Remember positive thinking is the way for positive things to happen. We love you and will always be here for you. Also, with God all things are possible.

Love, Mom, Dad, & Alex

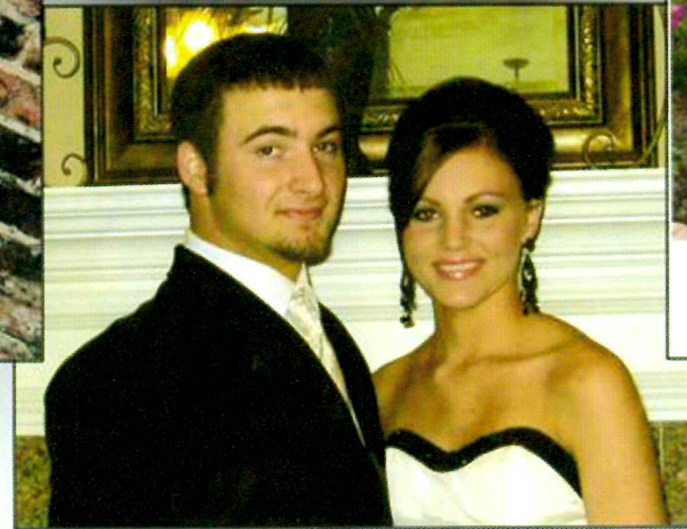

Jill, keep smiling it cost nothing, but saves much, it cannot be bought, borrowed, or stolen for it is no earthly good to any one until it is given away, it happens in a flash and the memory of it. Sometimes last forever. So keep smiling.

Grandson, there's nothing to fear- you're as good as the best,
 You can win in every battle that puts you to the test;
 You're as strong as the mightiest, and we know it too,
 For there's no one in this world just like you.

There's only one of you in the world today,
 That can do the work you do in such a fine way,
 So nobody else in this world that you see,
 You're the only you in our hearts that there'll ever be!

So face the world, and all that life offers is yours
 And you'll find life-long happiness that always endures.
 You will forever and always conquer, love, and live
 In just the measure that you always offer and give.

There's nothing too good for you to possess,
 Your power is more than belief or guess.
 Nor the heights where you cannot go:
 There will always be something you will have to know.

So, Grandson, there is nothing to fear you can and you will,
 Set your foot on the highest and the steepest hill,
 For you are the invincible you,
 And there's nothing you cannot do.

Love,
 Mom and Dad

Colby Joe

Where do we begin?

From the very beginning, we chased you around in your diapers.
 Then we began chasing you around grade school, football games, and rodeos.
 As much as you've grown over the years, some things haven't changed at all.
 We're still chasing you around at those rodeos and marveling at all of your accomplishments.
 Colby Joe, we are so proud of you! You've become a wonderful young man; fulfilling all of our expectations and more.
 Remember to keep the Lord in your heart, stay grounded, and keep that smile on your face. We love you!

Congratulations!

We are so thankful for the person you have become. It seems just yesterday you were learning to ride your bike. Now you are achieving a major milestone and you are about to embark on a new journey. We are so proud of you and your many accomplishments, but most of all, be proud of yourself and the future will be yours. Remember, your family will always be here for you, and you can always count on us for love and support.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Sabrina,
Madilyn, and
Landen

The day you were born was a beautiful day.

Sunny at home but an earthquake in L.A.

God's presence was clear and oh so sweet
A girl and a boy our family complete.

Friends and family around, a loyal crowd
Mom and Dad excited and Kay Kay so proud.

As time passed on like grains of sand,
You became Dad's helper and Mom's little man.

Elementary school, what memories, science, and grammar,
With James Carrier the climber and Brian Doxey, the hammer.

On to High School, getting tall and thin,
But growing everyday toward a vision within.

Work most days, but few to play,
Love, respect, and loyalty grew every day.

Now, that this part of your life ends,
God's hand is still upon you to start up again.

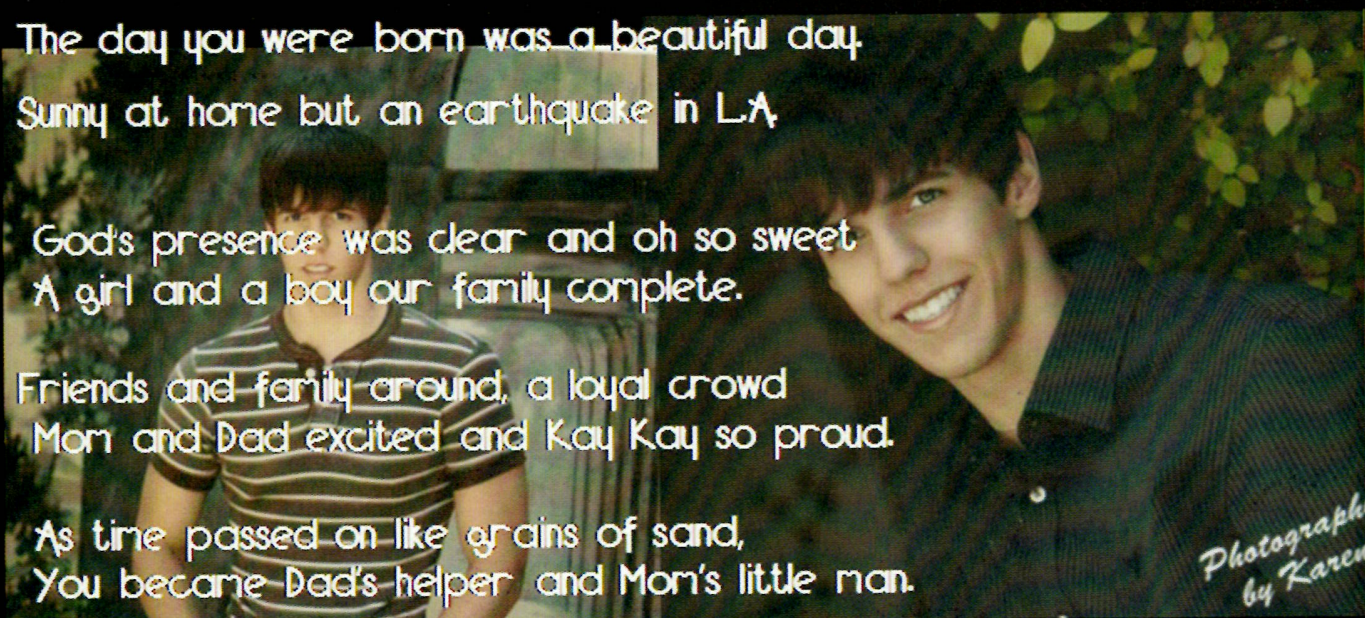

To press on as new challenges lie ahead,
Remember, work out your body, but use your head.

Now you're a MAN, tall and lean,
Little fat, most muscle, and a heart that's not mean.

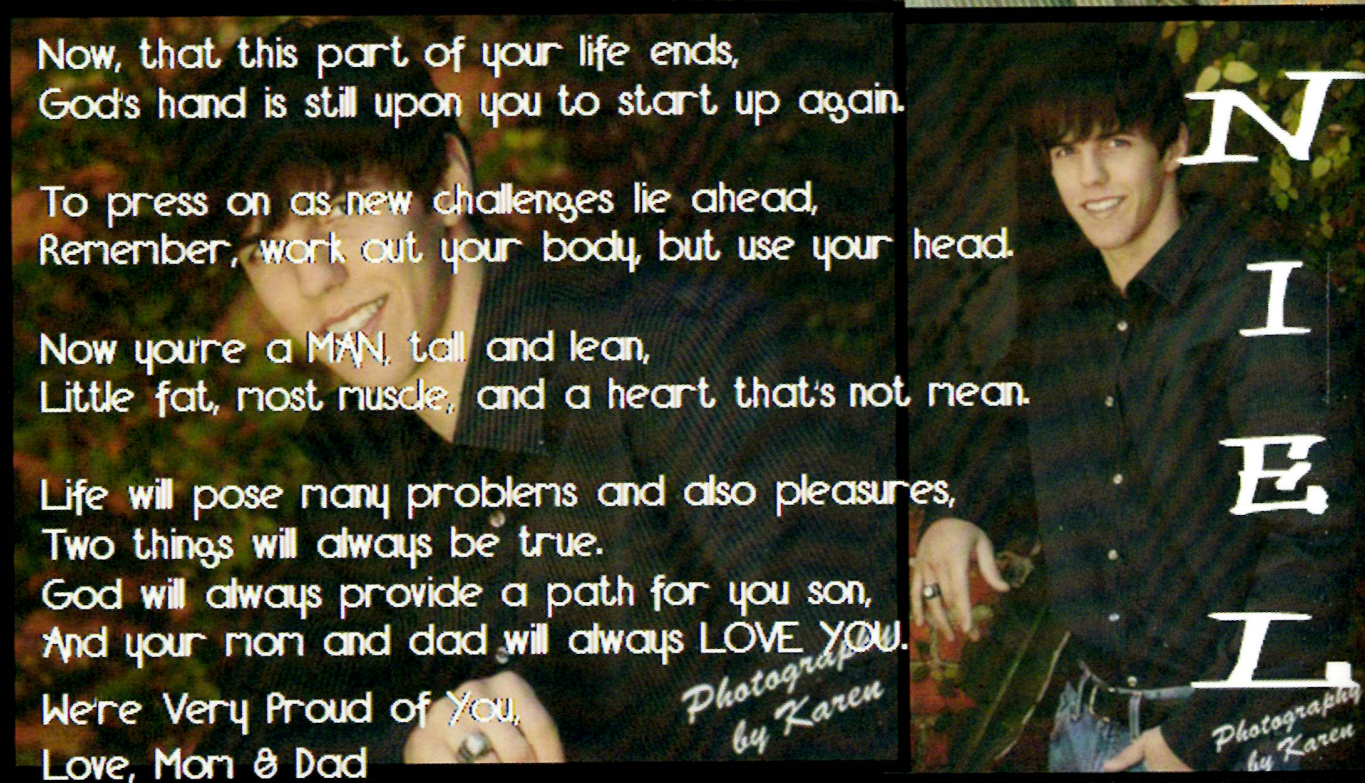

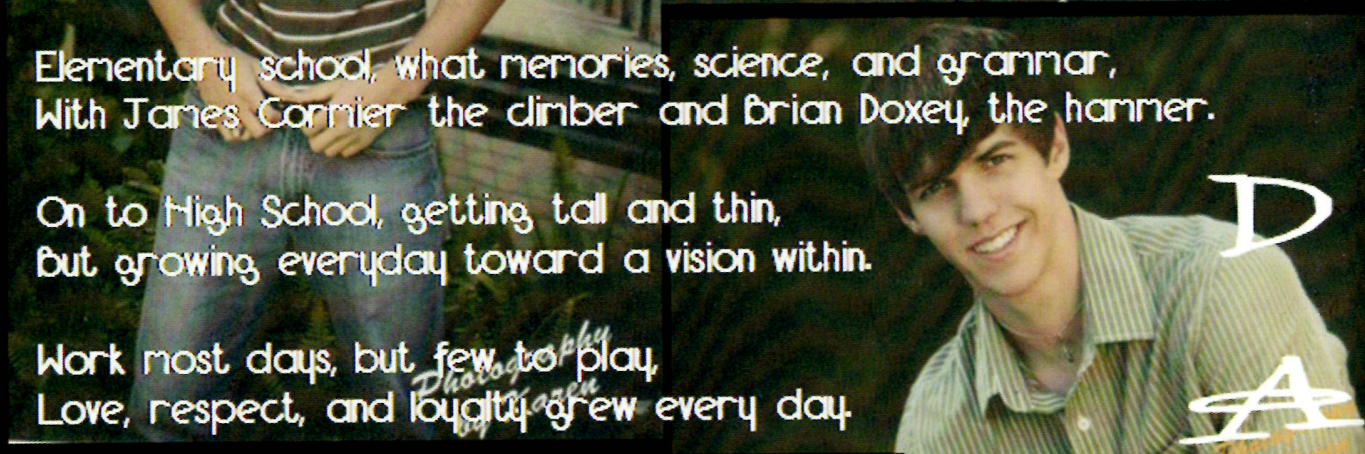

Life will pose many problems and also pleasures,
Two things will always be true.

God will always provide a path for you son,
And your mom and dad will always LOVE YOU.

We're Very Proud of You,
